NOTICE.
Having leased the TRAINING STABLES
from H. J. Agnew, at Kapiolani Park, I am now prepared to take horses to train, and prepare them for the coming Fair on the 11th of June next.

Breaking and Educating Young Horses
a specialty.

It is a point of importance to all owners of fine young colts not to have them jammed or hammered over the hard roads, and to get them properly handled for the first lessons are the ones that make the horse.

Also in connection with my Training Stables, I will serve a certain number of choice mares with my Young Hambeltonian Stallion "APTOS CHIEF."
He was sired by Electioneer, owned by Gov. Stanford. The sire of Electioneer was Bladock's Hambletonian. The dam of Aptos Chief was sired by Speculation; he by Risdick's Hambletonian—so it will be seen that Aptos is an in-bred of Hambletonian.

Terms for service of Aptos Chief, $50 for the season, payable at the time of service; and all mares failing to be with foal will have the service of the horse the next season free of charge.

WHAT IS THIS DISEASE THAT IS COMING UPON US?

Like a thief at night it steals in upon us unawares. Many persons have pains about the chest and sides, and sometimes in the back. They feel dull and sleepy; the mouth has a bad taste, especially in the morning. A sort of sticky slime collects about the teeth. The appetite is poor. There is a feeling like a heavy load on the stomach; sometimes a faint all-gone sensation at the pit of the stomach which food does not satisfy.
The eyes are sunken, the hands and feet become cold and feel clammy. After a while a cough sets in at first dry, but after a few months it is attended with a greenish coloured expectoration. The afflicted one feels tired all the while, and sleep does not seem to afford any rest.
After a time he becomes nervous, irritable, and gloomy, and has evil forebodings. There is a giddiness, a sort of whirling sensation in the head when rising up suddenly. The bowels become costive; the skin is dry and hot at times;
the blood becomes thick and stagnant;
the whites of the eyes become tinged with yellow, the urine is scanty and high-coloured, depositing a sediment after standing. There is frequently a spitting up of the food, sometimes with a sour taste, and sometimes with a sweetish paste; this is frequently attended with palpitation of the heart; the vision becomes impaired with spots before the eyes; there is a feeling of great prostration and weakness. All of these symptoms are in turn present. It is thought that nearly one-third of our population has this disease in some of its varied forms. It has been found that medical men have mistaken the nature of this disease. Some have treated it for a liver complaint, others for kidney disease, etc., but none of the various kinds of treatment have been attended with success, because the remedy should be such as to act harmoniously upon each one of these organs, and upon the stomach as well; for in Dyspepsia (for this is really what the disease is) all of these organs partake of this disease and require a remedy that will act upon all at the same time.
Seigel's Curative Syrup acts like a charm in this class of complaints, giving almost immediate relief. The following letters from chemists of standing in the community where they live show in what estimation the article is held.

John Archer, Hartill, near Sheffield:
—I can confidently recommend it to all who may be suffering from liver or stomach complaints, having the testimony of my customers, who have derived great benefit from the Syrup and Pills.
The sale is increasing wonderfully.

Geo. A. Webb, 141, York Street, Belfast:—I have sold a large quantity, and the parties have testified to its being what you represent it.

J. S. Metcalfe, 55, Highgate, Kendal:
—I have always great pleasure in recommending the Curative Syrup, for I have never known a case in which it has not relieved or cured, and I have sold many grosses.

Robt. G. Gould, 27, High Street, Anderover:—I have always take a great interest in your medicines and I have recommended them, as I have found numerous cases of cure from their use.

Thomas Chapman, West Auckland:—
I find that the trade steadily increases.
I sell more of your medicines than any other kind.

Frickheim, Arbroath, Forfarshire, Sept. 23, 1882. Dear Sir,—Last year I sent you a letter recommending Mother Seigel's Syrup. I have very much pleasure in still bearing testimony to the very satisfactory results of the famed Syrup and Pills. Most patient medicines die out with me, but Mother Seigel has had a steady sale ever since I commenced, and is still in as great demand as when I first began to sell the medicine. The cures which have come under my notice are chiefly those of liver complaint and general debility.

N. Darroll, Clun, Salop:—All who buy it are pleased, and recommend it.

Jos. Balkwill, A. P. S., Kingsbridge:
—The public seem to appreciate their great value.

A. Armstead, Market Street, Dalton-In-Furness:—It is needless for me to say that your valuable medicines have great sale in this district—greater than any other I know of, giving great satisfaction.

