Kihel district has joined Lanaina and Hana in enforcing a strict quarantine and yesterday a Kula Chinaman who came down in the morning to get supplies of rice, etc., for Kula, was stopped by the guards while going home from Wailuku with supplies. The Chinaman returned and put up for the night with friends at Walkapu.

CRONJE HAS SURRENDERED

Boers Gather About Bloemfontein to Check Advance.

Buller Still Held in Check Before Ladysmith—Great Britain Celebrates Majuba Hill Anniversary.

(Associated Press Special.) London, Feb. 27.—The War Office has received the following despatch from Lord Roberts: "Paardeberg, Feb. 27, 7:45 a. m. General Cronje and all of his force capitulated unconditionally at daylight and is now a prisoner in my camp. The strength of his force will be communicated later. I hope that Her Majesty's Government will consider this event satisfactory, occurring as it does on the anniversary of Majuba."

Roberts' Latest Report.

(Associated Press Special.) London, Feb. 2.—5:02 p. m.—The War Office has received the following despatch from Lord Roberts: "Paardeberg, February 2.—11 o'clock Tuesday morning. From information furnished daily to me by the intelligence department it became apparent that General Cronje's force was becoming more depressed and that the discontent among the leaders were rapidly increasing. This feeling was doubtless accentuated by the disappointment caused when the Boer reinforcements which tried to relieve General Cronje were defeated by our troops on February 23.

"I resolved, therefore, to bring pressure to bear upon the enemy. Each night the trenches were pushed forward toward the enemy's laager so as to gradually contract his position and at the same time I bombarded it heavily with artillery, which was yesterday materially aided by the arrival of four 6-inch howitzers which I had ordered up from De Aar. "In carrying out these measures, a captive balloon gave great assistance by keeping us informed of the disposition and movements of the enemy. At 3 a. m. today a most dashing advance was made by the Canadian regiment and some engineers, who were supported by the Gordon Highlanders and Second Shropshires, resulting in our gaining a point some 600 yards nearer the enemy and within about eighty yards of his trenches, where our men entrenched themselves and maintained their positions until morning, a gallant deed worthy of our Colonial comrades, and which I am glad to say, was attended by comparatively slight loss.

"This apparently clinched matters, for at daylight today a letter signed by Cronje, in which he stated that he surrendered unconditionally, was brought to our outposts under a flag of truce.

"In my reply I told General Cronje he must present himself at my camp and that his forces must come out of their laager after laying down their arms. By 7 a. m. I received General Cronje and despatched a telegram to you announcing the fact. In the course of conversation he asked for kind treatment at our hands and also that his wife, grandson, private secretary, adjutant and servants might accompany him wherever he might be sent. I reassured him and told him his request would be complied with. I informed him that a general officer would be sent with him to Cape Town to insure his being treated with proper respect en route. He will start this afternoon under charge of Major General Prettyman who will hand him over to the General commanding at Cape Town.

"The prisoners, who number about 3,000, will be formed into commandos under our own officers. They will also leave here today reaching the Modder river tomorrow, when they will be rallied to Cape Town in detachments."

"The above despatch was read in both the House of Lords and the House of Commons today. The reference to the Canadians evoked immense and prolonged cheering.

Mr. A. J. Balfour, the Government leader in the House of Commons, said he had no information relative to the Boer guns.

Captured 4000.

London, Feb. 27, 6:25 p. m.—It is now announced that Lord Roberts has notified the War Office that the number of Boer prisoners approximates 4,000, of which about 1,150 are citizens of the Orange Free State. The remainder are citizens of the Transvaal. Twenty-nine Transvaal officers were captured and eighteen Free State officers were made prisoners. The guns captured from the Transvaal forces were three 75-centimetre Krupp, one 9-pounder and one Maxim gun. From the Free Staters, the British captured one 75-centimetre Krupp and one Maxim gun.

Admire the Brave Boers.

(Associated Press Special.) London, Feb. 27.—"Majuba Avenged," "Cronje Surrenders," "Great British Victory." These are the expressions being shouted all over London today, yet there are few outward signs of the natural joy that Lord Roberts' despatch has really caused. The capitulation of General Cronje had been looked upon as almost a certainty for a week past and now that it has come, enthusiasm finds itself discounted by the anticipation.

"The magnitude of the success of 'Little Bobs' is almost overlooked in the fact that it synchronized with the anniversary of Majuba Hill and wiped out a dishonor of nineteen years' standing. While the afternoon papers all comment upon this happy coincidence, they do not forget the splendid bravery of the enemy.

The St. James Gazette says: "The splendid courage of the Boers has not been able to withstand any longer the bombardment which few modern soldiers have supported for so many hours as they have days. The influence of the surrender not only upon the situation at Ladysmith but on the whole conduct of the war will be immense.

"If the news of the relief of Ladysmith only reaches England and it is quite possible this may be the case, the cup of national happiness would be full."

The Globe, under the heading, "Majuba Avenged," says: "We shall not jump at the conclusion that the war is over, but that a victory has been gained which brings the end well in sight. General Cronje no doubt succeeded in delaying Lord Roberts' entrance into Bloemfontein, but the delay is all he has been able to accomplish."

The Westminster Gazette, which is inclined to be pro-Boer, says: "Admiration for the desperate valor of General Cronje is mingled with anger at the necessity imposed upon us of purchasing victory at this cost. Let us remember Paardeberg if we like, but forget Majuba and have done with the whole train of misleading associations and mischievous ideas which gathered around that unhappy memory."

