WHY THE Equitable Life Assurance Society

Of the United States is the Best company with which to Assure.

I.—Because of its Safety. Its surplus is larger than that of any other assurance company.

II.—Because of its Promptness. Of 1,043 death claims paid in 1885, nearly one-half were paid the very day proofs were received; while of the remainder, the majority were paid within the following three days. No other company can show such a record.

III.—Because of its Liberality and Refrains. All policies are INCONTESTABLE after three years. All incontestable policies are payable immediately upon receipt of proofs of death. The Society's policy contract is clear and simple, and liberal in its conditions. Its Non-forfeiting Tontine (or Semi-Tontine) policy affords all the ultimate benefits of the full Tontine, and has during its earlier years the surrender value and other material advantages of ordinary life policies.

IV.—Profit. No other company is paying on its policies, as large profits as are shown under the Equitable's matured Tontine policies with fifteen-year periods. Persons desiring assurance may obtain estimates of the probable results of similar policies, and of policies with twenty-year terms, which are expected to show even larger profits.

V.—Prospective Advantages. The unexampled progress of the Equitable in the past is the best guarantee of the increasing future value of assurance with the Equitable.

MISREPRESENTED.
 The Advertiser editorial comments on the debate of yesterday forenoon, misrepresent the expression of Mr. Dole on the appropriation for the military. The honorable member did not say that the men being off duty occasionally and some of them falling into the hands of the police was an evidence of loose discipline or lack of courage. What Mr. Dole did say was that there was a lack of organization in the military department. This by no means charges the men with cowardice, but it suggests that there is room for improvement in the management.

Every possible effort was made by the Government and its servants in the house to fasten the stigma of disloyalty upon those members who took a common sense view of the military forces of the country. No one of the honorable members opposed to the enormous appropriations for war-paint and feathers objected to a reasonable expenditure of money for the support of such armed forces as might be necessary to maintain the King's dignity and to support the Government in enforcing the laws, in cases of emergency. It was held by all the representatives who could afford to take an independent view of the situation that the purposes of military organization such as the Kingdom requires or is ever likely to require, could be met by an expenditure of half the amount asked for. And the intelligent taxpayers of the Kingdom are a unit in support of the opinions expressed by the members referred to. As to the hired servants of the Government, posing as representatives of the people, their opinions are of little weight, as no one knows whether these opinions are their own or those of their masters.

THE BANANA BUSINESS.
 The Advertiser has apparently misunderstood our article referring to the banana trade. We have not argued that because rapid transportation by steamship has stimulated production to an undue extent, therefore steamer freights should be reduced to ensure a profit to the shipper. We admit that this line of argument is absurd, but deny that we have committed the absurdity. The object of our article was to show that the banana business is not entirely dependent on steam communication with the Coast—that, as a matter of fact, a profitable trade in that commodity had been carried on with San Francisco through sailing vessels, and that sailing vessels would do the work again if the steamers ceased running. Our contemporary had asked what would become of the banana business if the steamers were withdrawn, and we replied that it would be maintained by sailing vessels. Our reference to present rates of freight and prices of fruit was merely incidental. The conclusion that without an increase of prices or a diminution of freights planters would cease to produce, affords no just ground for the inference that we held freights should be reduced to ensure a profit to the shipper. Seventy-five cents does seem a high figure for transporting a bunch of bananas, which can be purchased here for twenty-five cents, from Honolulu to San Francisco; but whether it is higher than allows a reasonable compensation to the carriers we are unable to say. Of course, the steamers cannot be expected to carry cargo at a loss, nor at a rate that merely ensures against loss. They are entitled to a reasonable profit, and no reasonable man expects them to do business on any other terms. Nor can it be expected that banana growers should continue to raise bananas at a loss, which they have been doing for some time past, with the hope of better times coming. Hope having been deferred has grown sick, and cultivators are not only now ceasing to plant, but in many instances are destroying their banana fields to try something else. Within one year the yield has reduced about one-third, and as long as cultivation continues unprofitable the yield will keep on reducing.

THE LEGISLATURE.

The item of $180,000, interest on national debt, passed.
 Rep. Thurston moved to insert an item of $175,000, for payment of debt due to Mr. Spreckels, and refer it to a committee to ascertain the exact amount.

Minister Gibson referred the honorable member to the Interior report for the exact amount.

Rep. Thurston amended his motion to $133,000, to be referred to committee. He wanted the debt to be paid properly, and not out of appropriations for other objects.

