ON THE COVER: Blank certificate of H. Hackfeld & Co., Ltd. stock, showing at the top the flags of the Republic of Hawaii and of the German Empire. After the company was seized by the Alien Property Custodian in 1918, it was sold to American Factors Ltd. for $194 per share. Seventeen years of bitterly contested litigation finally established that this had been a fair price for the German-owned member of Hawaii's Big Five. Original certificate in the possession of Frederick Bernays Wiener (see page 15).
