THE GREAT QUESTION WHICH IS PER-

PLEXING CONTINENTAL

POWERS.

LONDON, Sept. 17.—A rather dark and dubious picture is presented in the record of human events in Europe this week. The brightest spot in it is, to speak

paradoxically, one of the most sinister and ominous. France has thrown herself with the abandon characteristic of her people into preparations for the coming international fete. She will welcome the visiting Russian naval squadron next month with extravagant hospitality, inspired not by love of her visitors but by hate of her nearer neighbors. No attempt is made to conceal the fact that the matchless festival which is preparing is designed above all to be a threat of defiance.

This significance of the coming event is accepted in Berlin,

Vienna, Rome and in London.

It would be foolish to ignore it and it is freely discussed in all its bearings in the European capitals.

The great question which still suggests itself is whether Great Britain will throw the weight of her influence, if not of her open co-operation, into the side of the balance which makes for peace.

Tuis means, of course, on the side of the triple alliance. For,

no matter how loud the protestations of pacific intentions that are made on behalf of the Russo-

French combination, it will continue to be regarded as a menace

and not a safeguard.

A suggestive illustration of the delicacy of the European situation is afforded by the proposal to amend the Geneva convention, which apparently emanates from

HONOLULU, SEPT. 30, 1893

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

The "energetic idiot" who infuses "western civilization" into the columns of the Advertiser is worried by HOLOMUA cats-total abstinence is not good for the D. Ts. Try Brandy and soda—as usual.

What a lot of breath and ink has been wasted in denouncing the "fuss and feathers" of royalty by the now ruling alleged democrats, and what a lot of fuss and feathers and tinsel and glitter is now on exhibition by the very same parties. The amount of gold lace and the splendor of uniforms now used by the P. G., its army and officials has not been equaled. Since the poor old Kaimiloa which was the bone of contention of the reform party, the gold-laced Colonel and Commanders, and Doctors and Quarter-masters, and generally uniformed donkeys exceed the wildest imagination of any sovereign or any minister in these islands—but the parades for Dole take the cake though.

This morning the Kinau came in from Hawaii and Maui, and the passengers on board were treated with the unusual sight of a squad of about fifty police men drawn up in line on the wharf, dressed in their best suits of clothes and commanded by Capt. Waipa. A drum regularly beaten kept the boys awake, while the crowd waited for the steamer. Deputy Marshal Brown in fatigue uniform, danced around and strained his eyes to see if somebody was on the steamer demanding the attention of the whole "force." In the background the scenery was illuminated by His Excellency the President of the Board of Health with the rank of Attorney-General who, with a "choleraic" smile and "measly" expression, sat his steed well and dreamed of goat hunting and Koolau. On foot was the second in command Marshal Hitchcock who anxiously watched the coming steamer at the same time having an eye on the Philadelphia. A gang of soldiers was ready to blaze away from the shore battery while the Minister of Interior in his duplicate role as superintendent of Wilder's steamers stood prepared to catch the hawyers.

What was the occasion for all the display? Mr. Sanford B. Dole was expected to return from Hawaii, was the answer given to our question—and because that poor sick man was to come home the authorities considered it necessary to make a display and asses of themselves. Has he done anything that it is necessary to send half the police force in white pants for him? Does the learned attorney-general so well versed in etiquettes really consider a squad of thief-catchers, marching to the monotonous sound of a drum, a guard of honor. To us it looked more like preparation for an execution than like a reception for the "executive."

Mr. Dole is a modest man; he is moreover a perfect gentleman and we are confident that he would highly disapprove of any display like the one prepared for him by his learned colleague W. O. Smith. If this government pretends to be anything, it pretends to be democratic and simple in its construction and form. To receive the head of such government returning from an excursion to a not distant part of the country with drums and salutes and police is simply a piece of sublime ridicule from which Mr. Dole undoubtedly will pray to be relieved—that is, if President Dole is of the same mind as Judge Dole used to be.