Robt. Laine, Melksham:—I can well recommend the Curative Syrup from having proved its efficacy for indigestion myself.

A certain minister in my neighborhood says it is the only thing which has benefited him and restored him to his normal condition of health after being unable to preach for a considerable length of time. I could mention also a great many other cases, but space would not allow. A near friend of mine, who is very much addicted to costiveness, or constipation, finds that Mother Seigel's Pills are the only pills which suit his complaint. All other pills cause a reaction which is very annoying.
Mother Seigel's Pills do not have a bad after-effect. I have much pleasure in commending again to suffering humanity Mother Seigel's medicines, which are no sham. If this letter is of any service you can publish it.

Yours very truly,
(Signed) William S. Glass, Chemist,
A. J. White, Esq.

15th August, 1883.

Dear Sir,—I write to tell you that Mr.
Henry Hillier, of Yatesbury, Wilts, informs me that he suffered from a severe form of indigestion for upwards of four years, and took no end of doctor's medicine without the slightest benefit, and declares Mother Seigel's Syrup which he got from me has saved his life.

Yours truly, (Signed) N. Webb,
Mr. White, Chemist, Calne.

TRANSCONTINENTAL CANAL.

This country has an undoubted interest in the question of American transcontinental canal projects. The following special despatch from Washington contains new testimony in favor of the Nicaragua route:—

Colonel John G. Stevens, president and chief engineer of the New Jersey Railroad and Canal Company, who has had great experience in the operation of canals, was recently sent to Panama to examine the De Lesseps canal in the interest of American capitalists. He reported against investment in the De Lesseps scheme and has since, unsolicited, embodied his views as to the Nicaragua canal in a letter to a gentleman in this city long interested in canal matters. Stevens says he was by no means prepossessed in favor of the Nicaragua route, but after careful examination he finds it has the following unexceptionally favorable features: First and above all others, Lake Nicaragua, without which the route would scarcely be feasible. Practically it obliterates fifty miles of canal distance, substituting therefor a spacious lake which forms an immense reservoir, insuring an un-failing supply of water for canal purposes in the driest seasons. It would be difficult to overestimate the importance of this feature. Another function is its being the regulation of the heavy tropical rainfalls. The next favorable points noticed are the peculiar fitness of the San Juan River for slack-water navigation, and the comparatively light cost by which it can be converted into a deep, navigable river. Topographical conditions will permit the construction of locks of heavy lift, and make it possible to obtain an efficient system of drainage. These conditions imply, first, an ample supply of water; second, security from floods; third, deep water, not only on the San Juan, but also on a large part of the canal; fourth, slight delays from locks; fifth, economical construction.

We believe there is enough money still available for the Panama Canal to prevent the vast sums sunk in it already from being allowed to go for nothing. Possibly—nay, probably—the opening of either will create such an increase of commerce between the western shores of the eastern hemisphere and the Pacific shores as will very soon find ample use for both canals.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Cold water would seem to be the bane of Honolulu. Sometimes, it is the lack of it, as the recent complaints of many householders have testified. Again, it is the aversion to it which makes trouble, as the Police Court register, daily teeming with drunks, attests. One of the reasons given for the swimming club movement having taken crab-action is that the water has been too cold of late to admit of enthusiasm being promoted in the matter!

Cannot the substantial men of the country take some concerted action to give practical effect to the many ideas and suggestions that have had free course for the past six months—to date from the culmination of political excitement at the prorogation of the Legislature? Then, by the time sorghum cane and beet root brought sugar down to one cent, and the Treaty was abolished, if it is to be so, there would be a pretty brisk fire of new industries and new productions under the Hawaiian pot.

Many people are asking what has become of the gaslight project. It must have gone up in that big balloon ascension in San Francisco lately. Possibly the electric light, that illuminates many of the principal streets in that city, casts everything in the shape of gaslight schemes into the shade. In view of the progress made of late years in bringing the electric light toward perfection, we do not know but the best thing that could be done now is to worry along with our present lights until the next session of the Legislature. Then let the Government be ready with an engineer's report upon the feasibility of lighting the city with electricity by means of water power.

The Press has given a good lift to the proposed debating society, favoring the parliamentary form submitted by us for consideration. Such a medium of popular interchange of knowledge, thought and opinion is a necessity of this community. The want of it places Honolulu in the rear of many smaller towns on the neighboring continent. All that we have heard against the project has been the opinion of some, while acknowledging the benefit it would be, that it could not be sustained here. There is nothing like trying, and if six or eight gentlemen appoint a time and place for a preliminary meeting, the result may resist a good deal of cold water.

