NO EXTRA SESSION

GOVERNOR HAS ANNOUNCED HIMSELF

Speaker Beckley Makes It The Text of a Homily on Getting Down to Hard Work For The Rest of The Session.

Governor Dole has decided not to extend the session of the legislature and has so stated to members of both Houses. Speaker Beckley this morning stated in the House that he had been reliably informed that there would be no extension, and he called upon the members to work as hard as possible to get through with the work before them.

"I will say at this time," said Beckley, during a debate over the bill to exclude lepers and consumption from the Territory, "that this is the fiftieth day of the session and there are only nine days left in which to consider the large number of bills before us. I would suggest that more confidence be placed in the committees and their reports. If there is a doubt about the honesty of committees let resolutions of want of confidence be introduced and we may get new committees. The chair has been reliably informed that the Governor will not extend the session and we therefore have only nine days to finish our work."

This speech was called forth by a speech in which Kumalae attacked the Public Health and Education Committee for reporting against the proposed law to exclude consumption and lepers who may want to come here from the mainland. Kumalae said "I was a Board of Health bill and the only bill of the Board of Health he had been able to approve. Chillingworth said that the report against the bill was practically written by Dr. Cooper, president of the Board, and he asked Kumalae what member of the Board had given him the bill. Kumalae refused to answer and Chillingworth appealed to the chair, but Beckley said it was Kumalae's privilege to refuse to answer.

The report of the committee tabling the bill, was adopted.

The Mauna Loa sailed at 1 p. m. today on account of waiting for the Mainland mails to be distributed.

FIXES BLAME FOR RIO WRECK

JUDGE DE HAVEN RENDERS DECISION SCORING THE MASTER AND THE PILOT.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 11.—Judge De Haven of the United States District Court rendered a decision yesterday in the matter of the petition of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, owners of the steamship City of Rio de Janeiro, for limitation of liability. The decision settles the disputed question of responsibility by holding Captain Ward and the pilot equally culpable. The claims as originally put in were shaved down considerably, but the claimants will get a little more than 50 cents on the dollar, which is considered a victory by the attorneys for the petitioners. Before the institution of the suit the company fixed $11,000 as the amount which it would pay pending claimants for freight. As a result of the contest the amount was raised to $29,000, $5,000 of this sum being accumulated interest. This $29,000 will be distributed among petitioners whose claims aggregate $55,000. Over the matter of the efficiency of the Chinese crew, an appeal may be taken, according to a statement made yesterday by Attorney Denman for the petitioners. The following is substantially the decision as rendered: "The right of the petitioner to limit its liability is contested by the representatives of some of the persons who were passengers on the City of Rio de Janeiro, and whose lives were lost as a result of the sinking of that steamer. It is claimed by them not only that the loss of the steamer was caused by reason of negligence upon the part of her master and pilot, but they further contend that the steamer was not provided with sufficient officers and crew to properly manage and navigate her. They allege that the City of Rio de Janeiro was 'not provided with a full complement of licensed officers and crew at all times to manage the ship, but that all the officers and petty officers of the said ship were insufficient in this, that no one of them, save the boatswain and first fireman, could speak the language of the members of the crew, comprising the sailors of her deck department, her firemen and her coal-passers; all said sailors, firemen and coal passers being Chinese and unable to speak or understand any European language'; and that the lives of the passengers were lost because of the 'insufficiency of the said officers, whereby they were unable to make themselves understood by the said Chinese, in the attempted lowering of the lifeboats from the said steamship, and placing therein the said passengers,' on the occasion of the wreck of the steamer."

Upon consideration of the evidence and of the able and exhaustive argument submitted in behalf of those claiming damages, my conclusions are: 1. That the master and pilot of the City of Rio de Janeiro were guilty of gross negligence in attempting to enter the port of San Francisco on the morning of February 22, 1901, when the fog was so thick that the steamer could not be safely navigated because the lines of the shore were not discernable, and it was not possible to ascertain her exact position in the channel.

2. I think the evidence shows that the steamer was properly officered and had a sufficient crew. It is true that the crew was mostly composed of Chinese, but the evidence shows without any conflict that they were competent sailors. Indeed, it is not claimed that they were not; but the contention is that they did not understand our language, and because of this they could not and did not understand the orders to lower the boats. This contention is based mainly upon the evidence of some of the Chinese members of the crew, who testified that they were unable to speak or understand English and could only receive orders through the Chinese boatswain, who could. But the evidence shows there was no difficulty in communicating orders to the Chinese crew in this way. Orders at sea are usually first given to subordinate officers and by them communicated to the crew.

There will be a decree limiting the liability of the petitioners in accordance with section 4283 of the Revised Statutes.

CABLE STAFF ARRIVE TODAY

MEN WHO WILL HAVE CHARGE OF CABLE AT MIDWAY AND GUAM ARRIVE ON ALAMEDA.

The cable operators for Guam and Midway arrived today on the S. S. Alameda. Daniel Coath is to be superintendent of the Guam station. On his staff are William Pimley, supervisor; Claude Mills, operator, James Brownfield, batteryman, and three carpenters.

E. W. Cooly will be in charge of the Midway station. With him will be Daniel Morrison, supervisor, O. C. Reade, operator; O. Floren, batteryman, and three carpenters.

The party brought six months' supplies for the two stations. The instruments for the stations were also brought by the Alameda. The party will try to get away from Honolulu next Monday night. In addition to the cable people who arrived today each party will take four Chinese servants from Honolulu.

