Wright Sentenced--Boyd's Trial

B. H. Wright Appeals From Sentence of Three Years Hard Labor

Argument on the motion for a new trial of Benjamin Haywood Wright, convicted of embezzlement of public funds, took place this morning.

Judge De Bolt denied the motion and called the defendant up for sentence. Wright, in answer to the usual question, said he had nothing to say why sentence should not be pronounced upon him.

The sentence of the court was imprisonment at hard labor for the term of three years.

Exceptions having been saved all along, an appeal was noted to the Supreme Court.

Wright was released under his existing bond of $5000 pending the determination of the appeal.

In the course of proceeding this morning, affidavits of James H. Black and A. D. Bolster, counter to those of N. T. Furtado and John M. Davis already reported, were filed.

James H. Black in his affidavit, referring to the noon recess when Furtado had represented him as talking about the case in front of the Columbia saloon in Hotel street, said that after the recess of the court on Wednesday last, he went to the Hawaiian hotel in company with Abraham D. Bolster. After staying there a few moments they walked together by way of Alakea, Hotel and Bethel streets to King street, going to the First National saloon in that street for lunch and leaving there about 1 p. m. starting for the Judiciary building along King street. They looked into the stores of Lewis & Co. and Lewers & Cooke, then Black "hurried along directly to the Judiciary building."

On leaving the courthouse with Bolster in the first place, he said to Bolster that the court had instructed the jurors not to talk about the case even among themselves, and declares that with that exception no word was spoken by him about the case, "nor was any other or further reference made to it during that day or at any time."

He swears that he does not know Furtado by name and does not think he knows him even by sight. He did not meet Furtado in Hotel street between 12 and 1 o'clock of that day, or at any other time or place. Everything that Furtado in his affidavit says about him, Black denies and concludes as follows:

"And that the statements made in the said affidavit of said Furtado are absolutely and entirely false in each and every particular, unless it be true that Furtado is an attorney-at-law, and as to that your affiant has no knowledge; that my answers to the questions propounded to me by the counsel for the Territory and for the defendant Wright on my examination upon my voir dire were each and every one true; that I was absolutely unprejudiced and unbiased and had no opinion as to defendant's guilt or innocence; that I was entirely impartial and reached my verdict solely upon the evidence given in court and the instructions of the court, and not otherwise."

A. D. Bolster's affidavit corroborates Black's in every particular of their companionship at the recess in question. He declares that Black did at no time speak to anyone about the case, excepting when he told affiant of the court's instructions to the jurors not to discuss the case. Black did not say to anyone during that noon hour in front of the Columbia saloon or elsewhere the words attributed to him by Furtado, nor anything of like character or substance. Affiant is not acquainted with Furtado, but says "that said Black did not stop or speak to anyone during our walk from the Hawaiian hotel to the First National saloon, unless he might have given a good day to some acquaintance in passing."

Lahainaluna Not Available, More Bills In the House

SENATE.

Twelfth Day.

Senator McCandless presented a petition from thirteen residents praying for an extension of water mains in McCully tract.

President Crabbe, on two diverse motions of reference, reminded the Senate of his prerogative in that respect and referred the petition to the Loan Bill committee to be appointed.

The School Question.

Senator Baldwin presented a petition from the Maui Teachers' Association, praying that the school system be not changed.

Senator Dickey presented five petitions from teachers and truant officers on Hawaii and Oahu, identical with the petition from East Maui already before the senate printed, against putting schools under county supervision.

He also presented a petition from students of the Normal school with a similar prayer, based on their fear that county control would make the conditions of their chosen profession precarious.

These petitions were referred to their committee on Health and Education.

Secretary's Extra Pay.

Senator Isenberg, from the committee on Accounts, reported on Senator Woods' resolution to give the Secretary $7.50 a day extra for preparing the journals. It was found that near the close of last session the Secretary, being behindhand with his work, was allowed $7 a day extra for assistance. The committee recommended that the resolution be laid on the table to be taken up at any time deemed necessary. Signed by Senators Isenberg and C. Brown, Senator Achi declining to sign it.

Bills Tabled.

Senator Baldwin, from the Committee on Ways and Means, reported on the awa license bill, saying all licenses were covered in the County Bill and recommending that the bill be laid on the table. Adopted.

The same committee reported on Senator Achi's bill to appropriate $50,000 for fire claims payment expenses, stating that provision for such expenses was made in the Emergency Appropriation bill and recommending that the bill be laid on the table. Adopted.

Cemetery Appropriation.

Senator Kalanokalani presented a resolution to appropriate, from current fund or loan, $40,000 for the purchase of a burial ground within a limit of four miles from Honolulu, and to authorize the Superintendent of Public Works to negotiate such purchase. Referred to committee on Public Lands, Internal Improvements, etc.

The same committee received a resolution by Senator Achi for $13,000 to improve the Government road from Mollili church to Maunaloa.

Secretary's Correct Title.

Senator Isenberg presented a resolution declaring that whenever the Rules said "Clerk" the word "Secretary" should be substituted. Documents were being signed with the latter term. On Senator Achi's point of order that a day's notice was required to amend the Rules, the mover withdrew the resolution and gave notice accordingly.

Was Samuels MURDERED Last Night

Considerable mystery surrounds the disappearance of Louis Samuels, the negro cook of the schooner Forest Home, now lying in the stream. Yesterday, he was sent ashore to make some purchases for a little spread which Captain Eviston gave to some friends aboard ship last evening. When he returned, he was considerably under the influence of liquor but not so drunk that he could not do his work well.

After dinner and while the mate was below, Samuels left the schooner in the boat and later it was discovered astern of the vessel. An alarm was sounded and a search made for the missing man. His handkerchief was found in the boat and later his hat found in the water. A native has been employed all this morning diving for the body and drags have been used, but without result.

