Irwin To Sell Beach Property Deal Pending By Which Valuable Realty Will Go To Other Holders

Previous to his departure for the Coast, Wm. G. Irwin will probably close one of the most important deals in beach property that has been carried through in many years. Arrangements are reported to be all but complete whereby Mr. Irwin will dispose of his valuable beach property at a figure that will approach a total of $150,000. The Henry Waterhouse Trust Company, through which it is understood the deal is being carried out, would give no authorized statement in connection with the matter. It was generally reported on the street yesterday afternoon that G. P. Castle and J. A. McCandless were among the purchasers of the property, but the details of the transaction can not be confirmed. It has been known for some time that Mr. Irwin wished to dispose of his splendid property along the beach, and a number of Honolulu people will take advantage of the opportunity to secure beach homes.

Beckley Attacks Thurston Policy Prohibition Leader Declares Advertiser Owner Is Not Sincere In Support

A sensational attack upon the honesty of purpose inspiring Lorrin A. Thurston, proprietor of the Advertiser, was delivered at the prohibition meeting last night at Aala Park by Fred Beckley, the Hawaiian leader of the prohibition propaganda. In supporting the platform of the prohibition league, Beckley denied that Thurston wanted prohibition for the Territory but has come forward to advocate it because he feels sure that the advocacy of the Advertiser for the cause will insure its defeat, thereby placing in the hands of the supporters of Government by Commission a weapon which Beckley contended might be of some assistance to them in presenting a case as to why Hawaii should be robbed of its independence as an American community and a commission form of Government instituted. Beckley is the acknowledged leader of the few Hawaiian advocates and his remarkable explanation of Thurston's attitude—remarkable primarily because of the statement that the defeat of prohibition would tend toward the establishment of a commission form of government in Hawaii. Beckley's speech was aimed to show that Thurston is not a true prohibitionist and in that way bring the Hawaiians back to the fold who might be led away from the support of prohibition because Thurston is the leading advocate and the author of the platform upon which the people vote next Tuesday. The meeting last night was a failure, there being about four hundred persons present. A number of pictures of intoxicated persons were thrown upon the screen but Liliuokalani, who was interpreting for Mr. Ryder, observed that the pictures were of haoles on the mainland and had nothing to do with the Hawaiians. This remark struck the crowd as being distinctly humorous and Ryder was considerably surprised at the laughter, there being nothing particularly funny in the "rum and ruin" picture that was then upon the screen.

MILLIONAIRES, MUSICIANS AND MONKEYS ARE IN TRANSIT FROM ANTIPODES

With multimillionaires occupying luxurious suites, musicians and vaudeville talent adding their mite to the gaiety of the second cabin, and a medley of noises emanating from a company of trained dogs and monkeys, the Canadian-Australian liner Makura has proved an interesting ship and a welcome visitor to the port today. Captain J. Gibbs brought the fine liner off the quarantine before 6 o'clock this morning. The Federal officers boarded the vessel and rounded up the large number of sleepy passengers, routing a number from an extended enjoyment of their morning bath. It was a heartless mandate that issued from the delegation of quarantine officers who must feel the traveling pulse ere a visitor is permitted to step ashore and enjoy the glories to be found on inspection in these Isles of the West.

BULLETIN PARTY STARTS TOUR ON WILHELMINA

Seven members of the Bulletin California-Yosemite party sail tomorrow for San Francisco and the Yosemite on the steamship Wilhelmina. The young women have been busy the past two weeks getting ready for the trip that gives every promise of being a most happy one for all of them. Mrs. Beggs, the chaperone, is the only member of the party who has ever been away from her island home before. She has toured the Yosemite and knows the way. The others were all born in the Islands and their previous travels have been confined to inter-island trips. On arrival in San Francisco the young ladies will go to the Hotel Manx that is rapidly becoming the favorite headquarters for island people. Manager Larm makes a specialty of looking after Hawaii folk and he will see that the Bulletin party is well cared for in every respect. The time for making the Yosemite trip will be decided after arriving in San Francisco. Miss Mary McCabe will join them and the whole party will travel together in seeing the magnificent scenery of California's most beautiful valley. The return trip will be made on the Wilhelmina, arriving here the early part of September, although some of the party may decide to remain in the city longer and visit with friends.

5000 WANT MORE WAGES

MONTREAL, Canada, July 19.—Five thousand trainmen of the Grand Trunk railway went out on strike today. They demand higher wages.

At a cost to the Federal government of about $15,000, the grand jury of the Federal Court, during the months of April, May and June, returned twenty-four true bills, thirteen of which were for adultery or violation of the Edmunds Act. The largest expense attached in that of jurors' and witnesses' fees and for the keep of prisoners in jail. This latter item has amounted to several thousand dollars during the past three months and will amount to more, as many are now being held for trial after September 1. There were a large number of prisoners, charged with minor offenses who were unable to secure bail and so were committed to the county prison to await trial. The strenuous work of the jury is shown when the figures for the indictments are seen. Two indictments were returned under the Edmunds Act eleven for adultery, three for placing non-mailable matter in the mails, two for poisoning United States property, three for

ADMIRAL BECKLEY'S WILL FILED AND THE ESTATE IS VALUED AT OVER $150,000

More than $150,000 is the value of the estate left by George C. Beckley whose will was filed late yesterday, and the income from the whole amount goes to the widow as long as she lives. This morning Judge Robinson appointed Mrs. Mary C. Beckley temporary administratrix until the will could be heard for probate and its provisions carried out in reference to those who will have charge of the estate. She will be allowed $200 monthly until such time as final action is taken by the court. The will of Admiral Beckley was made on June 4 of this year just a few days before he sailed for the coast on the last trip he took alive, and by its provisions the widow gets the entire income as long as she lives. Mary C. Beckley, Henry P. Beckley and Bruce Cartwright, Sr. are named as administratrix, administrator and trustees, and in case of death of either or their inability to perform the duties devolving upon them the remaining two may elect another with the consent of Miss Juanita Beckley. Under the provisions of the will the widow receives all jewelry, household effects, silver and other effects of the deceased, the remaining property, real and personal, going to the trustees under the condition that as long as she lives the widow is to have the income from the entire estate. Upon her death one-third of the principal of the estate goes to Henry P. Beckley and one-third to George C. Beckley, they to have this amount in full. To the daughter, Juanita, however, the remaining third comes under conditions different. The income from this remaining third is to be hers as long as she lives, and if she marries her husband has no claim upon it whatever. At the time of her death the principal of this third goes absolutely to her children if there are any, and if not it is divided between the two sons equally. The total estate as given in court records is real estate to the amount of $50,000 and personal property including stocks and bonds, automobiles and other articles to the total value of $107,000. LAND OFFICE NEARLY READY

Everything Is Made Convenient For Applicants

Perhaps late today Governor Frear will issue the proclamation throwing open public lands for homestead, but it is doubtful if the proclamation will be issued until tomorrow or the following day.

During both the morning and afternoon today the Governor has been going over the question and the papers involved looking at the lands designated for this first opening and asking questions about points which are not quite familiar and it may be possible that he will not be able to finish today.

The Organic Act provides that the first opening of lands must be made before January 1 of next year and so lands which were surveyed several years ago are the first to be thrown open to the public.

There are four survey parties now in the field being out on other lands and as soon as they finish with large enough tracts these will be thrown open to homestead.

"We want to make this opening of public lands as convenient as possible to applicants," said Governor Frear this morning, "and to that end we are going into all details thoroughly before the lands are thrown open so that there will be no misunderstandings or trouble afterward."

In order to make the provisions of taking up land local in nature instead of centralizing everything in Honolulu many outside land offices are to be opened and at any one of these applicants may file applications for land on any island in the Territory. Full detail maps of all land to be open will be on file in each office so that any who wish may see all there is.

In the next registration it is expected that an office will be open in San Francisco or some other coast city so that persons there desiring to take land may do so.