Mr. Cooly and Mr. Morrison have come from the cable station at Canzo, Nova Scotia, and Mr. Coath and the others from Rockport, Mass. All of the gentlemen have been in the service of the Commercial Cable Company since 1884.

Mr. Coath said that it was expected the cable work be completed by July. The two cable ships are under way. The cable will be laid from Manila eastward and the final splice will probably be made off the island of Oahu.

REPORTS ON HEALTH MATTERS

THE HOUSE DISPOSES OF A NUMBER OF BILLS BY ADOPTING THE REPORT.

The House committee on Public Health and Education had the floor most of the time in this morning's session, and presented a large number of reports, most of them disposing of bills. Nearly all were adopted, so that a considerable progress was made with the order of the day.

The law to provide punishment for the adulteration of foods was recommended for passage, the committee declaring it a long felt want, and the report was adopted, passing the bill on second reading. The same course was taken with the bill to provide for the establishment of a bacteriological laboratory. The committee disapproved the bill to provide that plumbers shall register, and the bill was tabled. A report recommending that the bill for government control of sewers be referred to the Public Lands and Internal Improvements committee was adopted.

The committee reported in favor of Kauter's bill to repeal the law compelling vaccination, Paole, Kanlio and Makaleka, making the report. A minority report against the bill was made by Chillingworth and Kellinod. A threatened debate was averted by tabling both reports for later consideration.

The ship Emily F. Whitney is overdue. She left this port over a week ago for Kahului. She had not arrived at that port yesterday, according to the statements of the officers of the S. S. Nebraska which arrived this morning from the Maui port. She probably was blown off by the recent heavy trades.

PAUOA BILL: VETO POWER

A CLAIM THAT THE BILL PASSED TOO LATE FOR OVERRIDING A VETO.

Talk of a veto of the Pauoa springs purchase bill is quite general about the Capitol building and has led to discussions as to whether the act didn't pass too late for its friends to save it if the Executive should disapprove. Those who oppose the measure claim that the final passage was too late, while the others declare that if Governor Dole vetoes the bill they will have time to pass it over his disapproval.

"Governor Dole has ten days in which to consider the bill," said one of the opposition, "and that means until the sixtieth day of the session. He can hold his veto message until midnight on the sixtieth day, and send it in just before the time for final adjournment of the session. There will be no time for overriding the veto, and the law will be killed."

The preparation of the bill was hurried yesterday afternoon so that the Governor might have his copy without loss of another day, with a view to saving the power of overriding a veto, and it is claimed by some that the Governor must either veto or sign the bill within exactly ten days, which limit would expire in the afternoon of the sixtieth day. There were nineteen votes in favor of the bill in the House yesterday, and only one more would be needed to override a veto.

TO ENCOURAGE AGRICULTURE

HOUSE COMMITTEE'S STRONG REPORT ON THE BILL TO REORGANIZE THE DEPARTMENT.

The Committee on Agriculture and Manufactures presented a report approving Senate Bill No. 2, reorganizing the agricultural bureau, with a number of amendments. The report submitted a draft of a new law, which the Speaker said would have to begin passage all over again, as a substitute and for this reason the report was returned, in order that the desired changes may be put in as amendments to the bill which has already gone through the Senate. The committee strongly recommended the passage of the bill, which places the bureau under the Superintendent of Public Works. The report said that after the county act went into effect the Superintendent would have much more time than now to devote to the agricultural, horticultural and forestry bureau. The following was in the report: "The statement is made by Mr. Perkins, a professional entomologist, that nearly all the insects which are now doing damage to the agriculture of the country have been imported within the last six years, and new insects and blights being imported, as there is no adequate law requiring examination and quarantine of new plants and cuttings brought into the country. "Your committee earnestly recommend the passage of the amended bill for the reason that the rapid disappearance of the forests in different parts of the islands absolutely requires prompt and efficient measures to prevent the mountains becoming entirely denuded of forests."

A PETITION FOR A SPECIAL ELECTION

Is being circulated to vote on the question of whether Honolulu shall organize under New Law.

Petitions are being prepared for circulation after the municipal bill becomes a law for the calling of a special election to incorporate Honolulu and if the proposition carries Honolulu may be an incorporated municipality before the county act goes into effect. The law provides that on presentation of a petition signed by one-third of the citizens the Secretary of the Territory shall, within sixty days, call an election to submit the proposition to the voters. A majority in favor of incorporation is all that is required to carry it.

The duty of incorporating the city, under the provisions of the act, devolves upon Secretary Carter, who will be called upon to divide the city into wards and make preparations for the first city election. This is to be held within 60 days after the incorporation of the city and is for the election of a mayor, councilmen and other officers, who are to hold office until December 31, when the officers elected at the regular November election are to succeed them.

It is proposed to insert an item in the appropriation bill to provide funds to carry out the purposes of the act. There is no appropriation in the bill, but if the Governor signs the measure an appropriation will be provided.

