WHAT THE REFORM PARTY HAS DONE.

- 1. It has created and carried into effect the Homestead Law. 2. It has taken the subject of Leprosy out of politics, strictly enforced the Segregation Law without fear or favor, sparing no expense for the comfort of the lepers; established a Hospital for the scientific investigation of the disease and treatment of the patients, and pledges itself to stamp out the disease. 3. It has changed and decentralized the Government from a Despotism, run by and for the benefit of one man and his favorites, to a Representative Constitutional Government controlled by and for the People. 4. It has taken the Civil Service out of Politics and given to the People the Power and the Right to conduct Elections without the partisan interference of Government Officers.

The election for Nobles and Representatives, held in September, 1887, was the first since elections were inaugurated in this country, in which Government officers did not exercise an active and more or less controlling part. Such control was exercised in greatly increasing degree, as the years went by, until it culminated in 1886, when, almost without exception, the Government officers throughout the country, even to the Judges, were partisan workers, doing active electioneering; and bringing all the power of their positions to bear to assist the administration in power. To such an intolerable extent had this been carried that in 1886 it was perfectly well understood that retention in office depended upon subservency and active partisan support of the administration.

It has been charged that the Reform party, being in possession of the Government, is going to hold it at all hazards.

THE HISTORY OF THE REFORM PARTY proves that it proposes to remain in control only by and with the consent of a majority of the legal voters.

THE NUMBER OF VOTERS in the country is less than 15,000. Of these voters about 1,500 are Government officials, or are in Government employ. Any administration that goes into an election, having under its control a trained body of election workers, whose bread and butter depends upon their success, and who in numbers amount to one-tenth of the entire electorate, has manifestly an immense advantage over an administration which does not possess such a nucleus of power, and which relies entirely upon its record, its principles and the voluntary support of electors.

Had the Reform party followed precedent and availed itself of the partisan support of its officials, it would have done no worse than its predecessors. But right here is where the party claims the right to its name.

"Reform" under the Reform party "REFORM" UNDER THE REFORM PARTY MEANS SOMETHING. No sooner was the party in power than public proclamation was made that all public officials should refrain from any partisan participation in the approaching election, although no law requires it, and at the same time all officials were informed that they were free to vote for whom they chose without effect upon their tenure of office.

THE CONTEMPORARY FISSIMISTS Who have since developed into the present Re-actionary Opposition, immediately proclaimed that this was a spasm of virtue which would pass off before the next election.

Again the Reform party gave them the lie and earned its name, by passing at the last session of the Legislature a law absolutely prohibiting all persons holding positions of either trust or profit under the Government from any partisan participation in elections whatsoever, under penalties so severe as to render an infraction of its provisions one of the most serious of misdemeanors.

Under Section 102 of the Election Law any person holding a position of trust or profit under the Government who acts in any manner as a partisan, is liable to 1. A fine of $100; or 2. Imprisonment at hard labor for six months; or 3. Both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the Court.

In addition to the above penalties the office of such person is at once vacated, and 5. He is disqualified from holding any Government office for three years; and 6. He is forever disqualified from voting at any election; and 7. He is forever disqualified from sitting in the Legislature.

The Reform party has thus voluntarily put out of its hands a most powerful weapon for securing its retention in control of the Government. A weapon which in enlightened America is still considered a legitimate one for the Administration to use. The present political campaign is being conducted by the Reform party without the support of official patronage and without a partisan use of the civil service. Whatever the result of the election, it will be reached by the people of their own free will, without coercion, and without any unfair or partisan advantage being taken by the party in power by reason of its position.

So long as the Reform party remains in power the country can feel secure that this policy, which it has inaugurated, will be carried out.

If you desire that the people shall continue to control the elections, vote the Reform ticket. If you want Government officials to again take charge of the Government and the Legislature for their private benefit, vote for Wilcox and Bush & Co.

Supreme Court Opinions.

The following opinion of the Supreme Court was received by the Minister of the Interior Saturday morning: DEPARTMENT OF THE JUDICIARY, Honolulu, Jan. 25, 1890. To His Excellency L. A. Thurston, Minister of the Interior.

