AUSTRIA IN WAR PAINT.

Troops Mobilized Along Balkan Border to Meet Turk.

London, England, Feb. 16.—Despite the specific denials on the part of Austria that it does not contemplate war, that country has mobilized 40,000 troops on the Balkan border. It is believed that armed intervention to prevent the Sultan of Turkey from carrying out his threat of turning his army loose in Macedonia is inevitable.

The Times' correspondent at Vienna recently discussing the Macedonian question, says assurances by Count Welschheim were possibly founded upon the assumption that nothing more serious than a struggle between Bulgaria and Turkey was to be apprehended, and that such struggle would probably remain isolated, Serbia and Greece maintaining a neutrality toward Turkey. In any case, continues the correspondent, the situation is viewed with apprehension, and uneasiness prevails concerning Germany's supposed sympathetic attitude toward Turkey, and the publication of the Austro-Russian program is awaited with impatience, as being a possible lever for the prevention of trouble.

The supposition is that the Russian and Austrian Ministers, being agreed in principle, left the elaboration of the Macedonian reform details to the Embassadors in Constantinople, who found it difficult to agree upon the course to pursue, and at Italy's instigation suggested a modification of the demands, of which the publication is daily expected.

Numerous unconfirmed sensational rumors are current with regard to the rising in Macedonia in the spring, and some serious Austrian and Russian papers assume that the question soon must be forced to a solution. Count Welschheim, the Austrian Minister of National Defense, however, in addressing the committee on Austrian military bills, reiterated that the situation was peaceful, and that no ground existed for mobilization of the army or any extraordinary measures.

Italy's Balkan Policy.

Rome, Italy, Feb. 16.—Although Italy has consented to join in the demand for reforms in Macedonia, the Italian policy in the Balkan question, as represented today, is to prevent a modification of the present status under the Berlin treaty for the benefit of any Power. This puts Italy in a position of antagonizing Russia, which is plainly operating for a more controlling position.

Cortelyou is Confirmed.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 16.—President Roosevelt today sent to the Senate for confirmation the nomination of George B. Cortelyou to be Secretary of the new Department of Commerce. Cortelyou was appointed private secretary to the President during McKinley's term and has proved one of the ablest men ever appointed to that position. The appointment was promptly confirmed by the Senate.

Amend Bill.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 16.—The Senate Judiciary Committee has reported the Littlefield Trust publicity bill recently passed by the House. The committee has amended the bill in several important particulars. The radical features are distasteful to the Senate, and it is doubtful if the bill can pass in the form in which it came from the House.

Christening Scandal.

New York, N. Y., Feb. 16.—Scandals arising from the competition of wine merchants to supply the brand for christening the German Emperor's yacht Meteor have been revived in public interest by a libel suit growing out of the affair. This suit discloses the fact that the recall of von Holleben, German Ambassador to the United States, was due to the endeavor of certain wine merchants who took part in the general scramble for place to furnish the wines at the Meteor christening.

VIEWS IN EUROPE.

London Opinion Upon the Crisis
Now On in the East.

New York, Feb. 7.—A cable to the Sun from London says: It is beginning to be borne in upon the English public mind that great complications are imminent in the East which threaten more serious humiliation than is possible in Venezuela, and it is hoped that the field will be cleared of other complications before the new crisis becomes acute.

Each day's news tends to strengthen the belief that the day of the Turk's last struggle to retain his foothold in Europe is close at hand. Russia's determination sooner or later to acquire Constantinople is a recognized factor in European politics. British prejudice is so strong against Russia in these days that English observers almost invariably see malevolent ambition in every act of the Czar's Government. Making all due allowances for this prejudice, however; it is impossible not to share the English suspicion and belief of the present moment that Russia has determined that the time is now ripe for the realization of her great ambition, and that she intends in the present year to extend her domain to the Bosphorus. This belief is undoubtedly shared by the Turk himself, and the news of the Sultan's decision to mobilize nearly a quarter of a million of men is partial evidence thereof.

TO DIVIDE COUNTIES.

Classes Made On Basis of Assessable Valuation.

Honolulu, February 12.—Republican members of the Legislature spent last evening in conference with members of the Commission which framed the county measure. United States District Attorney Breckons, who framed the bill and who is better known in connection with it, and who also knows it better, than any of the other, was also in attendance, and assisted in the more complete understanding of the bill by the men who must pass upon it later. There were only two amendments agreed upon, but later meetings will be held at which the ideas of the legislators will be pressed.

It was demonstrated during the remarks of Mr. Breckons, and by the answers to queries during the three hours of session, that there are some changes which may be made without destroying the coherency of the measure, but in its general lines it was found to fit the situation. Many of the hitherto proposed changes were seen to be out of place when the whole measure is considered. The division of counties was changed only to provide that to Oahu county is to be added all islands not mentioned in the bill. This is to take care of Midway and such small and detached islands. In Oahu county the districts were changed so as to provide for Ewa and Waianae district.

The salary bill, embodying as it does the provisions for consolidation of officers in various counties, was introduced and will be taken up at later caucuses. The bill contains eighteen sections. Of these the last thirteen simply enumerate the offices and as the amounts of salary are blank they are omitted, the ones which cover the classification of counties being as follows:

Section 1. For the purpose of fixing the compensation to be paid to county and district officers, the counties of the Territory are classified as follows:

1. Counties having an assessed valuation of more than fifty millions of dollars shall be counties of the first class.
2. Counties having an assessed valuation of more than fifteen millions of dollars and less than fifty millions, shall be counties of the second class.
3. Counties having an assessed valuation of less than fifteen millions of dollars shall be counties of the third class.

Sec. 2. The assessed valuation of each county in the Territory for the year in which there is held a general election shall determine to what class such county shall belong during the succeeding two years.

Sec. 3. In counties of all classes, the sheriff shall be, by virtue of his office, the coroner therein, and shall perform such duties in that regard as are prescribed by law; and the bond required by law to be given by such sheriff shall cover any and all violations of his duty as coroner, and any and all failure on his part to pay over to the proper persons any money received by him as coroner, and any failure or failures on the part of such sheriff to deliver to the person or persons authorized by law to receive the same, any books, papers or other things pertaining to his duties as coroner.

