TUESDAY, OCT. 2, 1896.

A SERIOUS QUESTION.

The census, which has just been gathered together, of the population of Hawaii will, if properly collated and truthfully presented to public notice, present a state of affairs here which is but dreamed of by the average citizen, but not for one moment considered as possible by any honest annexationist.

The influx of peoples here from the Orient, is an insidious but sure element in the displacement of the white laboring class and must, and will, later on, affect the Portuguese element. That the rich may be made richer, and the poor poorer, seems to be the policy of those in power to-day, for but little national pride is shown in any of their attempts to solve the labor problem, and nothing is developed to show a desire on the part of our "robber rulers" to make this a white man's country.

We, here in Hawaii, not devoted to sugar, nor who obtain a living by missionary methods, have a fellow-feeling for our race, the white man's race, and view with sorrow the prospects which seem to present themselves as the unavoidable future of this country, and that is, dominance by the minority with slaves for citizens. And the causes for this reasoning is based on the statement which appears in the Kokumin, a semi-official gazette of Japan, and which presents the fact that "The number of Japanese that emigrated to Hawaii from 1885 to 1889 was 12,221, and from 1890 to 1894 was 21,625, a total in eight years of 33,846."

Yes, dear reader, well may you pause and consider twice the above figures, especially if you are a white man or a lover of Hawaiian progress, and of the "greatest good for the greatest number." The Advertiser will give you no such information, nor will you obtain it readily and openly from any other paper here but THE INDEPENDENT. But, continues the journal from which we quote the facts, and which is proud of Japanese prestige in Hawaii,

"Between 1885 and 1895 no less than 32,712 contract laborers and 35,734 others that left Japan on their own accord, crossed to Hawaii."

Then it goes on to say that, to-day, here "in Hawaii there are 21,623 Japanese engaged in farming, manufacturing, cooking and waiting, while with them are 940 women. Besides these a large number must have crossed the seas either as free laborers or as prostitutes. [To missionary Hawaii under missionary protection?] The latter class are almost invariably followed by Japanese men who sell articles to the women that they cannot get in the country of their temporary adoption."

But we are not now dealing with the moral aspect of the case, our much travelled Minister, who sits on the Board of Health, can retain that side for his own personal inspection for the present. Yet, we desire to present to the minds of the white middle classes, the shopkeeper and even the merchant, that the instinct of self-preservation should cause them to study well their present environments and consider carefully whether the kind of population which is now filling the lands of Hawaii is that from which they hope to obtain the hand of fellowship, of trade, or of assistance of any kind. The cry is, "Still they come!" those Oriental hordes, and—what are you going to do about it?

ARRIVALS.

"From Hawaii, per stmr. Kilauea Hou, Oct. 19—President Dole and 8 Chinese on deck."—P. C. Advertiser.

How very suggestive. American papers please copy.

Minister Cooper will leave us next week and the Board of Education will miss the "leader" of Berger's sacred music. It is safe to say though, that provisions have been made by the departing Minister for having Appleton's Reader, declared the standard book of our public schools and, that the publishers of "Appleton" will find themselves in Hawaiian clover.

It is stated that all claims against this Government for alleged false imprisonment during the rebellion of 1895 have been permanently pigeonholed in Washington and London.

We must assume that the Star, from which the above item is quoted had this exclusive information by the Coptic from the great Li Hung Chang himself. The paper has gall enough to claim His Ex., if necessary to fill their ends, as its own special correspondent.

A good deal of, perhaps innocently intended, fun has been poked at Miss Annie Marie Prescott, of Makapala by the sea, for the amusing manner in which, it is alleged, she filled out her census blanks. We think—while we enjoy a joke as much as any one—that the lady in question is an injured individual at the cost of the Census Bureau. We were under the impression that in the cases of details of individual census returns they were regarded as secret official papers, and that only results should be made public. Perhaps we are wrong in our information, but we regard it as rather indecent to divulge personal facts obtained for a specific national purpose.

