CARTER'S PLAN TO BEAT BROWN

WANTED RAWLINS AND VIDA THE TRICK TO BE TURNED

GOVERNOR CARTER HAD AN INTERVIEW WITH RAWLINS AND VIDA IN HIS OFFICE LAST MONDAY AT WHICH HIGH SHERIFF WILLIAM HENRY, AND DEPUTY SHERIFF KALAKIELA WERE PRESENT—THE GOVERNOR'S POINT OF VIEW.

"How will I appear in the eyes of the President, if after I have put this man (Brown) out of office for cause, the Republican party puts him back into that office again? I am not going to stand by and see him elected. If you will run as Deputy Sheriff on the Civic Federation ticket with Rawlins as Sheriff, you will have the support of the Administration, the support of the Attorney General and the support of Sam Johnson, and you will be elected."

The "Administration" has at last declared itself in the shrievalty fight. There is absolutely no question now as to the position of the "Administration" toward the Republican ticket, for the declaration comes direct from the Governor, himself. The "Administration" is opposed to A. M. Brown the nominee for sheriff. In fact so anxious is the "Administration" to defeat Brown that the Chief Executive stepped in last Monday and tried to engineer a scheme whereby even the regular Republican nominee for deputy sheriff would be sidetracked in the general attack on Brown. Carter has made the matter a personal issue and that he is keenly apprehensive over the effect that the election of Brown may have upon the Administration at Washington, is clearly indicated by his statements made last Monday.

Carter is evidently the Warwick behind the Civic Federation party and in his conversation with Vida last Monday indicated that it was proposed to use the Federation as a lever to dump the regular Republican nominee for sheriff. The attitude taken by Carter is especially interesting in view of his published interviews to the effect that the "Administration" was taking no part whatever in the county election. A change of heart appears to have passed over the Governor and the effect of the first county election now seems likely to be far reaching, as the Governor evidently fears, that the success of Brown will draw upon him, Carter, the dis-favor of the National Republican party by reason of his repudiation by the local party. The role of Marc Anthony was played by Carter with two editions of Caesar, Rawlins and Vida. Although Vida was slated to have only the secondary office it was upon him that the Administration relied for its chief aid in defeating Arthur Brown. The plan to knife the Republican ticket was outlined with a directness that was characteristic and which left absolutely no question as to the intention of the Governor. The interview occurred Monday morning in the Governor's office at the Capitol. There were present in addition to the Governor, High Sheriff Henry, Deputy High Sheriff Rawlins, Deputy Sheriff Vida and Deputy Sheriff Jack Kalakielia who is the regular Republican nominee for deputy Sheriff. The Governor naturally led the conversation which lasted for fully half an hour and he did most of his talking to Vida, as the essential purpose of the conference was to induce Vida to consent to accept the nomination for deputy sheriff by the Civic Federation, a nomination which the Governor appeared to control.

"Vida," the Governor is said to have stated, "I want you to run for deputy sheriff on the Civic Federation ticket." This abrupt announcement had been

MOTERMAN IS HELD TO BLAME

CORONER'S JURY FOUND THAT HE WAS CULPABLE FOR THE DEATH OF KIYO HU.

Owing to the curious fact that two of the jurors summoned on the inquest on the body of the Japanese boy Kiyo Hu who was killed by a street car on the evening of June 1, were actual witnesses of the fatality, the reaching of a verdict was delayed until yesterday. The jurors were C. G. Bartlett, Samuel T. Nott, F. Enos, John Ellinger, F. C. Betters and James Nott, Jr., and of these Bartlett and Betters were on the Waiialae car from which little Kiyo Hu fell to his death. The verdict returned yesterday puts the blame directly on the motorman, H. Schutte, for the accident as the following wording shows: "That the said Kiyo Hu came to his death on King street near Artesian street, Honolulu, on the evening of June 1, 1905, at about 9:10 p. m., by being run over by Car 44 of the Honolulu Rapid Transit and Land Company, and that said deceased fell or jumped off from the Waiialae car of said company near King street track in front of said Car 44 while both cars were in motion and that there was ample time for the motorman of said Car 44 to have seen the said deceased lying near the track in front of said car prior to the accident."

Among the witnesses who saw the accident was E. M. Cheatham, who testified that in his judgment the boy was fifty feet in front of the King street car when he fell from the Waiialae car. Omoto, father of the dead boy, told how he had obtained transfers from the King street car to the Waiialae car and how the little boy had run ahead. The lad had boarded the Waiialae car, but the car did not wait for the rest of the family. The little fellow, seeing that he was alone had attempted to get off and had fallen backward in front of the on-coming King street car. He blamed the motorman of the King street car and also the conductor of the Waiialae car for not waiting for the transferred passengers.

It was after the jury had retired for the first time that it was found that the two jurors mentioned, Bartlett and Betters, had viewed the whole tragedy so an adjournment was taken until the legal aspect could be ascertained. The Attorney General's Department gave the opinion that evidence might be given by jurors provided that it had not been known beforehand that they might be witnesses. Bartlett thereupon swore that in his estimation the boy, when he fell was 80 or 100 feet in front of the oncoming car. He, the witness, had seen the boy fall and had immediately jumped out and signalled the motorman of the King street car to stop. The motorman did not appear to see the occurrence at all. Betters submitted a written statement of the fatality as he saw it.

