

TO BUY OUT SAM PARKER

A. W. CARTER, AS GUARDIAN OF THE PARKER MINOR, OFFERED $450,000 FOR THE COLONEL'S INTEREST, AND A SALE WAS ALMOST ARRANGED AT ONE TIME—SAM WANTED HER OR HIMSELF TO OWN ALL THE RANCH.

Samuel Parker was offered $450,000 for his half interest in the Parker ranch in May 1904, by A. W. Carter, as guardian of Annie T. K. Parker, but he did not regard the offer as sufficient and though later negotiations led almost to a settlement of the various matters now in dispute, the negotiations all fell through on account of reservations claimed by Parker.

W. Breckons was acting as Parker's attorney at the time, Parker said, and a settlement was practically agreed upon, but the amount of reservations claimed by Parker later upset the negotiations. Col. Parker said he wanted a thousand acres around his Mana home, and that there were other details not finally arranged at the tentative settlement.

Later advices are to the effect that the steamer St. Paul will probably be a total loss. Seventy-five passengers have been landed. She went aground in a fog.

MAY IDENTIFIES ALLEGED OFFICER

THE ADVERTISER'S STORY BLOWS UP WHEN THE VICTIM IDENTIFIES AS THE FAKE POLICEMAN THE VERY SNEAK THIEF WHO IS SUSPECTED OF STEALING THE GOODS—MORNING PAPER'S YARN MORE UTTERLY DISCREDITED.

In another column today The Star exposes the Advertiser's fake story with J. E. May in regard to the gambling on Emma street which had been running openly "since last election," and eliminating the statement by May to the effect that the gambling, if gambling it is, is much less than it was before the election of Sheriff Brown.

It was left for May himself to thoroughly explode the other end of the story, which intimated that Officer Joe Leal had attempted to blackmail May into paying up for the return of the goods which were stolen from his store some weeks ago.

The Advertiser stated that May said the day after the store had been robbed a man who stated that his name was Leal visited him and after some negotiations had wanted to know how much there was in it for him if he got the stolen property back. Sometime afterwards this same person who called himself Leal came to the store and was given twenty-five cents. He had been promised $10 by May if the goods were returned.

Here is where the Advertiser showed his outrageous animus. That is what it added:

"THE LEAL FAMILY. It is significant that there are no less than three Leals at present on the police force, Joe, John and Manuel.

"Manuel Leal is a special officer and Joe Leal and John Leal are attached to the mounted patrol. The former has been acting as a special constable of late.

"Mr. May is confident that he can identify the man who confronted him." The last statement, that May could identify the man who confronted him, was one of the very few correct assertions in the Advertiser's screed.

Royal Italian Prince Arrives On The Calabria

PRINCE FERDINANDO OF SAVOY IS ON A CRUISE OF THE WORLD—VESSEL WAS PUT INTO COMMISSION ESPECIALLY THAT HE MIGHT BE INSTRUCTED IN THE NAVAL SERVICE OF HIS COUSIN THE KING—VESSEL CAME FROM SAN FRANCISCO.

A scion of Italian royalty arrived this morning from San Francisco. Prince Ferdinando of Savoy is his name and he is a cousin of the present King of Italy. The Prince of Savoy arrived on the Italian cruiser Calabria which was put into commission for the special purpose of giving him a cruise at sea.

The Italian cruiser left San Francisco September 25 and came down under economical speed. Nothing of special interest occurred during the trip. Naturally the most interesting person on board the vessel is the prince. He is quite a young man being only 21 years of age. He was made a lieutenant in the Royal Italian navy last January. The Calabria was put into commission so that he could be given sea duty. She is making a cruise around the

Sea Going Dredger Pacific

IS TO START WORK SHORTLY DREDGING THE LOCAL HARBOR. HAD AN UNEVENTFUL TRIP.

The sea going dredger Pacific arrived this morning from San Francisco after a pleasant trip. The vessel left San Francisco September 23 and nothing of special interest occurred during the trip. Nothing was sighted.

The vessel attracted a large crowd this morning and she was visited at the Railway wharf by a great many people during the day. Although she is not a big craft her tonnage being but 358 but she has more machinery than almost any other craft of her size that has visited Honolulu. The vessel resembles at first glance, a large tug but the overhanging crane from the bow and the extensive deck work and the heavy masts, soon proclaim her to be a different character of craft. She carries a complement of 25 men but will increase this force during her stay in port.

She belongs to the North American Dredging Company and is now under lease to the San Francisco Bridge Company for use in dredging the local harbor in connection with the contract which the latter concern has made with the United States government for the improvement of the Honolulu harbor. The amount of this contract is $400,000.

The trip just finished by the Pacific is the most extensive in her history so far as going into the open sea is concerned, as her travelling has generally been limited to coasting voyages. For the last two years she was engaged in dredging the city ways at Tacoma. The Pacific is commanded by Henry Gillespie. Her second mate R. R. Grindlay is well known in Honolulu, for he left here in the ship Clarence S. Hement and was aboard that vessel as mate when she was burned off the Falkland island some years ago.

Sleuth Is Now On The War Path

A BLACK WHISKERED DETECTIVE, WHO IS SEEKING EVIDENCE TO FAKE UP STORIES OF GAMBLING.