Noble Cleghorn was in favor of referring the item to a committee. The house had made a mistake in asking for the Government's indebtedness till June 30th, when it should only have been till the 31st of March. The whole thing was in a muddle. For debts incurred since March 31st the house had been making appropriations.

Rep. Thurston could not see that the house had done wrong in asking for the indebtedness till the latest possible date.

Rep. Castle considered that where no specific appropriations were asked for past indebtedness, the money could not be voted in this bill.

Noble Cleghorn moved the item be deferred till next Monday, and the Minister of Finance then report upon the item.

Rep. Dickey moved to insert $28,000 for the Japanese fund.

Minister Gibson referred the honorable member to the Postal Savings Bank Act, which gave authority for the custody of this and other deposits. This had been transferred from the private savings bank to the Postal Savings Bank.

Rep. Dickey asked how they could transfer the money from the Finance Department without authority of law.

Minister Gibson said there was an understanding with the house on the matter.

Rep. Thurston said he could answer the question of the honorable member for Makawao. All the Government had to do was to send a clerk down to the bank and carry the cash away.

Minister Creighton said the amount due on June 30th was $41,445.

The item was accordingly amended and referred to the same select committee as the previous one.

Rep. Brown moved the committee rise, which carried, and the report of committee was adopted by the house.

OTHER BUSINESS.
 Rep. Hayselden, from the select committee of one, reported back the tax bill as revised, and moved it pass to engrossment, and be read a third time on Tuesday.

Rep. Aholo moved the report of the committee be received and laid upon the table. Carried.

Noble Macfarlane, from the Committee on Commerce, presented a report on an act to provide for the measurement of vessels upon registry at the Custom House. The committee, after careful consideration, recommend its passage. The report was signed by G. W. Macfarlane, S. B. Dole, E. K. Lilikalani, J. T. Baker, S. G. Wilder.

On motion of Minister Creighton, the report of the committee was adopted and the bill passed to engrossment, and appointed to be read a third time on Thursday.

At 4:30 the house adjourned till 10 o'clock to-morrow.

EIGHTY-SECOND DAY.

SATURDAY, Aug. 21st.

The Assembly opened at 10 A. M., with prayer by Rev. J. Weisman. Present before reading of minutes: Ministers Gibson, Creighton and Dare; Nobles Walker (President), Dowsett, Macfarlane, Kaue, Kapeua and S. Parker; Reps. Hayselden, Kean, Baker, Kaubi, Amara, Brown, Kaunamano, Nahale, Aholo, Kaukau, Richardson, Castle, Kaai, Thurston, Paehole, Kauai and Palohau. The minutes of yesterday's sitting were read and confirmed.

REPORTS.
 Noble Macfarlane presented the following report from the Committee on Commerce:—

HON. J. S. WALKER, President Legislative Assembly. Sir:—Your committee on commerce and agriculture, to whom was referred a petition from certain persons engaged respectively in the growing and shipment of bananas, praying that a maximum rate of freight for their commodity, at fifty cents per bunch, be made a condition for the granting of a subsidy to the Oceanic Steamship Company, respectfully report that they have had said petition under consideration, and recommend that the same be indefinitely postponed, for the reason, that your committee does not deem it the province of the Legislature to compel said steamship company, in their freight rates, to discriminate in favor of any individual shippers of merchandise, or the collective shipping of any single commodity.

That the subsidy bill so called has already provided that the rates exacted by the Oceanic Steamship Company, for fares and freights, shall not be levied over the amount hitherto charged, and that the question involved in said petition should be left to the amicable settlement of the parties interested.

GEO. W. MACFARLANE,
 E. K. LILIKALANI,
 J. T. BAKER,
 S. G. WILDER.

Rep. Brown moved that the report be laid on the table, to be considered with the bill for granting of a subsidy to the Oceanic Steamship Company and the report thereon by the same committee. Carried.

Minister Gibson presented the house with the report of the Bureau of Immigration, prepared by his predecessor, Mr. Gulick, a very valuable and carefully prepared report. It contained a complete history from the first shipment by the "Theist," January, 1852, to the present time. The Government would send many copies abroad to its representatives in foreign countries. This work had been delayed, partly on account of the press of work in the printing offices, and the Hawaiian version being behindhand.

Rep. Thurston moved the report be accepted, and the Minister thanked for submitting it before the close of the session.

