We remember in our college days we used to sing:

There came as a boon and a blessing
to men
The Pickwick, the Owl, and the Waverley Pen.

But those days are gone, and so is the fame of those pens. We have new and better pens now, and a new and better
song:

They came as a boon and a blessing
to men
The Railroad, the Stub and the Esterbrook Pen.

These pens are made under the Stars and Stripes, consequently they are the best in the world.

FINE RACES AT SPRECKELS' PARK

A Large Attendance, Good Races and Excellent
Music Made It a Memorable
Race Day.

THE HAIKU WATER CASE.

After a Trial Lasting Several Days Jury Returns Verdict
in Favor of Plaintiff--A Hot Time in the Old Town.

FINE RACES AT SPRECKEL'S PARK.

Under the most glorious auspices the twentieth annual meet of the Maui Racing Association took place last Wednesday, July 4, at Spreckel's Park, Kahului. A very large attendance was present bedecked in holiday attire and all in such a spirit as is wanted to make any event a success.

The track was in the finest condition possible and to Manuel Sequeira, the Kahului police officer, is due much credit for the efficient manner in which he kept all persons, with the exception of officers and those wearing quarter-stretch badges, away from the track.

Before nine o'clock in the morning the crowd commenced arriving and before the first race was started the stands were crowded and for a long distance along the fence a great many more people were standing.

Music was furnished by the E.
K. Kaa Junior Glee Club and was enjoyed by all present. It was really an unexpected treat to the patrons of the Association and did much to cheer the losers on the different events. The singing and playing was well done and it should inspire the musicians of Maui to get together and form an orchestra
for such purposes.

At 10:30 a. m. the first race, a mile dash, horses to be owned and ridden by Japanese was called and started with the following horses:
Fourth of July, Gray Horse, Lahaina Girl and Hawaii. From the start the Gray Horse led up to the first eighth where he was displaced by Fourth of July, who came in ahead in 40 sec., with Gray Horse a close second. It was a very pretty race from start to finish and all Japanese were very much interested in it.

THE HAIKU WATER CASE.

The long drawn out legal contest instituted by J. A. Aheong against the Haiku Sugar Company was presented to the jury Tuesday afternoon.

This suit was begun years ago,
and has been set over from year to year until last Wednesday when Judge W. J. Robinson took up the case.

Aheong was represented by W.
A. Keeney and the defendant company by Attorneys W. O. Smith and W. J. Warren.

In this case there was a large number of witnesses and an interminable number of questions and objections on the part of the opposing attorneys.

The right to the water was claimed in part by Aheong, and wholly claimed by the company which has held the water permanently since 1876.

A number of hours were consumed in agreeing to the instructions to be given to the jury.

Attorney Warren opened the case for the defendant company and went over the points carefully
pointing out the material points, first in regard to the digging of the ditch, and the constant use of the water by the defendant company, and leading from point to point in a careful manner. He was followed by W. O. Smith who called attention to the fact that Aheong had testified that he valued the water in question at $450. per year while he had as a matter of fact leased his water for an annual rental of $15 per year and later for $12 per year, and at one time the land and water for $50 to Akana Liili, who had sufficient water, but found the land worthless and gave it up.

Also that Manuel Tavares had leased the land and gave it up.
Showing a wide difference of valuation when making a lease and a valuation for the purpose of damages before the Court.

W. A. Kinney for the plaintiff in his usual forceful manner went to work with the determination to win by the skill of a brilliant attorney rather than by confining his efforts to showing the legal side of his case. As might have been expected much stress was put on the different financial standing of the contestants and as much sympathy as possible sought for the plaintiff.

Mr. Kinney closed his address with an appeal to the jury on the ground that so much was at stake
that it was a case of life and death to the plaintiff, Aheong. This called W. O. Smith to his feet, and a lively tilt ensued.

Very lengthy instructions were given that took some forty minutes in giving by the Court. At 5:45
the jury retired to the jury room for the consideration of their verdict in charge of Bailiff Brown, and at 8:50 returned with a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $1,500.
Exceptions were at once noted and notice of a motion for a new trial was made.

It is evident that the case is by no means settled and that it will be in the courts for a long time to come.

A HOT TIME IN THE OLD TOWN.

There was a hot time in Wailuku
Saturday night, such as is seldom seen on this island.

A number of young fellows from Kakaako District in Honolulu arrived in town a few days ago and proceeded to celebrate the Fourth of July according to the traditions of their district as a result of which a great many people became involved in scraps that left bruised bodies and injured joints and a number of miscreants to the tender mercies of the Hotel de la Crowell.

The row was started on Market Street, and Officer John Paikaka and Deputy Sheriff Clark attempted to arrest Kua, when in the tussle of the crowd the officer went down and Deputy Sheriff Clark also came out with an injured wrist that he now carries in a sling. Kua was arrested and placed in a Japanese hack, and the driver requested to drive to the station. Kua struck the driver in the eye and placed him out of commission.
The driver's place was taken by a half white boy, who, on being struck from behind, resigned his post without further ado. A special police, who was assisting officer Paikaka, was struck in the back of the neck by a Portuguese and put out for a time. Several arrests were finally made and the offenders placed in jail.

About this time, some of the residents of town telephoned E. H.
Bailey that they had not received their butter. He had sent his team
by Jose Wilson and Henry Cleveland.