ARE TO SAIL NEXT TUESAY

Brinckerhoff and Anderson Leave for States On Chiyo Maru

Dr. Brinckerhoff and Attorney Anderson will sail from Honolulu next Tuesday on the Chiyo Maru for Japan, en route to Boston and New York.

The trip will be a hurried one, as Dr. Brinckerhoff must be in Cambridge early in September to take up his work at Harvard, and for the two men will go directly, via the Trans-Siberian route, to Moscow and Paris, and thence to the States.

Leaving here on July 26, they will arrive in Yokohama on August 5, and will take the train at that point for Kobe, perhaps staying a couple of days en route to see Tokio, Osaka and one or two other interesting cities.

From Kobe the trip will be resumed by steamer through the Indian Sea and across to Fusan, in Southern Korea, thence by rail north through Seoul, and onward to Harbin, where connections will be made with the trunk line to Moscow.

But little time will be spent in Europe, as both men wish to reach the States as soon as possible.

WHO HAS DAIRY TO GIVE AWAY

Could Lecture On Hawaii Or Start Dairy At Honolulu

After writing four pages describing her accomplishments and asking assistance with views and literature to lecture on Hawaii through seven States west of the Mississippi in order to buy a home for some children whose father is no longer able to work Mrs. Van Riper of Los Angeles says she would like to come to Hawaii and start a dairy.

The letter received by the Promotion Committee is the most unique of anything which has come to hand in a long time, and perhaps the gem of the whole thing is in the postscript which occupies a full page.

Mrs. Rose Miles Van Riper tells of the big hearted men of Hawaii and in asking for the help of the committee in the lecture tour during which, incidentally, she is to represent the San Francisco Examiner in getting subscriptions, she says that in the brotherhood of man the only simon pure articles live in Hawaii.

Her exact words in the postscript are: "For I have seen His star in the east and know that His strongest brothers are among the dwellers on His three-blessed Isles of the Pacific."

After telling how she would like to "spend hours in the surf and gallop over hills and through valleys and inhale the perfume of flowers and grass as the hoofs of the horse stir them in the wind and they give welcome to the rider with the breath of their dew-laden odor," Mrs. Van Riper says that she is a butter maker and would come here to start a first class dairy near Honolulu where tired city folks might get the real article in fresh bread and butter made by her hands to say nothing of delicious buttermilk.

"I would like to have a first class butter dairy near Honolulu and would come with a herd of Alderneys and Guernsey Jerseys for butter, and Holsteins for cheese and I would have buttermilk for the tired city folk and fresh bread and butter. Look at my hands in the picture and see if they could not make nice 'pats' of grainy butter of a 'pinkie-gold' hue," she concludes.

Inclosed with the letter is a photograph of a woman of about forty years carrying a large bunch of flowers, with a sweet smile wreathing her lips and eyes turned heavenward in a most rapt expression.

With Less Than Half a Minute to Spare, His Life is Saved.

TRENTON, N. J., July 3.—With less than half a minute to spare, Arthur Rose was saved from the electric chair tonight by a stay signed by Judge Minturn on a moving train and thrown from the window to the condemned man's lawyer.

Rose was strapped in the chair and the electrician was waiting, his hand on the switch, for the second signal to send 2100 volts through the body of the wife murderer, when the frantic cry "Stop! Stop!" A stay!" rang through the death chamber.

WATERFRONT NOTES
ACCORDING to a report from San Francisco Chief Officer M. P. Bailey of the Pacific Mail steamship China has been granted a leave of absence and will visit his old home in Maine. He was relieved on the China by F. J. Follette, who was first mate on the Panama steamer Peru. W. K. Clark, who was formerly freight clerk on the Pacific Mail liner Siberia, is now occupying the position of purser on the new steamer Beaver of the San Francisco-Portland Steamship Company. He succeeds "Jimmie" Byrnes, who, after twenty years in the same service, has a greater love for the steamer Rose City than for the new Beaver and her sister ship, the Bear. Byrnes sought a transfer so he could rejoin his old shipmates, Captain Mason and others, on the Rose City.

A LARGE number of passengers left for Hilo and the Volcano at ten o'clock this morning by the Inter-island steamer Mauna Kea. The vessel carried mails for various ports of call including points along windward Hawaii. The early sailing of the steamer brings mail and passengers at Hilo at an early hour on Wednesday morning and a prompt transfer to the train insures a quick dispatch to points beyond the Volcano house. The new and improved sailing schedule under which the Mauna Kea is now operated is greatly appreciated by the business interests of Hawaii as well as Honolulu.

IN ORDER to view the wonders of the Volcano, the French cruiser Montcalm now at this port will sail for Hilo on Thursday according to present plans. The vessel will remain at the Hawaii port for several days before departing for Seattle and San Francisco. At the California port it is expected that the Montcalm will go into dock. The cruise as outlined for the French war vessel includes a call at various ports along the Mexican and Central American coast and an extended visit to Tahiti.

FROM THE coast comes word that the present contract existing between the American-Hawaiian Steamship Company and the Sugar Factors Association will expire by the last of the year and will be superseded by another agreement that calls for the transportation of nearly a million four hundred thousand tons sugar by the Tehuantepec route. It is predicted that a ten day service will be maintained by the American-Hawaiian steamers.

IN SAILING for Vancouver at eight o'clock this evening, the Canadian Australian liner Makura will take about fifty passengers. The office of the local agents was thronged throughout the day by applicants for transportation. After many hours delay a number were notified that there was no room on the vessel for additional passengers.

AGENT C. P. MORSE of the American-Hawaiian Line announces the sailing of the freighter Virginian from Seattle on July 25th. This vessel will proceed to Honolulu with large consignments of New York cargo brought from the Atlantic by the way of the Isthmus of Tehuantepec. The Virginian should arrive here on or about August 2nd.

TWELVE HUNDRED and twenty sheep were transferred from the Island of Niihau to Lanai by the Inter-island steamer Niihau. The vessel returned to port yesterday bringing a small shipment of sundries. Moderate trades and seas were met with on both outward and inward voyages.

THE DEPARTURE of the Matsuo Navigation steamer Hyades from Seattle was reported yesterday. The vessel is bound for Honolulu and should arrive here on or about July 25th. The Hyades is understood as bringing down a large general cargo and a quantity of lumber on deck.

THE AMERICAN schooner Inca sailing from Honolulu on July 2nd is reported to have arrived at Port Townsend yesterday. The vessel left a shipment of lumber at this port.

MOTT-SMITH IS NEEDED HERE

Says Frear When Asked About Sending Him To Washington

"We need Mott-Smith too much here to have him go to Washington as Delegate," said Governor Frear yesterday morning answering a query by a reporter as to his idea of the fitness of the Secretary to represent the Territory at the National Capital.

The question was brought up through the recent discussion of the name of Mott-Smith to succeed Kubio who, it was rumored, would not go back to Washington for the reason of ill health.

"Kubio has done good work in Washington," said the Governor, "and I believe that he should run again for Delegate and represent the Territory."

"I am not saying anything against Mr. Mott-Smith as a representative in Washington. I don't know of anyone here so well qualified to take up the work and represent us there, should Kubio decide to run again. However, I hope he will return to Washington for another term."

Mott-Smith was present in the room during the discussion but had nothing to say for himself, except that he broke forth once that it was all rubbish and that he had no desire for Washington honors.

Perhaps he wants to be Governor.

TOMORROW JURY WILL BE DRAWN

Tomorrow in the criminal court the drawing of grand jurors to serve for the remainder of the term will take place, before Judge Cooper.

This jury will take the place of the one which was discharged a short time ago by Judge Cooper and will serve for the remaining months of the year.

On August 1 the members of the jury will come into court to be sworn in, and they will immediately enter upon their investigations to bring indictments before the court.

