More Punch.

The Punch which was "doled" out at the Hawaiian booth has evidently gone to the heads of some of the estimable ladies who managed the Feast of Nations. The Advertiser is virtuously shocked and the Star is seriously grieved—perhaps the editors didn't "catch on" to the punch, and now regret their oversight. A Mrs. E. W. Jordan who evidently had something to do with the feast has made the following remarkable statement to the Advertiser.

"The matter was brought to my attention on Friday evening, when I was told that a punch was being sold at the Hawaiian booth. I went to Mrs. Haalele, who was in charge, and told her what I had heard. She said that if any intoxicating liquors were being sold, it was without her knowledge, and that she would try to stop it. She went to both Mr. Cummins and Mr. Morseberg, and requested that, if such a thing was being done, it should be stopped. That was all that we could do in the matter.

"I also heard that there were other liquors sold at the booth. I could not believe that this was so, even in the matter of the punch, and I decided to investigate the matter. In smelling it, I did not detect any liquors, but thought that a little anise seed had been added to it. I found out, later, however, that it was a regular punch.

"As to the matter of our not accepting the money from the booth, that would be an injustice to Mrs. Haalele, that we would not like to do. We have decided to accept it, but will probably add the Maternity Home to the list of charities to be benefited by the bazaar. This is an Hawaiian institution, and if some Hawaiians wish to disgrace themselves in the way that occurred at the Feast, then Hawaiians can use the money obtained in such a way."

We do not know, who Mrs. Jordan is, but we have no doubt that she is honest in her convictions, and only through ignorance or stupidity expresses herself in such grossly insulting manner towards the Hawaiians. We beg to call special attention to the finishing sentiments. It is there indicated that Mrs. Jordan thinks that a valuable and highly deserving institution like the Maternity Home is bad enough to accept money gained in a disgraceful (sic) manner while the useless and absurd institutions like the W. C. T. U. and Y. M. C. A. are not to be contaminated by money received from the sale of liquor. The Maternity Home is to be congratulated on getting the money from the Hawaiian booth, and it is to be complimented for being made the object for the contempt and insults of Mrs. Jordan and her ilk. But this lady should be consistent if such a jewel can be obtained by her. The management of the Feast of Nations should refuse to accept the money made in the Portuguese booth. Mr. E. S. Cunha the proprietor of the Central Union "Art Gallery," spent a good deal of money for the benefit of the Portuguese booth. It presented an excellent appearance and was well patronized by fellow-worshippers with Mrs. E. W. Jay. Mr. Cunha makes his money by selling liquor and it is wrong for Mrs. Jordan, and the W. C. T. U. to accept any sum made in such a "disgraceful" manner. The W. C. T. U. is warring against saloons and liquor, but they seem to be very willing to accept support from the men who make their living, and their fortunes by selling the "licensed" stuff. It would be interesting to see a list of those who partook of Mr. Cummins' punch and paid for it. Mrs. Jordan would probably find that a large number of the 'faithful' from the President down, patronized the Hawaiian booth and took a 'nip.' The whole affair is extremely absurd but made deliberately insulting, to the Hawaiian ladies and gentlemen who helped the Feast with untiring energy to success. We hope it is the last time that Hawaiians will have anything to do with any charitable affair managed by such narrow-minded, bigotted, and silly people, like those represented by Mrs. E. W. Jordan. While the punch-war is on, it would be well for the "missionary," and very straight-faced ladies to remember that, at the same time, the Hawaiian village at the Midwinter Fair is coming money, and virtually existing on the proceeds of the Hala exhibition under the immediate management of Lorrin A. Thurston. The reports from the Fair continue to speak about the disgraceful and vulgar show of the lot of abandoned women exported by, and presented under the patronage of Hobron and Thurston. When that washing of Hawaii's dirty linen in the public has been stopped through the agency of Mrs. Jordan the W. C. T. U., and its special organs the Advertiser, and the Star, it is time enough to "go for" the punch that harmed nobody, and according to Mrs. Jordan's statement wasn't near strong enough. It is about time that Hawaii was rid of the "missionary" element. It is getting too idiotic, too obnoxious and by far too ridiculous.

Scalp Hunters.