Further details of the dramatic surrender of General Cronje at Paardeberg are eagerly awaited. Speculation is rife as to how soon Lord Roberts will be able to press on to Bloemfontein, but before he enters the capital of the Free State he will undoubtedly have to overcome a powerful force, and take strong entrenchments.

The news of General Cronje's surrender was received with unbounded satisfaction at Windsor. The Queen immediately telegraphed her congratulations to Lord Roberts and the troops.

There was a much more outward display of rejoicing in the provinces than in London. The Glasgow and Liverpool stock exchanges were greatly excited. The members sang "God Save the Queen," repeatedly and cheered for "Little Bobs." Flags were liberally displayed on the municipal and house buildings in all the large towns.

Windsor was very jubilant at the news, which the Queen disseminated immediately after it reached her and the inhabitants seized the occasion of Her Majesty's driving through the town on her way to take a train for a visit to the wounded South African soldiers at the Netley hospital, to give vent to their delight.

The Queen, who was looking remarkably well, showed evident signs of deep satisfaction, smiling continually bowing in response to the congratulatory cheers greeting her on all sides. Her Majesty took quantities of flowers to distribute to the wounded.

All the garrison towns and naval ports received the news with the liveliest satisfaction, soldiers and sailors vying with each other in displays of delight.

A letter has been received from a man in the first Dragoons now in South Africa confirming the report that a supply transport reached Ladysmith during the engagement at Spion Kop. He says the Dragoons were the escort of the transport, which was seven miles long and adds: "That is why Buller engaged the enemy at Spion Kop. Old Buller knows what he is doing and all are willing to follow him in spite of his reverses."

MARRIAGE PER ROOSTER

The Supreme Court Purges Chinese Woman of Polygamy.

Perjury Case Arising From a Houghtaling Liquor Prosecution—Minister of Interior Makes Return to Writ of Mandamus.

A unanimous decision of the Supreme Court reverses a judgment in the District Court finding Li Shee, a Chinese woman, guilty of polygamy. Justice Frear, who writes the opinion, Justice Whiting and Judge Perry sign the document. Chap Sam sent to China for the woman, but when she declined to live with him and married another man. The prosecution labored to show that she was married to Chan Sam by proxy, while she was in China and he in Hawaii. Assuming that marriage by proxy in China is legal and would be held valid here, which in fact the Court deems it unnecessary to decide, the judgment of the District Court is reversed and the defendant discharged, on the ground that there was no proof that the proxy was given or that the alleged husband consented. "While the evidence is not very satisfactory," the Court says in its reasoning, "it is perhaps sufficient to warrant a finding that marriage by proxy may be contracted in China (the proxy being, at least sometimes, a rooster) and that the defendant went through some ceremony there and thought she thereupon became Chan Sam's wife." Deputy Attorney General E. P. Dole for prosecution; T. McCants Stewart and F. J. Berry for defendant.

Alexander Young, Minister of the Interior has made return to the alternative writ of mandamus applied for by Albert E. Nichols, for compelling him to file the articles of association of the Wahiawa Sugar Co. It is to the effect that he cannot accept the articles because they do not comply with the law.

Joe Kaiawa was put on trial for perjury before Judge Perry by the following jury this morning: S. Aholo, A. J. Smithies, S. W. Kakauni, John Wallace, Hiram Kolomoku, S. K. Aki, Alex. Nicholas, John Leal, L. H. Miranda, J. U. Josepa, J. W. Mabelona and C. P. K. Kamao. The case arises out of the trial of George Houghtaling in the District Court for unlicensed liquor selling. Deputy Attorney General E. P. Dole and Cathcart for prosecution; sitting and Kaulia for defendant.

The Orpheum.

Another addition to the advertised program for tonight will be the Orpheum male quartet consisting of Jackson Heerde, Eugene Rogers, W. D. Adams and Guy Livingston. The voices blend excellently and the new attraction should prove a feature. Samantha's Birthday should go with a yell. It is a genuine blackface act, even the ladies of the company hiding their attractions under a veil of burnt cork. The Animated Song Sheet will be another success. The Richards have a new sketch with fresh songs and topical verses.

Aguinaldo in Japan.

New York, Feb. 22.—A special from Hongkong to the Evening World, says: "United States Consul Wildman has information that three members of the Filipino Junta, Luzon, Ponce and Agoncillo, the latter a brother of the Filipino envoy, recently left for Japan to meet Aguinaldo. This gives credence to the story that Aguinaldo escaped from the island of Luzon to Formosa, when hunted by General Lawton's expedition through the northern part of the island.

Engagement.

The engagement is here announced of Mr. Arthur Charles Lovekin, accountant of the Bishop Estate, and Miss Helen Stevens, youngest daughter of Hon. Moses T. and Mrs. Stevens of North Andover, Mass. The marriage will likely take place in June.

HAWAII BEFORE SENATE

Tillman Makes Trouble Over the Franchise.

Senator Vest Says He Will Support the Measure—Play of Politics With Bearing on Porto Rico—Foraker's Reply.

Washington, Feb. 23.—Daniel of Virginia addressed the Senate in support of Quay's right to a seat. At the conclusion of Daniel's speech the Hawaiian Government bill was taken up and Morgan resumed his speech. Morgan, not having concluded, yielded the floor at 3:25 p. m. to Mr. Aldrich, who presented the report of the conference on the financial bill.

When the reading of the report had been concluded and an order made for its printing, an arrangement was effected whereby some member of the conference committee on next Wednesday would make a statement concerning the changes made by the conferees and that the next day the report would be taken up for consideration.

The Hawaiian bill was again taken up, and Vest of Missouri addressed the Senate. He had been intensely opposed, he said, to the annexation of Hawaii, but that was now a dead issue. "I shall vote for the bill," said he. "It is above and beyond constitutional objection and does not raise any issues that are raised in relation to Porto Rico and the Philippines."

