HONOLULU TERRITORY OF HAWAII, TUESDAY, JUNE 25, 1907

PRICE 5 CENTS

Governorship Note Received By Frear From Roosevelt

Walter F. Frear, at present Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, is the next Governor of Hawaii.

This statement, although unofficial, may be made with almost absolute certainty. If it proves to be incorrect, it will be only through the refusal of Frear to accept the position, and nobody believes he will refuse.

For the position has undoubtedly been offered to the Chief Justice by President Roosevelt. This statement is also unofficial, but if two and two still make four, it is correct. It may be stated that the President has written to Chief Justice Frear in reference to the matter, and, although Judge Frear is not yet ready to make any definite statement, either as to whether he has received the letter yet or whether he will accept the offer of the Governorship, it may be taken for granted that both of these questions may be answered in the affirmative and will be when the Chief Justice is ready to make an official statement.

The Chief Justice was interviewed in regard to the Governorship this morning by a Bulletin reporter.

CHIEF JUSTICE FREAR

"What is the news from Washington?" was the first question asked of Judge Frear.

"I am not prepared to make any statement yet," replied the Chief Justice.

"But you have received a communication in regard to the matter, have you not, Judge?"

"I can't answer that question, either, today," replied the Judge. "I am aware, of course, that there have been lots of rumors in connection with the Governorship, and that my name has been connected with some of them. But the first definite information in regard to the matter that I received was something that I heard last week. I don't think there is any harm in your stating that it is reported that President Roosevelt was going to write me a letter."

"Have you received the letter, yet?" asked the interviewer.

"I am not prepared to make any statement as to that," said the Chief Justice. "But I hope to be able to say before long that the matter has been settled one way or the other."

"Will you state, Judge, whether or not you would accept the Governorship?"

"No; I don't care to make any statement today," replied Judge Frear. "I hope to be able to give you a statement within a few days."

Questions and answers do not always mean so much as other things. The smiles of the Chief Justice, his tones of voice, the general impression conveyed by what he said and the way he said it were sufficient, even more than his words, to justify the statement at the beginning of this story, that Walter F. Frear is the man who will occupy the robin's-egg-blue chamber when Governor Carter moves out.

In reply to a question as to whether or not he intended to take a vacation this year, the Chief Justice said that that had been his hope, but he was uncertain whether or not he would be able to do so now. "I was hoping to leave on July 5 for a camping trip on Kauai," he said, "but I don't know now whether I can get away or not." His enigmatic smile wrote "Governor" all over his face.

It is probable that the Judge will within the next few days make public either the text or the general intent of the President's letter, which is now in his pocket.

INCREASED PAY FOR TEACHERS JULY 1

New Schedule Will Be In Effect During Vacation

COOKING AND SEWING IN SCHOOLS ARE DISCUSSED

MRS. DOWSETT BELIEVES THAT GIRLS SHOULD BE TAUGHT TO MAKE THEIR OWN CLOTHES

The new schedule for teachers' salaries, which the increased appropriation made by the Legislature renders possible, is to go into effect the first of next month and the vacation salaries to be drawn by the teachers will be made on this basis. As according to this schedule nearly all salaries are raised very considerably over what is now being paid, the increase in some cases being almost 100 per cent., this will be very good news to the teachers.

The decision to put the new schedule into effect at once was made by the Board of Education at its meeting yesterday afternoon. Superintendent Babbitt stated that the added amount which the teachers will draw is to be considered as pay for what they have already done and not for the labors in the future. During the vacation months it is to be made on the basis of conditions as they are now. After the beginning of the new school term there will be some changes made in accordance with whatever changes may be made in the positions held by the teachers.

Aside from this resolution, the feature of the meeting was a discussion, largely between Mr. Hutchins and Mrs. Dowsett, as to the relative value in the schools of courses in cooking and sewing. It arose through the statement made by Superintendent Babbitt that next year he hoped to install cooking schools in the Puhukaina, Royal, Kalia, and possibly some other schools. This plan met with the approval of Mr. Hutchins, but Mrs. Dowsett opposed it strongly.

"I am decidedly against it," she said. "What we need in the schools is not so much cooking as sewing. It does no good to try to teach these girls how to cook. They simply will not do it. This is particularly true of the Hawaiian girls. They will go home from school in the afternoon and sit around to wait for their old mothers to cook dinner for them. They won't do it themselves. If their parents will not do the work for them they will actually go out and burn their meals. I know it."

Superintendent Babbitt stated that sewing is already taught in nearly all the schools.

"Yes, but it doesn't amount to anything," said Mrs. Dowsett. "The girls are not taught to make anything. They are given a piece of cloth and a needle and thread and all they are taught to do is to use the needle. They can't make their own garments."

"What I think they ought to be taught is how to cut out their own clothes and make them."

Mr. Hutchins wanted to know if they would be liable to sew if they will not cook.

Mrs. Dowsett thought they would. (Continued on Page 2)

FUSHIMI IS COMING

Prince Fushimi, who left Vancouver a day or two ago on board the British warship Monmouth is to visit Hawaii again, and will arrive at this port on or about July 2nd.

This information was contained in an official cablegram received today by the Japanese Consul. The Consul and Mr. Akai of the Yokohama Specie Bank are conferring this afternoon over arrangements for the entertainment of the Prince. The Japanese papers state that a Japanese cruiser is to follow the Prince. This the Consul denies.

Prince Fushimi, who visited here during the war with Russia, has recently made a visit to Great Britain. When he arrived at Vancouver on his way home, the British Government as a particular mark of respect, provided a warship to convey him home. It has not been previously announced that this warship with the Prince on board is to visit the Islands.

(Special to the Bulletin)

Waialuku, Maui, June 24.—A meeting of the prominent citizens from Waialuku, Kahului and Punene was held at the Waialuku court house this Monday morning to devise ways and means of receiving and entertaining the Congressmen and their wives who are expected in Waialuku from Honolulu via Lahaina next Wednesday morning. The following committee were appointed: Hon. H. P. Baldwin, L. von Tompsky, D. C. Lindsay, C. D. (Continued on Page 5.)

