

W. O. SMITH COUNSELS ACTION

THE REPRESENTATIVE OF THE COMMERCIAL BODIES OF THE TERRITORY COUNSELS ACTION AND RECOMMENDS THE APPOINTMENT OF J. B. PRATT AS THE AGENT OF THE TERRITORY IN THE FIRE CLAIMS BOND ISSUE.

Governor Dole this morning received a cable from W. O. Smith dated at Washington, recommending the appointment of J. G. Pratt as the representative of the Territory in the matter of the issuance of the fire claims bonds. Smith's message states that it would probably greatly facilitate the issuance of the bonds if Pratt were given authority to act in the matter. Governor Dole has not decided yet what action to take in the matter, but will probably send a reply this afternoon or tomorrow. The dispatch from Smith is supposed to be the result of a conference with Pratt and others in the national capital, and is an endorsement of the position taken by Pratt in recent messages. As representative of the Territory, it is supposed, Pratt could attend to the details of the bond issue, and thus the time required for sending a representative would be saved. He might be given authority to act, by wire, to be confirmed by mail.

DOUTHITT MUST BE DEPUTY OR HE WONT PLAY

SENDS HIS RESIGNATION FROM HILO TO TAKE EFFECT ON SUNDAY UNLESS HE IS ADVANCED FROM ASSISTANT TO DEPUTY ATTORNEY GENERAL OR GIVEN $300 AND EXPENSES FOR THE HILO TERM.

Attorney General Andrews has received a letter from Assistant Deputy Attorney General E. A. Douthitt, at Hilo, giving the latter's resignation to take effect February 1, and refusing to continue as assistant, or to remain in the office at all except as deputy. Douthitt states that he would consider his resignation in effect on the first, unless advised to the contrary, and the Territory may therefore be without any representative at the Hilo term of court. Whether Douthitt would decide to prosecute in the absence of anyone else, or if he did not, whether Judge Little would turn defendants loose for want of prosecution, is what Andrews is wondering. The letter from Douthitt is as follows:

"I have learned from several sources that there is opposition to me in the way of appointment as the Deputy Attorney General. What I desire is to know whether I am to remain in the office as the Deputy Attorney General or not, as I would not accept the position of assistant. If I am not to remain as the deputy I will resign, my resignation to take effect February 1st, 1903. "If I am not to remain in the office as the deputy and if you desire me to finish the criminal calendar I will do so for $300 and all expenses; otherwise another representative will have to be sent here to finish the criminal business, which, by the way, is not only of considerable volume, but of importance as well. I sent you a wireless message this morning which explains itself. "I trust that I shall receive an immediate reply to this communication for in the absence of instructions to the contrary I shall consider my resignation as accepted and in effect on February 1, 1903. "Awaiting your reply, I am, very truly yours, "E. H. DOUTHITT."

AFTER KONA SUGAR AGAIN. Among the passengers on the steamer Mauna Loa today was H. A. Bigelow. He is going for the purpose of bringing suit before Judge Edging on a writ of replevin against the Kona Sugar Company in behalf of the Kona Orphanage. Some time ago Mrs. Baird of the Orphanage turned over some land with growing cane to the Kona Sugar Company under a lease or agreement of some character. It is now desired to secure those things as they are needed for the Orphanage.

HAS LEFT THE COMPANY. Captain W. C. W. Renny has disposed of his interest in the local stevedore company of McCabe, Hamilton and Renny and has been succeeded as general manager by Louis Marks.

BUILDING OF SCHOOLHOUSES

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT WILL TAKE WORK INSTEAD OF SCHOOL DEPARTMENT.

At the meeting of the Executive Council yesterday it was decided that the work of building schoolhouses should be transferred from the department of public instruction to the public works department. The superintendent of public works formerly handled such work, but some years ago it was placed in the educational department. Superintendent A. T. Atkinson stated that the system did not work well, and that the schoolhouse building ought to be looked after in the other department. "The public works department has in charge the supervision and construction of public buildings generally," said Superintendent Atkinson, "and it is right that that department should build the schoolhouses. While we have had charge of it here, there has been a great deal of running to and fro necessary as we had to have the assistance of the department of public works. That department has the facilities for doing such work and we have not. "Under the present arrangement we shall have our say as to plans and locations for schoolhouses, and the public works department will do the actual work in connection with building them."

THE PEOPLE OBJECT

THE ATTITUDE OF GREAT BRITAIN AND GERMANY IN THE VENEZUELAN MATTER PROVES UNPOPULAR WITH THE MASSES IN BOTH COUNTRIES—BLOCKADE OF VENEZUELA CONTINUES

Associated Press Cable to the Star. LONDON, Feb. 3.—President Castro of Venezuela is following a policy of procrastination in his dealings with the Powers, and is intentionally complicating the issues. The blockade of Venezuelan ports is continued pending an agreement as to the payment of claims and security therefor. The attitude of the British and German governments is proving very unpopular with the masses in both countries.

FRANCE'S ATTITUDE. Associated Press Cable to the Star. PARIS, Feb. 3.—It is announced that the Paris government is willing to make slight concessions in the matter of its claims against Venezuela.

ARE EXHONORATED

Associated Press Cable to the Star. WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 3.—The House has received the report of its Naval Committee which exonerates Lessler and Quigg of all complicity in the Holland submarine boat conspiracy corruption. The report accuses Doblin of having attempted to bribe Lessler on his own initiative without any solicitation of any kind from the congressman.

CIVIL WAR THREATENS HONDURAS. Associated Press Cable to the Star. WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 3.—Bonilla has been elected to the presidency of Honduras. He is organizing forces to displace the present incumbent, President Sierra, who refused to surrender the office to Bonilla. Americans are leaving and have asked for protection. The cruiser Boston has been sent to the scene of threatened revolution.

ALLIES STILL WRANGLING. Associated Press Cable to the Star. WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 3.—The representatives of the Allies are conferring with United States Minister Bowen and are hopeful of reaching a compromise in the Venezuelan matter. Negotiations at The Hague tribunal are unsuccessful so far. President Roosevelt and the Cabinet discussed the matter today but no official action by the United States has been decided upon yet.