Sec. 3. In counties of the second and third class the county treasurer of each county shall be by virtue of his office collector of taxes therein; and the county clerk of each county shall be by virtue of his office recorder therein; and in such counties of the second class such officers shall perform such duties in that regard as are prescribed by law. The bond respectively given by such county treasurer and such county clerk shall cover any or all violation or violations of duties of such officer as collector of taxes or of recorder, and any or all failure or failures on the part of such officers to pay over to the proper person or persons any money by him as collector of taxes or as county recorder, and any or all failure or failures of said treasurer or said county clerk to deliver to any person or persons authorized by law to receive the same, any books, papers, or other things pertaining to his duties as collector of taxes or as county recorder.

Sec. 5. In counties of the third class the auditor of each county shall be by virtue of his office assessor of taxes therein; and shall perform such duties in that regard as are prescribed by law; the bond required by law to be given by such auditor shall cover any or all violations of his duties as such assessor; and any or all failure or failures on the part of such officer to pay over to the proper person or persons any money received by him as assessor, and any or all failure or failures of said assessor to deliver to any person or persons authorized by law to receive the same, any books, papers or other things pertaining to his duties as assessor of taxes.

There will be considered and presented to the caucus of Republicans later the bill drawn by Lihue Republicans, placing the control of the schools under the counties, but providing as well a Territorial Board which shall have charge of the issuance of certificates and the normal and other Territorial schools. The organization of county boards of education and the election of a county superintendent is provided, as well as the machinery for the control of the various schools under the Board of Education and the Board of Supervisors of the counties.

Home Rule legislators will meet today or tomorrow for the purpose of taking up the consideration of a county bill drawn for them by J. M. Poepoe. The measure is said to be a complete one. There will be however general discussion of the Republican bill as well, as there are many members of the minority who think it would be wise to suggest alterations in that measure for the purpose of endeavoring to secure changes and hoping that there may be had the support of many Republicans who have amendments to suggest as well, and will want votes to carry them through.

Of Interest To Oil Men.

Berlin, February 2.—Professor Baginsky of the Emperor and Empress Frederick Children's Hospital of Berlin announces that a discovery of a serum against scarlet fever has been made by Dr. Aronseg. Good results have already been obtained. The professor believes the serum will prove to be a specific for this disease.

No Cholera In Manila.

SHERIFF ANDREWS SURPRISED.

His Subordinates Make Him Present of $250 Watch.

Last Friday evening in the Circuit Court an intermission was taken for a few moments for the purpose of presenting to Sheriff Andrews a gold watch—the gift of the subordinate police of this Island.

The presentation was made by Judge Little from the bench and the recipient showed his appreciation of the graceful remembrance by emotions that made his response difficult of utterance. The watch was purchased with contributions by the members of the police force on this Island.

Following are the remarks made by Judge Little upon the occasion:

"MR. SHERIFF:—As I am in the business at present and your conduct has been the subject of considerable comment lately by those who would like to have your position or are angry because you discharge your duty faithfully, I think I may as well pass sentence on you now. Before imposing that sentence, however, I wish to say a word to you about it.

"This is the first time you have been my executive officer that it has been deemed expedient to talk to you in public and, like all matters connected with the administration of public justice, it is the publicity which the affair assumes which is most difficult to bear; and no doubt that in the twenty-five years of your public service your heart has many times been made to ache by reason of the publicity of some unfounded story which slipped from the slimy tongue of the slanderer, and which at the time may have made you feel as if life's burdens were almost more than your heart could bear. But you know it is said "That every man at his birth is an epitome of his progenitors; he starts with the elements of his character drawn from the widest sources, but so mixed in him that he differs necessarily from every other individual of his race. Here is the problem of life—not the dome of St. Peter's, but how the hand that rounded it acquired its skill; not the play of "Hamlet," but how the mind that gave it its wondrous birth was developed—these are our chief concerns. So, Mr. Sheriff, in view of the fact that for more than a quarter of a century you have faithfully, promptly and honestly borne a part in the administration of public affairs, first in this little island kingdom of your birth, then through that halting, staggering period of political pollution, dishonesty and uncertainty called a republic, and finally when the light of liberty illuminated this beautiful sun kissed land and you, with it, became an integral part of the greatest and grandest of all countries and of all governments on earth, something ought to be said to you about it.

"Inasmuch as during the entire period of your long service here you have always repudiated verbal inflations or round about "approaches" by those who would corrupt when they cannot drive; your readiness, comprehension and promptness in the performance of the duties assigned you—always ready, ever alert, proceeding cautiously that you might not lose a point, yet not once have you been found unfaithful, never have you been recreant to the trust reposed in you, never have you been untrue to your superiors in office or the best interests of the land of your birth and service. Sheriff Andrews, your friends (and they are legion) share in the general appreciation of your splendid record and your recognized devotion to duty. Those of us who know you love you for the enemies you have made, because of the tireless zeal in meeting the responsibilities of your very difficult office, the duties of which seem to be ever enlarging, ever expanding. No sheriff in any State or Territory in the United States performs such multifarious duties or compasses within the office of sheriff so wide a range of important functions. No country on earth requires so much of a sheriff as this Territory. Of course it was under the old regime, many or those requirements are still in effect, yet have you performed that duty. Yet no man in our service performs these duties more faithfully, more uncomplainingly, no storm has ever been too violent, no weather too inclement, no hour too late, no duty too exacting or unpleasant to find you unwilling or unable to promptly answer "ready" at a moment's notice. And in thus performing your sacred duty to the public for these many years you have little guessed how many may have been made wiser and happier because you were the Sheriff of Hawaii. You little thought that you were sowing seeds of inspiration, of encouragement, of consolation while discharging at times very unpleasant duties.