Sir: Your communication of the 23d January on behalf of the Cabinet, addressed to the Justices of the Supreme Court, is received. The first question upon which our opinion is asked is: Whether Section 24 of the Act of 1888, "To amend and consolidate the election laws of the Kingdom," requires that in order to vote for a Noble, an otherwise qualified elector of Nobles must have resided in one and only one of the "Election Districts" described in Section 13 of the Act, or does the context prohibit such second and third residences? It must have resided for three months within the district for the election of Nobles, i. e. the island of Oahu.

Subdivision first of Section 24 contains the proviso that he (the voter for Nobles) shall have resided in the country not less than three years, and in the district in which he offers to vote, not less than three months immediately preceding the election at which he offers to vote.

The first section of the Act defines "District" to mean an "Election District" as prescribed in this Act unless the context prohibit such sense. The election districts are defined in Section 13; they are 24 in number and one Representative is allowed for each district, and can be voted for by only the voters of the particular district. But the Nobles, 24 in number, are not apportioned to be voted for singly by the voters of the respective election districts, but 9 Nobles are to be voted for by each voter (who is qualified) on the island of Oahu, and 6 by each voter on the island of Hawaii, and so on throughout the group. For the purposes, therefore, of voting for Nobles, the island of Oahu is the "District," as is also the island of Hawaii, etc.

If all the voters qualified to vote for Nobles can vote for the number of Nobles prescribed for the island on which the voter lives, it can make no difference in which "Election District" within the island or group of islands he may reside, and any change from one to another of these districts into which the island is divided cannot affect his right to vote for Nobles, provided he has resided on the particular island or group of islands where he offers to vote for three months immediately preceding the election.

We are, therefore, of the opinion that the sense requires that the word "District" mentioned in the first subdivision of Section 24 respecting qualifications of voters for Nobles means the island or group of islands from which the Nobles are to be elected and not the "Election districts" mentioned in Section 13 of the Act.

Before answering the second question we desire more time to consider it. Respectfully submitted, A. F. Judd, L. McCully, RICHARD B. BICKERTON, SAMPSON B. DOZ, Justices of the Supreme Court.

The steamer Harlow which has arrived at Halifax from the west coast of New Foundland, reports that while at Bonne bay a messenger arrived from Flowers' cove, in the Straits of Bella Isle, informing the government that one hundred families were in a starving condition. Unless relief reaches them death would certainly occur from starvation.

A copy of the proposed extradition treaty between the United States and Great Britain has been received by the Minister of Justice, at Ottawa. The scope of the proposed treaty is very wide in contrast with the treaty of 1842, which contains only four offenses. If the pending treaty is adopted, legislation by the Dominion Parliament will be necessary to bring Canada under its provisions.

Another American vessel has been seized on the Colombian coast. The seizing vessel is the gunboat La Papa, which seized a schooner not long ago. The American government has not yet moved towards securing reparations.

HILLO NEWS LETTER.

The Hilo Literary and Musical Club delighted all who were present on the 18th inst. at the house of L. Severance, Esq. It was a Dickens' eve, many selections being read from that good author, interspersed with music of the finest selections all splendidly rendered. There were three of Dickens' celebrated characters taken by Dr. C. H. Wetmore, Mr. N. Wilcox and Mr. Smith; also a scene from Cricket on the Hearth and a recitation by Miss Ivy Richardson.

A board fence has been put up in front of the property of Col. Spreckels so that there will be no more festivities in the village green. It should be whitewashed.

In my news letter dated Hilo January 2d I gave the news as reported around town regarding J. Nawahi, Esq. The talk grew out of his entertaining Wilcox I think in a great measure, and his refusal to take the presents which, some members of Haili church wished him to accept, as a proof of their appreciation of his labors as treasurer of that church for eight years without any compensation which he was entitled to if he wished it. It seems they wished him to turn over his books or give them an account of his stewardship which he did, and every item was found correct. Had the kind friends who desired to make him presents, handed him a written statement that everything was correct, he might have accepted them. As it was there was much ill feeling among members, pastor and others, but all is now serene.

Mr. J. Rycroft and Mr. J. M. Horner addressed the citizens of Hilo at the court house on the 22d inst. There was a large attendance. The matter of a railroad to bring sugar to Hilo from the many plantations to ship direct to California, improving Hilo harbor, a carriage road to Puna and many other matters of interest were spoken of. Some of the natives were desirous of having J. T. Baker speak, but as he was not running here he did not do so. Every one should vote the Reform ticket who has the least interest in this Kingdom. We cannot afford to swap horses when crossing a stream.

