PROGRESS.

The Life of the Land is Established in Righteousness.

HONOLULU, JUNE 7, 1894.

AT LAST!

The Senate Finishes the Hawaiian Question.

A Victory for Cleveland.

The People of Hawaii Must Rule.

(Washington, May 29.)

In the morning hour Kyle, in order to avoid further conflict over the passage of his Hawaiian resolution, agreed to waive a vote on his resolution if the vote could be secured on the Turpie resolution reported from the Committee on Foreign Relations.

Vest offered a substitute for Turpie's resolution one declaring that from the facts and papers before the Senate it would be unwise and inexpedient to consider the project of annexation; that the highest international interests require the people of the Sandwich Islands to choose their own form of Government and line of policy; and that foreign interference with affairs of these islands would be taken as an act unfriendly to the United States.

A motion by Hoar to lay Vest's amendment on the table was defeated—18 ayes, 36 noes.

The Senate did not meet on the 30th of May, it being decoration day.

On the 31st, the Senate met and a report from the committee of Foreign Affairs relating to Hawaii was presented. No action was taken. The report virtually supports the resolution of Vest.

The President now has free hands to carry out his announced policy relating to Hawaii.

WORKING FOR FREE SUGAR.

The House Likely to Break the Senate Amendment.

WASHINGTON, May 29th.—The Democrats of the Ohio delegation in the House held a meeting today, and 10 out of 11 agreed to vote against any tax on sugar when the tariff bill is referred back to the House from the Conference Committee. It is well understood that a free-sugar clause will cause the defeat of the bill, but in the opinion of Thos. Johnson, who got the delegation together, the party can better afford to go before the country without passing any bill rather than to ratify the mangled remains of the Wilson measure.

Johnson and others are busy doing missionary work in favor of free sugar which, it will be remembered, was the provision injected by the House into the Wilson bill by a vote of 158 to 38. Consequently there is a strong chance of the House refusing to concur with the Senate Amendment.

One hundred and thirty Republican votes can be counted for free sugar because it will be expected to wreck the bill. The Texas delegation is pretty well stirred up on the question, and counting its thirteen votes the 153 votes can be already seen for free sugar, with several States to hear from. 179 votes are sufficient to break the Senate Amendment.

General Hewston was walking in Gray's Inn Road, and was rudely jostled by a party of musicians. He remonstrated and the party turned on him and struck him. General Hewston carried an umbrella and used it to defend himself. The point of the umbrella entered the eye of Burton, one of his assailants, and he fell. He was taken to a hospital and there died.

Good News.

The news by the Alameda is of a most pleasing nature to the loyal citizens of Hawaii. It is evident that the p. g. has lost all its friends in Washington, except a few subsidized Senators like Hoar, Frey and Kyle. The tenor of the Vest resolution must convince every thinking man that the Democratic party approves, upholds and supports Cleveland. For international reasons the people of Hawaii consists of the Hawaiians, their foreign friends and every person who is willing to become a true, loyal citizen to his home of adoption. The majority, the overwhelming majority of that people, are composed of the men who have been true to principle, true to their oath, and true to the country which has sheltered them. To that People the United States gives its helping hand. The wrong committed to these patriotic Hawaiians will be undone. And with that object in view did a large majority of Senators, as formerly a large majority of Representatives, support the noble and courageous policy of Cleveland. The President now has the full power to act. He can, and will now carry out his avowed intentions in regard to Hawaii, and he will with an iron hand swamp and crush the self-expatriated Americans who dare, in Hawaii, to talk in the name of the Great Republic. Annexation is gone, Protectorate is gone, Citizenship is gone. All that they have worked for, these political adventurers is lost, and for the loss they can thank Stevens and Thurston. Hawaii is saved. The Hawaiian people is yet independent. The will of the nation is paramount. Let the p. g. make a constitution, pass a resolution, it ends in dissolution. The light of independence, of freedom from oligarchical tyranny from persecution, and from bigotted hatred, is throwing its rays on Hawaii nei. Cleveland will lead Hawaii on to a new path. Woe to them who obstruct and delay the march of progress. Over their corpses will the Hawaiians walk forward and accomplish their set task of living under a government approved, for need and supported by the governed.

A Proper Action.