There is a chief among you takin' notes and, faith, he's a detective! The lights were extinguished on the Advertiser's stairs last evening as a figure with dark clothing crept softly down and with a quick jump landed on the sidewalk as he recognized, by a whistle from across the way, that the coast was clear.

That he was a sleuth was apparent, plainly apparent from the false black whiskers that he wore. One thing that he could easily arrest was everybody's attention. They were awful whiskers, and they smelt of the camphor which had partially protected them from last season's moths.

The sleuth was joined by another of his kind at the corner of Fort and King street and together the two proceeded cautiously up town seemingly listening for the rattle of chips and for the twirl of the roulette wheel. There was nothing doing and after awhile they separated, the whiskerless Hawkshaw going to an uptown hotel, where he engaged a room, the other, the one with the funny whiskers, going Ewa.

Later his whiskers returned and went to the room engaged by the unwhiskered one and there was a consultation in which the result of the investigations were regarded through the bottoms of glasses, darkly.

It was truly a great piece of detective work.

WILL BLOW UP THE BARK SPARTAN

"KLONDYKE" BROWN SAYS THAT A BIG EXCURSION IS PLANNED FOR THE EVENT NEXT SUNDAY.

"Klondyke" Brown came back from Maui this morning by the steamer Maui on a business trip. He has been on the Island of Maui looking after the wrecking of the ship Spartan off Spreckelsville. He says he is doing well and the venture will prove a profitable investment. He has succeeded in taking off a quantity of copper, some of which was brought to Honolulu by the steamer Maui and sold to local dealers. The Japanese have succeeded in taking only about 200 tons of coal out of the vessel. Her cargo amounted to about 1200 tons. Brown says that he intends to blow up the wreck next Sunday. He will use 250 pounds of giant powder to destroy the ship. The railway intends to make the occasion one for running an excursion. A train will be run to Puu-nene and a special rate for the round trip will be made. Brown thinks that there will be a big crowd and that the event will be one that Maui will remember for years to come. Incidentally he expects to realize quite handsomely on the venture. It is proposed to get the pieces of wreck that float ashore and dispose of them.

SEMI-ANNUAL MEETING OF THE OAHU EVANGELICAL ASSOCIATION AT KAWAIAHAO.

The Oahu Evangelical Association is holding its semi-annual meeting at Kawaihau church. The Association comprises all the native churches of this island and all are very well represented at this meeting.

The meeting began yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. S. P. Kala, is moderator and Rev. W. K. Poni, scribe. During the session yesterday morning Rev. Dr. Shephardson, who is supplying Central Union, pulpit during the absence of Rev. Dr. Kincaid, was brought in and made an interesting address on "Jesus As Our Best Friend."

The afternoon was given up to the Sunday School convention of the Association. At this morning's session of the association there was an extended discussion of the character and purpose of the Lord's Supper, especially on the difference of opinion held, as to whether only believers should be admitted to partake of it or whether all should be invited. For the most part the members held the view that only believers should be partakers of it.

There will be another session of the association tomorrow morning. This afternoon the Sunday School convention is again in session.

COMMODORES FAVOR OCEAN RACE

COAST YACHTSMEN DISCUSSING PROPOSED CONTEST BETWEEN SAN FRANCISCO AND HONOLULU

The San Francisco Bulletin of September 22, says:

The proposition of T. W. Hobron, commodore of the Hawaii Yacht Club, to hold an ocean race next season from this city to Honolulu, has set the tongues of the local tars wagging and will give them food for thought for some time to come. Anything that will stir up the interest in yachting on this coast is good for the sport, and surely the proposed long-distance event, if it comes to an issue, will be a great boom. The race will also create a tendency to the building of larger and more modern type of boats and will introduce many of the sea lubbers to ocean sailing, which on the trip between San Francisco and the islands during the summer months is most pleasant.

There are any number of fine yachts on this coast capable of negotiating the 2000 miles between this city and Honolulu without any difficulty. Among them may be mentioned the Lurline, formerly John D. Spreckels' yacht but now owned by H. H. Sinclair of Pasadena, commodore of the South Coast Yacht Club; the Ramona, owned by Douglas White, also a resident in Southern California; the Speedwell, owned by Thomas Jennings, commodore of the Corinthian Yacht Club; Gus Newell's Lady Ada, J. R. Hanity's Martha, the schooner Aggie, property of James V. Coleman; the Nixie, Fulton Berry's 44-footer; the Iola, the flagship of the California Yacht Club, and the White Wings, owned by C. H. Morrell of the San Francisco Yacht Club.

It is intended to hold the deep sea race about next June. The Hawaii promotion committee has offered three magnificent trophies for the contest, which is expected to create unusual interest among the yachtsmen all over the country. The affair is already being discussed by prominent members in Eastern yachting circles and the enthusiasm there may result in one or two Atlantic boats being brought over to try for the trophy.

Commodore Morrow of the San Francisco Yacht Club said: "I think the ocean yacht race between San Francisco and Honolulu a splendid idea and hope the promoters will be able to accomplish it. Commodore Jennings also remarked that he would like to see the race take place, saying: "It will stir up the interest in yachting on the coast and is a good thing." Commodore Robert Vincent of the California Yacht Club was likewise interviewed relative to the proposed race.

