Suit For $100,000 Results From Raid Made at Waikapu

Action of Trespass in Case Instituted by Japanese; Search Without Warrant Grounds For Action

Action in the form of "trespass in the case" for damages in the sum of $100,000 has been brought by Attorney Eugene Murphy for T. Nakagawa against Prohibition Enforcement Officer "Ned" Crabbe and County Officers Joe Coelho, Huakini Eno and Thomas Clark as an outgrowth of the raids made by them in the Waikapu plantation camp on June 15, when Nakagawa and two other Japanese were arrested. They appeared in court the following morning, Friday, June 16 and their cases were continued one week, until this morning. There was a fourth arrest of a Chinese and in one instance there were three charges lodged and in the others two charges each of violations of the federal prohibition laws. It is asserted that the raids were made without the preliminary of a search warrant issuing.

Charges in Complaint
In the complaint which was filed in the circuit court late Tuesday afternoon Nakagawa alleges that on June 15, 1922, the defendants "entered into and upon his premises and assaulted and detained him with force of arms, clubs and revolver for more than two hours and until he had paid to them the sum of $100 to obtain his release" and their departure from his premises which "they had entered without warrant, authority or justification of the law."

The $100 mentioned in the complaint is the $100 cash bail which the officers say Nakagawa put up to insure his appearance in court next morning.

Under the provisions of the law a house used exclusively for dwelling purposes cannot be entered without a search warrant and a search warrant there must be strong evidence of the law being violated within the premises. The contention of the plaintiff is that his home was such a dwelling house, and that by entering it without a search warrant the act of trespass was accomplished.

On the other hand it is the contention of federal authorities that the having on the premises of liquor for sale or the manufacturing of liquor in a home or about home premises in the one instance transform the nature of the "home" into a store and in the other into a distillery or brewery according to what is being made, that the selling or making of liquor puts the place without the protection of the law as used exclusively for dwelling purposes.

Crabbe States Position
Ned Crabbe went to the sheriff's office Wednesday morning and was served with the papers in the case. Speaking of the suit he said that in his actions as prohibition enforcement officer he has been governed at all times by the directions of the pamphlet on the law and its provisions and rulings on it furnished him by the department in which he is employed. He said he acted on such directions and instructions in making of the raids at Waikapu and would stand up on them as his authority.

"If the contention of Nakagawa and his attorney are correct," Crabbe continued, "such difficulties will be added to the work as to make it practically impossible to enforce the 18th amendment. Our contention is that where liquor is sold at a house the place is no longer used exclusively for dwelling purposes and loses its character as a home, is no longer exempt from investigation by the search and seizure law."

Crabbe said that developments of today, if the cases went to trial as set, would vindicate his action and those of the other officers.

Admittedly on the decision that will be made in the suit just brought will depend greatly the success or failure of efforts made to enforce the 18th amendment and the Volstead act.

This morning the cases of the three Japanese taken in the raids went over for a week in the magistrate's court. County Attorney Bevins has written to United States Attorney Huber asking if it will be satisfactory if the cases be tried in the federal court.

Labor Representative Is Expected on Maui

Rudolph Scharrenberg, representative of the American Federation of Labor and regarded as personal representative of Samuel Gompers, the president of that organization, is expected to be on Maui the first three days of next week.

The visitor is in the Islands to study labor conditions and is being afforded all possible opportunities so to do. It is expected that he will be accompanied here by Col. D. S. Bowman, head of the industrial welfare service of the U. S. P. A.

It is expected he will visit all the plantations and perhaps the pineapple districts of West, Central and East Maui.

More Attractions Added Make Happy

Executive Committee Meets And Goes Over Plans; Every Department Reports Its Preparedness

Make Happy plans were gone carefully at a meeting of the Executive Committee in Forester's Hall Wednesday evening and the heads of the various sub-committees rendered their reports on progress and the readiness of their various departments. It was a snappy meeting and gives promise of a carnival that will be pep and go from start to finish.

Readiness is Shown
Horse racing has for forty years been considered a Fourth of July feature on Maui and this year will prove no exception, judging from the interest that is being displayed though entries do not close until Sunday so it was impossible to make a definite final report.

Every Island of the group is sending its best Japanese wrestlers to "Make Happy". In addition to the athletes from Kaula that three wrestlers would represent the Garden Island, letters have come from Honolulu and Hilo giving the names of the Oahu and Big Island competitors.

Baseball will have a program that will give the fans all the sport that can be asked. Plans of that committee have already been outlined. There will be six games of ball, one of the few changes in the program being the elimination of the proposed Monday morning game. There will be two morning games and four in the afternoons, three of the afternoon games following directly after the races.

Sweet Singers Coming
Reports from Court Camoes said that in their vaudeville program there will be solos by Mae June Almos, Manuel Almos and John Noble. Courts Valley Isle and Lunailo have their programs prepared and assured the executive committee of two attractive evenings.

Eddie Fernandez is now busy at the Kahului grounds arranging the installation of his four shows, the big wheel and the merry go round besides two dozen other concessions. Some of the paraphernalia arrived Saturday but some was carried on to Maui on Tuesday. However, it was brought back and unloaded Wednesday evening. Fernandez says he is bringing the four best attractions of Honolulu's Merry Way. The sword swallower puts 22 inches of cold steel down his throat and the fire eater has every one wondering. The dancing show, he says is the best he has ever been able to gather together. All in all he has never brought so much nor better to any of the Maui County Fairs.

Two luaus are to be served on the grounds on Tuesday, one from 11:30 to 1:30 and one from 4:30 to 6:30 was a new announcement made at the meeting.

Parade starts Tuesday
Other important announcements were that there will be a parade of Foresters Tuesday morning, leaving Forester's Hall at 8 and proceeding to the Fair Grounds and that the District Court Convention will be held on Sunday morning at 9 o'clock.

Arrangements for the meeting and receiving of the throng of visitors were named for the meeting of steamers at Lahaina and at Kahului.

Court Valley Island will have a meeting Wednesday evening at which instructions as to dress for the Tuesday parade and other subjects will be given to the members.

Sale of grand stand reservations will open with Eddie Tam at the Baldwin Bank, Kahului, Monday morning.

Former Chief Staff Of Britain Slain

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)

LONDON, June 22—Field Marshal Sir Henry H. Wilson, formerly chief of staff of Great Britain, lately elected to parliament from an Ulster constituency and appointed military adviser for the Ulster government was assassinated today just outside of his London home. Two men were arrested who gave their names as James O'Brien and James Connelly, a policeman, the latter also dying of his wounds.

The Central News Agency says that three bullets hit Wilson who died almost immediately. An eye witness says that one of the assassins attempted suicide inflicting a serious injury upon himself.

Lady Wilson was in the house at the time, heard the shots and rushed out. She found her husband lying on the pavement.

Sir Henry had been under police protection for several weeks, the authorities fearing that an attempt might be made upon his life.

Sir Austen Chamberlain announced the assassination to commons and moved adjournment as a mark of respect.

BELFAST, June 22—Reports of the assassination of Sir Henry Wilson has occasioned a sensation here. Sinn Feiners are blamed for the deed.

Hawaiian Wanted As Member Land Board by Maui

Republican Committee and Governor Not in Perfect Accord as to Member to be Named on Commission

Sam E. Kalama or Charles Wilcox for member of the land board is the recommendation to the Governor of the Maui Central Republican Committee. At a meeting yesterday it again refused to endorse Worth O. Aiken for commissioner.

Prior to the special election for delegate to congress the Governor expressed his desire to name Worth O. Aiken to the land board and asked L. M. Judd of the Territorial Committee to present the subject to the Maui delegation. At a meeting in Wailuku the Maui delegation declined to act favorably on the suggestion and a letter was sent to the Governor to that effect by the old county committee. The Governor again wrote to Mr. Judd and said there appeared to be a misapprehension and the objection voiced to the proposed appointment was not a good one. Mr. Judd again wrote to Maui and the action of the new County Committee yesterday was the answer.

In making the recommendation the committee added that it believed a Hawaiian should be a member of the board and it made its recommendations in that belief. Neither Kalama nor Wilcox is seeking the appointment but the committee named them never the less.

Other Recommendations
In the making of appointments, according to a resolution passed at the meeting, Maui favors the naming of Republicans where competent applicants of the dominant party are to be found, otherwise the reappointment of Democrats who have shown competency. It recommended the reappointment of Postmasters Costa and Silva as there were no Republicans applying for appointment. A Garcia's name had been mentioned for Wailuku but he withdrew it. He was recommended for chairman of the registration commission to succeed M. C. Ross whose term is expiring.

To fill vacancies on the election boards the following recommendations were made in the various precincts:
1. Mrs. D. W. K. White, member.
2. August Reimann, chairman and George Kauli, member.
3. Mrs. Lella Espinda, member.
4. Mr. Hanneberg, chairman; H. Saffery and D. P. Palena, members.
5. Mrs. Wm. Buck, member.
6. John N. Kahoi, member.
7. Kahl Kenolio, member.
8. David Kiakona, chairman and Nelson Kaloa, member.
9. Edward Wilson, chairman and Geo. Kauwekoolani, member.
10. D. Kapohakimoeha, member
11. Alfred Furtado, chairman and Jos Tam Sing, member.
12. Mui Kekua, member.
13. Wm. T. Smythe, chairman; J. K. Puu and Eddie J. Smythe, members.
14. Horace Kekumu and J. K. Hueu, members.
15. J. Kaiwi, Sr., member.
16. D. K. Wallehua, chairman.
17. Jonah Kaiwaea, chairman and G. W. Kauhane and J. B. Malulu, members.
18. Wm. B. Scott Hal, chairman, Jos. K. Kallieha and J. W. Kawaokos, members.
19. Joseph K. Kamauao and S. P. Kaai, members.
20. Rev. I. D. Iaea, chairman.
21. David Kaai, Jr., chairman.