Captain Flint of the Harbor Police has arrested a negro who was the last man seen with the cook and is holding him pending investigation as to his knowledge of the cook's movements.

HAKUOLE APPOINTED

James H. Hakuole, formerly interpreter of Japanese in the Circuit Court, was yesterday commissioned by Roy H. Chamberlain to be a Deputy Collector of the Department of Internal Revenue for the District of Hawaii. Mr. Hakuole will be employed in the office and will attend to the books, act as cashier and distributor of revenue stamps and look after Japanese matters that may come within the jurisdiction of the department. Mr. Hakuole is being congratulated on all hands by his friends as the place is a very good one and his appointment shows the confidence that is reposed in him by the head of the department in Hawaii.

WATERFRONT BUZZARDS.

Like buzzards waiting for carrion, the gamblers were hanging around the quarantine wharf this morning waiting for the laborers who discharged the Coptic to get their pay. As soon as the stevedores started from the pay window they were steered to the place where the crap and Russian war games were going on and soon their money found its way to the pockets of the sharpers. A bottle of gin to make the losers feel a little better was from time to time passed around and as they won the money the gamblers departed. This state of affairs is the regular thing whenever there is pay day along the front.

OIL DOWN ROAD.

The Pacific Oil Transportation Company made its first shipment of oil down the road this morning. A whole trainload of the material, consisting of 696 barrels, was sent out. A part is for the Halawa pumping plant of the Honolulu plantation and the remainder for the Oahu pumping plant.

The Kinau with a full passenger list sailed for Hilo and way ports at noon. There was a very large crowd at the wharf to see her away.

Senate Discusses Beer, House On Health Board

SENATE. Eleventh Day.

Afternoon Session.

The retail beer license bill passed second reading after recess yesterday. This bill differs from the law of 1901, found unconstitutional by Judge Estee, in that it does not discriminate against imported beer as such. If there is any discrimination of that kind it is only against foreign beer fortified for export, which might come against the provision relative to maximum strength of beer allowed to be sold under the license.

Senator Baldwin did not intend to support a bill so loosely worded that its full scope could not be gauged by its language. He understood the intention of the introducer was that the malt liquor should not be more than 10 per cent of alcoholic strength.

It was shown that this was the percentage mentioned in the bill to license the brewing of malt liquors. A motion by Senator Achi to refer the bill to the Committee on Health and Education was rejected, and an amendment by Senator Baldwin to limit the alcoholic strength to 10 per cent was adopted.

Senator Paris moved an amendment to the section forbidding the sale of the beer to intoxicated persons and minors, so that the presence of intoxicated persons and minors should also be prohibited. Adopted.

An amendment moved by Senator McCandless, to make the penalty bond $1000 instead of $500, was voted down.

Senator McCandless moved an amendment to Section 5, making the penalty for breach of bond or license the forfeiture of the amount of the bond "in addition to any other penalty imposed by law," so that the violator should forfeit his bond and license, and besides be fined not less than $100 nor more than $500. Lost.

Senator Dickey moved to insert a section making it unlawful to sell malt liquors without a license under penalty of not less than $100.

Senator Achi, under reconsideration of Section 5, moved to strike out as surplusage the words "in addition to any other penalty imposed by law," Carried.

The bill passed as amended, to be read a third time on March 4.

Executive Messages.

A communication from Secretary Carter announced that the Governor had on February 28 signed the bills appropriating money, respectively, for the expenses of the Senate and of the House of Representatives. Accepted and filed.

Another letter from Secretary Carter asked that he be supplied with three copies of each bill and resolution introduced in the Senate as fast as printed. He also wanted the Rules of the Senate. It was voted to instruct the Secretary of the Senate to furnish the Territorial Secretary with the documents mentioned.

Secretary Carter further wrote saying he therewith sent to the Senate copies of the Laws of 1901 as requested. Ordered acknowledged with thanks.

Notices of Bills.

Senator Achi gave notice of bills relating to attorneys-at-law, amending statutes on that subject; to amend the law relating to divorce, separation and annulment of marriage; and to amend the Judiciary Act of 1892 in several particulars.

The same member introduced a bill granting a gas franchise for the island of Oahu to A. L. C. Atkinson and his associates. The bill provides for a fifty-year franchise, the price for the gas not to exceed $3 per thousand feet. The company is to pay to the Territory 2 1/2 per cent of the gross receipts, and to furnish the government 50 gas lights free of charge, to be increased each year by five. The act, to become operative, must be approved by Congress.

The following bills were given second readings and referred to committees: Exemption bill, to Ways and Means; repeal of tax on spirituous liquors, relating to compensation of pilots, to Ways and Means; to authorize construction of electric system, to Public Lands Committee, to be held until Superintendent Cooper presents his plan for building a conduit to hold all wires.

The bill providing salaries for the circuit judges was referred to the Judiciary Committee, the ester oil bill to Public Lands. Baldwin objecting to having it referred to the Ways and Means Committee, as he said he was interested, Spreckelaville plantation running over with the plant. The bills referring to assault and battery, the receipt of stolen goods and relating to larceny were referred to the Judiciary Committee. The bill repealing the stamp duty on corporation stocks went to the Ways and Means Committee.

HOUSE. Eleventh Day.

Afternoon Session.

The House was called to order at 2 P. M.

Resolution by Mr. Kallil, referred to the Public Health Committee: $68,000 for school houses, teachers' cottages, repairs and additions to school houses and teachers' cottages, etc., on Kauai.

Notices by Mr. Kaniho: An Act to amend Section 421 of the Penal Law, relating to the illegal manufacture for sale of spirituous liquors and substances; an Act to prohibit the employment of any person not a duly qualified voter of the Territory of Hawaii, as a laborer upon any public work of any kind, manner or description in the Territory of Hawaii by a public officer, servant or agent of the Territory of Hawaii or by any contractor under and with the Territory of Hawaii and to provide a penalty for the violation of such act; an Act creating the office of Transportation Commissioner, fixing his salary and defining his duties, and duties of common carriers and providing penalties for violation thereof and repealing all laws in conflict therewith.

