NOTICE.
Having leased the
TRAINING STABLES
from H. J. Agnew, at Kaplanui Park, I am
now prepared to take horses to train, and prepare them for the coming Fair on the 11th of June next.
Breaking and Educating Young Horses
a specialty.

It is a point of importance to all owners of fine young colts not to have them jammed or hammered over the hard roads, and to get them properly handled for the first lessons are the ones that make the horse.

Also in connection with my Training Stables, I will serve a certain number of choice mares with my Young Hambeltonian Stallion "APTOS CHIEF."
He was sired by Electioneer, owned by Gov. Stanford. The sire of Electioneer was Risdeke's Hambeltonian. The dam of Aptos Chief was sired by Speculation;
he by Risdeke's Hambeltonian—so it will be seen that Aptos is an in-bred of Hambeltonian.

Terms for service of Aptos Chief, $50 for the season, payable at the time of service; and all mares failing to be with foal will have the service of the horse the next season free of charge.

WHAT IS THIS DISEASE THAT IS COMING UPON US?

Like a thief at night it steals in upon us unawares. Many persons have pains about the chest and sides, and sometimes in the back. They feel dull and sleepy; the mouth has a bad taste, especially in the morning. A sort of sticky slime collects about the teeth. The appetite is poor. There is a feeling like a heavy load on the stomach; sometimes a faint all-gone sensation at the pit of the stomach which food does not satisfy.
The eyes are sunken, the hands and feet become cold and feel clumsy. After a while a cough sets in at first dry, but after a few months it is attended with a greenish coloured expectoration. The afflicted one feels tired all the while, and sleep does not seem to afford any rest.
After a time he becomes nervous, irritable, and gloomy, and has evil forebodings. There is a giddiness, a sort of whirling sensation in the head when rising up suddenly. The bowels become costive; the skin is dry and hot at times;
the blood becomes thick and stagnant;
the whites of the eyes become tinged with yellow, the urine is scanty and high-coloured, depositing a sediment after standing. There is frequently a spitting up of the food, sometimes with a sour taste, and sometimes with a sweetish taste; this is frequently attended with palpitation of the heart; the vision becomes impaired with spots before the eyes; there is a feeling of great prostration and weakness. All of these symptoms are in turn present. It is thought that nearly one-third of our population has this disease in some of its varied forms. It has been found that medical men have mistaken the nature of this disease. Some have treated it for a liver complaint, others for kidney disease, etc., but none of the various kinds of treatment have been attended with success, because the remedy should be such as to act harmoniously upon each one of these organs, and upon the stomach as well; for in Dyspepsia (for this is really what the disease is) all of these organs partake of this disease and require a remedy that will act upon all at the same time.
Seigel's Curative Syrup acts like a charm in this class of complaints, giving almost immediate relief. The following letters from chemists of standing in the community where they live show in what estimation the article is held.
John Archer, Hart Hill, near Sheffield:
—I can confidently recommend it to all who may be suffering from liver or stomach complaints, having the testimony of my customers, who have derived great benefit from the Syrup and Pills.
The sale is increasing wonderfully.
Geo. A. Webb, 141, York Street, Belfast:—I have sold a large quantity, and the parties have testified to its being what you represent it.

J. S. Metcalf, 55, Highgate, Kendal:
—I have always great pleasure in recommending the Curative Syrup, for I have never known a case in which it has not relieved or cured, and I have sold many grosses.
Robt. G. Gould, 27, High Street, Andover:—I have always take a great interest in your medicines and I have recommended them, as I have found numerous cases of cure from their use.
Thomas Chapman, West Auckland:—
I find that the trade steadily increases.
I sell more of your medicines than any other kind.