TOURING ISLAND

Today Secretary Mott-Smith is touring the island as host for Admiral de Castries of the Montcalm and a party of officers from the ship. This trip is in response to the invitation extended by the Acting Governor at the time the Admiral made his official call at the capitol the day after arrival here.

MUCH WANTED KOREAN CAUGHT

Chun Duck Soon Now Wears Big Oregon Boot

Chun Duck Soon, the much-wanted Korean escaped prisoner, was captured by Chief McDuffie and his men last night at Kaihi. The man was in a house that the police surrounded, and, on the officers breaking in, wormed his way beneath the flooring and was only captured after a severe tussle.

Information had reached McDuffie early in the evening that the wanted man was at a friend's house up Kaihi Valley. The police posse and an informer went up the valley to the suspected house, and there, through some lattice work, saw several figures seated around a table. McDuffie ordered all the people to throw up their hands, and the officers rushed in through the door.

Much to their surprise, there were only two lads in the room, but a glimpse of another person was obtained as somebody dived under the house. Apana, the Chinese detective, went for the man like a cat after a rat, and Officer Minville went in from the other end of the building. The two officers quickly grabbed the man, who proved to be the Korean, and proceeded to drag him out. Soon Duck put up a fight, and Apana was kicked in the face, while Minville was cut on the hand by a knife. The Korean did not stop fighting till he was out in the open.

Two boys were found in the house and they turned out to be Reform School escapes, who are wanted also. Two watches were found on the Korean, and this morning R. Morton visited the police station and identified one timepiece as his. Morton's house had been entered on May 13, and among other articles stolen was a gold watch. When the watch was shown to Morton this morning there was a fob with a gold locket attached to it. Morton said the fob was not his, so someone else has probably been robbed.

Duck Soon was in attendance at McDuffie's office this morning, and did not seem to enjoy the Oregon boot with which his right leg was adorned. Another Korean, who is alleged to have aided Duck Soon in his escape from jail, was arrested this morning and held for investigation.

EXCEPTION HAS BEEN OVERRULED

The Supreme Court has overruled exception presented by the defendant in the case of Territory of Hawaii versus Kum Foo Sung, the opinion of the court being handed down today. The case was argued on July 12. Sung was convicted of assault with a weapon dangerous to life, a large stick, upon C. August Herring. The exception upon which the case was brought before the Supreme Court was that new evidence had been found since the trial, but the court held that its opinion that due diligence had not been used to find this evidence before the case came to trial.

The French cruiser Montcalm is making preparation to clear for Hilo next Thursday. This side trip is for the purpose of giving the officers and men a chance to visit the Volcano. The Montcalm will sail direct from Hilo to Seattle, thence down the coast, stopping at San Francisco and on to Tahiti.

In the case of Cecil Brown as trustee against Hookano the defendant denies the allegations of the complaint and asks dismissal of the case. Demand for jury trial is also made.

"Prohibition would lead to espionage of the worst kind.

"People here would get sick of the (Prohibition) law, as they have done nearly everywhere after a short trial.

"Conditions have certainly improved in the past year and a half all over the islands, and the excellent law we have can be made to remedy evils still existing.

"I am therefore, by honest conviction, for the law as it stands and a vigorous enforcement of its provisions."—Bishop Restarick.

Woolleyism for Hawaii? Vote AOLE-NO.

Prohibition has never eliminated the saloon. It has merely changed the name.

To vote for Prohibition is to place the stamp of approval on Woolley's campaign of vilification and falsehood.

Vote as free American citizens who believe in upholding personal liberty and creating laws that the people respect. Vote No.

A. A. Young says that Prohibition will be ruinous to Honolulu. And Mr. Young is a pretty good citizen, despite the fact that Woolley says "against us are only the guerrillas of evil and timidity."

When Governor Frear says he expects to vote for Prohibition on July 26, it is another way of announcing an expectation to assist in bringing about a labor crisis in the great industrial enterprises of the Territory of Hawaii.

First make up your mind to go to the polls. Hawaii's greatest danger is that the enemies of Woolley's assault upon the self-governing capacity of Hawaii's citizens, will feel over-confident and not take the trouble to vote. Get out and vote No.

Dr. Brinckerhoff is publishing articles that are excellent admonitions to strict total abstinence in all matters connected with intoxicating liquors. Let us hope that the great physician practices what he preaches, and is not like the Pharisees of the Committee of One Hundred.

Prohibitionists boast of "four hundred" persons assembled at Aala Park to listen to Beckley's speech on Government by Commission. With this as a sample, it is at once apparent that Prohibition must marshal four thousand of those boasted perjurer voters in order to saddle Hawaii with Woolleyism.

Hawaii's present license law has been gradually developed from the experience of people, and it is generally supported by public opinion. One might doubt Hawaii's capacity for self-government if the people voted to overthrow an effective and satisfactory law because Woolley dangled before them an attractive bauble of expectation.

CLOSING DRAM SHOPS BY "PROHIBITION."

"Moderate voters in the Prohibition ranks explained that they aimed at nothing more than the closing of the dram shops.

"They did not propose to deprive sober citizens of mature age of the right to regulate their diet.

"The attempt however to make and enforce a statutory rule broad enough to cover the case of the drunkard, and yet allow for the necessary exceptions, involved such inconsistency as to render the rule practically of little effect."

"The State imagined that it could watch and control the pharmacist. But it soon appeared that the drug store was even harder to regulate than the saloon, and that men would drink at the drug store who would not, under a license system, have drunk at a public bar. The business of selling drugs became, in the city of Des Moines, more profitable than banking. Under the cloak of pretended medical necessity—and in many cases even this flimsy subterfuge was lacking—liquor continued to be bought and sold as a beverage, even where there were no saloons.

"The sanctity of private life was violated. Witnesses perjured themselves upon the stand. Juries refused to render a verdict of guilty, even where the testimony was ample and uncontradicted. If the case was taken before the Grand Jury, it was often impossible to secure an indictment.

"While the statutes were constantly augmenting in severity, the public opinion, which alone could give them validity was crystallizing in opposition to the enforcement. The popular respect for law rapidly declined before the spectacle of the impotence of the government to compel obedience to it."

These are extracts from the conclusions reached regarding the practical effect of Prohibition in the State of Iowa, conclusions that bear the endorsement of such men as Charles W. Eliot, President of Harvard University, and Seth Low, members of the "Committee of Fifty" to investigate the liquor problem.

"These men of national standing tell us that in Iowa where Prohibition meant violation of the sanctity of private life, perjured testimony in the courts and rapid decline of popular respect for the law, "the moderate" men who voted for Prohibition aimed at "nothing more than the closing of the dram shops."

"In other words these men listened to just such arguments, such misleading statements as are being made by the Prohibitionists in the local campaign, when they say that to vote for Prohibition is to vote against the saloons.

And with what result? The liquor traffic turned from the licensed saloon that could be regulated and controlled, to the drug stores that did a growing and profitable business in selling liquor to men who, under the license system, would not have drunk at the public bar."

The result was exactly the reverse of their expectations. This, then, is what the local Prohibitionists are planning to do for the Hawaiian Islands. This is the end toward which the man who votes for Prohibition on the 26th is urging the Territory of Hawaii. Influenced by the false cry that a vote against Prohibition is a ballot for the saloon, he will cast his vote to transfer the business to the illicit sales of the drug store and the blind pig. That is the "experiment" which he aims to foist upon Hawaii in response to the specious plea that he must consider the failings and the weaknesses of his fellowman. His "experiment" means bringing into the life of this community the worst evils and the greatest dangers that can threaten a republic—disrespect and contempt for the law and no saving grace to protect his fellow man from the dangers that beset his path.

Prohibition has been worse than a failure. It would be a crime to thrust Woolleyism upon Hawaii, and the people will not do it. They will vote "No." This will be the answer of every man who believes in honest government, and honest ideals in private and public life.

GOVERNOR FREAR'S LATEST.

