HURRICANES HELD BACK THE SONOMA

VESSEL WAS DELAYED A DAY REACHING AUCKLAND FROM SYDNEY BY A HURRICANE AND WAS WEATHER BOUND IN AUCKLAND HARBOR BY A SECOND HURRICANE—IS SCHEDULED TO DEPART AT MIDNIGHT FOR SAN FRANCISCO.

Fifty-four hours late, the S. S. Sonoma arrived this afternoon from the Colonies, but it took hurricanes to make her late. She had a hurricane going to Auckland and she had a hurricane in Auckland. The vessel left Sydney March 21. She struck a severe hurricane and got into Auckland a day late. Just as she had cleared the first hurricane and was getting into the harbor at Auckland a second hurricane came up. The hurricane continued for about nineteen hours. The vessel was weather-bound in that port for nearly another day and finally left Auckland almost two days late. She did not make good time coming to this port. The crew in the fire room seemed to be troubled with that tired feeling and would not keep the vessel up to her steaming capacity.

The vessel has a large crowd of through passengers. She brought four passengers for this port. The vessel had 34 tons for Honolulu. She is to load a quantity of bananas and other stuff and take on 600 tons of coal. She is scheduled to depart for San Francisco at midnight to-night.

THE PLANTERS AND BOARD IN HARMONY

SUBSTANTIAL SETTLEMENT REACHED IN THE LONG DISCUSSED MATTER OF TERMS FOR LABORERS—A CONTROVERSY FOUGHT FOR OVER A YEAR—CARTER'S SHARP DISAGREEMENT WITH SOME OF THE PLANTERS CAUSED HIS ILLNESS.

A long discussion by members of the board of immigration and representatives of the planters was about ended yesterday afternoon. It is understood, with a substantial agreement of Acting Governor Atkinson, W. M. Giffard and J. P. Cooke on what terms shall be offered to induce European laborers to come here. The matter has been warmly discussed at many meetings, public and private, and a substantial unity has been arrived at, under which Collector Stackable will go to Europe and be in a position to speak authoritatively as to just what intending immigrants may expect when they arrive in Hawaii.

The agreements will be in the form of contracts entered into with each settler whereby he contracts to work at a stated rate of wages, for a stated term. The employers, on the other hand, agree to furnish land, or else the government will furnish it, in places where the government already has possession of the land, and the employers will build small homes for the settlers. These homes the laborers are to have a chance to acquire as their own, by completing the terms of their contract to work. This will insure stability among the laborers, it is thought, for only by establishing permanent homes can they achieve the ownership of the homes for themselves. By the time they have completed their terms, they will be attached to their homes and will, it is believed, become permanent "settlers." The homestead policy insisted on by the acting governor has carried the day.

Discussions have been going on for

The Police Eject Gear

There was quite an exciting incident near the Quarantine wharf this afternoon. Judge George D. Gear, accompanied by his interpreter Mr. Makino, went to the place near the wharf maintained by the planters. There were nearly 400 Japanese immigrants dis-

Did Not Marry The Family

TOM HOON SAYS HIS WIFE'S RELATIVES ATE UP ALL THE FOOD HE SUPPLIED.

Tom You Hoon this afternoon filed his answer to the divorce suit filed against him and the principal proposition in it is that he is willing to support and live with his wife if she will drop the idea that he married the whole "family," and send her relatives away. According to Tom there was not only too much mother-in-law, but too much sister-in-law and many relations generally.

Hoon's answer was filed by Attorney C. W. Ashford. It says that his wife well knew he was not wealthy when he married her, but that she proposed having her mother live with them. He refused. He told her he had "no intention of marrying or supporting the family" excepting herself, but nevertheless a sister and the latter's child took up their home with him. The family also sent in their washing, calling upon Mrs. Hoon to be their laundry maid. Finally, Hoon says, though he left abundant supplies of fish, poi and other eatables in his home, the family were in the habit of making calls during the day and eating everything in sight. Hoon says he is willing to resume marital relations and support his wife, but that he will not support her entire family. Failure to provide is one of the principal grounds of the petition for a divorce.

WILL PROBABLY AUTHORIZE HILO-HONOLULU BOAT TOMORROW

IMPORTANT MEETING OF DIRECTORS OF INTER-ISLAND STEAM NAVIGATION COMPANY CALLED FOR TOMORROW MORNING—VICE-PRESIDENT OF UNION IRON WORKS IS HERE FOR A SPECIAL CONFERENCE WITH THE DIRECTORS.