JURORS WERE REFUSED LUNCH

UNABLE TO AGREE ON A SIMPLE CASE BEFORE JUDGE DE BOLT AND ASK HIM TO SEND THEM TO LUNCH BUT THE JUDGE SAYS NOT, AND TELLS THEM TO PROCEED WITH THEIR DUTY.

The jury in Judge De Bolt's court became "hung" on a small liquor case this morning, and when the jurors got hungry and asked the judge to send them to lunch the judge refused. He sent word back that they must get to work and perform their duty and decide the case. He was not going to have the Territory pay for a lunch for twelve men in such a case. The case was that of Isabella Recente, a Porto Rican woman, charged with selling liquor without a license. S. P. Chillingworth appeared for the defense and E. C. Peters prosecuted. The testimony was similar to that in most such cases, describing the purchase of liquor from the defendant. The woman took the stand and denied selling the liquor. She admitted that the man who had had it had left half a dollar behind when he left her store, but said he was a friend and often gave her money, and that the liquor had not been sold. The jury retired at about half past eleven, and nothing was heard until the jurors became hungry. Then they sent their request for lunch and got the judge's reply refusing to give them any. The case was a very simple one. Shortly after one o'clock another message came from the jury room, saying that the jurors would pay for their own lunches. Then Judge De Bolt allowed the twelve men to go to lunch in charge of a bailiff. The jurors were: H. A. Juen, F. W. Macfarlane Jr., Charles Lambert, H. B. Saylor, Job Batchelor, Frank J. Hobbelt, William P. Roth, Charles G. Bartlett, William L. Austin, William L. Lyle, F. Turrill and James Seiner. At about half past two this afternoon the jurors returned a verdict of not guilty.

benefited as she was. Miss Goode is president of the Bryn Mawr Lawn Tennis Club of Chicago. She writes: Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— "I tried many different remedies to try to build up my system, which had become run down from loss of proper rest and unreasonable hours, but nothing seemed to help me. Mother is a great advocate of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for female troubles, having used it herself some years ago with great success. So I began to take it, and in less than a month I was able to be out of bed and out of doors, and in three months I was entirely well. Really I have never felt so strong and well as I have since."

No other medicine has such a record of cures of female troubles as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Women who are troubled with painful or irregular menstruation, backache, bloating (or flatulency), leucorrhoea, falling, inflammation or ulceration of the uterus, ovarian troubles, faintness, indigestion, nervous prostration or the blues, should take immediate action to ward off the serious consequences, and be restored to perfect health and strength by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Her experience is very great, and she gives the benefit of it to all who stand in need of wise counsel. Address, Lynn, Mass.

FEDERATION TAKES ACTION

LIVELY ROW OVER THE CONDEMNATION OF CERTAIN CANDIDATES—THROW FOR SHERIFF.

The report prepared by the Executive Committee of the Civic Federation was submitted to the general body at yesterday afternoon's meeting held at the Y. M. C. A. As the Star intimated yesterday, it endorsed neither of the candidates for Sheriff and at the same time endorsed both of those named for County Attorney. The greater part of the meeting was taken up in a discussion which was presided at by Judge A. S. Humphreys who objected to certain men being placed under the ban without reasons being given. Pithy concessions were made and the objectionable paragraph was struck out. The report as originally submitted ran thus:

To the Civic Federation of Honolulu: Your Executive Committee desires to report that since the organization of the Association in January last, it has had a number of sessions and has considered a variety of subjects, taking action thereon, and believes that the Federation has accomplished considerable for the well being of the citizens and residents of Honolulu.

Before reporting upon the specific subject for which this meeting was called it, however, desires to correct some errors which seem to have crept into public estimation of what the Civic Federation is.

This Association is not a political party. It was not formed with any such purpose in view nor with any idea or intention of gaining any political, social, or business control in this community. Its object is to influence public opinion in favor of sound principles in all departments of our public life. With these ends in view it must necessarily take an active interest in politics to the extent of endeavoring to secure the election or appointment of good men for office; the enactment of beneficial laws, ordinances, rules and regulations of public conduct and to oppose the election or appointment of unfit, incompetent or improper men to any public office, to prevent, if possible, the enactment and promulgation of laws, ordinances, rules and regulations which may have an evil effect or would tend to injure the public in any of its important interests.

One of its objects is to secure the enforcement of all wholesome laws, to better the social, educational, sanitary and other conditions in and around Honolulu for the well being of all of its inhabitants; and many other instances might be given in which such an association might be of great value to a community.

The history of like associations in other parts of the United States shows clearly that they have been of great value in securing the election or appointment of good men and preventing the election or appointment of men not fitted to hold public office, and in these respects the influence and good offices of this association are now required in order that with the exception of county government in Hawaii the best possible results may be obtained. That we may not only have capable government but honest and efficient administration of public affairs.

