Fledged to neither Party.
But established for the benefit of all.
THURSDAY, JUNE 9, 1887.

SUBSIDIZED JOURNALS.
"We know that the journals here have been subsidized," is a statement quoted from this morning's Advertiser. "The journals," not "a journal," or "some journals," but distinctively "the journals," which include the DAILY BULLETIN. Then the Government organ knows that the BULLETIN "has been subsidized." The extent of its knowledge is prodigious. How the information was acquired, is a secret; how its accuracy is to be proven, has not been revealed. We can make no pretence to be so advanced in knowledge as our unscrupulous contemporary. We know nothing whatever of the subsidy, other than the bare assertion above quoted. But we do know this much, that the Advertiser has uttered a direct, unmitigated falsehood, so far as the BULLETIN is concerned, and that the last named journal has never, at any period of its existence, received one cent of subsidy from any source whatsoever. We shall be pleased to be enlightened a little further on this subject, of so much importance—to ourselves.

AN UNHAPPY CONDITION.
Our Government, of whom the King is by far the greater part, has been heard on all convenient occasions to speak glibly of conducting public affairs according to the law and constitution. The simple, the unwary, and the inexperienced have been misled and deceived again and again. And what wonder! For the conscienceless and cunning hypocrites speak in tones that would deceive the elect, if it were possible. As a matter of fact, the Government is not accustomed to showing much respect for law or constitution when they are antagonistic to its desires and designs. This is an unhappy condition of affairs for the country. When the plain written law of the land is manifestly violated by the Government, what can be expected from the governed but a disposition to follow the same course? The Herald has cited a series of instances of recent occurrence, illustrating utter disregard of law by those who should be most scrupulous in its observance, if only for the sake of example.

BERGER'S REPLY.
EDITOR BULLETIN:—In reply to Wallflower, I'm very sorry that he attacked my boys. They are not responsible for making bad music, I'm the man whom he should attack. Wallflower is right in accusing the string orchestra of playing old melodies and old dances, but the string orchestra is my private undertaking, the violins, basses, flute, clarinets, etc., etc., are my own property. The dance music I wrote and arranged all myself for the convenience of the public. The string orchestra plays perhaps six times during the year. There is no money in it, the receipts have not paid so far the cost of the instruments and music. To play dance music is very hard, especially here, we don't get used to it, then it is so seldom asked for. Now, the public, as a whole, like to dance to tunes they know. Lately we played at two balls at the Palace, with the whole brass band. We played new tunes, as we have a large collection for the brass band, but what was the consequence? Everybody, or the majority cried out, "Please, give us the Likelike Lancer, the Waimanalo Waltz, the Makiki Lancer, etc., etc. We don't like the new tunes; they don't ring in our ears." So we played the old tunes. But in spite of all that, the first sparse week I have, I will write some new popular tunes for dance music; sure, I will.
Wallflower also accused us of whooping the tunes up as if the devil was after us. No, not so far, we are all good christians. But we are public servants, even when we play dance music, and if the majority demands quick time we have to play it. It is for us much easier to play slow time, because we won't get so warm neither the dancers, but we have no voice in the matter. I suggest, at the next ball, Wallflower and his votaries of Terpichlore should give us the exact time, how slow to play, and we musicians will most obediently obey their orders. The mischief lays, in my humble opinion, in other quarters. Many couples take part in a set of lancers, which they don't know anything about. Others chat with the girls and forget they are on the floor and, of course, they miss the time, the consequence is all Berger's fault, why don't he stop and play slow, till they are through with mashing. But a joke aside, we will obey orders next time. In conclusion, I'm sorry that this Wallflower's criticism wound up a week of hard work for the band, without a murmur from us and no extra pay whatever, but we are public servants and have done our share for entertaining our guests, for the benefit of the country, and the country pays for the band, and we are their servants.

Yours, etc.,
H. BERGER,
Bandmaster.