ISLAND GIRLS WINNERS. BERKELEY, April 4.—By defeating the basket-ball team of the University of California this afternoon the basket-ball team of Mills College became the champions of the coast. The young ladies from the hillside college have not lost a game this season and have defeated the University of Nevada, Alameda High School, Stockton High School and University of California teams. The score of today's game was 15 to 8 in favor of the Mills College team. The contest took place on the court at Hearst Hall and was full of good plays. The first half was nearly even, but in the second half the Mills College girls pulled away from the blue and gold young ladies and finished strongly in the lead. Nearly one hundred students from Mills College accompanied the basket ball team and lent the support of their cheering to their side. The teams were made up as follows: University of California: Miss K. Gumpertz, captain, and Misses F. Johnson, E. Talcott, M. Rigney, D. Spencer, L. Boynton, M. Shafter, F. Atkinson and A. Lee. Mills College: Miss E. Gardner captain, and Misses V. Makee, G. Holmes, E. Smith, G. Dowsett, E. Costa, M. Kluegel, A. Hunter and G. Kimball. Mrs. W. G. Needham was referee.

Important Reasons

Why Herring-Hall-Marvin Safe Co.'s Safes and Locks are the Best?

The concrete filling makes these safes absolutely Fire-Proof and positive Damp-Proof. The solid angle corners add greatly to their security in time of fire, and form the only solid corners made. The patent Bolt Work is superior to any in use and does not require the constant oiling, cleaning, and repairs that is acknowledged in other makes of safes. That although 600,000 of these safes are now in use and many thousands have been tested by some of the most disastrous conflagrations in the United States, THERE IS NOT A SINGLE INSTANCE ON RECORD WHEREIN ONE OF THEM EVER FAILED TO PRESERVE ITS CONTENTS PERFECTLY. They make safes for county treasurers, county recorders, county clerks, jewelers, Hotels, residences, churches and corporations. We have a large assortment of safes on hand and will be pleased to show same.

PEACEFUL METHODS PREVENTING STRIKES

The Wabash Difficulty Is Settled After a Four Months' Controversy—Wages Increased.

ST. LOUIS, April 4.—After four months of controversy between the employes of the Wabash road and the officials of that system, during which at one time a strike was imminent and was prevented only by an injunction restraining the employes from vacating their positions, and which injunction was dissolved last Wednesday, the differences were finally adjusted and the controversy effectually and satisfactorily settled this evening. The officials of the brotherhoods representing the employes declare the settlement is eminently satisfactory and a sweeping victory for organized labor. The Wabash officials declare that all differences with the employes have been finally terminated in a satisfactory manner and that their future relations in all probability will be most harmonious.

Following are the main points embraced in the settlement: Twelve per cent increase for conductors, brakemen and baggagemen in the passenger service and 15 per cent for conductors and brakemen in the freight service over the rates which existed January 1, 1902, west of the Mississippi River.

For the firemen increases were granted on the Canadian lines in accordance with the Canada Southern division of the Michigan Central. On the lines in the United States material increases and improvements in the working conditions were granted the firemen.

East of the Mississippi river the rates will be brought up to this same standard when competing lines in the same territory grant similar increases. The various yardmen receive a substantial increase, varying in different localities.

There is an entire revision of rules applying to all classes of train service. This was the main bone of contention and was granted in its entirety.

ROOSEVELT CAN BE RE-ELECTED

New York's Vote Not Necessary For Favorable Result—Political Managers Make Forecast.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—An emissary of Senator "Tom" Platt asked the President ten days ago to do something in connection with Federal patronage in New York which would be distinctly hostile to Governor Odell and array the administration on the side of the senior New York Senator. The President declined to do it.

"But, Mr. President," expostulated Platt's agent, "harmony in New York State is absolutely essential to your election."

"I don't think I quite understand you," said the President. "What I mean," said the representative of Senator Platt, "is that there cannot be any harmony in New York State unless Senator Platt is taken into consideration and that a Republican President cannot be elected without New York's electoral vote."

But New York State, as far as Republican calculations are concerned, has ceased to be the Presidential pivot. That is to say, the Republican managers figure that they can easily win the next Presidential election though New York go Democratic. They base this calculation upon the history of the last three or four State elections and the last two Presidential elections.

The President's friends, since the interview, have prepared figures to show how Mr. Roosevelt can win without the vote of New York.

Roosevelt's political managers say he will get 322 votes in the electoral college of 1904. This calculation includes 39 electoral votes from the State of New York. There are 476 votes in the next electoral college. To elect, 239 votes are necessary. According to the calculation of the President's friends, he will have 283 votes, with New York out. He can lose New York, Indiana and Illinois and still have a majority of three in the electoral college.

In this calculation not an electoral vote from the South is included in the Republican column.

DEFENDS THE CANTEEN.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—Reporting to the War Department from the Rock Island arsenal, Major Stanhope Blunt, commanding, says the effect of prohibiting the sale of beer and light wines at that point is evident from the increase of 900 per cent in the number of court-martials during the last six months. He says:

"The post exchange is the greatest measure for the promotion of sobriety and discipline in the army which I have observed during twenty-nine years' service."

MONTE CARLO, April 4.—Americans have been lucky at Monte Carlo this season. Many of them recently have won heavily, though none has broken the bank. TRAMWAY SALE IS RATIFIED

Associated Press, Morning Service. LONDON, April 16.—Hawaiian Tramways stockholders today ratified agreement of sale of franchises and property to Honolulu Rapid Transit Company.

News of the action of the Tramways stockholders was received yesterday by the officials of the Rapid Transit Company in a cablegram from Col. Davidson, president of the Tramways company. In addition to the mere announcement of the completion of the deal, Col. Davidson suggested that all the papers in the case be drawn up here immediately, and forwarded to London for execution, so that the transfer would be all the more readily and easily accomplished. This work will be done at once and it is probable that the whole affair will go through within the next two months.