Superintendent of Waterworks
W. E. Bal was requested to take charge of the wagon and team.
The young fellows who evidently had been imbibing too heavily went to Mr. Bal's residence and started a row.

Several people were hurt and the two landed in jail, where Wilson forfeited bail and Cleveland pleaded guilty to a charge of drunkenness and was fined $3.

SINGER SEWING MACHINES

Cannot be obtained through merchandise dealers. They are delivered directly from maker to user only through the Company's own employees. There is as great a difference in the cost of making sewing machines as there is in making watches. A cheap watch will indicate time with fair accuracy for a short time. Fairly good stitching can be done on some of the old patterns of cheap sewing machines when they are new, but they always work hard, are noisy and soon wear out.
Every SINGER MACHINE is tested by actual sewing at the factory.
It is always ready for every kind of stitching and will do better work and do it longer than any other because it is of better design and construction. A Postal Card to

SATURDAY, JULY 7, 1906

Advertiser's Jubilee Number. The Pacific Commercial Advertiser of Honolulu has commemorated its fiftieth anniversary by issuing a Jubilee number that is a credit to the pioneer paper in the Territory.

On July second, 1856, that paper issued its first number and has continued to grow in size and influence until today it stands at the head of journalism in the Territory.

Many are the changes noted by the paper since that day. At that time Honolulu was a little village, hardly known on the map, and those who have figured so prominently in the development of the islands were but children.

The industries that have made the islands what they are, were but dreams at that time and have all been brought to prominence since the little paper began its career.

That this paper has had much to do with moulding the thought of the community during the past fifty years cannot be denied, and that much is due it for its help must be conceded.

Any newspaper of general circulation exerts a greater or less influence for good or for evil, and it must be a source of satisfaction to its owners to know that the balance on the books of public opinion is in their favor.

May our valued contemporary continue to grow in the future as it has in the past.

The Races at Kahului. The races at Kahului on the Fourth of July were among the best ever held on this island and seemed to give universal satisfaction.

An unusually large attendance was on hand and the most orderly crowd seen anywhere for years. Many people who attended for the first time expressed surprise at the good behavior of all present. On an occasion of this kind one naturally expects to see some misbehavior but not so at Kahului.

The races were fairly run and no charges of jobbery made. This is a most healthy sign for nothing will so soon disgust the people as trickery. The officers of the Association are all men of high standing and the manner in which they conducted the races was a credit to themselves and greatly to the advantage of the Association. Few people are so dead as not to enjoy the exciting contests between good horses and those who attended the races this year were all thoroughly satisfied with the day's sport.

The contests were strictly of a local nature as the purses were not large enough to justify the expense of bringing Honolulu horses here. This also made jobbing less of a temptation and was far more satisfactory to all.

If the Association will continue to carry on the meetings each year in the future as they did this one they will do much to develop speedy horses here and afford much pleasure to the whole population on the island.

Kahului on the Map. A few weeks ago the Pacific Commercial Advertiser discovered that Kahului is on the map, and for her further enlightenment we would call her attention to the fact that during the month of June alone she shipped from this island cargoes to the extent of seventeen thousand two hundred tons at a value of $1,169,352.38.

During the month of June there was not a day that there were not foreign vessels in port, and the rapid manner in which they were loaded and unloaded would make the people stare. Honolulu has had the advantage of getting all the shipping in the past, but on the completion of the breakwater that is now being pushed to completion with private funds, she will build docks and extend her railroad to them and be in as good a position to handle foreign freight as Honolulu, and will not only take care of her own, but will bid for the freight of the other islands, and will get such deep water vessels as Honolulu cannot accommodate, and then the Advertiser will certainly discover that she is on the map.

There is not a port on the islands where so much freight is handled, according to her facilities as at Kahului in the short time that it takes the enterprising people at Kahului to handle it, and with her increased facilities she will handle freight more rapidly and more cheaply than any port in the group.

Politics of Doubtful Propriety. During the past ten days or two weeks most persistent rumors have been circulated to the effect that some of the members of the Republican Party had left the ranks and joined those of the Home Rule Party. Such rumors never permanently injure those about whom they have been circulated but act as a boomerang to those who circulate them.

In the present instance County Sheriff Saffery and Maurice Keo, hokalohe are two who have been singled out to make such charges against and it seems that each have been slated for positions in the Home Rule Party.

From present indications it would do no one any good to receive a nomination at their hands, which probably accounts for the lavish manner in which they are handing out the empty honors.

It would certainly be to the interests of the Home Rule Party to take from the Republican Party as many of her strong men as she could; but it is a long way in the distance when the Home Rulers will carry the day at an election.

Cole Nominated For Governor.

Duluth (Minn.), June 13.—The Republican State Convention today nominated the following State ticket: Governor, A. L. Cole of Walker; Lieutenant-Governor, E. O. Eberhart, Mankato; Treasurer, C. C. Dinehart, Slayton; Attorney General, E. T. Young, Appleton; Secretary of State, Julius Schmal, Redwood Falls; Auditor, S. G. Iverson, Rushford; Clerk of Supreme Court, C. A. Pidgeon, Buffalo; Railroad Commissioner, C. F. Staples, West St. Paul.

