PROGRESS.

The Life of the Land is Established in Righteousness.

HONOLULU, MAR. 2, 1894.

The Holomua Record.

"To show that the love of education has taken deep root among the natives of the Islands it may surprise to know that these 'pagans' (?) are well enough advanced to appreciate and support a daily paper in their midst the HAWAII HOLOMUA that, in high moral tone, would put to shame any one of our Boston dailies."

Representative Morse, of Boston, Mass. in the Congressional Record.

AMERICANISM.

As Practised by the Hawaiian Provisional Government.

We published below the latest law which has emanated from the crowd who calls themselves "Americans." We leave to the people on the other side of the pond—the great American people—the opinion on opportunity this, the latest, the most abortive law, perfected, if not, initiated by any man who at one time may have been a recognized, fraud and who today may be a perfect shame. We omit all references to most of the clauses contained in the law which we have printed, but that to which we do call the attention of everybody is the following remarks:

"No provision of the Constitution shall be held to invalidate any of the provisions of this Act."

si the learned Attorney General is either a fool or is he simply crazy? The constitution of the Hawaiian Islands evidently recognized by him read that, "no law can be passed repugnant to the constitution. Now we would like to know how Mr. Smith—the learned man—can pass a bill violating the Hawaiian Constitution and at the same time advocating a measure which virtually does away with the Constitution and places the power of law, making unconditionally in the hands of the men who simply represent money and money, and more money. Mr. W. O. Smith had better begin to put in effect his new law. He has been so extremely derelict in the legitimate charges against his political opponents that he now thinks that the time for action has come. Go ahead, poor chap! We will close these remarks by quoting Barns' famous words:

A fig for those by law protected
Liberty is a glorious feast
Courts for cowards were erected
Churches built to please the priest.

AN ACT RELATING TO DANGEROUS PERSONS.

Be it Enacted by the Executive and Advisory Councils of the Provisional Government of the Hawaiian Islands.

Section 1. Any person in relation to whom there is probable cause for believing that he entertains lawless intentions that are hostile to public order, or to the established system of government or to private rights of life, liberty or property, may, upon the complaint of the Attorney General, the Marshal or his deputy, or of any sheriff or deputy-sheriff, be arrested and brought before a Circuit Judge, and there be summarily examined. If, upon examination, a probable cause for believing that such person entertains lawless intentions that are hostile to public order, or to the established system of government, or to private rights of life, liberty or property, shall be made out from evidence of his words, acts or otherwise, the burden shall be on the defendant of disproving such presumption of entertaining any such lawless hostile intentions. If such presumption is not disproved, the Judge shall find that the defendant is a dangerous person, and shall sentence him to expulsion from the Hawaiian Islands. Provided, however, that if the Judge is not convinced that such person is a dangerous person in the meaning of this Act, but has evidence which makes it appropriate that such person should be placed under restraint for public protection, he may in his discretion order such person to give a bond in favor of the Government, proportioned to the nature of the case, with sufficient surety, to be approved by such Judge, that such person will not, within one year, do anything of a lawless character hostile to public safety, or to the established system of government, or to private rights of life, liberty or property. If such bond be not furnished according to the order of the Judge, the defendant shall be committed to prison, and shall remain in custody until he shall furnish such bond.

Sec. 2. Any person against whom sentence of expulsion shall have been rendered under this Act, shall be held in confinement by the Marshal until there shall be an opportunity for carrying out the sentence, and he shall not thereafter be permitted to return to the Hawaiian Islands until six years have elapsed from the date of the carrying out of the sentence of expulsion without the consent of the Executive and Advisory Councils. And if such person shall return to the Hawaiian Islands before the expiration of six years from the time of his expulsion, without the consent of the Executive and Advisory Councils, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof before a Circuit Judge or Magistrate, shall be sentenced to imprisonment at hard labor for a term corresponding to the unexpired balance of the said term of six years.

Sec. 3. In any proceeding under this Act, the defendant may appeal from the findings of the Judge or Magistrate to the Supreme Court in Banco, and no other appeal shall be allowed.

Sec. 4. No person arrested or held under the provisions of this Act shall, while the hearing of the matter is pending, be admitted to bail excepting upon the joint approval of the Circuit Judge and the Attorney-General.

Sec. 5. No provision of the Constitution shall be held to invalidate any of the provisions of this Act.

Sec. 6. This Act shall take effect from the date of its publication.