In spite of all these wonderful preparations, the President did not arrive, and the whole display of Smith, Brown, and the "force" was of no use. Judge Davidson, and Mr. Giffard returned by the Kinau, and looked with some surprise—we trust not apprehension, at the "force" drawn in line along the wharf but there was no sign of Dole. The drum sounded again and the "force," white pants and all, were marched away and got about an hour's drill on Palace Square as an excuse for having been roused so early. After their white nomenclatures had got sufficiently soiled in the dust they were allowed to go home and have their washed while all the generals went to their respective homes and enjoyed their respective "am and beggs" and coffee. In the meantime Mr. Dole remains on Hawaii without any visible improvement in his health.

Bravo! Bravo! This is from the Advertiser of this morning: "In any event the new government (of Hawaii) will be distinctively American in form and principles, and will be guaranteed by the protection of the United States." If that can mean any kind of government, except government of the people, by the people, and for the people, we do not know what a government distinctively American in form and principles can mean. It certainly cannot mean government by the 2.14 per cent Americans, who represent only 4.66 per cent. of the voters, and only pay 26 per cent. of the taxes—including the 15 per cent paid by Claus Spreckels. We are afraid that Mr. Johnstone's "private information" is a little out if it tells him that a government on American principles is ever a "minority" government, or a government by an American colony of no consequence whatever.

We very seldom read the Star in toto—it would be too heavy work for us to do in this weather, but last night we waded through every column and through every line, and we now believe that we were basely imposed upon. The reason why we undertook the onerous task was, that our eyes were caught by the heading which stated that "Minister Willis looks to 'White (sic) Society for entertainment." We were rather surprised that a man selected to represent the United States in Hawaii, should have expressed himself in such a manner, which only could be interpreted as a deliberate insult to the Hawaiians in Hawaii, but by looking through the Star, we do not find one single line which substantiates the offensive headlines, and we must therefore exonerate Minister Willis, and confine ourselves to put him on his guard in regard to the Star, its editor and the "White Society," represented by that combination and exhibited at the late Palace Ball. Consul-General Ellis Mills will be able to give the minister several good points on "the white society," with which Mr. W. G. Smith wishes to entertain him—and we do not doubt that he has done so.

THE BOARD OF HEALTH. HOW IT'S DONE!

We had to comment on Mr. Lansing's suggestion a few days ago, that supplies should be furnished to the Leper Settlement without bids being called for because the Board of Health would be "hampered" by calling for tenders, and we allowed ourselves to doubt his disinterestedness. We take it all back. It doesn't make the slightest difference to the Board evidently, if tenders are advertised or not—the contracts will be given not to the lowest bidder, but to the favorite bidder.

A good illustration of this fact has been shown in regard to the granting of the contract of furnishing medicine and drugs to the Board of Health. There were two competitors for the contract. Hollister & Co. made a bid which was $250 lower than the bid of Hobron, Newman & Co. The contract was nevertheless granted to the last named firm. The reason—well the less said the better. We shall be satisfied by calling the public's attention to the fact, that Mr. W. O. Smith, President of the Board of Health and Mr. John Ena, member of the Board of Health are both interested in the firm of Hobron, Newman & Co. But of course that has nothing to do with the matter.

THE NEW AMERICAN OFFICIAL IN HAWAII.

The Washington Post in mentioning different new appointments expresses itself as follows in regard to the appointments of Messrs. Willis and Mills:

We especially call the attention of Mr. Smith of the Star to the remarks concerning Mr. Mills "whom we are not to receive." Of the foregoing nominations the great interest centered in that of Mr. Willis to be minister to Hawaii. The newly-appointed minister, Mr. Ellis Mills, the new consul general to Hawaii, and ex-Minister Blount had a conference with Secretary Gresham on Hawaiian affairs at the State Department yesterday afternoon. Mr. Blount said subsequently that his official connection with the Government had ceased; that the Hawaiian matter was entirely out of his hands, and he did not now hold the position, as some people supposed, of special commissioner to Hawaii. While Mr. Blount's statement is technically true; it is also a fact that he will continue to take part in the counsels of the President and Secretary Gresham on the Hawaiian question. His official report has been made to the Secretary of State and with the opinions of Secretary Gresham is now before the President. A message to Congress on the subject from the President may be expected in about two weeks.