George Fredericks, the vice-president of the Union Iron Works, arrived by the S. S. Sierra yesterday for the purpose of conferring with President J. A. Kennedy of the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company regarding the new steamer that the local company is to have built for the Honolulu-Hilo run. While the general plans of the new vessel had been drafted and agreed upon by President Kennedy and the Chief Engineer Johnson, it was found that there would probably have to be some changes made, so Fredericks came here to look over the plans and agree regarding the changes.

Fredericks and President Kennedy and Chief Engineer Johnson who superintended the recent construction of the Claudine, were in consultation this morning regarding the matter.

A meeting of the board of directors of the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company will be called for tomorrow morning to pass upon the plans and to finally determine whether the contract for the construction of the vessel will be authorized. The construction of the vessel has, it is understood upon excellent authority, been practically decided by the company, and the meeting tomorrow will, no doubt, result in the vessel being ordered. The new vessel will replace the steamer Kinna which is now inadequate to the demands of the tourist travel between Honolulu and Hilo.

Vice-president Fredericks will return to San Francisco by the S. S. Mongalla on Saturday, so the special meeting of the directors has been called in order to enable him to depart by that vessel.

KAIULANI TO TAKE SUGAR AROUND THE HORN SOON

WELL KNOWN VESSEL IS TO MAKE A TRIP TO SAN FRANCISCO AND ON HER RETURN WILL PROBABLY TAKE A CARGO TO ATLANTIC SEABOARD—WILL RETURN WITH A CARGO OF FERTILIZER.

The bark Kaiulani is to make a trip around the Horn this season, with sugar. The vessel left Honolulu last evening in tow of the tug Fearless for Kaniapala where she will load the bulk of her cargo of sugar for San Francisco. She took on about 500 tons of sugar stiffering at Honolulu. She will make one more trip to Honolulu from San Francisco and will then probably be loaded with sugar for the Atlantic seaboard. The vessel is to load a return cargo of fertilizer at Carterette, New Jersey for the Pacific Guano and Fertilizer Works.

The Kaiulani is owned by H. Hackfeld and Company and is a fine steel craft. She has been in the coastwise trade for a number of years. This will be her first trip around the Horn with sugar.

IMPORTANT CORPORATIONS

TWO COMPANIES FORMED TO DEVELOP NORTH AND SOUTH KONA PROPERTY.

Articles of incorporation of the West Hawaii Railway Company and the Kona Development Company were filed yesterday afternoon with the treasurer. The railway company has a capitalization of $100,000, divided into a thousand shares, of which 996 are held by Frank B. McStocker, J. B. Castle, W. R. Castle, J. F. Morgan and C. J. Hutchins hold the other shares. A raise of capitalization to one million is allowed by the proposed charter.

The railway company intends, it is set forth, to build a line of railway through North and South Kona, with outlet on the seaboard at Kailua, Naapoo or Kaawaloa, and to be extended afterwards, if circumstances warrant, into Kohala and Kau. If this is done it will connect up the whole leeward side of the Big Island, as a matter of fact, it asks for the privileges usually given in a railway charter, and is therefore most comprehensive in its terms.

The Kona Development Company is a successor of the old Kona Sugar Company, and will take over its property. It has a capitalization of $250,000, of which F. B. McStocker, president, holds 1,975 shares. The other stockholders are M. P. Robinson, J. F. Morgan, G. J. Waller, C. J. Hutchins and A. N. Campbell. The company proposes to revive the Kona Plantation.

COPTIC DUE TOMORROW.

The S. S. Coptic is due tomorrow afternoon from San Francisco. She will have two days later mail. She is en route to the Orient, on her last trip to these islands as an O. and O. vessel.

Preferred Jail To Home

Thirteen-year-old Stephen Ferdig, of Sioux City, Iowa, was arrested charged with setting fire to his father's house. When the little fellow was haled before Judge Thomas he declared that he'd set fire to his home again if not sent to jail. The boy told a pitiful story. He tolled all day in a local packing house and was always tired. "Send me to jail, judge," said the little chap "for then I'll get good food. All the others who work in the packing houses want to go to jail to."

The boy's strange request was granted, and he was committed to a reformatory.

BEANS GALORE AT THE CAPITOL

CAPTAIN GREEN'S INTERESTING COLLECTION OF CURIOUS PODS FROM THE GROUNDS.