With that end in view your Executive Committee has held a number of meetings and has considered the nominations made by both of the parties for office in the County of Oahu and it is the intention of the sub-committee on legislation and public office to place before the community in time for consideration such facts as may be obtained relative to the past records of each candidate for any office based on the same lines that have proved so effective in other parts of the United States. These reports will be made without color and without any opinion on the part of the committee as to the character or lack of character of any nominee but in accordance with the plans so successfully adopted in other places.

Your Committee, without regard to party, recommends for your consideration the approval of the following candidates:

For the office of Supervisor at Large—E. B. Adams, A. Fernandez. For Supervisors in Honolulu—George W. Smith, John Lucas. For Supervisor in Ewa—F. Archer. For Supervisor in Waiwala—Andrew Cox. For County Clerk—D. Kalaokalani, Jr. For County Auditor—James Bicknell. For County Treasurer—R. H. Trent. For County Attorney both E. A. Douthitt and E. M. Watson. Your Committee further recommends that you withhold endorsement from: County Treasurer—C. W. Booth. Supervisors for Honolulu—J. C. Quinn, J. A. Akina, D. M. Kupfien. Supervisor at Koolupoko—Dick Lane. Your Committee further reports that at the time of the meeting they had not information sufficient to make any recommendation with regard to the following nominees:

For Supervisor Ewa—R. A. Woodward. For Supervisor for Honolulu—H. T. Moore. For County Clerk—B. N. Kahalepuna. For Auditor—J. P. Makainala. With regard to the position of Sheriff of the County of Oahu, your Committee finds that taking the records of the administration of Mr. Arthur M. Brown and the record of Mr. J. M. Poepe, so far as he has made one, they are compelled to recommend that this Association does not endorse the candidature of either. As, however, there is no other candidate and it seems an illogical position to refuse endorsement to either of the two candidates and leave it for electors to cast no vote at all or vote for one or the other, your Committee feels that an occasion has arisen which demands action rather

THE RACE FOR THE GOVERNOR'S CUP

WILL START SATURDAY NIGHT—A CRUISE AROUND OAHU—DESCRIPTION OF CONDITIONS MET.

On Saturday night next at 8 o'clock the start of the great yacht race will take place around Oahu. It is for a perpetual cup to be raced for annually Governor Carter's generous gift will be sought after more eagerly and be far more valued to 20 years from now than it is today, although the owners of yachts are more than busy making preparations for the coming race. To start out on a race such as this one is, requires no small amount of skill, a fair amount of grit, and a good boat. The first leg of the race keeps the amateur sailors constantly on the alert, and everything is work and watchfulness. Barber's point is anxiously looked for on account of breakers, which begin to roll a long way out at sea. Next comes Waiwala causing much anxious discomfort owing nearly always to its dead calm, or wind whatever. Somewhere one lies for hours without a nerve. Perhaps one boat more lucky than the others gets away and gains several miles by so doing. It is quite a pretty sight to be able to look back on your opponents and find them helpless for the want of the lucky whist you yourself have been to carry you over the dreaded calm spot. Next comes Kaunua Point. You have had your smooth sailing. Kaunua offers you a change and if on the trip you intend to throw anything overboard, Kaunua generally receives it. You will spend the remainder of your night beating up around Waiwala bay. Here it was where the captain of the Helene did a smart piece of seamanship two years ago during a race. You get plenty of water on your deck beating up this bay and daylight is eagerly looked for. For the harbor of Waiwala is not the big affair a person would not be beaten, close ashore for fully 45 miles right along the coast, until Bird Island is reached. After rounding Bird Island you begin to think of home again and sometimes feel sorry you are not in the lead. Anyhow from Bird Island home your boat is hustling, wind and sea dead behind this 50 odd miles is covered very quickly and the Governor's Cup is either won or lost for this season.

May the best boat win.

HINTON DIVORCE.

Judge Lindsay granted a divorce to Mary Hinton against Ray Hinton for desertion and failure to support. The couple were married at Cambridge, Ohio, June 27, 1899, by J. C. Cawer, Justice of the Peace. They have never lived together in this Territory, nor are there any children of the marriage.

MORE MAIL TOMORROW.

One day's later mail is due tomorrow by the S. S. Nevada from San Francisco.

W. R. CASTLE, President.

Judge Humphreys voiced his objection to the adoption of the report as submitted. He did not think that the Federation should withhold its support specifically from Booth, Quinn, Akina, Kupfien and Lane without giving some reasons.

"These candidates must then have committed some flagrant offense either against the laws of the Territory or against society," he said. "In my judgment this is most cowardly and unmanly. There is no way in which these men, who are charged with being unfit, can go before the community to defend themselves. Absolutely no charge is made against either of these men—simply a general statement that we should withhold our endorsement of them. In my judgment any one who would vote in favor of that report would sandbag a man in the dark when no mounted policeman was about."

Theodore Richards thought that the action of the committee in not going into details was "most charitable and most practical." He did not think that the judge's remarks had any bearing on his report.