If any people think that the sugar interest is ambitious, or even willing, to monopolize the soil, the official organ of the Planters' Company in its articles shows the notion to be a wrong one. Upon the subject of "Homesteads for Immigrants," the Monthly urges the desirability of securing for the country a small-landed proprietary. It points out that "An Act to Facilitate the Acquiring and Settlement of Homesteads" instructs as well as authorizes the Minister of the Interior to have lands available for settlement surveyed in small holdings. The following sentence near the close of the article shows that the planters are not blinded by their own interest so as to be oblivious of the situation: "The position which we now occupy, of absolute dependence upon the sugar crop, is unwise and unsafe in the extreme."

WHAT THEY SAY.

Planters' Monthly—"Hawaii has about as much need of a national coinage as a cat has of four tails."

The Advertiser advocates a supply of medicine being placed at the Volcano House for emergencies.

The Gazette is coming round to the view of our friend Antishamus, viz., that Humbug bosses the ranch pretty much.

The Friend—"We have had too much of this 'doing evil that good may come of it' here in Honolulu."

The Pacific Coast—"The customs of civilized nations are gradually obtaining a foothold in China and Japan, and who should absorb the trade thus afforded but the Pacific Coast? Above all, the ultimate and inevitable abolition of our protective tariff system is, in the minds of our wisest statesmen, not far distant, and our manufactories ought to be self-supporting and equal to the change when it shall come."

It is when we come to rejoice in duty, to take pleasure in sacrifice, to follow justice, mercy, and truth, not only with the firm and steady step, but with a loving and tender clasp, that we realize the true vitality of righteousness.

Dwelling House to Let.

The premises now occupied by Judge McCully, on Beretania street, in Kuloakaha, will be rented after the 1st of February, 1885, at reasonable rates. The house is commodious, and the outhouses convenient. The grounds are well planted with trees and shrubs. Enquire of S. B. DOLE.

RIDDLE.

In books I am found in numbers large, And uttered every day; Indeed, some think without their aid, My first you could not say. I have a doubt, it being me, But be that as it may.

Possessed of next, I am very sure, 'Tis readily perceived; And only those who have it not, Who feel themselves aggrieved. Various in kind, no doubt, but still, If me, as such received.

So, too, of whols. Were I to say, That verse is it, you'd own "A something new" therewith expressed. Oft wished there might be shown, Now reflect; but, as it you will see, A poet's name well known.

WORK BEFORE HIM.

"My dear," she said, poking him earnestly, "it's growing late. You must get up."

"What time is it?" he growled.

"It's after 7 o'clock."

"Well, that's not late for Sunday morning."

"But, my dear, you forget that there is work before you. We are to have chickens for dinner, you know, and you have got to catch them."— [Philadelphia Call.]

BALANCE IN CHARACTER.

Few persons are possessed of a perfectly balanced nature. Amiability is apt to be allied with weakness; a vigorous, pushing character is often impulsive, harsh and unjust. A reflective mind is slow to act; a prompt mind is often wrong. So through all the elements of character. All the qualities that go to make up a perfect moral nature rarely appear in one person. The physical and intellectual do not precisely conform; the mental and moral are not evenly balanced. There are those possessed of stronger moral than mental natures. They constitute the spasmodic, impulsive element in society. There are others whose intellects so absolutely control their moral natures, that nothing is admitted that cannot be reasoned out satisfactorily. There are persons whose strong animal natures dominate all else, and both mind and spirit are subservient.

To regulate all these parts so as to attain a fair degree of equality is the right step toward securing what may be called balance in character. —Philadelphia Call.

FARM AND HOME.

One way to utilize bread crumbs is to dry them thoroughly in a warm—not hot—oven, roll fine, and keep in a jar.

It requires nineteen cars to take $2,500 worth of grain to market, while the same value of butter can be carried in half a car.

One thing is positive, that the rougher you handle a horse the more liable he is to become nervous and excitable.

Crossing the Guernsey and Short-Horn has proved a very successful experiment, the result being an animal that produces a fair quantity of very rich milk while being used for dairy purposes, and also an excellent animal for the butcher when no longer required for milk.

A beekeeper says that by feeding nitrogenous food the queen can be induced to lay at any time. She can be started to lay and as fast as the bees hatch out, strong enough to cover the brood, every cell of a fresh frame of empty comb inserted will be found to contain a freshly laid egg.