CAMARINOS' ESTATE. An inventory in the estate of the late D. G. Camarinos was filed today by C. H. Brown, as administrator, showing that the deceased left a remarkable collection of bad bills. Among the items in the inventory is the sum of $3,489.75 in "bills receivable." In a note the administrator says that he regards only about $500 of the $3,489.75 as good. The rest will probably never be collected. "Cammy" was apparently very easy credit.

Dole's Tale Of Woe

THE UNKINDNESS THE LATE ATTORNEY GENERAL ALLEGES IN HIS LIBEL FOR DIVORCE WHICH CONSTRAINED HIM TO SEEK THE DISSOLUTION OF HIS MARITAL BONDS—HIS WIFE CALLED HIM HUMILIATING NAMES.

The Dole divorce case yesterday afternoon presented the remarkable spectacle of a suit being tried without either a complaint or the answer thereto ever finding its way on to the files of the court in the regular way. In a general effort to stand in for secrecy all the papers were suppressed, instead of being filed as other papers are. The complaint is endorsed as filed last Saturday and returned after service at 9:55 yesterday morning. The filing, however, was by no means such as to carry out the intent of the law and practice of the courts. The answer is endorsed as filed last Saturday. It never found its way into the regular file box until after the case was ended yesterday afternoon. Both complaint and answer appear to have been hidden somewhere in a backroom, under the pretense of "entering them." Under such a system there is no telling how many legal proceedings in which the public might be interested, may went their way silently through the courts, held out to oblige litigants or attorneys. The main allegations of the held-up complaint are as follows, after a statement setting forth the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Dole in San Francisco: "This plaintiff shows that at the time of the marriage herein alleged, he entertained great love and affection for said defendant, and that he was extremely desirous of her society, and that in her society he found his greatest pleasure and enjoyment; that this condition of plaintiff's feelings toward said defendant were then and there well known to said defendant; but that notwithstanding said plaintiff's then love and affection for said defendant and her knowledge thereof, said defendant from the date of said marriage up to and including the date of the filing of this libel, has persistently and consistently snubbed and avoided this plaintiff whenever she could, and ignored his wishes and affection and upon every available occasion withdrew herself from his society; and in this behalf plaintiff shows that out of the period of nearly seventeen months which has elapsed since the date of said marriage, said defendant has spent with said plaintiff and in his society, the brief period of two months and 19 days; and plaintiff shows that said acts and conduct of defendant were caused by aversion and hatred then and there harbored and entertained by said defendant against him; and this plaintiff further shows that said acts and conduct of said defendant, in this paragraph mentioned were wholly without the consent and against the wishes of plaintiff and were without any cause, justification or excuse whatever and were done and performed by said defendant with the deliberate purpose and wilful intent upon the part of said defendant to inflict, and said acts did in fact inflict, upon this plaintiff and libellant great and continued mental suffering, distress and anguish, and great impairment of and injury to the health of plaintiff to such an extent that he became incapacitated from attending to business. "This plaintiff and libellant further alleges and shows that notwithstanding his said love and affection for defendant said defendant neither felt, entertained nor harbored any love or affection or wifely kindness for him, but on the contrary felt, entertained and harbored for him a fixed and settled aversion and hatred and treated plaintiff with constant, habitual, systematic and studied insult, indignity and contempt, which made and still makes wholly impossible any hope whatever of matrimonial harmony or union between said plaintiff and said defendant; and in this behalf plaintiff shows that upon various occasions during the brief period of two months and nineteen days hereinabove referred to, said defendant openly and aversively, and with cold and forbidding demeanor and speech, declared to plaintiff the contempt, hatred and aversion which she felt and entertained for him, and without any just cause of complaint against plaintiff and without claiming to him that she had any just cause of complaint told said plaintiff that because of said contempt, aversion and hatred he was nothing to her and that she could not live with him; and in this behalf this plaintiff shows, as hereinafter more fully alleged, said defendant entirely denied to said plaintiff his marital rights; and in this behalf plaintiff further shows that ever since said marriage, until May 27, 1902, when said defendant left said plaintiff without cause, and for some time thereafter, he provided adequately for said defendant to the full extent of his ability and resources; and gave defendant about half his income as spending money and in addition thereto paid her living and a portion of her traveling expenses, but notwithstanding said adequate provision said defendant, by reason of said contempt, aversion and hatred and for no other reason, bitterly and continuously accused said plaintiff of penuriousness and reviled him for being mean with her; and in this behalf plaintiff further shows that by reason of said contempt, aversion and hatred and for no other reason said defendant constantly and unjustifiably and for no other reason than that they were plaintiff's friends, treated plaintiff's dearest, most intimate and valued friends, who were men and women of high character and social position in the community, with such indignity and contempt that it became impossible for him with propriety to introduce her to his friends and acquaintances or to strangers, or to enjoy ordinary social or friendly intercourse with others when in her company without subjecting them to insult and indignity from her, and said plaintiff was thereby isolated and debarred from all congenial social relationships and friendships, except upon the condition of leaving defendant to herself and submitting to her taunts and insults; and plaintiff shows that said acts and conduct of said defendant were caused by aversion and hatred then and there entertained by her toward him and that said aversion and hatred is still harbored and entertained by her against him; and this plaintiff further shows that said acts and conduct of said defendant, in this paragraph mentioned, were wholly without the consent and against the wishes of said plaintiff and were without any cause, justification or excuse whatever, and were done and performed by said defendant with the deliberate purpose and wilful intent upon the part of said defendant to inflict, and said acts did in fact inflict, upon this plaintiff and libellant great and continued mental suffering, distress and anguish, and great impairment of and injury to the health of plaintiff, to such an extent that he became incapacitated from attending to business. "This plaintiff and libellant further shows that ever since about two months after said marriage, said defendant and libellee frequently and without cause, provocation, excuse or justification therefor and both in plaintiff's presence and in the presence of others, called this plaintiff names

STOPPED AT PITCAIRN.

The barkentine John Palmer stopped at Pitcairn Island on her way to this port from Newcastle last month. Captain Delano says that the Pitcairn Islanders are a fine lot of people. There are only about 150 people on the island and the ratio is about three women to one man.