Frickheim, Arbroath, Forfarshire,
Sept. 23, 1882. Dear Sir,—Last year I sent you a letter recommending Mother Seigel's Syrup. I have very much pleasure in still bearing testimony to the very satisfactory results of the famed Syrup and Pills. Most potent medicines die out with me, but Mother Seigel has had a steady sale ever since I commenced, and is still in as great demand as when I first began to sell the medicine. The cures which have come under my notice are chiefly those of liver complaint and general debility.
N. Darroll, Clun, Salop:—All who buy it are pleased, and recommend it.
Jos. Balkwill, A. P. S., Kingsbridge:— The public seem to appreciate their great value.

A. Armstead, Market Street, Dalton-in-Furness:—It is needless for me to say that your valuable medicines have great sale in this district—greater than any other I know of, giving great satisfaction.
Robt. Laine, Melksham:—I can well recommend the Curative Syrup from having proved its efficacy for indigestion myself.

A certain minister in my neighbourhood says it is the only thing which has benefited him and restored him to his normal condition of health after being unable to preach for a considerable length of time. I could mention also a great many other cases, but space would not allow. A near friend of mine, who is very much addicted to costiveness, or constipation, finds that Mother Seigel's Pills are the only pills which suit his complaint. All other pills cause a reaction which is very annoying.
Mother Seigel's Pills do not leave a bad after-effect. I have much pleasure in commending again to suffering humanity Mother Seigel's medicines, which are no sham. If this letter is of any service you can publish it.
Yours very truly,
(Signed) William S. Glass, Chemist.
A. J. White, Esq.

15th August, 1883.
Dear Sir,—I write to tell you that Mr.
Henry Hillier, of Yatesbury, Wilts, informs me that he suffered from a severe form of indigestion for upwards of four years, and took no end of doctors' medicine without the slightest benefit, and declared Mother Seigel's Syrup which he got from me has saved his life.
Yours truly, (Signed) N. Webb,
Mr. White. Chemist, Calne.

OUR BIRTHDAY.

To-day the DAILY BULLETIN enters upon its seventh half-yearly volume, having completed three years of existence. The pioneer of the daily press of this Kingdom, it has been under one business management from the start, and one proprietorship from August 1st, 1882. Although under a variety of editorial direction since it became a full-fledged journal of public opinion, it has, as a rule, steadfastly lived up to its motto:—"Pledged to neither sect nor party. But established for the benefit of all." Started as an advertising and local news circular of one page—16 in. x 10 in.—it arrived, by a series of strides, at its present respectable size. On the 27th of February, 1882, the increase of patronage justified printing two sides of the paper, and two days later, March 1st, it became necessary to enlarge to a demy folio. On April 24th, it appeared as a four page paper, and on October 23rd the size was increased by adding two inches to the length of column. The present size was attained on Oct. 15th, 1883, and it is no empty boasting to say that it has proved ample enough to give more local intelligence than the larger rivals that have stepped in to contest the ground none too large for a single daily paper to flourish upon with any degree of luxuriance. Despite all rivalry, some of which was instituted with great flourish of trumpets, the DAILY BULLETIN has, undoubtedly, by far the largest circulation in Honolulu of any paper, and the largest everywhere of any local daily. It is, therefore, not so very surprising, that, in spite of the dull times, our advertising columns continue to be moderately well-filled. Our only promise for the future may be inferred from the assurance that we fully realize the responsibility devolving upon us from the gratifying measure of public confidence heretofore bestowed upon our efforts to supply an independent, popular, useful, clean and live daily newspaper. The present occasion is signalized by our adoption of an elegant new heading.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

It affords us pleasure to give an unreserved endorsement to the following from the Saturday Press, concerning David A. McKinley, American Consul for Honolulu:—"Seldom or never has a consular office been more economically managed, more faithfully served, more obligingly tended, more satisfactorily filled. And we firmly believe that there is no man in Honolulu whose opinion is worth having who will not agree with us when we say that Consul McKinley in the office of American Consul is 'the right man in the right place.'" There is no doubt about it. Mr. McKinley could not have fitted the office better if he had been measured and made for it. He knows his duty and does it. A dozen suitable men might be named for the position and not one of them so suitable as the present incumbent; and it is to be hoped, in the interests of the office, that it will be long before Mr. McKinley will conceive the intention of retiring or the President of the United States entertain the thought of displacing him.