If there is going to be a regular row over the appointment of a Circuit Judge of Hawaii in case Judge Rosa should resign, we humbly suggest to our wise men who hold the destiny of this country in their hands that a man suitable through his ability, popularity and integrity can be found in the person of Mr. W. Foster, now absent from the country. Whether Mr. Foster, who has served this country in several capacities and who made an excellent magistrate is willing to return and take office we do not know. There is time enough to discuss the matter. If Mr. E. C. Hitchcock the suitable man for the judgeship is not persona grata in the estimate of the Government. We think that Mr. Foster is the only man who will control the confidence and support of the good people of Hilo.

President Dole has written a letter to Judge Rosa, in which he thanks him for accepting the judgeship, when the Government, through the death of Judge Austin, was in a temporary pitikia. The President also sympathizes with Mr. Rosa on account of the sad bereavement sustained by the judge through the death of his father, during his absence from his home on his official duties, and he acknowledges in flattering terms the efficient work of Judge Rosa at his first appearance as a judge. Mr. Dole's expressions are highly satisfactory, not alone to the recipient of the complimentary remarks but to the many members of the "opposition" who claim that Mr. Rosa did right in placing true patriotism and the interests of his country ahead of party feeling. An editorial in the morning issue of the official organ is rather discordant with Mr. Dole's expression of sentiments in the letter referred. It reads as follows:

All things being equal it is always policy for Government officials in making appointments to favor their friends. Throwing out sops to heal injured feelings is simply allowing an enemy to get his hand nearer the desired grip on the throat. It neither satisfies friends or wins the esteem of the enemy.

After all it is possible that the Advertiser is not an "official" organ.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

U. S. Minister Willis and Mrs. Willis Thrown Out of Their Carriage To-day.

With deep regret we have to announce a sad accident which marred the success of the Stanley wedding this afternoon.

As the large concourse of prominent guests were leaving the Cathedral grounds, after the conclusion of the happy ceremony, a scream was heard at the Beretania Street gate, and it was seen that Minister Willis had been thrown out of his carriage, the horse having bolted.

The carriage struck against the gate post, and Mrs. Willis was also thrown out, but immediately jumping to her feet she ran to her husband, and to the offers of assistance replied "leave me, and look after Mr. Willis, for he is a sick man"

Among the first to assist the American Minister were the British Commissioner, the Chief Justice and many other prominent people. All were ready to volunteer help.

After a few minutes rest Mr. Willis limped away with Mrs. Willis to the residence of Dr. Wood, where they were shortly called upon by a number of enquiring friends before returning to their residence.

The carriage ran on towards the old armory where it became almost a total wreck, the off fore wheel having been detached at the Cathedral gate.

We are happy to learn that no very serious injuries were sustained by any of the party, although the shock was naturally a very severe one to the Minister who was badly bruised, a wheel of the carriage passing over him.

Married.

At Honolulu, October 20th, at St. Andrew's Cathedral, by his Lordship the Right Reverend the Bishop of Honolulu, assisted by the Rev. Alex Mackintosh, William F. Lucas Stanley, Esq., son of the late Charles Stanley, Commissary General in H. B. M.'s Ordnance Department, Dublin, to Miss Junita E. C. Dandford, second daughter of the Lady Herron of Honolulu, H. I.

Died.

COLEMAN—At the residence of her daughter Mrs. Ellic (Castle) Williams, at Stanstead, Province Quebec, Canada, on Sept. 21st, after five years of invalidism, in the seventy-fifth year of her age, Mrs. Caroline Bacon Coleman, widow of the late Hon. John Coleman, of Madison, Florida, U. S. A. (City and California papers please copy).

The Pope has appointed Father Bergh Abbot of St. Augustine, Canterbury. It is said that his holiness wishes to re-establish in England all the titles and charges in force before the Reformation, in order to infuse new life into the Roman Catholic Church in Great Britain.