Governor Frear says that the present liquor law is a good law. Governor Frear says that he "expects" to vote for Prohibition on July 26.

Governor Frear evidently is one of those men who allows his better judgment to be stamped by an expectation.

And since he has left a loophole by which he may vote against Prohibition and thus uphold the good law and still tell the truth, there is also a possibility that the Governor may be money and will see that it is expended to deliver the best results for the stockholders.

It has been decided that the well-boring operations shall be put in the hands of the people who have done the expert and successful work for the oil enterprises in which Captain Matson and his associates are interested. In other words, the company will take advantage of the experience of the most capable oil well drillers in California, and they should have results in a comparatively short time.

While this part of the enterprise is being carried on in the field, the affairs of the company, in connection with the remaining subscriptions to be paid in, will be taken care of by Harry Armitage, the broker. According to the estimates that were made on this property when Mr. Payne first started its promotion and the solicitation of subscriptions, the patented land that the company owns was worth three times the price at which it was turned in, and the estimates have not been reduced by later developments in the oil field where this company's property is located.

Real estate belonging to the Ringer children was sold under order of the court on Saturday for $210, and today the sale was approved.

California Oil Investments

As shown by the official statement of the San Francisco Stock Exchange, over $1,400,000 were paid by the listed oil companies for June.

Some remarkable records have been made by some of the oil companies promoted by California Crude, for instance. This company has paid $9400 an acre in dividends already and is producing now about 70% more oil than it did a couple of years ago.

Through our long experience in California oil we are able to select only good companies for our hundreds of clients. We may mention Premier, Sexton Six, Palmer, Yellowstone, Crescens, etc., which are all heavy producers. Amongst the low-price stocks WE RECOMMEND THE IMMEDIATE PURCHASE OF SHARES OF THE "VENTURA OIL DEVELOPMENT CO.", which, according to present indications, will become our banner company.

The shares are offered now AT 15 CENTS EACH, but the price will be ADVANCED ON JULY 22. Make therefore your investment now, and reap the benefit of the advance in price. We have sold a great many shares, and we want you to join us in the road to success.

Prohibition is fanaticism.

An attempt is made to show that conditions are bad. They are not. The liquor business is under good control. Because a few men may be intemperate that is no reason why I or any other man should have his personal rights and privileges invaded.

It is wrong, and every sensible man will vote against the proposition.

TO EXPLORE THE VOLCANOS

To explore the volcano, A. Brun of Switzerland is going to Hawaii, and, with a camping outfit and guides, he will stay in the open during his investigations. Mr. Brun has been in communication with the Promotion Committee from his home for many months, and he arrived here on the Mancharia yesterday afternoon from San Francisco. In addition to studying the volcano, he will study the whole geological formation of the Islands, spending several weeks here. Besides the visit to Mauna Loa, Mr. Brun will make a trip to Haleakala and camp there with guides, as at Hawaii. Reappointments of district magistrates made by Associate Justice Perry yesterday were Walter H. Haysden, East and West Kau; R. H. Atkins, North Kohala, and Henry Hall, Hamakua.

BLANCHARD TO SUCCEED DUNCAN

Edward B. Blanchard has been designated by the Secretary of Agriculture as collaborating chemist at Honolulu according to the text of a cable received late yesterday by Governor Frear from Washington. The cable came from Chief Clerk Ackler of the Bureau of Agriculture. Mr. Blanchard will also hold the position of food commissioner for both the Federal and Territorial governments at Honolulu, taking the place left vacant by the death of Robert A. Duncan. Last night a Hawaiian named Henry Mamahu fell from a two-story house balcony on River Street and hit on a board sidewalk. The man's head was cut open, and he sustained other injuries. The police patrol wagon was quickly at the site of the accident, and Mamahu was taken to the Queen's Hospital, where he was admitted for treatment.

NEW BILL AT ORPHEUM

An enthusiastic audience greeted the new piece at the Orpheum last evening, "Get Me A Baby," and found it one of the best the company has put on. For a first night's performance it went very smoothly. The musical numbers are excellent. Miss Rockwell does not appear until the second act, but when she arrives in her gorgeous Royal purple gown, she more than makes up for the delay. Her "Song of My Soul" was artistically rendered and her medley of popular hits received encore after encore. Olga Steek sang "Cuddle Up a Little Closer" with the assistance of Carleton Chase and later on sang a very pretty thing "Tittle Tattle" with the usual Steek vivacity, and many new expressions. Her sister Vilma Steek came into the limelight with a cleverly sung number "Looking for the Love Light." Carleton Chase's song "Cubana Glide" and Miss Atkins and Mr. Stuart's duet were clever and the irrepressible Elsie Schuyler surprised the delighted her followers again with two songs in her inimitable way. Mr. Garrity and Mr. McGuire are always good and their numbers were both encores. The chorus seems to have found itself at last and is working together very smoothly now and that adds a great deal to the enjoyment of any number.

The following is the cast and musical programme:
Mr. Robbie Wilson.....Harry Garrity
Mr. Dick Gordon.....Carlton Chase
Miss Gertrude Howard.....Olga Steek
Mr. Henry Howard.....Harry Stuart
Mrs. Helen Wilson.....Laurel Atkins
Jane, the maid.....Elsie Schuyler
Anna Suits, burlesque queen.....

"Wonderland".....Opening Chorus
"Cubana Glide".....Olga Steek and Chorus
"I've Been Told".....Harry Stuart
"Nobody".....Harris McGuire
"Yip-I-Addy-Lay".....Maud Rockwell and Chorus
"Tittle Tattle".....Olga Steek and Chorus
"It's Perfectly Terrible, Dear".....Elsie Schuyler
"The Stars Stood Still".....
.....Laurel Atkins and Chorus
"What Has That Man Harrigan Done?".....Elsie Schuyler and Chorus
"Cuddle Up".....Olga Steek and Chorus
"Upper Ten and Lower Five".....Miss Atkins and Mr. Stuart
"Song of the Soul".....Maud Rockwell

VOTE NO AND BE SURE THAT YOU VOTE NO

Editor Evening Bulletin:—One week from today Hawaii is to settle a question, the like of which has never heretofore been placed before the people of this Territory, and from what I can learn, and if the people will vote the way they say they will, there seems to be nothing to fear in the way of trying an experiment that has failed completely in every State where the people have been foolish enough to allow such a blight to be put upon them.

If every man will go to the polls and vote, vote the way he thinks is best for this Territory after having the truths of Prohibition's cursedness in other States placed so vividly before him as has been done by the press of this city, I do not fear for the result.

But will every man go to the polls and vote on July 26? Therein lies the danger to this Territory. You may be sure every Prohibitionist will vote, and vote not early, but only if he gets the chance.

If Prohibition should be sneaked in on dear Hawaii it will not be by the voice of the majority, but will materialize through the fact that many will think that enough votes will be cast against Prohibition to sink it without the bother of their going to the polls to put in their one vote. Let no man entertain such a thought. Go to the polls and exercise your privilege of suffrage regardless of what your neighbor may do.

Undoubtedly there are many who are in a quandary over this prohibition question. They feel as I do in regard to the liquor question. They would like to see the traffic controlled, or, better still, completely eliminated. This last condition they will never see, neither here nor in any community where man desires liquor. When legal distilling ceases, illicit distilling commences, and the results are far more damaging.

The liquor traffic can be controlled in Hawaii as well as mortal minds and hands can do so. At the present moment you have the power, regardless of any prohibition propaganda, to close every public saloon in these islands. Don't lose sight of the fact that I said "every public saloon." Blind pigs you can not close. That problem has been wrestled with for over a half century in some of the Prohibition States, and they are actually further from the solution today than ever. This question has been placed before you by hundreds of people better versed in the ins and outs of it than I.

If there are any in this city today who are in doubt at all as regards the outcome of a prohibition law, and would seek advice that they may depend on, let them turn to the statements of their bishop, their minister or their priest who have given to the world their views on the effects of Prohibition. You who are doubtful, but who desire to do the right thing for the good of Hawaii, could you ask for better authority?