These bills were read first time by title and referred to the Printing Committee.

Telephone 256 Postoffice Box 718 TUESDAY MARCH 3, 1903.

This is the day when strenuous life at the National Capitol is the real thing.

Delegate Wilcox's term of office ends tomorrow and Prince Kuhio's begins. For Hawaii, March 4th will mark the transition from nothing doing to something.

The Senator or Representative who can become the "Uncle Joe Cannon" of Hawaii's legislative proceedings will find a high place in the esteem of the taxpayers.

With the Fire Claims bill and a half and $85,000 for quarantine station improvement, Honolulu is in no position to complain of its treatment by this Congress.

Queen Liliuokalani's claim has met with the same fate as the Fire Claims appropriation during the long term of Congress. May it meet with relative success when the next session convenes.

Lahaina having been passed in an agricultural college possibility, nothing remains but to come back to Oahu for a location in reasonable proximity to the Federal experiment station.

Judged from the number of letters that have been made public people of the South are finding it difficult to realize that Roosevelt means what he says on the negro appointment question.

One evidence of the approaching millennium is furnished by Salvador's ability to inaugurate a President without a fight. It now remains to be seen how long Escalon can hold office without a revolution.

Now the question arises as to how the two new Delaware Senators will vote on the treaty to be passed upon as the extra session of the Senate. It is not impossible that the administration has been doing a little politics in the stronghold of Adlecks.

Americans will all be interested to learn that a modernized penal code is to be promulgated in the Philippines. The announcement sounds well but according to all reports, the change makes it easier to be a Spanish-American than a full fledged United States citizen.

"We the undersigned teachers" who believe in centralized control of the schools, have placed themselves in a position to become very much disliked by taxpayers who read the petition comments on the ability to elect a competent school board in the various counties.

It is rather surprising to note that the bill presented to cover the shortcomings of the divorce publication law provides for promulgation of notices in papers "suitable" for legal notices. What has become of the Supreme Court's interest in papers of general circulation?

Representative Vida's resolution calling for information regarding salaries and the Senate's call for information on taxable property assures a complete fund of necessary information with which to base action on the County Bill. Salaries and taxes are both items which the taxpayers want cut down to the lowest possible figures. Salaries should be cut to meet a low tax rate.

Extreme modesty causes "Citizen" to request the withholding of his name from publication. The Bulletin does not believe in this class of modesty, but accepts the communication because of the author's readiness to have his name given anyone requesting it at this office. There is no good reason for any citizen withholding his name in connection with the discussion of the County Bill or any other public question. This paper stands sponsor for its own opinions and every citizen seeking the use of its columns should be ready to stand by his own views before the public.

Great Britain's first protest against Cuban reciprocity was occasioned by a supposition that the Cuban treaty contained a secret agreement to refuse similar reciprocal trade to any West Indian colonies. This supposition was quickly cleared up by a specific denial from the United States. Now Great Britain protests on general principles and other European countries are seconding the motion. The chances are that these protests far from blocking the treaty will build up a sentiment in favor of reciprocity for no other reason than convincing Europe that we intend to manage our own business.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY GOVERNMENTS

By JNO. M. HORNER.

As but a small percentage of our people know anything about republican county governments as used in the Great Republic, I will explain a little. The Model Republic—as it is called—is organized with a general, state, county, municipal, township and school district governments, each acting in its own sphere independent of the others; governments within governments, the whole constituting a grand systematic plan of republican government machinery working harmoniously.

The general government makes no roads in the country, nor streets in the cities—except in the District of Columbia. It builds no school houses, appoints no state, county, municipal or township officials. It enacts laws to guide its own officials in the transaction of its own business, and passes on bills for introducing new states into the Union, coins money, regulates the value thereof, etc., etc.

State governments of the Model Republic make no roads in the country nor streets in the cities; they build no school houses except universities, etc., appoint no county, municipal, township or school officials. It enacts laws under which cities and towns may be incorporated, counties, townships, school and road districts organized, and boundaries established.

Although State officials and State representatives to Congress are elected by the voters residing in all the counties of that particular state for which they were elected to act, yet state officials have no jurisdiction over county business or county officials, not even over county judges.

Although county officials and county representatives to the state Legislatures are all elected by the voters of all the townships in that particular county for which they were elected to act, yet county officials have no jurisdiction or control over township business or township officials, not even over township justices or township constables, or township schools.

Although the voters of the various school districts of a township elect all township officials, justices of the peace, constables, road supervisors, etc., yet these officials as officials cannot enter a school district and dictate how its school business must be done, in the Great Republic this business is left to the people of that particular school district, which they do usually by electing three trustees from among their own people, always those who take a lively interest in schools and willing to give all necessary time to the business. If the district is a new one, the people get together and decide about building a school house, where it shall be built, of what material, how large, etc. When this is settled, the trustees go to work and build the house, supply the necessary furniture, desks, seats, blackboards, books, maps, etc., with the money contributed for the purpose by the people of that particular school district, without government, state county or township aid. The trustees hire a teacher and set the school in motion.

School districts are the smallest division of republican territory set apart for home rule, and they come close to the people; in fact, are by the people and for the people, and one of the most important divisions of republican government, as it is in these districts all the people live, all the children are born, reared, educated and their characters formed for administering and enjoying home rule—self-government, without any supervision of the general government, the state government, or the county government. So it stands: the general government, the state governments, the county governments, the municipal governments, the township governments and school district governments form one harmonious whole. No one trenches on the others' rights. Each has its different function to perform. Yet none are independent in and of themselves, only as a part of the whole. In our Model Republic the government taxes the states, the states tax the counties, the counties tax the people.