J. A. Hughes believed in going slow when the matter of men's reputations were concerned. Judge Humphreys and Theodore Richards locked horns again and D. L. Withington explained that he was in favor of withholding endorsement from Booth because Booth had changed his political allegiance three times in five years.

Rev. Mr. Westervelt endorsed Judge Humphreys' views and moved that the action of the report respecting the endorsed persons be stricken out. This motion finally prevailed and the report then was adopted.

On Judge Humphreys suggestion the name of T. G. Thurum was placed before the executive as a candidate for sheriff. The meeting then adjourned.

When you feel that usual attack of Spring fever coming on, don't punish yourself with unpleasant medicines, just order a case of Rainier Beer and be comfortable.

Those who have watched the policy of the British Admiralty in the Pacific have seen within the last year the most material change. From the maintenance of a squadron of respectable size in the northern Pacific waters, having Esquimaux as the base, the Admiralty has entirely dispensed with that squadron and is effecting several material changes elsewhere in the maintenance of fleets-in-being.

PUBLISH THE HATTER REPORT

CAMPAIGNER THINKS IT TOGETHER WITH CERTAIN BIOGRAPHY OUGHT TO BE PUBLIC.

EDITOR STAR: I was very much pleased to learn that the Governor has at last decided to make public the long pigeon-holed report of his friend "Detective" Hatter. Of course the fact that it is to be used as a club to force Brown off the ticket is not a very admirable motive but nevertheless if this brings about the publication of the report I shall for one be satisfied. So certain am I that the public will be the gainers by the presentation of a full report of the private doings of people who aspire to public office or who now hold it, that I feel it incumbent on the Governor to publish a full and frank statement of all the doings, private as well as public, of the members of his own official family at the same time that he puts into print the report which, it seems, is intended to reflect on the former High Sheriff.

Naturally the Governor's own record will head this interesting collection of experiences. It is hardly necessary to say that his feet have never wandered from the paths of rectitude and duty since he took office, but think how inspiring it would be to the youth of this land to have the Governor tell us in his own rugged way of the different temptations with which he has been assailed and how manfully he fought them off!

It is hardly necessary to go through the list of those in office, the names will suggest themselves, but if the governor can only get them all in line with their autobiographies faithfully written, he will be a public benefactor.

Yours, CAMPAIGNER.

REPUBLICANS FIRE A GUN

OPENING MEETING OF COUNTY CAMPAIGN WAS HELD AT AALA PARK LAST EVENING.

The Republicans opened their County campaign last evening with a meeting at Aala Park which drew a large crowd. Sam Dwight was chairman and a quibble club was present to discuss sweet music between times. The speakers included E. R. Adams, Jim Quinn, Jack Kalakela, Bicknell, Aehl, Jack Lucas, George W. Smith and E. A. Douthett.

Senator Aehl, who spoke in Hawaiian, made a strong appeal for support of the entire Republican ticket. He was interrupted several times but generally managed to get the better of his critics. G. W. Smith urged that the Republicans was the only party of standing in the community. Douthett after an appeal along general lines made a strong plea for the return of the ticket with Brown at the head as sheriff.

MYSTERY ABOUT DEATH OF TRUAX

THOUGHT TO HAVE COMMITTED SUICIDE BUT LEFT NO EXPLANATION FOR SUCH AN ACT.

George Truax, a young man formerly connected with the money order department of the local post office, died at an early hour this morning under circumstances indicating that he had committed suicide by taking prussic acid. His roommate, O. S. James, discovered him in an unconscious condition shortly after 1 o'clock in the Langton house on Beretania street near the Progress block. A physician was summoned but Truax was beyond medical aid. A bottle supposed to contain prussic acid was found in the room.

The deceased had made two previous attempts to commit suicide during a period extending over a couple of months. The police are inclined to the opinion that Truax had been out of his proper senses for some time past and the mania had taken the form of suicide. No other reason has thus far been ascertained to explain his act. He resigned from the post office about a month ago for no apparent reason. He left no note or statement which would throw any light upon his reason for taking his life. He was 25 years of age. His mother and sister live in Seattle. The coroner's inquest will be held at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

In connection with the suicide of Truax, M. Rosenberg, of the local Order of Eagles, of which the dead man was a member, cabled to the Seattle lodge this morning about the disposition of the body. He received instructions to bury the body here unless further advised. Truax leaves a mother and sister in Seattle, who are understood to be partially dependent upon his earnings for support. Unless they wish to have the body sent to Seattle for interment, the funeral services will be held here under the auspices of the local Eagles, Honolulu Aerie No. 140.

preceded by some general conversation regarding the political situation in the county and the offer or rather demand, fairly took the breath away from Vida.

"But Governor I can not consent to any such a thing" replied Vida disregarding the sub-kingly crown that was thrust upon him. "I am a Republican and although the Republican Party has thrown me down hard several times, I have always come up ready to work for the party again and I can not run now for I will not throw down the party." "I believe in loyalty to the party too" the Governor replied in effect "but in the present case a man is not called upon to support the party nominee. Brown is not a proper man for sheriff. He is not fit for the office. He was put out by me for cause and when the party makes a mistake as it did by nominating him, the party is not called upon to support such a nominee."