He thought the thanks of the people were due to the Senators who had prepared the measure. There were no provisions in it changing the tariff and none that implied that Hawaii was not a part of the United States. "The proposition that the United States can hold territory as a colonial possession and its people as vassals," he continued, "is the most preposterous and dangerous that has ever been advanced in the course of my public life."

Referring to the Dred Scott case, Vest said that the Supreme Court was unanimous in declaring in that decision that the Constitution covered the territories. "When was it ever heard," he inquired, "that it was necessary for Congress to pass an act to extend the Constitution over acquired territory? This new doctrine is utterly abhorrent. It violates every principle of a republican government. It goes even further than England has gone with her colonies. Is Porto Rico a part of the United States? If so, where did Congress get the authority to impose duties upon imports from that country? And why is it proposed to place an export duty upon its products when the Constitution of the United States expressly prohibits such a tax?"

Foraker of Ohio replied briefly to Mr. Vest's "remarkable argument." It was too late to enter into extended discussion, he said of the Dred Scott decision, upon which Vest largely had based his argument. He thought the Dred Scott decision had been discussed quite adequately in the last Congress. He asserted that the author of the Declaration of Independence entertained no such views as those advanced by Vest. Thomas Jefferson drew a distinction between territory belonging to the United States and territory which was a part of the United States.

"There is," said he, "the United States proper, for which the Constitution is the organic law, and there is the territory outside of the United States, which is not a part of it."

The Senate, at 5:20 p. m., adjourned until tomorrow.

Washington, Feb. 24.—Throughout the session today the Senate had under consideration the Hawaiian government bill. The discussion took a wide range, but the basis of it was an amendment offered by Platt of Connecticut as to the appointment and tenure of officers of the courts of the Hawaiian government. Tillman of South Carolina embraced the opportunity to make a characteristic speech, in the course of which he made an attack upon Morgan of Alabama and vigorously opposed many provisions of the bill, particularly those which related to suffrage.

After the passage of a number of minor bills consideration of the Hawaiian Government bill was resumed, the pending question being the amendment of Platt of Connecticut, providing that the President should appoint the Chief Justice and Justices of the Supreme Court and Judges of the Circuit Court and that the Governor of the Territory should appoint the other officers, the amendment limiting the tenure of office of appointees to four years.

Platt of Connecticut in an extended speech supported his amendment, holding that the provisions of the bill were inconsistent with those incorporated in previous territorial enabling acts. In a vehement speech Tillman attacked the bill as reported to the Senate and arraigned Morgan for alleged lack of courtesy. Referring to an incident which occurred the other day in which Morgan of Alabama declined to yield to Tillman to reply to a statement made by Wolcott of Colorado concerning the "suppressed vote" of South Carolina, Tillman said: "I have felt indignant at the treatment I received from the Senator (Morgan.) Never in my experience in the Senate have I been treated so discourteously by any member of the Senate."

Morgan endeavored to interrupt Tillman, but the latter waved him aside, saying: "I decline to yield to the Senator. He has put himself outside the pale of courtesy and consideration so far as I am concerned."

In the course of a criticism of the measure Mr. Tillman said: "I don't object to a protection of the whites of Hawaii, but what I do object to is the hypocrisy of those in this chamber who maintain that the people of Hawaii are to be treated differently from those people who reside in Louisiana, Mississippi, South Carolina and other Southern States. The whites of the South are patriotic Americans. I want you to protect the whites of Hawaii, but don't try to do it by hypocrisy."

Tillman then read a letter from a person unnamed, who declared that "a man who dares to oppose the sugar barons in Hawaii is in jeopardy of his life."

Clark of Wyoming asked for the name of the writer of the letter, saying such a charge ought not to be made lightly in the Senate. Tillman declined to give the writer's name.

After expressing some sympathy with the argument of Tillman, Clark of Wyoming said: "When the Senator from South Carolina charges Senators from the Republican side of the chamber with hypocrisy, it comes with very poor grace for him to declare by Almighty God that the negroes of the South should not vote."

Tillman—Such a construction cannot in fairness be put upon my remarks.

Clark—Will you say to this Senate that you are not trying in the South to suppress the negro vote?

Tillman (with great vehemence)—No, I will say that in South Carolina we have done our level best to keep the "nigger" from voting.

Tillman gave notice of an amendment substituting the suffrage provisions of the South Carolina Constitution for the suffrage provisions of the pending bill.

PACIFIC CABLE ENDANGERED.

The New Zealand Herald says "The subject of cable communication has lately come again to the surface, and to the surprise of everyone the Australian colonies, after agreeing to the Pacific cable scheme, are showing a suspicious willingness to succumb to the blandishments of the Eastern Extension Telegraph Company concerning its Cape cable proposal."
A history of the original proposals of the Eastern Extension Co. is given by the Herald, followed by this statement of its new proposal:
"The company now offers to construct the Cape-Australian cable without any guarantee or subsidy whatever, and at the same time to reduce its rates from 4s 9d a word to 4s." The Herald says the colonies have received nothing from the company to be grateful for. They have paid it $3,000,000 in subsidies, and it has charged them enormously for their telegrams. The paper concludes that "it is to the interests of the colonies that nothing should be done to jeopardize the Pacific cable scheme."

