PROGRESS.

The Life of the Land is Established in Righteousness.

HONOLULU, FEB. 22, 1894.

AN AMERICAN.

His Birthday Observed in Honolulu.

Today is the 161st anniversary of the birth of General George Washington the first President of the United States, and whose bones have laid at rest this many a year in the peaceful shades of Mt. Vernon. Today was observed in Honolulu by the representatives of the different nations flying their national colors, and by the firing of a national salute by the British man-of-war Champion, Japanese man-of-war Naniwa, and the American Flag ship Philadelphia. The war vessels all "dressed ship" as did also the American merchantmen S. C. Allen and Alden Besse and the English bark Villalta. The Provisional Government battery joined in the salute, and in the afternoon the offices were informally closed and "special" exercises were held at the Drill shed. For the benefit of many members of the "so called" "American" League, and also the editors of the Advertiser and Star, who are advertised as attending to the recognition of the day, and who know as little about Washington as they do of the first verse of the Star Spangled Banner this Hawaiian journal, the HOLOMUA informs them that George Washington was born Feb. 22nd, 1732 in Virginia. Those who have studied the subject have discovered that he is a descendant from the Washingtons of Salgrave Northumberland County, England where the ancestral home is situated. The American ancestry of George Washington can be traced no further back than his great-grandfather John Washington, who settled in Virginia about 1657. Very little is known of Washington's early life, probably because there was little unusual to tell. The story of the hatchet, and similar tales, are quite apocryphal, having been coined by Washington's most popular biographer, Weems. The boy's life was not different from that common to Virginia families in easy circumstances. Hunting, fishing, plantation affairs, and a little reading made up its existence. His education was but elementary and very defective, except in mathematics, in which he was self taught. No greater mistake can be made than to think that the influence of Washington was fairly appreciated during his term of office. No direct descendant of Washington can claim his honor or disgrace his name. The Washington estate at Mount Vernon was acquired in 1858 by an association, and has been practically been national property ever since.

Washington was the first General of the army and the first President of the United States of America being inaugurated April 30th 1789 and serving two terms, retiring in 1797. He died Dec. 14 1799.

His Poor Memory.

When Mr. S. B. Dole sent his famous "specifications" to Minister Willis, he informed His Excellency that he had resided fifty-six (56) years in this country and consequently knew what he was talking about. By referring to the Hawaiian Missionary "Stud Book" we find that Mr. Dole was born on April 23rd 1844, and consequently is about fifty (50) years old. Were was he hiding during the other six years!

A Know Nothing.

The Star editor suddenly turns out as a lecturer on American politics and takes exception to our interpretation of the McCreary resolution. We can very well understand the feelings of the Star man. He admits to himself that we are right, but he has to make a brave front so as to keep up the spirit among his followers. We shall not enter into an argument relating to the meaning of the resolution. It would be useless because it would be against the policy of the annexationists to change their views and we know that our interpretation is correct. But the Star says that there was no mention of the restoration of the Queen during the debate on the Hawaiian question. Indeed there was brother Smith. In the first place the endorsement of the Cleveland policy decidedly implies the endorsement of his restoration scheme because that is his openly declared policy—but the presentation and prompt defeat of Hitt's resolution which opposed the restoration of the Monarchy showed the spirit and the intention of the House. If the Democrats had been opposed to the restoration of the Queen they would not have approved Cleveland's policy in unconditional terms, but they would have adopted Hitt's resolution. Their failure to do so is so strong an indication that only the willfully blind can fail to see what the future will bring. The Star then takes comfort in the hope that the Senate may not endorse Cleveland. If he knew anything about American politics he would know that the Senate at the present time is not hankering in any very special degree for a clash with the House of Representatives. The position of the Senate is not very secure and there is a growing feeling among the people to do away with that institution at least in its present form. The Senate has to a degenerated representative of monopolies, corporations and capitalists and the people of America are not to-day great admirers of such institutions. Moreover, Mr. Hill who has fought Cleveland on one or two appointments, is suffering from a presidential bee in his head-gear. An attempt on his part to oppose Cleveland on a measure endorsed by the Democratic party would settle Mr. Hill's hash and kill him politically as dead as the proverbial door nail. Further on, the Populists in the House joined the Democrats. It is safe to prophesy that the Populists in the Senate will do the same and consequently Cleveland will have a clear majority of eight. The Star's hope for senatorial backing will be blighted as were the hopes for annexation and recognition of the "young republic". Finally the Star man is happy because Mr. Cleveland cannot use "force" without the sanction of Congress and that will never be granted. Wrong again friend Smith. President Cleveland has never had any intention of declaring war against the Provisional government nor has he the need of doing so to gain his purpose. War is not declared against a non-existing government. By recognizing the government of January 16th, 1893, he does all that is needed. Any friendly power—and more especially the United States (see diplomatic instructions to U. S. agents) will always be found willing and ready to assist a friendly government especially a weak and unarmed one in suppressing any rebellion which should take place against the recognized authorities. They don't treat rebels as belligerents nor do they declare war against them. The Star has yet much to learn.