DECISION BY PRESTON, J.
Kameeni and others vs. Charles Kamaiki. Bill in equity brought by seventy-two persons against the defendant, praying for an injunction to restrain the defendant from proceeding with certain suits brought by him against certain of the plaintiffs in the District Court of the plaintiffs in their enjoyment of certain lands at Kona, alleged to be held by the defendant on lease in trust for the plaintiffs and other persons forming a Hui for cultivating said lands, and for a declaration that defendant is a trustee of said lease for the benefit of the plaintiffs and of such other persons as might be found to be lawful members of said Hui, and be ordered to execute an instrument acknowledging plaintiffs to be members of said Hui.
The defendant demurred on certain grounds.
His Honor is of opinion that the bill cannot be sustained, and therefore allows the demurrer on the second and fourth points, with liberty to amend within thirty days. Without prejudice to the plaintiffs' right to bring a new bill if so advised. The plaintiffs must pay the costs of amendment or of suit if the bill is not amended. L. A. Thurston for plaintiff, S. B. Dole for defendant.

Late Foreign News.
The barkentine Discovery arrived from San Francisco this morning. She has brought two days' later news than the latest previous dates. We are under obligation to Captain Lee for late papers, from which the following is clipped:
L. F. Loveland, an old stockbroker of San Francisco, is dead.
Sir John Macdonald favors an extradition treaty between Canada and the United States.
The Woodcote stakes were won by Baron De Rothschild's filly.
French troops are being drilled in night evolutions.
General Abram Duryea died of paralysis in New York on the 24th May, at the age of 72.
The Pennsylvania Railroad proposes to tunnel the Hudson river at a cost of $11,000,000.
Sir Charles Tupper thinks that a policy of non-intercourse will not be adopted by the United States, but that if adopted it would materially improve the Canadian cities.
The royal programme for Victoria's jubilee has not been definitely fixed. There will be a dinner party June 20th, at Buckingham Palace, a banquet on the 22nd at Windsor Castle, and a ball at Buckingham Palace on the 24th.
The striking brickmakers at Elsinore, San Diego, threatened to kill the Chinese imported to take their places and then paid their return fare to San Diego.
Claus Spreckels, the California millionaire, with his wife and daughter, sailed May 25th for Europe in the steamer Saale.
Queen Kapiolani and Princess Liliuokalani and their suite sailed May 25th for Europe in the City of Rome.
The advices from Panama to the 16th May say: In one of the largest cuts water has been struck. The amount of earth and rock taken out of the section referred to cost millions of dollars, all of which is rendered valueless, as the water has washed from the side of the mountain more than sufficient to fill all the cuts.

Advices from Panama state that the traders who have reached that city report the small-pox raging along the upper banks of the Amazon.
A Berlin dispatch to the Standard says: In an interview to-day Professor Virchow asserted that there was absolutely no danger in Crown Prince Frederick William's malady. He said, however, that it would take some time to effect a cure.
The situation of the miner's strike at Seraing, Belgium, is assuming a more alarming aspect. Twenty-two hundred more miners have left work and are taking part in the strike at Charleroi; 1,000 men are in the strike, and the appearance of affairs is growing more serious.
Joseph Chamberlain, in a letter urges upon the supporters of the Government's Irish policy the necessity of organizing, and warns them that if they fail to do so they will surely be beaten.
J. Joseph & Sons, merchants of Birmingham, have failed. Liabilities, £100,000.
The Anarchist De Fuisseaux has been arrested at Van Beuge and conducted to Paris.
The great Derby race was run on the 26th May.
Merry Hampton won, the Baron second, Wartley third. The favorite was beaten, for the betting before the race was: 50 to 40 on the Baron, 100 to 14 against Erispder, 11 to 1 against Aintree, 14 to 1 against Wartley, 22 to 1 against Blanchard and 50 to 1 each against Timothy and Grandison.
Paris, May 25.—The Opera Comique took fire this evening, and the whole building is now wrapped in flames. Fourteen persons who jumped from the windows are dead, and forty-three were injured. It is probable that many were crushed to death in the galleries, but at present this is uncertain.
New York, May 25.—The Star says that Queen Kapiolani's object in visiting Europe is to secure British capital for a steamship line between London and Honolulu, and to arrange the difficulty about the Hawaiian bonds negotiated a year ago. Referring to the Queen's tour to-night, Claus Spreckels, who sailed on the Saale this morning for Europe, to complete arrangements for the shipment of machinery to California, for a beetroot factory, said: The Queen's expensive tour will make trouble and her people will not stand it. The only way to make a Kanaka behave himself is to stand over him with a club. The United States must have Hawaii, and it will not be long before such a consummation will be brought about.