Commodore Vincent favors the proposition, and stated that in the event of it coming to an issue will enter his yawl Iola, which with a few alterations could be made to be one of the best and fastest small sea-going vessels in this port. The commodore seems to think it very improbable that any of the Atlantic racers could be induced to come to this coast for the race, but feels certain a large entry could be had from the yachts on the bay, if proper trophies are offered and if the event is held on a handicap basis.

In discussing the race Commodore Habbron said: "For some time we have considered the question of offering a handsome trophy for a yacht race from San Francisco to Honolulu as it would give yachting in the Pacific an impetus which it has never had before. We desire to make Honolulu the yachting center of the Pacific, as our unique position enables us to be of service to yachts cruising in the north and south Pacific ocean.

"The proposed race is going to have considerable influence on yachting of the Pacific Coast in future years. Few yachtsmen are content to sail over the same waters year after year. It gets monotonous. There must be new cruises to maintain enthusiasm. Certainly, with a suitable yacht and time, one would be hard indeed to please if he didn't enjoy every moment among our beautiful islands a few weeks and then home.

"Last year Commodore Sinclair of the South Coast Yacht Club visited us in his schooner yacht Lurline. He also cruised from Honolulu to Tahiti, the Marquesas, Samoa and Fiji, returning to Honolulu again, and after visiting Kilauea volcano returned to San Pedro. To show how safe the trip is, although he left in February and was sailing some of the worst months of the year, he never, as sailors say 'parted a rope's yarn.'

"I am aware that few of your yachts here venture off shore, but this is owing to cold and the fogs, but in a trip to Hawaii this would only last a few hours until clear of the coast. We have no fogs 200 miles from the Pacific Coast and the climate is so delightful one can sleep on deck at sea. The starting time of the race would be arranged to get the benefit of moonlight nights which makes sailing very pleasant in the tropics.

"Am pleased to find the race is meeting with the hearty approval of your yachtsmen. It would seem to me, from present indications, that at least six yachts would show up at the starting line next June. We shall do all we can to make the visiting yachtsmen welcome and entertain them while in our islands."

Wife Desertion In New York

It is rather a suggestive commentary on social conditions in the City of New York that at the last session of the Legislature a bill was passed making the abandonment of children punishable by imprisonment for not more than two years or by a fine of not to exceed $1,000 or both, the fine to be applied at the discretion of the court for the support of the abandoned children.

The Sheriff And Public Gambling

The gambling game which High Sheriff Henry didn't stop and admits he didn't, and which he declares it is practically impossible to stop under the present law, is in the very joint written up by the Advertiser and on which it partly based its charges of public gambling in Honolulu.

ALCOHOLIC PATENT MEDICINES

COLLECTOR OF INTERNAL REVENUE CHAMBERLAIN HAS BEEN INSTRUCTED TO REQUIRE DRUGGISTS WHO SELL THEM TO TAKE OUT THE REGULAR FEDERAL LIQUOR LICENSES—A NEW MOVE BY THE TREASURY DEPARTMENT—THE NEW ORDER.

An investigation of the sale of intoxicating patent medicines in local drug stores is to be made by Collector of Internal Revenue Roy S. Chamberlain, under a new circular order by the United States Treasury Department, under which all drug stores which sell the medicines will have to take out this federal liquor "license," the same as liquor dealers are paying for. This is the special annual tax of $25 which is collected by Chamberlain from a large number of dealers all over the islands. Samples of the stuff sold here will be sent to Washington for special analysis and the collector will soon send notices to the drug men of the following instructions received by him:

"Among the various alcoholic compounds now on the market, advertised and sold as medicine under the name of whisky, bitters, tonic, cordials, etc., there are some that are composed chiefly of distilled spirits, or mixtures thereof, without the addition of drugs or medicinal ingredients in sufficient quantities to change materially the character of the alcoholic liquor.

"The fact that these compounds, during the existence of the statute imposing tax on proprietary medicines were, without the necessity of investigation into their medicinal character, by the terms of the law made subject to that tax, because they were held out to the public as medicines, does not afford ground for relieving the manufacturers from special tax as rectifiers and liquor dealers, or dealers therein from special tax as liquor dealers under the provisions of section 2244, Revised Statutes, and amendments.

"It is held that the statute requires the exaction of this special tax from the manufacturer of every compound composed of distilled spirits, even though drugs are declared to have been added thereto, when their presence is not discoverable by chemical analysis or it is found that the quantity of drugs in the preparation is so small as to have no appreciable effect on the alcoholic liquor of which the compound is mainly or largely composed.

"The same ruling applies to every alcoholic compound labeled as a remedy for diseases and containing, in addition to distilled spirits, only substances or ingredients which, however large their quantity, are not of a character to impart any medicinal quality to the compound; but where substances undeniably medicinal in their character are combined with whisky or other alcohol, liquor and are used in sufficient quantity to give a medicinal quality to the liquor other than that which it may inherently possess, such compound is, of course, not to be included in this federal liquor 'license,' the same as liquor dealers are paying for. This is under the terms of this circular which is determined by this office, not merely upon examination of the formula submitted by the manufacturer of the compound, but upon result of the analysis made in the chemical laboratory here of samples obtained in the open market and sent in by the local internal-revenue officers and agents.