Albert S. Willis, of Louisville, Ky., nominated for minister to Hawaii, was born in Shelby county, Ky., January 22, 1843. His early education was received in the common schools, and he graduated at the Louisville Male High School in 1860. Afterward he taught school for four years, then studied law, and graduated at the Louisville Law School in 1866. Since that time he has been continuously engaged in the practice of his profession. In 1872 he canvassed the State for the Democratic electoral ticket. In 1870 he was elected attorney for Jefferson county, and was reelected in 1874. His Congressional career began in the Forty-fifth Congress, and he served in the Forty-sixth, Forty-seventh, Forty-eighth, and Forty-ninth Congresses, holding a high place in the party councils and filling the influential position of chairman of the Committee on Rivers and Harbors. He was retired from Congress on account of the political fight over the Louisville post-office during Mr. Cleveland's first term.

Mr. Ellis Mills, the new consul general to Hawaii, was born in England thirty-seven years ago, and came to this country with his parents when a small boy. His father purchased a farm near Staunton, Va., and until 1879, when he came to Washington, the new consular officer passed his time in working on the farm, and for the Valley Virginian and the Vindicator, two newspapers of Staunton. Mr. Mills became a reporter of debates in the United States Senate in 1879, and later was connected with various committees of the House of Representatives. In 1886 Mr. Bayard, then Secretary of State, made Mr. Mills his private secretary, and he remained in this capacity until the incoming of the Harrison administration, when Mr. Blaine transferred him to the consular bureau as principal clerk of the correspondence division. Shortly after the present administration began, Mr. Mills was sent with Commissioner Blount as secretary and disbursing officer of the Hawaiian commission, and had just returned from Honolulu.

The appointment of Mr. Mills was made entirely on the basis of merit. He was not a candidate for the place, and his name is supposed to have been suggested by Mr. Blount. Mr. Mills succeeds Mr. Severance, who has been at Honolulu for many years. The office pays between $7,000 and $8,000 annually.

The Race for the International Gold Cup.

AGAIN THE BRITANNIA.

RYDE (Isle of Wight), September 11.—Crowds of yachtsmen and their admirers gathered here this morning to witness the last of the three races between the American yacht Navahoe and the Britannia for the international gold cup. The yachts sailed the long Victoria course to Nab lightship and back to Cowes. A strong easterly breeze was blowing and the sea was very rough, rolling in short, heavy seas peculiar to the British channel.

The Britannia beat the Navahoe in a stiff breeze by fifteen minutes.

THE BRENTON'S REEF CUP.

RYDE (Isle of Wight), September 13.—The Prince of Wales' yacht Britannia won the race for the Brenton's Reef cup, defeating the American yacht Navahoe, owned by Royal Carroll Phelps of New York, by two seconds. It was an astonishingly close race, considering the fact that the course was 120 miles in length.

The yachts started at 11:15 yesterday forenoon. They reached the Leeds shortly before 11 o'clock last night, the Britannia reaching the winning line one minute and four seconds ahead of her American competitor. After allowing time from the start it was decided the British yacht won by two seconds only.

On board the Navahoe it was at first believed the latter yacht was the winner, and the winning flag was hoisted by her this morning.

The race to the stakeboat at Cherbourg was very close, the Navahoe having the best of the turn at 5:12 p.m., going around 30 seconds ahead of the Britannia.

Corral, the owner of the Navahoe, has decided to enter a protest against the decision giving the race to the Britannia. There is a question over reckoning the time allowance. The course was never sailed in such fast time before.

WON BY THE NAVAHOE.

COWES (Isle of Wight), September 14.—The Navahoe has been awarded the prize in the race for the Brenton Reef cup, which, according to the first calculations, was thought to be won by the yacht Britannia by two seconds, according to the time allowance. The time of the Britannia and Navahoe was the fastest over the course of 120 miles ever made.

FOR THE CAPE MAY CUP.

ISLE OF WIGHT, September 15.—The yachts Navahoe and Britannia left this morning to take part in the race for the Cape May cup. The course is from Needles to Cherbourg and back 120 miles. The race began at noon, in a very light wind, and it will probably take twenty-four hours to complete the race.