COME gentlemen of the Annexation club, of the Schentzen club, of the Union party and of the Citizens' Reserve, fall into line over this controversy of placing a representative of all of your organizations, if he can be found in any one man, into the vacant chair now said to exist in the Advisory Council. You had no voice in the formation of the Councils as they were, and do you suppose that you will be allowed now to express a free opinion and yet not be compelled to vote by machine rule? "But, God give you good morrow, and if ye but think so then art thou all bird-limed."

THE projectors of the concert to be given to night at the Kawai-ahao Church in aid of the Kawai-ahao Seminary belong to the dyed-in-the-wool missionary element, but they do not hesitate to stultify themselves provided the act will aid in bringing dollars to their coffers. Both Her Majesty the Queen and the late Princess Luke-like have been mentioned as uneducated, uncouth, and simply royal "savages," but, a glance at the programme of tonight's concert will show that these "royal savages" were composers of musical compositions of such advanced quality that the compositions will be presented before an audience which is expected to be composed of all that is best in wealth, beauty intelligence and morals in this community.

A REFORM has come o'er the name of the Annexation club, but no change in spirit. Today, during "discretion the better part of valor" they have ceased their baying at the moon of annexation and now soberly bark at the "loyal"—mark the word, how near to "royal,"—ists to get in line and join the Union (of what party. Ah! but, good gentlemen, the fable of the wolf in sheep's clothing is well known in Hawaii and opportunity has also lately been given to add force to the adage that "all that glitters is not gold." The people, who have the right of the ballot, against your bullets, have already discovered the tinsel and paste and plainly see the formerly snowed-under wolf of the Reform Party beneath the spreading shipskin of the new Union (?) party. Go get thee to Pearl River and commune with Joe Marsden's oysters!

NAME THE WINNER.

P. G. vs the secret League.

As the HOLOMUA has previously presented in its columns the Provisional Government now find themselves in a most ludicrous, not to say, for them, very serious position, by reason of the defiance of the secret League, which was given prestige, unlawfully, by their aid, and the defection amongst the members, of independent spirit, in their own councils; all on account of the non-election of one of the Smith's to a seat in the council. The short but sharp battle fought yesterday in the council-session has, for the time being, set-back the power arrogated to itself by the secret League which, but a short time since had the audacity to order the councils and were not then, dared to be, denied. A still briefer period has elapsed since the secret League captured the annexation club meeting and forced the League's single and sole nomination through that meeting. A politically amateurish attempt to checkmate the League nomination was made by the so-called representatives of the "wealth and intelligence" (?) of the country which hold, by the dominating influence of Uncle Sam, seats and legislative power in the councils, by nominating two other gentlemen for candidacy of the vacant chair. That movement was killed in its inception, both nominees of the council declining the doubtful honor. What a display of statesmanship! sans sense, sans honesty, sans bravery, sans everything! And now a last resort, a more unsettled position: the councils defy the League and vote against its candidate and—the chair is yet vacant! Mr. Sam Damon, whose play to the Hawaiian gallery regarding his clerks is yet well remembered, comes now to the fore in a play to the gallery of the secret League, writes this time, and again nominates the League candidate. Now the question is, are the members of the League so devoid of intelligence that they will even applaud that acting let alone believe in the genuineness of the displayed regard for the poor "workingman"? Bah! gentlemen of the League your candidate is not in it! What are you going to do about it? Beware of the new Russian "sedition" act for it intimates, even if not plainly stated, that all opposition to the oligarchists—be d—d or the opposers banished, yes gentlemen BANISHED for six years!

The Situation.

The political affairs in Hawaii have now come to a tension that developments of a definite nature can be momentarily expected. The unparalleled delay of the United States in taking a decided stand in regard to Hawaii has naturally increased the feeling of unrest, and dissatisfaction among our citizens. The people—i. e. the great majority—which have remained loyal to Hawaii, and to Constitutional Government still retain a firm belief in the honor of Grover Cleveland, and they rest assured that he cannot, without covering himself with ridicule, and disgrace, abandon the just cause, which he has championed, and which he has declared it his duty to defend before the eyes of the whole world. The Hawaiians feel that the American administration cannot with any show of self-respect admit that the American people, through their representatives, have been guilty of an outrage and a gross injustice, and then declare its inability to rectify the wrong, and at the same time forbid and prevent any other power to do what is fair and right.

If the President of the United States cannot carry out a policy to which he has committed himself, in such a manner as he has been doing in regard to Hawaii, the glamour and brilliancy which we are told surround his high and noble office will prove itself the tinsel and sham of the stage and America will be held up to the unbounded ridicule of the world.