THE SIERRA.

COAST MAIL TOMORROW.

The S. S. Gaelic is due tomorrow morning from San Francisco with eight days later mail. She sailed on time. With the present wind behind her she may arrive off the port some time tonight. The S. S. Ventura is due tomorrow evening with a day and a half later mail than that aboard the Gaelic.

FEE FOR THE PILOT.

An additional fee of $7 a day is charged by the local government for a pilot after the first 24 hours. Captain Cameron's bill will be for about two days for his enforced presence on the ship Clarence S. Bement last week when the vessel was carried to the southward of the island by the heavy gale.

ALOHA SAILS TODAY.

The schooner Aloha finished loading sugar at Kaanapali last evening. She is scheduled to sail today for San Francisco. She will have 24,000 sacks aboard.

VESSELS HAVE ROUGH TRIPS.

The steamer W. G. Hall experienced a very rough trip on her way from Kaula Saturday night. She was constantly under water forward and a strong northeasterly gale was prevailing. The steamer Nihaui arrived from Kaula this morning with sugar. She also experienced rough weather. The steamer Claudine did not meet very rough weather coming down Sunday from Maui ports.

FINE JAIL.

Budapest has a jail with finely furnished apartments exclusively reserved for gentlemen duellists. Some time since, according to the Pester Lloyd, they were the involuntary residence of Baron Bela Aczel, who had them richly furnished. To him succeeded Leo Lancy, a deputy, and director of the Hungarian commercial bank. After dividing the "cell" into three sections—a bed-room, study and reception room—and holding social levees with a warden disguised in "buttons" to introduce the guests, he had thoughts of installing the telephone, but relinquished them, realizing that his three days' arrest would have expired before the installation could be effected. In this duellists' limbo the charges are only light and the enjoyments many.

DRAGGED BOTH ANCHORS AT HANAMAULU AND NEARLY RAN ON THE ROCKS—NOEAU RETURNS.

The steamer Ke Au Hou nearly went on the rocks at Hanamaulu last Thursday. The vessel was in that port at anchor. The gale increased in violence and the vessel dragged both anchors. She got dangerously near the rocks. There was a very high sea running. Captain Tullett got the boat under way and went to Hanalei for shelter. He had to leave Anahola also during the trip as the weather was so rough.

The steamer Noeau arrived this morning from Lahaina with all of her Hamakua freight aboard. The wireless message received yesterday to the effect that the Noeau had reached Hilo proved to be incorrect. She was unable to cross the Hawaii channel.

The weather subsided considerably yesterday but this morning the wind was blowing at quite a rapid rate from off shore. The various island steamers were busy loading freight as this is island steamer day. The Mauna Loa and Kinau got away at noon today on their regular runs. The Claudine goes to Maui ports at 5 p. m. the W. G. Hall goes to Kaula ports at the same time and the steamers Noeau goes also to Hamakua ports, the Nihaui for Hanamaulu and the Waiakale for Kilauea. The gasoline schooner Eclipse will also sail about 5 p. m. for Kamalo, Maui and Hawaii ports. The schooner Charles Levi Woodbury will sail this afternoon for Hilo. Hawaii and Maui bound vessels will have a rough time tonight.

HOW TO STOP A COUGH.

Breathing through the nostrils, inhale a full breath as slowly as is possible without causing fatigue. Expel the breath in the same manner and repeat the operation ten times. This will stop the coughing for about a quarter of an hour. Take a dose of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy during this lull and the medicine will have a better opportunity to act and will speedily effect a complete cure. It always cures and cures quickly. Important Reasons

Why Herring-Hall-Marvin Safe Co.'s Safes and Locks are the Best?

The concrete filling makes these safes absolutely Fire-Proof and positively Damp-Proof. The solid angle corners add greatly to their security in time of fire, and form the only solid corners made. The patent Bolt Work is superior to any in use and does not require the constant oiling, cleaning, and repairs that is acknowledged in other makes of safes. That although 600,000 of these safes are now in use and many thousands have been tested by some of the most disastrous conflagrations in the United States, THERE IS NOT A SINGLE INSTANCE ON RECORD WHEREIN ONE OF THEM EVER FAILED TO PRESERVE ITS CONTENTS PERFECTLY. They make safes for county treasurers, county recorders, county clerks, jewelers, Hotels, residences, churches and corporations. We have a large assortment of safes on hand and will be pleased to show same.

E. P. DOLE DIVORCED

SUIT SUPPRESSED TILL HEARING. TESTIMONY GIVEN YESTERDAY AND DECREE GRANTED.

Hon. E. P. Dole was granted a divorce yesterday afternoon by Judge De Bolt, on the ground of extreme cruelty after a hearing during which Dole was the principal witness, telling a story of domestic unhappiness lasting almost all of his married life. The suit for maintenance, brought by Mrs. Dole, was withdrawn, and the parties are supposed to have come to an agreement by which it was understood that Dole should get a divorce without being opposed, and Mrs. Dole receives a cash settlement.

According to the story told on the witness stand by E. P. Dole his wife had refused to have anything to do with his friends and had treated him most harshly almost ever since their marriage. She declared Honolulu to be a joy and missionary and said that she would not live in such a city. Dole said his life had been made a mental hell by the actions of his wife. She had repeatedly insulted him, called him stingy and advised him to make money on the side. "Anyone else in your position would make lots of money," Mrs. Dole remarked on one occasion, according to Dole's testimony, when finances were under discussion. Dole's reply was that he would live on bread and water and make her live on the same diet, rather than take a dishonest dollar, whereupon Mrs. Dole called him a fool.

According to Dole's story his wife appeared to only want to get his money and then leave him. He also declared that he believed he was in danger from her. When he was about to return to Washington a year ago he and Secretary Cooper received some kind of warning that his life would not be safe. E. M. Watson, counsel for Mrs. Dole, objected when Dole began this statement and J. J. Dunne agreed that it be stricken out. The ex-attorney general stated that when Mrs. Dole returned from San Francisco she refused to kiss him, and when he asked her if she wasn't going to kiss her husband after her long absence, she said "I don't kiss people."