To all appearances J. F. Jacobsen has swept the State for the gubernatorial nomination. He ran on his record as a member of the Minnesota Legislature during its stormy days, when he earned a reputation for being the most radical reform legislator in the State. This morning the six other candidates got together in a determined effort to withstand a Jacobsen stampede, and on the fourth ballot, after Jacobsen had held a good lead and made consistent gains, the convention nominated A. L. Cole of Walker, a prominent leader in the last session of the House. At midnight last night he had decided to withdraw from the fight, but the other candidates induced him to stay in the race. The convention unanimously endorsed Senator Knute Nelson to succeed himself next winter.

The platform, which was adopted without debate, gives an enthusiastic endorsement of the national Republican Administration; approves the messages and acts of President Roosevelt, especially commending him for his stand in the enforcement of the laws against trusts, monopolies and combinations in restraint of trade; the Panama canal; protection to American labor and industries; the gold standard; legislation against the adulteration of food; election of United States Senators by direct vote; a two-cent railroad fare; abolition of free passes and a readjustment of freight rates.

Claims She Is Wife of Platt.

Colon (Mich.), June 19.—Mrs. Mae Catherine Wood, who since the marriage of United States Senator Thomas C. Platt to Mrs. Lillian T. Jane-way, has announced that she would publish a book entitled "Love Letters of a Boss," has turned over to her attorneys, O'Flaherty and Fulton of Richmond, Va., what she insists is a certificate of her marriage to Senator Platt. By this and letters from him she will endeavor to prove that her marriage was legal and that she has never been divorced.

A photographic reproduction of the certificate shows that the marriage took place November 9, 1891, in an apartment at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, New York, and that it was performed by Rev. Edward W. Rice, an Episcopal clergyman. The name of J. V. Jones, said to have been employed by Senator Platt, appears as a witness to the ceremony. Mrs. Wood claims that she kept the marriage secret at the request of Senator Platt, who feared it would injure his political chances, and that afterward she was hounded by Government agents and that the postal department kept close trace of her for the benefit of Senator Platt.

Divorced From Foe of Kisses.

Winchester (Va.), June 19.—Mrs. Marry A. McCune, 16 years of age, was today granted a divorce from her husband, James G. McCune, on ground of desertion. She charges that her husband willfully left her two weeks after their wedding day. She says in her bill that she was an obedient and loyal wife and that she was in love with her husband.

Some months ago, while a member of the Virginia State Senate, McCune gained great notoriety as the father and patron of the anti-kissing bill, a measure designed to prevent flirtation with school girls in this State. Through this connection he became known as the anti-kissing statesman. McCune was 40 years old at the time of his elopement with pretty Mary Parker. There was opposition to the marriage on account of the youth of the bride.

Wife Skips Out and Marries Another

A divorce suit attended by some rather unusual circumstances was heard before Judge Lindsay yesterday afternoon. Heinrich Carl Schmidt sued Marie Theresa Schmidt for divorce on grounds of desertion. He showed that he married the libellee on Jan. 15, 1902, and that they lived together at Ewa from Jan. 23 until April 8, 1902, when the libellee deserted him and has ever since refused to live with him.

The libellant produced an affidavit in which he stated that after leaving him his wife went to San Francisco, and about a month later she married one Samuel Stauyon at Redwood City under the name of May D. Nettle. Schmidt says he first suspected this fact when he saw in the Examiner an account of the marriage accompanied by a photograph of the bride, whom he recognized as his wife. On making further inquiry this information was corroborated by the libellee's parents and also by the justice of the peace, who performed the ceremony. Schmidt tried to find his wife's address but failed to do so. Later on he ascertained that she was constantly changing it, as she feared that he would bring criminal proceedings against her for adultery or bigamy. Later on he was informed, again by the Examiner, that the second husband of his wife, Samuel Stauyon, left the city for parts unknown, being under suspicion of having embezzled funds of an organization by which he was employed. He also received a letter purporting to come from his wife, but not signed by her, dated Portland, Oregon, July 28, 1905, in which she said that she was going East to seek a position. She also asked him to defer all action against her to prevent notoriety for her mother's sake. Since then he has not heard from her, and has been unable to ascertain her whereabouts.

Judge Lindsay granted a decree of absolute divorce.—Bulletin.

General Wyman On Molokai Station

In the report of an address delivered by Surgeon General Wyman at the session of the officers of the State and Territorial boards of health, the Washington Star of May 23 contains the following synopsis of his reference to the projected experiment station on Molokai:

"Gen. Wyman said he was glad to be able to announce that they had been able to select an ideal spot on the Island of Molokai, and had secured the services of Dr. Brinkerhoff of the Harvard Medical School as chief surgeon in charge of the station. He is a young man with all of youth, health and enthusiasm in his favor. Such tentative investigations and experiments as were possible in the earlier days of the station were already being carried on, and though the buildings were not yet completed, and there was a great deal to do, the work was coming on and promised well. There are not yet any conclusive results, he said, to report."—Advertiser.

Koa Lumber Company Sawing—Ships to S. F.

The Hawaiian Mahogany Company has already begun operations. On Monday sawing began on a shipment of koa lumber to be sent to San Francisco by the steamer Enterprise. The mill at the shops of the Hilo Railroad Co. is to be used for the purpose of getting out the lumber till a mill can be got in operation in the forest, a space of several months at least, probably. This mill is to be located in the body of timber near the Volcano House. The mill at the railroad shops has a capacity of from two to three thousand feet a day, and will be kept in operation continuously, the output being shipped to San Francisco by the Matson steamers.

J. Gamalielson, living six miles up on the Kaunua road, will furnish the logs, from timber cut several years ago, delivering the same to the Hilo Railroad at Hilo for transportation to the mill.