The Advertiser, evidently in reply to a paragraph in this column on Saturday, represents the date as being one of the most flourishing products of our soil. We have been told that the fruit here does not mature well and is comparatively valueless, but if warm saline water, as our former paragraph intimated, is the main condition, we cannot see why the date should not be produced here as an article of profitable export.

The general newspaper can only with propriety give religious news, and must know neither division nor sect in the Christian world. Therefore, such a paper as the Friend, devoted to the interests of what is regarded as orthodox Christianity by a majority of Protestants—as at present conducted, comprehending every branch of religious activity sustained by that "way"—can hardly fail to secure all the patronage it bids for. Its composition and arrangement indicate journalistic skill of no mean order. In the current number Marshal Soper is praised for pouncing upon a lottery, and recommended to go for the gambling operations at church fairs. Mr. Forbes, in the missionary department, advocates converting the Chinaman instead of kicking him out.

THE LUNALILO ANNIVERSARY.

A large number of ladies and gentlemen drove out to the Lunalilo Home on Saturday afternoon, on the occasion of that institution being thrown open to the public in honor of its benevolent founder's natal day. The visitors were rewarded with all the enjoyment that could be afforded by the magnificent view of ocean, and mountain, and embowered city between, together with the programme of the Royal Hawaiian Band—whose music could not be heard to better advantage than out in the open among the hills—the invigorating mountain breezes, and the very interesting insight into the institution itself. Among those who availed themselves of the opportunity for such a rare outing were H. R. H. the Princess Likelike, His Honor Chief Justice Judd, Prof. Wayland and wife, Principal Scott, the Rev. A. Mackintosh, H. B. M. Com. Wodehouse, Mrs. Campbell, Representative Dole, Col. Saxe, of California, and Mr. Unna, of Hana. Many mounted the tower of the main building to get the full benefit of the breeze and the view, and some rode and others strolled on foot over the grassy slopes while the band played. It is safe to say that no public institution was ever exhibited in a better-kept or sweeter state. The dormitories of the inmates were all that could be desired to enable the aged pilgrims to take all the rest by day or night that their years require. Seeing so many people so far advanced in the sere and yellow leaf made the visitor feel himself in the presence of the far-distant Past. There are at present 25 venerable occupants of the Home—16 men and 9 women. There is comfortable accommodation for 50. Some of the ages are uncertain, but probably the oldest inmate is Kaleleiki, a kanaka of at least 95 years. His wife is with him, aged 75. They were induced to accept this asylum only by the persistent urging of Mr. Unna, as the old man had sworn he must die on his native turf at Hana. It took a year's importunity to convince him his oath was a wrong one and violable. A historical personage died in the Home about five months ago. By name Kamipele, he was an adopted son of Kamehameha I., and was one of the first Hawaiian converts to Christianity through the instrumentality of the Rev. Mr. Thurston, one of the pioneer missionaries to this group and grandfather of Mr. L. A. Thurston, lawyer. A rather dull disciple at first, he became through diligence one of the most intelligent, and maintained a consistent Christian character to the last. He was one of the teachers sent by Mr. Thurston to Tahiti, where he labored 17 years. Returning in 1873, he was found to have attained greater proficiency in the Tahitian than in his own tongue. The Rev. Mr. Bignell, of Kukuiahae, had him sent to the Home, just six months before death closed his full century of life. Capt. Swinton, who has been Superintendent of the Home for about two years, is worthy of all praise for his excellent management, which a visit at any time will reveal.