"There are over twenty varieties of beans here," said Captain R. T. Green caretaker of the Capitol grounds this morning, "as he gathered some of the long pods of the 'Golden Shower' tree, and they prove of much interest to tourists. Some of the pods are as much as two inches long and are curiosities indeed to the average American visitor. It is a curious thing that all our shade trees run to beans and even shrubs have their seeds in that form." In his office Captain Green has quite a collection of the pods, of all sorts of sizes and shapes. Some are as thick as a walking stick and a couple of feet long. The Poinciana Regia is among those most sought after by tourists. It is a large and flat and on its surface pictures are drawn or painted, making interesting souvenirs.

charged from quarantine this afternoon and they were landed at the Quarantine wharf. Gear and Makino were, it is claimed, trying to dissuade the Japanese from being sent to various plantations about the islands. R. D. ## A Woman and Five Legal Luminaries man whose disclosures to date virtually represent an attack upon the integrity of a former governor of New York State, a former District Attorney of New York County, a lawyer political leader who stood high in the councils of the party, and two legal lights of almost national reputation. The woman is Mrs. Kathryn Poillon who not long ago earned public attention in a breach of promise action. The male characters in the drama are former Governor Frank S. Black, former District Attorney W. M. K. Olcott, Assembly District leader "Abe" Gruher and lawyers Wm. H. Bonyng and Carl Fisher Hansen. The first four named comprise the law firm of Black, Olcott, Gruher and Bonyng. Hansen was the attorney for the defendant in the settlement of Mrs. Poillon's action. In the settlement of this action Mrs. Poillon avers she received only about $3000, although she understood the defendant, paid about $20,000.

With her eyes reflecting the mental anguish she felt as she contemplated the outcome of her suit for $250,000 damages for alleged breach of promise against W. Gould Brokaw, society man and millionaire, Mrs. Poillon told last week in the City Court in New York how that action had been settled and of the paltry balm she had received as a result of the settlement. In bitter terms she accused her lawyers, Black, Olcott, Gruher & Bonyng, of having retained the lion's share of the money they received, and she asserted that $2,500 of the money paid by Brokaw went to Carl Fisher Hansen, who married a cousin of the millionaire defendant, and who represented the Brokaw family in the settlement.

Mrs. Poillon, whose moods changed on the witness stand from biting sarcasm to bitter rage, could not see why Hansen, a millionaire himself, should have received any part of the settlement money, especially as he had opposed every step she took. But W. M. K. Olcott, her attorney, she asserted, assured her Hansen was a "good fellow," and that she had received so much money out of the case she wouldn't miss the $2,500.

It was a remarkable story she told and one that threw interesting light on lawyers' methods.

JOHNSON AFTER HER CHILDREN

MRS. KENTWELL TELLS A SENSATIONAL STORY IN THE MURDER TRIAL.

Over twenty witnesses, among them the mother of Simon Wharton are under subpoena by the defense in the Johnson murder case, and this morning the line of testimony they are expected to present was begun, with the testimony of Mrs. Annie H. Kentwell, a former employer of the alleged murderer. She gave a number of details as to peculiarities in Johnson's conduct, and created something of a sensation by telling of an occasion on which he chased her children and those of a neighbor, with a stick. It was the cause of his leaving her place to go to Waihuia.

"I always trust my children perfectly with Johnson," said Mrs. Kentwell, "and so did my neighbor Mr. Castle. They used to play in the barn together. One day the children came running out and said Johnson was acting queerly and chased them with a stick. That was the reason he left us and went to Waihuia for a vacation. He never was able to work long without a vacation."

Mrs. Kentwell thought Johnson was very simple minded. He called Kentwell "Kibble" and Richardson "Fable" and could not be made to address her or other members of the family by any but their first names. He didn't know the names of streets and seemed unable to learn them. When he drank he got "lally." He would dance a jig and sing loudly.

"When he got angry," said Mrs. Kentwell, talking almost in the language which some of the insanity experts may be expected to employ, "he used to tremble all over. If I told him he was not doing his work right, he would get into a temper and shake all over."

Mrs. Kentwell told of a difficulty she once had with Johnson when he was making trouble in her kitchen. She told him to go to his room, but he seemed to want to fight. She took a stick and threatened to strike him with it, and he went. After that he was perfectly "tame."

Uncle Sam Objects to Local Law

JUDGE DOLE'S DECISION OF YESTERDAY WILL RESULT IN REQUEST FOR LEGISLATION.