Taylor Holds His Job.
Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 20.—The Democratic members of the two Houses of the Legislature met in joint session at 3 o'clock this afternoon and by a vote of 74 to 2 ratified the former proceedings by which William Goebel was declared Governor and J. C. W. Beckham Lieutenant Governor, and through which Beckham, since the death of Governor Goebel, claims title to the office of Governor. The Republican members of the Legislature remained away from the joint session this afternoon, having decided in caucus not to attend.
The Senate had adopted the resolutions yesterday and the House today, and the adoption of them by the joint assembly, from the Democratic standpoint, puts the finishing touches to its action on the contests.

Full Meeting of Inspectors Resolve to Keep Up the Work.

"At Least Two Weeks" the Term—Dr. Wood Says What He Deems the Chief Danger of Infection Now.

A full rally of inspectors responded to the call of a meeting by the Citizens' Sanitary Committee yesterday afternoon. Between forty and fifty gentlemen were present, including executive members and President Dr. Wood, Dr. Emerson and F. J. Lowrey of the Board of Health.

L. A. Thurston, chairman, stated the meeting was called on account of changed conditions. Sub-inspectors were either dropping off entirely or doing inefficient work in some districts. If the work was not done thoroughly there was liable to be a fresh outbreak in an unsuspected locality. The question was whether to get more sub-inspectors or stop entirely and hold themselves in readiness for any future call, or, in the latter case, have paid inspection under the Board of Health. There were many more sub-inspectors than inspectors, so that the decision really rested with the sub-inspectors. He asked Dr. Wood to give his views.

Dr. Wood spoke of the work as not going so well as at the start, the men doing it were getting tired. The Board of Health appreciated the fact that having gone on for some months the work was getting irksome. If they had their own say they should be in favor of continuing the work by volunteers. They should like to have further assistance from the Citizens' Sanitary Committee. It would not be well, at any rate, for the volunteer inspector to stop suddenly, before paid inspectors had time to become familiar with their duties. Some districts did not require inspection as much as others. Any of the gentlemen he addressed would, in case of illness in his household, certainly send for a physician. At the first it was necessary to treat all people alike. A certain class, however, needed inspection now. It consisted of ignorant people living in insanitary places. When the Board got paid inspectors those places would continue to be inspected.

Another reason for not wanting inspection to stop abruptly was the scattering of people released from quarantine all over the city, carrying with them a large lot of personal effects saved from the infected districts before their burning. The theory was very probable that the last Chinaman got infection from this cause. Dr. Wood went over the movements of this man, who was taken sick when four days out of the detention camp, which he had left cleanly clad, and died of plague a couple of days afterward. A period of not a great many days ought to cover this remaining necessity of general inspection.

A. B. Wood told of a house in Nuuanu valley, which had been occupied, all at once found to contain forty Chinese. This nationality were packed in many houses of the district. Some said they did not sleep there, but others made contrary statements of them. Such crowding made him feel that it was necessary to assist the Board of Health a while longer. In answer to Mr. Thurston, he said the thought he could keep his sub-inspectors at work.

Dr. Wood, answering the chairman, thought two weeks would be sufficient to get the people settled.

Mr. Hutchins, as a sub-inspector, suggested that if the inspection of homes known as clean, and their inmates as honest, were relaxed a number of sub-inspectors could do extra work in places needing attention.

W. R. Castle thought that such homes might be left to the chief inspectors. He moved that the inspection continue for two weeks with such modifications as the committee might deem advisable.

P. R. Isenberg seconded the motion. It was especially important to have inspection continue on account of Japanese laborers. These were apt to be absent at inspection time but the roads were swarming with them between times.

J. A. Gilman said that out of 17 apapanas in his district, 10 did not need inspection. He favored continuing for two weeks.

C. G. Ballentyne believed that if any discrimination were shown it would not take long for the Chinese and Japanese to find it out. The inspection should be kept up as at present. It was in their power to relieve the Board of Health they should do it. It was a matter that concerned every one of them. (Applause.) Paid inspectors were less reliable than volunteers, as the latter took it as a matter of duty. He suggested offering a reward for every case of plague discovered.

W. E. Fisher was heartily in accord with the resolution. He knew something about his own district and its ditches. It would take two weeks more to have the Kewalo ditch and its tributaries in good condition. If these ditches were assured of being fixed within that time, he would promise to keep his sub-inspectors down to work until the necessity ceased.

John Wise could not keep more than three out of his six men to work. Two of them were from the Iron Works and one from Allen & Robinson's, neither of which concerns had signed the agreement to allow their employees time to do inspection.

E. D. Tenney—Give us their names and we will see that they can do inspecting.

D. Howard Hitchcock stated that of his 13 apapanas there was only one he would feel safe in not inspecting. The other 12 would soon find out of the one were exempted.

E. B. McClanahan considered that the moral effect of releasing some sub-inspectors would be had upon those kept at work. The latter would reason that the work was letting up and they might take it easy.

J. H. Fisher did not believe in letting up on any of their own houses even. A sick Chinaman might hide in your carriage house or mine. Their work was not wholly for the health, but also for the business of the community. If the inspection were relaxed the Board of Health would offset it by making its regulations more restrictive on business.

Mr. McClanahan deemed it dangerous to announce that they were going to let up. When the Board was ready with its paid inspectors let them know. Now that they had got the better of the disease let them keep this work up more vigorously than ever. Let the sub-inspectors know that the Board of Health is going to relieve them before long. He moved an amendment that it was the sense of the meeting that the work should be kept on relentlessly as long as necessary.

Mr. Ballou, who could not be heard distinctly owing to street noises, spoke of there being a condition and not a theory. Inspectors' reports came in stragglingly, sometimes days behind-hand. The theory was that the city was thoroughly inspected, whereas the condition was that it was not. Still, there were hundreds of sub-inspectors who did faithful work.