"I didn't come back here to live with you," said Mrs. Dole, when she got to the hotel, according to her husband's testimony, "but to tell you some things I didn't want to put in writing." She also said, "We'll have a divorce. We'll arrange it tomorrow. Which one of us shall bring the suit? How much are you going to give me? What settlement will you make?" One evening Dole came home and found his wife asleep on the bed. Not wishing to disturb her he took a pillow and lay down on the floor to take a nap. Soon she woke and he heard her angrily tell him to get up from the floor. He paid no attention, but pretended to be asleep. "Soon I apparently awoke and I got up," said Dole, "not wishing to have any words."

On another occasion Mrs. Dole referred in scolding terms to some of her husband's dearest friends, calling them the scum of the earth and declaring that she would tread such people under foot like dirt. They were within hearing, and left the hotel rather than stay in the same place with her. This scene occurred at midnight. When Dole spoke up for his friends his wife called him a cur for defending such people, and on various occasions she called him a fool, a dog, a beast, a dirty dog and a cur. Dole said that his wife's conduct had so affected his health that he could not attend to business. "For months I had only an hour or two sleep out of every four," he said. "I used to walk the floor most of the night. I tried to play cards, or anything, to get a rest for my mind, and I couldn't remember even what was trumps. I was not able to do my work. When questions were put to me I was actually afraid to attempt to answer, for fear that I might do so wrongly. Finally on the advice of my physician I took a vacation and got some sleep."

Mrs. Dole had also called her husband a liar. This was when he had told her of the value of some relics which she had thrown away and called trash, after he had presented them to her. He responded with "The Dole's don't lie" and she contemptuously responded "Yes, the Dole's don't lie." In comment upon this piece of cruelty Dole said "A friend could not have hurt me more by sticking a knife into my body."

The plaintiff testified that Mrs. Dole objected to his trousers and his coats and declared that he had no style and that she was not accustomed to associating with such men. She strenuously objected to a will which he made, because he left a few personal effects to his son, though all the property was left to her. She wanted him to give it to her at once. "I didn't know at that time that she wanted to get all my property and then leave me," Dole began, but Watson objected to such testimony and it was stopped. The ill treatment began on the steamer that brought Dole and his bride to Honolulu, he said. She refused to associate with him then, to such an extent that it excited comment on the steamer, "and it was a subject of comment in San Francisco papers," said Dole.

"After we arrived I said to her 'Neil, I only want to make you happy. If there is any higher power I want to invoke its aid to make our marriage a success and make your life happy. Let us kneel down and pray for assistance to make it so.' She said 'You can pray if you want to, I am going to sleep,' and she lay down in bed and turned her back to me." A deposition by Mrs. Este, to the effect that she had witnessed some of Mrs. Dole's contemptuous treatment of her husband, was introduced, and Judge Stanley gave similar testimony. There was practically no cross-examination, and no evidence was offered to refute that given by Dole. Judge De Bolt said that a case of cruelty had been proven, and he granted a divorce as prayed for.

TAKING UP BONDS. Treasurer Kepoikal will take up $38,000 of the bonds issued in 1896, and held by the Hawaiian Trust and Investment Company. BUSINESS NOT DIPLOMACY.

The fire claims bill is not the first act congress has passed appropriating money for, or enabling some municipal or other organization to secure money by bond issues or some other means, under regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury or some other official.

But in none of these cases was the real initiative taken by the Secretary. The real initiative was taken by the organization interested and to be benefited.

Of course all this was done, not in an officious nor offensive manner, but tactfully and openly, as any party with whom the government is openly dealing, might and should do.

The territory of Hawaii is in exactly the same position that these organizations mentioned, and others, have been. It is up to us to act in the same business-like way that they did.

This matter is business, it is not diplomacy nor officialism. It would indeed be a matter for odious comparison, if J. B. Pratt in a year's work could get congress to give us a present of a million dollars, while it took the Governor a year's waiting to get it out of the treasury.

In the vernacular of the vulgar, what the Allies need to wake them up is a good swift kick.

How to be happy though married—wear a clean collar every day and work overtime drawing champagne corks.

So Honolulu is a "juy" town. What an awful blow this must be to the local sports who have been blowing their good money against any old thing that came along.

If it is possible to bring legal actions in the first circuit court and have them partially tried without the papers ever being filed, it is time to find out how it is done.

The battle for commercial supremacy is very likely to end in the battle of the battleships. The United States is very wisely building a few, and the best part of it is she has the "bullets" to fight them.

What is the matter with the Japanese hack driver that there are so few runaway accidents reported now? Has the rapid transit put him out of business. If such be the case, the company builded better than it knew.

Now that the agitation in favor of the harbor entrance and channel being kept clear at night had been inaugurated, it would be an excellent idea for the government to increase the size of the present harbor lights and also elevate them.

Judge De Bolt's charge to the grand jury differs from many others in that it instructs the jurors to allow testimony in favor of persons accused as well as against them, and to call for such testimony when there is reason to believe that it exists. This is common sense and justice.

Those who judge the actions of men from the low standard of commercialism cannot appreciate the noble christian spirit that has actuated some of the saloons to reduce the price of drinks.

the saloon men in coming forward to help the poor drinker acquire the usual jug? It was the tempering of the wind to the shorn lamb.

The cable company need not worry about Marconi. When the inventor succeeds in establishing wireless communication across the ocean, the cable can be used as a telephone wire.

The Star's recent remarks concerning secret land deals are repeated with interest in the following portion of an Advertiser interview with Hon. Jared Smith, of the federal agricultural station:

"Let me emphasize the matter of publicity. Lands for sale should be made known here and on the mainland, and the people given a chance to buy. From what I hear there are too many secret and dummy transfers. The amount of skulduggery I hear of in my travels about the islands would amaze you."

The current reports Mr. Smith describes are undoubtedly responsible to a large extent for the Mitchell commission's views, regarding our public lands. As the Advertiser says:

"All the Advertiser asks is a trial of the recognized American method of settling settlers and of building commonwealths. The Territorial method is a failure. How much of a failure it is, how many things have been done in secret which would not bear publicity, how far land has been disposed of to favorites and to natives who do not pretend to comply with the conditions, is another story which we may feel called upon to tell. It is enough to say that the Territory will lose control of public lands unless it develops them in the traditional American way."

