

LIQUOR AND TEMPERANCE FORCES AGREE ON ONE POINT

ALL PARTIES DISSATISFIED WITH THE WORKINGS OF THE NEW LIQUOR LICENSE LAW—JAPS ARE CUTTING INTO THE BUSINESS OF THE RETAILERS WITH A LOT OF CHEAP SALOONS WHICH ARE CUTTING PRICES.

The new liquor law appears to be as unsatisfactory to the liquor men as it is to the temperance people, and as a result there seems to be a good chance of some important amendments by the next legislature. The law was a liquor men's act, but it has not worked altogether the way they wanted it to, and they are disposed to support Acting Governor Atkinson heartily in his kicks against the conditions which have developed.

JURORS CALLED HAVE STRONG OPINIONS

SMALL PROGRESS MADE THIS MORNING IN JUDGE ROBINSON'S COURT IN THE EFFORTS TO GET A JURY TO TRY FRANK JOHNSON FOR THE MURDER OF SIMEON WHARTON—JURORS FAVOR THE PROSECUTION.

Practically no progress was made this morning in securing a jury to try Frank Johnson for the murder of Simeon Wharton. All except one called to the box were disqualified, either because they had opinions or because they were opposed to capital punishment. There were one or two somewhat sensational incidents during the morning's examinations of the jurymen, by Deputy Attorney General Prosser and T. M. Harrison for the defense.

"I would convict," was the answer which ended the examination of John W. Smithies. Smithies insisted from the start that he had an opinion, but Prosser pressed him quite closely. Smithies said he had known Johnson some years ago, but had no personal knowledge of the alleged crime. He had read of it, however, in the newspapers. He insisted that his opinion was formed to such an extent that strong evidence would be required to remove it. Prosser did some keen cross-examination regarding the formation of an opinion without direct evidence to support it, but the juror ended the matter by saying "I would convict."

A. G. Kannegiesser, who said he was otherwise known as Wilson, having been called that as "short" for Kannegiesser, was something of a problem, seeming anxious to please counsel for both sides. To Prosser he declared his complete freedom from any opinion of the case, and he qualified easily under Prosser's questions. But the first leading question put by Harrison brought forth a statement that he had a very strong opinion indeed.

Harrison interposed a challenge and

LOWELL SAYS IT IS A POOR JOKE

TOM LOWELL DENIES THE REPORT THAT HE CHALLENGED A SAILOR FROM THE OREGON.

Tom Lowell, the actor, who was reported to have issued a challenge to any sailor off of the Oregon, when seen this morning strenuously denies that he ever challenged or ever thought of fighting any one in the town.

Mr. Lowell does not deny that he is a boxer of some repute and did state that he had boxed with Jim Jeffries when the latter was on the stage, but he never thought of taking on any one here.

"All the reports," said Lowell, when interviewed this morning, "about my wishing to meet a sailor were the imaginations of an over-worked mind. It would be foolish to ever credit such an assertion, for even if I could fight there would be no glory in my mixing it with a common sailor from a man-of-war. I hardly like to even contradict such a statement, and if it was a joke it was a poor one."

MOODY IS AFTER THE SUGAR TRUST

LATE FILES BY THE ENTERPRISE FROM THE COAST ANNOUNCE IMPORTANT DISCLOSURES REGARDING REBATES ALLOWED THE SUGAR TRUST BY ALMOST EVERY RAILROAD HAVING A TERMINAL IN NEW YORK.

The coast files brought to The Star by the S. S. Enterprise this morning contain the following relative to the Sugar Trust:

NEW YORK, March 8.—Consternation verging upon panic reigned today in the offices of the American Sugar Refining Company and the various railroad corporations which are defendants in an action brought by the United States Government upon the complaint of William R. Hearst. One complaint against the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad was printed this morning. Tomorrow another complaint, directed against all the trunk lines for pooling, will be printed. There are others and even more important charges in the hands of the Government which will be forthcoming in due time. Nearly every trunk line having a New York terminal and the American Sugar Refining Company are charged with flagrant infractions of the Interstate Commerce law and the Sherman anti-trust law in granting and receiving rebates. The complaints filed by William R. Hearst and the energetic action of the Government in instituting proceedings fell like a bombshell in the camp of the transportation lines and the sugar company.

DISOBEY WASHINGTON MANDATE

B. L. MARX ACCUSES LOCAL SUPREME COURT AND WILDER SAYS HE CAN'T HELP IT.

"I will ask the court why it doesn't obey the mandate of the United States Supreme Court?" demanded Attorney B. L. Marx of the Supreme court, during the hearing of his motion to tax costs against the Territory in the Damon fisheries case. The discussion was quite a lively one. Justices Hartwell and Wilder and Judge De Bolt, in place of Frear, all firing hard questions at the attorney. Marx stuck to the mandate, which appears by its wording to very directly command the court here to issue an execution, but the court wouldn't even tax costs.

"I can't help it as far as I am concerned," said Justice Wilder when told by Marx that he was disobeying the highest court in the land.