Mr. Castle, accepting the amendment, believed there would be two weeks of good inspection. The majority of sub-inspectors, who were tip-top fellows, would go to work and give two weeks of good inspection.

Secretary Galt said the meeting was a pleasant surprise. The executive had been under the impression that many of the sub-inspectors had resigned and others wanted to resign.

Mr. Wise repeated that three of his men were not inspecting properly.

Mr. Thurston asked any inspectors whose sub-inspectors were not working to so inform the meeting. The meeting was called under the impression that the sub-inspectors were getting tired. If the inspectors felt they could gird up their loins and go through with it, that was just what they wanted.

Mr. Hitchcock said he would have hard work to keep up the inspection in his difficult district, and thought it would be a good thing if his sub-inspectors understood that they would be through in two weeks.

A. W. Van Valkenburg spoke of the self-interest of some people in concealing cases of sickness for fear it might be plague and cause the burning of their houses. Such people made a point of being able to give assurances of all being well when the sub-inspectors came round. A paid inspector coming at odd times would be more likely to detect any deception.

Mr. Hutchins held that it was people's self-interest to see that no plague lurked about their premises which might bring fire to them. He repeated his argument for reducing inspection in some places for the sake of better inspection where it was more needed.

Mr. Thurston, replying to Mr. Ballentyne, said he understood that, if the meeting decided on suspension of the work, the machinery would still be available for its resumption if the necessity arose.

A. J. Campbell moved an amendment to have the inspection continue "for at least two weeks." Carried.

The resolution as amended was adopted and then the meeting adjourned.

The decision of the Sanitary Committee to continue the house to house inspection meets the approval of the entire community with the possible exception of a few of the sub-inspectors. No better system of guarding ir-responsible Asiatics can be devised. The town has suffered so many setbacks that it will be necessary for a full month to pass without new cases appearing, before the business community will feel sufficient confidence in the situation to warrant doing away with this daily patrol.

As was forecast by the Bulletin's Washington correspondent, the Hawaiian bill has had to give way to Porto Rico, and the determination of Congressional ability to legislate the constitution. While this Porto Rico discussion has aroused a fierce debate and serious dissension among Republican members, the latest despatches give assurance that an agreement has been reached and Porto Rico will be promptly disposed of by the enactment of a measure placing a 15 per cent duty on the products of this new possession. Consideration of the protection this action may give the sugar market naturally causes Hawaii to approve of this disposition of Porto Rico, provided it does not prove a boomerang when our own tariff comes up for action. Present indications are, however, that the Hawaiian territorial bill will go through with a rush as soon as Porto Rico is out of the way.

British joy over the final defeat of Gen. Cronje is tempered with marked admiration, if not sympathy, for the splendid fight the Boers made against overwhelming odds. The spectacle of Cronje with a mere handful of men holding Great Britain's best fighting men at bay until forces gathered at the Boer capital to check British advance, is a marked demonstration that the Boer spirit is not broken and the war is by no means at an end. Although large numbers of Boers are supposed to have withdrawn from Ladysmith, Buller has been unable to make an advance. The result is inevitable while England is allowed a free hand, but Cronje's defense was such as to assure British citizens that the way of their generals to the South African Republic capitals will be paved with dead and dying in numbers yet unknown to British history. It is a war of extermination with the natural defensive advantages on the side of the Boers. If this is an example of what our wars of modern civilization are to be, converts to the policy of intervention outlined by The Hague Peace Conference will include the people of every civilized nation.

WAILUKU WANTS A FIRE.
[Maul News.]
Now, Wailuku has a Chinatown which is quite as filthy and dangerous in some respects as those of Honolulu and Kahului, and it is the openly expressed opinion of those most competent to judge, that it is only a question of time until there is an eruption of plague in the Chinatown of Wailuku.
How can this be prevented? The answer is simple. There is only one known method, and that is to use the torch. If the makai side of Market street, commencing at Main street and extending the entire length of the block were cleared of its filthy, pest-breeding slacks, and if the fire should cross to the mauka side at desirable intervals and clear out some of the pest holes on that side, more would have been accomplished to rid Wailuku of all danger of plague than all the quarantine inspection and disinfection which may be applied. Of course it would be a costly and disagreeable remedy, but not nearly so costly or disagreeable as one single well-defined case of bubonic plague in those limits. Let the Board of Health see to this.

DIRECT FROM THE COAST.
[Maul News.]
A deeper significance than at first appears on the surface underlies the proposition to run lines of steamers from Coast ports directly to other ports than Honolulu during the quarantine. Already the merchants on Maui are beginning to learn that on goods received directly from the Coast, they make a profit without the handicap of Inter-Island freights and division with Honolulu middlemen. The wholesale houses in Honolulu will have an interesting problem to solve.

PORTO RICO COMPROMISE

Republicans Reach Conclusion That Will be Accepted.

Tariff Reduced to 15 Percent—President Lends His Influence—Believes the Act Constitutional.

Washington, Feb. 26.—At the conference of House Republicans tonight on the Porto Rican tariff bill assurances were given that the President believed the measure constitutional and would approve it if it came to him, and an agreement was reached to limit the operation of the bill to two years and reduce the duty imposed by it from 25 to 15 per cent of the American tariff. As a result the Republican leaders claim that the bill will have the support of all the Republicans except four—McCall of Massachusetts, Littlefield of Maine, Lorimer of Illinois and Crumpacker of Indiana—and that this loss will be offset by affirmative votes of the opposition. They claim the passage of the modified bill is certain.