Wu Ting Fang Dead Shanghai Report

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)

SHANGHAI, June 23—Reuter's News Agency reports that Wu Ting Fang is dead.

Wu Ting Fang was in his 81st year and for many years was known as one of the most picturesque figures in the diplomatic service at Washington during his two terms there. He was a native of Singapore, was educated in Canton, studied English in London and later enrolled as a student in Lincoln's Inn London. He later became chief director of the University of Tientsin.

His sympathies with the United States during the Boxer troubles led to his recall from this country and only the intimation from this country that his beheading would be "offensive to the United States" saved his life. It was reported. He was disgraced but later reappointed to Washington.

Dr. Wu was instrumental in bringing many reforms to China and was an ardent advocate of the "open door." Although always an advocate of peace, the stormy times of 1917 when President Li Yuan Hung dismissed his premier for declaring war on Germany, Dr. Wu was named acting premier.

Honolulu is Gay And Shriners Are In Full Control

Parades, Concerts, Sight Seeing Trips, Entertainments And Dances Staged; Capital City Brilliant

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)

HONOLULU, June 23—Sixty-five more Shriners arrived on the steamer Nile this morning, the "rear guard" of the party to which Honolulu has been turned over during their stay. Yesterday came the Matsonia with 150 Shriners among her passengers and at 10 o'clock the H. F. Alexander followed the Matsonia liner into port. The Matsonia arrivals immediately prepared for the huge parade that was to follow the arrival of the Alexander and escort "Sunny Jim," the Imperial Potentate and the Imperial Divan from dock to Capitol where they were welcomed by Governor Farrington.

Those arriving on the Matsonia were given a thrill that was not on the program when the engine of one of the army planes went wrong and forced the plane to descend into the ocean. None of the occupants was hurt and the plane was slightly damaged.

In the parade "Sunny Jim" rode one of three camels and Potentate Harry Denton of Aloha another. Two members of Islam rode Daisy, the elephant from the Honolulu zoo.

Stock exchanges postponed its session until 11:30 to allow for the parade.

An afternoon of sight seeing and an evening of entertainment followed Honolulu was never more brilliant or beautifully decorated and illuminated than last night.

This morning the public schools gave an exhibition in honor of the Shriners which was followed by trips to the Pali, Haleiwa, Schofield, the pineapple canneries and a luau is to be held at the new Hawaiian village this noon. In the afternoon there are more bandconcerts, more surfing, the hibiscus show at Iolani palace and this evening "A Night in Hawaii" will be repeated, visiting bands will give a concert in the Palace Grounds and there will be another dance at the Moana.

Russell Cases in Hilo Nolle Prossed

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)

Senator Russell will not have to face trial for the charged irregularities in connection with the People's Bank and Trust Company of Hilo.

A special to the Honolulu Advertiser says the cases against him have been nolle prossed. The dispatch follows:
The cases against James W. Russell, former president of the People's bank, have been nolle prossed by Attorney General Harry Irwin.

The papers have been mailed from Honolulu and will be presented in the circuit court before Judge Homer L. Ross on Thursday. The ground for nolle prossed is that in the attorney-general's opinion the cases are too weak to handle.

It is stated that the facts will be put up to the grand jury again at a later date.

DENOUNCES UNCLE SAM

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)

HAYANA, June 21—The newspaper La Nacion in its last issue bitterly attacked the United States and declared that "hatred of the American must be our new religion." It continues that the United States intervened in Cuba's revolt against Spain only to gain control of the Island and that Washington forced the recent reconstruction of the cabinet by President Zaya.

Dr. Mead, Expert on Land Settlement to Reach Maui July 1

Dr. Elwood Mead, California land settlement expert now in the Islands in the interests of the Hawaiian Homes Project will be on Maui July 1, 2 and 3. He will be afforded the opportunity to look over homestead- ing and agricultural and horticultural and live stock endeavors as conducted on this Island and near the close of his stay will meet the members of the Maui Chamber of Commerce and others who may be interested in the subject of the rehabilitation movement on Molokai.

Wednesday morning a letter from George P. Cooke was received by Secretary Gray of the Chamber of Commerce giving the dates of the proposed visit and less than two hours later Executive Secretary George P. Cooke himself put in an appearance. He had taken the Mauna Loa Tuesday, dropped off and Molokai and come across on the Mikahala. Plans for the visit of Dr. Mead and himself on the later mentioned were speedily arranged.

Other Plans Changed
Other engagements precluded an earlier coming to Maui by Dr. Mead and to make the trip at the fixed date he is foregoing a visit to Kaula. Though there are irrigated homesteads there, Mr. Cooke felt that Maui had more diversified farming to offer. He arrives two days after the dinner to Judge Case which it had been hoped he could attend.

Monday afternoon, July 3 there will be a special meeting of or informal reception by the Maui chamber of Commerce to meet Dr. Mead. During all the time of his visit activities on Maui will center chiefly about Kahului and the Foresters' Make Happy and it has been decided to hold the meeting for him in the Territorial Building for it is felt it would be impossible to get an attendance in the Chamber of Commerce rooms at that time that would be so satisfactory as can be secured at the Fair Grounds directly following the horse racing. The meeting will, therefore, be called for Monday afternoon, July 3, at that hour. Dr. Mead will take the Mauna Kea from Lahaina that night and will sail from Honolulu on Wednesday July 5.

In order to get Dr. Mead to Maui arrangements have been made to have the Mauna Loa held until after the luncheon of the Hawaiian Civic Club. He had purposed coming on the Klalaua to arrive on Saturday morning but found all space had been taken for the Foresters' convention and Make Happy.

Will Visit Farms
Mr. Cooke had written to Senator Harold W. Rice relative to arranging for Dr. Mead to see agriculture on Maui and also took the subject up with Manager H. B. Penhallow of Wailuku Sugar Company with whom he lunched on Wednesday.

Dr. Mead has been greatly interested in what he has seen of the land possibilities of the Islands, Mr. Cooke says and the commission is satisfied that it will receive suggestions and recommendations from the visitor which will be of great value as the development of the project proceeds.

Maui Publishing Co. Will Double Capital Stockholders Vote

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)

Increase in the capital stock of the Maui Publishing Company, publisher of this paper, was voted at a meeting of the stockholders held Tuesday. Its capitalization will be doubled and the new finances will be used for the purchase of new machinery and equipment and for an addition to its building. Shares are to be offered to the stockholders at par and any unsubscribed will be offered to the public, if any there should be. The last sale of shares was at a premium of 10 percent.

Maui Publishing Company was organized in January 1905 and took over the newspaper, Maui News, and plant of G. B. Robertson the paper having been started in 1898. Its growth has been steady since and rapid during the past two years during which its capacity has been about doubled.

New plans of the company contemplate the purchase of a second newspaper press so that the old one can be used for job work of the larger sort, a new ruling plant and a new bindery equipment as well as for an addition which will be built back of its building to house the ruling and bindery departments. In part the increase are made in preparation for the publication of Maui News as a daily.

M. R. Pereira, manager of the company, will leave for the mainland within a few weeks to purchase the new machinery and equipment.

Crowds Laugh As Injured Workers Beg For Water

Brutal and Inhuman Treatment of Non-Union Men Reported From Coal Mine Town in Southern Illinois

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)

HERRIN, Ill., June 22—Twenty-six known dead bodies spread about in an area of 15 miles, some riddled with bullets, others beaten and clubbed to death and three hanging to trees are shown by the check up made at noon by the Associated Press. It is reported that union sympathizers stormed one of the mines of the Southern Illinois Coal Company at daylight and in a camp captured more than a hundred non-union mine workers.

Some terrible scenes and sights have been witnessed by the Associated Press correspondent in going through the country where the disorder occurred. At one point he saw six men lying in the road, tied together. They were terribly mangled, wounded by bullets and bruised and had, it was said, been dragged to the spot they lay behind an automobile. A crowd of hundreds of men and women looked on as the suffering men lay their moaning and begging for water. The Associated Press correspondent rushed off to get them the drink they craved but returning with the water he was driven off at the point of guns. One woman, with a baby in her arms placed her foot on one of the wounded men and said: "I'll see you in hell before you get a drink of water."

Darkness last night forced a cessation for the time of the fighting that had gone on for several hours between strikers or strike sympathizers and non-union miners. Thousands of shots were exchanged. In the darkness that caused the cessation of firing, thousands of persons, many of them armed, rushed to the mine, the resulting confusion making it impossible to check up on reports until after daylight.

The disorders followed the receipt of a telegram from President Lewis of the United Mine Workers that the men working in the mine of the Southern Illinois Company were "common strike breakers." Union leaders deny having killed anybody.

MARION, Ill., June 23—Sheriff Thaxton of Williamson County has telegraphed Governor Small that "the situation is well in hand, there is no danger of further outbreaks and no need of troops."