"The ruling as to these compounds in the fourth paragraph of Circular No. 2008 (Treasury Decisions, 1901, vol. 4, p. 210), 'that, if they are composed of spirits in combination with drugs, herbs, roots, etc., and are held out as remedies for diseases stated in labels on the bottles, they are to be regarded as medicines until the facts ascertained, as to the purpose for which they are usually sold or used, show them to be beverages, and until such facts are obtained by druggists and merchants who sell these compounds in good faith as medicines only are not to be called on to pay special tax as liquor dealers on account of such sales,' is hereby revoked.

"But in order that no injustice may be done to these druggists and merchants who, without holding special tax stamps as liquor dealers, now have in stock these compounds for sale as medicines, this circular will not be put into effect until December 1, 1905.

"Collectors will, however, immediately upon the receipt of this circular, send out notice to all druggists and merchants dealing in proprietary medicines in their districts who do not hold the requisite special tax stamps as liquor dealers, that on and after December 1, 1905, they will be required to pay special tax for selling the alcoholic compounds coming within the ruling now promulgated, even when they sell them in good faith for medicinal use only, never selling them as beverages, nor selling them knowingly to those buying them for use as beverages.

"JOHN W. BERKES, Commissioner."

JUDGE DE BOLT ROAST LAWYERS

FIRST CIRCUIT JUDGE KICKS BECAUSE THEY ARE NOT READY FOR TRIALS.

Judge De Bolt this morning gave a big complaint from the bench regarding the failures of attorneys to come to time when their cases are set for hearing. The judge had a case set and a jury on hand this morning at 10 o'clock but the attorneys were not ready and he proceeded to give a lecture.

The judge said that he would continue the case for the term and he excused the jurors till next Monday morning. "This court has spent $148 in jurors' fees this term and no case has been tried," he said, "because of the failures of attorneys to be here."

GAMBLING WORSE UNDER SHERIFF HENRY

ONE OF THE GAMBLING PLACES THE ADVERTISER FOUND, ACCORDING TO ITS OWN INFORMANT WAS WORSE DURING HIGH SHERIFF HENRY'S ADMINISTRATION THAN IT HAS BEEN SINCE. WHAT J. F. MAY SAYS ABOUT THE ROBBERY AT HIS PLACE.

This morning the Advertiser published what purported to be an interview with J. F. May, who runs a small store on Emma street, for the purpose of showing that gambling goes on openly and flagrantly in a shack in the rear of Emma street. To those who have followed the Advertiser's devoted course it may be unnecessary to say that it not only distorts some facts, but it deliberately suppresses others and incidentally puts into May's mouth a statement which he did not make and which he has written to the Advertiser to retract.

"On Emma street, a trifle mauka of Vineyard street," says the Advertiser "and on the Ewa side of the road is a Chinese store numbered 1422. In the rear of this is a long whitewashed wooden building in which OPEN gambling has been carried on since last election, crowds of Chinamen nightly frequent this house and the noise of their gaming has long been a source of extreme annoyance to respectable neighbors."

The veracious Advertiser quotes May as supplying this information and adds that he said: "My little store was robbed a month ago of $60 worth of goods and I firmly believe that my gambling neighbors committed the crime. Gambling has been carried on since my place was robbed."

All of this, of course is intended to discredit the police department's administration at present, but what are the facts?

"I told an Advertiser reporter that gambling went on in that place every now and again," said May when asked about the matter this morning "but I did not say that the gambling had been going on since the election. As a matter of fact there has been very much less in the past few months since Sheriff Brown took office. Before that it used to be of almost nightly occurrence sometimes as many as twenty men being there. I complained to the police then and an officer was sent up. A crowd of hoodlums used to gather about the corner of Vineyard street and Emma street and these were the chief source of annoyance to the neighborhood. When I told the policeman of the gambling joint which was running in behind, he only laughed and would do nothing. This was when High Sheriff Henry was in charge of the police department. For some reason or other there has been very much less annoyance from the gamblers during the recent months. If used to be run openly, in fact from my back verandah I could look through the windows and see the men playing but now, when there is any playing they screen the windows and one can only tell by listening to the rattle of chips, or whatever they are using.

"No, I never said that there was gambling every night, sometimes there is none for weeks. There are some Chinese women and men who have the place rented but I do not know what they do for a living."

But it was when May reached the Advertiser's statement that he had accused these neighbors of his of having stolen his goods that he showed indignation.

"I never made any such statement," he exclaimed with vehemence "I could not under any circumstances have made it for I do not believe that they had anything to do with the robbery. I have never said that I did believe that they had either to the Advertiser or to anyone else."

May produced a letter which he had written to the Advertiser demanding a retraction, though whether that paper will in simple justice publish the letter or not, remains to be seen.

COL. PARKER ON THE STAND

In saying to Wundenberg that Carter was trying to buy the Waikoua lands for himself instead of for the Parker ranch, it appeared that Parker had very vigorously defended Carter at this time.