"Having all those things in mind and being fully advised in the premises, your friends have assembled here to shake you by the hand and to say to you "Well done good and faithful servant," and your subordinates, the police of Hawaii, which constitutes territorially your whole bailiwick, have requested me to tell you about these things and what the people all over the Island, and especially from neighbors and the police, your subordinates, think of you, and in token of their sincerity they desire me to present to you, with best wishes for your continued health, happiness and prosperity, this gold watch. Wear it to mark the time as you watch the sands of life run quickly out, wear it to regulate the correct and regular performance of duty, wear it now at life's high noon and in that solemn hour which shall come to us all, even amidst these green islands of glittering seas where our fragrant forests perfume the breeze. Keep it in view that it may mark the hour that you shall seek that radiant shore where the spirit is free and you shall weep no more; and finally transmit it to those near and dear to you as evidence of duty well performed."

The Gas Engine.

In the opinion of Professor Thurston the gas engine is a formidable rival of the steam engine and is capable a further development. Each has given a horse-power for about one pound of coal, and the efficiency of both, between the coal pile and the point of delivery, is about 20 per cent. The steam engine, he says, has so nearly reached its limit that further progress under commercial conditions would seem to be very slow, but its range may be increased by employing very high pressures and superheating combined with them. In Sibley College work a pressure of 1600 pounds a square inch has been used, and Professor Thurston expresses the view that twice that pressure may be successfully used eventually, or with sufficient experience in its management. These factors would considerably raise the efficiencies and reduce the coal per horse-power hour to about three-fourths of a pound.—Baltimore Sun.

Interesting Palettes.

There is now on view in Paris a collection as unusual as it is interesting for those gifted with the faculty for the higher hero worship. It is composed of the palettes of seventy-five eminent French painters of the present century, and embracing all schools, from that of Barbizon to artists recently dead. Among the greater names mentioned are Daubigny, Dupre, Rousseau, Delacroix, Corot, Rosa Bonheur, Detaille, Bonnat, Constant, Chavannes, and, outside exclusively French, is Munkacsy. Many of these palettes are in a condition strongly suggestive of the different methods of the masters who used them.—Les Debats.

How to Stop a Cough.

A simple but effective remedy is the following:
Breathing through the nostrils, inhale a full breath as slowly as is possible without causing fatigue. Expel the breath in the same manner and repeat the operation ten times. This will stop the coughing for about a quarter of an hour. Take a dose of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy during this lull and the medicine will have a better opportunity to act and will speedily effect a complete cure. It always cures and cures quickly. The Hilo Drug Store sells it.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

THE HILO TRIBUNE will not be found behind the head of the procession in the movement for decentralization. This paper has advocated municipal government for the Hawaiian Islands since the overthrow of the monarchy. It was in favor of the American system of self government, before it was in favor of Annexation to the United States. Now that we have had Annexation for three years and are on the eve of the enactment of a County government law, the TRIBUNE does not turn its back upon the proposition in any particular.

When the bill was first published, a cry came up from many quarters that the bill is too narrow: that it does not go far enough. Amendments and changes were suggested so earnestly and numerously that the question was raised whether or not the criticisms were sincere or merely for the purpose of smothering and killing the bill. The TRIBUNE is opposed to any program of change or amendment that will throttle the bill and cautions the friends of local government in the Legislature against such roundabout tricks of the opposition. The people of Hawaii are definite in their demands for local control of schools and the election of District magistrates by the people. In short the people of this Island are now contending, as the TRIBUNE has contended for years, that they are capable of self government in every branch and department.

THE plans of the Volcano House management to improve that mountain hostelry is a movement that should be encouraged by the people of Hilo. Mr. Bidgood, who takes charge March 1, is authorized to make extensive changes which will be appreciated by the travelling public. The day of the tourist in the Hawaiian Island is yet to come. The efforts now being made to attract travelers is one to which every property owner and merchant of Hilo should add his support. The TRIBUNE bespeaks for Mr. Bidgood an extensive patronage during the year from families on this Island who know of no finer spot than the region of Kilauea to spend a summer outing.

THE chief reason advanced for eliminating the cumbersome Road Board system, as proposed in the County Bill, is that it renders responsibility vague and indefinite. Too much red tape and too many bosses spoils any job. One official in each Road District, with entire responsibility for results will serve the public better than a Board. The Road Board idea is not an American invention to start with and is not in accord with up to date business organization. The best system is that which fixes responsibility upon a single individual. Then the whole country knows whom to look to for results.

THE proposition for the Territory to furnish all the printing necessary for the counties the first year, may look well to those who like a hand out. But why not carry the idea farther and have the Territory furnish for the first year, all the provisions for prisoners; all the material for public works, and all the contractors and all of everything. This would save the counties more money and trouble and postpone decentralization one year.

IT HAS been suggested that the term limit in this Circuit should be abolished and that juries should be drawn to serve six months in order to avoid an accumulation of cases like that which crowded the docket at the January term. Under this plan when sufficient number of cases accumulated, the jurors could be drawn and the cases disposed of before they piled up mountain high.

HAWAII FOR HOME RULE.

C. W. Baldwin, traveling Normal Instructor, under the Department of Public Instruction, admits in an interview in the TRIBUNE that he has been circulating petitions among the teachers on this Island, praying for the Legislature not to disturb the present centralized school system. This activity on the part of the officials in the department of Public Instruction has aroused the people on this Island to a pitch that nothing short of local management of schools will satisfy them. If the Department has seen fit to get out and work politics for its own self preservation, the public is inclined to the opinion that this department is in need of an overhauling more than any of the others. The people on the Island of Hawaii, know they can manage their schools far better than they have been managed from Honolulu. They have not been radical in their demands, so far, upon the Legislature for the extension of local government beyond the provisions of the original County bill.

The popular feeling today is that we want the whole thing. We want to elect our District Magistrates. We want to manage our own schools. We want to be empowered to provide for our own sanitation and health. We want a simple system of administration of public works.

The Island of Hawaii is ready for absolute decentralization, and is sincere in asking it generally.

The efforts of the employees in the Educational Department to stop the wheels of progress in their own interest, has solidified sentiment against the retention at the capitol of a single power that belongs to the people.

THAT STRANGE RAID.