A good demand for this lumber has arisen in San Francisco already for finishing work on buildings there, and Mr. Richley, who has taken a hand in the promotion of the industry, states that the supervising architect of the proposed Los Angeles post office is to specify it for use in the finishing of that building.

It is expected that the incorporation papers filed with the territorial officials a couple of weeks ago, will be returned approved by the latter part of the week, when officers of the company will be elected. Messrs. Robert W. Shingle, of Honolulu, and E. H. Cant, chief engineer for the Onomea Sugar Co., went to the Volcano Saturday afternoon on business connected with this enterprise.—Hilo Tribune.

High Rivers Threatened Crops.

Stockton, June 19.—San Joaquin, old and middle rivers, are exceptionally high tonight for this season of the year, and as the San Joaquin is slowly rising there is great danger of some levee on Union and Victoria islands giving away before morning. A large force of men are patrolling the embankments at the lowest points and a half dozen large dredgers are kept in readiness with steamers to tow them to any point when they are needed.

In the vicinity of Clifton Court there is a large force of men in readiness to be used in strengthening the levee. At 10 o'clock tonight the water had from four to eleven inches to rise before going over the levees on Victoria island, one of the richest tracts of land in this country. In two or three places the water was within two or three inches of the levee on Union island, and the property owners had little hopes of saving the crop, as the water was still coming up. The first of flax grown in this vicinity is maturing there, and the 150 acre crop is valued at $150,000 in the fields. The reports from up-valley point are that the San Joaquin carrying about all the water it can and that there is still an unusually large volume of water to come down from the snow regions, where it is melting at a fast rate. Should the levee give way the loss will run into hundreds of thousands of dollars, as between 8000 and 10,000 acres will be inundated.

Heavy Increase Of Jap Cavalry.

Victoria [B. C.], June 13.—Advices were received by the steamer Tydeus that drastic reorganization of the Japanese army was about to take place, resultant from lessons learned during the recent war. The change will be made when the new two-year term of service with colors commences in December. The number of divisions will be increased to twenty-one. There are but thirteen now. The most remarkable change is in the cavalry arm, which will be increased to eight divisions, a sixteen-fold increase. The whole force at present consists of a brigade, or half a division. A force of heavy artillery will be organized. This force has hitherto had no place in the Japanese army. The force of engineers will be trebled, as also will the land transport corps. Twenty-one regiments of horse artillery will be organized, one being attached to each division. In addition, it is proposed that tele phone battalions will be added to each division.

Fair Thief Gets Safety Away.

Oakland, June 19.—A female thief, who is described as being handsome, young and stylishly dressed, attempted a robbery last night at the corner of Twelfth and Washington street, and but for her cleverness would have been captured in the act and turned over to the police. As Mrs. A. Summers of Thirteenth and West streets was coming out of a store at the corner named she left a bag at her watch chain, and, looking up, found that it had been broken and that a young woman was making away with it and her watch. She shouted "Stop thief!" and a man grabbed the girl.

The latter, seeing herself caught, threw the watch violently on the pavement, smashing it to bits. The man involuntarily let go of his capture to pick up the watch, and in an instant the clever young thief had disappeared into a store. When followed it was found that she had gone out of the store by another door and had mingled in the crowd, getting safely away. A search was made for her, but without avail. Mrs. Summers described the thief as being tall, very pretty, with refined features and handsomely gowned.

Pays Tribute To San Francisco.

Washington, June 19.—Jusserand, the French Ambassador, has shown President Roosevelt a letter he received from G. Thouroude, a Frenchman, general agent of the "Chargeurs Reunis" Company, who was an eye witness of the San Francisco disaster. In this letter Thouroude pays a high tribute to the people of San Francisco and the way they conducted themselves in the time of great misfortune. After speaking of the admirable manner in which the situation was handled, the writer says: "To be sure, the enforcement of martial law from the very first day, the destruction of liquor and alcohol, the closing of barrooms, were measures of great wisdom and no one will question that they contributed to the splendid achievement, but there was but very little influence of those handfuls of soldiers over the wide territory and that only the true, power-protector of order and property was, above all, the people of San Francisco itself. This is a homage which, as a truthful witness, I want to pay to which, I believe, the Americans of all America will be proud."

Guarding Against Yellow Fever.

New York, June 19.—Dr. A. H. Doty, Health Officer of the port of New York, says that the new quarantine regulations affecting Cuban ports will go into effect on Saturday next, and will be enforced to the letter. Under these regulations passengers on steamships from Havana and other Cuban ports must, on arrival, produce certificates showing that they are immune from yellow fever. Their failure to do so will mean that they will be held for observation until five days have elapsed since their departure from Cuba.

"The new regulation is intended to keep yellow fever out of our Southern States," said Dr. Doty. "For instance, person with the fever in his system may come from Havana in three days, and if allowed to land can, by taking a fast train, be in New Orleans before the expiration of the five days' limit. Hence the necessity for all but immunes under observation for that period. New York is of course in no danger, for there are no yellow fever mosquitoes there. It is different in the South, however. We have got to protect that section of the country, and that is exactly what the new regulation is intended to accomplish."

No Policies In Six-Bit Concerns.