"My understanding of my brother-in-law's will was that I was to be manager," was one of Parker's statements towards the end of his direct testimony referring to the Parker ranch properties, in which the late John P. Parker and himself were partners. Another of his statements was that he had always tried to look after the interests of Annie T. K. Parker, his grandchild, the minor whose interests are opposed to Parker's interests as represented by his trustee, in the present suits. Parker, however, declared that he had tried to have the present proceedings stopped, though he admitted that he had participated in starting them and agreed at first to pay the attorneys' fees.

Col. Parker said that the thing that finally convinced him that Carter should be removed as guardian of his grandchild was Carter's refusal to sell the Paunahau lands, recently sold to W. G. Irwin. "When it got to the point where he would not sell that land because he had no use for the money, I felt that he was not a proper person to be guardian of my grandchild and manage her affairs," said Parker. He had appointed Eben P. Low manager of the Parker ranch, and of all his property on the island of Hawaii, at the advice of Wundenberg. "Wundenberg said it was necessary to have someone and that Low was a good man, and I thought he was too," said Parker. "Wundenberg held my power of attorney and was my trustee and I said that if he thought that was right, I would do it."

Magoon asked what were Parker's own feelings regarding the appointment of Low. Kinney claimed that the form of the question was leading and that Magoon was constantly leading the witness. Parker's final reply was that his own feelings coincided with Wundenberg's or else he would not have signed the order appointing Low.

The purchase of Waikoua lands, of the Peabody estate, was discussed at some length. Each side has charged the other with trying to buy it away from the ranch. Parker said that he had never tried to buy it for himself, but for the ranch. It was when Wundenberg told him that Carter was seeking to buy it away from the ranch that he told Wundenberg that Henriques was a "d—bar," as he had talked with Carter and believed that Carter was acting only for the ranch.

Parker said he had told Magoon he wanted the suits stopped, and that he would not be responsible for them any longer. "You replied that you would not hold me responsible for fees any further," he said to Magoon. "You were willing to stop the cases also, but said that they were now in the hands of the courts."

Parker told of numerous suggestions he had made regarding the management of the ranch. He also testified regarding the Peabody lands and the Hamuula lands. His cross-examination by Kinney was begun shortly before the noon recess.

ROYAL ITALIAN PRINCE ARRIVES

world. The Prince graduated from the Royal Naval Academy at Leghorn. Prince Ferdinando is a cousin of the Duke of Abruzzi the Italian explorer. The young Prince stands watch aboard the vessel as do the other officers and this afternoon will take the watch at 4 o'clock.

The Calabria went into commission last February and left Venice on February 4. She went to South America, around through the Straits of Magellan and up to San Francisco. From Honolulu she goes to Suva, New Zealand, Tasmania, Australia, Borneo, Celebes, Philippines and Japan which will be reached March 1. From Japan the vessel will visit China, Siam, India and arrive home a year from November. The vessel was built in 1890. She is rated as a fifth class cruiser and was built for long cruises. Her maximum coal capacity is 600 tons. Her maximum speed is 16 knots and economical speed 10 knots. The vessel can steam thirty days without refueling. Her best performance in this respect was between Callao and Tahiti when she steamed 25 days without stopping or renewing her coal. The vessel is of 2,600 tons register and has 4,000 horse power engines. She has twin screws. She has four 6-inch guns, six 5-inch guns, eight 2 1/2-inch guns, four 1 1/2-inch guns, 3 Maxim machine guns and 1 field piece. There are two torpedo tubes. Her complement consists of 262 men.

The officers of the craft are: Captain Mareno di Moriundo; Second Commander Giorgi de Pons; Lieutenant Marilla, Alessio, Della Penne, Giordano Pardi; Midshipmen Prince Ferdinando of Savoy (Cousin of King of Italy), Bafone, Pinculiero, Palangola, Vitelli; Engineers, Facchi, Grego; Doctor, Frattini; Paymaster, De Kaleto.

The vessel will begin to coal on Saturday taking about 350 tons. The vessel will sail for Suva at 10 a. m. of October 11. The vessel will be open to the public every afternoon from 4:30 o'clock.

W. Lantz representing P. A. Schaefer the Italian consul called upon the officers of the vessel soon after she came to an anchorage in the stream. Captain Moriundo the commander of the vessel, called on Captain Lyon the commander of the naval station, who returned the call during the morning. Captain Niblack will take the Italian officers to Pearl Harbor on Saturday. It is likely that entertainments will be given by residents of the city to the various officers and also to the crew of the vessel. Salutes were exchanged by the vessel and the Naval Station as she came into the harbor today.

The Calabria was in the Far East during the Boxer uprising. She landed a force of marines at Pao-ching-fu during the trouble. The was considerable fighting at that place and a number of the Italians were killed by the Chinese fanatics.

DR. BELL HAS A FINE AUDIENCE

A crowded house greeted Dr. Bell last night at Odd Fellows' Hall, the occasion being the delivery of a lecture entitled "Midnight Experiences in the Slums of New York."