After the conference adjourned at 11 o'clock Chairman Cannon gave out the following statement of the amendments agreed upon by the conference: "The conference requested the Ways and Means Committee to offer an amendment to the bill as follows: 'Amend the title to make it an act temporarily to provide revenue for the island of Porto Rico and for other purposes, and to add the following section: "This act shall be taken and held to be provisional in its purposes, intended to meet a pressing present need for revenue for the island of Porto Rico, and is not to continue in force after March 1, 1902."

"These amendments were adopted with practical unanimity. Another to reduce the duty imposed by the act from 25 to 15 per cent was adopted by a vote of 105 to 11. A further amendment is to be offered by the Ways and Means Committee to make it clear that no double duty is imposed; that the payment of one internal revenue tax is the total tax on importations.

"About 125 Republican members attended tonight's conference, which was held in the hall of the House of Representatives. The members had been in consultation during the day discussing plans for allaying the opposition to the bill and bringing the recalcitrants into line. So much had been made by the kickers of the alleged opposition of the President to the measure that the managers were particularly desirous of being able to offer some assurances that would remove all objections to the measure on that score, and this afternoon the Republican members of the Ways and Means Committee, with the exception of McCall, the Massachusetts dissenter, called on the President at the White House.

After that call Hopkins of Illinois authorized the following: "The President earnestly hopes that the Republicans will unite and stand together on this measure and not allow the Democrats to take control of the House."

HEALTH BOARD MEETING

Dr. Walter Maxwell has written to the Board of Health, giving his views on disinfection of the soil. He holds that, owing to the basic nature of Honolulu soil, any acid disinfectant would be neutralized. An alkaline is what is needed and the doctor denominates quicklime as the proper agent. Unless the presence of bacilli be proved at a greater depth, the soil should not be plowed deeper than two inches. This would ensure efficiency at a minimum cost.

After hearing the communication read the Board of Health, at its meeting yesterday afternoon, decided to appoint Dr. Maxwell at the head of a committee to take charge of soil disinfection.

Dr. Wood reported no new plague cases.

Dr. Day, on behalf of the Postmaster General, stated that hot air fumigation of mails would not be acceptable to the San Francisco authorities. If disinfected with formaldehyde the mails would be saved delay at San Francisco. The doctor suggested that formaldehyde would be the proper agent to use in inter-island mails. Placed in the bags it would get its work in on the voyage, which would avoid the long interval now suffered between closing of mails and sailing of steamers. Adopted.

The Board paid a visit to the locality just within the angle of Queen and Richards streets, makai. Very unsanitary conditions were found, and it was resolved to notify the owners and lessees to have these rectified before places could be reoccupied. A laundry and a restaurant of Chinese, sundry domiciles and Frank Ludwiko's lodging house are in the category. A dead rat found in the cruise was devoted to later examination for bacilli.

U. of C. Man Honored.
Washington, Feb. 22.—The name most prominently mentioned tonight for member of the new Philippine Commission is that of Dr. Bernard Moses, professor of political economy in the University of California. President Wheeler of the University, who was at the White House a few days ago, and who was offered by President McKinley and declined an appointment to the Commission, was asked to name some other good man. Mr. Wheeler suggested Professor Moses because of his knowledge of the language and traits of the people for whom the Commission is to frame a government.

This will interest you if you are a Descendant of any one of thousands of foreign families whose money or estates are now in chancery. WE HAVE A complete list of persons who have left money or estates to the value of $388,468,845.

The heirs of which are now supposed to be in the United States but whose present whereabouts are unknown. You may have money, heirlooms, or estates WAITING FOR YOU.

It is not surprising that in a population so vast and among a people containing families which can trace back their ancestry for centuries, that even with families of no now the ramifications are extraordinary, the ties of relationship often varying from Peers to Peasants, though all springing from one tree. The announcement that there is nearly $400,000,000 in money and estates going a-begging sounds a little extravagant but it will not appear so extraordinary when it is remembered that the amount is held on a registered alphabetical list of persons who have been advertised for all over the world since the beginning of the century, including Chancery heirs, next of kin, and legatees of persons who have died intestate in Great Britain, Europe, America and the British colonies. The main sources of unclaimed monies are: unclaimed dividends on Government stocks; dormant funds in chancery; Army and Navy Prize Money; Estates of persons who have died intestate without known next-of-kin; unclaimed dividends in bankruptcy; general unclaimed dividends and unclaimed bank deposits. We are also prepared to furnish certificates of Births, Deaths and Marriages and official Crest or Coat of Arms of your family.

REMEMBER

We are the only firm in America who make a specialty of establishing claims of heirs-at-law and next-of-kin. WE ASK NO FEE. Until claim has been settled. Enclose five 2-cent American stamps or ten cents in silver for mailing, wrapping, etc., and we will send you a book containing full information FREE. Write and see if you are among the lucky ones. Address The Heirs At-Law Collection Co., 11th and Chestnut streets, St. Louis, Mo. Percival Adams, M. A. L. L. B. Counselor-at-Law, British Counsel for the Company.

NOVELTIES IN NECKWEAR

ARE AMONG THE TIMELY THINGS of the new year. Never in the history of neckwear has there been so many varieties made of the very choicest silks. Pattern designs are characteristics of these new makes. String Ties, Squares, Scarfs, Four-in-Hands, English Squares and many other of the latest patterns are to be found in our stock. A fine article of neckwear has become a necessity to him who would be well dressed. No part of his dress is more conspicuous, and when the best can be bought for what inferior goods COST, NO ONE SHOULD PASS BY THE BARGAINS WE ARE NOW OFFERING.