The decision of United States Judge Dole yesterday in the Merriam case will result in an effort to amend the pending appropriation bill so that Congress will knock out the law in which the decision is based, as far as the federal government's dealings with the record office is concerned. Dole held that Merriam had no right under the new law of the Territory to record maps with the title which the United States is acquiring to certain lands for military base required that such record be made before the title to the land could be approved, and consequently the appropriation to pay for the land is held up.

Lieutenant Slattery has recommended that an addition be made to the appropriation act providing that money shall not be paid for lands unless the maps are recorded as asked for and that no provisions of the Territorial act here shall apply to transactions in which the United States is concerned.

MONGOLIA CAPTAIN TO BE ARRESTED

MORE FEDERAL WARRANTS EXPECTED FOR ORIENTAL STEAMERS' MASTERS.

Captain Porter of the Mongolia will probably meet quite a surprise when he comes here tomorrow. It will be a similar surprise to the one recently experienced by Captain Goring of the America Maru, for in all likelihood the Mongolia's master will be placed under arrest by United States Marshal Hendry, on a charge of violating the federal laws regarding carrying of passengers by sea.

The Mongolia is understood to have a lot of Japanese steaming passengers aboard and it is said that her steaming quarters are not arranged according to law, as in the case of the Maru. The agents will be ready with a bond in case the arrest is made, and the case will be set for hearing at some future day.

Still another arrest that will probably take place is that of Captain Seabury of the Korea, which recently passed through here on the way to the Orient. A similar fate awaits several others, it is believed.

TODAY IS CHINESE DECORATION DAY

HUNDREDS OF CHINAMEN VISITED THE GRAVEYARD IN MANOA TODAY TO DECORATE GRAVES.

The anxious house wives of Honolulu were probably mystified over the non-appearance of their Chinese cook and yard boys today. They may have searched for them but unless they took the tip from the fact that the Manoa Valley graves were crowded with Oriental particular servants, their search must have been in vain. For today hundreds of Chinamen are visiting the Manoa Valley Chinese graveyard and paying their respects to their departed ancestors.

Today is the one day of the year, with the possible exception of Chinese New Year, most sacred to the Chiuamen's heart. Today is a day set apart by Her Imperial Highness, the Empress of China for the worship of the dead.

It was during the Sung dynasty A. D. 429 that the custom originated. It seems that the emperor fell into some deadly peril and was rescued by a common laborer. The Emperor wishing to pay honor to the man who saved his life sent a commissioner to find him and bring him to the palace. The man heard of the coming commissioner and being frightened took his aged mother upon his back and fled to a forest where he hid. The commissioner in pursuit of the man, knowing that he was hid in the forest started a fire to run him out, but rather than give himself up the man perished in the flames. The emperor being sorry for the man's untimely end set apart a day for the commemoration of his death. The custom grew until today all over China men leave their work and pay their respects to those who have gone before.

The graveyard in Manoa was today cleaned of weeds. Much incense was burned and offerings of roast pig and chicken let at the graves. Thousands of firecrackers were burned and many curious rites gone through. Now the Chinaman will let the weeds grow undisturbed until the empress appoints another day, in April next sometime, for another decoration day.

INSPECTED THE MOANA.

The steamer accommodations on the S. S. Moana were inspected yesterday by the local Federal authorities. It was found that the vessel was able to provide a seat at table for every steerage passenger. It had been proposed to house the Japanese steaming passengers from this port, under an awning. It is possible that this manner of caring for the passengers may be in violation of the navigation laws and some action may be taken against the vessel on her return from Victoria.

THE PLANTERS AND BOARD IN HARMONY

over a year, and though there have been some lively disagreements from time to time, it is understood that with few exceptions, the employers, the acting governor and the board of immigration are in harmony.

The Board of Immigration, it is stated, has held more than one meeting regarding which the public was not supposed to be informed, besides the one of March 13, at which Collector Stackable was selected to go to Europe. Before the absence of Governor Carter meetings were held and it is said that there was an even sharper difference between Governor Carter and some of the planters than there has been recently between Acting Governor Atkinson and those who objected to his appointments at the first meeting after his return. In fact, Carter's breakdown is attributed by those in a position to know, to the strain of a long fight over immigration matters, which has since been carried on by Atkinson. It is now known that the governor and the acting governor were in very close touch and that both were being spurred by President Roosevelt to the end settlement policy.

On behalf of the planters the work of arranging agreements has been carried on by W. M. Giffard, one of the prominent supporters of the land settlement policy and Secretary J. P. Cooke of the Board of Immigration, and it has been a complicated and laborious task. Some of the principal difficulties it is said, have been due to the fact that some plantations had only leased land.