Let me borrow a phrase, which your sporting editor frequently uses, and say, Let every prosperity fan, every fan who desires to see Hawaii go ahead, and not slump back into the doldrums of stagnation, roll up to the polls and vote against Woolleyism and all the attending evils that go with such a propaganda. NUT SED.

WELL KNOWN MEN LEAVE ON MAKURA

On the Makura, which sails at 8 o'clock this evening for Vancouver, two well-known Honolulu men will leave for a few months' vacation which will be spent in Scotland. J. H. Fiddes and William Simpson will go "home" for a trip and both of them are prominent in golf, cricket and football circles.

Fiddes is head of the Association Football League, and will, while passing through New York, confer with the Amateur Athletic Union authorities and arrange for Hawaii to be included in the ranks of the "illy whites." Fiddes has been in these islands about eleven years, and is a trusted officer of the B. F. Dillingham Co.

William Simpson has also been in the islands for some years, and has been connected with the insurance department of Bishop & Co. for a long time. He is a prominent member of the Country Club and an expert on the golf links.

The Simplest, Strongest, and Most Convincing Cream Separator Arguments

We can not believe that there is a sensible man living who would put his own money into the purchase of any other than a DE LAVAL cream separator, for his own use, if he would but first avail of the opportunity open to everyone to SEE and TRY an improved DE LAVAL machine before buying any other.

VISITORS PLAY AGAIN TODAY

CLEVELAND CRUISER TEAM WILL TRY ITS LUCK AGAIN

Jackies Determined to Turn Tables on Japanese—Local Teams Doing Better Work on Diamond—Castle Fetched Great Game.

This afternoon at the Athletic Park, the Waseda University nine will tackle the U. S. S. Cleveland once more, and the sailors are determined to turn the tables on the Japanese. The first time the teams met, the Jackies won out by 1 to 0 after a stirring game that got everybody excited. The Wasedas have a way of making one run somehow, and then hang on and prevent their opponents from scoring. However, of late the visitors have been getting it in the neck, and their defeats at the hands of the Punahous and C. A. Cs. have made the local fans feel better than they did last week, when the Wasedas had a record of five wins and only one loss.

The Japanese have been very successful so far, and they have shown the local men how to work the bunt to perfection. To watch one of the Wasedas at bat and another on third is a treat. The batsman uses his stick as if it were as broad as a tennis racket, and, playing the ball with as much accuracy as a billiard player, bunts it in a dead straight line towards first, and, to make things easier (?) for the man who is trying to field the ball, the batsman is generally running right on top of the sphere as it rolls along parallel with the line.

On Saturday last Castle pitched what was probably the best game ever pitched in Hawaii. He was on the job all the time, and the way he popped them over the plate and sent the Waseda batsmen to the right-about in quick order, was a treat to see. Castle pitched the game of his life and is to be congratulated on his work.

This afternoon, before the game with the Cleveland starts, a combined Japanese school team will try conclusions with the Wasedas. The latter nine will be made up of players who need not take part in the second game—that is, quite a few of them—and the schoolboys should have a great time trying to beat their doughty opponents.

The fans are pleased with themselves nowadays, and when the Portuguese again meet the Wasedas next Sunday there should be a great game played. The local rooters will be on deck, and the way they will whoop things up should rival the Japanese—and that would be going some.

BIG MONEY WAS TAKEN AT RENO CONTEST

Tex Rickard and Gleason Made Fortunes—Moving Picture Profits May, However, Be Curtailed.

Tex Rickard knew what he was doing when he offered $101,000 as a purse for the Jeffries-Johnson fight. His calculations as to how much money the contest would draw panned out all to the good. The receipts at the gates were $270,778.50, and the expenses amounted to $21,000. Deducting the purse and expenses there was $128,000 left for Rickard and Gleason to divide; the promoters also got $33,333 for a sixth interest in the moving pictures.

It is doubtful if ever another world's championship contest will draw as much money as the one that took place on July 4. The fight was unique, and created more interest all over the world than any previous one.

Was the fight a fake? In a way it was, for there is no use of Jeffries' trainers talking their heads off about how they thought the old fellow could win. The men in touch with Jeffries must have known that he was not training properly, and that a man who had been six years out of the game and even then would not do any boxing stunts, could not hope to beat a well-trained, husky, clever boxer like Johnson.

There was big money in the match for everybody concerned, and it did not matter if Jeff was beaten or not. There remains a lot to be told of the big fight, and in future years some of the old "has beens" who attended on Jeff will open their mouths and tell everything.

FISTIC.

MANY BOXERS ARE READY

CORDELL, CORNYN, MCGURN AND HOAO WILLING ENOUGH

McGurn Has Good Record as Game, Clever Fighter—Cordell Would Like to Meet Dick Sullivan Again.

It is unfortunate, now that a number of pugilistic stars are in Honolulu, that there should be so little doing in the boxing line. Jack Cordell, Joe McGurn, Pat Cornyn and Jim Hoao are all looking for matches, and there are other men like Young Gans and a number of others who are willing to take or give a punch—for a consideration.

Cordell is in light training and could get into the pink of condition within a couple of weeks. He is taking care of himself nowadays, and in Joe McGurn has a partner who keeps him busy with the gloves.

McGurn is a classy boxer and has a long record of fights to his credit. He originally fought in the lightweight class and used to mix it with Jack Cordell when he was in that class. Of late years Joe has been mixing with the heavier men and included among the men he has met and defeated are Otto Fritch, Jack Clifford, Toby Irwin, Kid George, Johnnie O'Keefe, Howard Baker, Joe Gregg and many other minor lights.

The new arrival in Honolulu fights at welterweight, and all the Coast papers allude to him as a game man, who is clever and able to stay with the best men of his weight. In fact, weight does not scare Joe. He has met men who outweighed him twenty pounds, and has still held his own. "The game Irishman" is the way he is alluded to by main and sporting writers, and with it all Joe is a quiet, decent young fellow, who should make good in Honolulu.

Pat Cornyn returned from the mainland the other day and he is willing enough to have a go at Jack Cordell. The men will get together as soon as some promoter makes a decent offer, and the resulting match should be a beauty.

Jack Cordell's one ambition is to have another go at Dick Sullivan, and he is hoping that such an event may come off. With reference to the match with Cornyn, Cordell is not much in favor of Cornyn's brother bringing off the show. Some other promoter would be more pleasing to Jack, as he thinks that the relationship between boxer and promoter is too close to satisfy the public.

To most people it would seem as if it did not matter much who promoted a show as long as the referee was square and the gate receipts properly accounted for and the boxers paid what they agreed to take. However, at present nothing very definite is known except that Dick Sullivan has announced his intention of getting Cordell and Cornyn together on a percentage basis if possible.

"The office should seek the man," remarked the quotation dispenser.

"Yes, of course," rejoined the avowed aspirant, "but it is handicapped because of its inability to recognize the man."

TRANS-PACIFIC RACE MAY FINISH ON SUNDAY

Wilder Will Send Up Two Flares Off Makapuu Point and One Off Diamond Head—Watch Established.

Now that the three yachts that are taking part in the transpacific race are some ten days out on their long journey, steps are being taken to establish a lookout at Diamond Head. A watch will be kept there for the whitewinged racing craft, and as the Hawaii has arranged to send up two lights at intervals of five minutes when off Makapuu Point, there will be no doubt about the identity of the local boat when she comes along—first, as everybody hopes. Wilder will also send up a flare when passing Diamond Head, and by that time all Honolulu will know how the race has gone.

It is to be hoped, however, that the yachts finish in daylight, for there are thousands of people who would delight in meeting the Hawaii as she sails in a winner, with a large margin to spare.

According to a letter received by a local man yesterday, the start of the race was a pretty sight, and the last seen of the yachts' position showed the Hawaii in the lead by a mile or so.