Vida replied that if Brown was not a fit man for the office and the governor had anything about his improper administration of the office of high sheriff, the facts should be made public. Vida wanted to know if such things were true, he did not believe in rumors however and if there was anything tangible let the Governor make it known. The governor is understood to have replied something in effect against the private life of Brown and to have said that Brown conducted the police department in a loose manner and he, the Governor, did not wish to see him back in the office again. The governor is understood to have then made the glowing offer to Vida which appears at the first of this article. But Vida was not to be seduced by any such glowing offers. Rawlins, so the Governor indicated, had consented to run with Vida but Rawlins when he saw how Vida was feeling, expressed sentiments of party loyalty and indicated his intention of not deserting to help knife Brown. "Suppose I should be defeated" Rawlins is said to have inquired "what will the public think of me?"

"Oh," came the ready reply from the Governor "If you run and help to try to defeat the election of such a man as Brown you will not lose friends by it but will gain the esteem of the better class of people."

But the Governor was not discouraged by the failure of the pair to become the figurheads of his plan and renewed his efforts to secure their consent to the launching of the submarine torpedo boat. "You will be certain of election," Carter is quoted as again declaring to Vida upon whom the blandishments and arguments were directed with increased force. "You can secure the backing of the Republican party for Kalakela will withdraw, will you not?" said the Governor to the regular Republican nominee.

"Yes," replied Kalakela. "Well," said Vida "I presume that I could get that nomination in that event."

"No, but you must not secure it that way. If you were to secure that nomination from the party you would have to take a pledge to support the party ticket and you would have to agree therefore to support Brown but if you were running on the Civic Federation ticket you would be as an independent candidate and would not have to take any such pledge. Kalakela could withdraw at the very last moment so that it would be too late to call the convention together and nominate a successor, and you would in this way have the Republican backing." In spite of the alluring pictures drawn, Vida decided not to become party to any plan to defeat the regular ticket. He and Rawlins finally said that they would give their answer to the Governor on the following day. Vida is understood not to have gone to see the Governor again as Vida had made up his mind to remain loyal. Rawlins is reported to have called upon the Governor and announced the following day Tuesday, that he would not be a party to the conspiracy to knife Brown.

Vida was seen this morning and asked regarding the conference with the governor. Vida did not deny that such a conference had taken place but declined absolutely to give any interview on the subject.

High Sheriff Henry said today in referring to the conversation between the Governor and Vida on Monday that there had been no concealment of the Governor's opposition to Brown. It was a political consideration however and not a personal one that caused the Governor to express opposition to Brown.

DID NOT SEE THE HATTER REPORT

In view of the current story to the effect that the executive of the Civic Federation had been given a view of the now celebrated Hatter report in order that a conclusion might be reached as to the fitness of A. M. Brown for office, W. R. Castle, chairman of the organization was asked today as to the truth of the rumor. "I have never seen the report," he said, "and I do not think that any other member of the executive ever saw it. I think that if they had, I should have heard of it. The conclusion of the committee to refrain from supporting the former High Sheriff in this contest was based solely on what was known of his conduct of the department in the past."

FISHERIES FIGHT NOT OVER YET

the Territory, to establish a fishing right on this island, is still on the calendar of the United States Supreme Court, awaiting its turn. It has been generally supposed that the decision in the case of the Territory against Damon provided a test which settled all the rest, but Andrews is taking appeals from the Circuit Court rulings here in practically all the other cases, in the hope, though as stated it is a slight one, that the decision in the Bishop Estate case will be in favor of the Territory.

"There are two classes of fisheries titles sought to be established," said the attorney general. "The Damon case, which was decided, represents one of the classes. In this case the disputed title was a royal grant and the United States Supreme Court decided that the Damon title was a vested right and awarded ownership of the fishery to the petitioner. In the other class of cases, there is no royal grant. Practically all the cases,—about nineteen-twentieths of them,—are of this class, and the Bishop Estate case now on the calendar at Washington, is the test case for this class.

"In deciding the Damon case the court at Washington gave certain conclusions which appear to me to bear upon the other cases, and which I was inclined to regard as practically conclusive of them. The court went into the matter of rights acquired in other ways than by royal grant, and its remarks are strongly indicative, to say the least, that the Bishop Estate case will be decided the same way as was the Damon case. On returning from Washington and hearing the decision in the Damon case I was inclined to think at first that it was best to let that decision settle all the cases, but after more consideration, in view of the large sum involved, it has been thought best to preserve the interests of the Territory by keeping the cases open and fighting the Bishop case to a conclusion.

"The Bishop case will probably be reached by the United States Supreme Court some time early next year. I do not think a trip to Washington to fight it will be necessary. After what has been done in the cases, it can probably be submitted on briefs."

The nineteen motions for new trials filed in fisheries cases yesterday are all in cases in which the local circuit courts ruled in favor of petitioners and are all in the Bishop Estate class. There are more such motions to follow, in this circuit and in all the other circuits.