The town was somewhat surprised a few days ago when a verdict was found in the Foster-Hayward slander case in favor of the defendant. Mr. and Miss Foster had both been known most favorably in this community and the verdict of the jury in the first moment seemed to cast reflections of an unpleasant nature on the persons in question. The jury which found in favor of Captain Hayward realized the awkward position in which they had placed both the Fosters and themselves, and they therefore addressed the following letter to Judge Whiting, which corrects any wrong view which may have been created:

Mr. E. F. Bishop as foreman of the jury writes on behalf on himself and colleagues:

"The undersigned, composing the jury that rendered a verdict for defendant in the suit of Ralph R. Foster vs. Captain H. M. Hayward on the 21st inst., deem it a matter of justice that we now make to you the following statement:

The suit was an action for defamation of character, based on the charge that Captain Hayward had made statements reflecting on the character of Miss Foster, the plaintiff's adopted daughter, and her relations with the plaintiff. The jury found that the defendant did not make the defamatory statements. That was the only question before us, and we thought we had no right to add anything else to the verdict. But we desire to hereby express our unanimous opinion that absolutely nothing appeared at the trial to show that there is or had been anything wrong in the relations between the plaintiff and his adopted daughter; on the contrary, the question was not raised at all, as both Captain Hayward and his counsel expressly stated that they raised no question as to the good character of Miss Foster."

THE CONVENTION.

Wise Men Meet THEIR DOINGS.

Wednesday, June 6. AFTERNOON SESSION.

The convention reassembled at 1:30 in committee of the whole when article 22 was taken up, relating to the qualifications of the President.

Coun. Brown moved to strike out the words "or resident therein for not less than 15 years."

Minister Damon moved to insert five years. Couns. Waterhouse and Smith favored ten years.

Coun. Young and Del. Baldwin favored 15 years residence, and the article passed as printed.

Art. 23 First President.

Del. Lyman moved that the words Sanford B. Dole be inserted in the blank (applause).

Pres. Dole thought the matter ought to go to the 3rd reading.

Del. Ables moved to make the term 4 years. Min. Smith said the matter had been anxiously considered and a great deal of prayerful thought given to the point by the executive, and the conclusion arrived at was that if the first term was made 4 years only the President should not be barred from re-election.

Del. Ables intended to move that the President be debarred from re-election for a 2nd term, but changed his mind.

Del. Robertson moved to insert the year 1802 making an 8 year term, so as to let the senators in 1801 elect the President.

Coun. Smith favored the election of a President by the people and moved that the name of S. B. Dole come before the people for their approval. This was not the proper way of electing a President.

Min. Smith said the motion just moved was out of order and asked that the first motion be put.

On the ayes and noes being called all voted to insert the name of Sanford Ballard Dole except D. B. Smith who protested that such election rested with the people, but he afterwards voted aye.

Del. Ables moved to insert 1898 instead of 1900. Del. Baldwin preferred the 8 year term, but would like to see the senate come from the people.

Min. Smith said the two questions were affiliated but not necessarily so. He considered the 6 year term best and was opposed to the first term being too short as we have had changes enough in the past.

Min. Damon believed this term of 8 years was trenching too much on the rights of the people and it was not safe, to deprive the people of their right of election so long.

Del. Ables thought that this convention ought not to lose of the fact that we are not the people. "It looks as if we are making a close corporation and the people will have nothing to say by and by."

Del. Vivas was an admirer of the personal qualities of Mr. Dole but the people will think we are getting away from them in this election of President for 8 years.

Josepa favored election of Mr. Dole for life. Has he not been the Moses which led us through the wilderness into this Canaan (room of a lighter.) But as the figures 1900 were printed he thought the least term should be eight years.

The motion to extend the Presidential term to 1902 was carried.

Article 24, Election of President.

The entire article passed with some verbal amendment necessary by the change of the term of first President to eight years.

Minister Hatch moved and carried a substitute section that "No President shall be eligible for re-election for the term following that for which he was elected."

This raised opposition from Del. Josepa who wanted a life President and from Del. Vivas who held it should be left to the people.

Minister Damon wanted a complete change every six years as otherwise free government would be in danger.

President Dole urged that the fact of a President having the opportunity of succeeding himself was not good policy and supported Minister Hatch's substitute—as above—which carried.