Minister Gibson observed that it was hardly worth while to make recitations. As stated, the delay was unavoidable.

RESOLUTIONS.

Rep. Kaulukou introduced an act to encourage the manufacture and export of taro flour. It provides for a subsidy of $20 a ton to the Alden Fruit and Taro Company, for all the taro manufactured and exported. On suspension of the rules, it was read a second time by title and referred to the Committee on Commerce and Agriculture.

Rep. Brown presented the following question: I hereby request that His Excellency the Minister of the Interior inform this house, if the Japanese occupying the store on Fort Street, opposite the office of W. G. Irwin & Co., have a license for carrying on the business engaged in. If so, in whose name; and also, whether or not the goods in said store have paid duties as prescribed by law?

Minister Gibson observed that it was hardly worth while to make recitations. As stated, the delay was unavoidable.

ORDER OF THE DAY.

Second reading of an act to prevent the wanton destruction of game. Reported up from select committee with amendments.

Minister Dare, on suspension of the rules, presented a petition in favor of the bill, signed by about 15 persons.

Rep. Hayselden moved the amendments recommended by the committee be adopted.

Rep. Thurston was in favor of the bill, but feared portions of it conflicted with the celebrated "turkey" law of last session, which made wild turkeys private property where found on private estates.

Minister Gibson said there was one point that should be considered in connection with this bill. There should be some legislation for the protection of the fish of the sea as well as the fowls of the air. The preservation of fish was made a matter of much importance in other countries, for one thing the size of net meshes being regulated by law. He was aware that Chinese fishermen here used nets with such close meshes as to skim the waters of their smallest spawn. If it was not feasible to have the preservation of fish included in this bill, he should feel it to be his duty to bring forward a separate measure with that object.

Rep. Dole believed that a law for the protection of fish was desirable, but doubted if there was time at this session, without information before the house, to perfect such a measure. At any rate it should not be mixed up with this bill. He did not think the bill conflicted with the law of 1884, which simply gave the ownership of certain wild fowl to a property-owner while the game was on his estate. He moved the adoption of the report of the committee.

Minister Dare took the same view of the relation of the bill to the existing law. He referred to the game laws of other countries to show the necessity of this bill passing, and coincided with the opinion that, if the fisheries were being depleted by the use of nets of too fine a mesh, a law to prevent that evil should be passed.

The report was adopted and the bill ordered to engrossment, and to be read a third time on Tuesday next.

Second reading of an act to amend sec. 1, laws of 1870, relating to the licensing of carrying fowling pieces and other firearms. Reported up from same select committee as previous one, as a substitute to the original bill.

Rep. Hayselden moved the report of committee be adopted.

Minister Dare did not like to have a new bill, substituted for the printing one in the hands of members, adopted without the house knowing what was in it.

Rep. Thurston moved the bill be read by sections.

The motion to adopt was put and lost.

Rep. Aholo said that the motion to adopt the report having been negatived, the bill was thrown out.

The point having been sustained, Rep. Brown moved a reconsideration of the vote, which carried.

Rep. Hayselden renewed his motion to adopt the report.

Rep. Thurston said that was a queer situation, if they must either swallow a bill whole without discussion, or throw it out.

Rep. Castle (amid a somewhat confused discussion of the situation) informed the house that the report of the committee was adopted at its presentation in June. The records bore out this point, and the bill was then taken up section by section. With a good deal of discussion of the terminology of the Hawaiian version, and the adoption of various amendments, including the striking out of "hard labor" from the penalty, the bill passed to engrossment and was ordered to be read a third time on Tuesday.

PRIVILEGE.
 Rep. Dole rose to a question of privilege. He quoted a reference in the Advertiser to his speech on the military appropriation, and denied that he had attributed a lack of courage to the Hawaiian soldiery, as represented in that paper's editorial. He concluded with a tribute to the valor of the ancient and modern Hawaiian warrior.

At noon, on motion of Rep. Hayselden, the house adjourned till 10 o'clock on Monday morning.

THE PAHALA SCHOOL.
 EDITOR BULLETIN:—In reply to Mr. G. Glendon's letter in your paper of the 11th inst., with regard to the examination at the Pahala English School. I reiterate all that is said in my letter, published in the BULLETIN of July 30th, and also offer a few further remarks.