Justice Hartwell, as acting chief justice, suggested some serious complications which might arise if the court attempted to give any execution. If it was against the Treasurer the latter would naturally hold on to any public coin he had except as he paid it out under an appropriation and if it was against property of the Territory, no officer of the government would feel authorized to let go of any. Hartwell said the matter of a direct carrying out of the execution proposition was one which he did not at all like. He suggested that the case should go to the circuit court, a view in which Judge De Bolt concurred. It was finally decided to remand the case to the circuit court for further proceedings.

The mandate of the Supreme Court at Washington, which the court here has apparently disregarded, opens with the following:

"United States of America, S. S. The President of the United States of America, to the Honorable the judges of the Supreme Court of the Territory of Hawaii: Greeting."

Then follow statements of the case and the judgment and the conclusion of the mandate:

"It is now here ordered and adjudged by this court that the judgment of the said Supreme Court be and the same is hereby reversed with costs, and that the said Joseph O. Carter, et al, trustees, etc., recover against the said defendant $116.87 for their costs herein expended and have execution therefor.

"And it is further ordered that this case be and the same is hereby remanded to the said Supreme Court with directions to reverse the judgment of the Circuit Court and to remand the cause to that court with directions to grant a new trial.

"You, therefore, are hereby commanded that at such execution and further proceedings be had in said cause, in conformity with the opinion and judgment of this court as according to right and justice and the laws of the United States, ought to be had, the said writ of error notwithstanding.

"Witness the Honorable Melville W. Fuller, Chief Justice of the United States the 16th day of February in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and six.

"James H. McKenney, clerk of the Supreme Court of the United States."

TRUST CASE AND A NEW DECISION

CALIFORNIA SALT TRUST THE MODEL FOR THE BILL AGAINST BEEF TRUST HERE.

"It was builded upon the salt," said Ballou, "and the raising came and the flood descended and it fell, and great was the fall thereof."

Ballou was referring to the beef trust bill of complaint which was modeled upon the one filed in the case of the United States against the Federal Salt Company, of California, and he was optimistically discussing the attack on it by demurrer, during recess yesterday afternoon. The argument has aroused more interest and discussion among attorneys than any other case heard in the courts here for a long time. In the Federal Salt Company case, the government was successful, but it was fought out on bill and answer, without demurrers being interposed.

"Substitute beef for salt," said United States Attorney Dunne, "and you have practically the same case here as in California."

After the close of the argument yesterday afternoon Judge Doie allowed ten days for the respondents to file their briefs, ten days more for the government to reply and five days for a reply brief by respondents, making twenty-five days in all before all the arguments will be in. It will therefore be over a month, at least, before the Judge will be able to do much work on a decision.

This morning's cable brought news of a trust decision in Chicago which is of national interest as a part of the general trust campaign. The decision was by Judge Humphreys, United States District Judge for the Southern district of Illinois and was to the effect that the government could not prosecute the beef packers individually, but could only proceed against the corporations for violations of the trust act. It is thought that this is a decision applying only to the particular cases of the Chicago packers, who have been charging the government with bad faith for prosecuting them criminally after they had been promised immunity by Commissioner Garfield.

The Sherman law provides that defendants in trust cases who supply testimony shall not be prosecuted criminally, under the sections which make participation in a trust agreement a misdemeanor. When Garfield began his investigations he secured access to the books of the big corporations by promising them that the information he secured would be treated as if it were given to a Grand jury, making those who supplied it immune. Then the government took the position that Garfield had no right to make such a promise and instituted a lot of criminal prosecutions. The packers set up Garfield's promise, and the decision of Humphreys is taken to mean that he "promised away" the government's right to prosecute the packers.

The New Policies of The Mutual Life Insurance Co. Of New York

Have been carefully drawn so as to avoid as far as possible the use of unnecessary technical terms. The agreements and privileges are clearly and precisely stated, and the contract may be easily understood by its possessor.

They are the best of life insurance contracts and are issued by the BEST of all the companies in the world.

LIMITED PAYMENT LIFE POLICY.

By the terms of this contract the amount of the insurance is payable upon the death of the insured, and the premiums are payable during a limited number of years—twenty, fifteen or ten years.

The Limited Payment Life Policy is in many respects and for a large class of insurers a most desirable contract, providing as it does that the premiums shall all be paid in the early and productive years of life, thus the policy becomes fully paid up for the whole amount in a fixed number of years. Dividends are payable annually, or at the end of 5, 10, 15 or 20 years.

HOW MUCH WILL IT COST?

Between the ages of 25 and 31 years, inclusive, SIX TO SEVEN CENTS A DAY will be the "first cost" of a good $1000 good life insurance.

Between the ages of 32 and 52 years, SEVEN TO FIFTEEN CENTS A DAY.

Between the ages of 53 and 65 years, SIXTEEN TO TWENTY-NINE CENTS A DAY.

Is there any healthy man or woman in America at work for wages who can not afford this "first cost" of a good $1000 policy in the best and strongest company on earth?

A little self-denial in small things—pleasant things, perhaps, but unnecessary things—will pay the bill easily.

Different forms of policies cost various prices.

OUR TWENTY-YEAR DISTRIBUTION POLICY on continuous life and limited payment plans affords the maximum of security at the minimum of cost.