The official headmen are again in their war paint. The dismissal of Auditor General Ross has been followed by the dismissal of Hon. W. James Smith for 29 years, the secretary of the Board of Education. Of course, these dismissals are called resignations but everybody knows the manner in which these resignations came about. To fill Mr. Ross' most important place, it is stated that one of Henry Baldwin's bookkeepers has been chosen. We believe Mr. Laws to be an honest and upright man, but his affiliations are so that he will never be able to show that spirit of independence, that made Mr. Ross a valuable man to the country and deserving of the respect of the nation. The place of Mr. Smith it is rumored will be filled by Mr. Girvin who has a claim on the government for his writing efforts as a gratis contributor to the official papers. W. James Smith has been called an autocrat, and has been abused because he ran the Board of Education, in a manner that he, after 29 years of experience, considered proper. It was easy for the superficial rethinking crowd to criticize and condemn him. It will be found that his services will be sorely wanted and that this act of ingratitude on the part of the government will rebound on the head of its super-vicious members. Mr. Smith and Mr. Ross take with them into their private life, the unbounded and gratitude of the country, and they have through their faithful services to the country erected for themselves better monuments than could be hewn in stone or marble. And now let the scalp-hunters go after the members of the provisional government who have not yet registered and taken the famous oath!

Must Be Re-Naturalized.

A Nut for the American(?) League.

To the Editor of the Examiner—
SIR: Please answer the following questions: If a native-born American citizen becomes a citizen of Hawaii will he have to be naturalized like a foreigner to be restored to citizenship? Is there any similar case known?
San Jose. A. SUBSCHER.

[The Federal statutes specifically recognize the right of expatriation. A citizen who surrenders his citizenship is thereafter an alien and can acquire his citizenship again only in the same manner as any other alien.]

Examiner Apr. 10, 1894.

Ways The P. G. Ways are Peculiar.

Under the heading, "Tricks that are vain" the Advertiser published the following editorial on the 17th inst. Considerable favorable comment has been made thereon by the general public and newspaper men and through fear the "I" might overlook it, on account of absence, we take pleasure in reproducing it in the HOLOMUA with the additional remark that "we second the motion." Following is the article:

The exclusion of newspaper reporters from the biennial visits of the Board of Health to the leper settlement is a piece of silliness which smacks of "second childishness and mere oblivion." There is absolutely no reason for this futile attempt to conceal the affairs of the Government from the public. The reason assigned, for not allowing press representatives to go, is the alleged want of accommodations. The reporters' puncture this excuse by a willingness to sleep on deck. Then comes the objection that "if one paper wishes representation another will." Why should it not? "But if the local press is represented the foreign press will demand the same privileges." This last objection shows where the shoe pinches. The American papers must not know that there is any Kalaupapa or Kalawao, and the wisdom of the ostrich, which evades pursuit by hiding its head in the sand, is justified of its imitators in the Hawaiian Government.

If the Attorney General is really and soberly of the opinion that the people are best served by letting the people know just so much of affairs as its rulers are pleased to communicate, then he should apply this rule with consistency and with justice. Why should each member of the Board have the right to invite one guest? Why should visiting clergymen have a privilege which is denied to residents? Why is the curiosity of the mere tourist allowed a larger scope than the legitimate interest of the public, as represented by its organ, the Press? There is no common sense in this rule of secrecy and no justice in the modes of its enforcement. It brings nothing but discredit upon the Government, subjects its motives to misconstruction, and deprives it of the strength which comes from an aroused and instructed public opinion.

The Boston Transcript.

The official organs are extremely wroth against Captain Palmer, who a short while ago visited Hawaii as special correspondent to the Boston Transcript. The Advertiser abuses the captain and the Star tries to ridicule him. None of them through endeavor to dispute about the statements of Mr. Palmer except by calling him in general terms a liar. The special assertion that worries our immaculate contemporaries is that the only American capital here is that brought and invested by Claus Spreckles. Of course, the Star man knows nothing about the matter, but the Advertiser ought certainly to be sufficiently well posted to know that the statement of Palmer is truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth. Let us refresh the memory of the Advertiser in regard to the American capital brought here by Americans. How much did C. R. Bishop bring? What the capital in the pockets of S. N. Castle when he arrived here. Did G. N. Wilcox, Chas. Cook, E. O. Hall, H. P. Baldwin, Z. Spalding, S. Damon, Alexander, Bailey, Dillingham, "Cabby" Brown, Cartwright, Brewer, Carter, Jones or that "new" American Waterhouse invest one solitary cent of American capital, or did they make out of Hawaii their money of which they now boast, and which they now call American capital. If the p. g. organettes would answer our questions instead of abusing Captain Palmer and the Boston Transcript they would probably be forced to admit that he not alone told the truth, but that he was an extremely well informed man in regard to Hawaiian affairs.