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)

CINCINNATI, O., June 23—President Lewis of the United Mine Workers declared this morning that the "United Mine Workers is not in any degree responsible for the unfortunate occurrences at Herrin." He charged that "sinister influences are working among the miners" to incite a spirit of violence and that the Coal Company has in its employ thousands of detectives at work among the strikers.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 23—Director Medill of the state department of mines gave his opinion that it would "be a bad thing" to send troops to Herrin at this time.

WAUKEGAN, June 23—Governor Small has received a telegram from Col. S. N. Hunter, representing the adjutant general at Herrin, placing the blame for the riot and massacre on the shoulders of county officials. The message said that such officials at no time in the past week were able to handle the situation and should have requested troops to assist them in preserving order.

WASHINGTON, June 23—Secretary of Labor Davis, after a conference with President Harding, declared that those responsible for the Herrin disorders shall be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law.

French Court Convicts Poetess of Murder

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)

PARIS, June 22—(Associated Press)—Marie Bessarabo, poetess and playwright, was convicted of the murder of her husband Georges whose body was found in a trunk at Nancy two years ago. The court decided because of the extenuating circumstances surrounding the case to sentence her to 20 years imprisonment. Her daughter was acquitted of complicity in the case.

The prosecution allowed the motive of the murder was Madame Bessarabo's effort to obtain a commission of 600,000 francs due her husband from oil concessions in Mexico where the couple lived prior to 1914. Her first husband, Paul Jacques, was a suicide in Paris under mysterious circumstances in 1914.

Great Battles On Sunday Schedule

Haiku and Chinese Will Meet For Post Season Leadership; Asahi vs Sports For Cellar Title

(By Anny-mon-lus)

Gobs, Oh great gobs, of joy. Pandemonium should break loose at the Fair Grounds, Sunday afternoon. A battle meaning the leadership of the league will be fought out by Haiku's rice birds and our little brothers the Chinese. Bill Engle, heap big manager of our Oriental candidates for the pennant dropped in to Maui News office Thursday and made much vociferous comment on the strength of said slant eyed aggregation. Bill lauded his gang of ball tossers both individually and team-ually and in fact we really believe that Bill has kidded himself into thinking that black and gold hued flag is already flying and fluttering in the gentle spasmodic breezes that should entitle the Harbor Town as well as our Eastern metropolis to the title of "Windy City." And, oh yes, if reports are authentic, Wick Kee and Wah D will be the formidable battery, and their motto, "Thumbs down."

But there's always two sides to a story. And the rice birds don't agree with Engle's version. The general consensus of opinion throughout East Maui is that they have just about the best I'll bunch of major leaguers, and some Texans, that has ever been accumulated in that section and figure their chances at the pennant grab box are rated class A-1. Anny-mon-lus is going to await the outcome on Sunday afternoon.

The Sports and Asahi's have been playing with the elevator and get a greater thrill going down than up. But the elevators on the bottom floor and after the battle which will open the days activities one only will be left to claim the cellar championship.

LEADING HITTERS AVERAGES TOLD FROM BOX SCORE

Wacs Leading in Team Batting Average to Date; Chinese Have Greatest Number of Heavy Hitters; Haiku Third

To Sequiera, the Sports Club third sacker goes individual batting honors for games played in the regular Maui league. Sequiera though at bat but three times has rapped the ball for two safetys and leads all players with a percentage of .667.

Following the Sports slugger comes Alui Lyons the Wacs infielder. Lyons is beyond doubt the most consistent hitter in the major league, has faced a pitcher 11 times and secured 6 hits. He is well above all players who have played an equal number of games with a percentage of .545.

Next in line is Sueda, the main support of the Asahi's pitching staff. He has gotten an even break in six times at bat for an average of .500.

Six other players in the league are hitting above .400. Wells Cummings with .455, Masaichi of the Asahi's .444, Waiwaiole of the Wacs .429, Caswell, Sports Club .429, and Akina the Chinese rightfielder .429. Wada, another Asahi slab star in five times at bat has hit safely twice for an average of .400.

Chinese Lead

Though not holding the highest team batting average the Chinese lead in the number of slugs that are hitting above .400. Six players have reached that mark on Bill Engle's nine. Akina leads with .429, Shin .375, Wadsworth and Paschool .333, Ah Leong .308 and Silva .300. Wickie makes up the seventh hitter above the average with .250.

Next in heavy hitters are the Wacs. Four players of that aggregation have hit .300 or better and nine at above .250. They are Lyons .545, Wells Cummings .455, Waiwaiole .429, and James Alo .333. Five are hitting in the .250 class. Bill Cummings, Ah Sam, Frank Dal, Ray Freitas and Rego.

Haiku Ties Asahi

The rice birds have a greater team average than the Asahites but the two teams are tied for individual honors. Each has four men hitting .300 or better and each has a total of seven players whose average is .250 or higher. Haole and Rolph lead in batting in the East Maui team, each with an average of .333. Foster Robinson and Coleman are next in line and tied at .308. To those two players however, belong the honors in the Haiku nine for steady and hard hitting. Jones with .286, Yamamoto, .273 and Chris Cockett with .250 are above the average of the other players.

Asahi is in the same class. Four of the team are hitting above .300. Sueda .509, Masaichi .444, Wada .400 and Nakamura .333. D. Yanagi, Wakayama, and K. Yanagi are each hitting at a .250 clip.

Sports in Cellar

Both in team and individual batting averages the Sports appear to not yet have found their batting eye and despite the good stick work of Sequiera and Caswell are suffering a slump in percentages. Four Sports players, however, are at a .300 or better stride and six are hitting at .250 and up. Sequiera leads with .667, Caswell .429, Rodrigues .333 and Rego .300. Alo and Scholtz are hitting above .250.

Team Averages

The Wacs lead in club teamwork with an average of .288. Close upon them are the Chinese, second with .274. Haiku with .228 is running third a little pushed by Asahi whose team average is .205. The Sports hold the cellar championship in team hitting with an average of .189.

These averages are compiled only from box scores of regular league games of the Maui major league. Inter Island games do not enter into these figures.

BIG ISLAND TENNIS

The racket pastime is going full blast on the Big Island, championship tournaments are being played at Wainaku lawns and the Hilo Hotel courts. Bowie Detrick defeated Hill in the singles 6-1, 6-0. Detrick and A. S. Le Baron Gurney, Jr., defeated Taketa and Mukai in the doubles, 6-0, 6-3.

Who's 'Who' in Aloha Harbor Splash

Nine events including two Hawaiian and three Americans records are on the card for the Aloha swimming meet which started last night and will continue on tonight and windup tomorrow. These events include the 440 Hawaiian championship, 100 yards women's Hawaiian championship, 220 yard free style for women, 50 yards mens' open, 100 yard mens' senior National and 50 yards womens' junior National. These are the feature events of the meet and speculation is arising to high pitch over possible winners.

In the 440 yard Hawaiian championship Weismuller is expected to win but even should he do so he will not be credited title holder as he is not affiliated with any local club and the event is strictly a Hawaiian record. The American and Hawaiian record for the distance is held by Ludy Langer whose time of 5:17 was made in Honolulu in 1917.

Wehseilu Strong

Mariechen Wehseilu is conceded the best bet in the 100 yard Hawaiian championship for women although some dopsters predict she will be nosed out by Lillie Bowmer. Helen Moses the girl star who swam at Puunene last fall is also entered in the race. The wise-aces also foot Wehseilu's horn for the 220 yard free style for women. Ethelda Bleibrey holds the record in both events covering the former in 1:03 2-5 and the latter in 2:53 during her stay in the Islands last year.

Many swim fans predict Kealoha will beat Weismuller by a hair in the 50 yard men's open. Pua Kealoha is not thought a hard contender for either of the two. Dukes record of 23 flat is not expected to be broken.

The 100 yards senior national is conceded to be Weismuller's best distance. Record time held by Duke is 53 flat.

Wehseilu is also picked to win the 50 yard women's open. She and Bleibrey hold the record jointly in that event at 28 4-5.

In the 220 free style for men Weismuller is given wide range. The record now standing is held by McGillvrey whose time was 2:24 1-5.

The 100 yard backstroke should go to Warren Kealoha who holds the record for the harbor event, 1:08.

Wehseilu, Bowmer, and Moses are predicted to finish in the order named in the 440 women's junior national event. Bleibrey made the record now standing in Honolulu in 1920, her time 6:21 3-5.

The games committee for the Aloha swimming meet met Monday afternoon and completed arrangements for the meet which is considered will be the largest and most interesting held in Honolulu harbor.

Invitations Out For Water Carnival and Dance in Puunene

Invitations have issued for a water carnival at the Puunene Tank to be followed by a dance at the Puunene Club Hall next Tuesday evening. The program is reported to have been arranged by the swimming committee of the Maui Athletic but as competitions are limited to Maui entrants no sanction from the A. A. U. was required though the competitors are registered with that body. Ribbons are to be awarded to the successful swimmers.

Sixteen events are scheduled for the carnival with only one performer from the outside, Hjorth, who was seen at the recent public meet of the Maui Athletic Club and is to repeat the diving exhibitions he gave at that time. An "egg and spoon race" will add fun to the affair as will a "Special Clothes Relay."

On the program are the following events:
25 yards free style boys under 10.
50 yards free style women.
150 yards boy scouts relay.
50 yards free style, men.
Plunge for distance for women.
100 yards girls relay.
25 yards free style girls under 13.
Plunge for distance for men.
50 yards back stroke men.
50 yards free style boys under 15.
200 yards relay, men.