DRUNKEN SOLDIERS START DISTURBANCE

Mounted Officers Called From Beats To Quell It

The police had a lively time last night looking after the soldiers from the local garrison who joined forces with those on board the transport Crook and had a very hilarious time. Those from Honolulu were celebrating their coming departure and with the assistance of their comrades from the Crook they succeeded in making quite a showing.

An incipient riot was started by them during the evening at the Oahu saloon on King street near the Iwilei (Continued on Page 5.)

CONGRESSMEN SAIL FOR OTHER ISLANDS

Committees Are Waiting To Conduct The Visitors

The Congressional party had somewhat of a resting-up day yesterday. They put in the morning going about the city and doing some shopping. The Congressmen were guests of the University Club at lunch. It was intended that the party would visit the Palii in the afternoon but the frequent showers put that scheme out of commission and they were taken direct to the Country Club. There they were met by a number of ladies and were served with light refreshments. The Congressmen were entertained with the beautiful grounds of the Club and scenes of landscape surrounding it.

This noon the Congressmen and those accompanying them left in the Kinuar for Lahaina under the guidance of Chief Clerk Lloyd Conkling of the Secretary's office, who will be their chaperone during the entire trip. The band played the steamer off at the wharf in honor of the distinguished passengers. (Continued on Page 4.)

JULY 4TH GAMES AT KAPIOLANI PARK

Sports Committee Has Arranged Complete Program

The games on Fourth of July are to be held at Kapiolani Park. There was some doubt as to whether Aala Park or Kapiolani Park would be preferable for these events, but the committee on sports, of which James Thompson is chairman, has decided on the latter place as offering better advantages all around and the games will be held there.

Following is a list of some of the events:

One mile relay (seniors).
440-yard dash (seniors).
100-yard Dash (boys under 15 yrs. of age).
880-yard run (seniors).
50-yard dash (boys under 15 years).
Three-legged Race (1-4 mile) free for all.
Shoe Race (boys under 10 years).
Potato Race (boys under 15 years).
Half-mile bicycle race for girls.
50-yard Dash for girls.
100-yard Dash for girls.

The committee will arrange to have two picked teams from the Riverside League to play. There will also be a greased pole on the grounds. A prize (Continued on Page 4.)

INCREASED PAY

(Continued from Page 1.) because it is pleasanter work for them, and there is the chance for the girls to make money. "Why," she said, "the women of this town are glad to pay a woman who can sew $1.50, $2 and $2.50 a day and pay care in the bargain. On the other islands they would even be glad to pay steamer fare, too, if they could get someone to sew for them."

"We are educating girls to go out as teachers, and those girls can't make their own clothes," she continued. "I know of one case where a girl graduates from the Normal School this year and is going out to teach. And she can't sew. What are such girls going to do? In most cases their parents cannot afford to hire dressmakers for them. I think it is a shame."

Mr. Hutchins favored the cooking school idea, but failed to convince Mrs. Dowsett. Superintendent Babbitt suggested that a dressmaking annex to the Normal School might be a good idea. After considerable discussion Mrs. Dowsett was finally appointed a committee of one to investigate the sewing taught in the schools and suggest plans to making the course more thorough. Babbitt said that if any added time were given to this, something else would have to be cut out and he could not see what to cut out. "Well, I'll find something," said Mrs. Dowsett.

A number of teachers sent in their resignations, which were accepted by the board. Most of those who resigned are going to leave the Territory. Miss Yoch resigned her position as teacher of English in the High School, as she is leaving the Territory. Miss Hazel Hoffman is another High School teacher who leaves the school. She stated in her letter of resignation that she is going to China and Japan for two years. Miss Bruce resigned as principal of the Kaupoa school. She, too, is leaving the Islands. The resignations of Mr. and Mrs. Tople and of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Rosecrans were also accepted.

The board voted to grant life certificates to Miss F. Eaton, Miss Myra Angus, Miss L. Claypool and B. B. Brightwell, they having taught for ten years and holding the proper grade of certificate.

Miss E. H. Bicknell presented a request for a leave of absence during the first term of the coming school year, on account of ill-health. The request was accompanied by a doctor's certificate. After some discussion the board granted the request.

Superintendent Babbitt appointed Mr. Hutchins and Mr. Waterhouse as additional members of the Teachers' Committee, stating as he did so that there will be a large amount of work for the committee to do. As soon as the returns from the teachers' examinations are in, the committee, Mr. Babbitt said, will be called on to meet three or four times a week to go over the lists and fix the salaries.

Attorney Charlie Achi and Prosecutor Andrade had quite a warm argument in the Police Court this morning. Achi wanted a man named Silva, who had been used as a witness by Andrade in a cattle stealing case, prosecuted as having been implicated in the same matter. Andrade was willing but wanted Achi to prosecute as he was in possession of all the necessary evidence. Achi refused, claiming that he would not do so unless the County paid him for it, and for a while there was a very interesting argument between the two attorneys.

Taylor and 50 passengers on deck.

The steamer Mauna Loa arrived in port this morning with a big passenger list and the usual cargo of island produce, including 1109 cases pineapples from Kona. Commander Simerson reports good weather on the Hawaii coast and heavy showers in Kona, Kau and Hamakua. The Mauna Loa returns to Maui and Hawaii ports next Friday at noon.