Dr. Bell came here with a fine reputation as a lecturer and certainly lived up to it last night. He prefaced his lecture with a baritone solo, which was exceedingly well rendered and heartily applauded. Later on he sang songs selected from those he used to sing in the dives and saloons of New York, while laboring as a midnight missionary.

After an interesting personal sketch of his life, the distinguished lecturer plunged into his subject and held his audience spellbound for over an hour. He told of strange and thrilling things which he had seen in darkest New York and related experiences which sounded like a chapter out of fiction.

The lecture was well worth hearing and there is little doubt that another packed house will greet Dr. Bell, when he delivers his second lecture on the 10th inst.

Tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock Dr. Bell will deliver a free lecture in the roof garden of the Young Hotel on "Our Destiny," a masterly effort dealing with problems suggested by and hinging on the New Thought.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"I was grievously afflicted with biliousness and liver complaint. My mouth was in a terrible condition every morning, my tongue thick coated, my breath was offensive, food distressed me, I suffered much from headache, my skin was sallow, and the many remedies recommended me did no good. At last I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and my improvement began almost from the first dose. It relieved the distress about my liver, caused my food to digest well, cured my headache, improved my complexion, and restored my appetite. These unlooked-for but grateful results were accomplished by only two and a half bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla."—Mrs. LYDIA M. TARBOR, Abiona, Pa.

Jimmy Britt Says He Made An Awful Fool Of Himself

By E. B. Lenhart, S. F. Examiner.

The first time Jimmy Britt saw the moving-picture reproduction of his losing battle against the irreducible Dane he fainted.

He fainted because the gloom of defeat was still upon his nerves: "Why did I let him beat me?" "Why did I let him beat me?"

This was the song J. Edward sung and was singing when the men of the apparatus at a private demonstration showed him exactly what happened in the eighteenth round—the finishing round of the great encounter of the light-weights at Colma on September 9th.

Yesterday Britt was quite reconciled to his fate and he viewed the pictures for what they are and for what they cannot help but be.

Said he to me: "I sat through this picture show today and while I was sitting I was studying deeply. I could see what a monkey I made of myself. I could see how I lost just because I wanted the crowd in those benches to leave the arena and say: 'Jimmy Britt is the greatest boy the ring has ever seen.'"

"I banged and slammed with this fellow as you and I would bang and slam in a bar-room brawl. There wasn't anything of science to it. It was just a couple of school-boys tangled up in a back lot. I completely forgot all I learned at the Olympic Club, and just whid-dled away like a fool.

"All of a sudden he gets me. He blindly strikes out, trying to fight away from me, and lands a series of unaimed swats upon my jaw.

"I go down and out. He is proclaimed the winner. I'm the loser—Jimmy Britt is the loser because he wanted to convince everybody that, with Nelson in the ring, Britt could scrap any old way and win.

"I made a mistake. I should have used some cleverness. What a hum I made of myself by fighting rough-house rules.

"The best wallop I have—a rip to the belly and ribs—I hardly used. Study the pictures and you will see that I met this Dane upon his own ground. I gave him just the kind of a fight he loves. He seems to thrive on jabs and punches and I was fool enough to make him happy by slapping all kinds to him.

"When I meet him again I will know very much better. I will peg and keep a-pegging at his stomach and I will not be wasting my hands upon a head a trip-hammer cannot hurt. Rip, rip, rip to his vest buttons will get him, and I was crazy not to put him high and dry per this route on the Ninth.

"The more I think of it, the more I can realize the mark I made of myself.

"Just let him give me the chance the public says I am entitled to, and if I don't land Nelson of Hegewisch a beautiful beating I will eat Mr. Battling's shoes."

MAUI BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

Will Be In Session For Several Days—Differences of Politics, But Harmony Prevails.

WAILUKU, October 4.—Yesterday being the first Tuesday of the month, the Board of Supervisors for Maui County met at their office on Market street, Supervisors Henning and Meyer being absent. They will however arrive today, and business before the Board will be completed in two or three days. With the Maui Supervisors, everything is harmony; there is no Trent litigation, which of course does not mean to say that Treasurer Baldwin lets things slip by easily. Mr. Baldwin is particular when he receives a bill for payment, in that it has passed the Board of Supervisors, signed by the County Clerk, and countersigned by the Auditor, but if everything seems to be in order, he does not avert to technicalities in order to stir up litigation. With the police department, even though Tom Clark is a Home Rule Deputy Sheriff, everything runs smoothly. Maui County has several thousand dollars to the good, while no marked depression in the money market has been felt. Cornwell is a Home Rule supervisor, but he uses good judgment in passing on matters before the Board.

INCREDULOUS MAUI.

WAILUKU, October 4.—The news of the disaster to the Alamega reached Maui on last Saturday afternoon, in a wireless message addressed to H. P. Baldwin, but as there was nothing definite known, many people doubted whether the news was authentic. It was not until this morning's mail arrived from Honolulu that any particulars of the mishap to the old liner were received.

INSTALLING GAS IN WAILUKU

Light Plants of This Kind Being Put in Operation in the County Seat of Maui.