OUR GUARANTEED INCOME POLICY provides a guaranteed income, secure investment, and absolute protection.

OUR ENDOWMENT POLICY provides a certain guaranteed sum, payable with profits at a fixed time.

OUR 4 AND 5 PER CENT. BONDS furnish the best and most effective forms of indemnity and fixed annual income to survivors.

OUR CONTINUOUS INSTALLMENT POLICY so adjusts the payment of the amount insured as to create a fixed income during the life of the beneficiary.

OUR ANNUITY POLICIES offer an excellent opportunity for persons to obtain a high rate of interest on their capital for the remainder of life; an income safe beyond mishap. This form of investment is particularly recommended to those who desire to make provision for declining years, and to be free from business cares.

We have prices to fit all known wants. All we want to know is what you want. If you do not know, tell us enough of your condition and surroundings and we can suggest the policy best suited to your purpose.

Rates and guarantees cheerfully furnished on application.

OLD MEETING OF CHIEFTAINS

DISCUSSION IN DAYS WHEN HAWAII WAS REGARDED BY MANY AS BRITISH.

In his search among archives R. D. Lydecker has found a document which gives details of a meeting of Hawaiian chieftains in the early days of the last century, at which the chiefs appeared to consider that they owed allegiance to Great Britain and that the United States was merely an English colony. The meeting occurred on December 28, 1826, and was reported to the State Department about thirty years later, according to the document found. During the discussion of a proposed treaty with the United States, the British consul protested, declaring that the islands had no right to make such a treaty, being subject to Great Britain.

The treaty was concluded, however, a protest against the attitude of the British consul being made by Captain Thomas ap Catesby Jones of the American sloop of war Peacock.

A document found some time ago, of a much earlier date than the one discovered, showed that during the latter part of the eighteenth century Hawaiians acknowledged British sovereignty over the islands. The sovereignty of King George was acknowledged many years before the meeting of chiefs referred to in the Catesby Jones report.

GARBAGE DUMPS TO BE DISCUSSED

BOARD OF HEALTH WILL TAKE THE MATTER UP WITH THE ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The Board of Health yesterday afternoon decided to have a consultation with the Attorney General regarding the garbage removal proposition. The supervisors recently refused to appropriate money for a crematory and President Pinkham announced that there was at present no legal method of disposing of garbage.

Approval was voted of the president's action in making changes in the city sanitary staff, reported by him as follows: Frank Miller discharged for cause, and J. A. Silva transferred from the sanitary inspectors to position of morgue attendant. James B. Gorman has been appointed to the former position of Mr. Silva.

"I present a letter from Mr. J. L. Woods concerning a proposed moderate sized natatorium," the president wrote. "With the proposed quantity and regulation of the water supply the swimming pool will be sanitary. The water supply could easily be increased should the patronage require it."

Pinkham said the plans had been submitted and contained nothing objectionable. It was the sense of the meeting that the Board should not interfere unless the proposed bathing tank became insanitary.

The usual monthly reports of the sanitary inspectors were presented and filed.

knew. They received little satisfaction, as the Government was not exposing its evidence, and the Hearst newspapers, which supplied the evidence, were under a pledge to keep the salient points a secret. The fact that the little revealed threw the sugar company and the railroad companies into blind confusion can be taken as an index as to what will happen when the whole truth comes out.

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, March 21.—Upon being shown the publication in the "New York American" of today regarding the alleged granting of rebates on the transportation of sugar, Attorney General Moody said:

"Some weeks ago a representative of the Hearst newspapers called on me and said that information was in the possession of those papers tending to show that large rebates on the transportation of sugar had been given to the American Sugar Refining Company by the trunk lines of railroads running out of New York city, and asking of the Department of Justice desired to use the information in legal proceedings. An examination of the matter showed clearly that it was highly important and tended to show the giving and receiving of large money rebates. The subject was then brought to the attention of Mr. Stimson, who had been selected by the President as District Attorney for the Southern District of New York.

"Following this, on the first day of February, which was the date of Mr. Stimson's taking office, a conference was held in New York between the Attorney General, the assistant to the Attorney General (Mr. Purdy) and Mr. Stimson, when the evidence was gone over with great care.

"It is the purpose of the Department to proceed carefully, but with all possible expediency.

"It ought to be said that until this information was furnished the Department had no knowledge or suspicion of the facts, and that the representative of those papers has aided the officials of the Department in all ways within their power."

Mr. Moody said further: "In the Department at present the matter is in the stage of investigation. No determination as to who should be indicted has been arrived at, but full evidence will be laid before the Grand Jury, and they will determine against whom sufficient evidence exists to warrant indictments. It must be remembered that there can be no indictment against any person unless there is specified evidence of his own personal participation in violation of the law. The District Attorney at New York, under the direction of the Attorney General, will act vigorously, but, in the meantime it is no more than fair that judgment be suspended until the whole matter has been investigated and tried by the courts."

ANOTHER BAD CHECK PASSED.

That mysterious check passer is still operating. Last evening a man went to the Mint Saloon on Nuuanu street and purchased $5 worth of liquor for which he tendered a check on the First National Bank for $15. He was given the balance in cash. The check was made payable to "George C. Clark" and was returned, the police say, marked "no funds."