To give the people a right to serve themselves or choose their own servants, is true Republicanism and independence.

How different this from our Monarchy and our former Republic, where our laws, as then administered, said, in effect, to the people: "You have nothing to say or do about government. We will assess, collect and say where the taxes shall be used. We know how to govern. You are too ignorant. You work and pay your taxes. It is none of your business how or where the money is used."

Such in effect was our Monarchy; such was our Republic, and such, this far, has been our Territorial Administration.

We trust this will be different under county, township, school and road district government. If any township or district is not permitted to serve themselves and outside parties are sent to rule over them, just to that extent their freedom and independence is denied them, and republicanism in their case a farce.

Under our proposed bill our Territory and counties will fare tolerably well, as they will have their own legitimate business and, in addition, dominion over the township, school and road districts.

It is true, the people of this Territory may not know enough to rule as wisely in counties, cities, townships, school and road districts as the people of the Great Republic, and they will never learn if the lesson is not given them to work out.

Surely they cannot so readily learn it if it is withheld from them and the Territory continues its monarchical methods of bossing things.

A VOICE FROM KAU

Editor Evening Bulletin:—I have noticed your invitation for discussion of the County Bill and will occupy a little of your space to say a word on country control of schools. A very thorough canvas of this district has failed thus far to find one person in favor of the present system, with the exception of a few teachers, who could hardly be expected to sign away a certainty for an uncertainty.

There are but two male teachers in the district, consequently only two voters. They are both on record as against the present system and the female teachers, as Mr. Baldwin knows, are by no means a unit in favor of it.

Why, if the Board of Education is so unselfish as to only want the good of the schools (not caring for salary) do they not go out amongst the parents and prominent citizens for support?

A good institution need not fear publicity. Their petitions so far have all been by school teachers, of whom not ten per cent are voters. In asking them to sign a petition they are on the same plane as a person who would ask a hungry man to petition for food. The schools are supported by the people, and it would seem that the employer should have the right to conduct his own business, and not be controlled by his employees. The parents have no voice as to whether their children shall, or shall not, go to school, but they should have the right to protect against improper teaching, and improper system, and as to the morals, and intelligence of those to whom they are forced to send their children.

The present system is by nearly unanimous consent as bad as possible, and any change may be better. It can not be worse. The Republican party claim to be in control of the present Legislature and will be held responsible for the defeat of so popular a measure, and if anything in this world seems certain, one of them is that if our members of the Republican party allow their own selfish interests in relatives, or friend (that may be now enjoying a position with the Board of Education) to control their acts in this matter, they can hereafter give all their time to personal affairs, as the party will not have a leg to stand on, and can not elect a member outside of Honolulu.

If the Legislature has any doubt on the question why not appoint a committee in each district to take a census of opinion? We that oppose the measure court publicity. Some of our members seem to think that it was their personal magnanimity that secured them a seat in the Legislature, and that they are there for personal ends. It was however, hard work of the party leaders, and voters, that placed them there and these voters expect to be represented as a community, and expect a member to be their own strong voice, and not that of the individual who is there as the servant, not the master.

CITIZEN: Naalehu, Kau, March 1, '03.

BULLETIN PLAYS FAIR

Editor Evening Bulletin:—In a late issue of your paper I noticed an article tearing on the very selfish and personal attitude of the Advertiser on all questions political, in either garbling articles of correspondents or refusing to insert them unless they are fully endorsed by its management. It does not seem to care one jot for the Republican party or Republican principles, so far as they may be in accord with their very narrow opinions.

Majority rule is nothing to them. Your paper is admitted by a very large majority of the Republicans here to be the only fair medium for expression of their views and of Republican thought. I have been informed that while a short time since the Advertiser had by far the largest circulation here, today not a copy is taken in the Naalehu district, while nearly every one takes the Bulletin. I believe that the sense of the whole Republican party of Hawaii would show that The Bulletin is looked upon as the only true and impartial Republican sheet in Honolulu. The Advertiser's position on the school question is disgusting to all citizens, with the exception of the few school teachers who have been frightened into signing a petition.

REPUBLICAN. Kau, Hawaii, Feb. 27, '03.

TYNDALL'S DRIVE

McIvor-Tyndall drove through the streets blindfolded yesterday afternoon and went directly to the place where a flag had been hidden by a committee consisting of Prince David Kawananakoa, Dr. C. B. Cooper, Manager Wills of the Hawaiian hotel, Lieut. Harry Newton of Camp McKinley, and Mana Widemann. He was followed in his course by a large number of people in carriages, on horseback or on bicycles. The committee first went over a circuitous route, taking in Alakea, Beretania, King, Bethel and Merchant streets and made sixteen turns in order to puzzle the mind reader. The flag was hidden in a barrel at the government stables, adjoining the Judiciary building grounds. After this was done, the committee went to the hotel and got Mr. Tyndall. Then began the drive, Mr. Tyndall himself managing the horses with one hand and holding the hand of Prince David with the other. The exact route, turns and all, were gone over and the carriage finally came out on Palace Square. In less time than it takes to tell, the carriage was turned into the stables and the flag was located without any trouble whatever.

WAR CORRESPONDENT HERE.

Among the guests at the Moana hotel are Mr. and Mrs. George Lynch, who were passengers from San Francisco in the steamer Dacie which arrived last Friday. Mr. Lynch is a war correspondent of great distinction who was in the Transvaal during the recent war and who was present at the siege of Ladysmith. He has been to Honolulu twice, his first visit having been made in 1894. He is very much attached to Hawaii and during his stay in Honolulu which will last until Tuesday or Wednesday next, he will gather material for stories of the days of the Kamehamehas and before. Mr. and Mrs. Lynch are on their way to the Orient and will spend a month or so in Japan. They intend to return to their home in England by way of the Siberian railway.

RAILWAY STATION CONCERT.