The public examination was held on the 14th of July and Mr. G. Kimokeo attended to examine the children at the request of the school agent, Mr. G. W. C. Jones, in the same way that he attended at the examinations of the other schools in the district, and Mr. Glendon knows perfectly well that he was there by authority, having been so informed by the school agent. And as to his capability of examining the children, he is far more capable of that than Mr. G. is of teaching them. Mr. Kimokeo was at the school for about two hours, so that there could not have been any but the preliminary exercises according to Mr. Glendon's account, as the children left immediately after Mr. Kimokeo.

I certainly have not visited the school, but my personal observation bears out the report made upon it by the examining officer. Mr. Glendon has had charge of the school going on three years, yet there is not a child that has attended there (I am speaking of Portuguese and natives, who form nearly the whole school) who can speak English or who has more than the slightest understanding of the simplest words, and their knowledge of other subjects is on a par with this.

It is possible there was a private and secret examination on July 16th, but if so no one but the principal was aware of it until it appeared in your paper and the Gazette. In the latter paper he speaks of the room being crowded with the parents of the children. I much doubt whether there was even any children. There certainly was not any parents. A too vivid imagination dictated this, at least it is clarity to think so.

I shall not answer any further letter on this subject, but in conclusion I would advise Mr. Glendon to give up school teaching and go west, I mean go back to his trade. His knowledge of the classics is too profound to ever enable him to make a successful teacher in a country school, and he is wasting his time in trying. Yours etc., T. C. WILLS.

THE LEGISLATURE.

FRIDAY, Aug. 20th.
 AFTERNOON SESSION.

The committee resumed at 1:45. Rep. Thurston considered it his duty to place his district and himself on record as against a foolish, wrongful and useless expenditure. There was no sense in throwing away money on such an object, when the Government is owing small bills to tradesmen, some of them dating back to 1882. The hon. member for South Kona spoke of having had his head broken in 1874 by a mob that attacked the Legislature, and was afraid he would have his head broken again if the kingdom did not maintain a standing army. In that case perhaps the hon. member ought to be provided with a guard to follow always at his heels. For his part the speaker would be ashamed to say that he was afraid to go from his duties here and face the people. He should not be afraid to go back to his constituents on Molokai and Lanai. (Reps. Nahinu and Kaulukou objected that the hon. member was not speaking on the item.) He was not surprised that the hon. members objected to having their conduct exposed, but he was going to refer to these matters all the same. Those gentlemen had a hard task to explain their record to their constituents. (Rep. Keau dissents.) The hon. member for Honolulu was squirming in his seat, showing that he too felt bad. (Rep. Palohan interrupts with remarks in Hawaiian.) He saw that the member for Hanalei was feeling bad too. If those members went back to their constituents and said they tried all they could to have money spent in their districts, they would tell a great, big, black lie. The difference between the expenditures for show by private members, and the proposed expenditure by the Legislature for military purposes, was that those gentlemen spent their own money, while the item in question represented the people's money that was needed for the public benefit. The member for Hanalei knew, as he had told the house, that there was no money for the roads in his district, yet he was in favor of this useless waste of the revenues. There was nothing more absurd than to talk of protection from invasion by those eighty soldiers behind that stone wall. A foreign man-of-war could stand off Coco Head and fire a shell into the barracks that would kill the whole army, and then they would see the member for South Kona scampering off to the hills. (Rep. Nahinu said he distinctly stated that the army was not to defend the country against foreign invasion, but to preserve domestic peace and order.) He was going to speak of that. A while ago a lot of the soldiers were arrested for stealing much melons from a Chinaman. They were often detected in such acts and were nothing but a miserable lot of loafers and a menace to the community. The volunteers were the best protection the country had, and he should vote for the item for them.

Rep. Keau supported the item in Hawaiian.
 Rep. Dickey, referring to the argument of Rep. Nahinu, said that his information, which was as reliable as the hon. member's, was that all the soldiers in the country were in that mob.
 Rep. Baker supported the item, advocating the shooting down of rebels.
 Noble Martin asked if this was the only military item.
 Minister Gibson replied that the hon. Noble would see several items there. But it was hardly fair to call the item for the band a military item. Neither was it proper to call the item for volunteers, whose services were a free will offering of citizens, a military expenditure. This, therefore, was really the only military item. He admitted that there was ground for some ridicule in the spectacle of a little state of 85,000 inhabitants maintaining a standing army. Yet it must be remembered that this was a monarchy, His Majesty being recognized as a King by all the Great Powers. He received their ambassadors and received them like a King, with a guard and a band. It was not difficult to see where a small armed force could be of very great service in this country. The riot on Kauai had been alluded to, and even if civilians had suppressed it before the arrival of the military, it was no harm that there were soldiers to send to the scene of disturbance on that occasion. The speaker then recounted the facts of the Chinese riot at the Immigration Depot, for the riot at the Quarantine Ground during the small-pox epidemic, and to the courthouse riot, in all of which the police were of no avail to preserve order, and small squads of military were effective to suppress the disturbances. With the 10,000 Chinese and 3,000 Portuguese in this city, although all peaceable now, there was no guarantee that some race jealousy acting as a disturbing cause might not precipitate a dangerous riot. In such case it was hardly probable that an undisciplined mob would stand before forty or fifty soldiers, with fixed bayonets and ball cartridge, ready to obey the commands of their officers. The proposed expenditure was not a useless or a wasteful one.