KONA SALOONS

EDITOR STAR.—The following are the facts concerning two saloons in Kona. There has been considerable interest aroused among the people there by opposing petitions for saloons. A man by the name of Sing Sing, Kalaiala, Kona, had twenty-four signers of a petition in his favor—among this number there are nine outside the limit prescribed by law and upon being approached two of the signers deny that they had their signature acknowledged. However it is claimed that all those appeared before Mr. Mills July 8, 1905, and were identified upon oath of D. N. Killmahe.

Another saloon man by the name of T. Shibayama, Kealakakua, Kona, obtained eight signatures on his petition of which names five are those living outside the limit—one of them only claiming to be agent for land within the limit. Three of these men deny acknowledging their signature and yet it is claimed that they have appeared before David K. Baker September 20, 1905. It is noteworthy that this same Shibayama is an applicant for another saloon at Honolulu too. It would seem as though no petition in his favor should be allowed to stand as warrant for the new plea.

Treasurer Campbell has been notified of these facts and the claim has been made that these facts when verified are sufficient to warrant the revoking of the license and should affect the standing of the notary public in question. It is desired that large publicity be given to such fraudulent methods of securing saloons.

M'BRYDE HOLDS ITS ANNUAL MEETING

OFFICERS WERE RE-ELECTED AND REPORTS OF MANAGER AND TREASURER WERE MADE.

The annual meeting of McBryde Sugar Company was held this morning at the offices of the agents, T. H. Davies & Co. There were upwards of 90,000 shares represented. Officers for the year were elected as follows: President, D. P. R. Isenberg; vice-president, B. F. Dillingham; treasurer, F. M. Swanzy; secretary, T. Clive Davies; auditor, H. W. M. Mist; directors, W. D. McBryde, Albert Wilcox, R. W. T. Purvis, J. M. Lydgate and F. M. Swanzy.

Manager William Stoddart reported, among other things, as follows:

Rainfall and General Weather Conditions were both decidedly unfavorable. Severe cold spells were numerous and a drought of marked severity, beginning about September 1st of the previous year (1904), continued to the month of August, 1905, a period of 11 months. During this time there were light showers on the extreme and mauka end of the plantation covering a very limited area of cane, but elsewhere nothing fell to amount to anything, and nowhere were there the customary soaking winter rains. Last August this drought was broken and to the end of the year we had an average rainfall, but it came too late to overcome the effects of the drought, except as to the young cane just planted or being planted, and as a consequence the crop of 1905 then being harvested fell short 500 or 1000 tons of what it should have been, and the crop of 1906 now being harvested, which was estimated at 12,000 tons when six months old, will fall to something under ten thousand tons. The young cane, however, for the crop of 1907 was not appreciably affected.

The average rainfall of all stations for this dry period was only 28 inches as against a similar average for previous years of 57 inches.

Previous experiences with touches of dry weather materially reducing our yields had satisfied us that the plantation needed to increase its pumping capacity and to depend less upon its streams and reservoir water, and with that in mind plans were set on foot more than two years ago to secure a cheaper motive power than coal which resulted in the leasing of the Hydro-Electric power plant now being installed by the Kaula Electric Company, Limited, upon the Wainiha River on the windward side of the Island of Kaula. This plant, it is expected, will be completed and ready to deliver power this June.

It had been planned to first alter the present steam pumping stations so that they could utilize the electric power and later to take up further water development the whole to be done more or less leisurely so as to spread the expense over a considerable period of time; but the severe lesson of last year's drought and its losses forced our hand and led last May to the beginning of active operations in developing more water and preparing to utilize it as soon as possible. The results of these efforts were so satisfactory that it has led to the establishment of two new pumping stations in Hanalei Valley, to be operated by electric power, and the ordering of three pumps for the same of a total capacity per 24 hours of 1 1/2 million gallons. These stations are near completion and we hope to have them ready for the electric power due, as already stated, this June. We can pump during the winter without appreciable extra cost; with coal we could not afford to do this, except when driven to it by necessity during dry weather. The ability to continue pumping during the winter will result in reinforcing the reservoir supply and making it last out longer into the summer, and this, coupled with the new supply from the pumping station now being installed, will, we trust, avert another experience in the matter of water like that of 1905.

One steam pumping station now operated by a Worthington pump is being prepared for electric power this summer by the installation of a pump of the same class as those ordered for the two new stations above referred to, to wit: a turbine centrifugal connected up directly to the motor. The necessary changes at the two remaining steam pumps will be attended to later. It is not intended to remove the steam pumps now installed unless there are special inducements so to do, but rather to leave them there for auxiliary use in case of a temporary breakdown with the electric-driven pumps.

Judge Lindsay this morning heard argument on the motion by County Attorney Doubtful to quash the writ of mandamus in the Kapiolani park funds test case, also on the demurrer to the petition filed by E. C. Peters in behalf of the park commission. This is the case in which a ruling is being sought authorizing the supervisors to appropriate money for Kapiolani park.