The band will play the following selections at a concert to be given at the railway station, Kapalama, this evening, beginning at 7:30 o'clock:

- PART I. Overture—"French Comedy" ... Bela Waltz—"Beautiful Breeze" ... Meister Selection—"A Runaway Girl" ... Vocal Selections— (a) "Lei Poni Mol." (b) "Sweet Lei Mamo." (c) "Kuu Wehiwehi." (d) "Kokohi."

Mrs. N. Alapai. Selection—"My Old Kentucky Home" ... Dalby Intermezzo—"Hiawatha" ... Moret Waltz—"Tender Kisses" ... Waldenfel Galop—"Polichinelle" ... Fahrbach "The Star Spangled Banner."

A NEW WRINKLE.

A game recently invented in the Eastern States is becoming much in vogue at social gatherings and at many places where harmless entertainment is desired. While simple in principle it keeps the mind alert and, though children play the game going to and fro, it has been adopted by "grown-ups" and is pronounced a clever game.

The word game ought not to be used, as it is essentially only a matter of quick wits, quickly used. As an example: Let each letter of the alphabet be numbered, as A being number 1 and so on through the twenty-six letters. Let us select the following numbers: 4, 15, 21, 7, 12, 1, 19. Each number represents a letter and the mystic word it spells is the name of an article that is better known and more extensively bought than is any other of its class. We give the answer to assist in working out others. It is DOUGLAS. Incidentally, the DOUGLAS PATENT CLOSET is guaranteed against leakage and the annoyance of running water. Beth, The Plumber, handles the DOUGLAS.

JANET WALDORF COMING.

Arthur Seymour of the Janet Waldorf Dramatic and Comedy Company, is at present in Honolulu making preparations for the opening date, which will be on or about Wednesday, 11th inst. Miss Waldorf will be supported by Mr. Norval McGregor and a company of twenty-two other artists. Every success has been met with during their tour of the Orient. Miss Waldorf and her company will be seen in such popular and new plays as, "Sweet Nell of Old Drury," "The Lady of Ostend," "Megan," "The Wrong Mr. Wright," "A Royal Divorce," "Facing the Music," "Camille," "Sherlock Holmes," "Romeo and Juliet," "Twelfth Night," and other modern productions. Full particulars will be announced in an early issue.

BARKENTINE ANDROMEDA.

The Norwegian bark Andromeda is about ready to sail for the Coast under her temporary rig as a barkentine. This morning she was hauled to the quarantine wharf to be fumigated and the finishing touches are being put on her. It is possible that a British registry will be got for her to go to San Francisco with. When she is there, arrangements will be made for a permanent register for the vessel. The Andromeda was formerly under the British flag as the Kenyon, having been built at Liverpool in 1862. Her bell and the wheel still bear her old name.

The Japanese driver of dray 206 caused a smashup at the corner of King and Fort street today by driving along on the wrong side of the street. He was approaching Fort from Bethel on the mauka side of King when a light delivery wagon belonging to W. B. Allen, driven by a Jap, also, collided with the dray on turning into King from upper Fort. The rigs locked wheels and a spirited horse in the delivery wagon kicked the shafts to pieces. Nick Peterson grabbed the frightened horse and untangled the wagons. The driver of the dray was arrested.

JAPANESE SEALERS CAUGHT.

Advice by the steamer Empress of China tell of the capture of four Japanese and an American named Thompson, hunters of the Japanese sealing schooner Ishikawa Maru, at Itohen Island, the sealers being alleged to be raiders. The sealers were captured by the garrison of Cossack on the island and taken to Vladivostok where they were sentenced to fourteen months' imprisonment.

The imprisoned sealers have taken steps to protest against their confinement through the Japanese Commercial Commissioner at Vladivostok. Before his intervention the prisoners fared badly. When they landed on Robben Island they had only a Japanese flag and a piece of cloth saturated in kerosene, but no firearms.

What Sam Ladd Says

Sam Ladd has charge of the Hawaiian Electric Co.'s icehouse and Cold Storage Rooms, a very wet, damp, cold place. He orders another pair of "CAMEL SKIN" Working Shoes at $4.00, and says the last pair sold him gave more wear and general satisfaction than any shoe he had ever owned before. He has spent a large amount of money trying to get a shoe that would stand the hard wear his work demands, but now his troubles are at an end. "Camel Skin" is his future working shoe.

Row In Red Cross, Roosevelt Withdraws

There was printed January 30 an account of a protest made to Congress by General John M. Wilson, first vice-president of the American National Red Cross, and twenty-two members of last year's executive committee, including the President's sister, Mrs. Cowles, against the control of that organization by Miss Clara Barton, its president, and against the alleged arbitrary methods attempted by her in gaining and retaining power in the Red Cross. It was further charged by Wilson and others that Francis M. Atwater, business manager of the American Red Cross, got enough proxies for Miss Barton in the October election to enable her to get practically sole control of the treasury for life, and that insufficient safeguard was left.

The by-laws of the society provide that the President of the United States and the Cabinet shall act as a board of consultation and advice. When Roosevelt learned of the protest he sent a letter through Cortelyou declining to serve. This letter and the letters sent by Miss Barton to Cortelyou and the President were made public by Atwater. From this correspondence it appears that W. J. Flather, treasurer of the Red Cross, has resigned. Secretary Cortelyou's letter says he was informed that Mr. Flather resigned because he was dissatisfied. Miss Barton complies with the President's request, and takes his name off the Red Cross papers. She makes no reply to the suggestions of improper money management.

The Stetson typewriting telegraph, as used for the London police, is an apparatus for sending a message simultaneously and in typewritten characters to several places at once. The battery is a powerful magnet, and the parts are actuated by springs. The operator at one end touches the keys representing the letters and figures, at the same time turning a handle, and the message is received and printed automatically by all the recording instruments on the circuit.

TELL STORY OF MURDER.