THE FRENCH IN THE NEW HEBRIDES.
In the House of Lords the Earl of Harrowby recently called attention to the condition of affairs in the New Hebrides, and asked what course was proposed to be taken with reference to this important subject by Her Majesty's Government? He said it was a fact that French troops were still in occupation of these islands. He had received letters from Scotsmen in the New Hebrides describing the establishment of French military posts and expressing the fear that these operations would result in annexation. The Marquis of Salisbury said both France and England had declared that they would not annex the New Hebrides. There was no doubt of the fact that the French Government was in occupation of the New Hebrides at this moment; but the French Government assured them deliberately, and in tones whose sincerity and earnestness they had no right to doubt, that they had no intention to permanently occupy these islands. The French Government stated that what action had been taken was owing solely to the outrages which had occurred in 1885, when some persons were killed and others were injured. The French Government had always said that, as soon as a satisfactory arrangement was made for the preservation of the peace in the islands, and for the protection of French subjects, they would be glad to withdraw their troops. The Earl of Rosebery regretted to hear from the noble Marquis that the state of affairs in the New Hebrides was in the same position now as it was in May last year. The Earl of Carnarvon said, after several years of parleying on the subject, they found that the French flag, which was hoisted in the New Hebrides two or three years ago, was still flying there. Whatever they might think in this country, no Australian could, or ought to, look at the existing state of things in the South Pacific without feeling the gravest anxiety.—[Scotsman.

A DESERVED REBUKE?
One of the many tales of the late Serjeant Ballantine now life points a moral for the consideration of Lord Selborne and the advocates of the expurgation of law reports. Mr. Ballantine was examining the petitioner for a divorce and asked, "When you entered the room, what did you see?" "I had rather not say," replied the witness, "in the presence of ladies." "Ladies!" ejaculated the serjeant, looking round at a fashionably dressed crowd with ears intent and eyes glancing ready. "do not you know that they come here for the very purpose of hearing what you had rather not say? Pray do not disappoint them."

THE CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY.
A telegram dated New York, May 2nd, says: It is believed that the Canadian Pacific Railway Company is acquiring the control of the Boston and Maine Line, which recently leased the Boston and Lowell concern. The effect of such an arrangement would be to give the Canadian Pacific access to Boston, and to exclude the Grand Trunk except on terms which the Canadian Pacific would dictate.
London, May 17.—Viscount Cranborne, son of Lord Salisbury, was married to-day to Lady Cicely Ahee Gore, daughter of the Earl of Argyll. The Prince and Princess of Wales, Prince and Princess Christian, Duke and Duchess of Teck and a large number of aristocrats witnessed the ceremony.

and receipt on behalf of F. H.
Oeding.

It is probable that none of the inter-island vessels will sail before Monday on account of the races.

THERE will be a hula performance under the direction of the "Dandy" at the Chinese Theatre, Queen street, this evening.

The St. Louis College Brass Band furnished the music at the Roman Catholic Cathedral this morning, at the 10 o'clock service.

A NATIVE named Namokueha, a luna of a prison gang, was to-day charged with assault and battery on a Chinaman.
Found guilty and fined $7.