It is expected that the yachts will make the run down to Honolulu in about thirteen or fourteen days. In that case, on Saturday or Sunday next the leading boat should be sighted, and that it will be the Hawaii is confidently asserted by all Honolulu folk.

TENNIS MEN GETTING READY FOR WALL CUP

Many Entries Expected for Popular Tournament—Richards Will Try and Hold Cup.

Tennis enthusiasts are looking forward to the Wall Cup tournament which is to start up on August 1. Most of the best players are entering for the event, and the Betaniana courts should be kept going all the time from now on till the opening day of the tournament.

The Wall Cup is played for every few months, and has to be won three times by any one player before it becomes his property. Young Atherton Richards is the present holder of the trophy, and should he win out again he will share the honor of having two "legs" with Warren and Gee.

INTER-ISLAND POLO IS EXCITING MUCH INTEREST

Kauai and Fifth Cavalry to Open Series—Maui Will Be Strong Again This Season.

On August 10 the polo season proper will open and the inter-island cracks will go up against one another. Kauai and the Fifth Cavalry will open up the ball, and an interesting game should result. Last year there were only three teams—Oahu, Fifth Cavalry and Maui—in the tournament, but now Kauai has once more come in and a quartet of teams will play.

Maui was too strong altogether for the rest of the teams last year, and it was Frank Baldwin who played the star game. This year the Cavalry and Oahu should do better, and Kauai will also be sure to make things merry on the polo field.

Walter Dillingham is getting into form and he is a fine player at all times. Sam Baldwin is playing the same dashing game as he put up last year, and it is expected that he will score many goals in the coming series.

Matches will be played at Moanalua and Lilehua, and no doubt big crowds will attend and watch the most exciting sport of all.

I. B. Braden, a member of the South Coast Yacht Club, writes the Bulletin from Waikiki, stating that the Winsome is certainly taking part in the transpacific race, and that he thinks she will win. Mr. Braden is evidently mistaken, as the Los Angeles Times gives a description of the start of the race, and regrets the fact that her owner, Hay, was unable to take part in the big event and that the Winsome did not start.

WRECKERS AT WORK ON STRANDED AIRSHIP

Zeppelin, Undismayed, Plans Making a Flight to Vienna.

OSNABRUECK, Germany, July 3.—Count Zeppelin disappointed but not discouraged, hurried here today to superintend the salvage of his latest aerial model, the great airship Deutschland, which came to grief in experienced hands yesterday.

The Count, who will be 72 years old on Friday of next week, has an engagement for the near future to fly from Friedrichshafen to Vienna and exhibit his invention to Emperor Francis Joseph, and he proposes to make good his promise.

The prospects for the early resumption of the passenger service are not bright. The airship company announces that the accident will necessitate a suspension for several months of the advertised excursion.

After hours of perilous flight, during which it was driven hither and thither at the caprice of a gale, the Deutschland found a desperate refuge in the trees of Teutoburgian Wald. Its framework was wrenched and the great envelope badly torn. The thirty-two passengers, including twenty newspaper men, had narrow escapes.

It was found today that it would be necessary to dismantle the airship, and this was begun.

SPLITTING HEADACHES THIS REDWOOD CITY WOMAN FEARED INSANITY. Trouble Entirely Cured When the Weak Nerves Were Toned up by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

If every pale, weak, nervous woman who reads these lines would try the remedy that cured Mrs. Stothers there would be far less suffering, fewer children born to a heritage of weak nerves, fewer unhappy homes.

Weak nerves mean irritableness, hysteria, headaches, melancholia, perhaps insanity. Build up the nerves by using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, at the same time toning up the general health and you will see an increasing appetite, a happier disposition, a lighter step, freedom from lassitude, a return to sound and refreshing sleep.

The cure of Mrs. R. Stothers, of No. 506 Beach street, Redwood City, Cal., should encourage every nervous sufferer to try this blood and nerve tonic. She says: "I was troubled with nervousness for about two years and the last year became so much worse that I was completely run down, was pale and thin and could get hardly any sleep. I was always seeing imaginary things before my eyes. Whenever my child cried or there was any noise, I would get so nervous that I could hardly stand it. I had splitting headaches and at times thought I would go insane."

"I had been quite sick for several months before I heard of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The druggist told my husband to have me try them and after a short trial I felt much better. The pills gave me color and built me up. I gave them a good trial and was entirely cured."

If you are interested in the treatment of nervous troubles with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, send for our free booklet, "Diseases of the Nervous System." It shows what the pills have accomplished in many recent cases of neuralgia, sciatica, St. Vitus' dance, nervous headache, nervous dyspepsia, partial paralysis and locomotor ataxia.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Chenectady, N. Y.

HAWAII LIGHTHOUSE DISTRICT NAMED WASHINGTON, D. C., July 18.—Three new lighthouse districts were created today for Hawaii and Porto Rico. The action of the Federal authorities was in response to demands for better marine facilities.

The creation of the new districts means that Hawaii will be a light-house division, and that the Territory will have an inspector with headquarters at Honolulu. Hitherto the lighthouses on the islands have been under control of the California inspector. The building of the new lighthouses will entail an expenditure of about $100,000, though the exact cost can not be ascertained until engineers prepare the plans.

PINCHOT STARTS CAMPAIGN. OAKLAND, Cal., July 18.—Gifford Pinchot arrived in this city last night and will begin today his work in behalf of Hiram Johnson, Lincoln-Roosevelt candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor, and William Kent, insurgent opponent of Congressman Duncan A. McKelvey. Pinchot will speak here today and then start out on a tour of the State.

TRAINMEN OUT FOR RAISE. MONTREAL, July 18.—Trainmen and conductors on the Central Vermont today struck for higher wages. They based their demands for higher pay on the grounds that the wages they have been receiving were not in proportion to the cost of living.

PENNSYLVANIA R. R. AND EMPLOYEES AGREE PHILADELPHIA, July 18.—At a conference yesterday of the officials of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company and representatives of the trainmen's union, both sides agreed to a basis for a settlement of the differences which led the other day to an order to strike.

The settlement affects 15,000 railroad employes.

CANNON GOING STRONG. EMPORIA, Kan., July 18.—In a speech delivered here tonight, Speaker Cannon announced that he had not abandoned the race for the Speakership. He came to the heart of the insurgent West to make the announcement.

GRAND TRUNK EMPLOYEES STRIKE DETROIT, July 18.—One thousand conductors and trainmen on the Grand Trunk struck today. They demanded better wages, and their demands were refused flatly by the officials of the railroad.

PERRY DAVIS' PAINKILLER should be taken without delay when sore chest and tickling throat warn you that an annoying cold threatens. At all druggists in 25c, 35c and 50c bottles.

Cable News GARFIELD WILL HAVE FREE HAND

BEVERLY, Mass., July 18.—Senators Burton and Dick of Ohio came to Beverly today and conferred with President Taft on the Republican situation in their home State, and when the conference was over President Taft announced that he would keep hands off the ante-gubernatorial convention situation.

The insurgent Republicans, with James R. Garfield as their candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor, have started a fight and are appealing to the voters on practically the same issues as those upon which Cummins and Dooliver of Iowa have been successful at home, and Senators Dick and Burton represent the conservative wing of the party, with Wade Ellis, President Taft's protégé, as party manager.

There are two important issues already developed in the Ohio situation. The conservatives want to retain control of the party by defeating Garfield and the other insurgent candidates for State and Congressional offices, and the friends of President Taft are anxious to defeat Governor Harmon for reelection. Harmon is looming up as a Presidential possibility, and quite naturally the Ohio Republicans prefer to have the Democratic nominee a man from some other State.

The President's announcement means that he will not take a hand until after the party has nominated a candidate. If the conservatives succeed in capturing the convention, the fight upon Governor Harmon will be waged with all the force that can be brought to bear.