The Cape May cup, like the Brenton's reef cup, which was won from the Britannia by the Navahoe on Wednesday, was won from the American yachts in the races at New York in 1885 and carried to England by a British yacht, where they have remained ever since.

The boats were timed as they passed the Needles lighthouse as follows: Britannia, 1:02:37; Navahoe, 1:05:15. The Britannia kept the lead, and they began to drop below the southern horizon there appeared to be no change in the relative positions of the boats.

WON BY THE BRITANNIA.

ISLE OF WIGHT, Sept. 16.—The Britannia won the Cape May cup, passing the winning line in 12:52. The Navahoe finished 36 minutes, 10 seconds later.

A Romance.

Since the Boston left there are no more excursions to Lake Waterhouse, no more standing on the bridge at midnight. Poor fellows! they could not be transferred to the Philadelphia. Poor schoolmarm! they will have to wait for new fellows and new opportunities. Oh! how romantic was the love-making on the Rushing waters, only disturbed by the common herd Rushing by, and obliging her to Rush away from her tender brass-button. The season is over, the engagement is broken, and so is Lady Jeanette come Philadelphia, Rush to the rescue, and heal the open wound.

Passengers from Hawaii, and Maui, per steamer Kinau this morning, are as follows:

Dr. Sharp, Dr. Hilbey, W. T. Brigham, J. M. Davidson, Miss Emma Clarke, F. S. Lyman, T. Yotomoto, Mrs. Kahalewai, Ah Wah, W. A. Wall, Mrs. L. Aseu, E. Dowsett, John Campbell, W. Barlowitz, H. Warren, Kahanu, Mrs. Akamu, Miss Akamu.

In His True Colors.

CHIEF JUSTICE JUDD

Writes a Letter.

THE TROY BUDGET PUBLISHES IT

THE CHIEF JUSTICE AS A POLITICIAN

The following letter from Chief Justice Judd which appears in the Troy Budget finally shows that gentleman in his true light. It has heretofore been a puzzle, where he stood in the present disturbed state of affairs, and he has so far successfully avoided coming out openly. We need no comment on his letter, but shall restrain ourselves to remarking that he ought to be complimented for using official letterheads—paid for by the tax payers—even when he attends to his private correspondence from Kualoa:

DEPARTMENT OF THE JUDICIARY, KUALOA, H. I. Aug. 8, 1893.—
COLONEL C. L. MAC ARTHUR—
DEAR COLONEL:—I am taking a rest of a few weeks at a country seat some twenty miles from Honolulu, beyond the pali, and while here have read the file of the TROY BUDGET you so kindly sent to me. I have enjoyed their reading so much that I am impelled to write you to express my thanks and appreciation of the favor. The BUDGET is evidently a live paper, sound apparently on all important questions, and is not filled up with the murders and crimes which occur all over the United States, and which so many readers gloat over. I especially enjoyed your racy letters on Hawaiian affairs. With a few unimportant mistakes, due undoubtedly to erroneous information, your letters are very correct, not only in their descriptions of Hawaiian scenery but in the estimate you place upon our political importance to the United States and your diagnosis of our situation. I hope Nordhoff and Spreckels have not done us much harm. You saw and became acquainted with the persons who were prominent in the movement to rid these islands of the incubus of monarchy, and favored annexation to the United States in order to give us stability of government and thus invite and retain capital here to develop our yet untouched resources. You found them, I think, to be men who were honest, sincere and patriotic, not seeking their own but the welfare of the entire community. Nordhoff knew us equally well—but to carry out his preconceived opposition to annexation, distorted everything to our disadvantage.

Congress met yesterday. I am extremely anxious that the silver menace be disposed of summarily without compromise or conditions, and that then the Congress give some consideration to little Hawaii. Have we not been in suspense long enough? The Provisional Government has put Hawaiian affairs in better shape than they have been in for many long years. I have no idea that the President of the United States will restore Queen Liliuokalani, but until some authoritative action is taken by the President, which shows that he has no such design, many timid souls, especially among the Hawaiians, fear to favor annexation, lest it fail, the Queen be restored, and then vengeance be visited upon them! I am in this beautiful place, Kualoa, with Mrs. Judd and seven of my children, my two eldest sons having recently gone East to enter Yale University. *****

Yours sincerely,

A. F. JUDD.

LOCAL NEWS.