Article 25, Power of Appointment.

Del. Ables moved that the office of Auditor General which was created under Kalakaua as a gift for favorites be abolished.

Min. Smith defended the need of the office as a check on ministers and officials.

Del. Carter thought that the plan adopted under Kalakaua of making the appointment of the District Magistrates over to the Supreme Court a good one, and therefore removed that the words "and the District Magistrates in sec. 3 be stricken out."

After some discussion Del. Carter withdrew the amendment and the section passed as printed.

Article 26, Power of Removal, passed with a verbal amendment.

Article 27, Pardon, passed as printed.

Article 28, Convening the Legislature, passed with a verbal amendment.

Article 29, Foreign Representatives, passed as printed.

Article 30, Messages to the Legislature and Advisory Council, passed as printed.

Article 33, Martial Law, Habeas Corpus passed as printed.

Article 32, Treaties, passed as printed.

At 4 p. m. the committee rose, reported and obtained leave to sit again.

Thursday, June 7.

MORNING SESSION.

The convention met at 9:30. President Dole in the chair. After prayer by the chaplain, the secretary read the minutes which were approved.

After the minutes were read and approved the following standing committees were appointed.

Executive—Baldwin, Wilder, Kalus, Hatch, Vivas.

Judiciary—McCandless, Lyman, Robertson, Ables, Carter.

Legislative—W. O. Smith, Brown, Josepa, Waterhouse, Hitchcock.

Finance—Allen, G. N. Wilcox, Damon, Emmeluth, Eua.

On motion of Del. Robertson Art. 23 and 24 were referred to committee on Executive.

Moved by Del. Josepa that the convention adjourn on account of the good news from Washington.

Del. Rice moved that Josepa be granted leave of absence to celebrate the news.

Councilman Brown moved that both motions be laid on the table, carried.

The House went into Committee Del. Rice being called to the chair.

Art. 33 passed.

Art. 34, Reports, responsibility Powers of appointment and Removal.

Min. Smith, Del. Carter and Councilman Brown had a discussion as to the wording of sec. on the reporting of ministers to the President.

Pres. Dole did not wish to have the cabinet dependent in a vote of the legislature as in the French system, and the point in debate, the status of the cabinet in the legislature, was provided for elsewhere in the draft and would come on for discussion later.

Section 4 was amended after considerable debate.

Article 35 sects. 1 and 2 passed. Mr. Dole took occasion to talk a great deal.

Sec. 3 passed.

Sec. 4 was referred to committee.

Sec. 5 passed with an amendment.

Art. 36 after some debate passed. At 12.10 the committee rose, reported and asked leave to sit again.

The convention was adjourned till tomorrow (Friday) at 9:30.

NEW YORK, May 30.—Princess Di Galstro Colonna, her two children, two maids and a man servant sailed for Southampton today on the New York. Mr. and Mrs. Clara Sprackels were among the princess' fellow passengers.

CORRESPONDENCE.

[We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions or the utterances of our correspondents.]

EDITOR HOLONUA:

Will you oblige some of your anxious country readers by enlightening us on some vexed points, as we are not in touch with the capital and cannot understand all that is going on.

What mad lunatic wrote the new p. g. constitution, and why lock him up in the Insane Asylum where he can do no more harm?

Since the royalists outnumber the filibustering p. g. gang 100 to 1, are the Hawaiians and royalists of Honolulu such cravens as to submit without protest or resistance to such an infernal tyranny as the p. g. constitution contemplates inflicting on Hawaii? Call on the rural districts, we are all aloha aina, loyal to the ecce, and fighting mad.

Why is the Patriotic League so silent? Her Majesty the Queen and the officers of the league sent out an injunction to the people all over the islands to keep the peace, pending an answer to our appeal which was in arbitration before the government of the United States. That we must trust to American honor to undo the political crime of Stevens and restore the constitutional government which he subverted. Is it not high time this injunction was removed? Is it not now amply evident that American honor is a doubtful quantity? Do not the dishonest attitude of the American press, and the conduct of the United States Senate indicate a plot to cruelly deceive the Hawaiian people, and sell them out to their tyrannical usurpers?