NON-MAGNETIC YACHT CARNEGIE PREPARES TO GO AROUND WORLD

GREENPORT, L. I.—The non-magnetic survey yacht Carnegie built for the Carnegie Institute of Washington, has reached here, to await her instruments and provisions before beginning her three years' trip around the world, making magnetic observations. This will be the most important meteorological and magnetic survey ever attempted. The Carnegie will sail from here in two weeks, making first for Porto Rico, Bahia, Rio de Janeiro, around Cape Horn, up the Pacific and then through the China sea, around Africa and back to America. The Carnegie is the first non-magnetic vessel ever built. She is of wood, while her metal parts are all of de-magnetized bronze, so that her compass observations may be absolutely accurate. Not a piece of steel or other sensitive metal is allowed. The vessel is run under the department of terrestrial magnetism of the Carnegie Institute. She is commanded by Captain Fred McMurray, who took the great drydock Dewey to Manila. Many noted technicians will make the journey with her.

BURDETTES ARRIVE HOME

SAN FRANCISCO, July 9.—Completing a tour of the Orient, extending over six months, Rev. Robert J. Burdette of Los Angeles, the preacher with a reputation as a humorist, and Mrs. Burdette returned home yesterday, arriving from Yokohama on the Chigo Maru. They will leave today for the south. Said Dr. Burdette:

"Like the woman with a Cook's thirty-day round-the-world-and-return ticket, we've been everywhere and seen everything and met everybody. Dined with the Dardanelles in Constantinople, met the Wildmanns in Borneo and ran across the straits of Formosa, learned to speak gum Arabic in Cairo and broken China in Shanghai; traveled by steamship, steamboat, junk and sampan, riksha, chair and donkey, and, when the fare was too high, walked; slept all day in day coaches, and tossed and kicked all night, wide awake, in sleeping cars. "Same old thing. Saw people starving and saw gluttons gluttoning. Met people who work all the time and have nothing, and other people who work none of the time and have everything. Met gentlemen and boudiers, ladies and imitations, real men and duffers, genuine women and stage paste on the same trip. "Got misinformed by wise men who thought they knew it all, and similarly deceived by candle hars who made it all up as they went along. Met a few fools adding to their stock of ignorance by the broadening influence of travel, which makes folly thinner as it makes broader. Looked at some people by the hour, wondered what in the name of time they traveled for; looked at other people on the same boat and wondered what in creation they ever went home for. Had good times, bad times, glad times, sorry times; sunny days and stormy days; ate what we could get, slept where we had to; went where the ticket called for; got off the train when we were told; had the proper thrills when the guide indicated the place; visited the missions and saw the galsa dance; went to church and the theater; ate, drank, slept. "Wondered where we had seen all these people and all these things before. Remembered it was at home, and concluded to go back there."

GOLDEN WEDDING OF ALEXANDERS

In their quaint and charming home on Punahou street, Professor and Mrs. W. D. Alexander celebrated their golden wedding late yesterday afternoon, where a complete household of well-wishers showered this smiling couple with congratulations, and from the four corners of the world "aloha" was flashed over the cables from dear friends who are across the sea but had not forgotten. There were many present who at one time received instruction at the hands of the professor, but are now parents and even grandparents. A special feature of the afternoon was the class of Professor Alexander, wearing large clusters of golden flowers. The members of this class presented their teacher with a beautiful watch and chain, and numerous other presents were given to them.

LOGICAL ECZEMA CURE ENDORSED BY PHYSICIANS

After treating eczema for years as a practically incurable blood disease, the medical world is greatly interested in the discovery that it is not a blood disease at all, but is due to a parasite in the skin itself. This parasite is easily destroyed by the external application of a compound of oil of wintergreen, thymol, glycerine, etc. This will quickly kill all eczema germs, while soothing and refreshing the skin. Dr. R. A. Folkerts, of Duluth, Minn., tells of the success in treating patients: "There was a man here suffering from eczema for the last fourteen years, and I applied the D. D. D. treatment. I also applied it to a man of West Duluth, Minn., who has been suffering with Rheumatism for fourteen years, and Eczema in his feet, and the second treatment in both cases cleared the skin almost absolutely. The first application is a balm, and its soothing effect is beyond expression. I shall never be without it, and shall use it among my patients altogether. "No matter how terribly you suffer from eczema, salt rheum, ringworm, etc., you will feel instantly soothed and the itch allayed at once when a few drops of this oil of wintergreen compound is applied. The cures all seem to be permanent. Honolulu Drug Co., Fort Street."

RYAN'S RECEPTION.

Frank Blair, producer at the New Orpheum, has another hilariously funny farce to offer next Thursday evening in "Ryan's Reception." The farce is entirely new and is said to abound in bright lines and funny situations. All the principals will have new numbers and several novelties will be introduced. Miss Rockwell will sing two new songs and Miss Elsie Schuyler will introduce a new character turn. Olga Stock, Miss Canfield, Laurel Atkins and Carleton Chase will be seen in new items.

NOTHING more will be done in regard to building additions to the Moana Hotel until the result of this prohibition agitation is decided. Prohibition is a mistake for the country and will hurt our prosperity. The present liquor law is a good one, and is entitled to the support of the people. Let them have higher license if they want it. In my opinion, prohibition is wrong. Tourists do not want to be tied down by any such piece of legislation as a prohibition law. They won't come and that is all there is to it.

CHAPTER XIV. I PUT BOB FITZSIMMONS AWAY FOR THE SECOND TIME.

ON the day after my fight with Rubin people all over the country were calling Gus a "quitter." In fairness to a good fighter who has shown plenty of gameness in the ring against other men I'll say right here that Rubin never was a quitter. The only reason he stopped that night in San Francisco was that he couldn't get up to fight the next round, and he knew it. My heavy body punches had nearly broken him in two. If he had gone down after that last punch in the body and had been counted out, as Corbett was at Carson, nobody would have had any chance to find fault. I wasn't surprised when Gus gave up. The only thing that did surprise me was winning the fight so soon and so easily. He didn't put a mark on me, and I had expected a hard, grueling battle.

There was great joy in the Jeffries camp after that fight. As for me, nobody seemed anxious to bother me for awhile, and I determined to go on the hunting trip of my life. Bob Fitzsimmons did some great fighting after losing the championship to me. Just before the end of the Horton law in New York state Fitz knocked out Gus Rubin in six rounds and Tom Sharkey in two. The fights were only two weeks apart.

I was in the east at that time, and Fitzsimmons challenged me. He wanted to fight on the last night of the Horton law. I refused, of course, because I'd have to go into the ring untrained. I never fought yet without training hard, and I never will. Any fighter owes that much to his friends. I wouldn't fight a dub without training. When thousands of friends all over the country bet on every fight I'm in I think they have a right to know I'm in shape.

In any case Fitzsimmons wasn't the kind of a man to go up against without training. I told Bob he could have his chance soon enough, and a little later on we made a match to fight in San Francisco on July 25, 1902. Bob kept up light training at his home in Bensonhurst, with Gus Rubin as his sparring partner, and when the time came to start for the coast he was in great shape. He came to California feeling sure of beating me. Fitz was one of the most confident men in the world. I trained at Harbin Springs for that second fight with Fitzsimmons and got to be in good condition. The bout was held at Alec Greggains' San Francisco Athletic club, at Fourteenth and Valencia streets. A lot of my Los Angeles friends came up to bet on me. I guess they brought up at least $45,000 or $50,000. George Miller got down $15,000 at the regular odds, which were 10 to 4 in my favor. "Chalk" Roberts brought $10,000. Jim Hayes, the proprietor of Harbin Springs, put up $2,000 on me. Lots of the other boys got down smaller sums.