HANAHEI CLOSING

Hanahe, Kaula, June 21.—Today the Hanahe School held its closing exercises much to the credit of its principal, Miss Florence Deverill and her assistants, Miss Mollie Cummings and C. K. Amoa. The program follows:

Song—Bells of Seville.
 Recitation—I do! Don't You?
 Song—Ho, Ho, Vacation Days are Here.
 Dialogue—Father Time and His Daughters.
 Song—Hail, Silent Night.
 Recitation—Ancient Mountain of Japan.
 Song—Baby Bye.
 Dialogue—Honesty Best Policy.
 Song—Jeans Bids Us Shine.
 Recitation—A Little Critic.
 Dialogue—A Joyful Surprise.
 Song—Crossing the Bar.
 Dialogue—A Choice of Trade.
 Song—Liberty and The States.
 Dialogue—Postoffice.
 Song—Thanksgiving Hymn.
 Song—Sweeping Brush Brigade.
 Dialogue—The Flag Exercise.
 Recitation—The Dark Closet.
 Dialogue—A Flower Masque.

A medley by the whole school was rendered beautifully and greatly applauded. This was the original idea of the Hanahe school teachers and to them much credit should be given. On the whole the affair was a grand success and all those in attendance greatly praised the work of the school.

KANEHOE SCHOOL

HOLDS INTERESTING

CLOSING EXERCISES

(Special to the Bulletin)
 Kanehoe, Oahu, June 22.—Owing to the inclement weather which prevailed all day Friday, June 21st, the closing exercises of the Kanehoe School did not commence until 9:45, as the children had to be conveyed to the school in wagons.

Following the exercises the C. C. Harris medals for general excellence were presented by Deputy Sheriff Paha to the winners, viz:

Solomon Paha,
 Mary Kahana.

Quite a number of the parents were present to witness the exercises and all were pleased with the singing, recitations, dialogues and the spade drill.

At the closing hour, which was 11:30, they were again conveyed back to Henry Cobb Adam's yard, where Hawaiian delicacies, mineral water, etc., had been prepared for the woots and everyone ate to their hearts' content.

The weather happened to clear up about 2 p. m. and the sports were held in which a large number of children took part and the winners receiving prizes ranging from 10c up to 50c.

- Following is the program:
- Opening Song—"Faraway" ... School

GRAY-LISHMAN WEDDING AT CENTRAL UNION

The Central Union Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding last evening. The contracting parties being Miss Daisy Lishman, daughter of Mrs. Robert Lishman of this city and Herbert Scott Gray. There were a large number of friends of the young couple present. The church was most beautifully decorated for the occasion by Mrs. Creighton, Mrs. Murphy, Mrs. Charles Weight and Miss Lily Paty, white and green being the color scheme worked out with lilies, asters and marguerites and male. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Doremus Scudder.

The bride was most beautifully gowned, including the bridal veil, and carried a magnificent bouquet of white daisies. She was attended by Miss Margaret Lishman, as maid-of-honor, and by two bridesmaids, Miss Nellie McLain and Miss Marguerite Creighton.

Following the ceremony the party partook of a bridal supper at the home of the bride's mother, on Keenauoku street.

Mr. and Mrs. Gray left today for Halewa on their wedding trip.

- CONVOCATION HAS COMPLETED WORK
- The Episcopal Church Convocation finished its work last night and adjourned sine die. The Council of Advice was authorized to select a delegate to the Pan-Anglican Missionary Conference, which will be held at St. Paul's, London.
- The Episcopate Fund which has been held by the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, for the support of the Bishop in Honolulu, has consented to turn that fund over to the Board of Directors of the Church here, the original purpose of the trust to be carried out. The fund amounts to something over $9000. It is invested in British Consols bearing two and a half per cent. interest. An attempt will be made to obtain permission to sell the consols in order to make a more profitable investment.
- About $300 has been collected so far in the men's thank offering for missions. It is hoped to raise this to $1000.
- NOTICE TO MARINERS
- OAKLAND HARBOR, CALIFORNIA.
- Notice is hereby given that the structure supporting the Oakland Harbor South Jetty Light, has been destroyed. Until further notice a red post lantern will be exhibited each night from the front (outer) Dolphin, which is about 50 feet in front of and to the side of the former light.

THE NEXT GOVERNOR.

The Bulletin is not in the ranks of those who will rush into enthusiastic predictions of what a splendid Governor—Viceroy—Chief Justice Frear
will make. We hesitate between Governor and Viceroy because we are uncertain whether Carter will still hold the Viceregal while Frear is Governor.

That is for lycophants; and there is enough of them to make themselves
heard.
God only knows how successful a career Chief Justice Frear will carry out as the Governor of the Territory of Hawaii.

We believe Mr. Frear himself will join us in this sentiment, as executive authority has been so far from his training and life-work up to this point.
The Bulletin believes that Governor Carter has named his successor, and while he has named an indefinite quantity he has put upon one who commands more widespread confidence
among the people than does the alleged competitor.

As stated in a previous issue, we believe Mr. Frear will accept the office. The Bulletin wishes him well, and he can make a success if he adopts the principle of "government of, by and for the people" and does not forget the practice when problems
and friends begin to get thick, and Ambition loaded with personal political obligations trends on the heels of Patriotic Purpose.

Who is to be the Chief Justice?
Only the invertebrates and xero-phants subscribe to the doctrine that
the King can do no wrong.
No person should be more ready to make statements under oath than those claiming to speak as guardians
of the public welfare.

Let the children of the schools be taught to sew—and cook. The women not well grounded in each of these accomplishments falls far short in equipment for a contented and useful life.
Since one of the Second Section
Congressmen is interested in sericulture,
and has ideas as to what he would like to see, that is no good reason for fattening him with bundles. What Hawaii needs is practical assistance based on full knowledge of facts.
The duty of a Territorial Governor
is to exercise executive authority under the law. The monarchial idea of the Governor being the personal representative of the President is an invention not likely to inspire confidence in the ideals of a republic
among former citizens of a monarchy.

A correspondent asks what response was made as between Frear
and Athiamu by the following in these columns:—
Ask a business man as to his preference for the position of Viceroy, and the response is wonderfully unanimous.
"Nothing is lost without Frear before Athiamu."
Do down the King and you will find the same thing, provided you give a guarantee that the conversation is not for publication.

ANOTHER WORD TO CONGRESSMEN.

It is not surprising to find the converts to the political small-farm campaign beginning their work on the Second Section Congressmen.