The brig Lurline, Capt. W. Matson, arrived at Hilo on the 14th inst., 16 days from San Francisco, with merchandise valued at $23,383. The shipments included 23 cts. wheat, 1,404 cts. barley, 475 bbls. flour, 335 lbs. tea, 16 cs. salmon, 338 lbs. coffee, 460 bbls. hay, 100 sks middlings, 28 cts. oats, 1,985 sks. bran, 33 cts. corn, 1,865 sks. fertilizer and 77 cs. canned goods. Her passengers were Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Scott, Miss Norell and Miss Gibson. The Lurline stopped at San Diego to land the captain's wife, who was sick. The vessel was only 10 days from that place to Hilo.

The little steamer Alice, Capt. Bergman, arrived on the 17th inst., nineteen days from San Francisco. She will be used as a tug to take cargo to Hilo wharf and other places. Her dimensions are 47 feet long, 10 feet beam, five feet deep. She is of steel and was made in London in 1886. One day, under sail, she made 183 miles. It is just the vessel needed at Hilo. J. A. M. Hilo, January 23.

The Niuli Rifle Club.

MR. EDITOR: Having noticed in the ADVERTISER'S issue of the 16th the criticisms on my remarks concerning the Niuli Rifle Club, in connection with their shooting match on New Year's day, I beg to say that I intended only to state facts, as they had been obtained from sources that were considered reliable, and which corroborated a previously existing understanding that the Niuli and Konaia Plantation clubs were two separate affairs.

The "unfairness on the face" of the challenge, consisted of course, in that case, in the fact of a challenge issued from a team composed of men selected from two different clubs, to another club supposed to be of about equal strength to the one first named. If my statements were erroneous, they naturally stand corrected. All we want are facts. Kobala, Jan. 23, 1890.

The R v. Geo. Wallace.

At the morning service of the Second Congregation of St. Andrew's Cathedral on Sunday, the Rev. Alex. Mackintosh made the following remarks from the pulpit:

Before entering on the consideration of the subject I have chosen for this morning, it is my duty to inform you officially of that which, no doubt, you have already heard informally, namely, of the resignation of the Rev. Geo. Wallace from his post in this cathedral.

It becomes therefore necessary to take steps for the nomination of another pastor. A meeting for this purpose will be held in the schoolroom of this church Monday evening at 8 o'clock, at which all church members are earnestly invited to attend. A few words concerning a friend and brother who has severed his immediate connection with us, after going in and out amongst us for more than seven years. His genial face and hearty manner, together with his kindly disposition have endeared him to all who really knew him, and it will be long before his memory will fade. All who came under his ministrations will miss him from their path, they will with one accord fervently unite in prayer to our God, to shield him and prosper him in the new work he has undertaken in his own country.

The Late Mr. Justice Preston.

At a meeting of the Privy Council held Saturday morning the following minute and resolutions were presented: The Honorable Edward Preston departed this life on the 17th day of January inst. He had been Attorney-General of the kingdom. He was a member of the Privy Council since February 13, 1883. He held the office of Associate Justice of the Supreme Court from the 7th day of July, 1885.

As an expression of the estimate of this Council of its deceased associate, he resolved: 1. That by the death of Mr. Justice Preston this Council has lost a member of singularly clear views upon the business brought before it from time to time and strictly faithful and independent in advising and voting.

2. That we hereby express to His Majesty our sense of his loss of a wise counsellor, and to the widow of the deceased our condolence in the affliction she has sustained. 3. That the proceedings herein be published. These resolutions were unanimously adopted.

A Worthy Institution Revived.

The Kohala Seminary entered a new era of existence Oct. 2, 1889, with Miss Whittier as principal, Miss Gorton and Miss Bates her associates in the work, and eleven pupils. At the present time there are nineteen connected with the school.

The islands are fortunate in again having this school available; also in securing the services of experienced teachers, who are deeply interested in the native people, and consecrated to the work of uplifting others. With such influences about the Hawaiian girls we may look for moral and spiritual elevation. Preparations are being made for the erection of a new building for the purpose of affording better facilities in the laundry work.

It is hoped that natives and foreigners will aid the school by their prayer, sympathies, and financial encouragement.

Birthday Celebration.

To-day is the thirty-second anniversary of the birth of Emperor William, of Germany. The event will be celebrated by the Honolulu Arion at their hall by a concert followed with a social. Following is the programme to be played by the Hawaiian band:

KAUAI NEWS.