In anticipation of the complete agreement upon the details of the deal, the Tramways company has entered into a provisional contract with the Rapid Transit Company by which the tracks of the former company in Alakea street on the Esplanade and in Fort street to Queen will be replaced by the tracks of the Rapid Transit Company. This will permit of the completion of the extension of the line out Emma street and around the foot of Punchbowl, as soon as the Government approves the locations and plans as submitted to the Public Works Department something like two weeks ago. The men are ready for the carrying through of the work immediately approval is given. The Rapid Transit Company has decided that the line from Beretania street and out Nuuanu shall come down town through Fort street to King, and thence to Nuuanu.

ST. CLEMENT CHURCH MEETING

FIRST ANNUAL MEETING OF THE CONGREGATION SINCE THE ORGANIZATION AS A PARISH.

The annual meeting of the congregation of St. Clement's church was held in the Parish House last evening. Reports of all departments of church work were made, and all of the reports were highly gratifying.

The total receipts from all sources in connection with St. Clement's for the past year were:

Collected by the Treasurer from offertories and special collections $1916.20
Collected by the Woman's Guild of St. Clement's 1116.80

Chancel offertories 80.00
Collected by St. Clement's Provident Association 652.50 Balance collected to complete cost of new Parish House 484.50
From all sources a total of $4555.95

The treasurer strongly commended the envelope system of contributions for the work of the church.

A vote of thanks was tendered the Woman's Guild which by its efforts has largely aided the finances of the church. The mortgage debt on the church property has been reduced to $10,000, and another payment on this will be made shortly.

The following church officers for the year were chosen: Wardens, James Wakefield and H. W. M. Mist; Vestrymen, Fred Whitney, Charles L. Rhodes, George E. Smithies, F. M. Swansy, H. McK. Harrison, Major McClellan, W. B. Maling and J. A. M. Johnson; treasurer, William Thompson; secretary, John Guild.

NO ROYAL ROAD.

There is no royal road to learning. That was discovered long ago. Be a man, prince or peasant, be he rich or poor, be he gentle or simple, learning can only be acquired painfully and with continued perseverance. It is true that some have greater abilities than others, that some develop the assimilative quality more rapidly than others, but however great the abilities, however capable the assimilative qualities, still the painful and slow process of mastering details, of acquiring principles has to be gone through, and the evolution from the tabula rasa, the ignorant mind, to the mind stored with knowledge and the mind trained to meet questions and solve them, is a long and almost a heart-breaking one.

The presence of great institutions of learning has a good effect, no doubt, and the opportunity of acquiring great knowledge must be at hand if required, but the mere presence of well equipped institutions does not necessarily imply that those who attend will succeed. There are many men who pass through our own universities and those of Great Britain who prove very slimly educated, when all is said and done, while there is a small army which never gets through at all, but is dropped on the passage.

The mere fact that a man has entered a university or some place of learning is no sure proof of his ability, save that he was at a particular time capable of passing a certain test. He may lack perseverance, he may lack the assimilative faculty, he may lack many things which may put an end to his first spurt, and he finds himself completely out of the race. And it is only by applying continued tests that the best minds are kept, and the standard of institutions is kept up. Places like Annapolis and West Point keep up their extremely high standard, by a constant system of elimination. One has only to read their reports or calendars to understand this. The class lists grow smaller and smaller and the simple remark "dropped for failure in mathematics, dropped for failure" in this or in that, marks the course of educational evolution in those institutions. The standard remains immutable. The young man must reach the standard, the standard never lowers itself to the young man. A graduating class means the residue of mental power, from which all deleterious and worthless and weak material has been thrown off.

It is well to take a glance at these matters, since we are now so situated that we can make use of many opportunities which were closed to us before. We have therefore to prepare to meet those opportunities. To do this we must give the chance of acquiring the best of secondary education. Hitherto the effort has been largely devoted to primary education. But secondary education to be worth anything must be kept up to standard. It is one thing to dub a place a High School, it is quite another thing to conduct such an establishment on lines which will command the recognition of the highest places of learning upon the mainland.

In our effort after secondary education we shall utterly fail if we fall below a high standard. We have had two great successes in this line, because we have kept a high standard, which is to be reached only by the hardest work. These are at the High and at the Normal School. The graduates of our high school have ranked high in university entrance examinations. Next year there is every reason to believe that the Honolulu High School will have the privilege of accrediting, allowed by the University of California. This will allow some of the subjects passed in the High School, upon the examination of the local faculty. Any other High School established on the Islands will have to come up to the same high standard. A High School to be of value must be a true High School, if it is not, it is merely a delusion and a snare. We cannot have merely an Island standard measured by our own capabilities, but it must be a standard measured by the capabilities of mainland. We come into competition with their youths, we must have their standards. To reach that standard will mean work, and study, and power of assimilation which can be gained by no short cut, reached by no royal road. It will be hard and steady plodding.

Speaker Beckley deserves credit for the manner in which he keeps his unruly members in order, and he is not going to have the dignity of the chamber lowered if he can help it. Representative Wright of South Kona had grossly misbehaved himself in the police court and had been dressed down by the judge. Comments made upon the foul language representative roused his ire and he wanted some newspaper punished. Speaker Beckley, however, promptly sat down upon Mr. Wright of Kona and told him that his "conduct was no credit to the House" and then promptly resumed business. Bravo Speaker Beckley.