Signs of Activity At Mauna Loa Told

Signs of activity of Mauna Loa are reported in special dispatches from Hilo to both the Star Bulletin and the Advertiser. Those of Tuesday to the Advertiser said in part:

"Reports of volcanic activity at Mokuawewewo, the summit crater of Mauna Loa, have been partly confirmed by further observations. Leslie W. Branch, manager of the Hawaii Telephone company, and Frank J. Cody, of the Hilo Post-Herald, saw the reflection over the mountain from Hilo last night. Miss Bertha Ben Taylor, supervising principal of the West Hawaii schools, reports seeing a volume of smoke this morning apparently from a point near the old Dewey crater, 2000 feet below the summit of Mauna Loa. Miss Taylor said the smoke was visible after she had passed Puuanaulu Ridge on the 1859 lava flow, between Puuwaawaa ranch and Kamuela.

"The glow in the sky was seen last night also from Puuwaawaa, where the views is unobstructed. The eruption appears to be on the Hilo side of Mauna Loa.

"The glow over Mauna Loa was seen last night, and a column of heavy black smoke this morning, by L. S. August, superintendent of the Kona branch of the telephone company. The apparent eruption had not yet been definitely located by Prof. T. A. Jaggard, in charge of the Kilauea observatory, at last report and was not visible from Kilauea.

To save a shift on hills
Many an automobile fails to deliver the power and speed of which it is capable, fails in acceleration and on the hills, because of poor lubrication.
The purpose of lubrication is to reduce friction. In this connection it must be remembered that oils have internal or molecular friction. The heavier the oil the more this internal friction, which has to be overcome by and uses up power.
The ideal oil for the automobile is the thinnest oil which will keep the bearing surfaces separated, and at the same time offer in itself the least frictional resistance to the engine power going to the rear or driving wheels.
Such an oil—if it has "oiliness," stability and purity,—will give perfect lubrication, and permit the development of the maximum power, speed and gasoline mileage of the car.
Zerolene meets these conditions perfectly.
Oiliness—Stability—Purity
Zerolene has great "oiliness," which causes it to cling to bearing surfaces while offering in itself a minimum of frictional resistance to the engine power.
It has great stability, which causes it to resist engine heat and to form a minimum of carbon of a soft, flaky nature which goes out with the exhaust.
And it is pure.
If you follow the Zerolene chart of Correct Lubrication, you will develop the maximum power, speed and gasoline mileage of your car.

Makawao Sweet Peas Hold Entertainment

(Contributed)

MAKAWAO, June 18—Hip! Hip! Hooray—Makawao is "Coming up," but maybe "Went down."

The Sweet Pea Troop of Girl Scouts held its first entertainment and dance last evening, Saturday which about 200 people attended. It was the first time such a thing was tried and we are glad to say it turned out to be one of the best of times the people ever had.

It was held in the school house and three rooms were used. The middle room was used as a stage and decorations were done on Saturday afternoon in which Japanese lanterns were strung across the room with greens. Makawao is handicapped because of no electricity. At half past six people were pouring in to get a good place for the show and they continued arriving until 8.30.

The program lasted from 8 to 9:30 started with the song "America" and ended with the "Star Spangled Banner." Miss Seibert the director of the girl scouts on Maui gave a talk on girl scouts.

The best numbers on the program were the Irish Lilt and the Hoop Drill. Cheer after cheer rent the air as each part was given. After the program an exhibition of steel guitar played with the foot and on the back was given by an "Oriental Trio," assisted by Lieutenant Miller on the piano for the dances.

Although the music wasn't very good everyone enjoyed themselves in some way. Miss Parker of Pauwela school sang two solos assisted by Miss Havlicek also of Pauwela. Mr. Sayers played two solos on the cornet assisted by Miss Miller on the piano.

both of Makawao. They were heartily applauded.

When the music started Miss Irene L. Miller, lieutenant of the Makawao Girl Scouts and Miss Frances L. Seibert director of the girl scouts on Maui started the dance which continued until 11:30.

Many thanks to Captain Yap and Lieutenant Miller for carrying the program out so splendidly also "Pop" Hutton the Boy Scout executive who took a great part in it and those who helped in the various other things.

The proceeds are to be used for the troop at camping and other expenses.

With Maui's Girl Scouts

Model Camp For Girl Scouts:

Forty-eight summer camps are now operated by the Girl Scouts, according to a statement recently made by Mrs. Jane Deeter Rippin, national director of the organization, at headquarters, New York. Of these one is directed by headquarters. The balance are under the management of local councils.

The Briarcliff camp, comprising about 140 acres of hills, woodland and cleared spaces, was the gift of former United States Senator and Mrs. William A. Clark, of Montana, who made the presentation in memory of their daughter, Andree. It is really a training place for future scout captains and is a model of its kind.

The camp accommodates 112 girls at a time, or approximately 360 each season. The girls, who are divided into units of eight, with a councillor for each unit, are drawn from all over the United States, whereas the scouts attending the other camps are members of their own councils. At Camp Andree Clark the girls of each unit are responsible to their councillor, who in turn is responsible to the camp director.

The camp is not harrassed by a fixed daily program. The units, or troops, decide on their own daily work and play, and may even select their three meals, provided they are drawn from menus submitted by the camp dietitian. The food is prepared on open fireplaces, one of which is assigned to each unit, and if the campers desire a lean-to, to protect them in rainy weather, they must provide it. Independence and resourcefulness are two of the scouting fundamentals. Each scout pays $10.00 a week for food, camp upkeep and instruction. On being assigned to her troop she makes payment and is given back $6 in camp "money." This is made of aluminum. The balance, or $5 is to be spent for the week's food and is deposited in the troop purse. As eight girls contribute $8 each, the purse contains $48 at the beginning of the week. The provisions are bought at the camp store and if any cash is left over at the end of the week the scouts are privileged to spend it any way they like.

Mrs. Rippin calls camping "the ice cream and cake which goes with scout ing." This is because fifty, out of the 52 weeks in the year, are devoted to domestic science and work which develops the scouts along lines tending to make them better daughters and citizens.

During the year, Mrs. Rippin says, "the girls apply themselves to household duties and we are delighted to give them a complete change in environment. They make and mend clothes, bathe babies, cook, nurse the sick, and do one and a hundred other things which increase their usefulness to society. The camp develops them along other lines while it is providing their play hours. Specifically, it increases their initiative and personal responsibility.

"In camp the girls are instructed in swimming, canoeing, woodcraft and bird lore, and are given a much more accurate idea of the natural, outdoor world than they would get under ordinary vacation conditions. Camp life is a splendid thing for them, physically, mentally and morally, and we are doing our utmost to increase these camps all over the country."

In each troop two girls provide the daily supply of wood, actually chopping it from the timber; two do the shopping at the store and keep accurate accounts, and an equal number are assigned to cooking. Two are given the responsibility of getting the milk. The work is otherwise divided equitably.

Kailua Camp

The first week's camp begins Monday, June 26, and ends Monday, July 3rd. The camp including scouts, councillors, nurse, cook and director will number 45. Twenty-two Lahaina girls will be brought to Kailua in a truck in time for the 1:30 p. m. train to Pauwela. The Wailuku, Kahului, Makawao and Seminary girls will take this same train. From Pauwela they will be taken to the camp by truck. Look up the schedule given in last week's Maui News.

Miss Cecil Black, director of the Honolulu Girl Scouts, will attend the first week for a few days.

Miss Cecile Black, director of the Honolulu Girl Scouts gave an entertainment under the direction of Captain Yap and Lieutenant Miller. A Pack up your equipment in true scout style. Don't have innumerable bundles rolling around and off the truck. Let us see which girls will have the neatest looking pack.

Troop Activities Makawao

Last Saturday evening at the Makawao large audience greeted the performance and the troop netted $39.60 for the camp fund.

The following was the program:

1. America.
2. Introductory Remarks by Girl Scout Director.
3. Scout Laws and Motto.
4. Bandaging Demonstration with Neckerchief by Scout Dorothy and Scout Melinda.
5. Vocal Solo, Miss Gertrude Parker, Hailku.
6. Japanese dance in costume by 12 girls.
7. Songs personified—accompanied by Miss Parker and Miss Miller.
8. Hoop Drill—eight girls.
9. Cornet solo—Mr. Sayers.
10. Dutch comedy—Boy Scouts.
11. Irish Lilt—Six girls in costume.
12. Star Spangled Banner.

After the entertainment the Makawao orchestra furnished music for dancing.

Much credit is given Miss Yap and Miss Miller for the success of this program and the Girl Scout work during the past year.

Kahului

The Roselani Troop held their last meeting of the year, Monday, at the Community House. Miss DeKay and Miss Seibert present. The usual program was conducted with a game of "long ball" at the end. Miss DeKay leaves Saturday of this week and it is with much regret that the girls and the director bid her farewell. She has been a great help and fine inspiration to her girls and the organization and we shall miss her.

Hamakuaopoko

The "Morning Glories" still meet faithfully every Thursday afternoon whether they have a leader or not. Four more girls purchased uniforms which equips nearly half of the troop. We hope to give a play next fall to help out the finances of this struggling but persevering group. Five are anticipating camp for which we are quite certain there will be no regrets.