Further Particulars of the Floods--Great Damage Done--Three Lives Lost.

The beautiful valleys, which until last Tuesday, were the pride of Kauai, are now a mass of mud and water, filled with the rubbish which was unresistingly swept over the land from the mountains down into the sea.

On Tuesday at 12:30 p. m. the rain began to fall, and continued in an unbroken stream until about 2 p. m. on Wednesday. During the night the tiny rivulets grew into rivers which continually increased in size and momentum, and the early morning light showed a large quantity of water spread over the surface of the ground. Still, nothing serious was apprehended, though the pressure of the water against its environment for irrigation were overflowing, and the roads were transformed into muddy rushing rivers.

The water of the mill pond was rapidly rising, and fears were entertained that it would momentarily pour over the embankment. But the pressure against the dam was too great, and it gave way with a tremendous crash. Now the great barrier being removed, there was nothing to check the wild flow, and soon the entire valley surrounding the Lihue mill, was like a vast lake, seething and hissing, while it carried destruction in its path. On and on the waves rolled, breaking fences and young trees, leaping ditches whose waters added their volume to the rapidly flowing river, through rice fields and taro patches which were ruthlessly destroyed, gathering wood, undergrowth and plants on its way, it spread terror and devastation on all sides. Small cottages and grass huts were temporarily submerged, the inhabitants having hastened to higher ground were unhurt, but chickens, ducks and young pigs were carried far out into Nawiliwili bay.

The bridge at Nawiliwili was demolished, and the breakers which had been built were swept away like a cobweb. All the outhouses belonging to C. A. Spitz were raised bodily by the angry river and carried far out to sea. A large stable containing carriages and saddles was swept away, while the store was turned at right angles to its previous position. The house occupied by A. Maclean had half of its supports carried away by the relentless tide, but though time was granted to the occupants to remove their belongings, the contents of the building, it has since then toppled over into the sea.

At Kapaia, the bridge was torn from its foundation and went crashing along in the great river which had formed in this valley. A store and dwelling belonging to a Chinaman was carried away, and the dry goods and groceries went sailing along the stream. The new bridge near Hanamaulu was also destroyed. Though there were heavy rainfalls at Kealia, Kilauea, and Hanalei, there was no injury done, the fury of the storm seemed to have concentrated itself on the eastern and southern sides of the island. The smaller bridges between Koloa and Lihue were washed away, as they have been on the other side of Koloa. Koloa suffered nearly as much as Lihue. The water rose in some of the private residences to a height of two or three feet, bullock carts were carried into the sea, and much damage done around the mill. The carpenter shop belonging to J. D. Neal was literally cut in two, half of it being borne to the sea, and the other half, striking against a high barrier of lumber, was left on the road. Two or three stores belonging to Portuguese and Chinamen were utterly ruined. The Lawai valley, which looked like a painting nestled as it was at the foot of the surrounding mountains, has only mud and water to show where a few days ago, a blooming vegetation gladdened the eyes of the traveler.

The oldest residents say, that though there have been many severe storm visitations to Kauai, there has never been one which in so short a time, carried such ruin with it. Fortunately the loss of life was not great. The death of one native in Koloa, and two Chinese in Kapaia, are all that have been reported. The Chinese in Kapaia lost heavily, so did also Mr. Spitz. He estimates his loss at about $2,000. The Lihue Sugar Co. lost several hundred dollars worth of sugar, which was ready for shipment for the water rose in the mill to a height of nearly four feet. Their loss of time was great, too, for there were several fissures in the ground surrounding the mill, which it was necessary to fill up, while the repairs about the old dam, and the building of the new one, will delay grinding for some time.

A Chinaman remained in his store as it was borne away, he seeing the water enter, he managed to crawl on the roof, and just before the shanty was dashed to pieces, he happened to catch on to a branch of a mango tree, and thus saved his life.

Water rose in the houses of many of the natives and other laborers to a height of two or three feet, but except a wetting and a fright no damage was done.

The employees in the mill caught the fish they were carrying around there and sent them home to their families as curios.

A native, anxious to get a good view of the situation at Nawiliwili, stood on a piece of ground close to the raging flood, and, as the water came crawling on the roof, and just before the shanty was dashed to pieces, he happened to catch on to a branch of a mango tree, and thus saved his life.