There will be no contracts with the laborers, it is understood, till after they land here. The law would not allow closing such deals except with men who are here. Stackable, however, will be authorized to call the attention of Portuguese or others to the attractions which Hawaii offers to settlers, and among those attractions is the chance for steady employment and the requirement of a home, with at least an acre of land, in fee simple. The Board has no control of the settlers after they come here, but all will naturally be quick to seek employment.

Among the principal difficulties of reaching an agreement has been a considerable divergence of views among the planters as to how long the contracts should be, what should be the rate of wages and what other benefits should be offered to the laborers. All these details have been discussed at length by the parties interested and mutual concessions have been made. The government's original position is said to have been that the contracts should be three-year contracts, laborers to get fee simple titles at the end of three years, while some of the plantations favored much longer contracts.

There are still numerous details to be settled, but it is not thought that any of them are of sufficient importance to make the success of the scheme doubtful.

PALOLO WATER

The Palolo water rights case was begun this morning before Mrs. Nakulua, commissioner of water rights. Deputy Attorney General F. W. Milverton appeared for the Territory, representing the various settlers who claim that A. F. Cooke's water development scheme will take away water rights of theirs. A large crowd of natives interested in the proposition were present. The hearing promises to be a long one, and the questions involved are very complicated.

JORDAN MAY GOT LANGLEY'S POST

STANFORD PRESIDENT MENTIONED FOR SECRETARYSHIP OF SMITHSONIAN INSTITUTION.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—President David Starr Jordan of Stanford University is among those mentioned as candidates for appointment as secretary of the Smithsonian Institution, to succeed the late Secretary Langley.

Member of the Board of Regents are discovering there is great interest among scientific men, educators, technical institutions and great educational establishments in the pending selection of a new secretary. There are now at least half a dozen candidates for the position. The Regents have not seriously taken up the matter yet, but they are receiving a great number of letters urging the claims of different men. The list now includes Henry T. Pritchett, president of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology; Alexander A. Agassiz, Henry Fairfield Osborn of the American Museum of Natural History, New York; Charles D. Walcott, Director of Geological Survey; Alexander Graham Bell, Professor Bessey of Nebraska State University and David Starr Jordan.

The Regents are expected to take up the question of selection at the meeting on April 10th. A prominent scientist said that, in his opinion, the first business for the Regents to thresh out would be the question of future policy.

FOR PROTECTION OF ROCKEFELLER

SUPPLEMENTS BURGLAR ALARM SYSTEM AT FOREST HILL WITH BUTTONS AND TELEPHONES.

CLEVELAND, (O.) March 25.—To protect himself from families during the coming summer, John D. Rockefeller has supplemented the burglar alarm system in his home at Forest Hill with telephones and call buttons placed at various parts of the park to enable workmen to call for assistance in case they are unable to subdue an intruder. An organized guard will be stationed in the grounds as soon as he returns from New York, and extra precautions taken to protect his life.

Call buttons are placed in the inconspicuous niches of bushes. Others are imbedded in the sides of trees, and still others are fastened to posts and parts of gates. Wherever a workman or guard may be he will be sure of having one of them close at hand. No stranger will be allowed to pass, be he minister, financier or what, until the guard is satisfied as to the right of the intruder to be there. The house itself has the most complete burglar alarm system in the United States.

JURY LAW ATTACKED

Another attack on the jury law was made yesterday in Judge De Bolt's court. In the case of Hirota and others, J. W. Cathcart entered a plea to the jurisdiction of the court, on the ground that the jury law was not a workable law, being self-contradictory, and that the court was therefore without jurisdiction to draw a jury. Judge De Bolt overruled the plea and an exception was taken.

The Sugar Market

The following is Williams, Diamond & Co.'s sugar circular dated San Francisco, March 28:

Our last circular per S. S. Sierra was dated January 21, 1906.
Sugar.—List prices in the local market advanced 19 points March 21st. An advance of 10 points over previous list prices was likewise established by the Western Sugar Refining Co. March 21, for Alaska and Hawaii, the last list quoting dry granulated at 5.15c for the localities in question.
The California & Hawaiian Sugar Refining Co. have issued an announcement to the jobbing trade that active operations were commenced at its Refinery at Crockett, California, on the 10th of March and that it will offer all grades of refined sugar on and after the 1st of April, 1906.