San Diego, June 19.—At a meeting of the board of trustees of the Public Library to-night a resolution was unanimously adopted looking to better protection from loss by fire by securing policies placed in companies the stability of which is not questioned by their own acts. The resolution adopted is as follows:

"Resolved, That all policies held by this board in what are known as the 'six-bit' companies, viz., the companies which are not settling their San Francisco losses at 100 cents on the dollar, be canceled, and that the agents who have delivered any such policies to this board during the present year be requested to cause new

About six months ago we sold two kodaks fitted with special lenses. The lenses cost more than the kodaks. But the work turned out by these two kodaks was so far superior to the ordinary that the owners became enthusiasts. Others saw the pictures and ordered special lenses for their kodaks. As a result we have sold more Goetz and Zeiss lenses already this year than in all the years we have been in business. We have always recommended such an equipment but the price of the special lens made customers reluctant to try it. Since they have seen the advantage we are getting orders nearly every day. If you want the BEST results get a Goetz or Zeiss lens. We have several very fine ones in stock and will quote prices.

Tour Through The Cane Fields Of Hamakua

Hilo, Hawaii, June 17.—Two days in the life of a man, is a little while. Two days, in vehicles various and over roads that are a muck of dusk where they are not gnarled with rocks, may come to seem like a life time—and then some. We were two days from the plantation of Honokaa to Hilo, and by the courtesy of Manager Gjerdrum of Honokaa we were relieved of the necessity of making that distance on horseback.
They do things in a large and lordly way, these plantation managers. My friend, known in Honolulu as the politically wicked Mr. Achi, once made reference in a speech on the floor of the Senate of Hawaii to the "Sugar Bar-rons"—with the accent on the last syllable—meaning the owners of sugar plantations.
My friend, Mr. Achi, as usual, was mistaken. It is the managers of the plantations who keep baronial state. Take for example, Mr. Gjerdrum of Honokaa. You come to his place, looking rather like a tramp on horseback, tired and dusty and sore feeling at war with all mankind—yourself rather more than with any other. If you come, as I did, from Waimea way, over the new road and down past the homesteads in the forest, you will have ridden down a rocky causeway that is like a stone staircase whereof mischievous fitans have remove every other stair, and your tired, footsore horse so shaken you at the end of a long day that you will rather dismount at the gate of a mansion set on a hill, from which gleam many electric lights.
And you will be delivered into the hands of a tall, handsome man in white, who looks like Nansen, and has in his nature that gentle Norse strength that will serve to the end—and do no man harm. You will be delivered into his hands, and will be perfectly content to rest there. It was only in the most casual way, sometimes during the second day at Honokaa, that I learned that Manager Gjerdrum had sent the horses that had carried us from Waimea. It seemed the natural and proper thing for him to do, a mere matter of course. He was the kind of man who sends horses and men, here, there and everywhere, to do his will.

His welcome to Honokaa was of the same large, lordly kind. He was the ruler of the land, and we were his guests. Wherefore, we felt that we had acquired an interest of proprietorship, by right of his hospitality. And that, I take it, is the perfection of tact.
Manager Gjerdrum is the real ruler of the plantation on Hawaii that carries the largest burden of homesteaders in proportion to its area. He carries that burden as he carries all the rest. Indeed, if I were a capitalist with money to invest, I think I would put it in Honokaa because of Gjerdrum.
The Honokaa settlers have their homesteads on the uplands and at dinner, after we had been shown into comfortable rooms and had bathed comfortably in the Manager's house—I had very nearly written castle—on the hill, the talk turned upon sugar, of course, and plantation matters and the homesteaders. The Manager was warm in his praises of the Portuguese settlers. He would not have complained if they had turned badly, but was plainly glad to have the men that he had, although there were not enough of them to do any work in the fields. They were employed, for the most part, about the mill and with the teams.
"They have their own little cane patches up there," he said, "and the women and children take care of them while the men ride down here to work in the morning and ride back again at night. I pay them between $3 75 and $4.09 a ton for their cane, standing in the field, we pay all the cost of cutting and transportation to the mill. And we give them all the seed cane they want. There is no profit in it. In fact, we generally make a loss in dealing with the homesteaders. But it encourages them." The Manager is sure of at least that many laborers, which is a consideration in these times when all the plantations are short of labor. And that fact should lend color of kindness to the plantation spirit in approaching the labor problem in search of a solution. The Manager of Honokaa has seen the storm coming, a long way off, and has staped his course by the longer view.
In the hands of such a man, it was not at all surprising to rise on the second morning and find that a comfortable surrey had taken the place of the saddle-horses of the former stage. The "Hawaiian jog" is a comfortable gait enough, when the jogging horse is in harness ahead and not in the saddle under you—and it eats up the long miles.
Most people of Honolulu know that beautiful stretch of green coast that lies along windward Hawaii—eighty miles of sugar cane stretching up the long slopes to the black forest line and threaded with silvery streams leaping from the cliffs into the sea at short intervals. Very few, I take it, have ridden through these green fields, mile after mile, as I did, and been fortunate enough to see, as I saw, the whole process of cane growing, from planting to cutting, from fluming the cane down swiftly to the mills to putting the sacked sugar on the ships in the harbor of this town of Hilo.
And in the fields, I have seen small Portuguese boys plant cane alongside Japanese men and beat them at it, row for row. I have seen a Portuguese, past middle age, cutting the ripe cane in the midst of a gang of Japs and Koreans—and advancing into the mass of vegetation a yard ahead of his fellows all the time. Don't tell me that white man cannot work in the cane fields! That is a fetich, fostered by people who do not want white men there, it may be. I have seen the white man at it, and he and his sons could have worked rings around the Asians. On those upland fields of Hawaii, where the sun is not so hot as in the corn fields of Kansas and Missouri, and the labor no more arduous, any white man can work in the sun and can thrive. The fetich that he cannot do the work has been held before the white man—and the white man of Anglo Saxon blood has disdain to put himself on a working level with the Jap and the Korean. Let the white man of your own blood take a fighting chance, gentlemen, and see where you would land?
Or, if not that, lend the encouragement of your approval to the Portuguese experiment. The Portuguese make good citizens, too, and achieve the Anglo-Saxon standard in time. Nobody will object if you make profit of their growing season.