Some of the bills which come before the legislature are very carelessly worded, and the committees do not take sufficient pains to make corrections. The bill for the incorporation of societies for the prevention of cruelty to children is a case in point. The bill is a good bill and has the hearty sympathy of the Governor, but whoever drew the bill certainly did not know the value of words when he spoke of these societies as being a "body politic incorporate." The phrase as used was merely put in by the drafter because it sounded well and orotund. It must have had that mental effect upon him that that blessed word "Mesopotamia" had upon the old lady. The Governor vetoed the bill not because he had any objection to the principles of the bill, but because he could not sign an act containing obviously foolish terms, however well they might sound.

Delegate Kuhio has shown commendable zeal for the boys who are candidates for the appointment of midshipman at the Naval Academy at Annapolis. In the first place he has thrown the nomination of principal and alternates open to local competition, and then he has applied to the Navy Department for leave to have the entrance examination held here. A telegram received the other day promises the required permission. This will save the chosen candidates the expense of a journey to and from Washington at their own expense in case of failure. There were quite a number of candidates who appeared for the preliminary examination. As the appointments come along regularly for Annapolis and West Point, more and more of our young men will take the trouble to specially prepare themselves, and the credit of the Territory will grow.

Representative Wright has a scheme by which three commissioners shall be appointed at $10 a day to something which does not require to be done. It is quite a pretty scheme. In whose interest is the money going to be disbursed? Certainly not in the public interest.

A certain section of the Republic of Columbia is for holding up the Panama canal treaty. Of course this short sighted section thinks that as the United States needs the canal, it will be willing to buy up opposition, in which the section will find itself very much out of its reckoning.

Dreyfus is to the fore again. Even his sympathizers are beginning to tire of Dreyfus. He is simply a pawn moved on the board when it is thought convenient to worry the French government and give the army clique a shake up.

Russia is reported as ready to evacuate Manchuria. There is also the report of an approaching Boxer rising put the two reports together and the chances are that Russia will find herself obliged to stay.

We notice that a Cleveland (Ohio) newspaper speaks patronizingly of Argentina as a "little republic." What jarks! There are 41,000 square miles of Ohio; there are 1,319,347 square miles of Argentina. That is to say, you could tuck away 31 Ohio's in the "little republic," and then have considerably more than room enough left for seven Connecticut.—Hartford Courant.

Macedonia has been an intermittent storm center since the days of Phillip and Demosthenes. It has been for some years a felony in Kansas to steal chickens in the night season. If they can be "swiped" in the daylight the act is classed only as a misdemeanor. READY TO TAKE HER FIRST DIP

NEW CRAFT WILL BE GIVEN A SEVERE TEST IN COMPETITION WITH COLUMBIA.

BRISTOL, R. I., April 16.—There will be launched just before sunset tomorrow from the Herreshoff works the ninety-foot composite fin keel sloop yacht which a syndicate of six prominent yachtsmen of the New York Yacht Club have had constructed for the defense of the American cup against Sir Thomas Lipton's third challenger, Miss Nova Iselin, the daughter of C. Oliver Iselin, managing owner, will christen her "Reliance."

The Reliance is the sixth yacht which the Herreshoffs have constructed for the defense of the America cup. Three of these—the Vigilant, Defender and Columbia—have defeated the British challengers, while two others, the Columbia and Constitution, did not prove in their trials sufficiently reliable to warrant their selection for the honor.

The Reliance will be tried out as never a cup boat was before, for the owner of the Columbia, jealous of her magnificent record of two successful defenses of the cup, will again be in the field, while August Belmont, who controls the Constitution, is keen to retrieve the honor lost to the Columbia two years ago.

Although the Reliance, as in the case of nearly all the cup defenders, has been built in secret, it is known that her under body is constructed of tobian bronze and her top sides of nickel steel. It is known also that she is just short of ninety feet on the water line and about twenty feet deep and twenty-four feet beam.

When fully rigged she will be able to spread 15,000 square feet of canvas, which the largest amount ever hoisted by any racing ninety-foot sloop.

She was designed by N. G. Herreshoff and has been constructed under his personal supervision.

The scene about the boatshops during the day was a busy one. Many men were at work on the spars and fittings of the craft, while other gangs were engaged in arranging the cradle and the machinery for service tomorrow. No time will be lost in stepping the mast and putting on the gear after the launching takes place.

The members of the syndicate who gave the order for the boat are expected here tomorrow afternoon. Arrangements will be made to protect the Reliance from injury by contact with other boats when she slides into the water. A great fleet of craft undoubtedly will throng the harbor.

NEVADA'S BIG CARGO.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 15.—The American-Hawaiian freighter Nevada, Captain Weedon, arriving here yesterday morning, eight days and five hours from Honolulu, brought a large cargo of 85,840 bags of sugar, 370 bunches of bananas and a shipment of Hawaiian coin valued at $75,000. The money is to be received here into American money and returned to the islands. On her way from Honolulu the Nevada sighted the Nevasaskan, Ventura and Korea. The Nevada was brought into port by Captain Hays, the new pilot who, upon this occasion, exercised for the first time his functions as a bar pilot. He has his mess on the pilot-boat Gracie S., with Pilots McCullough and Wallace.