MR. ABRAHAM FERNANDEZ the manager of the HOLOMUA, is not the A. Fernandez mentioned as a member of Mulligan's secret Portuguese League, and as a former ardent Royalist. The gentleman referred to, is Antone Fernandez, a popular and energetic young wine merchant who does business on Fort Street. Mr. Abraham Fernandez' flag still flies in the Royalist camp.

AMERICAN PRINCIPLE.

The Consent of the Governed is Necessary.

When the men who prate about their admiration of, and adherence to the great American principles of liberty, and equality, and to-day do the "spread-eagle" act in honor of the birthday of that great patriot George Washington, they should remember that they have, since they grabbed the government of these Islands in the most studied manner trampled the principles, and doctrines which are the subjects of their oratorical screaming under their feet, and that they constitute a form of government which is in the eyes of every true American the most objectionable, viz; an oligarchy. Let them remember that they have disfranchised a people which have exercised the right of voting for over fifty years. That they have tried to barter away the independence and sovereignty of this country against the will of the people and that their every action has led towards depriving a friendly, hospitable and intelligent race, of a home, a country and the rights of manhood. Let them scream about American principles to-day—their screams will never make them Americans in the true meaning of that honored and justly admired name. And while they to-day will devote their breath and the patience of the audience to the state phrases about "yoke of tyranny" "political freedom", "government by the people" etc. they will sneak into their oratorical effusions the usual stereotyped declarations about the annexation of Hawaii to the United States. For the benefit of those who yet believe in annexation to be accomplished in the near future the perusal of the following lines from the Boston Advertiser a strong Republican paper may be of some advantage;

"The more the Turpie resolution is studied the more sensible will it appear. It is in three parts. It is a kind of 'tripartite agreement.' First, it gives a quietus to the annexation scheme. Of course that scheme may or may not be revived at some future time, but for the present and 'under existing conditions' it is 'gently laid away, relegated to innocuous desuetude.' This is right and wise. Not to mention other reasons, the question of annexation can never be seriously considered by this country as a practical matter open for decision until it shall have been proved that the people of Hawaii, the citizens, as that word is now understood there, desire to surrender their country's independence. The Hawaiian Patriotic League, whose appeal to the justice and honor of America is entitled to just as much respect as if it came from white men, may rest assured on that point. This great, free nation, which owes its existence to an assertion of the truth that governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed, and which amended its constitution in order to forever forbid the disfranchising of any man on account of race or color, is not a nation of hypocrites."

"Wards of the Nation?"

The blatant conceit of the editor of the Star has rarely cropped out to such a degree as it did last night, when in an editorial on the proposed new flag he calls the Hawaiian "now and hereafter the wards of the nation." How very condescending indeed of this stranger! Would it not be proper though for him to tell us, and "the wards" of what nation he is speaking? Does he use the word nation to describe the polyglot lot represented by the clubs and leagues—men without home, without nationality, yes, even without name! Are the Hawaiians suddenly to become "wards" of the birds of passage of the ilk represented by the professional filibuster who now presides over the Star but who upon his arrival made overtures to certain people to obtain the editorial chair of a royalist paper! The Hawaiians realize the hypocritical and contemptible attempts of the P. G. clique to bamboozle them and to pat them on their backs with one hand while the other hand stealthily goes down in their political pockets and empties their contents of franchise and civil rights. So in spite of all of the promises and the golden prospects held out by Mr. Dole, and his coterie, and all of the buncombe about political liberty and equality the true intention is that the Hawaiians shall be treated as a lot of "reserved" Indians, and become as it is represented by Mr. W. G. Smith, and the other recently stranded adventurers. The "nation" here are the Hawaiians, and their well-treated "wards" have so far been the foreigners who were enabled to make their money here. The position is not yet reversed, and many a day will go by before it will be. There is, yet sufficient manhood sufficient courage, and sufficient determination among the Hawaiians to enable them to grasp, if necessary by force, the rights which are theirs by inheritance and by birth. They will not accept so humiliating a position as that which is so condescendingly offered to them through Mr. Sanford B. Dole's official organ.