ANOTHER CHARGE

Wong Hung, who was arrested for conspiracy to land Chinese in California unlawfully, was arrested again this morning by United States Marshal Hendry on a warrant charging him with subordination of perjury. Wong is the alleged leader in the conspiracy to pass Wong Kook Yee through the immigration office on a bogus birth certificate, and he is alleged to have induced witnesses to perjure themselves to aid the plan.

WOOLLEY COMING ON SIBERIA

THE NOTED TEMPERANCE LECTURER DUE HERE TOMORROW FROM THE ORIENT.

John Granville Woolley, prohibition candidate for the presidency of the United States in 1900 is due here tomorrow on the S. S. Siberia. He will be met by friends here, who will give a small dinner in his honor at the Hawaiian Hotel.

John G. Woolley is probably the foremost man on the platform in America today. He is the editor of the New Voice, a prohibition paper with the largest circulation of its class.

Mr. Woolley has been carrying on a campaign in New Zealand, where it is said that he met with great success and nearly succeeded in abolishing the liquor traffic there. His son has recently been appointed superintendent of the Government laboratory in Siam.

TWO BRITISH SHIPS DUE HERE

H. M. SHIPS FLORA AND CAMBRIAN DUE IN THIS PORT FROM SOUTH AMERICA.

Two British men-of-war of the Australian station are due in this port are H. M. ships Flora and Cambrian. Both are second-class cruisers of 4600 tons displacement. Captain Grant-Dalton commands the Flora and Captain E. F. A. Grant is in command of the Cambrian. They have been visiting Brazil and other South American ports and are returning to Australia via Easter Island.

Captain E. F. A. Grant of the Cambrian, was for some time British administrator of West-Hal-wel, and more recently distinguished himself for his action in support of the Italian authority in Somaliland. In that adventure he had his thigh shattered with an expanding bullet, and though he made a good recovery from a dreadful wound, he still has to walk with a cane.

MORE JURORS

Another special venire was issued by Judge Robinson this afternoon, for jurors for the Johnson murder case. The panel was exhausted soon after the afternoon session of court began. The prosecution excused C. F. Merrifield and the defense E. A. Lloyd and William Rose. This leaves six challenges left for the defense and three for the prosecution. In the box, passed for cause, are James Houghton, E. O. White, Henry Lyman, John Coffee, William Buckie, Wentworth Buchanan, T. H. Petrie, John Waterhouse, S. A. Walker, C. J. Ludwigen and H. E. Gares.

MABY ACQUITTED

News was received from Hilo today of the acquittal of Jailer Maby of the Hilo jail, who was indicted with two deputies for assaults on prisoners.

Prosser asked to be allowed to put more questions. He was allowed to do so on the ground that the juror's answers to Harrison were inconsistent with those he had given to Prosser.

The matter was not much cleared up. The juror insisted upon his opinion as well as upon his impartiality and lack of opinion. He was excused on a final statement that he had an opinion that the defendant was guilty.

Bruce Hartman had conscientious scruples against capital punishment. Others excused for cause were A. A. Dunn, A. C. Dowsett and M. A. Gonzales.

"Wilson," who has been here 41 years and is well along in life, created considerable amusement by his answer to a question as to who was his physician. It is expected that certain doctors will be experts for the defense, hence the question. "I don't use doctors," was the way the juror answered. One juror, A. E. Lloyd was passed for cause, just before the noon recess.

PARK MONEY

Judge Lindsay this morning heard argument on the motion by County Attorney Doubtful to quash the writ of mandamus in the Kapiolani park funds test case, also on the demurrer to the petition filed by E. C. Peters in behalf of the park commission. This is the case in which a ruling is being sought authorizing the supervisors to appropriate money for Kapiolani park.

TEA AT THE SEA BEACH. Mrs. S. W. Wilcox gave a very enjoyable tea Friday afternoon at Paalainaha in honor of Mrs. Taylor. The guests were told to bring a thimble and a needle along and all came armed with these implements. The mystery of this request was solved, when on arrival the ladies were given a clothes pin and told to make their selection of fabrics in form of variously colored tissue paper, with which they were asked to show their respective prowess as dressmakers. Mrs. Taylor proved to be the most accomplished one in that line, closely followed by Mrs. Broadbent. After the competition had been decided the ladies renewed their impaired energies by the delicious refreshments with which Mrs. Wilcox tempted them. Those who enjoyed the pleasant hospitality were: Mesdames Alexander, Broadbent, Carter, Christ, Hills, Hogg, Lydgate, Purvis, Sweetser, Taylor, A. S. Wilcox and R. L. Wilcox and the Misses Jordan, Mumford, Quinn, M. and E. Wilcox.—The Garden Island.

ROBINSON ON SCENIC RESERVATIONS

THE PARK EXPERT DISCUSSES THE MANY POINTS OF SCENIC INTEREST IN WHICH HE SAYS HONOLULU IS SURPASSINGLY RICH. HE DESCRIBES EACH OF THESE AND TELLS WHAT OUGHT TO BE DONE WITH THEM.