When they heard that a lawfully wedded man and wife had been awakened in the dead of night, placed under arrest for living together and required to give bonds for their appearance in Court next morning, the people of Hilo did not know whether to laugh or swear. On a few moments' reflection every man who heard of the episode was of the opinion that had it been his house that was thus raided, there would have been a vacancy or so on the police force at once.

At headquarters, the information is given out that the arrest was made upon the sworn complaint of the officer who made the raid, and that he based his action upon sworn information. The name and the purposes and motives of this informer are locked in the archives of the Police Department, inaccessible to press or public.

In passing it may be observed that police are human and liable to mistakes. In Hilo and Hawaii, however, the police have one great advantage over common mortals, to-wit, they do not have to answer for their mistakes. Ordinary people must make their errors good or suffer the consequences. The policeman here has a cinch that permits him to make all kinds of mistakes without explanation, apology or restitution.

THE most excellent teachers in Hilo and in the schools in the other parts of this Island should have no fear of losing their positions through a change in the system of school management. The good qualities of all of the teachers in Hawaii are better known in Hawaii than they are in Honolulu. The parents of the children, whom you instruct, like you a whole lot more than do the members of a school Board which convenes in secret 200 miles away. No teacher should be frightened into signing a petition by the thought of losing her job.

IT is fundamental wherever English law prevails that a man charged with a crime has the right to be confronted by his accusers. Mr. and Mrs. Fernandez were dragged into Court upon a serious charge. When the prosecution realized the monumental mistake it had made, it dropped the case like a boy would drop a hot potato. The records of the Court should show who was this anonymous informer.

WHY not call the districts, townships, and be done with it. There is but one state in the union where they are called anything else, and that is Louisiana. The reason there are no townships in Louisiana is that the civilization in that section is French, not English.

THE Honolulu Mirror is again reflecting scintillant rays from the luminous stylus of William Frederick Sabin. May the insidious ringworm never etch the quicksilver from its back.

THE Kauai system of managing the public schools of the Territory is one that met the approval of every believer in decentralization upon first reading.

THE Sheriff's Department has had a dose of its own medicine. The informer was wholly disinterested. O yes.

THE latest paradox is that of the Home Rule party petitioning for a Mainland governor.

FOR DECENTRALIZATION.

East Hawaii Favors Local Control in All Lines.

The Hilo Committee appointed to suggest changes in the County bill finished their labor and reported to a mass meeting of citizens last night.

They recommend the election of District Magistrates by the people.

They recommend the Kauai proposition of change from the present centralized school system.

They recommend the abolition of Road Boards entirely.

They recommend that every public officer, both elective and appointive be required to furnish bonds.

They recommend that each County Supervisor have full charge of the roads in his district and that actual construction be under the supervision of a road master.

It was the unanimous opinion of the Committee that the County Bill in its present form should pass, rather than that it be jeopardized by prolonged contests and quibbles over amendments and changes. This view however, detracts in no wise from the positive character of the prevalent opinion, reflected in the committee, that complete local government alone will satisfy the people.

It favored raising the exemption under the Income Tax Law to $2,000.

It recommended that the Sheriff instead of the Tax Collector, collect license fees, and that the office of Tax Collector be not created by the bill, all taxes to be paid direct to the Treasurer.

It recommended that the Board of Supervisors have sole control of sanitary matters within the county.

It recommended that the officers elected in November, 1903, take office January 4, 1904, and hold office to January 2, 1906.

The committee favored giving the County Commissioners power to fix the license fees for drays, carriages, etc.

The above points were the principal ones touched upon in the committee's recommendations, although numerous minor suggestions were made.

The committee was appointed at a mass meeting of Hilo citizens and consisted of C. C. Kennedy, John Baker, Rev. S. L. Desha, H. L. Ross, Geo. S. McKenzie, J. T. Stacker and L. W. Haworth.

Stockholders Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Stockholders of the L. Turner Co., Ltd., will be held at the Company's Store, Hilo, on Saturday, February 28, 1903, at 3 o'clock, for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year and the transaction of such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

St. Clair Bidgood Arrives And Will Take Management.

St. Clair Bidgood, late of the Moano Hotel at Honolulu, arrived by the Kinaiu this week and will assume the management of the Volcano House March 1. Mr. Bidgood will change the entire character of the mountain hostelry, making it first class in every respect. He will make it a pleasant resort for the most particular and desirable tourist classes of the world and will make an especial effort to create an attractive place for Islanders and Island families to spend their summer and winter vacations. Extensive improvements will at once be made in the hotel.

The coming of Mr. Bidgood to the Volcano house is a part of an extensive and determined plan on the part of the business men of Honolulu to attract to these Islands the growing horde of tourists in the United States, who each year go on long journeys in search of pleasant climates and scenes. Honolulu has learned that a tourist after a journey of from 2500 to 6000 miles desires something more versatile than a first class Honolulu hotel. They wish to see the Islands as God made them; to visit the villages and get near the tropic heart of Hawaiian nature. The Volcano House and Hilo and mountain roads of this Island are to be included in every tourist's itinerary, if the movement originating in Honolulu succeeds.

One of the reforms Mr. Bidgood will inaugurate is the ten day excursion trip instead of the four day trip. The plan includes two days stop in Hilo, a week at the Volcano and a trip on the other side to the Mauna Loa then back to Honolulu. Special rates will be made for these excursions besides the special rate that will prevail throughout the year to all residents of Hawaii.

Mr. Bidgood is a hotel man of fifteen years experience having had special experience in managing Mountain Club resorts in different parts of California.

BALDWIN'S VIEWS.

Says to Change School System Would Rain Schools.

School Inspector Baldwin arrived in Hilo the first of the week from Kan. Mr. Baldwin states that the people in that part of the Island are red hot for local government in every particular. He says that the general demand for local control of schools is surprising. He had thought the people generally would be willing to take up the management of schools two years later, when experience would have been gained in other branches of local government.

Asked as to his views, Mr. Baldwin said: "In common with other members in the Department I consider that to turn over the schools entirely to local management would be the ruination of the schools."