The P. G. Band plays this afternoon at Emma Square.

The annexationists did not receive much encouragement by yesterday's mail.

Judge Davidson and niece returned by the Kinau this morning after a visit to the Volcano.

The grand clearance sale at M. S. Levy's store will be continued to-day. Smyrna rugs and table-covers are a speciality.

By the Kinau we learn that Mr. T. W. Everett is still seriously ill, although there has been some slight improvement in his condition.

Mr. A. Hockings has been appointed Deputy Sheriff of Makawao in the place of L. A. Andrews appointed on the Honolulu "force."

Judge Davidson reports the Volcano very active and brilliant and the weather pleasant although it was raining during the last few days of his visit to the wonder of the world.

Prince David Kawanakoa is expected to return to town tomorrow after a protracted visit to Kauai. The Prince has been suffering from ill health for some time but has now fully recovered.

The first of a series of receptions to be held on board of the U. S. F. S. Philadelphia will take place this afternoon. Invitations have been issued by the Admiral, Captain and Officers to their friends on shore.

There will be a promiscuous decapitation of useless "specials" to-day in the police department. Look out now for the wailing and gnashing of teeth among the faithful and the amount of curses to be wasted against the P. G.

The conspicuous absence of the Hawaiian Minister and the P. G. special commissioner from Washington during the past few months, has given rise to the impression in that city, that they have practically abandoned the idea of annexation.

One of the finest and highest flagstaves ever imported here was landed from the Alice Cooke. The flagstaff which is 139 feet above ground and 15 feet below is the property of Mr. W. G. Irwin and will be erected at his palatial residence at Waikiki.

Mr. T. U. Simpson will take the management from tomorrow of the favorite Bathing Resort San Souci at Waikiki. We are convinced that Mr. Simpson will prove himself a very efficient and accommodating host and that the high reputation of San Souci will be further increased.

CHAS. GIRDLER,

her finest armored cruisers. It was a happy circumstance that brought the Admiral Nachimoff to anchor on our nation's birthday. She arrived about dawn, and her courteous commander, fearing to disturb the city's slumbers, reserved the thunder of his guns till eight o'clock, when the stars and stripes were run up to the main peak and the salute of twenty one guns was fired.

The Nachimoff ranks with the Blake and the New York, though more heavily armored than either. She mounts eight 8-inch, 13 ton, breech-loading rifles; ten 6-inch, 6 ton, breech-loading rifles, four 3-pound rapid fire guns, six machine guns, and four light weight guns. She also has four torpedo tubes. She mounts two b.g. turrets, one forward and one aft, each shielding two of the 8 inch guns, and she has eight armored barbettes. In addition to this, her sides are protected by a two-inch composite armor belt. All the guns and turrets are moved by electric power, the Nachimoff being the first warship to be thus equipped.

The cruiser was launched in 1885. She is 330 feet long, 61 feet beam, and of 7,782 tons displacement. Her engines are of 8,000 indicated horse power. Her deck is protected by three inch steel plating. She is propelled by twin screws and has a recorded speed of 16½ knots. She lies low in the water and is painted black. She has two square-rigged masts and a single white smokestack.

In Russia, the Nachimoff is called an armored cruiser, but in our navy she would rank as a second-class battleship. The New York is more like her than any ship in our navy, but is much faster, making about five knots more per hour. The New York is also fifty feet longer than the Russian ship and has two military masts. The Nachimoff has more heavy guns. The crew of the Nachimoff numbers 600 men, including a dozen or two officers and one passenger, a Russian artist, Leonide Blinoff, who was commissioned by the Czar to paint a picture of the Naval Review.

The ship has been on her way here since May 8, when she sailed from Cronstadt, touching at Portland, England, on June 22, the day of the loss of the Victoria, the news of which met the Russians on their arrival here, as did also that of the loss of the Vladivostock, a ship very like the Rhynda.

The officers of the Nachimoff are profited by their visit to New York by seeing all the beauties of the Hudson and the neighboring country.—The Ill. American.