Did not Minister Willis show a distinct partiality to the p. g., when he tamely left with them a mild suggestion to give up the government, which they were to answer at their leisure, while the Queen was compelled to give immediate answer to a serious question, and though her answer was politic enough since it was not in her power under the constitution either to order or to revoke punishment, and though our laws do not provide for "beheading" she was cruelly misrepresented abroad through Minister Willis' despatch and Cleveland's honorable policy checked thereby?

Does the gossip of the capital give any clue as to whether the United States representative still believes that the great p. g. men represent the "best intelligence" of the islands, and that the royalists are not to be intrusted with the welfare of the country as he intimated in one of his published despatches? Has he not yet discovered that the royalist majority include some of the leading names of the country, the peers in wealth and intelligence, and of higher rank in experience, ability and liberal ideas who enjoy the confidence of the people at large?

And what has become of the much vaunted American principles of liberty, freedom and the rights of an enlightened people? Are they only a mythical romance made for spread-eagle fourth-of-July orators? Else why do we see a cabal controlled by usurping Americans and countenanced by the diplomatic and naval representatives of the United States sitting in solemn conclave for the avowed purpose of quenching the rights and liberties and freedom of the citizen of Hawaii, and attempting to erect on them the strange anarchy of a despotic and tyrannical republic?

There is lots more that I would like to ask, but this will do for this time. Yours,

COUNTRY DISTRICT.

[We dare not answer our correspondent, question for fear of the Sedition laws which Willis' "best intelligence" have imported from Russia or Tartary. However if Country District will inquire of the mynah birds that may visit his section from Honolulu, they will probably tell him that there is rotten carrion in the capital city, and that unless it is soon decolorized with tincture of lead or Cleveland powders, Hawaii will be lost forever to health, peace and happiness. Ed.]

Hawaiian Hardware Company

The Advertiser who catches a persons eye usually wins a customer. Many different styles of advertising have been adopted and with more or less success, by the believers in the use of printers ink. The manufacturers of Pears Soap, for instance, occasionally buy paintings that have been on exhibition in the Paris Salon and have lithographs made from them for the purpose of bringing their product before the people. In addition to such side issues, Pears spends hundreds thousands of dollars annually among the newspapers and magazines. Some years ago the Agents of certain article on sale in New York made a bit in advertising by having on Broadway during business hours two fatuously dressed Negroes wearing very high collars, on the backs of which was printed "Use Smiths Pills." The idea was novel and the public caught on. Rising Sun Stove Polish has been kept before the public for years through persistent, and sometimes expensive advertising. Twenty odd years ago the manufacturers of this polish started half a dozen men across the ornament to paint signs on rocks and fences. The Aermotor Co., of Chicago have increased its sales more than five hundred per cent in two years by the use of printers ink. We believe we have been instrumental in increasing the sales of the Aermotor by keeping everlastingly at it in Hawaii.

We do not wish to say that advertising will sell any manufactured article; there is no use spending money in advertising "cheap and nasty" goods because the people will not be hoodwinked. If Haviland China was not the superior article it is, all our advertising of it would not have sold the thousands of pieces that we have. We simply call the attention of the people to it and its superior quality is apparent to the customer directly a piece of it is examined.

Printers ink has helped the sale of the James Locked Fence but it would not have done so if it had been as flimsy as the ordinary wire fence. First; the economy there is in building it recommends it to the plantation manager and then its durability clinches the sale. If the stays and washers cost as much as an ordinary redwood post our sales of the material would not have reached such enormous proportions.

Our average sale of the Fanny Iron Stove is about two a day the year round. It was not the best iron stove on the market we would not sell that many in six months. Advertising is the tip to the public the good points in the article sells it just as the good qualities of the Fischer Steel Range make it a desirable article for people who wish to economise in the use of fuel.

We buy only what has proven good after people in the United States or Europe have given it a trial; we profit by their experience if the articles are good we buy and sell them; if they are poor we steer clear of them. When we advertise an article it is to attract attention to it; the newspaper is the button we push, the salesman does the rest.

Persistent advertising coupled with the article being a superior one has sold thousands of the Frank Walcott Emory File. If it had been no better than an ordinary scythe stone we probably would not have sold twenty. When a man finds out that his table knives may be kept sharp at all times at an expense of fifty cents and a very little elbow grease he is quite willing to try the experiment.

LOCAL NOTES.

The Alameda leaves at 5 p. m.