Liverpool, Jan. 30.—The four men of the British bark Verania, brought here yesterday by the British steamer Brunswick, were remanded today on the charge of murdering Captain Shaw, two of his officers and four seamen of the Verania. Two of the prisoners have made a statement implicating themselves and the others. Another of the accused men, William Smith, an American, who shipped at a Mississippi port, declares their statements to be untrue.

Pertinent and To the Point

A Very Pertinent and Also a Reasonable Query.

WHY?

Don't the managers buy all the stock themselves. If the Phoenix is such a good money-making proposition, is what a great many people ask, when we speak of our director list and the immense financial standing profits of this company. This question has been asked us thousands of times, and when we find one interested sufficiently to ask these pertinent points we know that he wants stock. It is one question above all others that shows interest in the matter and that they are also a thinking person.

1st: We would not allow them to buy all of the stock. 2d: If our directors and other large financiers and bankers took all of the stock, who would borrow the money? Do you suppose they are in the banking business to borrow money from themselves? No.

3d: In offering the same inducements to the small shareholder as to the large and giving an equitable distribution of the profits to all, we are extending our field of operations for loans, which is the life of the business. A great many people save up for a few years until they have sufficient, with what money they obtain from us, to buy a house and lot for themselves and own it complete in a few years more.

4th: If you were a stockholder in any of the good banks in the United States would you advise a man to go to a different bank if he should ask you regarding a deposit of a loan? No. Well, then, why should not the shareholders of the Phoenix throw all their influence towards their own company, when they know that it increases their dividends, rather than throw it somewhere else?

5th: The best advertisement that we can get is the selling of this stock to such a large number of people up to a certain limit as the fact of being able to buy co-operative bank stock on instalments is something the average man seldom thinks about until it is brought to his attention by our manner and method of doing so, and he, in turn, would not throw anything in the way of someone else taking the stock. Don't you think so?

6th: The distribution of the stock of this company over such a large area of territory to such a large number of individuals in small lots. No maturities of any large amount being due at the same time (all being due at different dates) make it far safer for all concerned than if the money was placed by a small number of individuals in large lots, and such a large quantity due at one time would force or compel us to keep cash on hand which would be idle and not earning anything (something we avoid always), and would also make us not so safe as we are.

7th: The distribution of this stock over such a large area of territory gives us also a distributive class of loans, so that if dull times should come in one territory the good times in another would more than overbalance it. This keeps money from lying idle (a point we watch very closely), and at the same time prevents any quantity of property where we have loans from coming back on our hands.

8th: The demand for loans created by our large membership, secured by selling to others besides the managers is more than the money received from the monthly instalment stock. This partly explains one of the main objects in putting such an attractive proposition before the public.

There is only one way to accomplish the above results, and that is, to give each member an equal division of the profits according to amount invested. Are you satisfied with the answer? Wouldn't you like to be a partner in this financial institution with the men whose names are at the end of this article, and also know that they are managing and handling your money by the side of their own? They have been singularly successful in their lines of business, and don't you think that the judgment of competent and successful men is better than the judgment of an individual successful man (if you have not been successful, why not try some of our stock, which, in a few years, will give you a competency sufficient to place you in a better position than you are now. Class A stock, sixty cents a share, payments limited to one hundred to make $100. (Soon to be withdrawn). Another stock to take the place of this, 70 cents per share (ten different options on this class of stock). Class B, pre-paid, $60 per share, 5 per cent cash interest semi-annually may be withdrawn, if desired. If not withdrawn it is estimated that it will reach par value within five or six years. Class C, $100 per share 6 per cent payable semi-annually (same as a bond). All of the above are secured by first mortgage on improved—specie business—city and town real estate distributed over the entire Pacific Coast and Honolulu. Each mortgage that is made has a stated portion of interest and principal repaid monthly, thereby increasing the value of the original mortgage. You have a partnership, as a stockholder, in the assets of the above, and are guaranteed in addition absolutely against loss by the Reserve Fund which is now worth $155,000 and a stated portion of its earnings, also by the State law of California under which we operate, also by having these securities deposited with a reliable Trust Company, and best of all, they are non-negotiable and cannot be assigned by us.

$12.00 per month deposited for 100 months will produce $2,000.00. List of Directors, Managers and Reserve Fund Stockholders of Phoenix Savings, Building and Loan Association of California: S. Mr. Vida's Act to empower the High Sheriff, his deputy, the sheriff and deputy sheriffs of the Island of Oahu, the sheriffs and deputy sheriffs of each of the other islands, to prosecute in all criminal cases before all the district courts of the Territory of Hawaii.

Mr. Harris introduced the following resolution: Whereas, the House of Representatives of the Territory of Hawaii did on the 25th day of February, 1933, pass and adopt a resolution requesting the Board of Health members and inspectors to appear before this House and answer certain specific charges to be brought before them, and

Whereas, said Board of Health is now composed have three medical practitioners as members of said Board, and the work of the Board and of the physicians as members of said Board, would be seriously inconvenienced by said action on the part of this House, now therefore

Be it resolved that the matter to be investigated as called for by the resolution as originally brought before the House, be referred to the standing Committee on Public Health and Education, and that the clerk of this House be and is hereby instructed to notify said Board of Health of this action.

Upon the introduction of this resolution by Mr. Harris, there was a storm in the House, led by Mr. Kanoho who began by making a motion to table. However, the Republicans had made up their minds at a caucus held during the noon hour and were ready to carry the resolution through. Mr. Aylett, in supporting the resolution, said there was a great deal of sickness in the city and that it was asking too much of the three doctors of the Board of Health to present themselves before the House and spend a whole evening away from their patients.

Speaker Beckley asked for information on the matter of the change of purpose. If the physicians could not appear before the House as a whole to be investigated, on account of the great amount of sickness in the city, could they appear before the committee as had been provided for by the resolution. When the Legislature was in session, it was the supreme power. Must the committee of the House seek public servants or must they come and give their statements to the representatives of the people.