The New Year Begets New Things
FOR THE BOYS. Have you ever stopped to think what a difference there is in the makes of boys' clothing? Many suits are bought because the price is low. It is often the price that governs the purchaser, and not the quality or the substantial makes. This theory seems to be based on the idea that any kind of a suit is good enough for a boy, as he will soon wear it out. That is not good economy, for if you would pay a little more, and consider quality and make, you would have a suit for the boy that would always look well and outwear two suits of the inferior grades. To buy the best is money in pocket; to buy the poorest is money wasted. We make a specialty to keep the best at popular prices.

Notice of Assessment.
Notice is hereby given that the ninth assessment of ten (10) per cent on the capital stock of the HONOLULU RAPID TRANSIT AND LAND CO. will be due and payable to J. H. Fisher, treasurer, 411 Fort (upstairs), Honolulu, on the 1st day of March. The shares upon which assessment may remain unpaid after thirty days from said date, will be declared delinquent. J. A. GILMAN, Secretary H. R. T. & L. Co. Honolulu, March 1, 1900. 1419

IT IS SAID
That Thos. A. Edison used to walk up and down every night in front of the first house he lighted with electricity until the lights were extinguished, for fear that the house would burn down; and we are sure that any Insurance man present, if his house were wired and lighted in the same way as that first building would be a good deal more scared than was Edison. In the short space of time that has passed since then so many improvements have been introduced that now a house lighted by electricity is a better fire risk than with any other artificial light.

Sad Death of Harry Waterhouse

New York, Feb. 24.—Henry Waterhouse, Jr., a merchant and planter of Honolulu, died of pneumonia last night at the Fifth Avenue Hotel. Mr. Waterhouse and his wife were en route to Europe on their wedding tour. They arrived here during the snow and rain storm of last week, and Mr. Waterhouse caught a cold, which developed into pneumonia.

New York, Feb. 24.—The body of Henry Waterhouse, Jr., of Honolulu, who died at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, yesterday, will be cremated and the ashes taken back to the Hawaiian home of the young planter by his heart-broken bride. It was Waterhouse's dying request that his body be cremated. Waterhouse and his bride were to have sailed for Europe on Wednesday next. They had booked passage and their plans were complete.

Though unaccustomed to cold weather, Waterhouse last week, ventured out in the snow and rain. He contracted a cold, which developed into pneumonia. His bride sat at his bedside night and day. They told her Wednesday that the crisis would come Friday. The young wife insisted that she would watch beside him until the crisis was past. All efforts to induce her to take the rest she needed so much were without avail, and now her condition is serious.

The Nero spent 288 days and 19 hours from the time of her leaving until her return to San Francisco. She steamed 29,283 knots and was actually at work 240 days and 3 hours.

QUEENSLAND KANAKA LABOR

Owing to pressure on time and space on Saturday, a portion of Dr. Maxwell's interview on his Queensland mission had to be left out. Being asked if there were not South Sea Islanders in the colony, and how were they treated, Dr. Maxwell said:

"Yes, there are South Sea Islanders, also some Indian coolies. These men are engaged in field work on plantations and cane fields, but the labor laws of the colony rigidly prohibit their use in any work that can be done by the white men. I saw considerable numbers of these South Sea Islanders on certain plantations, and I assure you I never saw a better fed, more contented looking lot of men than they were. As a sample of the care that the Government exercises in the interests of this race, it is stipulated that they must receive so much fresh meat per day furnished by the plantations or the cane farmers. They also have to receive an allowance of tobacco per week and be given quantities of clothing. Since, you must understand, these men receive a given wage and are totally found in all other things by the cane farmers or the plantations, their position is seen to be completely subordinate to that of white men. However, the white cane farmers are strongly in support of keeping the kanakas in the country, since they, the small farmers, require their labor as well as do the larger plantations. They are not allowed to work in the mills."

Another part of the interview was condensed after being written, leaving out a statement by the Doctor attributing a beneficial modification of the Queensland climate, in certain districts, to the existence of eucalypti forests with their known antiseptic influences. It was in connection with this remark that Dr. Maxwell suggested the planting of Australian trees on the bottom lands between Honolulu and Waikiki.

Illness of Miss English.

The Bulletin's Waikiki correspondent gives the following details of the illness of Julia English. Last Friday Dr. E. Armitage was called to Kahului to attend her. The doctor found her temperature to be not very high, being 102 degrees and her pulse to be quite slow. Dr. Armitage treated his patient believing it was only fever. The doctor saw her again on Saturday and Sunday morning, and even on the last mentioned date, Julia English did not even then show any of the symptoms of plague, her pulse still being slow and normal.

At about 8 o'clock Sunday night, another message over the wire came for the doctor to hurry down to Kahului, and Dr. Armitage got down as soon as possible in answer to the call. On his arrival it is said Miss English greeted him with "Good by doctor, I am going, I have pneumonia in the lungs." She failed rapidly and in less than twenty minutes after Dr. Armitage got there she died. There were no outward symptoms to indicate that she had plague, although it has been generally known to the friends of deceased that she had been suffering at times with hemorrhage, and although Dr. Armitage had been attending the deceased for three years past, he was never made aware of that fact either by the deceased or by any of her relatives.

The remains of Julia English were taken over to the morgue at the Kahului pest house and enclosed in a coffin and at 10 o'clock on Monday night, the 26th, the coffin containing her earthly remains was put on the funeral pyre made for the purpose and reduced to ashes. The glare from the fire was plainly visible at Waikiki.

Kalihi Fire Record.