Wailuku

Tuesday evening at the Hippodrome, the Star of Bethlehem (Lahaina) and Lehua (Wailuku) troops gave a joint entertainment. The home troop gave a very clever little one act play and received much applause.

The visitors in uniform opened their program with several songs accompanied by their own orchestra. This was well received. "The Sheik," a duet in costume by two scouts scored a big hit. The operetta "Mellieotte," was splendidly given and represented much hard practice. The girls, Miss Van Keuren and Miss Seong should be congratulated upon their ambitious undertaking and its successful completion. A fine picture, "Kazan" an Oliver Curwood story closed the program.

We thank all those who assisted us in this performance. Forty per cent of the proceeds goes to the two troops.

Spreckelsville

"On Friday, June 8 the Spreckelsville Scouts, boys and girls went hiking to Keanae. We started at 1:00 o'clock and everyone was glad to go. The girls went on a big car and the boys on a truck with the baggage. The girls reached there first and went to Mr. Pogue's house for pots and a frying pan. When the boys came dinner was started.

"After we ate everyone went swimming. The girls climbed up to the Girl Scout camping ground and went in the beautiful pool. How proud we are to be the first troop to swim there even before the ladder is finished! When we got back it was dark, so the boys started the camp fire and we sang and heard stories.

"We had a beautiful camping place though a little small for 19. Anyhow how could we sleep with such a beautiful moon!

"Next morning breakfast was eaten after a short walk of about two miles to the dairy and back.

"Saturday's hike was the most exciting as we got lost and rained on and starved and came out stinging after all. Mr. Plunkett was so kind. He gave us a house, a stove, milk, lanterns, mosquito powder and an ukulele. We got to sleep very quickly and were ready next morning after some laundry work and a hunt for the swimming pool to set out for Lower Keanae. At the grocery store we had half an hour to rest and bought things to eat when we came to the school grounds we were much pleased to see a beautiful place. We cooked our dinner among the guava bushes and when night came we played cards by candle light and sang. Our captain took us to see the stars through a field glass and we saw many which we never noticed before.

"In the morning we started another hike for our return to Kailua. Most of the scouts reached there by one and all got in by three. Just as we finished eating a big lunch of rice and eggs the cars came. Then everyone started home with leis of ferns and thimble berries. Our hats were so cute decorated with them. There was an exciting race between the Cadillac and the truck until the truck got a flat tire. But as it kindly stopped by a pineapple field nobody minded.

"When we got home you bet every one was tired but we are planning already for another camping trip.

"Scouts SUNEY HAM and KANAY FUJIMURA."

"Dear Miss Seibert—Perhaps it isn't etiquette to boast of your own troop but my kids sure were good scouts the way they tramped those 35 miles with no more than the necessary comments on the weather and the road bed."

Transportation from Wailuku and way stations to Pauwela is donated to the Girl Scouts by our Commissioner, Mrs. F. F. Baldwin. Isn't this great, girls? Aren't you glad you live on Maui? Aren't you glad we have a real friend in our commissioner?

NEW SPECIAL FEATURES

Primarily of interest to women is the special feature which Maui News inaugurates today, "Favorite Recipes of Famous Women" since the problem of catering to the family's tastes falls upon her, but in the end Friend Husband and the Children will be the beneficiaries as well since new and toothsome culinary delights will be theirs as a result of the innovation.

The opportunity has been offered to this paper to secure contributions in cooking recipes from such famous women as Mrs. Harding, first lady of the land; Mrs. Coolidge, wife of the vice-president; Mrs. Charles Evans Hughes, wife of the secretary of state; Lady Naney Astor, member of the English parliament; Mary Pickford, the popular screen star and Helen Keller and two score others. There is a series of 48 of these recipes and Maui News readers may clip them as they appear and paste them in their "cook books" where they appeal.

Another feature of interest to the home will be inaugurated in the next few weeks, probably not later than August 1. It will be an illustrated feature, an article in each issue on home decorations, known as "The Home in Good Taste" by Harold Donaldson Eberlein, a celebrated authority on interior decoration and architecture, author of "Practical Book on Interior Decoration," "Practical Book of Period Furniture," "The Architecture of Colonial America" and other works. His articles will tell not only the "How" but the "Why" of home decoration, is comprehensive, constructive, based on the questions persons actually ask, gives a workable method which even the inexperienced can follow and assists in achieving the "home harmonious."

In offering these new features Maui News will discontinue none of the special features it has been offering for the past several months.

RELIEF FURTHER DELAYED

Special dispatches from Washington to the Honolulu papers indicate that there is little hope for any immediate or even early relief of the labor shortage of the plantations of the Islands, of action by congress at the present session on the proposed legislation. A possibility is held out of action at the short session in the fall, but that is months away and should the measure then pass it would be months longer before laborers could be brought here and put on the land.

Such news occasions no surprise in the observers of the news of the day from Washington for they have foreseen it for weeks past. The Tariff, the Soldiers Bonus and the Ship Subsidy are subjects of importance that occupy the attention of the national legislators to the exclusion of practically everything else. Hawaii's affairs are of the deepest interest to Hawaii but Washington has time after time shown how little importance attaches to them there under ordinary circumstances and in times like the present when three such measures of national import are pending, measures with commanding influence on the coming congressional elections, there is neither time nor inclination for any attention to the affairs of this territory.

So the plantations will have to struggle along as best they may utilizing so much or so little labor as they are able to secure for another year at least. Conditions will be no worse than they have been in the past year, probably, but it will mean once more that the acreage that is to be cultivated will have to be curtailed. That means a smaller outturn from the Islands than there might otherwise be and smaller production means proportionately smaller gross returns.

The plantations have put the best foot forward this year and they will do so again and even under the disadvantage of inadequate labor supply, if the present price of sugar be maintained or if it still further rise, financial conditions of the industry should be better than those that have been experienced in the first half of 1922.

THE LATEST IN HYMNS

An excerpt from a letter written by one of the Territorial Heads of Department to one of our Maui County Official reads as follows:

"It is extremely important that every sector of the far-flung fighting front of the Territorial and County administration be in close and sympathetic touch with the rest of the fighting line. We are all working together for the welfare of Hawaii."

The recipient of the foregoing suggests that the above might pass for the latest verse of "Onward Christian Soldiers."

GETTING ITS STRIDE

Those who so long urged the need of a library for Maui and who worked faithfully and finally successfully to secure territorial support for such an institution can find satisfaction in the reports of its growth and progress. Everything they said as to the need of a library, the demand for it and the use of it that would be made is being substantiated by the showing that is being made.

It is less than ten months since the Maui County Free Library began to function in the old library rooms in Alexander House Settlement building. It took over the books the old library and those that were loaned to it by the Library of Hawaii from that institution's Islands service. The old books had to be catalogued, lists had to be made selectively for purchases and when the selections were made it took time to secure deliveries. Then came the moving into new quarters and their furnishing and equipping. Not nearly all that is desired has been done but all that could be expected has been accomplished. Steadily the supply of books has increased, an effort was made to serve the schools and to send books to readers away from Wailuku. Some branches were established and then more and others arranged for.

From the main library 737 readers are now taking books and the number is growing steadily week after week. More than 1700 volumes are out at the schools and branches. During the summer in Wailuku there are to be story telling hours for the children out of school that should tend to waken their interest in good reading. In the near future there will be several new branches opened and servicing and in the fall, when the schools open again, there will be about a dozen more served than now and there will be more nearly an adequate supply of juvenile works to go to them, for there have not been nearly so many volumes available for school libraries as were asked this year.

The county has supplied the building in which the library is housed and functions and is lending such financial support as it can under present financial conditions. The home is adequate for present needs and furnishes a comfortable and pleasant reading room. The Territory is supplying $20,000 for the biennial period. The growth of the library has been healthy and steady, it has made a long step toward meeting the needs in the county and its progress another year will be more rapid, its service more satisfying and its usefulness larger than it has been thus far.

It is not evident that any faction of Ireland has a clear majority in the Dail as result of the recent elections. A plurality is nice to have but to use it one has to form a combination with another in the minority.

THE FINANCIAL OUTLOOK

The demand throughout the mainland for high grade investment securities, which has developed as a result of the gradual lowering of interest rates, exhibits no signs of slackening. As a result, bond prices are steadily advancing and it appears that the time is rapidly drawing near when the opportunity to purchase high grade investment securities at prices which yield liberal returns will have passed—not to return, in all probability for many years.

It will soon be true that the investor who had foresight to accumulate conservative investment securities at present prices will be in a position to point with pride to the wisdom of his judgment.

Story Hours Will Be Held for Children at Maui Free Library

Story telling hours are to be introduced as a summer feature of the Maui County Free Library for the children of Wailuku it was decided at a meeting of the board of managers on Tuesday afternoon. The proposal was made by Miss Marion Morse, the librarian, and the board decided to give the plan a try out. There will be two such story hours weekly and Miss Frances Marshall will tell the story. A beginning will be made on Thursday, June 6.

For the story telling the children will be divided into two sections. Those of the fourth grade and under will be in the Tuesday section and those above the fourth grade will meet on Thursday mornings. The meeting hour for both will be 10 o'clock.

Under the story hour plan which has been tried thoroughly and made a fine success at the Library of Hawaii in Honolulu, the teller selects some book of the better class of literature and tells the story of it in language suited to the years and mentality of her hearers. For that purpose it is necessary to have two sections and they may not necessarily hear the stories from the same books.