The fisheries rights are private rights in sea waters about the islands. The Organic Act provides that after private parties have established the rights, which they were required to do, if at all, by actions begun within two years after the Organic Act took effect, the attorney general may begin proceedings to condemn the rights and open the waters to the public, the rights to be paid for out of any money that may be in the Territorial treasury. As there is not likely to be any money for such purposes for a long time, the proceedings are not likely to be begun, and the rights as awarded will remain private rights for some years.

TO AWARD CONTRACT FOR LAYING BUOYS

CAPT. NIBLACK OPENED BIDS AND WILL DECIDE NEXT WEEK WHO IS TO LAY THESE BUOYS.

Captain Niblack will award the contract next week for the laying of a number of buoys about the islands. The bids were opened yesterday. The bidders were J. P. Mansfield and the Inter-Island and Wilder Steamship Companies. The buoys to be immediately laid are four at Kaunakakai, one at Lahaina and one at Kamalo. Captain Niblack will go with the Iroquois next week to superintend the laying of the six buoys in question. Other buoys are to be laid later on.

SWEDEN MAY INVADE NORWAY

CRISIS IN SCANDINAVIA MORE SERIOUS THAN IT SEEMS AT THIS LONG DISTANCE.

Judged from this distance, it seems almost impossible to imagine the Norwegians and Swedes, united as they have been for nearly a century to be so enraged at one another that they are very apt to be locked in a deadly struggle in a short time unless wise measures prevail. Such, however, seems to be the case, to judge from the words of a Honolulu man, of Norwegian birth and bringing up, who was spoken to this morning on the subject.

"Nothing would surprise me less than to see the Swedes invade Norway," he said, when asked as to the probable outcome of the secession of Norway. "Although a Norwegian by birth, I lived for two years in Sweden and it is the irritating, even contemptuous, manner which the Swedes adopt towards Norwegians which causes our Norse blood to boil. You see, the Swedes seem to think that Norway is a sort of province of theirs, a subject state with which they can do what they please but now they will find out to their cost what a mistake they have made.

"Ever since the union of Norway and Sweden in 1814 there has been discontent on the part of Norway over the terms and the Liberal party of Norway has spared no effort in keeping alive the flame of Norwegian nationality, a nationality as complete and distinct from that of Sweden as that of the French is from the English, for instance. "A constant source of bickering between the two, the matter which has led to the present rupture, is that of the consulates. The minister of Foreign Affairs of the two countries has always been a Swede, over whom the Norwegian Storting, or parliament, has had no control, consequently Norway's interests all over the world have been sacrificed for those of Sweden. The storting passed a measure to establish a separate consular service but the king vetoed it with the final result that the king has been deposed from the throne of Norway.

"If war results, it will be a war of aggression on the part of Sweden, which may take the position that Norway is a state in rebellion against the constituted authority. But Norway is so situated that she is well able to protect herself. Certainly the Norwegian forces by both land and sea are smaller than those of Sweden but on the land side they are given a great compensation by the nature of the country through which invading Swedish armies would have to pass. It is mountainous in a marked degree, easy of defence but very difficult to force. The Norwegian troops, too, though less numerous, are better trained and equipped and will fight to the bitter end for their country's preservation. As to the sea power it may be pointed out that the Norwegian coast does not present a very promising field for the attack of naval vessels. It is rough, rocky and very dangerous. Such points as are vulnerable have been protected by land defences and the Swedish navy will have its hands full if it attempts to do much.

"From letters that I have received from home quite recently I have anticipated serious trouble before long and I feel quite certain that Norway would not have forced the issue at this moment unless she had been prepared for the consequences. A feature of the matter which should not be disregarded is that the present trouble has been precipitated in a measure by the result of the Russo-Japanese conflict. The Swedes and Norwegians have been forced to bang together in the past for self protection from Russia. Nothing would have pleased Russia better before she got her eyes blackened by Japan than to have Sweden and Norway at war. She would assuredly have found some pretext for interference with the inevitable result that she would have gobbled both countries if she could. Now apparently, the Swedes and the Norwegians seem to think they can finish up their own trouble without reference to Russian designs."

A Life Saved

Never give up. No matter how ill you are, Ayer's Sarsaparilla has cured some of the most desperate cases, and it will cure you.

Mr. Thos. H. Cooper, Barred Creek, Dripstone, New South Wales, writes: "I feel it my duty to let suffering people know what a wonderful blood-purifying medicine is Ayer's Sarsaparilla. My illness began with sharp pains in the limbs, which I was having with me for some time, when I was hardly able to walk. After a day or two I could not walk, and suffered terrible pain. My face turned nearly black, large blotches came out all over my body, and then I became delirious. I was in the hospital for some time, and everything was tried, but I grew weaker and weaker, and became convinced that nothing could be done for me. I had heard so much about Ayer's Sarsaparilla that I thought I would give it a trial as the last hope. After taking one bottle I thought I had a little better, so I procured another bottle, and then another, and still another. I gradually improved, and in due time left my bed for the first time in six months. I am now in good health, and I say to every one that Ayer's Sarsaparilla saved my life."