The item passed as in the bill. Bands, Flags and Salute..... $40,000
 Rep. Brown moved $36,000, as in the revised estimates.
 Minister Creighton explained that an increase was necessary, on account of new instruments being required by the band.

Rep. Thurston regarded these objects as distinct, and asked what was the proportion required for each.

Minister Gibson said it was very hard to determine, as there was no saying how many warships were likely to visit this port.

Rep. Thurston said it must be known how much the band would cost, and from that the cost of salutes could be estimated.

Minister Gibson said the expenses of the band might fluctuate for a variety of reasons, and he did not think the hands of the Governor, who had charge of the service, should be tied.

Rep. Castle would like to know the cost of salutes, because Governor Dominis, in a former session, said $12,000 a year could be saved in gun powder by having a new battery.

The item passed.
 Aid to Volunteer Military Companies..... $20,000
 Rep. Brown moved $12,000. There were 500 persons in the volunteer corps, which represented a present of $500 of the people's money, in remitted taxes. Let them make a saving of $8,000 there.

Minister Creighton moved $26,254.34. There were claims against the corps, mostly by local tradesmen, amounting to $6,254.34, and the new expenses were estimated at $20,000, being a little under $3,000 each for the seven companies.

Rep. Dole said either they should economize in companies, or the companies should do so in uniforms. He thought the uniforms were in pretty good condition, and certainly $20,000 should pay new expenses and claims together.

Passed at $26,254.34.
Finance Department.

On motion of Rep. Brown, deferred items in the Finance Department were taken up.
 Rep. Dickey asked the Minister of Finance on what basis the pay of tax assessors, $33,000, was calculated.

Minister Kanoa said it was estimated by his predecessor, but, from his experience as Governor and his researches to reply to a question by the hon. member for Molokai, he believed it was on a basis of four percent.

Rep. Brown moved $28,000, according to the revised estimates.
 Rep. Dickey said a maximum commission of five percent was allowed by law. Four percent was too small for the country districts, while in Honolulu the assessor made a higher salary, in proportion to the time he was engaged, than His Majesty. He had $5,000 for two months' work, which was in the proportion of $60,000 for two years. In answer to Rep. Kaulukou, he said he would take two and a half percent for assessing Honolulu. Five thousand dollars could be saved in Honolulu alone, and he would vote for Rep. Brown's amendment.

Rep. Hayselden wished to correct misstatements of the hon. member. The work of assessors extended over four months instead of two, and at present, while he was engaged in the Assembly, he had three assistants employed and was working every night till midnight himself. The hon. member apparently thought it was very easy work, but he should like to have him try it. The duties of collectors lasted from Nov. 1st till June 1st, and the collector for Honolulu was on duty all the year round.

Rep. Kaulukou supported the item at $28,000. As the hon. member for Makawao was willing to do the assessing of Honolulu at a reduced rate, something should be done to stop his hungering and thirsting for an office.

Rep. Thurston said it was hard for the hon. member for Hilo to understand the case of another member advocating retrenchment without having an office for himself in view. He considered that the hon. member for Honolulu did the least work for the most pay of any official in the kingdom. In 1884, as assessor for Honolulu, he received $5,313.17. Each of the districts of Oahu was as hard to assess as Honolulu, yet the assessors of all those districts received only $6,178 altogether that year. Hilo's assessment only cost $1,039, and the whole of Hawaii $3,779. The member for Honolulu had a pretty soft thing of it. He concluded by a calculation that, giving two percent for the assessment of Honolulu, $25,500 would be sufficient, and he moved to amend the item to that figure.