Extension of branches came in for consideration at the meeting in connection with an excellent report from the librarian of her visit to the Hana district and Molokai. Branches for Puunene and Hamakua are to be arranged for in the near future.

In the month of May there were taken from the main library 400 more books than in April and the service of the branches showed similar gains.

The services of Miss Morse have been retained for the year following the first of September when her first year on Maui ends.

The Daily Fun Hour

JOCKEY DANCE

This dancing game, as arranged last summer by the present scribe is a delightfully picturesque outdoor pastime for a lawn fete or a party. The teams are made up of partners. At its original presentation, the girls were dressed in ordinary summer clothes, but wore peaked baseball caps representing jockeys. The men and boys impersonated racehorses. Every team had its own color or combination of colors. A bow of the colors was affixed to each jockey's cap and ribbons to match were passed under the arms of each "racehorse," the ends of these ribbon-reins being held by the jockey. All of the racehorses were blindfolded.

There should be a starter, a starting post and a judge, with a track marked off in a circle. Two teams start off the moment the starter says "Go!" and race around the track three times. The judge notes by his watch the time made by the winning team. Then two other teams start off and so on until all have raced, after which the judge awards a blue ribbon to the fastest team.

The blue-ribbon team then becomes head couple for a trotting dance, all still in harness, but with the bandages removed from the eyes of the racehorses. The music may be "Darktown Races" or any other quick step, with a change of partners at each round until every jockey has danced with every racehorse in the circle.

DREAMLAND ADVENTURES

Wishing Night

By DADDY
Copyright 1921, by Public Ledger Co.

Jack and Janet are called out of bed by Perky Squirrel, who says Bucky Beaver is going to drown all the forest folks with a big dam he is building. They go with Perky Squirrel to see the dam.

CHAPTER II

Bucky Beaver's Big Dam

DRIP! Drip! Drip! The melting snow water dropped from the pine trees like slow rain. Trickle! Trickle! Little streams ran down the hillsides to join other little streams on their way into other little streams on their way into forest brooks and creeks.

The South Wind had brought a great thaw to the woods. The balmy air whispered promises of the coming of spring the melting snows kiesel good-by to the grasses and flowers they had sheltered from Old Man Winter all through the freezing months.

Jack and Janet were glad the South Wind had come. They were anxious to have him bring back the birds and sunshine and pleasant days.

"What a dandy skating pond," cried Jack. "I wish we had found this place before the thaw began."

But as Jack and Janet rode their ponies through the woods after Perky Squirrel, they were worried. Supposing Perky Squirrel's warning were true—supposing Bucky Beaver and his family really were building a dam to drown all the forest folks. Then the dripping, trickling snow water might be made to fill the woods with a flood. And the flood might do untold harm.

Perky Squirrel led them to the deep valley where he had his home in a nest high among the branches of a tall tree. Through this valley gurgled a small creek.

Perky Squirrel chattered loudly when he saw the creek. "There, you see how high the water is getting," he squeaked. "That is the creek Bucky Beaver is damming to flood the forest."

Jack and Janet looked anxiously at the creek. It seemed very harmless as its waters glistened in the moonlight. Jack laughed in relief. "Ha! Ha! That little creek couldn't drown a cat," he said.

"Ek! Ek! Don't you laugh," scolded Perky Squirrel. "What turns little creeks into big rivers?"

Janet had an answer for that. "Why when a lot of springs and brooks flow into a little creek they make it into a big river," she said.

"Ek! Ek! That is right," said Perky Squirrel. "And supposing that big river gets dammed so the waters can't get away—what happens then?"

"The water backs up and makes a lake," put in Jack. "To be sure. That is what I have been trying to tell you," chattered Perky Squirrel. "Don't you see all the little streams of melting snow water pouring into the creek. Don't you know that soon they will make it a big river?"

"Yes," agreed Jack. The creek and the tiny streams trickling into it did not look so harmless now.

"Well, before you laugh again come and see what Bucky Beaver is doing," snapped Perky Squirrel.

Jack and Janet followed him until they came to a place where the creek spread out into a pond which was covered with ice.

"What a dandy skating pond," cried Jack. "I wish we had found this place before the thaw began."

"Ek! Ek! That isn't a skating pond. That is a swimming pool!" declared Perky Squirrel.

"Whose swimming pool?" asked Janet.

"Bucky Beaver's swimming pool," replied Perky Squirrel. "And how he is turning it into a big flood by building his dam higher. See him at work there!"

Perky Squirrel pointed to the opposite side of the pond. Sure enough, Jack and Janet could see a dam, and at work on the dam, building it up, were half a dozen strange animals.

(In Tuesday's chapter Jack and Janet learn of Bucky Beaver's bold plot.)

Gentlemen: We are glad to advise you that XXXX Nickel Rabbit was used in the UNION Engine which are installed in the non-rigid dirigible "No. 7". The "No. 7" recently made a successful flight and attracted the attention of the delegates of the Peace Conference, while circling over Washington, particularly because of the fact that it was said to contain the world's supply of "Helium" gas.
The "No. 7", a sister ship of the "No. 5", which holds the world's non-stop record for non-rigid dirigibles, was also equipped with UNION Engines and XXXX Nickel Rabbit was used in their bearings. The bearings of both UNION Engines which established world's records in the United States Aeronautical Testing Laboratory in competition with American and foreign-made engines were of XXXX Nickel Rabbit. In fact, we have used this Rabbit for bearings for many years, both with airplane and marine engines, and have never received a single complaint. — which certainly speaks highly for your metal.

'Mother O' Mine' Will Be Big Weeks Play At Hippodrome

Many books, poems and songs have been written and dedicated to Mother. There is not one of us that cannot look back to the day when we would run to Mother in our troubles of childhood days and always find that loving sympathy that only a Mother can give.

Years slip by and as she watches us grow from her baby into men and women and go forth into the world to fight life's great battle. With pride she watches her baby climb upwards towards success or some must bear the pain of seeing them fall. But through it all there is one thing that never fails, that a Mother's love. Thomas H Ince in his greatest picture since "Civilization", the picture that has stirred the hearts of all, shows in "Mother O' Mine" that great something in a Mother's love that even authors have failed to put in words.

It is a picture that all should see and when you have seen it you will realize even better than ever how great is a Mother's love. "Mother O' Mine" opens at the Wailuku Hipp Wednesday the 28th. In addition to this seven reel feature production "Pop" Hutton the boy scout executive on Maui will sing the song, "Mother Machree." The reserve seat sale will open at the Maui Drug Co. on Monday the 26th. Be sure and see this beautiful production.

"CONFLICT"

Love, hate, anger and joy all find an outlet in the gripping story "Conflict," which will bring the beautiful Priscilla Dean to the Hipp Theatre on Saturday.

Priscilla Dean fans, who have been anxiously awaiting the star's latest picture, after having enjoyed "Reputation" so thoroughly, will be more than repaid for their patient vigil.

This Universal Jewel production is supreme in its detail and technicalities, a great deal of time having been spent on finding desirable locations for the North Woods scenes. That they are true in every detail will be readily observed even by the most expert woodsman.

Scene from "CONFLICT" UNIVERSAL JEWEL featuring Priscilla Dean

"Conflict" presents a cast worthy of note, including, as leading man, Herbert Rawlinson, one of the best known players of the screen, Edward Connelly, Hector Sarno, Martha Mattox, L. C. Shumway, Sam Allen, Capt. C. E. Anderson, Milton Brown and Bill Gibbs.

Stuart Paton, the well-known director of "Reputation," also directed this picture. Many of the most important sequences of the narrative were taken in British Columbia, where accurate scenes in the logging industry were obtained. The atmospheric background of the story is said to be startling in its exactness.

Dynamiting a log jam was one of the exciting incidents of the expedition. It was faithfully caught by the camera and will give a mighty thrill to playgoers.

"THE BIG PUNCH"

Admirers of Buck Jones evidently have a great treat in store for them in his newest William Fox production, "The Big Punch."

From the stout-hearted Bim in "Just Pals" and the fighting cowboy in "Two Moons" Buck changes to a tender but stout-hearted circuit rider of the hills, who fights in other ways than with the six-shooter. This latest story presents the wholesome young star in a character that should win the hearts of all.

Buck Jones never has appeared in a more affecting story than in "The Big Punch," written by Jules G. Furthman. It is a story of devotion and self-sacrifice for mother, brother, and a little Salvation Army lassie.

"THE PENALTY"

How the blunder of a young doctor in needlessly cutting off both his legs when he was a little boy, so embittered a man, that his life became a cunning campaign of hate and destruction for society, is the graphic theme of "The Penalty," the new Goldwyn Picture by Gouverneur Morris.

"Blizzard" (Lon Chaney), broods always over that terrible moment when, after the accident, he was coming out from under the ether and heard the older surgeon accuse his young assistant of having needlessly wrecked the boy's life by amputating both his legs. Blizzard has become a power in the underworld of San Francisco. He lives in an alley on the Barbary Coast, San Francisco, where he is hatching a gigantic plot to loot the city. He also laid a cunning plan, laid to entrap "Barbara Ferris" (Claire Adams), daughter of Doctor Ferris (Charles Clary), who is now a great surgeon and whom Blizzard knows as the man who cut off his legs.