CHURCH DECORUM.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—As you are kind enough to insert letters on church matters, will you allow space for a few remarks on a sermon which I had the pleasure of listening to yesterday at the Episcopal Church of this city. The preacher deprecated in himself and others the habit of conversing in the church yard, even on kindly and interesting matters. He would do away with the "wee crackle" the kirk yard." Now, sir, I think the rev. gentleman is going a little too far when he carries the solemnity and silence which is due to the inside of the Holy Temple, to the outside precincts. I have heard the same gentleman complain of the coldness of the congregation of St. Andrews Church, and advocate gush as people get it elsewhere; why should he seek now to do away with what his former advice perhaps has produced? Has the congregation become too warm? I trow not. If there is a place in the world where people ought to meet for a kindly chat, it is near a church. I hope to hear the rev. gentleman confess to a little hastiness of speech, and that he has not put a veto on what ought to be a harmless delight.

ONE DELINQUENT.

In the Congo Conference three reasons were given for the participation of America in the deliberation: First, because America was the first Power to officially recognize the African International Association; second, because the population of America includes 6,000,000 negroes, whose parent country is Africa, and third, because Americans mainly have explored the country.

A Bodie, Nevada, paper gives the output of bullion by the mines of that place for 1884 at $1,162,297.74, and the production for the past eight years at $16,682,796.86. The Nevada State Prison shoe shop has returned a net profit to the State of $22,280 since its establishment.

LOCAL & GENERAL NEWS.

Who is Jumbo? SKATING rink will be open to-night. We are glad to see Mr. John Russell out again. KING Lunailo has been dead ten years to-morrow. The Planters' Monthly for February is out promptly on time. THERE will be a band concert at Emma Square this evening. A LARGE party of ladies and gentlemen were out enjoying a moonlight sail in the bay Saturday evening. THE Honolulu Temperance League will hold a meeting at 7.30 o'clock this evening at the Y. M. C. A. Hall. THE S. S. Mariposa will be due next Monday morning from San Francisco with dates to the 2nd inst. SOME of the Chinese residents on Nuuanu Street ought to be compelled to repair their disgraceful sidewalks. WE regret to learn that the Rev. Dr. Damon lies in a precarious condition at his residence, Chaplain Street. Mr Thomas, the contractor for the new laboratory at Punahou, has finished the excavating for the foundations, and is now putting them in. TO-DAY is the feast of the Purification or the presentation of Christ in the Temple. Special services were held in St. Andrews Cathedral this morning. THE regular meeting of Hawaiian Lodge No. 21; F. and A. M., will be held this evening at 7.30 o'clock. After the regular business, the 3d degree will be conferred. THE case of Frank Metcalf, charged with perjury in the second degree, occupied considerable of the attention of the Police Court to-day.

Messrs. Smith & Thurston prosecuted and Mr. Thompson defended the prisoner. The evidence was very lengthy. As we go to press Mr. Thompson is spinning law on behalf of Metcalf.

THURSDAY evening there will be a special meeting of Honolulu Royal Arch Chapter No. 1, at 7:30 o'clock. Visiting brethren are respectfully invited to attend.

THERE was an unusually large attendance at the meeting of the Hawaiian Mission Children's Society Saturday evening, at the residence of Dr. Hyde. Prof. Wayland was present and made brief remarks.

THE Rev. Arthur H. Smith, of Tientsin, North China, gave a very interesting lecture last evening at the Fort Street Church on his adventures in China. The audience was a large one.

ON Wednesday evening at Fort Street Church, will occur the Monthly Concert of Prayer. The subject will be China, and addresses will be made by Rev. Arthur Smith, F. W. Damon and others.

A PEEP into the Post-office on Saturday morning during the busy time of receiving and dispatching of the large mails, clearly showed us that the intended alterations will be a great boon to the employees.

MR. Z. K. Meyers, agent of the Harden hand grenade, leaves by the W. G. Hall this evening, for Kahului and Wailuku, Maui. While there he will give exhibitions of the wonderful hand grenade.

THE Advertiser states this morning that, "The departure of the Alameda last Saturday was a bonanza to the 'local' man of the Bulletin." Not any more so than the daily columns of the Bulletin are for the local man of the Advertiser.