LOCALS

Dr. Rogers, the Oculist and Aurist, will be on Maui for a few days, on and after Wednesday July 11th.

A dinner and dance are to be given at Kahului on the evening of July 14th for the benefit of the new church. Trains will be run from Waialua, Kahului and Paia. The dinner will be excellent, choice music furnished, and all of the best people of Maui are expected to be present.

The republican executive committee held a meeting on Tuesday, and among the matters of public interest passed was a resolution requesting the Supt. Public Works to complete Mokolau landing and approach. The last legislature appropriated funds for this purpose and the work should be done at once.

Waialua Gets the Convention.

The Republican Territorial Committee held a meeting Monday evening in Honolulu and decided to hold the coming Territorial Convention in Waialua. The convention will be held on Saturday, September 8th and the delegates will be chosen according to the old precinct lines.

Maui is justly entitled to the convention and the action of the committee will meet the approval of all Maui.

The convention will probably be held in the new Knights of Pythias Hall as they are willing that the convention may be held there free of cost. Ample hotel accommodations may be had here and at Paia and the Kahului Railroad runs between the two places on such a schedule that it will be no inconvenience to those who wish to stay at the latter place.

Judge Kepoikai is awarded a Silver Punch Bowl.

The Evening Bulletin voting contest has come to a close and the winners are found to be George C. Beckley First Prize, St. Louis College Alumni Association Second Prize, Co. D. N. G. H. of Hilo Third Prize and Judge A. N. Kepoikai fourth Prize. While the other prizes were in the following order: Lihue Kegel Club, Diamond Head Athletic Club, J. L. Friel, J. D. Veigh, Mrs. Lucy Wright, Mrs. C. L. Dickenson.

As the Judge is on the waterwagon all his friends can get him to promise them a lemonade without even a stick in it.

Judge Kepoikai entered the race late in the game and after many votes had been promised. His vote was received from his friends voluntarily and the result a credit to any one.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

"I, W. E. Saffery, Sheriff of the County of Maui, T. H. hereby announce to the Public that I am still a true and genuine Republican and absolutely deny the truth of the rumor circulated that I have joined the HOME-RULE PARTY.

I believe such rumors to be a political scheme exercised by some one, in order that I may not receive the nomination for the office as Sheriff of the County, or any other office, from my own party.

Even if not nominated to any office, I shall be a staunch Republican.

The originator of this rumor is now known to me, and I dare say that if he was in my stead, and did not receive the nomination to some Office, he would bolt his Party.

Yours very truly
(Signed.) W. E. SAFFERY.

Kahului Tennis Club Gives Grand Ball.

The Kahului Tennis Club entertained a large number of friends on the evening of July 3rd. The affair was one of the most successful dances ever held on Maui and one of which the club may justly feel proud.

Free trains were run from all parts of central Maui and taken advantage of by nearly all who were fortunate enough to receive an invitation.

A large platform had been erected in the ironwood grove back of the store in the tennis court and seats provided for all while the decorations were simply perfect.

Hundreds of Japanese lanterns were hung from the street to the court and among the trees encircling the court while the court was lighted up with electric light especially placed for the occasion.

The music furnished was by a sextet from Honolulu especially engaged for the occasion.

The ladies were tastefully attired and the young men were at their best while the evening was one round of pleasure.

About eleven thirty the guests repaired to the tables where abundant food of the choicest kind was spread on fourteen large tables but owing to the great number of persons present were found to be some what lacking in capacity for the large number of people present.

It was nearly two o'clock in the morning before the guests finally started home and it may safely be said that all enjoyed one of the most delightful evenings of the year.

All credit is due the members of the club for the successful manner in which they conducted the dance and the royal manner in which they entertained their guests.

JUDGE ROBINSON ENTERTAINED.

Judge W. J. Robinson was entertained Sunday, and an excellent dinner had and a pleasant afternoon enjoyed.

A large number of guests were present, including Judge A. N. Kepoikai, District Magistrate McKay, Hugh M. Coke of the MAUI NEWS, D. H. Davis, W. T. Robinson, J. H. Fuller, Geo. Weight, Noa W. Aluli, J. N. K. Keola, James T. Taylor, Edmund H. Hart and others.
Story telling and card games were enjoyed until late in the afternoon. The Judge proved an expert at both.

Second Race.—One half mile dash. Free for all. Defender ran against Bess and came in with Bess a close second. Time 56 sec.

There being only one entry in the third race on the programme it was withdrawn and also all other driving races.

Fourth Race.—One half mile dash. Horses to be owned and ridden by Japanese. Fourth of July, Labaina Girl and Hawaii were entered. The riders brought their horses up and made a dash but it was not a start and they not listening to the bell went around the track in fast time. The race was run again and easily won by Fourth of July with 5 lengths between her and the second horse, Labaina Girl, in 59 sec.