Mr. Baldwin also stated that there was a movement among the teachers of all the Islands protesting against any change from the present centralized system. He brought petitions from Maui to this Island for circulation among teachers.

END OF LONG TERM.

Court, Jurors and Lawyers Had Enough Law For Once.

The January term of the Fourth Circuit Court adjourned sine die, Wednesday afternoon, after a long and arduous term work. The regular term and extension of ten days were consumed in the trial of a very heavy calendar of cases. In all there were about 160 cases tried among them several murder cases and will contests of importance. The work of the term was pushed by Judge Little in his strenuous style, a days session often lasting from 9 a. m. to midnight. The long hours and prolonged term weighed heavily on court, jurors, attorneys and litigants alike and all were glad enough to see the end. It was the biggest term work ever done outside of Honolulu, and now that all the scrapping is over, Court and jurors alike are entitled to commendation for zeal, patience and industry displayed throughout.

Missionary Tea.

The Thankoffering meeting held last Tuesday under the auspices of the Woman's Board was a pronounced success socially and financially.

This society extends a helping hand to many local benevolences, and the object of the meeting was to replenish the treasury depleted by frequent demands upon it.

A short praise service conducted by the president preceded the musical and literary program, which was rendered by the best talent of Hilo and thoroughly enjoyed by the large number of ladies present. When the thankoffering basket returned from its tour around the room, it was found that the Scriptural injunction "Good measure, pressed down, shaken together and running over" had been literally fulfilled, for nearly one hundred dollars were added to the treasury as the result of this gathering. Dainty bouquets with suitable quotations were presented to each lady, and during the social hour which followed the program light refreshments were served.

The Hilo Drug Store received a new cash register this week, which is a marvel of complex mechanism.

THE STONE-CANARIO NUPTIALS.

Brilliant Reception at Home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Canario.

Unstinted hospitality held sway Wednesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Canario, which was thrown open to their hosts of friends in honor of the occasion of the marriage of their eldest daughter, Melinda, to William J. Stone. The halls and lanais and the spacious grounds were thronged with guests who came and went. Bright flowers, brighter costumes and still brighter faces mingled in the reception rooms, the refreshment hall and dancing pavilion from 8 o'clock until after midnight. Music and happiness had full sway. The guests were shown what it is to partake of the open hearted hospitality of host and hostess who never raise the bar of formality in the way of proper pleasure.

It was all in honor of the pretty ceremony which made William J. Stone and Melinda Canario husband and wife. The ceremony was performed according to the Catholic ritual by Rev. Father Oliver, at 7:30 p. m., in the presence of members of the family and a few close friends. Besides the family there were present, Mr. and Mrs. George Mumby, Miss Sutton, A. E. Sutton, Geo. S. McKenzie, J. D. Kennedy and Gilson Bell. The bridal couple stood in an alcove in the parlor beneath a canopy of flowers while the words were pronounced that made them one. The bridesmaid was Marie Canario, a sister to the bride, and the groomsmen was Mr. E. F. Nichols, Misses Blanche and Millie, also sisters of the bride, strewn flower petals in the pathway of the pair. The bride was beautifully attired in a gown of white satin with tulle veil. She carried a large bouquet of orange blossoms.

After the ceremony and the congratulations of immediate relatives was over, guests began to arrive. Soon the large mansion was alive with laughing wedding guests. These were received at the entrance by Mrs. L. M. Whitehouse, Miss Hattie E. Hitchcock, J. Castle Ridgway and C. H. W. Hitchcock. As soon as wraps were disposed of guests were escorted to the reception room and presented to Mr. and Mrs. Stone.

In the pavilion outside the Hilo band and orchestra discoursed excellent music. The grand march was played and the dancers fell in line. Mr. and Mrs. Stone leading. The younger element among the guests spent the remainder of the evening in the pavilion alternating lively dancing with frequent visits to the refreshment hall. Among those who remained in the parlors waitresses passed to and fro, serving all with delicate ices, fruit and cake.

At about 10:30 the bride and groom were missed. The rice and old shoes that had been hidden conveniently were doled as waste. It had been quietly circulated that by and by a coach and four would arrive to bear the bridal party away to the Volcano House. Then it was that the rice throwers were coming on the stage, but they were fooled.

With the assistance of trusted friends, the bride and groom escaped un molested from the gay throng and went to the Soda Works on Volcano street where they found a team and driver awaiting them. They entered the carriage and were driven away to the Canario residence at Kaunama. Upon their return they will occupy a new cottage just finished on Pitman street.

The invitations issued for the reception numbered several hundred. The list of those who were present would crowd a column of space.

St. Valentine Social.

The children held high carnival in the First Foreign Church last Friday night, the occasion being a Valentine Social given by the Junior Endeavorers, at which the following program was rendered:

- Opening Song
 Recitation—"A Boy's Remembrance"..... Joe Miguel
 Recitation—"Not so Easy".....Robbie Byrne
 Song.....Gertrude Willifong, Catharine Howard, Gloria Miguel, Lydia Byrne
 Recitation—"What's the Good of a Boy?".....Four Boys
 Recitation—"A Very Small Boy".....Thornton Lyman
 Song.....Alex. Lindsay
 Paper—"The Day We Celebrate".....Chas. Lyman
 Song—"Soldiers Brave".....Lillie Erickson, Alida Gertz, Dolly Gertz, Sallie Todd
 Recitation—"The Noisy Seven".....Antone Miguel
 Song.....Junior Quartette
 Try Company
 Perhaps the greatest interest attached to the first appearance of the "Try Company": Wallace Patterson, Captain; Buster Stacker, Drummer; Soldiers—Chas. Lyman, Joe Miguel, Antone Miguel, George Willifong, Charles Willifong, Robert Maby.

The Captain spoke of the active part taken by his company in the early history of America, and especially of their help in laying the Pacific cable connecting Hawaii with the Mainland. He said their next efforts would be directed to Hilo improvements, mentioning particularly a new railroad to Kona, a new wharf and a new boulevard. Each soldier told what he expected to be in the future, mentioning some well known local character as a model.