WAILUKU, October 4.—From time to time there have been rumors in Wailuku to the effect that an electric plant would soon be established in this town, with water power from Iao, to supply electricity to Wailuku, Kahului and some of the pumps on the Puuene plantation, but at no time have the rumors been verified, and the consequence is that the same old oil lamps are found in the majority of houses and residences of this small town. At the time that Claus Spreckels had control of Puuene Plantation an expert was sent to Iao to look into the possibilities of an electric plant. This expert reported in favor of the proposition, even claiming that Wailuku and Kahului could be lighted with electricity in addition to the supply for pumps on the big plantation. However, for some reason or other the matter was dropped, and was not mentioned again for some time. Some time later the late George Hons revived the question and went even as far as securing subscriptions for lights which proved quite successful as far as that went. However the erection of the plant still remained a dream. Now very many are installing gas plants, which would mean that electricity would not be required, and unless the electric proposition is developed at an early date, it would probably not be a financial success if erected after gas had been installed in many of the residences and business houses.

"DAD."

Some boys they call their Dad—Papa.
Oh, Gee! That makes me mad.
It sounds so stiff and like a book—
You bet I call mine Dad,
And he's a ripper, too, you bet.
The boys all wish they had
A father that would laugh and joke
And love them like my Dad.
Of course, sometimes, when all the bills
Come in he's mighty mad.
And then we sit as still as mice
And hear him jaw, poor Dad.
It's always over soon, and then
You bet we all feel glad
And then we all climb on his lap
And hug and kiss our Dad.
"You can't have kids and money too,"
He says, and so he's glad
The good Lord made him poor or else
He mightn't been our Dad.
I don't want to be President,
Like every little lad!
When I'm grown up, I'd rather be
A nice man just like Dad.

TWO MORE COMPANIES COMING.

WASHINGTON, October 5.—President Roosevelt has decided to increase the military garrison in Hawaii by sending to Honolulu the two companies of infantry which have been on duty at the Portland Exposition.

The two companies of infantry on duty at Portland are "I" and "K," Tenth Infantry. The two companies already stationed at Camp McKinley, Waikiki, are "L" and "M," under the command of Majos Van Vliet. This will give Honolulu a battalion of infantry, and at least six and possibly eight additional officers. By a peculiar coincidence the alphabetical enumeration of the four companies, spells "MILK," the same as the four companies of Volunteer Engineers who ionstruced Camp McKinley in 1898. The engineers were facetiously known as the "milk" battalion.

When the Taft party was here in July, en route to Manila, the Secretary of War said: "I have ordered a battalion of soldiers here so that instead of having but two companies you will have four."

INSURANCE BILL INTENDED BLACKMAIL COMPANIES.

NEW YORK, October 5.—President McCall, of the New York Life Insurance Company, testified before the investigating committee that three-fourths of the insurance bills introduced in state legislatures are intended to blackmail the companies.

GOMEZ SAYS CUBA WORSE THAN IN DAYS OF WEYLER.

NEW YORK, October 5.—General Jose Gomez, who was the candidate of the Liberal party for the presidency of Cuba, declares that conditions in the island today are worse than in the days of Weylerism. General Gomez has just arrived from Havana, it being his intention to seek an audience with President Roosevelt whom he will ask to "intervene."

HEARST FOR MAYOR.

NEW YORK, October 5.—William R. Hearst has been nominated for Mayor of New York by the Municipal Ownership party.

MAUI CIRCUIT COURT.

WAILUKU, October 4.—The term of court commencing next week on the 11th, will be held at Lahaina instead of Wailuku, in accordance with the provisions of the last legislature. This means quite an expenditure and inconvenience in bringing the court, jury, books, exhibits of evidence, prisoners, etc., to the Palm Tree City, Wailuku is much more centrally located, which means quite a saving in mileage alone.

KILLED HIMSELF WITH A RAZOR

SATO TIRED OF LIFE SO SLASHED HIS THROAT WITH A RAZOR LAST NIGHT.
Sato tired of life so he killed himself. This is the story in brief of a poor Japanese whose lifeless body was found yesterday morning under the School street bridge. Sato was without money, he had lost his sweetheart, he had lost her perhaps because he was out of money. So when he found that his adored one turned from him and where he had formerly seen the fire of love in her almond eyes he saw nothing but leicles, of indifference, sentimental leicles as it were, he thought that the world had died and he wanted to die too. So he did. He did it with a razor.
The police who do not see much of the pathetic in such cases, for a coroner's inquest is a perfunctory and indifferent thing to them, simply subpoenaed a coroner's jury and decided to hold the inquest yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

SPIES MIX WITH STANDARD'S MEN

REASON THE COMPANY IS NEVER ANNOYED BY STRIKES DUE TO INTELLIGENCE DEPARTMENT.
CLEVELAND, O., September 17.—Although John D. Rockefeller states absolute fairness in dealing with employees is the reason that the Standard Oil Company is never annoyed by strikes, there is another contributory cause which Rockefeller did not mention.
This is the existence of an organization of which the public has hitherto known nothing. It is the intelligence bureau of the Standard Oil. There are fifty-five men in it. Four of them are stationed in Cleveland. The other fifty-one are scattered all over the world, a majority, of course, being in the United States, and located where the Standard Oil has its heaviest interests. These men are chosen with great care and discrimination. They are selected in the first place for their ability to understand human nature. They are also required to be men of keen knowledge of practical business affairs, and men who have the rare gift of hearing everything and saying nothing.
Among other things, it is their duty to mix with the men employed by the Standard in all of its departments. This they do to keep watch for labor agitators. Whenever a labor agitator arrives in any of the Standard's plants it is the province of the intelligence men to get his confidence, or whenever any of the employees evinces an inclination to become a labor leader he is carefully watched, almost shadowed. If found necessary, the labor agitator is discharged.
This side organization of the Standard is so very quietly conducted in its operations that even labor unions are not cognizant of its workings.
The headquarters of the organization is here in Cleveland, in one of the conspicuous office buildings.