The tug Eleu will leave the P. M.
S. S. Co's wharf at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning for Kapiolani Park with the Hawaiian band on board.

The races at Kapiolani Park will commence at noon to-morrow. Tickets for admission to the Grand Stand may be obtained at the office of J. E.
Brown & Co.

An important underwriter's sale of sundries will take place to-morrow by public auction at the sales room of Mr. Lewis J. Levey, commencing at 11 o'clock.

CAPTAIN and Mrs. Pierce will be away from here about three months.
They have gone to New Bedford, to settle the estate of Mrs. Pierce's mother, who died last fall.

The Royal Hawaiian Band will play at the races, at Kapiolani Park, to-morrow and Saturday. Consequently, there will be no concert at Emma Square.

The steamer W. G. Hall from Hawaii and Maui, the Waiialeale from Kauai and the C. R. Bishop from Koolau, Wailua and Waianae, will arrive here early to-morrow morning.

The gigantic magnolia tree at Hanalei, Kauai, referred to yesterday, was brought as a small plant from England and planted where it now is, in 1846, by the late Mr. Thomas Brown.

His Excellency Geo. W. Merrill and Mrs. Merrill were entertained at dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Julius H.
Smith last evening. The party also included Senator T. J. Crowley and Mrs. Crowley.

On Saturday next, June 11th, a street and Bethel Sunday Schools

Chas. M. Cooke, to which all members and their parents are invited.

The United States Minister Resident,
His Excellency Geo. W. Merrill, calls upon all American citizens to meet at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel this evening, to consult in reference to the celebration of the Fourth of July.

An KEE, of opium bribe notoriety, is reported to be very sick. His inability to meet his financial obligations owing to being swindled out of $71,000 is preying upon his mind to such an extent that it is affecting his health.

AMONGST the trophies to be run for at the races to-morrow and Saturday, there is no mention of the handsome and valuable cup presented by the Hongkong Race Club, several years ago. It is generally understood this trophy is safely stowed away somewhere within the precincts of the Palace.

The Missouri Senate has passed a Local Option Law.

UPSET AND WRECKED.

Last night, a few minutes after 8 o'clock, an express was being driven furiously along Hotel street, from Fort street towards the Hotel.
On passing the residence of Dr.
McGrew the wheels collided with the iron hitching posts that are fixed there. The driver, Hall by name, was thrown out, the horse thrown down, and the carriage upset. Hall was kicked by the horse. He was taken into Dr. McGrew's, and found not to be seriously injured, but the carriage was terribly wrecked.

GULF WEEDS.

Nine beautiful specimens of the celebrated "Gulf Weeds" (Algae) are on exhibition at Messrs King Brothers' Art Store, Hotel street.
These weeds grow on the bottom of the Gulf of Mexico, are broken off by the currents, float to the surface, and are carried to great distances by the tides. The specimens referred to are pressed and neatly framed. They are a present to our respected fellow citizen, Colonel M.
Thompson, from his son Lieutenant Percy W. Thompson, of the United States Revenue Marine.

THE RACES.

The race programmes are out and on sale at the book agencies. For the Honolulu Plate are entered, Iago, Waterford Colt, Surprise, Poni Moi and Nettle Brown. The Reciprocity Plate claims three entries, viz.: Rockwell, Nisa and Amandine. The Oceanic Purse, a trotting race, will be competed for by Joe Dake, Clementina and Twinkle. For the Waikapu Cup, a 3/4 mile dash, there are three entries, Queen Kapiolani, Hancock and Patrol. The Breeders' Plate, a mile dash, free for all 3-year olds, has three entries, Ka Aolani, Homat-kawa and Mattie M. The sixth and last race of the day, the Hawaiian Plate, mile dash, free for all, comprises, Rockwell, Queen Kapiolani, Col. Gift, Patrol and Amandine.

HORN AT THE RACES.