A hogshead of water, a spraying pump and a garden hose constitute the apparatus for extinguishing fires now in the hands of the Kalihi detention camp fire department and it may really be said of this fire apparatus that would prove so efficient in the matter of allowing the flames of burning buildings to have their own way. This mighty fire extinguisher was taken to the place near Wilcox's pool factory, Kalihi, early Sunday morning to protect a shack near by from the flames of the rice plantation buildings in which Kee Mung, a recent plague victim, is known to have resided while sick.

It was shortly after 7 o'clock that the torch was applied and, within the space of a half hour the two buildings and outhouses were no more. The work was very well done, a whole case of kerosene oil being used to start the fire. J. D. McVeigh was in charge and Chas. Clark acted as foreman. Everything about the premises indicated a hurried rounding up of the Chinamen. Tools and plants were found scattered all about. A fine mesh fishing net, worth a great deal of money, was removed to a place of safety. Bunches of rice plants which the Chinamen intended planting, were found on the edges of the rice field. The house in Kalihi in which Lee Ling lived, will also be destroyed by the fire department of the Kalihi detention camp.

Record of Deaths.

March 4—Mrs. Noah Kauhane, Hawaiian, aged 25, typhoid fever, Kalihi. Francisca de Jesus, Portuguese female, one month, diarrhoea, Punch-bowl. John C. DAVITT GOING TO TRANSVAAL.

London, Feb. 17.—Michael Davitt, who resigned his seat in the House of Commons as a protest against Great Britain's action in the Transvaal, leaves for South Africa next week.

"I resigned my seat in the House, but my visit to South Africa has no political significance at all. My doctor ordered a change of climate and I am going there to see and learn what every one wants to know of the unequal struggle which is now going on."

When the fight is over it will raise the biggest international problem which has ever been brought up in Europe by the varying interests, and it is sure to exercise an influence on the American Presidential elections.

Vigilant Walluku Inspectors. Walluku, Maui, Feb. 28.—Owing to the vigilance of the Walluku sanitary inspectors, some of the smart tricks of the guards at Kahului were discovered.

The folks at the house could not give a comprehensive story about the presence of the clothes. All they say is that they belonged to a Portuguese named Demarara now employed as one of the guards at Kahului, and that he did not have them when he went down to Kahului as a volunteer guard.

It transpired also through the vigilance of Inspector Jas. L. Coke that Deputy Sheriff W. H. King had sent up some of his old clothes to his wife in Walluku to be washed and had new ones sent to him at Kahului.

It seems to the inspectors that some of the guards at Kahului have been in the habit of sending up their dirty clothes to Walluku to be washed and smuggled back through the sandhills, as there are still too many approaches to Kahului still unguarded.

Cronje Was Stubborn. London, Feb. 24, 4:15 a. m. - Mr. Bal-four announced in the House of Commons at half-past 12 this morning that no further news regarding General Cronje had been received by the Government.

He had sent to the War Office during the hour, and he asserted that nothing had come to hand there. General Cronje, therefore, is presumably unbeaten. No other construction is placed upon the three days' silence of Lord Roberts.

Yet no one sees how it is humanly possible, judging from the descriptions of his situation Wednesday morning, for him to resist so long. Great Britain does not withhold admiration for the valor of a losing fight against such odds.

"Englishmen feel something like pride in Cronje, even as a foe," says the Daily News. "In a position covering only a square mile, hemmed in on all sides, circled with a chain of fire from rifle, Maxim and Howitzer, played on by deadly lyddite, bursting in its own sickly green light, his hastily built trenches enfiladed by a stream of lead sweeping from the river from the north bank, General Cronje still elects to fight. It is a magnificent courage."

General Cronje's wife is described by the prisoners as urging him to surrender in order to save the lives of his men, but he would not.

Hay Treaty Must Pass. Washington, Feb. 26. - As there have been many rumors about the attitude of the Administration in regard to the Hay-Pauncefote convention, it may be stated as the result of careful inquiry that the President and Cabinet are unanimous in its support; that they all consider its provisions the best that could have been obtained and the best now obtainable; that, consequently, they all desire its early ratification; that there is no intention of withdrawing, and no belief that it can be amended to any great extent without destroying all hope of its ratification.

Furthermore, it has been the opinion of Secretaries Olney, Day and Hay, in which they say they have the support of the best international lawyers of the country, that the Clayton-Bulwer treaty is in full force and effect, and that it cannot legally be got rid of except by mutual consent. If the treaty now before the Senate is rejected, in the opinion of the Administration no legislation can be had for the building of an isthmian canal except through the repudiation of the Clayton-Bulwer compact.

Cronje Gained Time. London, Feb. 27, 4:20 A. M. - The Boers are assembling an army near Bloemfontein, with which to dispute the invasion of Lord Roberts. This intelligence comes from Pretoria by way to Lourenzo Marquez. The commandoes are described as "hastening from all quarters of the two republics."

No estimate is made of their numbers, but the withdrawal of the Boers from most of the places where they have been in contact with the British except the district near Ladysmith may raise the resisting force to 30,000 men. This figure assumes that the Boers have between 60,000 and 70,000 men in the field. The gathering of this army across the path of Lord Roberts gives significance to General Cronje's steadfast defence. He has engaged the corps of Lord Roberts for ten days now, and whether he is relieved or not, he has given time for the dispersed Boer factions to get together and prepare positions to receive the British advance when Cronje is overcome and Lord Roberts moves forward.

Jas. Quinn gallantly stopped a runaway at King and Fort streets this afternoon. A white horse ran off with a hack, near Alakea street, and careered up King street. Mr. Quinn and Jas. Brown rushed out from 290 hack stand office, but couldn't stop the horse from the front. The three men ran after the hack and, at the point stated, Mr. Quinn sprang into the seat, grasped the dangling reins and brought the animal round.