What do we see to day in Hawaii? A provisional government composed of merchants and missionaries, of land-grabbers and speculators—Men who gained their power—as admitted by America—through the threatening attitude of American soldiers and through the moral support of the officially recognized representative of a friendly power. America has admitted her wrong and yet the party known as the Republican party, for the sake of exculpating and white-washing their last administration, attempt to bolster up an oligarchy in Hawaii, and waste their breath and vocabulary in praising and doing the screaming-eagle business over a government which exist on the bayonets of hired adventurers and through the support of its infamous laws and willing courts of justice.

It is surprising that the world should see the day come when the men who preached liberty and boasted of their glorious free institutions and their respect for the equal rights of a people independent of color, race, and creed, should be found enlisted on the side of an oligarchy like the Hawaiian provisional government which, to its shame be it said, has enacted laws against freedom of speech freedom of the press and against the liberty of men. The latest act proposed by W. O. Smith, the Attorney General, which provides for the deportation of men not in accord with the government would do credit to Russia or to Germany. When Bismark invented the word "mishiebig" and applied it to everybody who criticized him and his government, the civilized world stood paralyzed for a short while. But a wave of indignation arose and swept the word and the principle represented by it, not alone from Germany's statute-books, but from the German language. Mr. W. O. Smith is not a Bismark and any attempt to imitate the Iron Chancellor will most likely be disastrous to him if he does not desist in time. The "Western Civilization" does not approve of the laws which interfere with the right of every man in a community to express his thought and work for a form of government which according to his idea is the most beneficial to the country at large and not to any single clique or class. In the meantime the people of Hawaii will preserve their peaceful dignity and await patiently the answer from Cleveland which he must give some day. The answer so far given refuses to grant the petition of the so-called provisional government for annexation to the United States. That government which according to its own proclamation was formed for the purpose of obtaining annexation only has failed in its object and it has neither a moral or legal right to be recognized as the government of Hawaii. It has proven a failure. It has been requested to disappear by the President of the United States; a further recognition of it by his government would be an impossibility and an absurdity. If the United States refuse to correct the wrong which it is admitted was done to the Hawaiian people and state so in plain and definite language, other means will be found and other measures will be provided which will bring Hawaiian affairs into proper and just grooves. If any trouble arises through the inactivity or through the refusal the United States to do what is right, the blame will fall on the President of that Republic, and will remain there as an indelible stain on American honor.

The attention of people who know to read, and sometimes ponder, is respectfully directed to the latest "sedition," "transportation" "no bail" law of "I am the Attorney General" placed in power by American bayonets.

If you don't take the HOLOMUA, you don't get the news.

Departures.

Str Leha for Hawaii Ports.

Along the Wharves.

The schooner B. P. Cheney is still discharging coal, and is also loading sugar at Pacific Mail wharf. She will go to San Francisco.

The bark Nautius sailed out of the harbor yesterday for San Francisco. She carried away 1873 bags of sugar.

The schooner Carrier Dove is discharging coal at Fort street wharf.

The bark Galveston is at Brewer's wharf.

The Irmgard is waiting her turn to load sugar at the old Custom House wharf.

The bark Villalta is in the stream waiting to load sugar for San Francisco.

The ship Eastcroft is at the Dillingham wharf. Her destination from this port is undecided as yet.

The bark Matilda is still lying at the Fort street wharf. She will load sugar for San Francisco.

The bark S. C. Allen is at Brewer's wharf. She sails today for San Francisco fully sugar laden.

The O. S. S. Australia is at the Oceanic dock. She is up to leave for San Francisco at noon tomorrow. A number of passengers are booked to go forward by her. She will also carry away a full cargo of island produce.

LOCAL NEWS.

The Tiser don't like the American League.

More rain, more lightning and thunder, more mud.

Don't be late with your mail for the Coast by the Australia tomorrow.

The flags are flying freely to a strong N. E. wind. Weather pleasant.

As the HoloMUA goes to press the Steamer W. G. Hall is coming into port.

Mr. T. H. Davies will not go forward by the Australia but will await the Mariposa on the 8th.

The steamer Leha sailed for Inter-Island ports to-day; genial "Jack" Hare goes as purser.

Drs. Anderson and Lundy are pleased with the increased patronage which they now obtained.

The Palace grounds now display the advantages of having a good caretaker and he is green enough, as everyone knows.

The steamer Warrimoo has not yet arrived from the Colonies. Her delay will undoubtedly be short, when she does arrive.