River street, running through a near-crowded section, and yet more conspicuous, should be redeemed from its present barrenness and made attractive by the planting of a row of trees on the stream side of each roadway, at the curb line of the present stream-side walk. Those of you who know the quays of Paris, where the river runs similarly between walls of masonry far below the level of the street, know how attractive this short space might be made. For here, is a street something like 200 feet from lot line to lot line, with a small walled stream running through its center, and all the rest of the space is abandoned to dusty sunny roads, though for vehicle travel there would be ample provision with twenty feet on either side. The balance of the street, using the strip beside the stream for the purpose, should be parked. The trees ought to be planted at once.

Continuing up the stream River street dwindles away into a by-path before it reaches School. Nature has a chance again. Big trees hang over the water, and the creek sings as it dances on its way around the stones, or leaps the little ledges. At School street the big masonry abutments of the bridge almost close in on the stream, leaving just room for a foot path close to the water and making a distinct division between the creek's upper and lower reaches. From School street down to the River street terminus, a block, there are some shacks and patches of garden. Above, it is breadth on each bank.

I like the suggestion of a Japanese garden on the stream; but I suggest that it be confined to the one block between Vineyard and School streets, where the bridge makes the sharp division. This will give ample room, if put into competent Japanese hands, for the display of a very attractive and interesting example of Japanese landscape art; it will be, too, so close to the Oriental quarter that the Japanese themselves can enjoy it. This will give to it the added merit of appropriateness; which it could not have at Kapiolani Park; and while making a distinct and fitting park provision for a numerous class of Honolulu residents, it will have its own attractiveness and interest to strangers enormously increased by the spectacle of its actual use by Japanese.

Beyond School street, with access from that street without the necessity of going through the Japanese garden unless one wished, and with access from each cross street, the banks of the Nuuanu stream should be preserved in their natural beauty, with a footpath made to facilitate the enjoyment of the scene at least as far as the avenue on the one branch and as Judd street on the other. There are no other short rural walks on level ground within Honolulu and this placid peaceful scene with its lack of views is here more unique than sea and mountains. The strip is a lovely natural park, now almost unknown and its land unclaimed for other purposes.

With these additions, involving little expense except in the case of the King street plot, which would effect so great an improvement as simply to justify its establishment, the Honolulu park system would be complete in its geographical distribution. There would remain, however, one want to round out its social mission. This is children's playgrounds.

Several of these have been established and one or two others are contemplated. They seem well located and my only suggestion is that a more distinctly playground development be given to them. Toilet rooms should be provided in these as in every one of the parks—scenic, pleasure grounds and all. They should have some simple outdoor gymnastic apparatus, such as parallel bars and traveling rings; there should be a section hedged off for the special use of the little children, and here the clean sea sand, which can be so easily provided, would be a delight. Wading ponds with concrete bottoms are proving an untried source of pleasure in the newer playgrounds of the cities of the states, and good sociological work can be done if there be a play-director.

This fairly completes the study of the park system units, and there is need only to connect them and bring them into relation with one another.

To do this is the special function of boulevards and drives.

1. BOULEVARDS AND DRIVES. It is clear that in such a city as Honolulu, where the climate gives delightful driving weather from year's end to year's end, and where all classes do drive, the boulevards must have a special importance. It is clear also that in the large acreage which it has been proposed to dedicate to park purposes, so much driving opportunity is provided as to make it unnecessary that the boulevards and drives should do more than adequately connect the parks and form of the separate units a system.

The city is devoting most attention to the Waikiki road. I do not think this has been a wise choice, for it was possible to make a far finer approach to Waikiki out of the Beach road, or—if this was too far from much of the residential district, and hence roundabout—there might have been laid out, and may still be planned by modifying the street plottings

IMPROVEMENT WORK HAS COMMENCED

COMMITTEES WERE APPOINTED YESTERDAY AT THE MEETING OF THE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

The work of beautifying Honolulu along the lines laid down by Park Expert Robinson, is to be undertaken by the Oahu Central Improvement Committee. The Promotion Committee relinquished its hold yesterday at a meeting of the improvement club.

The work has been undertaken in earnest, maps are being prepared and the work will not be allowed to lag. All members were present yesterday.

The following committees were appointed: Committee on vacant lots of which L. A. Thurston was made chairman; committee on sidewalks, street cleaning, etc., of which General Davis was appointed chairman; committee on signboards, poles, fences, etc., of which Hon W. F. Freear was appointed chairman; committee on valley and mountain roads and trails, of which George P. Thelen was appointed chairman.

Each committee has its work outlined and the men at the head of them are prepared to see that the work is begun at once. There is a great deal of work to be done and the men are alive to the fact.

The advisory board consisting of R. S. Hosmer, Alexander Young, D. M. Haugh and David McIntyre was appointed to act as advisory board to the Improvement Club instead of the Promotion Committee as formally.

The by-laws provided for a President Vice-President, Treasurer and Secretary. Members consist of delegates elected from the different improvement clubs about town. Every February an annual meeting is to be held, but special meetings can be called by the President at any time at the written request of five members. The objects as stated by the by laws are as follows:

Objects—The objects of the committee shall be to encourage and aid the formation of Improvement Clubs, define their districts, serve as a Congress of the several clubs, and promote improvements of general character or interest in Honolulu and on the island of Oahu.