Mr. Kanoho said in his speech against the resolution that if there was to be such an investigation as had been planned, there would be a suppression of the facts. The committee would not bring in a report setting forth all the facts.

At this point, the member was called to order by the chair on the suggestion of Mr. Chillingworth. Mr. Kanoho was told to confine himself to the main issue and to refrain from personal comment. There was a long discussion and the motion to lay on the table was voted by a vote of 17 to 12, Lewis and Pulua voting with the Home Rulers to table. The resolution was next adopted by the same vote.

Two separate attempts were made to adjourn but some of the Republicans wanted to keep on working and so the motions were lost. The third attempt was successful but before putting the motion, Speaker Beckley said, while pointing to Admiral Beckley and President Crabbe, who had been invited to take seats on the platform with him, that he was glad to say the party lines had been abolished in the attempt of all hands to work for the welfare of the people. He was a Home Ruler while Admiral Beckley and Senator Crabbe were both Republicans. However, that signified nothing at the present time. The main issue was the good of the people for which all hands were working shoulder to shoulder.

California.

The traveler will wish to carry a little in this surprising State. Its characteristic scenery, the fascinations of its climate, which in turn explains the attractions of its country life, and its natural wonders, will repay a week or two of study. The journey across the continent may be made rapidly—three days' time—on the new Overland Limited with the conveniences and comforts of a high-class hotel, or more leisurely on the Sunset Limited by way of Los Angeles and New Orleans. This train is thoroughly equipped, the rails are heavy, the track oiled and dustless, and there is continuous change of scene. It is an attractive route. FIRE CLAIMS PAYMENT.

W. O. Smith cabled to Governor Dole asking how much of the million dollars for payment of fire claims should be in coin and how much in currency, and saying the bonds would be ready this week. He also stated that the Treasury department was giving further consideration to the Federal building site. The Governor replied that only coin was wanted, adding that it might be arranged to sell the bonds here. Senator Brown's depository bill assures a disposal of the bonds at par in Honolulu.

I WILL CURE YOU OF Rheumatism Else No Money is Wanted Any honest person who suffers from Rheumatism is welcome to this offer. I am a specialist in Rheumatism, and have treated more cases than any other physician, I think. For 16 years I made 2,000 experiments with different drugs, testing all known remedies while searching the world for something better. Nine years ago I found a costly chemical in Germany, which with my previous discoveries, gives me a certain cure. I don't mean that it can turn bony joints into flesh again; but it can cure the disease at any stage, completely and forever. I have done it fully 100,000 times. I know this so well that I will furnish my remedy on trial. Simply write me a postal for my book on Rheumatism, and I will mail you an order on your druggist for six bottles of Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Cure. Take it for a month at my risk. If it succeeds, the cost is only $5.50. If it fails, I will pay the druggist myself—and your mere word shall decide it. I mean that exactly. If you say the results are not what I claim, I don't expect a penny from you. I have no samples. Any mere sample that can affect chronic rheumatism must be drugged to the verge of danger. I use no such drugs, and it is folly to take them. You must get the disease out of the blood. My remedy does that, even in the most difficult, obstinate cases. It has cured the oldest cases that I ever met. And in all my experience—in all my 5,000 tests—I never found another remedy that would cure one chronic case in ten. Write me and I will send you the order. Try my remedy for a month, as I can't harm you, anyway. It falls in line. Address Dr. Shoop, Box 331, Racine, Wis. Mild cases, not chronic, are often cured by one or two bottles. At all druggists.

astigmatism? In astigmatic eyes, rays of light bearing the image of the point from whence they proceed pass through an irregularly curved cornea and consequently are focused irregularly upon the retina, unless in its effort to give good vision the ciliary muscle strains itself to overcome the irregularity. Headaches, eyeaches, etc., are often due to astigmatism and can be relieved by the application of accurately made and properly fitted glasses. Examinations free, and when glasses are needed our prices are reasonable.

SENATE.

Senator Baldwin later quoted the Organic Act where it required matters of legislation to be certified by the "Clerk." This was therefore the legal designation, and the Clerk should correct his signature to any such documents already issued. This statement was accepted as settling the question.

Notices of Bills. Senator Paris gave notice of bills as follows:

To amend the law relating to the pay of witnesses.

To encourage coffee raising.

To encourage the cultivation of pineapples.

Senator Achi gave notice of a bill to make Lahainaluna Seminary an Agricultural College.

Lahainaluna Not Eligible. Senator Cecil Brown asked if there were not conditions in the grant of Lahainaluna by the American Board of Foreign Missions to the Hawaiian Government requiring that the nature of the school could never be changed.

If such conditions were broken the land would revert to the Board of Missions.

Senator Achi promptly declared that there was nothing of the kind in the deed.

Senator Baldwin said he knew something about the matter. He believed the grant was of the nature mentioned, requiring Lahainaluna to be conducted as a sectarian school.

Under the Federal law providing aid for agricultural colleges, therefore, he did not think that Lahainaluna could be converted into such an institution.

As Senator Baldwin is a member of the Hawaiian Board affiliated with the American Board, his statement was accepted as a final disposal of Lahainaluna in the matter of an agricultural college for Federal recognition.

Looked Like Obstruction. The Senate came to a dead stop for want of material.

President Crabbe mentioned that when he had spoken to Representative Fernandez about a certain bill, he received the curt answer:

"I will give you the bill when I am ready."

Senators McCandless suggested that Home Rulers in the House were holding up Senate Bills by way of reprisals for alleged blocking of their bills by Republicans.

Senator Brown asked why the Republican majority in the House did not take the bill in question out of the hands of the Home Rulers and give it to a committee of their own.

To Investigate Accounts. Senator Paris presented a resolution that the committee on Public Expenditures be authorized to employ experts to examine the accounts of public departments.