The Waikiki side of Hotel street between Alakea and Richards streets should be made passable for pedestrians.

C. H. Luther the would-be politician and who for the present has been relegated to obscurity is an advocate for changing Saturday to Sunday.

The "Tiser" states that the Council has allowed an annuity of $240 to the "wife" of the late James Kauhane. Widow, dear "Tiser" not "wife."

The Schutzen Club will meet this evening at their rooms. It is believed that a resolution condemnatory of the re-nomination of D. B. Smith will be passed. They intend to dam one person in particular.

The visitors to town should not forget that one of the largest and most complete sugar mills in the country may be imported by taking a trip via the Oah Railway to Ewa. The rates are low and the time-table is made to suit the convenience of the public.

Miss Mande Naapepio a niece of Queen Emma died yesterday afternoon of consumption. She was buried this morning, the funeral taking place from St. Andrew's Cathedral. The funeral cortege, to the grave, consisted of about 75 school girls attending the English Sisters School and who, afoot, preceded the hearse. Pall bearers comprised three of the dead girl's fellow scholars (she having been a member of the school mentioned) and three young men. The hearse followed by a large number of relatives and friends of the deceased. The final interment took place in Kawaiahaio Seminary.

A BENEFIT.

The Concert at Kawaiahaio.

The children of the Kawaiahaio Seminary aided by some volunteers will give a concert tomorrow evening at Kawaiahaio Church, the proceeds to be used for the benefit of the Seminary. As the object is a good one it is judged that the building will be well filled with friends and patrons of the institution.

Following is the programme:

- PART I.
- Overture—"Diadem" Herman Orchestra.
 - Chorus—"Night sinks on the wave" Henry Smart. Kawaiahaio Seminary.
 - "Over Field and Meadow" Clara Howard
 - "Do You Know How Many Stars" Kate Wiggins Children Kawaiahaio Seminary.
 - Solo—"Star of Bethlehem" Adams Mr. Turner.
 - Chorus—"Pauahi Lani Nui" Liliuokalani Kawaiahaio Seminary.
 - Violin Solo—"Romance" Jean Becker Miss Paty.
 - Chorus—"Spinning Maidens" R. Wagner Kawaiahaio Seminary.
- PART II.
- Overture—"Esmeralda" Herman Orchestra.
 - Solo—"Le Parlate d'Amor" Gounod Mrs. Turner.
 - Chorus—"Cradle Song" W. Taubert Kawaiahaio Seminary.
 - "Where Do All The Daisies grow" Tomlins
 - "Night and Day" Wiggins Children Kawaiahaio Seminary.
 - "Liko Pua Leha" Likelike Kawaiahaio Seminary.
 - Duet—"Lucia Di Lammermoor" Donizetti Mr. and Mrs. Turner.
 - Chorus—"Fairland Waltz" G. A. Veazie Jr. Kawaiahaio Seminary.
- HAWAII PONOI.

The Concert.

The Opera House was patronized by a rather small but a very appreciative audience who hailed the singing of the two Misses Albu, with unbounded enthusiasm. The famous singers never before fulfilled the expectations which a music-loving audience entertained as they did last night. They simply sang divinely. Miss Albu appeared at her very best and sang in such a manner that could not possibly leave doubts as to the reasons why Mrs. Montague staid away. It was simply immense and on behalf of the music-loving people we do regret that we are now to be deprived of the pleasure which only can be derived from cultivated and superb voices as that displayed by the two Albu girls. The house wasn't very full. But the people who enjoy music they found it there. Enough has been said about the "ent", and pretended education of the missionary shopkeepers and blunder sellers. If they insist in killing the efforts of decent people of having occasionally some good music here, simply for the purpose of booming up some of their professional and formerly despised relatives they are welcome to do so. We are not quarrelling with them, but we do wish that their extremely prolonged ears would sometime know the difference between true music and the "tom-tom".

The P. G. Band.

Berger's P. G. Band will give a concert at the Hawaiian Hotel this (Friday) evening in honor of the guests who will be departing passengers by the steamer Australia tomorrow. Following is the programme:

- PART I.
- Overture—"Light Cavalry" Sappe
 - March—"Washington Post" Souza
 - Waltz—"Over the Waves" Rossa
 - "Reminiscences of Verdi" Godfrey
- PART II.
- Meley—"Musical Review" Eiviere
 - "Cocanut Dance" Hgman
 - Waltz—"Sultana" Bualdosi
 - Galop—"Wally" Heinsdorf
- "Hawaii Ponoi."