By a fake telephone message telling Dr. Ferris that Barbara is at his house, he gets "Wilmot" (her suitor), there and throws him through a trap door into the cellar. Then he summons Dr. Ferris and makes the amazing proposal that the eminent surgeon amputate Wilmot's legs and graft them onto him (Blizzard). The keen surgeon sees that Blizzard is mad, but pretends to accede to his request. He puts him under ether, but instead operates for pressure on the brain, caused by the same accident in his boyhood, which lost him his legs. Blizzard awakens, an entirely different man, softened, gentle, with memory of his former existence appearing only as a bad nightmare.

Fate, in the shape of a bullet fired by one of his former accomplices, cuts short Blizzard's chance to live a right life, and he pays the penalty of his mad career.

"THE GREAT ACCIDENT"

If Tom Moore were running for Mayor of this town, would he get your vote? We have been told that Tom Moore's radiant smile would guarantee a certain proportion of the feminine vote in any community.

At any rate he's given a chance to prove it in his latest picture, "The Great Accident," shown at the Hipp theatre next Thursday. In the picture, Tom Moore plays the part of a reckless, happy-go-lucky ne'er-do-well whose name was placed on the ballot as a practical joke on his father. They said that only a great accident could elect him—and sure enough it happened! You'll like this picture. Come and see it!

TOM MOORE in "The Great Accident"

NEXT WEEKS FEATURES

Next weeks program that opens at the Wailuku Hippodrome next Saturday is one of the best offered for some time. Carl Laemmle presents Priscilla Dean as the star in his Universal Jewel Super Production "Conflict" Miss Dean will be remembered by the wonderful acting in "Outside the Law," "Once To Every Woman" and "Reputation." She will be seen now in "Conflict" and in the very near future her latest production "Wild Honey" will be shown.

The Paramount feature which opens next Wednesday will be the Thomas H. Ince masterpiece "Mother O' Mine" which is considered by the reviewers to be the best thing he has produced since "Civilization." "Mother O' Mine" is a story that brings home to us all, that, which we are sometimes apt to forget, the great devotion of a Mother's love. The writer sat through this picture at the Liberty in Honolulu twice and booked it as a special feature in order that the Maui circuit would get an early showing of this seven reel masterpiece.

It is the sincere wish of the management that every Man, Woman and Child on Maui will see "Mother O' Mine" and with this splendid feature "Pop" Hutton will sing "Mother Machree" at the Hippodrome Wednesday the 28th. So be sure and book your seats at the Maui Drug Co. at no advance in prices.

Commencing Sunday July 2nd, The Kahului Theatre will open for Sunday shows and will run every other Sunday evening, the opening feature will be the big Universal Jewel Super production in seven reels featuring Priscilla Dean in the play "Conflict". The management has arranged to show a special feature every other Sunday at Kahului Theatre and Maui fans may always be sure of seeing a feature program on this night.

Curing Johnnie

"Tom," said his wife, "I don't believe you smoked one of those cigars I gave you on your birthday."
"That's right my dear," he replied. "I'm going to keep them until our Johnnie wants to learn to smoke."—Boston Transcript.

Sunday Schools Hold Fine Rally Paia Hawaiian Church

With over two hundred kiddies and grown folks attending, the Hamakua, Hailu, Huelo, and Kaheka Sunday schools gathered last Sunday at the Paia Hawaiian church for a days social outing. Singing by many of the different classes was the feature of the entertainment program and greatly enjoyed. Later a genuine Hawaiian prepared luau was spread and served to all the gathering and the Sunday school committee requests that Maui News thank Mr. Harold Rice through its news columns for the generous gift of 200 pounds of pork that made the luau possible.

'GOOD MEN' GOING BAD

LOS ANGELES, June 22—(Associated Press)—Reverend Donald Stewart a temperance worker who is credited with having caused the elimination of segregated districts in several California towns and author of the song, "We'll make California Dry," was arrested tonight and charged with committing bigamy in several states. It is charged he defrauded his several wives of many thousands of dollars.

Maui High School Holds Its Seventh Commencement Night

Its seventh annual commencement exercises were held by Maui High School Wednesday night in the Paia Community House where diplomas were presented to 12 graduates with ceremonies appropriate to the ending of their school days and their advent into a larger life. For the occasion the hall had been beautifully decorated by the Junior Class with the school and class colors and the class flower golden shower, was used in profusion. Quantities of other flowers were presented to the graduates in the course of the exercises and at the close.

Rev. A. W. Palmer of Central Union Church, Honolulu, was the chief speaker of the evening, delivering the address to the graduates. He took for his topic "Obedience" and urged obedience to ideals as well as to the law. In the course of his remarks he found occasion to bring out forcibly the point of obedience to the prohibition law whether one advocated its enactment or not.

One change in the previously arranged program was made, the diplomas were awarded by Rev. E. E. Pleasant instead of Commissioner D. C. Lindsay.

Edward Beckwith Hair, the class president, who delivered the words of welcome for his class, will attend the University of Hawaii next year. He was the winner of the $100 scholarship awarded by the Maui Woman's Club.

Bernice Corell was a sweet salutarian and Ruth Lei Aloha Whitehead made history interesting with a charming grace. David P. Penhallow was the prophet of his class forecasting great things for his fellow graduates. Helen Sara Palmatier read the class will which bequeathed the joys and sorrows and responsibilities to the classes to come and Richard Penhallow delivered an excellent valedictory address. The opening prayer was delivered by Rev. E. E. Pleasant and the benediction by Rev. J. C. Villiers. The singing by the Glee Club was especially enjoyed.

The graduates were: Edward Beckwith Hair, class president; Ruth Lei Aloha Whitehead, vice-president; Ralph Douglas Baldwin, secretary-treasurer; Richard Penhallow, valedictorian; Bernice Corell, salutarian; Christine Catherine Williams, Kiwo Soong, Yone Yoshimoto, David Pearce Penhallow, Helen Sara Palmatier, Ngan Kin Lun, Flora Lulu Nunes.

Kahului Parents Hear Of Kindergarten Work

In lieu of holding closing exercises by the Children of the Kahului kindergarten, owing to Mrs. Konda being busy preparing Japanese language school teachers for their examinations, a meeting of parents of the children attending the kindergarten was held last night, members of the kindergarten committee speaking on various subjects of interest to the parents.

Receipts from March to June were told of by Mr. Kinoshita, the treasurer. Mr. Onishi spoke on the organization of the kindergarten and Rev. E. E. Pleasant gave the history of the institution from the time of its inception. Mrs. Tanabe of the Kahului language school thanked the committee and Maui Aid and the teachers for all they have done for the parents.

Mrs. Konda told of the equipment that has been purchased and brought in since March, all paid for and still leaving a balance of $10 in the treasury for such purposes.

Rev. E. E. Pleasant showed motion pictures and stereoscopic slides and refreshments of punch, cake and cookies were served. A solo was prettily sung by Mrs. Smythe.

Much credit is given Mrs. Konda and Miss Cabral her assistant for the success achieved. Miss Cabral has handled from 40 to 45 children from 2 to 3 1/2 years of age since she came to the kindergarten.

Graduated While Far Away From Harvard University

Graduated though thousands of miles away from the institution where he completed his course is the experience of Dick Linton. Commencement exercises were held at Harvard this week and among the graduates of the class of 1922 the name of Linton appears. The graduation exercises at which the degree of A. B. comes to him is almost to the day four years from his graduation from Maui High School.

This class is the "war class" of Harvard which was badly disrupted by the entrance of the United States into the war. Linton might, had he applied for it, been advanced to the class of 1921 but he had sentimental reasons for not leaving the class of '22. He was given a leave of absence for a year and recently received word the leave was ended and his "sheepskin" would be forwarded to him. He completed his college work about a year ahead of time.

CONFERS DEGREES

NEW HAVEN, June 22—(Associated Press)—Yale celebrating its 221 commencement conferred honorary degrees upon several including Fu Chun Gen, principal of the Yale medical college in China.

FIRE DESTROYS HEARST ANNEX

BERKELEY, June 22—(Associated Press)—Hearst Hall annex was destroyed by fire of unknown origin. Patients were removed from a nearby hospital which for a time was threatened by the flames. Loss is estimated at $100,000 in damage to Hearst Hall and the women's gymnasium.

Informality With Novelties to Mark Dinner Thursday

Set speeches will be few at the dinner which the Maui Chamber of Commerce and the Maui County Fair and Racing Association will extend to former secretary of those organizations Judge D. H. Case next Thursday night at the Grand Hotel. The committee and the toast master, J. Garcia, William Walsh, H. B. Penhallow and J. J. Walsh met yesterday morning and went over the plans. Several novelties have been arranged for the program.

One speech on behalf of the Chamber of Commerce and one for the Fair and Racing Association constitute all the set talks for it is desired to get away from formality. There will be several short talks, three to five minutes and a skit is being prepared for the occasion that will furnish plenty of fun. There will also be rendered an epic dedicated to Judge Case and Miss Alma Ross will dance and Miss Eva Rodriguez Maui's sweet young singer is expected to render a solo. During the intermissions there will be music by a six piece Hawaiian orchestra.

Just what the skit will be the committee declines to announce but it has leaked out that there will be plenty of fun and humor in it. Neither will the toastmaster say upon whom he will call for the shorter talks. At the committee meeting there was also a report on the menu that is to be furnished which met the satisfaction of all the members.

Mrs. Russell Bridgeford reports that cards making reservations are coming in more rapidly. Preparations are being made for from 200 to 300. Members of the organizations have the privilege of bringing wives or other members of the family or house guests.