Senator Achi claimed that the work belonged to the committee on Accounts and quoted from the Rules. His point was ridiculed by several members and when he moved an amendment to substitute "all committees," Senator Brown moved the previous question with an impatient remark about "nonsense."

"Wasting a lot of time over nothing," Senator Baldwin interjected.

The previous question carried with ten votes and the resolution was adopted.

At a little after 11 o'clock the Senate adjourned for the day.

OLD MINSTREL DEAD.

Adelson Weaver, an old-time minstrel man and vaudeville actor, in former years well known from New York to San Francisco died February 2nd in an infirmary at New Brighton, Staten Island. He was 79 years old.

Weaver belonged to the old school of comedians and was a contemporary of William Warren of the Boston Museum Company, which flourished in the '60s and '70s. He appeared in many minstrel troupes, and in 1859 produced a sketch entitled "A Young Scamp."

He played in this skit for almost twenty years. The money he had laid by for a rainy day soon vanished, and six months ago he entered the Actors' Home.

Kaniho Wants Flags. Resolution by Mr. Kaniho: Be it Resolved, That...

Draw Boyd Jury.

James H. Boyd, late Superintendent of Public Works, appeared for trial before Judge De Bolt at the opening of court at 1:30 this afternoon. He was attended by his counsel, A. G. M. Robertson and Frank E. Thompson, while the Territory was represented by former Deputy Attorney General John W. Cathcart. Both sides answered "Ready" when the case was called.

Mr. Robertson asked leave for the defendant to withdraw his plea of not guilty. He explained that this was for the purpose of removing the plea to jurisdiction made at the previous term on the ground that the court was illegally constituted by two judges holding term trials at the same time.

Mr. Cathcart had no objection and the former plea of not guilty was withdrawn.

Mr. Robertson then read a plea to the jurisdiction applicable to the present term, indicating the holding of separate jury trials by Third Judge Robinson.

Judge De Bolt overruled the plea and the defendant was called up to plead to indictment No. 1.

Mr. Boyd answered "not guilty" to the question, when the calling of a jury forthwith proceeded.

That the sum of $5,000 be placed in the Appropriation Bill for the purpose of furnishing every school room in the Territory with a 6-foot Hawaiian flag and a 6-foot American flag, the same to be kept in full view of the class during school hours.

The House bill relating to the flag of Hawaii passed second reading and was referred to the Printing Committee to be typewritten.

At 1:15 o'clock the House adjourned.

Murder of Infants On Baby Farms

The recent trial in London of two women named Sach and Walters for the murder of babies, which had ostensibly been sent to them for adoption, has laid bare the details of an individual case in a widespread system which is in constant operation in London for the destruction of infants.

As the law at present stands facilities which exist for doing to death unfortunate babies whose mothers find it worth while to get rid of them are such that even the detection and punishment of these two women will not have much effect in putting a stop to the practice. These two women will be hanged in all probability, but there are many more pursuing the same murderous calling.

It is horribly significant that while previous to the arrest of Mrs. Sach and Mrs. Walters the police in all parts of London had been finding dead babies at the rate of about 100 a year, since their nefarious baby farm was discovered there has been so marked a falling off as to compel only one inference—that a large number of these little corpses were outcasts from that fatal farm.

Edna Hopper Changes Her Race Horse Plans

The decision handed down by the General Board of Appraisers at New York regarding the ownership of thoroughbreds purchased abroad for breeding purposes in this country, has affected the racing plans of Edna Wallace Hopper to such an extent that she has been forced to postpone bringing to this country eleven royally bred dams and a stallion with which she contemplated starting a breeding farm on her ranch at San Leandro, Cal.

These were to have been shipped to this country last week and upon their arrival transferred to Mrs. Hopper and sent by her to a stock farm in New Jersey, where, as the mare are all in foal, they were to remain until the fall, when, with their foals, they were to be shipped to the ranch in California.

The decision provides that all thoroughbreds purchased in a foreign country for breeding purposes in this country must be imported in the name of the person intending to breed them in this country, otherwise all importations of thoroughbreds will be subject to a duty of 25 per cent ad valorem.

Mrs. Hopper's horses were purchased for her by Jack McDonald in his name. She will, therefore, wait until the fall before importing them in her name, and evade the duty.

Argument of the motion to advance the Summer case on the calendar still continues before the Supreme Court. J. A. Magoon, one of Sumner's counsel, is talking this afternoon.

The Supreme Court has decided the tax appeal of Assessor Pratt from the decision of the Tax Appeal Court. The assessment was $22,765, which the Tax Appeal Court reduced to $8000. The Supreme Court affirms the decision of the lower court.

Attorney General Andrews entered a nolle prosequi for Wm. Dunn, cruelty to animals, and another for Pokini, larceny second degree. Pokini was indicted for stealing half a sack of coal, valued at 25 cents, from the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company, Ltd.

"UNCONSIDERED TRIFLES." Pessimism. "The dealers say the coal supply is inexhaustible."

"Maybe; but my pocket book isn't."

Unpleasant Suggestions. "I wish," said the girl thoughtfully, "that they wouldn't use that expression 'launched upon the sea of matrimony.'"

"And why not?" asked the young man, anxiously.

"Well, you know what kind of a time I always have on a sea voyage."

The Consolations of Faith. "Auntie, you are the most charitable person I ever saw. You have some excuse for everybody."

"Mebbe I do, child, but you know I allers believed pretty firmly in Satan, and when anything happens I jest blame him instead of my poor, weak fellow-critters."

A Possibility of the Future. "Say, things seem to be going smooth up there at the Golden Gate. Even the people that St. Peter finds it necessary to send down here come along smiling."

"That's so; and yet Hades can't pose as a summer resort yet. Wonder what's happened?"

"I know," said a third fiend who joined the group. "St. Pete. has got a private secretary, and his name is Corciyou."