On last Saturday the Star published an interview with George J. Kavanaugh, who was returning by the steamship China from several months spent in China. He told how arms and ammunition were being shipped in to southern China and distributed throughout the southern and southeastern provinces.

"This plaintiff further shows that ever since about six weeks after said marriage, save and except a brief period in the month of May, 1902, said defendant and libellee persistently and continuously, and without any cause, provocation, justification or excuse therefor, absolutely refused to have reasonable, or any, matrimonial intercourse with this plaintiff, to his wholly denied him his marital rights."

The complaint further sets forth that the proceeding is begun a year after plaintiff's discovery of the "absolute impossibility of any hope whatever of matrimonial harmony or union," and that as attorney general, Dole "was and is charged with important duties and grave responsibilities and that the said acts and conduct of said defendant and libellee and the humiliation and suffering resulting therefrom have incapacitated him from the discharge of his public duties, have deprived him at times of natural sleep, have at times wholly destroyed his appetite for food, have threatened eventually to break down completely his health and constitution, have brought him to the verge of complete collapse, have made his life a heavy and weary burden to him, and have inflicted upon him far worse suffering than could be inflicted by any merely physical torture; and said plaintiff and libellant further shows that the aforesaid acts and conduct of the said defendant have caused him such distress and injury both to mind and body, and have so impaired his health" that he was compelled to relinquish the said duties.

POLICE SCANDAL ON GARDEN ISLE

ALLEGED CROOKEDNESS WHICH THE NEXT KAUII GRAND JURY WILL INVESTIGATE.

A scandal is brewing in connection with the police department on the island of Kauai, and the next Kauai Grand Jury will have much to investigate. Deputy Sheriff Crowell has been suspended, on account of alleged charges against him with regard to the disposition of bail money and Sheriff Coney is alleged to have received the sum of $100 from a Chinese merchant who is trying to collect it back, as a bribe to let gamblers alone.

It is said that there are other sensational charges coming and that the grand jury will be given a lot of evidence. Deputy Assessor Brandt arrived in Honolulu on a recent steamer and it is said to be a part of his mission to bring about a thorough investigation of alleged rottenness in the Kauai police administration.

In a report to Attorney General Dole, High Sheriff Brown expressed the opinion that there was no criminal intent on the part of Crowell, but that he had erred in his method of accounting for cash. Brown went to Kauai recently to investigate. As to Coney, Brown states that he borrowed the sum of $1,000 from the Chinese said to have bribed him and has paid $750 back. The Chinese made the loan and when he found it did not cause the police to allow gambling, made a summary demand for its return, according to Brown.

STEEL NAVAL FURNITURE.
Steel furniture is being introduced throughout the cruiser Baltimore, which is being reconstructed at the New York navy yard. This almost completely does away with wood, greatly reducing the danger of fire and injury from splinters in time of action. Naval Constructor Washington L. Gage, who is directing the work, has proved by elaborate experiments that virtually all the furniture required for a warship can be made of steel, and if its use in the Baltimore fulfills his expectations it will doubtless eventually be installed in the other vessels of the navy. The use of wood inflicting ships has become more and more dangerous with improved ordnance. Asbestos casing in quarters is now largely used. The steel furniture for the Baltimore will cost about $30,000, which is at present three times the costs of an outfit of wood, but if allowance be made for durability and the decrease of danger it is clear that the use of metal is by far the cheaper.

AN ODD CUSTOM.
At sales of pedigree cattle in England the auctioneer, instead of using a hammer only, has beside him an hour glass, or rather a minute glass. This is used to indicate when the limit of time for another bid has elapsed. "The sale will be held by the old-fashioned rule of the hour glass" is the familiar cry of the auctioneer's preliminary orations before disposing of the herd about to be sold. "The glass runs, gentlemen" he says, "the glass runs, as bids grow slack. 'Going, going, the glass is running out. Gone! Who is the lucky man?'"

JAPANESE ARMY.
Japan has nearly trebled the strength of its army within the past ten years and now has a total of 669,960 officers and men. This is about 3 per 1,000 of population. France takes for the army 15 per 1,000, Germany 10 and Russia 6. The cost per man is about one-half the cost of the German soldier and two-thirds that of the Russian soldier.

AS THROUGH A GLASS.
It is related that a youthful Scotchman once saw in a shop window, as he was going to school, the new romance of Sir Walter Scott's "Waverley" lying open at the first page. The schoolboy stopped to read it through the glass and his eager absorption so took the fancy of the bookseller that each day as he passed the pages were turned for him in the shop and he was thus enabled to read the whole story without touching a leaf of the book.

HIS-PART OF IT.
Gen. Grant always yielded in a sort of whimsical way to his wife's domination of himself and his affairs. The "family" ran the household as it pleased, without much reference to Gen. Grant's predilections. Once at the railway station in Galena he called the attention of a friend to a truckload of trunks ready for shipment, and said: "You see that pile?" "That is the Grant baggage. Do you see that little black valise away up on top? That's mine."

COMMITTEE WONT "BUTT IN"

PARTY LEADERS DECIDE TO LEAVE MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATURE TO CAUCUS ALONE.

Senators and Representatives who are in Honolulu have been notified that there will be a caucus this evening at the Republican headquarters to discuss the county government act and other proposed legislation. The members of the central and executive committees have not been invited to attend and the legislators will meet alone.

The reason that the members of the committee stay out is found in current reports which state that some of the members of the house and senate thought the party leaders were "butting in" too much. These members of the legislature thought that as they had been elected to make laws, it was a possibility that some of the legislators might think they were butting in, however, it was decided that the members of the committee should leave the legislators to themselves.

The Republican senators are representatives in Honolulu and who are expected to attend the caucus this evening, are: Senators Dickey, McCandless, Isenberg, Achi, Crabbe, Cecil Brown, Representatives W. J. Wright, W. Aylett, F. Andrade, S. F. Chillingworth, W. W. Harris, Jonah Kumulua, C. A. Long, Henry Vida, S. Kallinoh, C. H. Pulaa, S. E. Kelama.