A New Parrot Story.

"A friend of mine, a fine old fellow, but rather hasty tempered, having a niece, who had coaxed him to buy her parrot, succeeded in getting a bird that was warranted a good talker. He brought it home, and after putting it in a cage, stood before it and said, "Say 'Uncle,' Polly." The bird did not respond, and after repeating the sentence a dozen times or more with no better success the uncle put his hand into the cage, and grabbing the bird by the neck shook him until his head wobbled round, all the time yelling to him, "Say 'Uncle,' Goll darn you—say 'Uncle!'" The bird looked limp and lifeless, and disgusted with his purchase, the old fellow took the parrot out into the yard, where he had a coop of thirty chickens. Thrusting the half-dead bird in with the chickens, he exclaimed, "There, by gosh! you'll say 'Uncle' before you get out!" Next morning the uncle went out to see how the parrot was getting along. Looking into the coop he counted 29 dead chickens, and in the centre of the coop stood the parrot on one foot, holding the thirtieth chicken by the neck, and shaking it till its head wobbled, and screaming, "Say 'Uncle,' Goll darn you, say 'Uncle!'"

Timely Topics.

Honolulu, Oct. 9, 1896.

It is well-known to all sensible persons that La Grippe, malarial, Typhoid and scarlet fevers, cholera, diphtheria, small-pox, and innumerable other contagious diseases are conveyed in the air by germ diseases.

In our city owing to the want of efficient drainage and sewerage we are most susceptible to many of these diseases, and as our mortuary records show especially are our infant children.

It is the duty, therefore, in the interests of the community, of every honest citizen who has the welfare of his family at heart, to keep his home healthy and free from disease by using which diffuses the "SANITAS VAPORIZER MIXTURE" expressly prepared for it.

It is the most complete GERM DESTROYER known to chemical science. It is endorsed by the Boards of Health in all the principal cities, as no contagious diseases can be contracted where it is used.

It is not only A PERFECT DISINFECTANT, acting not only as an antiseptic and germicide, but also as an oxidizing agent. It prevents the dangers of sewer gas and other decomposition.

The apparatus itself is quite a handsome ornament and requires but very slight attention, being automatic in its action. The ODOR OF SANITAS is a very agreeable perfume. Every private family, public institution and saloon should have one in the interest of health. Its Price, $5, brings it within the reach of all, as it will save doctors' bills to a large amount every year.

Luckily for him local acquaintances learned of his loss and obtained the services of the native diver John K. Iaukea, an old time employee of Sorrenson & Lyle. The diver made several descents to the bottom of the harbor before being rewarded with success, finally coming upward with the lost article. The ring was an opal set with diamonds and was valued at £50 ($250) and on its return Mr. Manners gave a generous return to the diver for services rendered.

MIDST FRAGRANT FLOWERS.

A Happy Wedding at St. Andrew's Cathedral To-day.

The marriage of W. L. Stanley, attorney, and Junita Danford was solemnized in St. Andrew's Cathedral this afternoon. His Lordship the Bishop of Honolulu, assisted by the Rev. Alexander Mackintosh, officiated. The cathedral was beautifully decorated with choice flowers and ferns by the pupils of St. Andrew's Priory, with which the bride has been closely connected. Sir Robert Herron gave the bride away, and the groom was supported by his friend, Mr. Shanks of Dublin. Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party drove to the residence of Sir Robert and Lady Herron, where a breakfast was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley will leave this afternoon at 5 o'clock for Kauai where they will spend their honeymoon, returning to Honolulu in the first part of November.

THE INDEPENDENT begs the latest "partnership" to receive its sincere congratulations and very best wishes for all possible happiness.

Opening of the Season.