"The latest edition in their orzan
displays and exposes the contradictions of these people, converted for political purposes, better perhaps than anything previously published.

Hawaii needs Democrats—if they can be obtained. Everybody joins in this.
But it is not necessary for true
friends of Hawaii to join with the periodical small-farm hunters who say that tourists are "one liners" and incapable of obtaining citizenship. This is neither a fair nor a just statement.
This is not a fair nor a just statement.
This is not a fair nor a just statement.

Stiffly passing over the economic facts of the situation and binding the uninformed with the dust of generality, the enthusiastic converts, who a few short months ago were ishmailiting anyone who questioned the right of the Oriental to predominate, announce that everything will be all right, the land taken up and the desert of Orientalism blossom with the flowers of Independent American homesteads—if the American farmer comes to Hawaii.

This sounds well and it would be entirely good doctrine, if the situation were not controlled by one fact,
conveniently sidetracked by the small-
farm politicians.
These farmers coming from the mainland—if they come—will employ Japanese labor, if they can get it,—
and they can get it, away from the sugar plantations.

Then the "small farmer" becomes a "small proprietor." And the Japanese contents this man's commercial future just as he now predominates
in the sugar field.
Later the "small proprietor" incorporates, and if his Japanese laborers
work at a sufficiently low figure, the "small proprietor" either sells out or drains dividends and rides in automobiles.

This "American farmer" is indeed fortunate, but he has in no way helped to solve the problem of Hawaii. He sells one more to the condition which the small-farmer politician expresses as follows: "A few whites, however wealthy, cannot breast the Oriental invasion."

The small-farm politicians will doubtless meet their own contradictions in their usual hiding grounds—
"it is better to have a number of
"small proprietors" than no small proprietors, and no diversification of industry."
This is true indeed. But they have not solved the problem. They have only duplicated it.
They have not increased the power
and influence of the American farmer, nor have they decreased the dangers of "Oriental invasion"—an invasion, by the way, which these same converts were adding to the limit only a few short months ago.

The remedy proposed by the converts is so artificial and contrary to reason that they make themselves ridiculous. It would be as easy to produce white raspberries from pink thimble-berry bushes as to Americanize Hawaii by increasing the number of employers of Japanese laborers—assuming that the laborer and his children will forever remain alien.

The honest, effective remedy must begin with the main industry. It is an ordinary common-sense fact that the main industry, whether it be sugar-growing, iron-mining, coal-mining, or bean-growing, sets the pace
and establishes the basis from which all progress and all reform of its section must operate. Reformation cannot be brought about by a duplication of errors. Such has never been the case in American history.

An effective remedy is found in tackling the sugar properties direct.
Americanization to be permanent must have its foundation in the character of the workmen employed in the main industry. It is very clearly proved that a preponderance of Oriental laborers in the field will soon produce
the progressive Oriental for the higher positions. This will prove as true on the "small farm," or the establishment of the "small proprietor," as it has been in the enterprises of the sugar interests.

One solution of Hawaii's problem is found in the European immigrant homesteaded on the sugar plantation.
The American farmer can work on the sugar plantation, but he will not do it.
The European farmer can work on the plantation, and he not only does his task well, but the conditions under which he works and is housed are constantly improving. Here is the man who will become an independent and contented cultivator, when the American farmer is either giving up
in disgust or employing Japanese.

Hawaii needs favorable legislation
by Congress to enable our people to carry out the European immigration program. The leaders of the main industry have proved to the satisfaction of honorable men that they are ready to do their part.
The small farm propaganda that has to make his way with ishmailit-ism to the fore is obviously a proposition that aims to stand only so long as it will serve personal political purposes.

CONKING IS GUIDE FOR CONGRESSMEN

Lloyd Conking, the Governor's chief clerk, is the man who will personally conduct the visiting Congressmen about the islands. He left with the party this morning on the Zouma for Maui, where the Congressmen are to visit Haleakala, the Kahala breakwater and other places on that island. He will then take the visitors to Hawaii. As the chief clerk is thoroughly acquainted with every part of that island, he should make a good guide.

Conking may stay with the party
during the two weeks that they are gone, or he may return next Saturday, depending on the amount of work that accumulates in the office during the week.

A WORD TO THE PUBLIC

It appears that there is a misunderstanding as to what a "private dance"
at the Seaside actually is. The great value of Honolulu's Cooney Island is that it can be engaged by an individual, club or society for a private function. When this is the case the center of the main building, the dancing room and the grounds immediately in-front thereof are rented for the evening. The bath-house and portion of the lawn adjacent thereto, as well as the buffet and lawn Waikiki of the large land are always open to the public. We regret that there has been any misunderstanding and trust that this explanation will suffice.

CONGRESSMEN SAIL

This morning the party did very little tramping about but put in the time in preparations for the trip to the other islands. They will go to Lahaina, where they will be met by the Maui Committee. From Lahaina
they will go to Paia and Kahului, visiting the breakwater at the latter point. They will take the Mauna Loa from McGregor's Landing at 9:30 Friday night and go to Kailua. From there they will drive to Napoosopo and take the Kinau Saturday night to Honolulu, reaching there at daylight
Sunday morning. They will go directly to the Volcano, arriving in time for lunch and resting during the afternoon and all day Monday.

Tuesday will be spent in Hilo as will Wednesday. The breakwater will be inspected and various trips made. It is planned for the party to drive to Honokaa on Thursday, go to Waimea Friday and catch the Kinau
back to this city on Friday night.
It is possible that the plane may be changed somewhat, Tuesday being the Fourth of July, the visitors may elect to stay over in Hilo.

JULY 4 GAMES

of $5 is offered. The sports, including bicycles, will take place at Kapolani Park commencing at 1:30 p. m.
Entries for the bicycle races are to be made with George Lowe or with John P. Silva. The entries for the running races are open and are to be made at the store of the Hawaiian News Co. at the Young building. No entry fee is required for the running races. Prizes will be offered and a list will be published at a later date.