Writ of Error For Cleofe Ruiz Denied

(ASSOCIATED PRESS) HONOLULU June 22—The supreme court has denied the application for a writ of error and a new trial on behalf of Cleofe Ruiz, convicted of murder in the circuit court of Maui.

Ruiz was convicted of murder several weeks ago and the application for the writ was made by a firm of Honolulu attorneys. He was sentenced to serve a term of 20 years imprisonment.

Confederate Veterans Assail Lincoln As Cause Civil War

RICHMOND, Virginia June 22—The United Confederate Veterans unanimously adopted the historical committees report that "War between the states was deliberately and personally concurred by Lincoln and that he, personally, was responsible for forcing war upon the South." The report recommended the use in the schools of the South the history of the civil war as written by Colonel Huger Johnston of Curryville, Georgia.

Pertinent Paragraphs

Committed as Insane—Mrs. Mitsui Tanaka was committed to the insane asylum in Honolulu by Magistrate Pacheco of Makawao on Wednesday. Alexander House Settlement—Notices have issued for the annual meeting of Alexander House Settlement Association at which trustees will be elected on June 30. Tenders are Sought—Bids for the construction of a sisters' cottage at Malulani Hospital are sought by the county. Tenders will be opened at 2 o'clock Friday July 14. Accident Board Meets—The Maui Industrial Accident Board held a postponed meeting yesterday morning and made awards in two cases in addition to the transaction of routine business. Bail is Forfeited—Nakama of Ulumalu charged with having in his possession a still and about five gallons of mash forfeited $100 bail by failure to appear in Magistrate Pacheco's Makawao Court. L. D. S. Luau—A Luau for the benefit of the Latter Day Saints will be held at the Kahului Community House on Saturday, July 1. Many little features are being planned and a good time is assured to all who attend. Commencement Exercises Today—Wailuku Public School is holding its graduation exercises this morning. The program was to start at 10 o'clock and has been carefully prepared and rehearsed. There is a large attendance at the exercises. Pheasants are Released—Two crates of half grown pheasants arrived for Maui from Honolulu on the Mauna Kea Wednesday and were brought over from Lahaina and taken up the mountain for release. There are about 50 half grown young birds. Puunene Exercises—Graduation exercises for Puunene school were held in the Puunene Armory, were well attended and a well arranged program was excellently rendered. The copy of the program was not received this morning until too late for publication. Sugar From Hana—The Annie Johnson was at Hana this week and loaded 2500 bags of sugar from Kilauea and Kaeleku. She sailed Wednesday night. Returning Wailuku on the Kilauea report that in the rush of loading a car of sugar went into the harbor and was lost. Assault and Battery—Walter B. Okamoto a Japanese of Kahului was arrested on Monday and charged with assault and battery on the person of B. Hamashige. He was released on $25 bail which was forfeit when he failed to appear for trial Tuesday morning. Verdict for the Defendant—in the case of Borge vs Haiku Fruit Company which occupied the attention of the circuit court the early part of the week a verdict for the defendant was brought in by the Jury Wednesday afternoon. Eugene Murphy was for the plaintiff and Enos Vincent for the defense. Alumni Reunion—The second annual reunion of St. Anthony School Alumni will be held on the school grounds, on July 15th, 1922 at 7 p. m. Notices will be sent out only to members of the Alumni Association. But those who wish to join may write to Ahu Wong, Recording Secretary, Wailuku for further particulars, not later than July 1st, 1922. Picnic up Valley—Yesterday the first four grades of Wailuku school went picnicking up Iao Valley with their teachers Misses L. M. Bourg, Edith Parson and Ellen Copp in charge. Transportation was furnished by the Wailuku Sugar Company, there was abundance of "eats", including ice cream and the children Birds Attract Attention—in the Maui Drug Company's store parrots, love birds and other gay feathered birds, ready for delivery have been attracting notice for the past few days. They are some of the birds mentioned as having been brought over from Honolulu by Holt and Lacey about a week ago. School Picnic Enjoyed—Pupils of the third grade of Wailuku Public school, with their teachers, Mrs. Holt and Mrs. Trask, went on a picnic to Waihee Tuesday where they enjoyed games, swimming and an out of door lunch. They say they had a perfectly splendid time and thank the Wailuku Sugar Company for the trucks furnished to carry them to the beach and home again.

Waihee Case Peculiar—Reports came from Waihee Tuesday afternoon that a woman was nearly drowned and Dr. Osmer hurried to the scene of the reported near tragedy. Reports say that a Japanese woman had tied a string around her neck, attached a rock to it and seated herself in the water with intent to drown herself but the water was too shallow, barely coming to her chin. Kahului School Picnic—Sounds of children's voices in happy song rang out yesterday morning from Kahului up through Wailuku and on into Iao Valley as several truck loads of children from the Kahului School made the journey from sea to mountains. Mrs. W. H. Engle, who is substituting as principal of the school for William Hoopli entertained them with the picnic, the merchants of the East Maui port furnishing the trucks for transportation. Lunch was taken along and they had the happiest sort of day. Kanda Home Commencement—The bazaar and sale at the Kanda home will open at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, in order that the local town people can visit the home, look over the spacious grounds and building and visit the bazaar before their dinner hour. In the evening it is expected that many of the parents of the girls will be present. The program and entertainment will be given at 7 o'clock to which all are invited. During the afternoon and evening a tea room will be conducted where refreshments will be served. Change in Mail Service—Postmaster A. F. Costa of Wailuku announces that the Kilauea will not go to Hana and Maui on Tuesday July 11, but will return to Honolulu the same day at 11 p. m., one day in advance of regular schedule. There will be no mail for Honolulu on Wednesday, July 12, unless something unforeseen happens. On the return trip from Honolulu, the Kilauea will leave one day in advance of regular schedule, arriving at Kahului on Friday morning, the 7th, instead of Saturday and will proceed on to Hana and Makukona, returning to Kahului in time for her regular Saturday schedule.

Excavations Started Above Old Colophon

(ASSOCIATED PRESS) ATHENS, April 12—(Associated Press Mail)—American scientists have begun excavations upon the ancient site of Colophon, in Asia Minor. The work is being conducted jointly by the Fogg Museum of Art, of Harvard University, and the American School of Classical Studies at Athens, the former represented by Miss Hetty Goldman of Bryn Mawr, and the latter by Dr. Carl W. Blegen, of Yale. Colophon lies about half way between Smyrna and Ephesus. The school was awarded its two annual fellowships, each carrying $1,000 for a year. One goes to Franklin Clark Fry of Hamilton College, and the other to Philip Haldane Davis, of Princeton University. These men will reside in Athens next year as students of the school.

Lottery Policy for Allotting Lands Is Found Sad Failure

(ASSOCIATED PRESS) HONOLULU, June 9.—Governor Farrington and George Cooke expressed hope in the opinion of elimination of speculation in future homesteading by replacing the present lottery system by a method of selection which may be one result of the experience gained from the rehabilitation project which would revolutionize homesteading in the territory. Opinions expressed during the conference of the homes commission by Dr. Elwood Mead and Farrington said the homesteading conditions in Hawaii differ from those of the mainland and Farrington is quoted in part as follows: "In the territory we are striving for conditions under which the homesteader will develop his own land. The development of the commissions work will have a very definite and powerful effect on homesteading in the future." Cooke expressed the opinion that "The lottery system is the outstanding defect in our homesteading laws." The Waiakea controversy was discussed and Farrington pointed out the parties concerned had finally found a solution. Farrington indicated he did not favor the idea of placing the homesteaders house lots several miles from their holdings. Mead will probably leave for Molokai about June 13.

Market Prices

(From Extension of June 20) The following price quotations are obtained from several large wholesale dealers in Honolulu, and represent approximately the prices which they are paying to producers for Hawaiian agricultural products. We cannot guarantee these prices but believe they represent approximately the present price levels. For the benefit of local producers the San Francisco prices on certain articles are also quoted here. Animal Products: Beef remains at 16 to 17c lb. (dressed weight), but a drop in this price is predicted in the near future due to an over supplied market. Pork (liveweight) is strong at 25c lb., with the market somewhat short. Chickens steady at prices quoted last week, 40 to 45c lb. (live weight) for broilers and 55 to 65c lb. for roasters. Eggs moving upward, 60 to 65c dozen, the supply somewhat short. Produce and Fruits: Bananas, 2 to 3c lb. by the bunch (according to quality) 4 1/2c lb. by the hand. Exporters are getting 2 1/2 to 3 1/2c lb. F. O. B. Honolulu. Cabbages a little stronger, 2 1/2 to 3c lb., the supply rather short now. Cucumbers steady at about 40c doz. for average size. Papayas 1 to 1 1/2c lb., very plentiful and quality improving. Peas (avocado) a little lower, variable from 2 1/2 to 10c, according to size and quality. Pineapples 2 to 2 1/2c lb. Potatoes (sweet) recovered a little, 2 to 2 1/2c lb. Irish potatoes 3 to 3 1/2c lb. (Hawaiian grown). String beans about 3 1/2c lb. Tomatoes down to 1 to 1 1/2c lb., the market well supplied. Watermelons up, from 6 to 8c lb., according to size and quality. Hawaiian grown corn does not enter much into local trade. In San Francisco yellow corn is quoted at $33 to $34 per ton.