Judge Robertson of the District court should not have allowed his name to be used as a candidate for delegate to the Constitutional Convention. His lack of judgment has caused his name to be withdrawn, without his consent, by the 3rd district club.

LOCAL NEWS.

A crowded house greeted the Dailey Stock company's first performance at the Opera House last evening.

The wind came from the South last evening and occasional rain-showers was the consequence. Heavy rain showers have prevailed during this morning with prospects of a continuance.

The League flag is a fair weather flag only. The fact that there are no good Americans behind it is shown by the lack of display in rainy weather; the colors might run; so the chief once said.

A smelling and tasting committee will probably be organized by the W. C. T. U. to do duty at all bazaars where lemonade or punches are dispensed.

The long expected French man-of-war was sighted at mid-moon today.

The Council will meet to-morrow.

The French frigate Duchaufault arrived in port here this afternoon from Callao. The usual salutes were exchanged with the war-vessels in the harbor.

In case of doubt as regards the time of visit of Admiral Walker to the Cabinet yesterday the p. g. scribes have placed it in the Court journals as having occurred at "high noon."

The names of American members of the secret and other Leagues in town and of all who take the p. g. oath are being registered.

Registration is now going on very slowly, even the Portuguese becoming backward in coming forward.

Jailor Low is believed to be a government official, yet he is believed to be engaging actively in politics and has been elected as delegate to the coming p. g. farce. What fools these p. g. politicians be.

"Hons" seems to be a familiar, very familiar name in town. It was, formerly, in San Francisco. It is now on Maui, in connection with the annexation party. "Birds of a feather."

And the Fort street school scholars have had one week taken off their Easter vacation to permit "My Mary Ann" to have eight weeks pleasure at the disreputable Fair, on salary. And of such is the Board of Education.

Hon. W. James Smith, a well-known resident and one who has most acceptably filled the position of Secretary of Bureau of Education for nearly 30 years has been compelled to resign by the dictators. Mr. Damon should have spoken.

The party specially permitted, by order of the President of Health, W. O. Smith, to visit the isolated and drowed leper settlement at Molokai and inspect the malodorous surroundings of the lapers, gaze upon scabs, sores and mayhap, inhale their baleful breaths, returned to the city last evening by the Lehua. The dentists may have made examinations and obtained some knowledge which may be transpired to the jaws of their customers; the physician if they did make any examinations will not divulge it, the other tourists will advertise the surroundings, in conjunction with the debased and unnecessarily insulted, news paper men and correspondents.

Honors Are Cheap.

The police force and the Hitchcock family have honored "Boss" Hitchcock, the marshal, in Hilo by pinning on to his many bosom a police badge.—Another member of the same family has deprived Hilo of his society not being desirous of taking the choice between a striped suit and a forced honorable marriage. No cod fish in his! Of such are the missionaries virtuous flock!

BEFORE THE FOOTLIGHTS.

Monte Cristo at the Hawaiian Opera House.

"Standing room only" could well have been placed on the entrance doors to the Opera House last evening before the curtain rose on the first performance of the Dailey Company of players and who made their initial bow to the Hawaiian public in the well-known, aged, but ever interesting drama of "Edmond Dantes, or the Count of Monte Cristo." The audience was a most flattering one to the newcomers and the interest created by Manager Frank Hoogs showed a result, which the performers endeavored to prove worthy of by meritorious efforts to effectively portray the characters in their keeping. The first scene, depicting a view of the harbor of Marseilles, also showed a group of people expecting the arrival of the ship Pharaoh on which their townsman Edmond Dantes was an officer. Here the audience became introduced to members of the new company in Mortimer Snow (Mons. Nortier) Mr. W. R. Dailey (Cadarrusse) and Mrs. F. M. Bates (Carconte, wife of Cadarrusse) May Nannary (Mercedes) and last, but not least, Darrel Vinton (Edmond Dantes). Miss Jessie Gashman introduced herself in a catchy rendition of "Daisy Bell" and, later on, in a pas de deux, Sailor's Hornpipe in both of which events she received hearty encores. The business of the play from this first act allowed of none other interpolations and from thence on the audience had full opportunity to be judge of the meritorious manner in which Mr. Vinton presented Edmond Dantes and the Count of Monte Cristo; Mr. Mortimer Snow his interpretation of Nortier, Miss Nannary as Mercedes and the others of the cast in other roles. That the audience were in an appreciative mood was plainly apparent and it culminated at the end of the 3rd act by a call before the curtain of Messrs. Vinton, Snow, Dailey, Mrs. Bates and Connors.