The regents of the University of California have endorsed resolutions to President Wheeler and are asking him to remain at the university. It was also ordered that a fire-proof building,
to cost $10,000 be erected for the purpose of preserving the records of the observatory.

LAHAINA'S NEW HALL

JAPANESE CHURCH HAS
NEW ASSEMBLY PLACE

WEDDING OF MISS NAPAEPAE
AND MR. NUUHIWA—QUEEN
MAKING VISIT WITH MR.
AND MRS. SEONG

(Special to The Bulletin)
Lahaina, Maui, June 24.—The Rev.
Mr. So, who has charge of the Japanese Methodist Episcopal Church at Lahaina, has been enabled by his energetic labor and assisted by the generous contributions of friends of the work, to erect a large hall on the church grounds for meetings and other settlement work. The Pioneer Mill Company of Lahaina, by its manager, Mr. Barkhausen, donated the land for the building site.

On Saturday last invitations were issued to a number of friends to attend the entertainment given in commemoration of the event, at which wedding congratulatory addresses
were made by the Rev. Mr. Wadman,
the Rev. Mr. Ming, the Rev. Mr. So,
and Messrs. Fujimoto, Masuda.
A number of prizes were awarded to the classes of the Japanese school which is conducted by Mr. So on the same grounds.

After the program an ample and delicious feast was spread on tables
set in the open air under the bright light of a perfect moon. With the light-bued lanterns about the trees
and grounds, the scene will be long remembered by those fortunate enough to be there.
At the Church of the Holy Immaculate, on Saturday afternoon, Miss Francis Napaepae and Mr. Nuuhiwa were joined in the bonds of matrimony by the Rev. Canon Weymouth.

After the ceremony a very delightful repast was provided for the hundreds of friends who attended at the residence of Mrs. Kanewale.
Queen Liliuokalani arrived from Hilo on the last Kinau and is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Seong at their new residence "Mauna Himela."
Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Hayselden and family have gone to Kau, Hawaii.

SYMPHONY CONCERT AT BISHOP HALL

There was not a large attendance at the Symphony Club concert last night
in the Bishop Hall of Oahu college.
Those who did go, however, were treated to some rare music.
The many other attractions throughout the city last evening had a tendency to detract from this delightful entertainment.

The numbers that were rendered were in a finished style and were warmly received by those present.
Mrs. George Macfarlane, always a favorite with Honolulu's concert-goers, sang the Bach-Gounod "Ave Maria" grandly. The "Wedding March" (Mendelssohn), by the full orchestra of twenty-five players, and the "Vorspiel," from Liszt, by a quartet,
were possibly the most enjoyable of
the instrumental numbers.

Henry Brandenstein is mentioned as a possible successor to Schmitz as mayor of San Francisco.

KIDNEY TROUBLES

The kidneys are essential organs
for keeping the body free from impurities. If they should fail to work
death would ensue in very short time.
Inflammation or irritation caused by some feminine derangement may spread to some extent to the kidneys and affect them. The cause can be so far removed by using Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound
that the trouble will disappear.
When a woman is troubled with pain or weight in loins, backache,
swelling of the limbs or feet, swelling under the eyes, an uneasy, tired
feeling in the region of the kidneys,
she should lose no time in commencing treatment with

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

It may be the means of saving her life. Read what this medicine did for Kate A. Hearn, 520 West 47th Street, New York, who writes:—
Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—I owe a debt of gratitude to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for it has saved my life. I suffered with Kidney trouble, irregularities and painful periods, and my blood was fast turning to water. I used your medicine for some time and it has made me strong and well.
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made from native roots and herbs cures Female Complaints, such as Falling and Displacements, and Organic Diseases. Dissolves and expels Tumors at an early stage.
It strengthens and tones the Stomach. Cures Headache, General Debility and invigorates the whole system. For derangement of the Kidneys in either sex Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is excellent.
Mrs. Pinkham's Invitation to Women
Women suffering from any form of female illness are invited to write Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., for advice. It is free.

PRIZES AWARDED TO ALL THE BABIES

The following were the regular prizes awarded at the baby show last Saturday.
The prizes were awarded as follows:
A prize of $1.50 to the best all around
baby in each section:
Hawaiian—Mabel Lindington.
Japanese—Haruga Ishimura, 4 years.
Chinese—Yap Tsun Len, 2 years.
Portuguese—George Castro, nine months.
American—Otto Ladloff, two and a half years.

ELECTRIC BUZZER

Mathews, the Hebrew second-hand
dealer, who is one of the quaint characters of the city, complained to the police today that someone was "putting up ein ehob on me." Mathews is the landlord of the "Australian"
block, a not exactly palatial rooming house on Fort street. He stated that all his tenants were leaving him because an electric buzzer had been placed inside the partitions of the house, which was operated in the early morning and late at night, making sleep an impossibility. Mathews had been driven to distraction by the mystery and offered a reward of $5 to anyone who could relieve him of the nuisance.

The awards for the prettiest babies
were $1 in each nationality as follows:
Hawaiian—Eleanor Morse, three
years.
Japanese—Ayoka Yamamoto.
Chinese—Kin Yuk, three and a half
years.
Portuguese—Thelma Madefro, two
years.
American—Hazel Samson.
The fattest baby in each nationality got a prize of $1:
Hawaiian—Daniel Kanuha, 3 years.
Japanese—Shigaru Soga, a year and eight months.
Chinese—Chung Mon Lin, 4 years.
Portuguese—Margarite Lewis, 3
years.

IMMIGRATION BUSINESS
San Francisco, June 19.—Immigration Commissioner Hart North has received from Washington a circular letter to the effect that employes in the Immigration Bureau are forbidden to have business relations with Chinese,
especially with regard to insurance business. The letter is not directed to the local Immigration Bureau alone,
but is a copy of one sent to all bureaus
in the United States. North stated yesterday that the letter was not inspired by any recent act on the part of any of the inspectors or interpreters.