There was a big crowd at the ring-side that night. Fitzsimmons was introduced first and had a great reception. He was always well liked in San Francisco, where he fought his first fight after coming to America from Australia. Bob looked in as good shape as when he fought me at Coney Island. He didn't even look a day after Bob steadily. We were both a little cautious at first. I sent a good hard left into his body, and he took it all right. Before the end of the first round he had begun landing on my head, and my nose was bleeding a little.

I had found out something too. The new ring platform was too flabby built. Fitzsimmons could skip about on it like a Frisco flea, but whenever I moved quickly his heels bent under me. It was like trying to dance around on a springboard. It made my footing uncertain and awkward and took away half my speed.

In my crouching position the "give" of the ring platform affected my footing so much that I tried standing straight up. Fitzsimmons mixed it with me, and we both got in some stiff punches. The way the old fellow could hit was a wonder. He was hammering my face in. The blows were as heavy as any I ever felt. The jar didn't daze me, but I had never been so out and bruised in a fight before. Fitzsimmons was a wonderful fighting boxer.

Along in the fifth round I managed to get over a left hook that cut Bob along the cheek bone, but a moment later he stepped in with a terrible right that landed squarely on my left eye and nearly knocked my head off. The blow opened a big gash along my eyebrow. I was in pretty bad shape for a champion now—all cut to pieces and my eyes closing. When I went back to my corner Billy Delaney was as mighty anxious. "Jim," he said, "you have got to get him before your eyes close. Go after him." I crouched as I came from my corner that time and went at Fitzsimmons with a rush. He skipped out of my way and laughed as he moved around. I kept turning to face him like a bull in a bull ring, and every time he seemed within reach I rushed him again. Once I cornered him on the ropes, but he slipped away, and as he went by he landed a couple of hooks that made the blood run again. I couldn't get him. He surely was a slippery fellow.

I wouldn't think any worse of Fitzsimmons if he had shown discouragement about this time. He had beaten me enough to knock out any ordinary man. I knew his right hand was gone, for once when he landed a heavy smash on my forehead I could hear the bones crack, and although he went right on hitting with it, there wasn't the same weight in the blows. He was jabbing more and depending on the left. Fitzsimmons had a great left. I think it was his best hand. He usually landed knockouts with the left.

In this seventh round I went after Bob hard and swung my left into his body, then brought it up to his head. The punches were well meant, but Fitzsimmons took them and came right back with three hard left hooks on the mouth that started me bleeding again and forced me to the ropes. I rushed and chased Fitz across the ring, punching him over the heart. As we came into a clinch Bob grinned and asked, "Well, how do you like it?" "Suits me all right," I said. "You are pretty good for an old fellow."

From that on I punched at Bob's body, and he jabbed and hooked with the left. All the time the crowd was cheering like mad. Fitz looked like a winner, for he was almost unmarked, while I must have been a sight. The crowd thought the old champion was coming back into the title again. I knew I'd win in time. I was all right still inside, not weak or dazed or even tired. And I knew that Fitzsimmons could not keep up such a terrible pace for twenty rounds. In time he must wear himself out even if I didn't bring him down with a blow. His only chance was to blind me entirely and then beat me down when I couldn't see to block or get away. And even then I might have been able to attack it out.

My eyes were nearly closed when I came up for the eighth round. I went after Fitzsimmons steadily. Fitz stood up straight and tried with his left for my chin. I ducked under the blow and sent my right to his body. I could feel the ribs bend. It was a hard punch. Fitz hooked me on the face, and I leaned in with another body punch. Then we fought hard for a minute. I could feel that Fitz was growing weaker. His blows didn't hurt, and he seemed to be tiring. The right time had come at last. I stepped in and swung my left for the pit of his stomach. The glove landed a little to one side, striking just at the edge of the right ribs and driving them in. Fitzsimmons straightened up and stood perfectly still for a moment. I knew the blow had paralyzed his legs and he wouldn't move. "You're got me, Jeff," he gasped, and just at the same instant I started the finishing blow for his jaw. I landed both hands before he fell. Fitz went down hard, and Referee Eddie Graney counted him out. Fitz was trying to get up and managed to rise to his feet just after the end of the count. He walked to one side of the ring and raised his hand. "The best man won," said Fitzsimmons. "I am satisfied. I've never fought again." "You're the most dangerous man alive," I told him, "and I could be myself lucky to have you when I did." That fight with Fitzsimmons was one of the hardest I ever had in my life. I don't think money would pay me to stand up and deliberately take the beating I got from him before I landed the knockout. Every bone in my nose was broken and driven in. My nose was flat with my cheeks. It was a lot of trouble to have that fixed up again. The doctors took eight stitches above my right eye and eight more over my right cheek bone. The cut over my left eye took seven or eight stitches. Every tooth in my head was loose. For two days after

"YOU'VE GOT ME, JEFF," FITZSIMMONS GASPED. The fight I couldn't see. I couldn't move my jaw, and I thought it was surely broken. One of my ears was in bad shape. Fitzsimmons, when he was taken to the Olympic club after the fight to have hot salt water baths and be rubbed down, fainted as soon as the rubber touched his ribs. He fainted again a few hours later when he tried to raise his left arm to reach for a hat. That was from my body punches over the back. Fitzsimmons' right hand was smashed. He landed it over my eye and drove the first two knuckles back over an inch, splintering the bones into small pieces. He was a game fellow. Long afterward he was asked one day if I had noticed during the fight that he was turning his right hand to land with the last two knuckles. These were the only two left, and yet he was hitting almost as hard as with a sound hand. The joints of Bob's left hand were buckled toward the end of the fight, but he didn't hold back his punches.

And the funny thing is that a sporting writer in San Francisco supposed to know something about the game saw all this damage done in the ring and then went away and wrote that the fight was a fake. He sent out a story that it was "framed" for Fitzsimmons to lie down in the eighth toured the country with a show. Fitzsimmons was a good card because of the great fight he had given me. The show was a success everywhere we went. Around through some of the western states we met all comers instead of boxing together. Some Fitz took on, and some I took on. It was in this way that I happened to make Jack Munroe famous. This Munroe was a miner working in Butte, Mont. He had been a good football player and amateur champion boxer of the Pacific coast. Long before we struck Butte our advance agent had picked him out. I didn't know a thing about Munroe. The house that night was packed, and all the people there expected to see some fighting. The fellow who had been selected for Fitzsimmons didn't know how to fight, and he made such a poor exhibition that Fitzsimmons knocked him out in a round to end it. Mose La Fontaine, a good little fighter from Montana, who won a lot of fights all over the west, went on next and knocked his man, some second-rate named Foley, out in a round too. That left only Munroe and me. It wasn't much of a show to give with a packed house out in front. I told Fitzsimmons I was going to let Munroe stay as long as I could and try to give the people in attendance a run for their money.

"Don't you be a fool," said Bob. "You get in there and finish him as quick as you can. You're champion and you can't afford to fool around with a dub." I thought I knew best, so I went out and boxed lightly and gave the miner a chance to make a showing. I was careful not to hurt him. Fitz was mad, as a matter when I came back to my corner after the first round. He roared me to a turn and told me to go out and end it. In the next round I sparred easily again, but I hit Munroe in the stomach and dropped him harder than I meant to, and I was afraid he wouldn't get up. But he did. In spite of Fitz, who was almost raving, I let Munroe stick until the fourth round. Then I went in to finish him, but every time I feinted for an opening or stepped in with a punch he dropped to the floor without being hit and took the count. He was on his knees so much that I didn't have a chance to knock him out. That was all there was to the Munroe matter in Butte, but some time later I gave the miner a real fight and quieted him for good. That night Clark Ball had a falling out with Fitzsimmons. He rushed over and signed up Munroe and began writing all over the country, telling the papers that Munroe had won a decision over me in four rounds and had knocked me down.

Fitzsimmons was sore as a bear. He offered to fight Munroe and give him $5,000 if he stayed two rounds. Neither Munroe nor Clark Ball could see it, and Munroe wouldn't fight me another four rounds for any amount of money.