They Love Hawaiians.

The Advertiser is in a very loving mood this morning, and it refers to some of Professor Alexander's latest effusions to prove how greatly he and the rest of the missionaries love the Hawaiians. Mr. Sereno E. Bishop is also quoted as a "lover" of the natives—the Advertiser doesn't say if it is of the males or females, and it quotes a remark of the "reverend" (save the mark) gentleman (?) which he used in an article in 1888, and which was used by James Scholler in his great article on Hawaii. We will also reproduce it and compare it with Mr. Sereno E. Bishop's remarks in the Independent in 1894. A change must have come over the dreams, and over the "love" of the "reverend" during the last six years. Perhaps he is getting too old to "love" any more.

"The Hawaiian race is one that is well worth saving. With all their sad frailties, they are a noble race of men, physically and morally. They are manly, courageous, enterprising, cordial, generous, unselfish. They are highly receptive of good. They love to look forward and upward, though very facile to temptations to slide backward and downward. In an unusual degree they possess a capacity for kind and ardent enthusiasm for noble ends.—(S. E. Bishop in 1888.)

"There are two great parties in Hawaii. One is the party of heathenism and absolutism. It is represented by the debauched ex-Queen, who attempted to overthrow the constitution and establish the Louisiana lottery in Honolulu. On her side are all the Kahuna sorcerers and idolaters, all the white corruptionists and those who wish to make Honolulu a centre for the manufacture and distribution of opium together with the lewd and drunken majority of the native race who will largely by the lucrative prostitution of their females to the wifeless Chinese and Japanese, some 25,000 of the latter classes to the 11,000 adult native women. In alliance with this heathen monarchial party are a majority of the 1,500 British residents, who oppose American influence and are led by the British Minister."—(S. E. Bishop in 1894.)

What hypocrisy! S. E. Bishop offering prayer to The Almighty this afternoon. Will it be listened to!

The government if it does its duty will grant a pension to the widow of officer Kaubane who was killed in the performance of his duty. Any decent government would take such action and not depend upon private subscription for the support of those who became destitute and suffered from faithfully serving the State. The Reform Party, in former Legislatures, although objecting to pensions generally, never objected to the pension granted to police officer Simeona's widow on account of her husband being killed in his attempt to arrest a leper. The government is poor but by dropping one of its useless soldiers it might save enough to satisfy the wants of the relatives of the late Kaubane.

The councils will have an "improved" tone when the Smith's are not "in it."

The HOLOMUA winner for representative in the Councils, if it will be added to, is Mr. Wilhelm. Mr. Smith and the League do not now hitch and Mr. Mark Robinson is an honorable gentleman.

The new Minister of Foreign Affairs has not yet paid his official visit to the naval ships in port. Why not? The morning organ says that the P. G. has received "acknowledging" communications from the representatives of foreign countries!

POOR VIVAS! He isn't wanted anywhere. His military Company gave him the G. B. and the American Portuguese League slammed the door in his face. And now he goes round and waits for the day when he shall bring Tim Murray down with a "dull and sickening thud." In the meantime he writes letters to the newspapers.

One of Hitchcock's spies got into the wrong place last night and ran against a P. G. official who showed his resentment against the presence of the uninvited "spotter" and thrashed him with a trunk strap in a manner which would have done honor to the most expert school-marm under "President" Castle's bureau. CORRESPONDENCE.

EDITOR HOLOMUA:

FOR SALE

5 SHARES OF STOCK IN THE HAWAIIAN STAR.

I wish to show how much confidence some of the principal shareholders have in the Provisional Government, annexation, and the future prosperity of this "government organ."