In the 4th act, Miss Genevieve Nannary (Albert de Morcier) acquitted herself most creditably and Miss May Nannary added to her list of admirers by the clever and not overdone acting of the Countess de Morcier, in the difficult scene between herself and the Count Monte Cristo. The last act of all was rather crudely performed for professionals, especially the "duel to the death" scene, the forest of Fontainebleau having a chilling effect upon the previously heated and impressionable dictum and acting of the participators. As a whole the performance was far better than any that has been presented upon the boards of the Opera House for many a day and there is no doubt, but that the company has found a place in public favor. Before leaving the subject it is suggested that the acoustic properties of the hall are poor, and it would be well for the performers to increase the volume of tone used when back from footlights.

In the dungeon scene, last night, nearly all the dialogue between the Count of Monte Cristo, and the Abbe Faria was unintelligible, although spoken well. "Wife for Wife" is underlined for tomorrow Thursday evening, and the box plan is now open at Levy's.

Coercion.

We have refused to believe that there was any truth in the generally circulated report that a certain local firm had instructed his employees to register or resign. As the employees of the said firm have neither registered nor resigned, the rumor ought to fall dead or go to the Advertiser. Today it is told that a number of faithful Hawaiian workers for a certain lumber firm are told to register before Saturday or "git." If the provisional government thinks it makes supporters in that manner it is "out of tune."

LATEST NEWS.

Washington Apr. 9.—The proceedings in the Senate to-day from the opening to the closing of the session, were full of interest. The first in point of time was the swearing in of Mr. Walsh as the Senator from Georgia to Colquitt. Two resolutions intended to facilitate the debate on the tariff bill were introduced, one by Senator Mills, providing for an amendment to the rules so as to permit of the previous question, and the other by Senator Allen, providing for the taking of the final vote of the bill on June 7th, allowing three days for debate under the five-minute rule. Both went over without action.

The chief interest of the day entered in Senator Hill's speech. The speech was mainly directed against the income tax, although Mr. Hill spoke of the "humiliation" of the Hawaiian question, which he attributed to the fact that the head of the State Department was a republican.

Wichita (Kan.) Apr. 9.—The Daltons or other robbers attempted to hold up the Rock Island passenger train No. 1 to night at a point about four miles below Pond creek in the Cherokee Strip, but they met such a prompt resistance from a Wells, Fargo & Co's messenger that they carried away with them nothing except a few bullets in their hides.

New York, Apr. 6.—The American and Union News companies have refused to handle W. T. Stead's book, "If Christ came to Chicago," and have notified their dealers to cancel all orders sent to the publishers at Chicago.

Washington, Apr. 9.—The President will issue a proclamation to-day or to-morrow on Bering sea.

London, Apr. 9.—In the House of Commons to-day Sir William Vernon Harcourt moved that the Government take the time of the House on Tuesdays and Fridays, the state of public business requiring that such a demand be made.

Balfour opposed the motion, contending that the Government was frittering away the time of the House in its foolish proposal in regard to the appointment of the Scotch committee. The Commons rejected by a vote of 263 to 244 a motion made by the Marquis of Camarthen, Conservative, amending of Sir William Vernon Harcourt and limiting the time to be covered by the motion to period between now and then Whitsuntide congress. Sir William Harcourt's motion was finally adopted by a vote of 249 to 223. Subsequently the bill was sent through the committee by special consent. It was reported to the House after 12 o'clock and passed its third reading amid cheers.

London, Mar. 19.—Mr. E. Blake has informed Lord Rosebery that the Irish party are absolutely satisfied with the new cabinet. The Liberal papers are in full accord with the speech in which Mr. Dillon declares that his lordship's explanation proves that he is an honest and honorable champion of Ireland.