Then there were special prizes of fifty cents. In the Hawaiian section one of these prizes was awarded to Paul O. Parker Waipa, 3 years old, the eighteenth child of Captain and Mrs. Parker. Ethel Wise, a daughter of John Wise, was given a special prize for typical Hawaiian beauty.
Hoohokulani Kinney was given a special prize as a typical Hawaiian.
The Japanese twins of T. Okumura
and the Chinese twins of Tom Yung Kee were given prizes for being twins. In the Portuguese section Al-da Irene Branco was given a special prize. In the best all around baby
class; in the American section Graeie Anderson, 14 months old, for being the smallest baby in the section; Henry and Mabel McCandless for being the first entries; Louis Gill, for beauty,
and Katie and Violet Birt, for being
the best behaved.

Then there were Recognition awards
of twenty-five cents to each child present.
Towards the end of the baby-show
on Saturday afternoon the baby show looked rather pathetic. Although there were prizes before and a special prize to each child, there still remained a few who were not the proud possessors of be-ribboned placards. It seemed impossible to stop with the decision of the judges. As soon as one mother was brightened up by being presented with a card and ribbon
and the usual money present, the others naturally began to droop. So, just keeping enough money to settle
the advertising and refreshment bills,
the entire money remaining was given
out in well-deserved special prizes.
Even a few were sent to those who had left rather sorrowfully just after the awards. But the ladies wished to be generous and kind and, one thing
certain, everyone went home happy,
even the ladies in charge.

Partners of the Tide

By JOSEPH C. LINCOLN, Author of "Cap'n Eri"

Copyright, 1905, by A. S. Barnes & Co.

"I didn't see you come aboard, that's all. Want to see Cap'n Ez?"
"No, I don't want to see Cap'n Ez nor any other longshore thief but you. I want to go below and get my things."
"Your things?"
"Yes, my things—my oilskins and the rest of my stuff. I wouldn't leave 'em aboard this rotten tub another minute for a million dollars."
"Oh, very well," Bradley swung open the cabin door and started to lead the way with the lantern. Hammond shoved him aside.
"I'll go alone," he muttered.
"You can't see without the lantern. You'll have to go with me or wait till tomorrow morning."
"Give me that lantern," snarled Sam, making a grab for it.
Bradley held it out of reach.
"You're not fit to carry it," he said shortly.
"You mean mouthed sneak!" shouted Hammond. "I'm fit to fix you."
Bradley saw the blow coming. He dropped the lantern and ducked. Next instant Sam was upon him, screaming and cursing. They tripped over the swinging door and fell to the deck. Alvin and Captain Titeomb came running from the forecabin.
"What in the nation?"—cried the captain. "Here, quit that, you! Let him alone, Brad!"
Hammond yelled and fought as they dragged him to his feet. Finally, overpowered, he sobbed in maudlin fury.
"There, that'll do for you," observed the captain, clapping a big hand over his prisoner's mouth. "Crazy tight, ain't he? Hold still, or by the everlasting hooklocks, I'll leave you overboard! Where'd he come from?"
"Must have come aboard when we stopped at the wharf," replied Bradley. "He was dead set on taking the lantern and going below after his oilskins and stuff."
"Sooner trust a blind cripple with a lantern. Chuck his damnage ashore tomorrow mornin'. Now, then," turning to Hammond, "will you walk to the dory or shall we carry you? Shut up. You've cussed enough."
He led the way to the side, holding Sam by the coat collar. Bradley followed.
"Oh!" exclaimed the skipper, stopping short. "Didn't shut that cabin door, did you, Brad? I've left that blasted key somewhere, and if that spring lock's snipped shut we'll be in a mess. No? Well, all right then."
They got into the dory and Bradley took up the oars. Bense sat on the bow thwart, while the captain reclined in the stern with Hammond, sprawling and muttering, between his knees. They had nearly reached the beach when Sam gave a sudden spring and, with an oath, threw himself upon his enemy. Bradley fell backward. The dory heeled until the water lapped the rail.
"You would, would you?" grunted Captain Titeomb. "There!"
Seizing the straggling diver neck and crop, he whirled him bodily over the side.
"Now, then," panted the captain, "if you can't ride like a man, walk!"
Sam went into the cold water with a tremendous splash. It was not deep and he floundered to his feet, but the shock sobered him a little. He waded to the shore. "Turning, he stretched out an arm with a shaking forefinger at the end of it. His rage almost choked him. He tried twice before he managed to speak clearly.
"I pay my debts," he gasped. "I pay my debts!"
"I've heard different," remarked the captain dryly. "But never mind, Sam; it's a good habit."
Hammond did not heed him. "I pay my debts," he repeated. "Do you hear that, Brad Nickerson? You dough-face! I've got your girl away from you already, and that isn't the end. I pay my debts, and, Brad Nickerson, I'll pay you!"
He stood for an instant pointing at the dory. Then he stepped back into the darkness. They heard his footsteps crunching the broken clam shells of the road.
"Seems to love you like a brother, don't he, Brad?" observed the captain as they were on their way up town. "I judge from the drift of his entreatin' remarks that he's decided to check up his job with Titeomb & Nickerson. Well, I can't say he'll resign by mutual consent, as the Irishman did when him and his boss told each other to go to Boston, and he told me his folks fired Sam because he went on a howlin' spree, so I guess this little shindy was bound to come sooner or later. Kept pretty straight afore sence he's been to home, though, ain't he?"
Bradley did not answer.
Suddenly the captain slapped his thigh.
"Good land!" he exclaimed. "Brad, I've meant to tell you all day and forgot it. The Diving Belle's insured. I went down to Obed's after I left your horse last night and we fixed it up. Five thousand dollars, and it went on at noon today—last night, I s'pose it did. He was to telephone the insurance folks this mornin'."