Six months ago, I offered the above shares for $20. I even left word with a certain prominent shareholder to sell them if he could for the above price, but neither he nor I could find any takers.

A few nights ago, I even tackled the editor of the paper; I asked him about what he thought they were worth, said he: "They ought to be worth $40." Said I: "You can have my five shares for $15" I didn't understand just exactly what he said, as he rapidly moved away, but it was to the effect that he was looking for proxies, not buying stocks. Now, I can't afford to lose hard cash any more, nor as much, as anybody else; but, to combine business with pleasure, and to find out who, if there is any left, that still has any confidence in the Star's future they can have the 5 shares for $15. First come, first served. Only don't speak all at once.

Yours respectfully,
H. A. JEN.

London, Feb. 6.—The Governor of Sierra Leone telegraphs confirmation of the report of another engagement between French and British forces on the frontier of Sierra Leone. He says that several were killed on both sides and that the French attacked the British, whose force consisted entirely of natives. Touching the affair the Pall Mall Gazette says: "We cannot have these things happening weekly. No time should be lost in settling this affair with France."

TRUTH AND FICTION.

By The S. F. Chronicle's Misrepresentative.

"For a week before the big celebration of Hawaii's first independence anniversary on Jan. 17th politics were dropped, but several incidents that occurred have revived the bitterness of partisan feeling and may yet lead to serious trouble. Minister Willis has never been so cordially detested as since his snub to the Provisional leaders, and he is tabooed now by the whole American colony as though he were a low-caste coolie among the settlement of Brahmans.

Notwithstanding, the refusal of the foreign representatives to participate in the exercises of the day, and the failure of the four men of war in the harbor to dress ship or to give return salute, the occasion was unquestionably the grandest in every detail ever witnessed in the country. Much indignation naturally prevailed among the American residents, especially those belonging to the American League, over the refusal of the American war vessels to salute the American flag which was raised over their headquarters. Between 10,000 and 12,000 people were present.

A number of leading American citizens have been interviewed by your representative, and in every instance Minister Willis' action has been declared a premeditated insult to the Government to which he is accredited and to the Americans residing on the islands.

The American colony here denounce Minister Willis, claiming there is no excuse for his conduct in any sense, and that the Provisional Government would be serving him right to give him his passports. Copies of the replies of Minister Willis and Admiral Irwin to the Government's invitation were sent to Hawaiian Minister Thurston by the Irwin, which left here on the 17th.

British Minister Wodehouse refused to acknowledge the receipt of the invitation, treating the matter with silent contempt. He refused even to acknowledge the right of the Provisional Government to celebrate the first anniversary of its establishment.

It is said that the Government will report Minister Wodehouse's conduct to the British Foreign Office, and some people have expressed the opinion that the Minister should receive his passports and be sent out of the country at once.

One of the officers of the Philadelphia told your correspondent that Admiral Irwin was the maddest man in Hawaii when he received instructions from Minister Willis not to attend the Government celebration.

At the Council meeting on Thursday, last, Minister Damon announced that J. W. Girvin, now acting as Hawaiian Consul at San Diego, had been appointed to the position made vacant in the Post Office by the removal of Mr. Rothwell. This announcement has caused great dissatisfaction to the party organizations, and Damon's action has been severely criticised.

"Rats" in a Trap.

The great and only official upholder of the select coterie who have concluded that they are to be known as the progenitors of the now busted Annexation scheme, the Hawaiian Star sometimes yelet Rats attempted to have a meeting of the stockholders last evening in the Chamber of Commerce, but failed. This shows the disadvantage of advertising in the Star.

Later. The members of the Star coterie having one similar stamping ground met by intuition, rather than by effective advertising, at the rooms of the Annexation Club last evening. Many of the stockholders made objection to the present ultra-radical and indecent manner in which the paper was being conducted and a change of editors was more than hinted at. The directors failing to obtain a necessary majority to carry out their plan for a more reputable conduct of the paper resigned in a body and their resignations are now in the hands of a committee. Next week a meeting is again proposed to take place at which a policy is to be presented which the editor must follow or—

Nanaimo (B. C.) Feb. 6.—Word was received this evening of the total loss of the steamer Estelle, with all hands, on Campbell river, at the northern end of Vancouver islands. The disaster was caused by the explosion of the steamer's boilers.