CABLE TO THE FARALLONES.
SAN FRANCISCO, April 15.—The steamer Arago is expected to sail early this morning for the Farallon Islands with the cable that is to connect the mainland with the sentinel isles, thirty miles off the Heads. The cable is to extend from Point Reyes to the South Farallon Island, and will be owned and operated by the Weather Bureau. It will, however, be used daily for making reports of incoming ships and steamers, and will therefore be of great advantage to the shipping community. Within a week, it is expected, the cable will be in working order.

SENATE MADE MANY CHANGES

SLASHED SOME BIG ITEMS, REDUCED OTHERS, AND ADDED MANY NEW ONES TO THE BILL.

The Senate continued the consideration of the unsettled items on the Loan bill yesterday afternoon. The committee reported in favor of increasing the item for schools on Oahu from $125,000 to $155,000. This carried an increase from $5,000 to $50,000 for a new road from Kailua to Nahaiku was also carried.

After some discussion the report of the special committee cutting down the Nuuanu valley water works items from $100,000 to $75,000 for a reservoir and from $80,000 to $30,000 for a filtration plant were adopted, and the items passed at the reduced figures.

The bill was finally passed second reading after an amendment had been made making it a misdemeanor punishable with a fine from $50 to $500 for any officer to falsely approve a voucher on any appropriation.

The six months appropriation bill was then discussed. All items were changed to the original figure, the intention being to amend the bill at the end so that the appropriations will be for the calendar year January 1, 1904, and can not be expended except pro rata. The item for printing and advertising for the Secretary's office was increased $1,000 to $6,000. The item of $5,000 for expenses of the Fifth District Court was increased to $8,000. An amendment was made so that the courts could expend only one-fourth of the money every quarter.

An item of $1,000 for E. P. Dowd's service in defending the Oskai Mankie lease at Washington was inserted.

An item of $10,000 or as much thereof as was necessary, was inserted to pay for defending the fisheries cases. This item was inserted as the result of a letter from Robertson & Wilder asking that they be paid a fee of this amount.

The incidental expenses of the Attorney General's Department was increased from $28,400 to $39,800.

The item of $30,000 for an exhibit at the St. Louis Exposition was increased to $50,000.

An item of $15,000 for advertising these islands was inserted. This money is to be spent under the direction of the St. Louis Fair Commission.

The item of $45,000 for repairs to the Judiciary building was inserted. The item of $10,000 for landings and buoys was reduced to $5,000. A similar item for the island of Maui was cut from $4,000 to $3,000. The item for Molokai was increased from $1,500 to $5,000, so as to include the new landing at Kalapapa.

The expenses of the pilot boats was increased from $2,300 to $2,500. The item of $4,500 for house numbering was cut to $1,200 for six months. The item of $10,000 for grading and fencing government lots was reduced to $2,000. The pay of veterinary surgeons was raised from $1,200 to $2,000 as to include Hilo.

An attempt was made to adjourn but after repeated efforts the movement failed and the consideration of the bill was resumed.

An item of $7,120 was inserted for the Waialua Fire Department, also $2,500 for Ania Park. An item of $1,200 for a bookkeeper, Waiakoa, was inserted.

The item of $8,000 for roads in Koolauloa was increased to $10,000.

The Puukoa road item of $2,500 was stricken out and an item of $50,000 for general roads and bridges in Ewa and Waianae was inserted. The item of $2,000 for Makua trail was reduced to $1,000.

The item for the Honolulu roads and bridges was changed from $165,155 to $250,000 each, for the Fourth and Fifth Districts, or $500,000 in all. The item of $15,000 for a bridge at Waimea, Kauai, was increased to $30,000.

The consideration of the bill was resumed at the night session. The item of $2,500 for the Puukoa road was increased to $5,000 and an extra item of $7,000 was also inserted.

The item of $500 for furniture and fixtures for the Department of Public Instruction was raised to $5,000. An increase of $1,000 for lace-making school in Honolulu was made, bringing the item up to $3,000.

The special committee's recommendation for agricultural appropriations was adopted. A change was made, however, so that the $10,000 for the assistance of the United States Experiment Station should be expended by the special agent, without the supervision of the supervisors.

An item of $10,000 for a hospital at Kalapapa was inserted and the item of $25,000 for a hospital for lepers was increased to $230,000. The appropriation of $1,800 for Eisele hospital was increased to $3,000. The item of $12,000 for Leahi hospital was raised to $15,000.

The items of $25,000 for a Government steamer to the leper settlement and an additional $35,000 for operating the steamer were cut out.

The item of $8,000 to defray the expenses of the band making trips to the other islands was stricken out. The item of $20,000 for election expenses was increased to $35,000, to include county and municipal elections. An item of $62 for the pay of registrar board of the third district was inserted.

Items of $600 for a band and $200 for games for the lepers were inserted.

An item of $15,000 for a hospital for North Kona was inserted. An amendment was added to the bill making it unlawful for the Territorial auditor to issue warrants or the Treasurer to pay warrants after January 1, 1904, when contracts shall have passed to the counties. The object of this amendment is to make the appropriations cease on January 1, 1904, so far as the Territory is concerned.

An amendment was inserted to provide a penalty for the unlawful issuance of warrants.

The bill was declared passed second reading and will be read a third time tomorrow.

A STANDARD OIL COMPANY MEETING

DESCRIBED BY A STOCKHOLDER WHO DIDN'T LIKE THE WAY HE WAS TREATED.