Fifth Race.—Polo Pony Race, 1 mile dash. Haukalan and Jubilee started and the latter won by a neck. Time, 56 1/2 sec.

Sixth Race. Three fourths mile dash. Defender and Black Bess were run again. After jockeying for position for a while a start was made and at the eighth Black Bess tripped throwing his rider over, but not hurting either very much. Defender was then slowed up by jockey Patterson and finished alone in 2:23 seconds. This race showed signs of being the prettiest race of the day had not Bess fallen.

A match race for one quarter mile was then run between Frank S. and Happy Hooligan. A start was made and Hooligan was left at the pole. Frank S. was declared winner.

A recess of one hour was then declared and the people partook of lunches brought by them. During the intermission the musicians kept on playing thus keeping up the spirit of the crowd while they fed the inner man.

Another match race was then run between Lindsay's Kalakoa and Keokeo, owned by a Japanese. It was won easily by Kalakoa.

Eighth Race.—One-half mile dash. This was made a special race between Fourth of July and Euradius. Fourth of July came in ahead in 54 1/5 sec., but the race had to be run again owing to a foul on Euradius.

The Cowboy Relay Race was postponed until after the 12th race at the request of different owners of horses that took part in the event.

Eleventh Race.—One mile dash for Hawaiian breeds. Fourth of July, Euradius and Kihel Pili took part in this race and after a fast race Fourth of July came in first with Euradius a close second in 1:56 2/5. The race was given to Euradius, owing to the disqualification of Fourth of July, the rider of which when weighed showed nine pounds short.

Twelfth Race.—One mile dash, free for all. This was the race of the day between Defender and Black Bess. Defender again was victorious after a very nice race in 1:59. Much credit should be given to Jockey Tom Patterson, who rode Defender, for the manner in which he put Defender ahead under the line.

The Cowboy Relay race, 1 1/2 miles dash, came next with the following teams entered: Aina, Haleakala Ranch, Grove Ranch, Spreckelsville Ranch. The Haleakala Ranch team won in 3:37 1/2.

Thirteenth Race.—One half mile Mule Race. The following four mules ran. Wait-a-Little, Volcano, Son of a Gun, and Piholo. The last named came in far in the lead in 1:07 1/5.

Fourteenth Race.—One-half mile dash, ponies 14 1/2 hands or under. Jubilee proved an easy winner in 55 2/5 seconds over Fourth of July and Euradius.

Fifteenth Race.—One half mile dash. Horses to be owned and ridden by Portuguese only. Francis Horton, Paia Girl, Maui, Kaiaoka were entered. Paia Girl won in 57 seconds with Maui a close second.

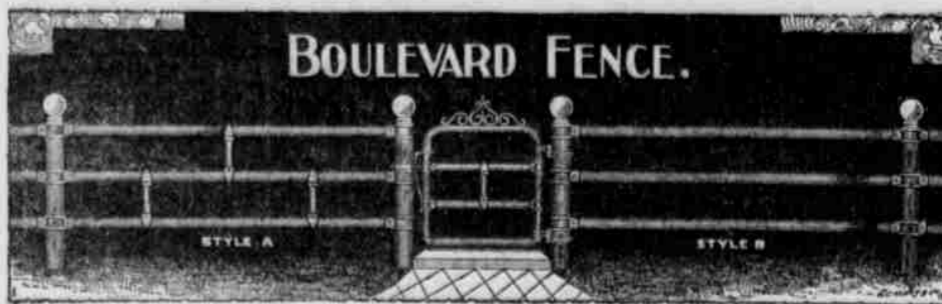

Sixteenth Race.—One half mile dash. Horses to be owned and ridden by Lunas. Geraldine S. won in 58 2/5 seconds from Kihel Pili and Paia Girl, who came in last.

Seventh Race.—Cowboy Tug-of-War. There were only two horses, Honolulu Girl and Kiwa, and after twice pulling over Kiwa, Honolulu Girl won.

The foul race between Fourth of July and Euradius was then run and won by Euradius in 59 1/5 second. The people then dispersed to their homes satisfied with the day's sport.

Eddie Devauchelle, the man who recently made a record breaking swim to Molokai when three other men were drowned, spent the Fourth at Kahului.

LAHAINA LINES.

The La Paloma crossed hats with the Ilmas. The game was closely contested by both teams and the La Palomas came out victorious by the score of 9 to 8.

This makes the first game that the Ilmas have lost since the 1906 games opened up.

The Molokai Devauchelles, Eugene and Eddie, have made a haul of Akuli. They claim that there is 30,000 fish in the haul and it will take some time to dispose of this enormous catch! They have made two trips in their gasoline launch this week bringing 5000 fish each load.

Capt. Bal was once more a Lahaina visitor. He takes a great deal of interest in his new recruits and we hope in the near future to compete with our Wailuku brothers in the manual of arms.

There was a dance given by the Ladies of the "Hui K. P." at Republic Hall July 3rd. Quite a crowd attended and everybody had a good time. The last dance was called at 4 o'clock on the morning of the 4th. Nothing small about this town.

The McCoblins celebrated the birthday of their youngest son Sonnie, by giving an open invitation to the Lahaina public at their residence "Ma'a." There was a grand lay out and everybody ate of the good things before them. The Ponceine string band was in attendance as our genial friend Mack comes from there.