Rep. Dickey rose to a question of privilege, respecting his dialogue with the member for Hilo. He wished to say that he would not accept an assessorship at 10 or even 20 percent while a member of the Legislature.

Rep. Hayselden, referring to the remarks of the hon. member for Molokai, said that the tax assessors' pay was not a permanent office for himself. Perhaps it might please His Majesty to appoint the hon. member for Molokai as tax assessor for Honolulu next year.

Rep. Thurston—You cannot buy me with a tax assessorship.
 Rep. Hayselden—What do you mean, sir?
 Rep. Thurston—What ever you like to make it.
 Rep. Hayselden—Do you mean to say I was bought with the assessors-ship?

Rep. Thurston—You may apply the remark any way you please.
 Rep. Hayselden—I demand to know what you mean by such an insinuation.

Rep. Thurston—I should like to know what right the member for Honolulu has to question me. I have no other answer to give him if he waits till doomsday.

Rep. Hayselden continued to demand an explanation of the remark, until the chairman rapped for order, saying there was evidently a misunderstanding between the honorable members.

Rep. Brown said that the combined amount for tax assessors and collectors in the Appropriation Bill of 1884 was $64,000, which was afterward reduced, according to revised estimates, to $54,000. The expenditure was $60,484.93, being $4,000 less than the amount asked for by the present bill, and the amount recommended in the revised estimates was $54,000.

Rep. Hayselden said if the tax bill passed the Government would be in receipt of more taxes, and it might be necessary, therefore, to have an increased appropriation.

Rep. Castle had been tax assessor in Honolulu himself, and knew that at that time there was considerable more than four months' work. He considered that the assessor of Honolulu should be a salaried officer. He would move this item pass at $20,000, and for a special item of $5,000 for salary of Honolulu assessor, with $1,500 for clerk hire and assistance.

Rep. Aholo thought the proposition of the hon. member for Wailuku would increase the expenses. He favored $33,000 for all.

Rep. Thurston said the expense last period exclusive of Honolulu was only $9,000. If they adopted the member for Wailuku's proposal the service would only cost $25,500.

Rep. Dickey objected to tax assessors voting on this question.
 Rep. Castle said that was part of the law. No member having an interest in a question could vote on it.

Rep. Aholo said he was not in the house in the capacity of an assessor, but a representative.
 Rep. Hayselden said the matter was in the hands of the Minister of Finance, who could pay a half percent if he chose.

Rep. Castle moved the pay of tax collectors pass at $26,000, as in the revised estimates, instead of $31,000.
 Rep. Hayselden moved it pass as in the bill.

Passed at $31,000.
 The item of $1,000, pay of tax appeal board, passed.

Rep. Thurston, on the item of $267,900, national debt falling due, asked the Ministers if that included debt falling due during this period; also, how the floating debt reported to the house was to be paid.

Minister Gibson answered in the affirmative to the first question, and, with regard to the second, that the floating debt would be paid after the Appropriation Bill was passed. In answer to a further question, as to the authority upon which the Ministry had overdrawn the Appropriation Bill to the amount of $175,000 before its passage, he referred the house to the Indemnity Bill.

Rep. Dickey said the Indemnity Bill was for money paid out of the treasury.
 Rep. Thurston said the Minister of the Interior was up to his old game of dodging. The Ministry had robbed the appropriations in advance. By the Government acting in this way the Legislature was made mere puppets, spending day after day discussing whether this or that should be expended, while the Ministers went on spending money as they pleased. So long as the Ministers were doing this, the members of the Assembly were only making fools of themselves.

Minister Creighton called the hon. member's attention to the fact that the vote was for national debt falling due.

Rep. Thurston intended to vote for this, but those facts coming out he had to protest against the course of the Government.

Minister Gibson said the hon. member had indulged in a deal of rant, or, to use his own expression, rot. Although he was not in the Interior Department last period, he was not going to take shelter in that fact. He was a Minister at the time and would accept the responsibility. The Interior report showed how the indebtedness was incurred. There were various items (citing them) for bridges, roads and wharves. Those items were not trespassing upon the vote of the Legislature. All that was due for work—not all of it but some of it—was by legislative authority, and those bills would be paid as soon as the Legislature appropriated the money.

Rep. Castle would like to ask the Minister one question. Was there any of that debt which accrued prior to April 1st? He supposed without doubt that any debt accruing since that date must be paid out of this Appropriation Bill.

The item passed.