The overbearing insolence of a great corporation, as unnecessary as it is in politics, and as unusual, I might add, as it is unwise, is illustrated by the recent experience of a stockholder in the Standard Oil Company. Armed with a proxy to represent shares owned by his wife, and in accordance with the regular printed invitation of the company to all of its stockholders to attend its annual meeting, he started from New York about 9 o'clock in the morning, for the office of the Standard Oil Company, at Bayonne, N. J., where the meeting was to be held at 10:45 a. m. Taking the ferry to Jersey City and a trolley line toward Bayonne, he was shunted off to a little old-fashioned street-car line, which finally landed him on the outskirts of the Standard Oil Company's works, a mile from the office at which the meeting was held.

After making inquiries of watchmen, workmen, switchmen and flagmen, at the various railroad crossings in the yards, he succeeded in threading his way through a labyrinth of tanks, pipes, cars and buildings, until, at about 11 o'clock in the morning, he reached a common-place brick building on the very edge of the bay. He was told to climb two flights of stairs on the outside of the structure, and there, hidden away in a loft, without a sign to indicate its location, the annual meeting of the great and powerful Standard Oil Company was being held. Inquiring of a clerk the location of the board room, this gentleman had an experience which I propose to let him tell about in his own words. He is a well-known New Yorker, of some prominence in financial and business circles, and his experience may be of interest to the general public. He says:

"Entering the room where the meeting was to be held, I found a fine-looking, courteous, middle-aged gentleman, seated by the side of a large table, upon which were piled the proxies sent in by stockholders authorizing Messrs. Rockefeller, Flagler, and others, to represent them at the meeting. The gentleman was in earnest conversation with a visitor, apparently on some other matter than that which concerned the stockholders. This visitor shrewdly departed and the gentleman turned to me. I asked if this was the meeting of the stockholders of the Standard Oil Company. He replied that it was, and I then discovered that I was the only stockholder from the outside who was present. I inquired if an annual report of the earnings of the company had been presented. The reply was in the negative, the gentleman remarking that the stockholders apparently had not attended the meetings or cared particularly to see an annual report. Meeting his courtesy with courtesy, I ventured to suggest that it was the custom at annual meetings to present for the information of the stockholders, something regarding the condition of the property, to which the stockholders, as partners in the concern, were obviously entitled.

"The gentleman at once became more serious and asked my name and whom my proxy represented. He immediately stepped into an adjoining office for confidential consultation with the clerks assembled there, and in a moment several of them hurried in the room where I was and made an inspection of what appeared to be the stock books. I was the subject of a good deal of scrutiny and was apparently an object of decided interest. After a time my credentials were accepted, and I ventured again to ask my courteous friend who represented the company, whether he was able to give me a statement bearing on the company's business for the year. Courteous as ever, but not quite so suave, he hesitated to say more than that he must refer me to Mr. Dodd, the solicitor of the company, at the New York office.

"I asked if it was not somewhat unusual to refer a stockholder in such a matter to the company's attorney, and he replied that he had nothing more to say excepting that if I wanted information I must consult the attorney. I asked the gentleman if he was an officer of the company, and he replied that he was and that he was a director. I asked if, as a director, he declined to furnish information regarding the company's affairs to its stockholders. He again replied somewhat frigidly, that he must refer me to Mr. Dodd. I asked the director to give me his name and he unhesitatingly gave it as Mr. Barstow. I bade Mr. Barstow good-day, and tramped a mile back to my room—can through the gases and stenches of the Standard oil works, and returned to my office in New York. I have not been a believer in anti-trust legislation, but I am changing my mind."—Leslie's Weekly.

KING EDWARD AT MALTA.

Associated Press, Morning Service.
VALETTA, Malta, April 16.—King Edward arrived here from Gibraltar today and reviewed the garrison. He was given an enthusiastic welcome on all sides, showing that the great majority of the native inhabitants have forgotten their bitterness over the language question. The King will go from this point to Rome, to pay a visit to the King of Italy.

Malta is the most important station of Great Britain in the Mediterranean. It is the headquarters of her Mediterranean fleet and a large garrison is stationed at Valletta, the capital. The island is south of Sicily.

IRISH DELEGATES APPROVE BILL.

Associated Press Cable to the Star.
DUBLIN, Ireland, April 16.—Two thousand Irishmen, delegates to the National Convention, called to consider the Land Bill introduced into the House of Commons by the Balfour ministry, today concluded their session amid great demonstrations of high national feeling.

The delegates thoroughly canvassed the measure and at several points suggested amendments to the details of the plan. These will be properly drafted and forwarded to the Premier at once.

The principle of the bill was approved day concluded their session amid great unanimity. The debates showed that the Irish people expect that the operations of this measure will speedily put them in a position of independence.

BROWN RESIGNED IN GREAT ANGER

REFUSED TO SERVE ON COMMIT-TEE, IF SENATE PERSISTED IN FORCING HIM TO REPORT.

A very warm discussion ensued in the Senate this morning. As the result of an attempt on the part of that body to force him to make an immediate report on the Long Municipal bill, Senator Cecil Brown resigned from the position of chairman of the Judiciary Committee, and handed the bill to the clerk. Subsequently at the urgent request of President Crabbe, Senator Brown withdrew his resignation.