VICTORY MAY PROLONG WAR

RODOLPH (V.) May 28.—The opinion of Rear-Admiral Rodolphe D. Evans, commanding the first division of the battleship squadron of the North Atlantic Fleet, is that the Russian Government will not be ready to discuss until some great victory has been won for Russian arms, either on land or sea, and this view is shared by the British Government.

North Atlantic Fleet now in Hampton Roads, the victory won by the Japanese fleet in the Straits of Coton will not have the effect of bringing the war to an end. The Admiral said: "Until all the details of the engagement are known definitely it is difficult to say what the result will be. I do not think, however, that the victory of the Japanese fleet under Admiral Togo will bring the close of the war. In my opinion, the only result of the battle itself that I can see is a terrible loss of the Russian navy. It will prove a dreadful loss unless I am greatly mistaken every ship of Rodolphe's squadron will be either sunk or captured. There can be no mistake, the Russians have no base from which to operate, and they are probably entirely at the mercy of the Japanese."

FATHER CLEMENT'S BIRTH ANNIVERSARY

THE VENERABLE PRIEST WILL TOMORROW CELEBRATE THE SEVENTY-THIRD ANNIVERSARY OF HIS BIRTH—HE HAS BEEN IN HAWAII FOR ABOUT FORTY-THREE YEARS AND HAS BUILT A NUMBER OF CHURCHES IN THAT TIME.

Next Friday, June 9, is the seventy-third birthday anniversary of Father Clement, one of the best known priests of the Catholic mission in the Hawaiian Islands, and almost the forty-second anniversary of his departure from his native land to come to these shores.

Reverend Father Clement was born in France, Pas de Calais, on June 9th, 1832. He followed the whole course of studies at the High School of St. Omer, and received his bachelor's degree in Paris after an examination on the whole course of his studies. He returned home, where he lived with his family till 1861, when he left to enter afterwards into the religious missionary order of the Sacred Hearts, whose mother-house was in Paris. In 1863 he was sent to the Hawaiian Islands mission, where he arrived on March 19, 1864, after a sea voyage of about 129 days around Cape Horn, on a sailing vessel.

He was ordained priest by the old Bishop Louis Margret in the Cathedral of Honolulu, together with Father Damien, his companion. In June of the same year 1864 he was sent to the island of Hawaii, where he remained from 1864 to 1881, attending to the spiritual welfare of souls in several districts of the island—Kohala, Waimea, Hamakua, Puna, Hilo, Kauai. He had to build up three churches in Puna one of which is of stone from the spot. He was an eye witness of the great earthquake of 1883; the great sea tide which destroyed villages in Puna and Kauai; the great lava flow in Kauai, and also the strange mud flow which a doctor of the time tried to explain by the theory of great reservoirs of water in the earth, put into ebullition by the lava of the volcano. This mud flow was about one-third of a mile in length, one-fourth in width, and between 2 and 3 feet deep.

In 1881 he was called to Honolulu by his superiors to assist the two reverend fathers Modest and Regis, while Rev. Father Hermann was gone to San Francisco to be consecrated Bishop of Oahu. Since that time he has remained in Honolulu. He has built up several churches in the suburbs of Honolulu i. e. the church of Our Lady of the Mount, Kailua valley; the church of St. Joseph, Moanalua; the church of St. John the Baptist, Kailua-waena; the church of the Sacred Heart at Marquaville, Puna-hou.

He holds religious services in these churches successively on Sundays and holy days besides assisting in the great religious services in the Cathedral which are attended to by the Bishop himself and several other priests.

Besides his share in the functions of the ministry at the cathedral the Reverend Father attends different public establishments as regards the spiritual welfare i. e. the Queen's Hospital, the Lunatic Home, the Receiving Station, the Kaplanai Girl's Home under the Franciscan Sisters, the Jail, the Insane Asylum, and the Girls' R. to-matary school.

"How different Hawaii is now from what it was when I first arrived," said Father Clement. "Then the Hawaiian people who were, so to say, the real owners of the lands, were happy, every one having his home on a little parcel of land from the great division of lands of 1848, between the king, the chiefs, and the people, planting on that he could make his living. They were really happy then, independent too, having something to give to strangers, kind hearted people as they were. I'd call that time the golden era of the Hawaiian Islands. Churches were crowded with Hawaiians. They were really free. King Kamehameha V gave his people, a very liberal constitution, and he should be called the second great king of Hawaii; the conqueror being the first. But what are the Hawaiians now? Poor. They had before many flourishing Hawaiian schools, some high Hawaiian schools where they were taught all the mathematics, even sciences, all in native. I have witnessed their ability being a member of the school board of the district where I was. And nowadays they learn English, but they know no language thoroughly neither English nor Hawaiian. Many don't speak the pure Hawaiian language of the school at which I learned Hawaiian. Some speak a kind of pigeon Hawaiian to have foreigners understand them better."

Reverend Father Clement enjoys good health, though his white hair shows that he is not young.