The following "old time maxims" do not overestimate the value of good grass: No grass no cattle, no cattle no manure, no manure no crops, is as true to-day as when first spoken. Grass takes care of him who sows it. The meadow is the master mine of wealth. Strong meadows fill big barns. Fat pastures make fat stock. Heavy meadows make happy farmers. Up to my ears in soft grass, laughs the fat ox. Sweet pastures make sound butter. Soft hay makes strong wool.

"You Americans," said an Englishman to a young lady, "have no ancestry to which you can point with pride." "That is very true," she assented. "Most of our ancestors came from England, you know."

Messrs. Lyons & Levey will hold their regular cash sale to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock. Amongst other things they will sell Madeira willow ware furniture and two fine saddle horses.

MR. D. D. BALDWIN, inspector general of schools, is at present visiting the different schools in Honolulu. Yesterday and this morning he has been inspecting the Fort Street school.

THE brigantine Consuelo left for San Francisco this afternoon. Capt. Cousins says, he will try and beat his last trip of ten days. A. T. Baker, the horse doctor, was a passenger by her.

THE premises lately occupied by the Survey Department in the Government building, will be used as a Government law library. A large vault is also to be built for Court records, etc.

HIS Majesty the King has been pleased to grant letters patent of denization to Dr. James Brodie, Veterinary Surgeon, and Dr. Rolando Kuehu, Government physician at Lahaina, Maui.

WITH regard to the race between the schooners Emma and the Nettie Merrill, Capt. Brownell, of the latter vessel, states that she was very deeply laden with sugar, while the Emma scarcely had anything in her.

THE question has been asked, "Why are there not more lady reporters?" Well, we suppose it's because they would tell all they knew before the paper came out, and then no one would want to read it.

ON Friday last we had an account of a little episode which took place in the Police Court, in which the name of Mrs. Roe was mentioned. It should have been Mrs. Elsen. We were wrongfully informed at the Police Court.

YESTERDAY afternoon about 5 o'clock, two natives were riding on horseback up Nuuanu Valley, in a badly intoxicated condition. One of them fell from his horse two or three times. They managed to reach home without accident.

By an oversight our report of the Kerguelen's arrival read as if Yokohama were somewhere else than in Japan. Of course such a good chance could not be lost by our morning contemporary, but it knows better than to say our shipping reporter is an "ex-teacher of geography."

IN the Police Court this morning J. W. Luning was charged with libel by inserting a letter in yesterday's Advertiser. Messrs. Smith & Thurston appeared for the prosecution, and Mr. John Russell for the defence. By request of defendant's counsel the case was remanded until Monday.

LAST evening, His Majesty the King sent the Royal Hawaiian Band to serenade Prof. Wayland at the residence of Hon. S. G. Wilder, Judd street. An excellent programme was given by Bandmaster Berger, including many native airs. A large number of people were outside Mr. Wilder's beautiful residence listening to the charming music.

A MEETING of the jury appointed to assess damages to property by the proposed widening of Fort and

THE Hawaiian Carriage Manufacturing Co. have just been overhauling and repainting Pacific Hose Co.'s wagon. The reel is painted a deep carmine, ornamented with gold and red. The running cart is a lighter shade of carmine, striped with gold, with an edge of deep chrome green. The lettering is in gold with four shades of green. It is a magnificent piece of work, and reflects great credit on the Company's painter, Mr. George Young.

THERE was a large crowd in attendance at the Police Court this morning. Three drunks had to pay $6, and another, a haole, was sent over the reef for seven days. Kailili, for assault and battery on Long Tang, was sent to prison for six days, and pay costs. Maui Michel, for violating express rules by charging excessive fare, was fined $3 with $3.75 costs. H. Luning, charged with being a common nuisance by keeping a house of prostitution, and maintaining a noisy house, was remanded until the 5th. Jacob Kamika and Wm. Moore, for having opium in possession, were remanded until the 6th.

LAST evening, Mr. John Lucas, son of our respected citizen, Mr. George Lucas, was united in marriage to Miss Eliza Foster, of Kamalo, Molokai. The ceremony was performed by the Right Rev. the Bishop of Oloha, at the residence of the bridegroom's parents, Kukui Place. The parlors were most richly decorated with flowers and evergreens, and the happy couple stood underneath a handsome floral marriage bell. After the ceremony a reception was held, at which a large number of invited guests tendered their congratulations. The presents were most numerous and costly, and included a beautiful set of silver knives, forks and spoons from the employees of the Honolulu Planing Mills. An elegant supper was served, followed by dancing, which was kept up until 1 o'clock. Long life and happiness to the newly-married couple.