At the close of the program Mrs. Valentine (with personated by Mrs. Lindsay) arrived with a huge mail for the little ones, and for the next few moments hearts and cupid's bows and arrows were very much in evidence.

Games, refreshments and a social time followed, and many in leaving expressed the hope that St. Valentine would pay them another visit in 1904.

A QUEER RAID.

Marriage Certificate Causes Quick "Nolle" in Police Court.

A serio-comic affair graced the boards in the Police Court last week when as the result of a raid by Captain Keolani, a man and wife were brought before Judge Hapai charged with a crime impossible under the relation of wedlock. The production of a marriage certificate told the eloquent story of a wedding at Honolulu eight years ago, at which the Rev. Mr. Parker officiated. As a result of the union four children were born and these were sleeping in the home on upper Wai- anuanue street Wednesday night of last week, when members of the police force broke into the house and arrested their parents for sleeping in the same bed.

The raid was made between 1 and 2 o'clock a. m. The house was quietly surrounded. A dark lantern was thrust through a window and its gleam revealed a husband and wife, sound asleep beneath one mosquito net. The preservers of the law forthwith entered the house and made the surprised sleepers under arrest. The husband, being a prosperous merchant in Hilo, put up bail to save his wife a long walk to the police station and to save himself from a night in jail.

The case came on for trial before Judge Hapai next morning and was continued to Saturday by the prosecution. Saturday morning the case was gotten rid of by a nolle prosequi.

The defendants in this most remarkable case were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fernandez. Mr. Fernandez is in the grocery business with J. G. Serrao on Shipman street. Mr. and Mrs. Fernandez were married at Honolulu in 1895 and have four children. What the aftermath of this peculiar case will be is not known. The police have to admit that on the comic side of the play, the laugh is on them. On the serious side of the drama, the fact remains that it is not a safe community where married folks may expect the gleam of a policeman's bullseye to startle them from blessed dreams.

Impure Blood

Impure blood will always make you sick. You suffer from headache, great depression, indigestion, sleeplessness, a bad skin, extreme exhaustion, and you can hardly drag yourself about.

Read what Mr. H. J. Matthews, of Wellington, New Zealand, says about this. He also sends his photograph.
"I have suffered a great deal from impure blood, especially from boils on my arms and back. I felt weak all over and was greatly depressed. I began to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After taking only a little of it I felt better, and soon my troubles disappeared. I believe this medicine is the best blood purifier and the strongest tonic that any one can buy."

CUBANS IRATE.

Excitement Caused by Report That Spanish Official Lowered Flag.

New York, February 4.—A cable to the Tribune from Havana says: A dispatch from Madrid published in El Mundo this morning, saying that the Cuban Minister was requested by the Minister of Foreign Affairs of Spain to take down the Cuban flag because of the ordinance against foreign flags flying over private houses, has caused great indignation here.

Representative Castillo introduced in the House this afternoon a resolution asking President Palma to cable immediately to Senor Merchan, the Cuban Minister, for particulars of the incident, and to place all the circumstances before Congress. The resolution was passed unanimously.

Much bitterness was displayed. It is argued that as Senor Merchan had presented his credentials, his home was the Cuban Legation and was not subject to the law regarding foreign flags. If it develops that the Minister was compelled to lower the flag it is certain the House will vote to recall the Cuban Legation from Madrid, thus causing a breach in the diplomatic relations between the two countries. There is fear, too, that some anti-Spanish Cubans here might tear down Spanish flags.

Snake Poisons.

The rapidity with which snake poison acts in producing fatal results is, of course, familiar to everyone, states the London Chronicle; hence the investigations which have had for their object the discovery of an antidote to the virus have attracted a large amount of attention. Prominent among those who have experimented are Dr. Calmette of Lilly and Professor Fraser of Edinburgh. The mode of research is that of rendering an animal immune to snake poison by its inoculation with small doses of the virus, the quantity being gradually increased till the animal survives an amount of poison sufficient, it may be, to kill half a dozen of its kind. A principle known as "antivenin" is developed in the animal's blood, and it is this substance which can be used as an antidote to ward off fatal effects when man has been bitten. Weir Mitchell long ago demonstrated that each species or group of snakes elaborates its own special virus; hence it appears likely that for each bite we may demand a separate remedy. A modified opinion holds that while antivenin obtained from one snake holds good for that snake's bite alone, it may also exercise an effect of modified character in the case of injury from another and different reptile. In connection with this topic it may be of interest to note that the immunity of the mongoose to the effects of snake bite is really due to that little animal having naturally developed in its blood an antidotal principle, presumably allied to antivenin.

Renting Stuffed Animals.

The trade in stuffed animals is getting brisker. "I don't mean by that," said a William-street taxidermist, "that we are selling more of them. We are not. We never do sell stuffed beasts in herds at this time of the year, but our renting list swells prodigiously. People whose business requires them to use stuffed animals and birds as an advertisement generally want an extra duck or dog or bear added to their stock for a month or two preceding and following Christmas. A trade mark of this kind of good quality, costs anywhere from $5 to $75, and as those that are used merely as 'supers' are needed only a few mouths in the year, it is cheaper to rent them than to buy them outright. Almost every merchant in town of high or low degree makes an extra splurge at the Christmas season by exhibiting a polar bear or some other festive animal, consequently our rental amounts to a rather nice income. Some seasons we do a pretty thriving business with theatrical companies also, but this year the drama seems to have become too realistic to rely upon stuffed art for its effects, and our orders for property fowls and quadrupeds have been few."

MILLIONS FOR IRRIGATION.

Enormous Sums for Reclaiming Arid Lands.

Washington, February 4.—The Secretary of the Interior is expected to make a decision as to the beginning to be made in the new Federal-aided irrigation project Newell of the Geological Survey, who has the irrigation work in charge, has forwarded to the Secretary all the data necessary for the selection of sites, and the report is now in the government printing office.

It has been decided that there shall be three projects inaugurated simultaneously. The chances are greatly improved for one to be located in Southern California. A dozen sites have been withdrawn from entry in as many states and the report deals with the availability of them all.

