HAWAII'S "BLUE" LAWS

CONSTITUTION and LAWS

Framed by the Missionaries.

LAWS of the HAWAIIAN

ISLANDS.

- Whoever aids in destroying human life with an intent to kill, he shall die. Whoever aids in destroying human life, yet not designing to kill, he shall be imprisoned four years.
- Whoever with malice incites or entices to the commission of murder, if the murder be actually committed, he shall die. Whoever incites or entices another to kill, and no life is thereby taken, he shall be imprisoned four years.
- Whoever in anger stabs with a sharp instrument, or strikes with a weapon, or throws missiles, and the life of an individual is thereby destroyed, he shall die. Whoever stabs with a sharp instrument, or strikes with a weapon, or throws missiles with malicious intent to kill, yet no one dies thereby, he shall be imprisoned four years.
- Whoever threatens to take the life of a person, and the deed is actually committed, he shall die. Whoever threatens to take the life of a person and actually beats him but not to death, he shall be imprisoned four years.
- Whoever robs and kills a person, he shall die. Whoever robs a person but spares his life, he shall be imprisoned four years.
- Whoever kills a shipwrecked person, whoever drives fatally a person into a place of death, whoever destroys a child after his birth, whoever (maliciously) burns a house with fire,—all this are reckoned as murders. And if the criminal sentenced to imprisonment chooses to commute with money, he shall pay fifty dollars for each of the four years, and then be lawfully discharged; but in failure thereof he shall be put to labor till the four years expire, then be discharged. If the said criminal is again guilty of the same crime, he shall be fined one hundred dollars for each year, and in this ratio shall his sentence be increased till the fourth offense. This shall be the judgment of those who escape capital punishment.
- Furthermore, whoever plots the death of the King, and prepares the means of his destruction, his crime is similar to that of murder,—he shall be put in irons and banished to another land there he remain till he dies
KAUIKEAOULI.
The foregoing law respecting murder was enacted in the year 1835, and is still in force at the present time. The following additions has been made however.
- If any one attempt to dethrone the King who has possession of the kingdom, or to transfer the kingdom to any other chief, or to any other person than the one who owns the kingdom, he shall be banished to another country for life, and all his property shall be confiscated.
- Whoever shall plot the death of a Governor or of any high chief, or speak evil of the chiefs for the purpose of bringing them into difficulty, and whoever shall threaten the life of any high chief, or the dispossessing him of his rank, and whoever shall either in conduct or words exhibit treason, and whoever shall excite others to treason against the King, or Governor, or against any high chief, whoever does any of these things is guilty of a great crime, and he shall be condemned. His punishment shall be that of banishment to another land at the discretion of the judges, they looking at the magnitude of the offense. It shall not however exceed ten years, nor be less than five. He shall furthermore be dispossessed of all his real estate; though if the King choose to give it to his child, he shall have a right to do so at his discretion.
We have given our assent to the above and therefore set our names on this second day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty one.

NOTICE.

To future all BILLS for undertaking will be payable on presentation. We are compelled to resort to this rule, on account of the inability to collect the majority of our Undertaking bills after funerals are over. WILLIAMS BROS., ED. A. WILLIAMS, Manager.

LOCAL NOTES.

The funeral of Mrs. Hanaika was largely attended yesterday.

Judge H. A. Widemann left for San Francisco in the Australia.

Mr. F. H. Hayselden is in town.

There was a big fire in the mountains last night.

The Australia left for San Francisco at noon.

The Iwalani, Jas. Makee, Mokolii, Keala and Moi Wahine arrived this morning.

A wooden building is being erected within the fire limits. Where are the authorities?

Everybody is praying for rain. Indications are that their prayers will be heard.

The "nightingales of the Pacific" better known as the manner-chor meet to-night.

A large audience listened last night to Mrs. Third's lecture on "the objections to reincarnation."

There will be a dance at Independence Hall next Monday evening.

Mr. Frank Hoogs will probably have charge of the Daily Company.

The beautiful residence of A. J. Cartwright at Makiki is for sale. $12,000, is the upset price.

Mr. G. P. Wilder left to-day on a trip to the States. His affairs will be attended to by Mr. A. Carter.

The balance of Dole's "guar" left to day. The republic will have to get along without school-boys.

The Hyacinthe will leave shortly for Maui and Hawaii. Target-practice is the object of the cruise.

The annual fair of the St. Andrew's Cathedral, for the benefit of the church will take place next month.

No refusal of a shooting license has been forwarded to Mr. Cunningham, notwithstanding statements to the contrary the official papers.

The volcano is very tame and the passenger list for the wonder of the Paradise of the Pacific is very small.

A large crowd of people gathered at the wharf at noon to bid goodby to friends bound for foreign parts.

A number of prominent people have joined the society of Theosophists and have withdrawn from the regular churches of which they formerly were members.

A social was given last evening for the benefit of parson Penrose. It is to be hoped that he will receive something more substantial from his admirers.

It is understood that Messrs W. H. Cornwell and Fred Macfarlane have purchased the Waikapu Plantation on Maui.

There are prospects that the residents of the Punchbowl quarters will receive water from the artesian well at Thomas Square. The statement is too good to be believed.

James Sherwood was discharged by Judge Perry this morning on a charge of selling liquor without a license. Mr. A. P. Peterson appeared for the defendant.

The reverend Mr. Fenrose left in the Australia to-day. The Central Union Congregation is evidently not up to times any longer and the pulpit is vacant for lack of coin--no permanent preacher has so far been appointed for the benefit of the holy men and women.

L. A. Thurston looked pleasant when the steamer left the dock and he was relieved of the presence of his enemies and friends.

J. Emmeluth Co., are exposing the ways of the minister of interior in this morning's Advertiser. Captain King looked resigned and simply breathed: "Et Te Brute!"

Tom Carpenter who "forked" Fred Naylor was sentenced to three months imprisonment by Judge Perry.

A fee of $50 was awarded to V. V. Ashford in the Murphy opium case. The attorney claimed $100 as his due.

The conspiracy case against certain members of the Sportsmen Association was continued in the district court till next Thursday. W. Kinney appears for the defense and A. P. Peterson for the prosecution.

Complaints have been made to this paper that certain Chinese cigar manufacturers sell home-made cigars packed in boxes that formerly contained the genuine weed. Everybody knows that the "heathen chinese" has no equal in tricks and those who patronize him does so at his peril. Buy your cigars from Hollister & Co., and you will know what you get. If you will buy from a Chinaman, Wing Wo Chan Co., is the right shop.

Band Concert.

The Government Band will give its usual concert at Emma Square this afternoon. Professor Berger has arranged the following programme:

1. Overture—Fra Diavolo.....Auber
2. March—The Golden West.....Oette
3. Ballad—Sweet Marie.....Moore
4. Reminiscences of Verdi.....Godfrey
5. Waltz—Love's old Sweet Song.....Bucalossi
6. Schottische—Giddy Girls.....Berger

HAWAII HONOL.

The Daily Company.

Honolulu has been without rain and other public entertainments for some time. The Salvation Army has been trying to fill the void, and in the absence of a regular circus, has been rather successful. The Daily Company which deservedly received the patronage of the Honolulu people at their last visit are due again, and the streets are covered with gaily colored posters, announcing the arrival of the theatrical favorites. Mr. L. J. Levy, the lessee of the Opera House, has remembered the crush which last season tried the seating capacity of the theatre to its utmost extent; and he has therefore arranged season tickets which will find it advantageous to secure. Box plan now open.