MUST FIGHT GERMANY

SIGNIFICANT UTTERANCES AT A MEETING HELD IN BERLIN—BRITAIN PROPOSES TO GIVE UP WEI HAI WEI BUT GERMANY AND JAPAN WILL PROBABLY FIGHT OVER THE POSSESSION OF KAIJOCHOW.

At a meeting of the Deutsch-Asiatische Gesellschaft held in Berlin on 10th March, says the L. & C. Express, the political and economical effects of the Russo-Japanese war were discussed. The meeting was largely and incidentally attended. The paper read was a lecture entitled "Our Aims and Achievements in Shantung and the Japanese Advance in China," delivered by Herr von Krabner, the director of the "Deutsche Gesellschaft fur Bergbau und Industrie in Shantung."

After dealing with the subject of German railway and mining enterprises in Shantung, Herr von Krabner dealt with the main object of his discourse, which was to impress the world with the imminence of the "Yellow Peril." He said in effect, that while the attention of Europe and America had been absorbed in watching the progress of the Manchurian campaign, Japan had been engaged quietly and unostentatiously in effecting what amounted to nothing less than the "Japanization" of China. Since the beginning of the war Japan had succeeded in establishing her predominance both politically and economically in the Middle Kingdom. She was now occupying herself with the complete reorganization of the Chinese army, and was also carrying on, by means of proclamations and Chinese newspapers, a grand anti-foreign campaign. She was fomenting the hatred of the Chinese even against her British ally by informing them that the British were enslaving and brutalizing the coolies in South Africa. In addition to this anti-foreign campaign, Japan, Herr von Krabner averred, was promoting an anti-dynastic movement, with the object of eventually placing Quan Shikai, Viceroy of Chi-li, on the throne. That Viceroy was now completely in the power of the Japanese, and as he controlled all appointments in China it was obvious that no more fitting person could have been selected to play the role of a Japanese Li Hun-chang. It was a moral certainty that unless the advance of Japan could be checked the time would come when Germany would be compelled to defend Kiao-chow and Shantung against her foes. He believed and was convinced that when that moment arrived Germany would be able to count on the support of France and the United States, whose interests in Tonking and the Philippines would be managed in a scarcely less degree. But if the other powers were unwilling to bar the progress of Japan, then, said Herr von Krabner, Germany must take upon her own shoulders this "white man's burden." She must do this for the sake of her offspring, who would never forgive the present generation if it allowed Japan to annihilate German trade in the Far East and to obtain complete control over China. Above all things Germany must support the present dynasty against the machinations of Japan. Dr. Vosberg-Bekow, president of the society, was as much concerned as Herr von Krabner at the manner in which the Japanese were competing, not only against Germany, but also against Great Britain. He informed his hearers that the Japanese were rapidly driving British traders out of the Yangtze Valley. They had monopolized the camphor trade, and were gradually obtaining control of the shipping interests in that region. British ship-owners were no longer able to contend against their Japanese rivals. He emphasized the statements made by Herr von Krabner with reference to the reorganization of the Chinese Army, and added that if his knowledge of the Japanese Admiralty had mapped out a comprehensive plan for the construction of a new Chinese Fleet, the Japanese had decided, he said, that the headquarters of the future Chinese Navy were to be established at Tientsin, which would be converted under their auspices into a vast naval arsenal. The prodigious military successes of Japan, he observed in conclusion had reduced both the Chinese people and the Chinese Government to a condition of awe, and had rendered them the absolute tools of Japanese ambitions. Lieutenant-General von Gayl, who served under Count von Waldersee in China, observed that he, too, foresaw the possibility that Germany might one day have to fight the Japanese on account of Kiao-chow, but it was, he hoped a possibility which would never become a reality. The General spoke in the highest terms of admiration of the Japanese and of the extraordinary performances of their army against so formidable and fearless a foe as Russia. It was impossible, he said, for any words to do justice to the devotion and intrepidity of the Japanese troops. For his part he could only say that it would be against all the laws of nature to expect that a nation so virile as the Japanese should neglect to develop its resources, nor did he know where the Chinese could obtain more capable instructors for their navy and army than were to be found in Japan. The General added that he was firmly convinced that if the Russians did not conclude peace very shortly they would be bottled out of the history book of the world for an indefinite number of years.

In the course of the evening questions were addressed to Herr von Krabner as to the probable fate of Wei-hai-wel after the war. Would not Wei-hai-wel be menaced with the same peril as Kiao-chow? Herr von Krabner replied that in all probability the British Government would hand Wei-hai-wel over to the Japanese.—Japan Times.

TRUAX COMMITS SUICIDE. George Truax, formerly in the money order department of the local post-office, was found dead in his room at the Langton rooming house on Bereftania street just Ewa of the Progress block at about 1:15 this morning by O. S. James, his room-mate. Death is supposed to have resulted from prussic acid administered with suicidal intent. He had just resigned from the post office a few days ago and seemed to be in good spirits. No motive for the act is known. He was about twenty-five years of age and had a mother and sister in Seattle. A bottle containing what is thought to be prussic acid was found near the body. A doctor was with Truax when he died, but could do nothing. The dead man was a member of the Eagles.