Albert Cunha has returned and will spend his vacation here.

Nigel Jackson is on board the Wilder; he had quite a job to land.

Consul General Wilder's dispatches to Hatch ought to be bound in—call.

The S. G. Wilder and Discovery arrived this morning from San Francisco.

The Club was happy to see Starkey back this morning. He has been missed.

Dr. Day and Mr. J. L. McLean were among the kamasinas who hailed Hawaii today.

The Jane L. Sanford left at noon for San Francisco and took quite a mail from here.

The American League meets tonight and will chew the rag. No practical results. Tomorrow an open meeting.

The ladies are requested to write a short story for the Paradise of the Pacific. For God's sake make it short.

The Sun and Alliance Companies who are interested in the case had called Captain Davies as an expert on marine matters.

The gallant Captain of the Philadelphia killed his time yesterday in the convention. It is a wonder that he killed nothing else.

The Alameda had a very smooth trip and nothing of any moment was recorded on her journey. Captain Morse looks younger than ever.

The Evangelical Association still meets. The reverend gentlemen are having a convention of their own, and are raising h—eaven generally.

Captain William Davies the well-known skipper and formerly master of the Claudine was on the stand yesterday in the Waimanalo wrecking case.

Mr. & Mrs. J. O. Carter returned this morning on the Alameda. Mr. Carter has thoroughly enjoyed his trip and is not a bit down cast by the alleged good news for the p. g.

The closing exhibition of Kawaiahao Seminary will be held in Kawaiahao Church to-night, at 7:30 pm. Admission 50 cent. Tickets for sale at Lewers & Cooke, Castle & Cooke, Hawaiian News Co., Benson Smith & Co., Thrum's and Manufacture's Shoe Co.

The Reverend T. de Witt Talmage was a passenger on the Alameda. He preached this afternoon in the Central Union Church before a large audience of the fashionables. They were not quite as well dressed as the Christians are who have filled the pews of this new St. Peter.

The new building which is to be constructed by Allen & Robinson has received a set back. The government is disputing the title of some of the lands on which the building is to be erected. The agents of Mr. Allen is upholding their claim and in the meantime Tommy Lucas will be transposed into a politician again, and hang up his working man's clothes.

The Rev. T. de Witt Talmage and do. do. of the same caliber were received by Her Majesty in audience at Washington Place. The rev. gentlemen were kind enough later on to express themselves charmed and surprised with the appearance of Hawaii's Queen.

The educated (?) soul—promoters probably thought that the Queen of Hawaii resembled the portrait given of her in the "New York Sun" by the Thurston, Hyde, Bishop faction. It is to be hoped that Her Majesty was as pleasantly disappointed in the arch-foes de Witt Talmage

THE II SAFE.

A Good Meeting Assured.

The Jockey Club chooses to keep very secret in all matters relating to the races on the 11th. It is difficult to learn why the officials should take such a stand. The publication of the following entries will be appreciated by all lovers of square and honest horse-racing. There should be no family compact in this race.

The entries as far as has been learned are as follows—the numbers are according to printed programme:

- 1—Jack Atkinson, Tommy Cummins, Willie Chapman, Hy. Walker, Geo. Paris.
- 2—Leilani, Lolokulani.
- 3—Fred. Mac, Bert Lee.
- 4—Senator Stanford, Amorino.
- 5—Antonomy, Lolokulani.
- 6—Nevada, Bert Lee, Johnny Hayward?
- 7—Senator Stanford, Queen L.
- 8—Schuman's horse and Ruby Dexter's horse.
- 9—Senator Stanford, Antonomy, Kaiulani.
- 10—?

It may be remembered that Lolokulani is now called Alice H, and that Kaiulani will appear on the track as Sarah H. Corrections in the above statement will be made when the Jockey Club wakes up and decides to do an open business, without partiality to any person or paper.

Kawaiahao.

The exercise at the stone church tonight by the pupils of the Seminary should be well attended. A great entertainment is in store and all who care for the future of Hawaii should be present and help along this most worthy institution.

Mr. Wm. Boeter will go to Samoa. The Hawaiians would not join him in his scheme of eating bananas and paying no dress-maker or tailor bills. It is understood that Henry Castle will follow him shortly after the "female" franchise racket has been defeated here.