Baltimore, Apr. 10.—One of the most destructive fires of its kind which has ever occurred in this city took place last night in the burning out of Bernard Mannie's livery stable. It was filled with valued blooded stock and expensive equipage. One hundred and thirty-five animals were burned or suffocated.

London, Apr. 10.—The Right Hon. Charles S. Bowen, Lord Justice of her Majesty's Court of Appeals, is dead.

Kickers.

Certain horse-owners, or certain owners of horses are objecting to the conditions in the 2:40 class on the Jockey Club programme and make some very rash statements in the Advertiser this morning. The race that meets with objection is described as "Class 2:40—Trotting and pacing; free for all. Mile heats, best two in three. Pacers to go to road out." The kicker in the Advertiser claims that "owing to the poor condition of the track," trotters will have a big advantage over pacers. This would be perfectly true if the track on the 11th of June was in the same condition as it is today. But we can state upon the very best authority that the track will receive such an overhauling and be put in such a condition as has never been the case here. The work on the track will be started within a day or two and the well known energy of Secretary Gill is a guarantee that the condition of the track will be above criticism on the day of the meeting. The "kick" is against handicapping pacers by making them go to road carts while trotters go to sulky. We are generally averse to see a race programme made up with special horses, in view as entering for special horses, but we admit that in a very small country like this with a very limited number of race horses conditions alter cases. The Advertiser "kicker" states that there are eight pacers ready to start in the race to which objection is made, if the handicap is taken off and he also says that "the trotters eligible for this race have better records than the pacers." We would like to have the Advertiser mention the name of the eight pacers "ready to start" and also of the records of the "eligible trotters." The best known pacers like Creole, Silky, Gerster and others, cannot enter in the 2:40 class—in fact we know of only one pacer and one trotter eligible. The pacer belongs to Mr. R. Davis and was imported from California while the trotter is Mr. C. Macfarlane's Hawaiian bred horse. Fred Mac. we are always anxious to learn and if of other horses are to be entered in the class we may change our views in regard to the handicap.—The best time made by Fred Mac, is 2:41 while as far as we know Mr. Davis' horse has no public record. There is another race on the programme for pacers and trotters, free for all and without class restriction and without handicap and that ought to be satisfactory to the owners of the eight wonderful pacers. We believe that horse-races under the patronage of the Hawaiian Jockey Club should have as an object the true sport and the improvement of the breed in Hawaii. They certainly should not make a chance gambling little or no better than the games "run in" by the ever vigilant Captain Lorrin Andrews.—We shall return to this subject and probably furnish our readers with some information that will prove that the handicap in the 2:40 class is justifiable. The "dark" horse business is played out here. Neither true horse men nor the public approve of that principle.

in the name of human progress, liberty and the Lord. Honest men who want to take Hawaii should be above such hypocritical pretenses. We have been, through our swarms of alleged missionaries lifting the natives of the Sandwich islands "from barbarism into Christian peace and happiness," for seventy-one years, and in that period our agents of "progress" have "lifted" the natives from 250,000 to 42,000 in number and possessed themselves of all on the islands worth the having; and finally these same agents, with the aid of some half-civilized Portuguese, have disfranchised the original owners of the country, usurped their government, and notified the world that all this had been done in the name and on behalf of human "liberty." We can respect a bold buccaneer; we cannot respect a rapacious hypocrite, who goes to the heathen, a Bible in one hand, a gun in the other and all his pockets bearing bottles of "liquid damnation."

The Old Cry.
"We should consider that these people are enlightened human beings, products of the same stock that produced the patriot fathers of 1776 and the heroes of 1861-5. We should consider that they are of the race that has carried progress, liberty, and light to every quarter of the earth. And we should ask ourselves whether human freedom is likely to perish at our or any other demand so long as they have it in their charge. The truth is that we shall be the chief victims of such a folly as is contemplated in the proposed abrogation of the Hawaiian treaty. We shall lose our hold over the most important strategic point in the Pacific ocean, our claim to the confidence and sympathy of a brave and admirable people. And what we lose some other great power will acquire. We cannot destroy Hawaii if we would. We can only relinquish the honor and the glory of having lifted her from barbarism into Christian peace and happiness."—Washington Post.
This is the old, old cry of "man-first destiny." We must stand by and give support to 2,000 Americans, who have carried ruin and religion to the Kanakas—thiefly rum—robbed the natives of their lands, and finally enslaved them, and we must do all this