New York Refined.—A decline of 30 points over previous list prices occurred Feb. 12th, followed by an advance of 10 points March 1st, and again succeeded by another advance March 20th of 10 points, establishing a price on that date of 4.60c, net cash in barrels, equivalent to 4.55c net cash in bags. Since that time no further change has occurred.
London Cable.—March 23rd quotes Java 96 deg. test 98. 6d.; Fair Refining, 88. 4 1/2d. against 158. 6d. and 158. respectively, same date last year. April tests 88. 6d. against 148. 5 1/2d., corresponding period previous year.
Eastern and Foreign Markets.—A quiet, flat market for Rawes in New York prevailed throughout the early portion of the period under review, but towards the latter part of February a gradual strengthening tendency both in this country and abroad became noticeable, while the improvement thus established has continued in force during the current month until within the last few days wherein according to latest telegraphic advices from New York, a slightly easier tone to the market has developed.
In Europe, where the weather lately has been reported by Mr. F. O. Licht to be unfavorable for field work, the stability and firmness manifest in the market has been a most encouraging feature of this situation and in some quarters it is thought likely that the receipt and dissemination of news from Cuba to the effect that owing to heavy rains, the yield is disappointing, necessitating a change in crop estimates of from 1,300,000 tons as formerly given to say 1,000,000 to 1,100,000 tons, has exerted an influence, perhaps sentimental, in the direction of the maintenance of full values and a steady market.
As regards Cuba, a considerable quantity of her crop has already been disposed of and in the light of existing conditions, sellers are inclined to maintain a firm front, while buyers in this country, on the other hand, have been roused from their lethargy by a quickening into activity of the Refined product after a comparatively long period of light demand, and the resultant effect is shown in consummation of transactions on a liberal scale at a higher range of quotations than formerly in evidence.

Latest Statistical Position.—Willet & Gray reports U. S. 4 ports in all hands, estimated March 21st 227,716 tons against 216,575 tons, same date last year. Six ports Cuba, estimated Mar. 20th, 297,000 tons against 252,000 tons same date in 1905, United Kingdom, Mar. 1st bonded stock 102,000 tons against 129,000 tons, previous year. Total stocks in all the principal countries by cable Mar. 22nd, at latest uneven dates 3,954,716 tons against 3,779,675 tons; increase from last year 1,175,041 tons. Sugar crops of the World—total cane sugar crops (W. & G.) 4,959,833 tons. European Beet Sugar crops (F. O. Licht) 6,955,000 tons. United States Beet Sugar Crop (W. & G.) 283,717 tons. Grand total cane and beet sugar 12,198,550 tons against 9,547,846 tons, previous campaign—estimated increase in the World's production, 2,650,704 tons.

DOCTORS FOR THE SETTLEMENT
DR. BRINCKERHOFF AND AN ASSISTANT WHO IS COMING HERE FROM PHILADELPHIA.
The Board of Health held a short meeting yesterday, at which leper settlement matters were the principal subjects discussed. President Pinkham's report to the Board referred to the arrival of Dr. Brinckerhoff, who is to have charge of the Federal leperarium, and said: "Through the kind interest of Dr. W. C. Wile and Professor Shoemaker of Philadelphia, we have been able to secure Dr. H. T. Hollmann of Philadelphia as Assistant Physician at the Settlement. Mr. J. P. Cooke very kindly aided our executive with the advance funds necessary to accomplish this object."
"I have in pursuance to your authorization formally notified the Superintendent of Public Works that the Board would surrender the water rights and necessary rights of way in the upper portion of the Waianuan Valley, County of Kalawao, Molokai, to the extent of the preliminary application. I have not believed it necessary or proper to surrender the control of the land. The question of fuel is becoming an important one at the Settlement and furnishes one argument for retaining control of the land in question. It seems to me we have conceded all that is definitely asked for."
"Owing to the savings made on some of our supplies we are enabled to establish some conveniences at the Settlement that our means would not otherwise permit. Laundrying in a great hardship on our wards. I have therefore secured one combination disinfecting and washing machine, one ordinary washing machine, two extractors and one simple mangle with which all the laundrying may be done. The motive power is the same as that used for the pot factory, as there is no additional expense for power or steam plant. I present plans for the building."
The Board formally approved the appointment of Dr. Hollmann as assistant at the settlement.

This morning at 10 o'clock the County of Oahu consummated the deal of buying the Kunst property at Waikiki Beach which is to be used for a public recreation ground. The price paid was $18,000. He wants to sail up with the yacht and will do so even if she has to be considerably delayed.