The sum for this irrigation work has been growing at an unexpected rate. There are now in the vicinity of ten million dollars available, says Newell, to begin work. This is ample for all needs.

Power of the Press.

She had refused him. Coldly, cruelly turned him down. And he had been so hopeful! He was the editor of a newspaper and hope had been a necessity in his business.

That and $2 per year, in advance—or words to that effect.

"I know," he fairly hissed at her when he realized she was not to be his'n, "I know why you have rejected my suit. You think yourself so beautiful that you can barter your personal pulchritude for a title."

The haughty beauty smiled unreluctantly. "And why not?" she responded lightly to his accusation. "Am I not beautiful? True, the word does not know of it yet, for I have shone only in the narrow sphere in which you move; but the time will come when all the beau monde shall acknowledge it and be at my feet."

He pawed the rich Oriental rugs like a restive horse.

"You think thus to set my love aside, do you?" he said, with suppressed fury in his tone. "You think, proud beauty, that you have me in your power. Aha! You little know who you are dealing with."

Notwithstanding he was an editor, his feelings were so intense that he neglected grammatical rules in his language.

This time she smiled in scorn. "Oh, you threaten, do you?" she inquired, with infinite irony. "Know, sir, that I fear you not. Do your worst!"

He strode toward the half-open door and stopped on the threshold.

"You have pronounced your own doom," he said, turning to her. "You think when the world has seen your face it will worship your beauty and crown you Queen. I shall print your picture in our society columns tomorrow, and I shall do my worst, as you have asked. Aha!"

It was a supreme moment. The editor gazed fixedly upon the fickle fair one and the color fled from her cheeks for hers was no drug store complexion.

She returned his gaze, for she had no occasion to use it then; with a low moan of horror, the proud beauty came down off her perch and acknowledged that the power of the press was illimitable.—W. J. Lampton in Press Club Doings.

AFRICAN SULTAN PRISONER.

Possible Ally of Mad Mullah Removed From Field of Action.

Aden (Arabia), February 4.—Advices received here to-day from Obbia, on the Somali coast of East Africa, say that the Italian Consul there on January 29th invited Yusuf Ali, the Sultan of Obbia, and his eldest son on board an Italian gunboat, where they were detained. This, it is pointed out, removes one of the chief difficulties in the British arrangements for an advance against the Mad Mullah.

The Guinea.

The question why professional fees should be in guineas and not in sovereigns, says the St. James Gazette, has been asked often, and no more satisfactory answer can be got than that it is a survival of the days when a coin of guineas was well known in these islands. A writer in the Lady has been looking into the history of the guinea. Sir Robert Holmes, one of the most picturesque figures in the annals of the Isle of Wight, was really responsible for it. Half soldier, half sailor, half English, half Irish, wholly loyal to the crown, the merry, stalwart, filibustering hero was equally popular with both the Charleses, and was made Governor of the island by Charles II. Sir Robert it was who, in 1666, captured a golden prize in Schelli g bay, that consisted of bullion and gold dust from Cape Coast Castle, in Guinea. This rich prize was coined into gold pieces, stamped with an elephant, and to commemorate the capture these pieces of money were called guineas. Sir Robert seems to have had plenty of these golden coins. At Yarmouth, Isle of Wight, so long the sight of the Governor's house, shrimpers and lobster catchers still look out for the stray gold pieces he was wont to scatter or that may have been lost or hidden in the smuggling raids so common in his day. The guinea is not nearly so antique as many of the coins now in circulation. The simple, respectable sovereign is more than a century older, and dates from the time of Henry VII. The guinea displaced it, but sovereigns were re-coined in the early part of the last century, and soon after that they completely ousted the guinea piece.

Letter Tubes in Paris.

A scheme is being promoted in Paris for constructing a system of subterranean pneumatic conduits for the rapid transportation of mail matter and parcel freight and express. The proposition has been brought to the notice of the Government and official trials will be made of models. The system employs electricity as its motive power, and its investors represent that they can transport cars weighing a ton over any given distance at a speed of 160 miles an hour. The system is styled the "electric postal service." A metal duct is to be constructed, of a width of not exceeding thirty inches, which will be wide enough for a double track to accommodate trains going in opposite directions. The cars would be simply sheet-iron cases supported on two or four axles, and carrying the electric motor. The central compartment of each "car," measuring about twenty cubic feet, would be reserved for freight. The total length of each vehicle would be about twenty-two feet, but it would not exceed twenty inches in height. To counteract the resistance of the air—naturally of great force in view of the excessive speed attained by the vehicle—the front and rear of each car would be equipped with wind cutters of parabolic form.—Engineering News.

Thimble Collections.

Collecting thimbles which have been the property of female celebrities has become the latest rage. The cream of a collection owned by a Wealthy American is the thimble of that excellent needlewoman, Queen Elizabeth, and one which belonged to Queen Victoria when a girl of 14. This is a solid and useful looking silver thimble, but very small. A thimble much worn, once belonged to Princess Alice, and is rather large; One whose owner was the Princess of Wales is extremely dainty, of gold and enamel.—London Express.

WAR PREPARATIONS IN EUROPE.

Hostilities Imminent Between Sultan and Powers.

Constantinople, Turkey, Feb. 12.—Peaceful declarations made by the Sultan are far from being borne out by the warlike activity that is going on throughout the Turkish army. Preparations are going forward with unusual vigor. All army orders indicate speedy preparation for war.

Queer Lawsuit.

Perhaps the most remarkable suit ever brought is on the records of the Court of the Exchequer in England, says the New York World. It was filed on October 3, 1725, and it sets forth very clearly that John Everit and Joseph Williams were highway robbers.

In the succinct legal phrases the complaint says that the men formed a partnership for the purpose of carrying on business as highwaymen. It was mighty profitable, as shown by the fact that Everit sued Williams for the equivalent of $5000, "being for monies wrongfully appropriated to defendant's private purse."

This was the amount in dispute after the partnership had lasted only a year. Then Everit claimed that he discovered that his partner had not made a fair division of the spoils.