THE COMING SONG FESTIVAL

THREE SOLOISTS FROM THE COAST MAY BE IN ATTENDANCE—FRED BUTLER MAY COME.

Preparations for the coming festival of song are being made, and as the time draws near things are taking a more definite shape.

Arrangements are now being made to have three soloists from the coast at the festival—the urgent requests made by a number of people have led Theodore Richards who has the matter in hand, to try and induce Fred Butler, the bass, who sang at the festival last year, to come down. Mr. Richards has been in communication some time with Butler, and is expecting a cable now from him in regard to the matter. Two other well known San Francisco soloists are expected to be in attendance.

Mrs. A. B. Tucker, who has had charge of the singing in the schools for the past 12 years will drill the chorus for the out door concert at the Boy's Field. It is expected to have 600 voices in the chorus. The children will be dressed in national costume and also be decked with their school colors. Aside from this large chorus the Normal school will render one or two vocal pieces. This out door festival will be on May 4.

The chorus at the Opera House will be held either on May 3 or 5. The date is not definitely settled as yet.

THE WIRELESS.

(From The Garden Island.)

In last week's issue we published a letter from the Wireless Co. in which they threatened to discontinue the service on Kauai, because they failed to get a guarantee of $250 a month from the customers on the island.

We did not comment further upon the action than deplore it at the time, but having looked up the matter we find that the demand appears to be altogether too high.

The company occupies a piece of land belonging to the Lihue Plantation Co., and at the time of installation was given it free of rent with the understanding that no subsidy was to be asked. The operator's salary and the telephone rent, which constitute the bulk of the expense at this end, amount to but little, while inquiry among the users of the commodity reveals that the average monthly fees paid by them to the company aggregate considerably more than this sum.

Without taking the revenue derived from messages sent to Kauai into consideration the company ought under the present circumstances to earn a nice help to a substantial dividend on the $5000 for which the whole concern was bought a few months ago by the manager of the company that sold out.

CHURCH INJURED.

John Kulae of Haena writes telling that the storm of March 7 did about $200 damage to their church at Haena. It appears that the body of the church was left intact so that with some repair their little place of worship will be again ready for service.—The Garden Island.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

The Chamber of Commerce held a short session yesterday. J. F. Morgan reported progress in the matter of funds for the Promotion Committee.

LIQUOR LAW WORKING BADLY

ACTING GOVERNOR ATKINSON'S REPLY TO THE PROTEST FROM KEALIA.

Acting Governor Atkinson has sent a reply to the Kealia protest against granting of a liquor license to one Kwong Sing. Atkinson is disposed to protest against the results of the new liquor law and objects to the increase of saloons, especially cheap ones which sell bad booze, as a result of the law. His answer to the protest discussing the matter was as follows:

"To T. K. R. Amalu, President and the others.

"Aloha Oukou: I beg leave to acknowledge the receipt of the communication from your society, dated March 17, protesting against the granting of liquor licenses to Kwong Sing and Ah Yet, and giving five reasons why same should not be granted.

"If you will refer to the liquor law, as passed by the last Legislature, you will see that protests, to have any effect, can only be made in a certain way. I have already written to Judge Kaul and told him how legal protests can be made.

"Formerly, the power to refuse a license was in the Governor, but the last Legislature, in its infinite wisdom, took the power away; and I have no hesitancy in saying that since then saloons have sprung up all over the country and there has been a very great increase in drunkenness.

"I hope that you people will bear this in mind when you send your next representatives and senators to the Legislature. I wish that it was in my power to grant your request, but it is not.

"In talking to one of the largest employers of coolies, in Honolulu, he told me that since the saloons had multiplied, and liquor was easy to purchase, and its quality so poor, more men had been incapacitated for work by drunkenness than ever before. He said, also, that if he continued to lose his laborers at the present rate, he had no doubt that before long he would have to employ Japanese to do the work. It is a pretty serious state of affairs, but the present liquor law is to blame.

"I trust when you send your next representatives to the Legislature, they will come pledged to do something to change this condition. I will hand your protest to the Treasurer.

"I have the honor to be your obedient servant.

(Signed) A. L. C. ATKINSON,
"Acting Governor of Hawaii."

KAUAI KOREANS

LIHUE, March 19.—The Koreans had a little dispute among themselves last Thursday that resulted in a sore back for several of them and an acquaintance with Judge Kauli for two of them. It seems that Mr. Yee Ying Wah had warned his compatriotes that they would have to be careful as a Korean spy from Waimea was in the district. While this information was appreciated by some, Mr. Tung Yee Nui objected and to give weight to his objection applied a stick to the informant. The latter objected to the application and retaliated with his fists as best he could.

Sheriff Rice heard of the altercation, and thought it had gone further than reasonable, so he had both of the belligerents gathered in and sent down to the Niimalu cooler.

Deputy Sheriff Kaeo took them before the district magistrate the next morning where Yee Ying Wah pleaded guilty to the charge of assault and battery and was promptly fined $5 and $1 cost.

Tung Yee Nui told the court that he was not guilty, but the sheriff had witnesses enough to prove that the man was prevaricating, and in fact was the main offender. Judge Kauli at least saw it in that light and sentenced the man to three months in jail.—The Garden Island.