In spite of the alleged hard times the public is evidently bent on enjoying the theatrical season at the new Opera House. Only a few seats are left for Il Trovatore in the lower part of the house and a large number of seats have been taken in the gallery. A great many people do not know that the best seats in a theatre for concerts and operas are those in the galleries. The people who go to hear music always prefer them to the seats in the lower part of the house. Those who go simply to see people, to be seen themselves, to envy the dresses of others and show off their own, will naturally prefer the parquette and the pit to the gallery. We recommend our musical friends who have not yet secured seats for Il Trovatore to get their tickets for the gallery without delay. The first dress rehearsal will take place to-night and on the 3rd of November a musical treat unequalled here will be given to the people of Honolulu.

Yorktown.

At the Y. M. C. A. hall last evening the anniversary of the battle of Yorktown, in 1781, was very appropriately and successfully celebrated by the Hawaiian Society of Sons of the American Revolution.

Chief Justice Hon. A. F. Judd, L. D., delivered a most interesting historical address, and was followed by Captain Nathan Appleton, vice-president of the Massachusetts Society of Sons of the American Revolution, who ably spoke of the influence of Lafayette and Frenchmen in assisting the cause of American liberty.

Among others who contributed to the evening's entertainment were Misses Lawrence and Grace Richards, Rev. D. P. Birnie and Secretary John Ellinger.

New Departure

THE UNDERSIGNED beg to announce that from and after

Thursday Night, Oct. 1, 1896

THE UNRIVALED ST. LOUIS BEER

Will be served ON DRAUGHT at the Hawaiian Hotel.

To meet the times and competition, it will be furnished at 12 1-2 cis. Per Glass

We quote from letter of the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Association, dated August 8th:

Your honorable firm having represented us for so many years we believe it useless to call your attention to the merits of our article, but we should like to repeat again and call your attention to the fact that ours is THE ONLY PURE BARLEY MALT BEER MANUFACTURED, and corn cerealine and other adulterants as well as acids, for the preservation of beer, are unknown in our establishment. With the above you may go before the public in our name.

No encomium of ours can add to the high reputation of Anheuser Beer. Its introduction in any and every market makes it an immediate favorite. It stands without a peer, without a rival, without even a competitor. It received the highest awards at the Columbian Exposition. The reduction of the draught Beer to the prevailing price of places it within the reach of all, and he is a wise man who gets the best quality for the least money.

W.W. DIMOND'S

FOR THE SEASON

The Celebrated Thoroughbred Stallion

LORD BROCK,

It is said that when Jane gets the money she will inherit by her uncle's will she will buy a whole row of seats for Il Trovatore. Then she will go in for solid, useful and ornamental articles for her home. What do you think of the scheme?

Wheel Barrows,

You've paid $5 for a wheel barrow and then not been half satisfied. We sell you one that is neat and strong—not too large to pass through a gate way, and an all around gem, for $3.50. Solidly braced sides and front and with a patent steel wheel. It is worth looking at—and buying.

Cold Feet

After a bath or before bathing may be avoided in a simple manner. The patent cork mats absorb water and prevent its dripping over the bath room floor. They are healthy and serviceable, hard to wear out, and no one sells them but Dimond

Lawn Sprinklers,

The California variety have always cost you $2.50. Our latest invoice was bought so that we can deliver them at your door, and, if necessary, attach them to your hose for $1.80, 70 cents less than you've been paying. That is what good buying means.

Umbrella Stands

And Jardinieres or lamps of every description in shape made of wrought iron—black color—are au fait. We have every style you can think of.

Mr. W. W. Dimond.

Those Buffalos.

We must again remind the public that if the Buffalos of the American Continent are now principally to be found on reservations alone, there is still a Buffalo or two left on exhibition in Honolulu. Of course, we refer to the Buffalo beer just introduced at the Royal Annex, the Royal, Pacific and Cosmopolitan Saloons. It will be found extremely palatable and up to the most refined taste. The system of interchangeable checks still continues, and those issued for the celebrated Pabst are equally valid. Taste and see how good it is.