The Wailuku Minstrels will once more visit our town to give a farewell concert. As this will positively be their last visit for some time it is to be hoped that they will receive a crowded house with standing room only.

The sidewalks on Main street are progressing rapidly. One more and we will have a splendid road as far as the canal.

W. E. SHAW RETURNS FROM CUBA.

W. E. Shaw who made a success in cane at Nahiku and later sold a large tract of land to the Nahiku Rubber Company has just returned from Cuba where he went over the whole island carefully studying the conditions there and incidentally investing in such snaps as he found. Mr. Shaw is loud in his praise of Cuba and believes it will within ten years be a state of the Union.

Mr. Shaw's friends here have dubbed him as the first "United States Senator from Cuba." He left Monday for Hilo on a short business trip.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. D. O. Hammond, manager of the California Harness Shop of Honolulu, arrived in town last Saturday, and has been serving the wants of our people in his line. Mr. Hammond has the largest and best shop in Honolulu.

Miss Juliette Atherton of Honolulu is visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Case.

Mr. James Thompson, the head luna of H. C. & S. Co's. plantation, was made a first class Yankee on July 5th by his Honor Judge A. N. Kepolikai. Mr. Thompson is a native of Scotland.

Mrs. Carnegie has put off her trip to the coast and will not leave for some time yet.

Harold Hayselden is on Maui this week selling our merchants cigars.

Mr. Britton has resigned his position as head accountant at the Kahului Store and he and Mrs. Britton are registered at the Maui Hotel.

J. H. Fuller is on Maui this week.

She Prophesied the Tidal Wave.

Mme. de Thebes, most famous prophetess of modern times was asked the other day by an American correspondent in Paris how she came to predict last October that "a terrific shock will be felt on the western coast of the United States during the fourth month of 1906."

"I knew beforehand that a catastrophe would visit your land," she explained, "from seeing the hands of many Californians. All pointed to some frightful tragedy. But the heavens gave me the final clue. All that is of man's making or controlling lies in his palm. But when the elemental forces are to play havoc with his schemes he must take his warning from the stars.

"I was able to predict the war in the Far East because the hands of many Russian officers all proclaimed the coming conflict.

"Before December is stricken from the calendar the report of two more disasters in America will be heard through the globe. An epidemic will devastate a great portion of the country and a financial scandal in the East will break the record for sensational swindles.

"In Pacific Isles the rising waves will blast a city's hopes as they will the June roses then in bloom.

"Floods threaten the shores of France, and our artists and men of letters especially must beware of the ocean the next few months. Also the head of one of Europe's greatest personages is menaced. His fate is written in the skies."

Call No 1.

COUNTY OF MAUI, TERRITORY OF HAWAII

In compliance with the rules adopted February 7, 1906, by the Republican Party of the Territory of Hawaii.

We do hereby call the Republican Precinct Clubs of the County of Maui, to meet on Friday, the 13th day of July, A. D. 1906, at the hour of 7:30 P. M., to nominate officers of the respective clubs for the ensuing two years. The election of the said officers to be held on Friday, the 20th day of July, A. D. 1906, at the hour of 7:30 P. M.

H. P. BALDWIN, Chairman, County Executive Committee, County of Maui.

S. KELHNOI, Secretary.

Attorney W. O. Smith returned to Honolulu by the Claudine from Kahului Tuesday evening.

Miss Margaret Tollefson is registered at the Maui Hotel.

Judge W. J. Robinson returned to Honolulu by the Claudine on Tuesday evening. He received the verdict of the jury in the Aheong-Haiku water suit just in time to catch the steamer at Kahului.

George C. Sea was on Maui this week and levied on the property of S. Ami.

Attorney Enos Vincent was in town Thursday on legal business.

John Hose and wife attended the races on the Fourth.

County Engineer Hugh Howell has returned from Molokai and reports the road work on that island as being first class.

Supervisor's Meeting.

The County Supervisors held their monthly meeting this week. Henry Reuter, the newly appointed Supervisor took his seat.

The Fourth of July being a holiday the board adjourned until Thursday. At the time of going to press the board is still in session, for which reason it is impossible to give a full account of their actions. We will however give a full account of the same in our next issue.

NOTICE.

All parties contemplating leaving for the Coast from Kahului on or about the 23rd instant on the Nebraska, should book at an early date as it is probable that many from Honolulu will leave for the Coast by same boat, and may be ahead of who are late in booking.

WAILUKU DISTRICT IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION.

A special meeting of the Wailuku District Improvement Association was held in the Court House on Monday evening of this week. Eleven members were present.

In the absence of the Chairman, Vice-President W. J. Coelho, presided.

W. T. Robinson, chairman of the committee appointed to look into the matter of changing the Maa-laea Road to higher ground, reported the committee's recommendation that no change be made, but suggested that a large ditch be put on the upper side.

A motion was made and unanimously carried endorsing the views of the committee.

The water committee reported urging the necessity of replacing the main to Kahului, extending the line on Market Street extension and on Church Street extension, and down to the settler's along the sand hills on the Waihee side of the Iao stream.

The report of the committee was endorsed and accepted and a resolution was unanimously passed asking the Superintendent of Public Works to proceed immediately with the laying of a larger main to Kahului and making the extensions of Market and Church Streets, and the sand hills.

As it is now persons are laying four hundred feet of pipe to get water while many others are dependent upon ditches to supply them.