THE following have been elected officers of the Kohala Sugar Company for the ensuing year:—President, S. C. Allen; Vice-President, Hon. J. Mott Smith; Treasurer, S. N. Castle; Secretary, J. B. Atherton; Auditor, C. M. Cooke.

THE annual meeting of the Honolulu Athletic Association will be held in the Gymnasium this evening at 8 o'clock. The Directors of the Association are requested to meet half-an-hour previous for the consideration of important business.

THE residents of Liliha street were disturbed in the small hours of Sunday night by the inmates of a notorious house which stands on the site of the old match factory. It is to be hoped the police will rid the community of a two years' standing disgrace.

By order of the administration of the estate of the late Henry May, Mr. E. P. Adams will sell on the premises, Beretania street, on Wednesday at 10 o'clock, the entire household furniture, which will be on view for inspection at the house to-morrow, from 9 A. M. until 4 P. M.

THE charred lumber full of nails, outside of the recently burned Elite Ice Cream parlors, ought to be removed at once and the road cleaned. A gentleman was driving past there on Saturday, and his horse, a fine animal, got a large nail into its foot, and it is quite lame. This is the second accident of a similar nature at the same place since the fire.

IN the Police Court this morning Kani was fined $5 for affray, and Poina forfeited $10 bail for the same offence. A. Sanderson and H. Luning, for disturbing the quiet of the night, forfeited bail of $10 each. Four drunks deposited $6 each. Megrregor and Kila Ahoi (w.), charged with adultery, the former was fined $30 and the latter $15, with costs. Several other cases were remanded.

YESTERDAY morning a Chinese express wagon might have been seen going up Nuuanu Valley decorated all over with red streamers. Two persons were inside, but they were hardly visible owing to the sides and back of the wagon being down. It appears that there was a Chinese wedding Saturday evening, and the bride and groom were just departing for Koolau, where they will reside. The groom was evidently very jealous of his bride, as he took extra pains not to let anyone have a peep at the blushing damsel.

THE Rev. Geo. Wallace preached two excellent sermons at St. Andrews Cathedral yesterday. That in the morning had special reference to reverence in and outside church. He urged the members of his congregation not to stand in groups outside of the church before service talking but proceed to their seats. Also, in church should the strictest attention be paid to the service: children should be taught to sit still and not play with books, turning leaves, thus distracting the attention of the clergyman. Ladies should be modest in their attire when in attendance at church, and there should be no turning round and looking at who was coming in and going out.

FUNERAL OF MRS. SMITH. The body of the lamented missionary, Mrs. Dr. Lowell Smith, was yesterday afternoon committed to the grave, amidst general expressions of the community's sorrow. At half-past three, the hour appointed, a large concourse of people, both white and native, were assembled in Kaunakapili Church basement, the main portion of the edifice being as yet uncompleted. This place was appropriate, as being the first church over which Dr. Smith was pastor, above thirty years ago. The coffin was carried in by the pall-bearers, preceded by the Revs. J. Waiamau, pastor of the church, A. O. Forbes, J. A. Cruzan and E. C. Oggel. Mr. Cruzan gave out the hymn, "Friend after friend departs," which was sung by an English choir. Dr. Hyde read a passage of Scripture in English, and Mr. Waiamau one in Hawaiian and gave out a hymn for the Hawaiian choir. Mr. Forbes preached in Hawaiian and Mr. Oggel in English, enlarging upon the hopes of the Christian in death, and eulogizing the active life of the departed in the service of her Master. At the close of the services the audience filed past the bier to take a last look at the features from which even death had not erased the kindly expression so familiar to all who knew them in life. The coffin was a plain but handsome article of polished native wood; and the lid bore a silver shield tastefully inscribed and was laden with floral tokens, including a pillow with the word "rest" on it made by Mrs. Atherton. There was a sheaf of ripe wheat on the pulpit, and the two pillars next the platform were draped in mourning. Owing to the lateness of the hour, the cortege from the church was composed exclusively of carriages. Arriving at the cemetery, where a large number of friends were in attendance, the body was taken from the hearse and carefully lowered to its final resting place. The Rev. Mr. Oggel read the committal service, after which the choir sang most feelingly two verses of the hymn, "What must it be to be there?" from the Gospel hymns. Mr. Oggel then offered up a beautiful and impressive prayer, closing with the benediction. A last look in the grave was taken by the bereaved husband and family, who each deposited beautiful flowers, and a few moments afterward the grave was filled in.