SERRA DELAYED BY BAD WEATHER

HAD TO REMAIN OVER TWENTY HOURS IN AUCKLAND OWING TO NORTHEAST GALES.

The S. S. Sierra arrived off the port this morning shortly after 11 o'clock a few hours behind time from the south. The vessel experienced very bad weather throughout her entire trip. She left Sydney January 19, and ran into bad weather. At Auckland the vessel had to remain over 20 hours in port until the north east gales would abate. She sailed from Auckland January 24 and arrived at Pago Pago, January 27. Bad weather was also experienced on that part of the trip. Rough weather was met with to Fanning Island as well from Fanning Island to port. She sailed from Fanning January 31. The actual steaming time from Sydney to port was 35 days, 18 hours and 26 minutes. The vessel was under water during the entire trip. She has a large list of passengers for San Francisco and landed several passengers at Honolulu.

Sir Lewis A. Beaumont who was in command of the British Australian naval squadron for some years and was relieved recently in en route home in company with his wife and attendants. Eugene Sandow the famous strong man is also a through passenger. He is accompanied by his wife. A number of passengers will depart on the vessel from this port. She is scheduled to sail at 7 p. m. today for San Francisco.

SHE OUGHT TO.
"She belongs to the 400, doesn't she?" "Well, she ought to by this time. She has married three of them."—Life.

ANIMAL SHORT CIRCUITS.
Animals are a source of great annoyance and some loss to the operators of overhead electric-power transmission lines, which are short-circuited by the contact of their bodies with wires of opposite polarity. In Mexico, ring-tailed monkeys and parrots give much trouble. In some forest regions bears have mistaken the humming of the wires for concealed hives of wild bees and have tried the poles to get at the supposed store of hidden sweets. An owl short-circuited a power line at Anaheim, southern California and a pair of combative eagles committed hari-kari and temporarily disabled a Fresno power line which they selected as the scene of conflict. At Trenton Falls, N. Y., a heron alighted on the line and placing one claw on each wire, made himself a burnt offering and broke the current. Fishhawks give trouble along the New Jersey coast by selecting the wires as a foundation for their nests, and a cat upset the Niagara Falls power transmission line passing through Lookport, N. Y., by seeking refuge up one of the poles to escape from a dog.—San Francisco Chronicle.

A CONTENTED WOMAN.

Aside from form or features, she has an attractiveness all her own. The bloom on her cheek, the elasticity in her step, the ring of her voice, her enjoyment of life—all these are magnets which draw others to her side. Wonderful and valuable as it is, health is not so difficult a thing to obtain as some discouraged ones think. Most of the troubles of women arise from impure blood, impaired nutrition, low vitality and general debility. Modern science furnishes the most successful remedies for these conditions, namely

WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION.

It is palatable as honey and contains the nutritive and catuative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and the Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. Taken before meals it improves the appetite, makes fat, restores vitality, enriches the blood and cures those weaknesses peculiar to the sex, which are the seat of their troubles. It is a blessing to Tired Wives, Nursing Mothers and Girls growing into womanhood. It colours the pale faces and rounds out the hollow chests. In a word, it nourishes and develops the entire body, and brings happy surprises to feeble, hopeless and discouraged sufferers. Dr. E. J. Boyes says: "I have found it a preparation of great merit. In a recent case a patient gained nearly twenty pounds in two month's treatment, in which it was the principal remedial agent." It is the typical medicinal success of our age, for time has proved our claims are supported by results, and a remedy which acts in harmony with nature's own efforts and processes. No demand has been made upon it for relief and cure, that has not met with instant response. Effective from the first dose. "You cannot be disappointed in it." At chemists.

THE QUESTION AMONG MANY

People who save in whether the financial institution in which they deposit is safe or not. For information of many who probably do not know, we submit an extract from the by-laws, charter, etc., of the Phoenix Savings.

"One hundred thousand dollars of the Capital Stock of the Association is set aside as reserve fund stock, which is a nonwithdrawal permanent capital and guarantees to the holders of all other classes of stock that the Association will comply with the contracts made between itself and shareholders.

All real estate acquired by the Association under foreclosure will be assumed by the Reserve fund stock, and any loss occasioned by such foreclosure will be charged to said stock, thus protecting shareholders of other classes from possible loss."

We also submit a clause which is in every certificate and bond that we issue as follows, "In addition to the other assets the entire reserve fund capital stock guarantees the faithful performance of this contract on the part of the Phoenix Savings Buildings and Loan Association."

We also submit a list of the people who compose the Managers, directors and reserve fund stockholders of the Phoenix Savings Building and Loan Association.

All of this is for your careful consideration whether you are saving money or not. If you are not saving money you should do so.

We accept from $3 per month paid monthly up to $10.00 paid at one time. Would you not be satisfied to have the men whose names appear below land-ling your money side by side with their own and the reserve fund in addition guaranteeing you against loss? The reserve fund is worth over $155,000.00 at the present time.

VICTIM OF THE PUNTERS.

Mr. Carter Glass, the able and aggressive new Representative from the Lynchburg (Va.) district, has not escaped the punsters. The clerks at the desk of the House are the perpetrators. The roll was called the other day on Mr. Richardson's motion to recommit the Philippine tariff bill with instructions.

"Mr. Glass," called the reading clerk. "Aye" answered Mr. Glass, quickly, with a pronunciation like "eye."
"Aye," repeated another of the clerks for the instruction of the tally man.
"That's wrong," exclaimed another clerk. "There is not a glass eye in the House."—Washington Post.

No Strength

Are you easily tired? Is your work a burden? Do you often feel weak and faint? Is your appetite poor? Are you easily discouraged? Then your nerves are weak and your blood impure. Sickness is not far away.

Mr. Frederick DeWitt, of Clarendon, Cape Colony, South Africa, sends his photograph and this letter:
"My blood often becomes impure, causing eruptions on the skin, and my general system gets all run down, causing indigestion and great debility. But I take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which quickly brings me out of my troubles. For all those who are debilitated and weakened by the long, hot summers of our country, there is no remedy equal to this grand family medicine."