KOOLAU CHURCHES MAY UNITE

KANEHOE, WAIKANE AND HAULUA CHURCHES MAY BE FORMED INTO ONE PARISH.

One of the important matters to come before the Oahu Evangelical Association is the question of consolidating three churches in Koolau. The churches are at Kanehoe, Waikane and Haulua. Each now has a separate pastor, but the number of natives in the parishes has greatly decreased and those remaining are not able to support the ministers as they should be.

CHARGE MURDER ON NO EVIDENCE

PECULIAR OFFER OF PROOF IN TAKADA CASE REFUSED BY JUDGE ROBINSON.

According to contentions made by Judge Perry and H. G. Middlehich in Judge Robinson's court this morning, the April term grand jury found an indictment against Takada, for murder in the first degree, without any evidence whatsoever. The attorneys were not allowed to prove it, as the court ruled that this members or officers of the grand jury could not be allowed to testify, but the motion to quash the indictment was on the ground that there had been absolutely no evidence at all, and proof was offered.

Perry said that he did not urge any right to inquire into what evidence had been supplied, or how much, but only claimed the right to call jurors and prove that there had been none at all. Fifteen members of the jury were in court in answer to his subpoena. Deputy County Attorney Milverton objected when Foreman Phillips was called first on the ground that testimony outside the record was not allowable in support of a motion to quash. Judge Robinson said he was in doubt as to the proposition and would resolve his doubt in favor of the defendant. Milverton's next objection, that the members or the officers of the grand jury had no right to reveal its secrets, was sustained after considerable argument.

Perry offered the questions, to each of which the same objections were sustained, inquiring if there had been any evidence, if the grand jury knew of its own knowledge of the offense alleged and whether twelve or more grand jurors acted upon the indictment.

Deputy Attorney General Peters and Grand Juror Bush were called, and their evidence was shut out in the same way. Perry offered to call other witnesses, but the court's rulings were taken as applying to them, and exceptions were noted.

The motion to quash the indictment was overruled, and the attorneys immediately filed a new one. It is based upon claims that neither Phillips as foreman nor Peters as Deputy Attorney General had authority to sign the indictment and that there was a failure to try the case or either change or extend the venue, at the April term, when the indictment was presented. The matter was set for argument on Monday.

CHARGED WITH CRIMINAL LIBEL

C. SHIOZAWA, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR OF HAWAII SHINPO, CRITICIZED JAPANESE CONSUL.

C. Shiozawa, editor and proprietor of the Hawaii Shinpo, was arraigned today before Judge Lindsay on a charge of criminal libel in the first degree preferred by Miki Saito, the Japanese consul, at this place. The case was continued until October 8. Shiozawa being represented by U. S. District Attorney Beckons. A. S. Humphreys has been retained to prosecute the case.

The case is the outgrowth of an editorial that appeared in the Hawaii Shinpo about ten days ago in which the consul was criticized for having failed to make public the fact that $500 had been received from a charitable source for the benefit of the family of Yamagata, a Japanese, who came to his death at Puunene Mill some time ago from the effects of having been burned. It was alleged, by oil having been thrown on him and set on fire by a white man. The money was paid by H. P. Baldwin and Miki Saito failed to make public the fact that the money had been paid for the benefit of the deceased's family. The Shinpo took exception to the failure of the consul to make the fact public, for there was much feeling among Japanese against Douse, the man who was alleged to have caused the death of the Japanese. Douse is now awaiting trial and the Shinpo thought that in justice to Douse, the fact of the contribution should have been published.

THE SCHOONER CHARLES LEVI WOODBURY MAKES THE VOYAGE IN THIRTEEN DAYS.

The schooner Charles Levi Woodbury arrived this morning from Laysan Island after a very smart passage in thirteen days. Nothing of special interest occurred during the trip, which was in striking contrast to the experience during the last trip. The vessel is to depart for Laysan after another load of guano.

can be laid without any expert labor. Full illustrated directions are given which can be followed by any one.

This puts Flintkote within reach of all. Its light weight is important, as in new buildings, lighter roof supports can be used, and on buildings more or less weakened by age Flintkote can be used with safety where the ordinary heavier roofs would be dangerous.

Leaks can be easily located and made tight with little trouble. Flintkote is odorless and will not taint rain water in any way and water from Flintkote roofs can be used for all domestic purposes. Vermin will not attack it, and it is not affected by acids, alkalies or fumes of any kind.

Rex Flintkote will please you, try it.