"Good! I'm glad that's settled. It has worried me to think we weren't protected at all."
"Well, I told you I'd do it, didn't I? The only hitch was about that dynamite. But I fixed that. Give Obed to understand we'd took it ashore. We have, all but. I spoke to Peleg, and he'll have it off in a day or so."
Bradley stopped short. "You don't mean to tell me it hasn't gone yet?" he exclaimed. "Why, if anything should happen to the schooner with that stuff aboard the policy wouldn't hold for a minute. I've a good mind to go back now and take it off myself."
"Oh, don't be an old woman!" cried the captain testily. "What do you think's goin' to happen? I'll see to it tomorrow. Come on home."
The junior partner did not press the subject, but he made up his mind that if he lived until the next morning that dynamite should go ashore the minute the Diving Belle reached the Point.
At the gate of the Traveler's Rest they separated. "Coming round to the house by and by, cap'n?" asked Bradley.
The captain's manner changed. "I don't know," he answered gloomily. "I presume likely I may."

CHAPTER XVIII.

THERE was a mystery about the captain's visits to the big house. Up to the beginning of that week he had called on Tuesday and Friday evenings only and had remained until after 10 o'clock, joking, laughing and apparently enjoying himself. But now he came every night and seemed less talkative and more glum each time; also his calls grew shorter, and he went home as early as half past 8. The sisters did not know what to make of it. It was pleasant and encouraging to have him come so often, but why didn't he stay longer? Miss Tempy thought he must be worrying over the big contract.

She asked Clara for her opinion, but Miss Hopkins seemed very indifferent. She used to come into the sitting room as soon as the work was done to listen to Captain Titeomb's stories, but of late she had gone straight to her own room. The old maids did not urge her to remain. They liked to have the captain to themselves.

On the afternoon of the previous Sunday Miss Tempy had taken a sudden notion to go over to the Methodist chapel and attend the Sabbath school concert. The chapel was on the road to Orham Port, a mile or more from the Allen home. Miss Prissy was not strong enough to go and, in fact, thought the walk too long for her delicate sister, but Miss Tempy, having made up her mind, went. She would have been glad of Clara's company, but the young lady had already gone out.

Miss Tempy had just reached the corner when she was surprised to see Captain Titeomb driving toward her in a buggy. She recognized the horse and carriage as being the best owned by Lem Mullett, the livery stable keeper; also she noticed that the captain looked particularly well dressed—spruced up, she told Miss Prissy afterward.
"Cap'n!" she called. "Cap'n Ezra!"
The captain was then almost directly opposite, but he did not seem to hear or see her. Instead he whipped up the horse and drove by faster than ever.
"Dear me!" thought Miss Tempy. "He must be gittin' absintided. Workin' too hard, I guess. Cap'n Ezra!"
It is doubtful if the captain would have heard even then, but Jonathan Wixon was coming down the road, and he also began to shout. Hailed thus, fore and aft, the absintided one was obliged to leave to, and when Captain Jonathan pointed out Miss Tempy he turned his horse and drove back to where she was standing.
"Well, I do declare!" exclaimed the lady, smilingly conscious of a becoming new bonnet—one of the reasons for her desire to attend the concert. "I'm all out of breath callin' after you. I don't know what folks will think!"
The captain didn't appear to care very much what folks might think. He was polite as usual, but seemed to be a trifle nervous and kept glancing up and down the road. Miss Tempy, unconscious of the nervousness, went gushingly on.
"What a lovely horse!" she cried. "I declare, it must be a pleasure to ride behind him. I do so like to ride with a nice, gentle horse like that. Father used to take Prissy and me drivin' with our Dexter when he was alive—father was alive, I mean—yes, and the horse, too, of course. I hope I haven't kept you. Was you goin' to see Bradley?"
"No, no," was the hasty answer. "I was jest—jest drivin' down the road a ways." Then, perhaps noticing that his friend was headed toward the village, he added: "I had a little errand down toward the Port. You're goin' uptown, I see, else I'd ask you to jump in!"

ROBERTSON ROASTS POLICY OF BOARD

License Commissioners Acting In Arbitrary Manner

The liquor men did not have things all their own way at the public hearing before the License Board yesterday afternoon. The caustic criticism by members of the Board of the Anti-Saloon element who stayed away from the previous meeting appears to have had its effect, for there was quite a bunch of Leaguers present yesterday, among them being W. O. Smith, James A. Rath, J. M. Martin, G. R. Edwards, P. L. Ryder and Lyle A. Dickey. However, the numerous passages at arms that took place were not as a rule between the saloon men and the anti-saloon element, but between applicants for licenses and members of the Board.

A. G. M. Robertson was the central figure in a number of these tilts, and criticized very severely what he characterized as the arbitrary rulings of the Board and its arrogance to itself of undue power. He hinted very strongly that the matter is liable to end in the courts, which may be called upon to test the Board's apparent belief that it has absolute power to grant or refuse licenses and to impose what restrictions it will upon saloons.

SACRED HEART SCHOOL (Special to The Bulletin) Lahaina, Maui, June 22.—The School of the Sacred Heart on Thursday evening gave a public entertainment at their hall, and the program throughout was one of the best seen here for years. It was a performance which would rank with its kind anywhere as one of the very best. This school is doing excellent and faithful work and the other schools of the district will have hard work to keep pace with it in discipline and in sound instruction. Father Thomas is principal, and the Misses Keokohakalo are assistants.

What Pinkham Said--Not What the Advertiser Says He Said

"This Committee will not say or believe there is no hope for diversified or small farming, but does assert (to quote as responsible and directly experienced authority as exists in Hawaii), that it is both 'cruel' and 'criminal' to indiscriminately boom and urge ventures in experimental small farming by persons of small means dependent on prompt returns, or ventures, individually in a small way, in growing staples that are produced in more favored localities on an immense scale by low cost and abundant labor."—L. E. Pinkham's address to Honolulu Trades and Labor Council, Jan. 20, '05.

Because users, who appreciate its advantages of speed, easy operation and lasting service, would rather wait their turn for the L. C. SMITH & BROS. typewriter than buy of makers who have no difficulty in filling orders.