Mr. F. Horn, of the Pioneer Cake and Candy Factory, will be off to the races to-morrow and the next day. He has no intention of competing on the race track for any of the prizes offered by the Jockey Club. He has simply "entered" for the Grand Stand, and in the race of furnishers of eatables and drinkables for the consuming public. Mr.
Horn is confident of taking first prize for variety, quality, quantity, and cheapness. He is sure to win.
You may bet on Horn 99 to 1. He publishes a long list of articles to be supplied, with the prices attached.
The prices are town prices. There will be no necessity for persons taking along their own food, or starving themselves during the day because of high cost. Any quantity of good grub at the races, and Horn is the man to furnish it.

SHIPPING MATTERS.

Judging from remarks made by captains of vessels now in port, there is a lack of sugar, a stagnation in shipping and a loss of money to the owners of Honolulu packets.
The downward freight of sailing vessels has been rather right of late, some coming here with less than half a load. The discharging of the vessels is done in good style, but just now "it is in the stream and lay up for a month or five weeks." I would rather, said a captain, take a position of second mate on a salary than buy, at a bargain, a half interest in a Honolulu trader to-day.
I have been offered seven dollars to go to the Sound, said another master, and I am figuring to ascertain which way I will lose the least money—stay here until August for sugar, or go to the Sound for seven dollars. The sugar season is pretty nearly over, or as some mills grind all the year round, it might be said that the bulk of the sugar for this season is in; consequently the dullness is just beginning.

INTERESTING CASE OF REPLEVIN.

A replevin case was commenced in the Police Court yesterday before Police Justice Dayton, in which J.
T. Waterhouse, Jr., and Henry Waterhouse trading under the firm name of J. T. Waterhouse, were the plaintiffs, and A. S. Cleghorn and George Markham defendants. It was alleged that defendants had in their possession and unlawfully detained from the plaintiffs certain goods and chattels, the property of said plaintiffs, to wit, three repeating rifles and one case of cartridges of the value of $80. Whereupon the plaintiffs claimed restitution of said property with $75 damages for the unlawful detention of the same and for costs of suit. Mr. Kinney for the plaintiffs stated that the action was brought against the defendants as private individuals, not in their official capacity. A plea of general issue was entered, and several witnesses were placed upon the stand, including His Excellency Paul P.
Kanoa, Minister of Finance. In the course of hearing it was found desirable to have the evidence of the Hon. A. S. Cleghorn, and in order to admit of this the case was adjudged until 1:30 p. m. to-day.

When Brown opened the front door and picked up a strange baby on the door-steps, he was heard to remark: "Some men are born babies, some achieve babies, and some have babies thrust upon them."

KAWAIAHAO SEMINARY.

The closing exercises or exhibition of the Kawaihaeo Boarding School took place at the Kawaihaeo Church yesterday afternoon at half-past one. Before that hour the large building was well filled with spectators, among whom many of our California visitors were to be seen. Flowers prettily arranged decorated the stage. The girls, one hundred and thirteen of them, all dressed in white, occupied the seats on the makai side of the church under the galleries.

Miss Alexander, the principal, conducted the exercises, assisted by Misses Malone, Brewer, Morley, and pupil assistant Miss Jennie Bates. The opening was an anthem beautifully sung by the whole school, followed by a scripture lesson recited in unison by all. Mr.
Atherton offered prayer. Then followed recitations and singing. A short exercise in Arithmetic conducted by Miss Bates with a class of perhaps thirty was extremely creditable. Miss Brewer's geography lesson developed the fact that our little island corner of the world possesses an astonishing amount of capes, seaports, channels, straits, mountains, rivers, political and natural divisions, besides agricultural and other products. Miss Malone's reading class also showed good work. They read a lesson never seen before, and on questioning showed a knowledge of what they read which would put some English scholars to the blush. A spelling match showed that many of the little girls are getting hold of some of the absurdities and difficulties of English spelling. Their brave efforts excited the applause and sympathy of the audience. The Kindergarten class, conducted by Miss Alexander, showed the perfect aptitude of this excellent method to the Hawaiian mind and the excellent music reflected great credit on Miss Morley. The exhibition closed with calisthenic exercises on the grounds without, in which the girls appeared in uniform and went through a surprising variety of motions, keeping time with the tap of a drum.

