

No. 4

Shochiku

Nov

7

Oct. 15, 1945.

7 approved
no record

FUTAMOTE SHINOBU SUGATAE

This dancing play is to be performed by Koshiro Matsumoto and Kichieemon Nakamura with their respective troupe at the Tokyo Theatre managed by the Shochiku Co., Ltd. in November.

This play in part taken from "Sumidagawa Gijitsu No Omokage", viz., the Sequel to the Story of the River Sumida (or Hokaibo), the resume of which is as follows:

A young samurai, retainer of Lord Yoshida, and a girl named Okumi disguised themselves as small tradesmen came to the house of a "ferry-woman" named Oshizu to hide themselves in her house for the time being.

The spirit of the late Lady Nowaki together with that of the late Hokaibo disguising themselves as small tradesmen paid a visit to the same house too.

(N.B.) You are requested to your attention to the fact that in this play does one actor plays a double role.