CAPTAIN GREGORY.

The numerous friends of Captain Gregory of the steamer Mikohala received him with great cheer Friday morning at Waimea. Recognizing in the hall well met Captain's spirit of fellowship which so few captains possess, they felt it nothing but proper to remember him on the eve of that day which is always the greatest of days so far as the land of his nativity is concerned.—The Garden Island.

SHORTAGE OF COAL OIL HERE

LARGE SHIPMENT ABOARD BARK R. P. RITHEH WHICH IS OUT UNUSUALLY LONG TIME.

There is a shortage of coal oil in Honolulu. The long passage of the bark R. P. Ritheh to this port is the cause of the shortage. She has a shipment of 10,000 cases of coal oil. The vessel is out 32 days today from San Francisco, which is one, if not the longest passage in her history. Considerable apprehension is being felt regarding her, aside from the necessity for her cargo to arrive.

DIED SUDDENLY THIS MORNING

YOUNG CLERK IN EMPLOY OF LEWIS & COMPANY SUCCUMBS TO TUMOR OF THE BRAIN.

E. A. Johnson, a clerk employed by Lewis & Company, died this morning of tumor of the brain. He had been ill for some time past, but the final attack did not begin until day before yesterday. He died in his rooms at the Elite Building about 7:45 o'clock this morning.

Johnson had been in falling health for some weeks past. His associates and employer at the store noticed that his memory was beginning to fail. He pluckily kept up his work, however, until day before yesterday when Mr. Lewis noticed him in very poor spirits. Mr. Lewis was informed by some of the other clerks that Johnson was quite sick, so going to the young man, he advised him to go home, go to bed and remain until he had regained his health. Johnson made an effort to keep up his spirits and replied that he felt all right and could remain and work.

At lunch time Johnson appeared to be in such condition that Mr. Lewis all but peremptorily told him to remain at home. Johnson did so. Mr. Lewis sent a young man to remain with the sick man and on Tuesday morning Dr. Hodgins was called. The patient became gradually worse, and this morning when the attendant went to inquire for him, he found Johnson lying. Dr. Hodgins arrived after death had occurred.

Little is known about Johnson. He was about 26 or 27 years of age and it is thought a native of California. His mother resides in Berkeley, California, but as she has remarried her present name was not known this morning to Mr. Lewis. Johnson was previously employed in the tea store of William P. Lewis, one of the Lewis brothers, at San Francisco. The young man asked for a position with the local store and came here about ten years ago. He had been in the employ of Lewis & Company ever since. Mr. Lewis stated that a cablegram would be sent to Lewis & Company in San Francisco in order that the relatives of the deceased could be notified of the death and could direct the disposition of the remains.

The funeral of the deceased will be held at 12:30 p. m. tomorrow from the undertaking parlors of H. H. Williams and the interment will be in Pearl City cemetery. The remains will be encased in a casket so as to admit of their being disinterred for subsequent shipment to California should the mother of the deceased care to make such disposition of her son's body. Rev. John W. Wadman will officiate.

CHURCH CONVENTIONS ON OTHER ISLANDS

REV. O. H. GULICK, SPEAKS OF THE EVANGELICAL CHURCH ASSOCIATION.

Rev. O. H. Gulick who recently returned from the Evangelical Convention on the other islands reports the greatest of success attending both conventions.

He says: "On February 28 the Kinau reached Hilo and in the darkness the pastors and delegates were driven to Kalapana where the convention was held. The hospitality of the residents there equaled that shown in the days gone by when the first missionaries visited the islands. On the 1st of March the Evangelical church association of the Island of Hawaii began its sessions. Aside from the churches; Sabbath schools and Christian Endeavor societies were represented. Rev. G. L. Kopa was the moderator of the convention. Dr. Scudder, secretary of the Hawaiian Board, addressed the meeting besides many others.

"The Rev. K. Heguchi, a Japanese was ordained and installed as pastor of the Japanese church in Hilo. He was formerly of Puuene, Maui. "One thing in connection with Kalapana is that there is not a single saloon in the place. A unanimous petition has kept the saloons out. And instead of hurting the place, no where will one find better houses, or a happier class of people."

"On the third Sunday in March the Convention for the islands of Maui, Molokai and Lanai met at Kipahulu Maui. Rev. P. S. Kahokeluna was moderator and the Rev. D. W. White secretary."

LIQUID VENEER

MAKES OLD THINGS NEW

Liquid Veneer is a wonder! It will make re-finishing or re-varnishing entirely unnecessary. It is not a varnish, but a surface food and cleaner, bulding up the original finish and making it brighter than ever. It is applied with a piece of cheese cloth and no experience is necessary. No drying to wait for. Removes all scratches, stains, dirt, dullness. It can be applied to any finish with beautiful results. Natural wood, as well as any color of paint, will be better for an application of Liquid Veneer. Liquid Veneer will improve even the most beautiful furniture. It will take that smoky look from the Piano and other mahogany, and is highly beneficial to Golden Oak, White Enamel, Gilt, Silver and other finishes. In 8 oz., 1 quart and 1/2 gallon bottles, at