The matter occurred when Senator
 Achi for himself and Senator Palmer
 Woods as a majority of the Judiciary Committee, presented a report on the Long Municipal bill. The committee favored the passage of the bill but made a number of amendments to the measure. One of the changes made by the committee, was to strike out the sections regarding educational matters the committee holding that it would be wiser for the control of the schools to remain with the Territorial board of Education. The report said in part:

Your committee struck out many sections in the bill, mostly those sections relating to the Educational department; your committee believe that it is wise to follow the plan laid out in the county bill, so that the schools shall be under the management of the Territorial Board of Education.

It must be remembered that, according to the terms of the County Act, the Island of Oahu consists of One County, and by the provisions of said Act, the people living in said Island would pay one per cent per year for taxes and by the terms of the latest Municipal Act, we have no reason to doubt that the people living in the City of Honolulu would be forced to pay another half per cent tax. In that case the people living in the City of Honolulu would have two sets of officers, and two or three taxes to pay.

In order to avoid the same, there is only one course to follow, that is to pass the Act (House Bill No. 811).
 New sections are added showing all provisions relating to the County of Oahu and the City of Honolulu in the County Act and the General Municipal Act.

A new section is added so that the Territorial Government would get tenty-five per cent of the taxes which might be collected in the island of Oahu which is not provided in the House.

Section 133. All the provisions of An Act entitled "An Act providing for the organization and Government of Counties and Districts and Management and Control of Public Works and Public Institutions therein," relating to the County of Oahu, are hereby repealed.

Section 140. One quarter of all taxes which may be collected on Real and Personal property in the island of Oahu shall be paid to the Treasurer of the Territory for the benefit of the Territorial government.

The voters also amended the bill so that the first circuit judges could handle all of the cases to have been tried by a city judge. The police magistrates of the fourth and fifth districts were to be paid yearly $600, as were the other councilmen. A large number of other amendments were made to the Long bill.

Senator O. Brown the chairman of the committee had refused to sign the report. There was a lively discussion over the time when Senator Brown his minority report. Senator Brown expressed himself as opposed to the committee's report and the Long bill.
 He declared that it proposed to give greater power to the councilmen of Honolulu than the legislature. The Long bill would create a lot of offices for political purposes and would cause a 1 per cent tax, in addition to the county tax. Senator Brown said he would make his report later.

Senator Achi wanted Senator Brown to report in one day. There was some discussion on this point, and finally the report was tabled and Senator Brown was directed to report by tomorrow.

This action aroused Senator Brown to an unusual state of indignation. He promptly said that if the Senate proposed to force him to report, he would tender his resignation from the Judiciary committee and he forthwith resigned and returned the copy of the Long Bill to the clerk.

This action on the part of Senator Brown caused considerable surprise and evidently some consternation. President Crabbe who was on the floor, moved for a reconsideration and the motion prevailed. President Crabbe also requested Senator Brown to withdraw the resignation, which was done after some time.

Senator Achi finally withdrew his report of the Committee. Senator Brown will make his report the early part of next week.

THE SO-CALLED MERRY LETTERS

PROCEEDINGS FOR GUARDIAN-SHIP OF AYTLA LEONIE ASHTON PRODUCE BIG SENSATION.

The San Francisco Chronicle of April 16, publishes the following in its Oakland correspondence:

OAKLAND, April 3.—Sensations continue to develop in the legal fight that has been carried on for several weeks for the custody of Aytla Leonie Ashton, a pretty five-year-old Hawaiian girl, whose parents, Frank and Mary S.
 Ashton, were divorced in August last.
 It developed today that the intercepted love letters that Ashton threatened to expose if his former wife persisted in her fight for their child, were written by Rear Admiral Merry of the United States Navy, now retired. The wording of the letters is as tropical as the most ardent Hawaiian lover could desire. Terms of endearment are not spared in the epistles and there is abundant evidence that the gallant Admiral was well versed in love's vocabulary.

It appears that Admiral Merry first met Mrs. Ashton several years ago when he was temporarily stationed at Honolulu. She was then a subject of Queen Liliuokalani and was possessed not only of many of the Hawaiian dialect charms, but was also well endowed with this world's goods.
 About six years ago the Ashtons were married and they came to California to live. It was while Mrs. Ashton was sojourning at Santa Cruz and Monterey that the acquaintanceship between her and Admiral Merry was renewed.
 From the letters in the possession of Ashton and his attorneys, Gibson, Woods, Crosby & Ryker, it appears that the Admiral was an ardent water while they were visiting at the Southern resorts. Tender references are made in the epistles to the efforts of Mrs. Ashton to teach the Admiral the mysteries of her native dance.

It was after the threatened exposures of these letters that Mrs. Ashton withdrew her opposition to the application of the paternal grandmother, Mrs.
 Elizabeth Ashton, for letters of guardianship over the child. A few days ago, however, the mother renewed her fight for the child by having her friend, Mrs. Hattie Holland, apply for letters of guardianship. Today the application of the grandmother came up for hearing, but had to be postponed because it was stated that the father had taken the child away last Friday and nothing had been heard from either of them. Judge Hall continued the matter to April 21st.

Word has been received here that Admiral Merry recently obtained a di-

About Hair Brushes

If hair brushes could talk they would first of all say,
 "Keep Us Dry."

If you cannot keep your hair brushes dry, keep them as dry as you can.

They will last twice as long dry as they will wet. Probably the easiest brush to keep dry and clean is one with a solid back.

We have solid back brushes in large assortment from

50c. to $3.00

The best way to get prices is to see the brushes and ask how much they are.