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

There are many imitations "Sarsaparillas." Be sure you get Ayer's.
Always keep your bowels in good condition with Ayer's Pills. They are purely vegetable, and on the liver, and cure constipation, biliousness, sick headache, and all liver troubles.

Hawaii Present and Future

From the Springfield Republican.
No very reassuring picture of conditions in the Hawaiian Islands is to be found in the report of the United States Senate subcommittee on the Pacific Islands. Enough time has already elapsed since the annexation in the summer of 1898 to prove that the most enthusiastic hopes of the annexationists, both in the islands and in this country, are fading away before the realities of the situation; and it is altogether probable that nine Americans in 10 at the present day would admit that Hawaii is of no value to the United States except in so far as it is desirable to control the military possibilities arising from the peculiar geographical position of the little archipelago. And that control might have been secured in a way not involving annexation.

In an industrial sense Hawaii has not prospered since annexation so much as it did before that event. Nothing in the Senate committee's report is more striking than the declaration by Senator Burton of Kansas concerning the economic condition of the territory. Although the senator's language has already been reported in our news columns, it is worth considering again. "It is a well-known fact," he writes, "that the country over there was very prosperous when it was a kingdom, and continued very prosperous under the provisional government and under the republic. Its period of decline began with annexation, and matters have gone on under annexation from bad to worse until today the specter of hard times is found everywhere throughout the islands." Senator Burton's object is to prove the necessity for Chinese labor in the islands, but, whatever his object, he is undoubtedly correct as to the facts in Hawaii's economic condition. The native population may be as well off as it was 5 or 10 years ago, but the white planter, who is the whole of Hawaii in the economic sense, has reason to be bitterly disappointed in the results of his campaign for annexation to the United States.

Nor is the economic future so promising as might have been anticipated. It is not agreeable to emphasize facts of a pessimistic nature, yet the situation may as well be examined with the single desire to reach the truth. The labor question must remain in Hawaii very troublesome, and without an abundant supply of efficient field labor Hawaii cannot hope to compete, as a big plantation, with many other tropical or sub-tropical communities. The islands are unfortunate, in an industrial sense, that a native supply of labor cannot be depended upon. The native Hawaiian race was struck as by a curse when western civilization was forced upon it. The introduction of wooden houses in place of the ancient, well-ventilated grass huts, and of head-to-foot clothing in place of the traditional semi-nudity, was responsible for the destruction of more than half the people, whose delicate physique had been finely adjusted by natural selection to semi-tropical, mid-ocean conditions. The vices of the white sailor have completed the ruin of the native stock, and their steadily diminishing numbers point to their early extinction. The labor problem in Hawaii, therefore, is different from that in the Philippines in that alien labor of some sort has come to be a sheer necessity to the high degree of economic cultivation which modern sugar planting involves. The Portuguese, Japanese and Chinese had been, indeed, so much employed at the time of annexation that the islands had come to be unmistakably dependent upon other countries in this particular; and the only practical question remaining was whether the imported labor should be of one race or another.

The cry now is for Chinese labor, such as was employed in the days before annexation. However necessary or desirable such labor may be in a deformed and abnormal community like Hawaii, the difficulty in the way of securing it is formidable. If Chinese labor be granted to Hawaii, it must be against the desires of the Pacific coast states of America. Then, too, such a concession to the Hawaiian capitalists would probably involve the same concession to the capitalists in the Philippines, and the introduction of Chinese labor into the more distant archipelago should be strongly opposed, because it is our moral duty to save to the harder Filipino people their own labor market, and thus afford them the fullest opportunity to develop naturally and completely as a racial stock and a distinct nationality. Yet even Chinese labor, if obtained, would not insure Hawaii against adversity in the future. The good old days, when practically alone, of all tropical lands, Hawaii enjoyed special favors in the markets of the United States have apparently gone forever. The Hawaiian planter must now compete with the Porto Rican and to a greater degree than before with the Cuban. The West Indian planter will have the advantage over the Hawaiian in freight rates, for Cuba is not 3000 miles from this country. The economic distress of Jamaica during the period when England was importing the cheap bounty-fed beet sugar of continental Europe, and the cane product of various tropical countries, may be reserved for Hawaii if ever Cuba, with its vast sugar-growing capacity, secures an absolutely free entrance to the American market.

While this economic question is, perhaps, the most important one in the Hawaiian estimation, the annexation has had in its train various questions of government which are of much interest to ourselves. The dangers of white rule over alien races are sharply illustrated in the surprising series of recent defalcations by seven or eight different Hawaiian officials—described by the Senate committee as "a perfect saturnalia." The defaulters were not native Hawaiians or men of Spanish, Portuguese or half-breed stock. They were apparently of American extraction, and they held office under so excellent a man as Gov. Dole. The whole form of Hawaiian government, it appears, displeases the senatorial inquisitors, who condemn it as scarcely different in its high degree of centralization from that of the old monarchy itself. At this point may be observed the sharp antagonism of two schools of political thought. The white men of Hawaii, representing at least a generation of residence in the islands, favor a form of absolute, centralized government, very similar to the British crown colony system. On the other hand are those who demand that the government shall be more popular than Congress made it in enacting the territorial law. The Senate subcommittee evidently casts its influence with the class last mentioned, for it declares that the people may revolt if they are not granted more real power in the government of the islands. Out of this complicated situation much or anything may come.

The Pala Plantation mill made a record run last week, turning out over 350 tons.—Maui News.

A QUESTION OF COUNTIES.

So Hamakua will come into Hilo county after all if the bill framed by the Republicans comes to the Legislature. And why shouldn't it? The journey to Waimea is over rougher roads than exist between Honokaa and Hilo, and the railroad, if one is ever built will be in operation between Hilo and Hamakua long before it will be beyond. Some day there may be grounds for re-arrangement and Hamakua may be a county in itself and then the question of taxation will be more serious than if that district were a portion of Hilo county. Then with Honokaa as a municipality there would be taxes galore for the residents to pay. Honokaa will be best served by coming under the wing of Hilo.—The Hawaii Herald.

IN THE POLICE COURT.