The first smelting works in Australia have commenced operations in the newly discovered silver region of Mitchell's creek, near Bathurst. The scene of operations is called Sunny Corner, and the district is believed to be as rich in argentiferous ore as is that of the Barrier ranges. Other smelting works have been begun, and the whole is under the direction of miners who have had considerable experience in America.

QUAKER PROVERBS. "Thee will often be called upon to note the fact that the straightest chimney does not always draw the most perfectly. "Verily, the hungry man wastes little time in commenting upon the style of the dishes. "Verily, the world is full of people who spend their lives in swapping jackknives, and then die without knowing who got the best of the bargain. "Thee will meet many men in life who waste five dollars' worth of time in treeing a 10-cent coon. "Never trade horses with a man who stops over night with thee on his way to a camp-meeting."

THE DRUGGIST'S MISTAKE.

During an excursion from Pittsburg, while at Cleveland, the Kennard House was crowded, when a druggist appeared late at night at the hotel office and demanded a bed.

"To tell the truth they are both pretty drunk, so you may take your choice as to which room you will sleep in."

The druggist said that he would take his chances with the evening newspaper man, as they excelled the morning men in more ways than one, and he would doubtless be so drunk that he would lie quiet all night.

"Funnest thing I ever heard of. When I went to bed last night I only had twenty-five cents to my name, and now I've got over a hundred dollars (showing a corpulent roll of bills), and I'm bound to spend every cent of it before morning." He did.

A great many young women in Chicago, unable to live comfortably on their small salaries as saleswomen, have quit the stores and taken situations in private families as cooks, house girls and nurses.

They are wise indeed to do this, and it is to be hoped they will make good and faithful servants. In a private family a young girl servant has a comfortable room, good meals and the protection and comfort of a home.

If she is intelligent in the performance of her duties, she will find she has many pleasant hours to herself, and the work is not any more degrading than if she were doing it for her own family.

"Now, Maria," remarked Simpkins, as he pulled off his boots one evening, "times is gittin' durned hard, an' we've got to economize. I guess you'd better try and git along without that new black dress you was talkin' about, and fix over your last winter's hat."

Grace Greenwood says: I believe that for one woman whom the pursuits of literature, the ambition of authorship and the love of fame have rendered unfit for home life, a thousand have been made undomestic by poor social striving, the follies of fashion and the intoxicating distinction which mere personal beauty confers.

Things are seldom what they seem; Skim milk masquerades as cream; Lard and soap we eat for cheese; Butter is but axle-grease.

We are willing to take a certain amount of stock in the newspaper accounts of Western cyclones, but when an Arkansas paper tells about a zephyr carrying a bedquilt sixty-one miles and then going back for the sheet, we aren't there.

"It's a poor rule that won't work both ways!" exclaimed the scholar, as he snatched the instrument of correction from the teacher and proceeded to return the compliment.

A writer in the Pacific Rural Press finds that by gently patting a balky horse in order to quiet him, then taking a firm hold of one of his ears and pulling it, all trouble with the animal will disappear.

Patti will sing in none but the larger cities this year. Towns whose assessed valuation is less than the price of seats will have no chance to hear her.

"When a man cannot look you in the face," says a writer, "it is generally a sign that he is dishonest." Sometimes it is a sign that he is cross-eyed.