The shortness of the exercises prevents a comprehensive judgment as to the progress of the school; but it is evident that there has been growth and development during the past year, and most excellent training in all respects. There seemed to be but one opinion among the houseful of visitors, that of satisfaction and pleasure, and when one considers that everything is done in the English language, which some of the girls hardly knew a year ago, admiration increases and homage is paid to the noble band of devoted ladies whose life and strength is given to the work—which consists not in book training only, but of teaching in all branches of civilized domestic life.

THE HAWAIIAN EVANGELICAL ASSOCIATION.

The Association resumed its session this morning in Kaunakapili Church. Reports were read of the North Pacific Mission Institute, by Rev. Dr. Hyde; of the Treasurer of the Hawaiian Board, W. W.
Hall; and of the Secretary of the Board, Rev. A. O. Forbes. There have been 15 students in the Institute this year. The studies pursued have been of the same general character as in previous years, special attention being given to the study of the Bible in ways adapted to the limited resources available in the Hawaiian language. Two of the passing visitors to this city have kindly remembered the needs of the school by generous donations, Mrs.
O. P. Wilson, of Cincinnati, giving $25, and Mr. A. S. Borden, of Philadelphia, $20. One student only graduates this year. He takes charge of the church at Kalapana, Puna. The examination is to be held in Kaunakapili Church, tomorrow morning, and the rhetorical exercises in Kawaihaeo Church, Sunday evening, with some new hymns in Hawaiian, set to music for male voices.

The total receipts of the Hawaiian Board for last year were $17,904.22, nearly $3,000 more than the previous year. The receipts from the Hawaiian Churches are less by $325. This total includes $1,822.83 received for sale of publications, and $1,295.26 from the American Bible Society, mainly for the cost of publishing the poetical books of the Old Testament in the Gilbert Island language, prepared by Rev.
H. Bingham.

The principal items of expenditure have been $2,662.85 for foreign missions, for home evangelization, $1,396.25, N. P. M. Institute, for support of students and for miscellaneous expenses, $735, for Chinese work in addition to the salary of F.
W. Damon, $1,435.30.

In the report of the Secretary, Rev. A. O. Forbes, notice was taken of the death of Rev. L. Lyons, for more than 50 years the faithful missionary at Waimea, Hawaii, to whom the Hawaiians owe much of their proficiency in song. For years he published in the native newspapers, every week a new hymn or song. The Church Hymn Book, in its various editions was prepared by him, and several popular Temperance, Children's, and Sunday school Music Books. Rev. S. Kaana, formerly of Hamakua, and Rev. G. W. Filipo, of Kona, are the native preachers who have died during the year, faithful men, respected for their Christian integrity by all who knew them. One Hawaiian missionary, Rev. G. Haioa, was lost at sea last July, in going with a company of Gilbert Islanders in a native canoe from Tarawa to Marakei.

The 57 churches have been reduced to 54, by doubling up 6 of the feebler organizations, and making only three. Two parishes have provided themselves with parson-ages; two churches have been repaired, and a new chapel built for some Chinese residents at Kailua, Hawaii. Two native pastors have resigned, Rev. Z. S. K. Paaluhii, of Wailuku, going to the Gilbert Islands, and Rev. W. M. Kawaiwa, changing from Paunuu to Kailua.
The native pastors find it more difficult from year to year to secure their meagre salaries. Extravagance and excesses are impoverishing the Hawaiian people, and ten-cent pieces are given now where dollars were given before.

The annual tea party given by the Woman's Board to the Hawaiian Association comes off this afternoon in the vestry of Fort-street Church, at 4:30 o'clock.