With And Without Residence

Part of the Alewa lots are to be put up for sale with the residence clause attached, and part of them without. A decision to this effect has been arrived at by Acting Governor Atkinson and Land Commissioner Pratt. The compromise will thus enable them to please both the people who want the lots without having to build on them at present and those who want the lots as immediate residences.

The lower lots are the ones which are to be sold with the residence clause attached. These lots are accessible to the present water supply and are therefore available now as residence sites. The residence clause will probably cause them to be sold for little more than the upset price, which will enable a considerable number of people of moderate means who want homes to obtain them at a cheap figure.

The upper lots are now out of the reach of the present water supply, though as soon as the new reservoir is completed, there will be no difficulty on that score. But as this is liable to be some time hence, the Commissioner has decided to sell them without the residence clause and they will probably on this account bring a considerably higher price from those who want them for speculation or to hold for residences at a later date.

Land Commissioner Pratt says that his office has been full all day of people who want to acquire the Alewa lots and there is no doubt as to their popularity.

MAGAZINE WRITERS BUSY WRITING UP HAWAII

Hawaii is soon to be advertised in the leading magazines on the mainland, and the Promotion Committee is hugging itself in glee. This will not be advertising in the regular way at all and so much a page, but will be of another and far more effective kind, namely: by special articles, written by regular staff writers, which, besides being far more effective than the paid "ad." have the great advantage of being free.

Alexander Ford, the well-known magazine writer, will leave for the mainland this week. He has spent a couple of months here during which time he has been gathering material. He states that he will write thirteen articles on Hawaii, the principal one of which will be on surf-riding, which will appear in "Outing."

Jack London is also getting some literary pabulum out of the Islands. He also intends to handle the surfing sports and it is understood that he is at present preparing a story on this subject which will appear in a woman's magazine in New York.

Mrs. C. R. Miller of the regular staff of Leslie's Weekly, who arrived a few days ago, has already started on her work of gathering material with great energy. A couple of days ago she visited Ewa plantation. She was taken all over the estate in a special plantation train by Manager Renton, and took a great many pictures both in the field and in the mill. She left today for Hawaii, where she will visit the volcano, on which she will write an article.

BOOST FOR BARNEY

The Commuters continued on their upward march yesterday, but they had to go some and be there all the time to do it. Two to one was the score when the game ended, and there were twelve innings of the toughest kind of a struggle before this conclusion was arrived at. Had not Spencer tossed away a ball in the fifth in the most erratic sort of a way, the game would never have gone beyond the conventional ninth period. But that's another story—the nature factors say so.

Barney Joy was on the slab for the Seals, and it was really a shame that he should have lost so brilliant a battle. He had the crowd with him to a man—and a woman. He was pitching first-class ball, and should have been in the winning end. But Spencer tossed that ball away, so what's the use?

You see, the Seals had annexed a tally in the third inning and that one mark should have been enough to win the game. They got it on Street's single, Meher's double and Hilde's single, and from the way things were going, they looked to have a beautiful chance to win a game at 1-0.

They would have done so, too, but Spencer threw the ball away—and they didn't.

It was in the fifth that the substitute third-sacker executed his dummy play. Devereaux had walked and had gone to third on Cates' single. He started to steal home from there, but Barney was on the lookout and whipped the ball quick to Street. The red dog darted back for third. Street tossed the ball down to Spencer and Brick started again for the plate. Spencer then threw the ball so high over the plate that it almost broke the official scorer's glasses. The result was that Devereaux scored, of course.

There wasn't another run from then on until the eleventh, when Cates ripped off a double, Smith singled and Van Halten fled out to right. Cates beating the throw to the plate.—Examiner.

SPORTS

WRESTLING TONIGHT

Everything is in readiness for the wrestling bouts to take place at the Crpheum tonight. The last two days have developed more wrestlers than politicians just before election, so there will be several preliminary bouts. The main event is scheduled to go on at about 9 o'clock. Both Spencer and Papas are confident of winning and an exciting contest is expected. Ringside seats are only one dollar and as there are only a few of these you had better order your tickets at once.

NO NEW BALL TOSSERS

As soon as the new lot of soldiers arrived there was a hurry among local baseball team managers for new players, but after looking over the new bunch it was found that all of the crack ball artists had been left behind to play ball in San Francisco with the soldier team there. The local teams must be content with what material they have, but inasmuch as they are now very evenly matched it may be a good thing that more new players did not come.

RECORDS MAY GO

On the night of the Third of July the fastest swimmers in Hawaii are going to meet under the auspices of the Myrtle and Heaiani boat clubs and if some records do not suffer, many who are on the inside of swimming dope will be disappointed. There are many new swimmers being developed and some first class performances will result from this meet. There are more lads in training at the Baths than ever before and they are all out to win for their club.

The two clubs have decided to have free fireworks in front of the Baths on this night just to give the people a little show of night fireworks. The band will play and in all a great big time will be had.

This proposition is going to be an annual affair with the two clubs and they mean to make it a success. Seats for the carnival will soon be on sale at 25c and 50c, which is very reasonable for such an event.

Ladies' Night at the Baths Thursday is creating much interest and a large crowd will no doubt be present to see the sport; a program of swimming, diving and other aquatics will be indulged in.

SOCKER AT HILO

There will be all sorts of sports go from Honolulu to Hilo on the Fourth and among the balance will be a strong soccer team from here. They will meet the All-Hawaii team while there and a good game should result.

Following are the teams that will play:

Hawaii—Goal, George Desha; backs, Lindsay, Kellner; half backs, F. Anderson, W. Chalmers, Fraser; forwards, McKenzie, Donald, Wilke, Rat-tray, Jamie.

Oahu—Goal, R. Chillingworth; backs, R. Cotton, J. Clark; half backs, J. Anderson, Mayall, R. Dixon; forwards, C. Osa, E. Fernandez, J. Catter-all, Hickman, E. Kea.