AN ALARMING DISEASE AFFLICTING A NUMEROUS CLASS. The disease commences with a slight derangement of the stomach, but, if neglected, it in time involves the whole frame, embracing the kidneys, liver, pancreas, and, in fact, the entire glandular system, and the afflicted drags out a miserable existence until death gives relief from suffering.

ings, accompanied by a disagreeable taste; Is the tongue coated? Is there pain in the side and back? Is there fulness about the right side as if the liver were enlarging? Is there costiveness? Is there vertigo or dizziness? Are the secretions from the kidneys scanty and highly coloured, with a deposit after standing? Does food ferment, soon after eating, accompanied by flatulence or a belching of gas from the stomach? Is there frequent palpitation of the heart? These various symptoms may not be present at one time, but they torment the sufferer in turn as the dread disease progresses.

St. Mary-street, Peterborough, November 29th, 1881. Sir,—It gives me great pleasure to inform you of the benefit I have received from Seigel's Syrup. I have been troubled for years with dyspepsia; but after a few doses of the Syrup, I found relief, and after taking two bottles of it I feel quite cured.

I am, Sir, yours truly, Mr. A. J. White. William Brent. September 8th, 1883. Dear Sir,—I find the sale of Seigel's Syrup steadily increasing. All who have tried it speak very highly of its medicinal virtues: one customer describes it as a "God-send to dyspeptic people."

Market Place, Poeklington, York, October 2nd, 1882. Sir,—Being a sufferer for years with dyspepsia in all its worst forms, and after spending pounds in medicines, I was at last persuaded to try Mother Seigel's Curative Syrup, and am thankful to say have derived more benefit from it than any other medicine I ever took.

Spanish Town, Jamaica, West Indies, Oct. 24, 1882. Dear Sir,—I write to inform you that I have derived great benefit from "Seigel's Syrup." For some years I have suffered from liver complaint, with its many and varied concomitant evils, so that my life was a perpetual misery.

Hensingham, Whitehaven, Oct. 16th, '82. Mr. A. J. White.—Dear Sir,—I was for some time afflicted with piles, and was advised to give Mother Seigel's Syrup a trial, which I did. I am now happy to state that it has restored me to complete health.—I remain, yours respectfully, (Signed) N. Webb, Chemist, Calne.

Dear Sir,—I find the sale of Seigel's Syrup steadily increasing. All who have tried it speak very highly of its medicinal virtues; one customer describes it as a "God-send to dyspeptic people."

Dear Sir,—I write to tell you that Mr. Henry Hillier, of Yatesburg, Wills, informs me that he suffered from a severe form of indigestion for upwards of four years, and took no end of doctor's medicine without the slightest benefit, and declares Mother Seigel's Syrup which he got from me has saved his life.

Dear Sir,—Your Syrup and Pills are still very popular with my customers, many saying they are the best family medicines possible.

Dear Sir,—Your Syrup and Pills are still very popular with my customers, many saying they are the best family medicines possible.

The other day a customer came for two bottles of Syrup and said "Mother Seigel" had saved the life of his wife, and he added, "one of these bottles I am sending fifteen miles away to a friend who is very ill. I have much faith in it."

The sale keeps up wonderfully, in fact, one would fancy almost that the people were beginning to breakfast, dine, and sup on Mother Seigel's Syrup, the demand is so constant and the satisfaction so great.—I am dear Sir, yours faithfully, (Signed) W. Bowker.

The American Ambassador at Vienna, Mr. Kasson, has lately forwarded to his Government an interesting account of a remarkable surgical operation lately performed by Professor Billroth, of Vienna, which, wonderful to tell, consisted in the removal of a portion of the human stomach, involving nearly one-third of the organ—and, strange to say, the patient recovered—the only successful operation of the kind ever performed.

gent becomes nervous and irritable, gloomy, his mind filled with evil forebodings. When rising suddenly from a recumbent position there is a dizziness, a whistling sensation, and he is obliged to grasp something firm to keep from falling. His breath is oppressive, the skin dry and hot at times; the blood becoming thick and stagnant, and does not circulate properly.