Leonard Mitchell a colored man was committed to the circuit court Monday morning by Judge Wilcox to answer to the charge of embezzlement. The defendant is accused of having received $4 from a man with which to pay his water rates and appropriating the money to his own use. A number of sailors got into a row Sunday night in front of the Owl lunch parlor and were arrested. Two of them were fined $5 each, one forfeited bail and the other was reprimanded and discharged. Officer Duncan arrested seven men Sunday on one of the wharves on a charge of gambling or being present where gambling was in progress. Three of the defendants forfeited bail and the rest were fined $5 each. George Sniffen was fined $10 by Judge Wilcox yesterday for heedlessly driving a horse and vehicle which knocked down and ran over Detective William Garcia on King street last night.

HAS A CHIP ON HIS SHOULDER. It is hardly possible that the emperor of Germany meditates any such enterprise as that undertaken forty years ago by an emperor of the French, but ever since his navy reached a formidable size he seems to have had a chip on his shoulder in all situations where his sea power could be brought into play. The evident desire of German naval officers to interfere when our ships were blockading Manila has not been forgotten in this country, and the emperor's address to his soldiers, just before their departure to China, counselling them to make the German name so feared by China's inhabitants that the lesson taught would not be forgotten in a hundred years seems to indicate the settled policy he wishes to pursue whenever opportunity offers.

W. C. Achi by the last steamer, received a potato grown on his land in Kona which weighed 38 pounds. It was an enormous tuber as big as a peck measure. Even this enormous weight was less than the potato weighed originally as when Mr. Achi received it, rats had gnawed at it.

DISCUSSED THE PRICE OF DRINKS

SALOOMEN DECIDE THAT HONOLULU TASTES ARE TOO EXPENSIVE TO BE SERVED FOR A BIT.

Honolulu may be on the eve of a drink rate war, as a result of the cut in prices by the Hawaiian hotel and Annex, to 12 1/2 cents per drink. The retail liquor dealers of Honolulu held a meeting this morning in the Waverly block, at which it was unanimously decided that the price should remain 25 cents, but it is said that Col. Macfarlane may carry the war into the camp of his competitors by securing a downtown place and cutting there, in order to force a general cut.

The reason for the cut is stated to have been that Manager Lake of the Young building hotel, was understood to be about to open his place on the "American" basis. Col. Macfarlane and Manager Willis of the Hawaiian decided to forestall such a move and therefore made the cut, which they would have had to meet, at once.

At the meeting this morning there was some discussion of the possible danger of action by the federal authorities, in the event of a combination to keep up the price. Yesterday two saloons met the hotel's cut, but both restored the old rates during the day and now all are on the same basis. As it was felt that concerted action might lay the dealers open to prosecution as forming a "trust" in restraint of trade, there was no formal action this morning. It is the general understanding, however, that no one of the retail dealers will cut rates.

Col. C. J. McCarthy of the Criterion gave as a reason for the decision not to cut that expenses of saloons were too high in Honolulu. "There is no city in America," he said, "where the same high standard of liquor is served as in Honolulu, where the most expensive brands are served over the bars. Expensive mineral waters are given, free, with them. Rents are high, and so are wages. A cut to twelve and a half cents a drink would simply ruin a considerable number of places."

DRESS REHEARSAL.
There will be a dress rehearsal of Maritana at the Opera House this evening. All the costumes to be worn at the public production of the piece on Thursday and Saturday evenings, will be worn at the rehearsal tonight. This is the last rehearsal before the public presentation. Every member of the company is expected to be present tonight. The prospects for the opening night, both financially and artistically are very flattering.

THE PASSION PLAY.
Lecture on the Subject for Associated Charities.

There will be a lecture at the Hawaiian Opera House, Friday evening February 13, under the auspices of the three Masonic lodges of Honolulu for the benefit of the Associated Charities. The lecturer will be Dr. William C. Wile resident of Danbury, Connecticut. His lecture is on the Oberammergau Passion play. Dr. Wile with his wife is traveling around the world.
Dr. Wile has 50 slides from pictures taken by himself. One of his pictures bears the autograph of Lange, the man who takes the part of the savior.
Dr. Wile is a thirty-second degree Scottish rite mason. He was formerly Surgeon General of the Grand Army of the Republic. He has been vice president of the American Medical Association. He is the editor of the New England Medical Monthly.

THE JESSIE FREMONT LEGEND.
Old Senator Benton of Missouri was violently opposed to the marriage of his daughter Jessie to John C. Fremont. He threw every possible obstacle in the way, but his arguments, pleadings and threats were alike useless. After her marriage Mrs. Fremont often told the story of how her father, powerless but not reconciled, went to the newspaper office and handed in a notice announcing the marriage of "Jessie Benton and John C. Fremont" and how, when his attention was called to the fact that he had reversed the usual form he banged his fist down and cried: "D— it, sir; it will go in that way or not at all. John C. Fremont did not marry my daughter; she married him."

Safe to Take

WE HAVE PERFECT CONFIDENCE IN THIS WONDERFUL REMEDY WHICH WE CALL HEAD-EASE FOR THE CURE OF ALL HEADACHES. IT IS UNLIKE OTHER REMEDIES WHICH ARE SOLD FOR THIS COMPLAINT FOR IT CONTAINS NO OPIUM, MORPHINE OR OTHER DANGEROUS DRUGS WHICH DO FAR MORE HARM THAN GOOD. THESE POWDERS PRODUCE NO UNPLEASANT EFFECTS; THEY DO NOT IRRITATE THE STOMACH, NOR CAUSE ANY DISTURBANCE IN THE SYSTEM. THEY WILL RELIEVE THE MOST SEVERE HEADACHE IN A FEW MINUTES. THERE IS NOT THE LEAST REASON WHY YOU SHOULD SUFFER WITH HEADACHE WHEN YOU GET THIS REMEDY THAT WILL CURE IT. INSIST ON HAVING THE GENUINE HEAD-EASE POWDERS AND LOOK FOR THE PICTURE OF CHILD WITH BANDAGED HEAD.

Many dollars are turned away annually by The Star in rejecting offensive and improper advertisements offered for insertion in its columns.

This is a cogent reason why The Star's advertising columns are so generally used and so widely read.