The action was adjudged to be a gross contempt of court, and the plaintiff was ordered to pay all costs, while the solicitors who served the writ were fined £50 each. One of the solicitors a man named Wrencock, refused to pay the fine and was sent to prison for six months. Both plaintiff and defendant to the action were subsequently hanged—one at Tyburn and the other at Maidstone.

Profitable Waste.

"All that litters is not gold," and, on the other hand, not all that finds its way to the dust bin is worthless. For instance, in Sal-ford in one year 208,620 mineral water bottles, 15,700 other bottles and ninety-seven tons of broken glass, estimated to represent 650,000 broken bottles, worth £3000 at retail rates, were picked out of the refuse at the destructors. The marked bottles were returned to the makers at 1d. per dozen, while the other glass was sold for £150 to be used in making mortar. In Glasgow the corporation issues bags to business houses for the collection of waste paper, the contents being gathered periodically. In this way eighteen tons of paper are collected weekly and a profit of £200 a year is realized. Solder is extracted from old tins found among the refuse, and sold at a fair price.—Tid-Bits.

Newtype of Steamer.

Experiments with a ship constructed by Danish captain named Ishoej are being looked forward to with great interest here. The vessel differs from other steamers chiefly in the fact that the screws are not placed in the stern, but amidships, a plan devised by the constructor, which will, he believes, come to quicker and surer navigation. Captain Ishoej is an old and experienced navigator, and has built ships with which he is now experimenting with the help of a syndicate. It is now finished and has made one short but successful trip. POPULAR ELECTION OF JUDGE.

Of Interest in the Matter of Choosing District Judges.

The following from Case and Comment is applicable to the question of electing District Judges in Hawaii: The belief that the people can be trusted to elect judges as well as other officers, though it has been dominant in the organization of most of the state governments in this country, has never been universally accepted. Persons who have a tendency to see defects more readily than excellencies, and those who are least inclined to trust in the common people, are very prone to regard the popular election of judges as a sad mistake. But this all depends on the fitness of the people for self-government. It may be, indeed, that the voters of a state might be intelligent enough to make a fair success in the election of administrative officers, but yet not intelligent enough to choose good judges; but when the people reach a grade of intelligence high enough, no system of choosing judges can be so good as that of their election by popular vote. Some significant facts were presented on this subject in the recent election in the state of New York. In several instances candidates of the dominant party for judicial positions were defeated. It is not the province of this journal, and it certainly is not the intent or wish, to pass judgment on the merits of the respective candidates, or to intimate that the judges defeated were not the equals or superiors of those who were elected. The matter is referred to only as a strong indication of a purpose on the part of the voters to choose their judges without much regard to politics. In that light and to that extent their action is encouraging to those who believe in the policy of an elective judiciary. There is abundant reason for trusting the people of this country to choose their own judges. The result is not always ideal but it is certainly not often bad. It is safe to say that there has been no such dissatisfaction with the results of judicial elections in recent years as there has been in England over what the leading journals of that country have denounced as judicial scandals in the appointment to the bench of purely political hangers and the relatives of cabinet ministers or political partisans, without regard to their legal experience or judicial qualifications.

Mitchell Favors Quo.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 10.—In the Senate an amendment to the Sundry Civil Bill has been introduced granting former Queen Liliuokalani of Hawaii $200,000. It stands little chance of passing in the bill, as it is the settled policy of the House to throw out all new legislation on appropriate measures.

Life Sentence.

Brussels, Belgium, Feb. 10.—Genaro Rubino de Rubini, who attempted to assassinate King Leopold of Belgium, was today sentenced to life imprisonment. During the trial the would-be assassin stated that had the attempt proved successful, the lives of Edward of England and Carlos of Spain would have been attempted.

Warships For Honors.

San Francisco, Cal., Feb. 10.—The Pacific Squadron, in command of Admiral Glass, sailed for Honolulu this forenoon.

GERMANY CHANGES.

The Triple Alliance Has Hard Time to Agree.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 12.—Germany has made a new move on the Venezuelan board by waiving its demand for the payment of $340,000 cash and expressing a willingness to accept payment in five monthly instalments.

This radical departure by Germany, far from simplifying matters, has caused the displeasure of Italy and Great Britain at what is termed the repudiation of Germany's original agreement. Great Britain is determined to adhere to its original plan and may induce Italy to take the same course.

The German protocol is expected tomorrow. Minister Bowen's action in this new turn of affairs is uncertain.

Kaiser Wants Larger Navy.

Berlin, February 3.—The Vice-President of the Reichstag, Count von Stolberg-Wernigerode, in calling that body to order to-day, said the Emperor had presented the House with a diagram in his own hand contrasting the British and German navies. The drawing, which probably will be hung in the lobby of the Reichstag as an object lesson to members, shows that Great Britain has forty-two battle-ships and Germany has twenty-two; that Great Britain has fourteen armored cruisers and Germany two; that Great Britain has 105 protected cruisers and Germany seven; that Great Britain is building twelve battle-ships and Germany six; that Great Britain is building twenty armored cruisers and Germany three, and that Great Britain is building eight protected cruisers and Germany six.

Ready For War.

London, England, Feb. 10.—A St. Petersburg dispatch to The Times says that the Russian army reserves have been notified to hold themselves in readiness to rejoin their regiments.

The feeling is general that the Macedonian affair seriously threatens the peace of Europe.

Government For Mindanao.

Manila, P. I., Feb. 10.—Governor Taft is drafting a bill to extend the civil government to the Island of Mindanao. He proposes to create an Assembly representing the people and give them a strong voice in the administration of their local affairs.

Allies Demands.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 10.—Minister Bowen claims that Germany and Italy are still far apart in their requirements for a settlement of Venezuelan affairs. It will be several days before definite conclusions are reached by the Allies.

No Confidence In Turkey.

Paris, France, Feb. 10.—No confidence is placed in the pacific assurance made by the Turkish Government. Advice received by the Foreign Office confirm the report that Turkish troops are being mobilized.
