PRESIDENT AND CON- GRESS.

He Will Send No Message Until
the Sherman Law is Repealed

The Hawaiian Reports and Message All
Ready to be Sent to the Senate
When Opportunity Offers.

It is practically settled that the President will offer no further business for the consideration of Congress until the proposition for the repeal of the Sherman silver purchase law shall have been disposed of. Those holding this belief are by no means few in number. They argue that the President convened Congress in extraordinary
session for the specific purpose
of repealing this statute as a condition assential to the financial well being of the country and that he will do nothing whatever that can possibly tend to embarrass the accomplishment of that end. It is feared that the introduction of new business might possibly jeopardize the almost assured success of the repeal measure and it is said to be solely with the idea of refraining
from any action that might possibly be used as an excuse for non-action on it that the President has delayed the transmission
to the Senate of the correspondence bearing on the Hawaiian question, including the voluminous reports of "Paramount Authority" Blount as to the condition of affairs in Hawaii.

POLICY OF THIS ADMINISTRATION

Although the policy of this administration on the Hawaiian problem is virtually settled, it has been scrupulously kept from the public, except in so far as may properly be inferred from the known acts of the government. The question has been before the President in one shape
or another ever since his induction in office and he has given
it thorough consideration, especially since his return from Gray
Gables. He has read Mr.
Blount's report and he has had several long personal conferences
with that gentleman, and also secretary Gresham, on the subject.

The result of these talks will be communicated to Congress in the form of a special message,
accompanied by all the correspondence, but this, it is stated,
will not be done until after the financial relief measures shall have been disposed of. The correspondence has been copied
for the benefit of the Senate and
could be transmitted tomorrow
if it were so desired. It is understood that the President's message is also prepared, and that it will go to the Senate at the first favorable opportunity.

PROGRESS.

The Life of the Land is Established in Righteousness.

HONOLULU, OCT. 3, 1893.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

The satisfaction which the annexation organs seem to gain, because as they claim the "Czar" of Russia has recognized the Provisional Government, is really amusing. If the annexation editors knew the first thing about the manner in which diplomatic business is carried out in Europe, and more especially in Russia, they would have saved their enthusiasm for some other occasion. Because they would have been aware that the letter from the Russian Foreign Office, is simply an acknowledgment of the receipt of the letter from the Hawaiian Foreign Office mailed some time during the latter part of January, and the time elapsed before the answer is comparatively short. It generally takes a year or more to finish a communication with the Foreign Office in St. Petersburg.

The word used in the Russian letter, terming Hawaii the Hawaiian Republic, is sufficient proof that the Russian Foreign Office doesn't know the first thing—nor do we believe that it cares to know—about the present situation in Hawaii. Mr. de Giers may have some faint idea of where Hawaii is, but if the form of government is republican, or imperial, or monarchical, is far beyond the reach of his knowledge, and does not command his attention or interest. In regard to the Czar, and still more the Czarina, it is well known that they emphatically and strongly discourage and object to any overthrow of monarchies. It is considered by them as by other royal persons in Europe, a very bad precedent, and a method which should be opposed in any possible form and manner. But by all means, let the cannons be fired in honor of the Czar of all the Russias. While he never will know about it, the P. G. will have the satisfaction of spending their powder and mentally shaking hands with the autocrat, whose principles and form of governing they so ably are trying to imitate. Long live the Czar and Siberia.

Several months ago Mr. Kenyon at that time editor of the HAWAIIAN HOLOMUA, was arrested on a charge of libel preferred against him by the P. G. on behalf of J. L. Stevens at that time Minister plenipotentiary of the United States to Hawaii. The alleged offense consisted in reprinting a certain editorial from an Ohio paper in which Mr. Stevens was severely criticized. The Star and the Advertiser both howled lively for the scalps of everybody connected with the HOLOMUA in their virtuous indignation because the representative of the United States had been insulted. Now for a change, we find the very same Star heaping insults on Consul General Mills in the most brazen and ungentlemanly manner, and yet the P. G. seems to be silent and indifferent in protecting the reputation and good name of the absent Consul General.

The Star speaks about Consul-General Mills in the following terms:

- (I.) He is a clerical lackey.
- (II.) He showed no sympathy while here with the American colony and if known by the company he kept, is a man of Royalist predilections.
- (III.) He has impressed the public as an anglo-maniac
- (IV.) His appointment has been welcomed by the enemies of the P. G. as one peculiarly agreeable to themselves.

We don't know what a "clerical lackey" is, but we suppose that Mr. Mills is called so, because he has held clerical positions in Washington as well as with Mr. Blount. It is probably just on that very account that he has been chosen to fill the important position to which he has been appointed, and we should consider it far more reasonable and wise to select a man who has had Mr. Mills' "clerical" experience to be Consul-General, than, as has been done before, select a dismissed Hawaiian Consul-General to become an American Consul to Hawaii.

We need not take up the cause of Consul-General Mills. Attacks like those in which the Star indulges does not hurt him. Mr. W. G. Smith is not holding such a standing in the community that he will be considered competent to criticize or injure Mr. Mills, who has made numerous staunch friends here. That Mr. Mills has reasons to cordially despise, Mr. Smith and his gang was known before he left, and he made no effort to hide his feelings. The attempt of retaliation will prove as futile as anything else undertaken by his "tired" supporters.

"The only thing that can be fairly predicated of the future is that Hawaii will remain in civilized and Christian hands and that Americans will rule it. Come what may there will be no change in that respect, for American principles and fealty and American are here to say and to control."
"Star."

May we ask if the Star proposes to rule Hawaii with a fraction of Americans here who constitute altogether 2.14 per cent of the whole population, and if such minority rule is an example of American principles? We only ask for the sake of information because American principles seem to be of one kind in America and very much of another kind when "spread-eagled" on in Hawaii.

THE SITUATION.

Not Through Advertiser Glasses.

Whenever a foreign steamer departs from here for America, the Advertiser editor is shaken out of his usual lethargy and instructed to write up "the outlook." This morning's issue is somewhat weaker and more muddled than is usually the case presumably because even Mr. Johnstone is getting tired of continually harping on the same, lies necessary to bolster up Mr. Damon and the credit of the Hawaiian treasury.

We hear every day about the great surplus of $100,000 which it is claimed the treasury can boast of. The truth is that there was a much larger sum in the treasury when the revolution took place and that the P. G. has shamefully squandered the whole amount besides every cent which it has been able to rob, steal, or borrow. There is no surplus today. The $95,000 owed by the government on the notes which were transferred by Colonel Spreckels, are overdue and remain unpaid. The cash on hand in the Postal Savings Bank is not sufficient to meet the amounts for which notice of withdrawal has been given. The minister of finance is now (in October) beginning to talk about paying bills which should have been settled in July, and he is endeavoring to get the Risdon Iron Works in San Francisco to take bonds in lieu of the money due them. The government has not been able to place its bonds in the market. Only a small block has been taken—mostly in payment of debts and when put up to public auction only realized 94 instead of being sold at par, a state of affairs never known under the monarchy. The larger receipts from the crown lands have illegally been appropriated by the government but even the big amount derived from that source has been insufficient to satisfy the calls on the treasury for the support of the military forces, special police detectives and spies. Nepotism and favoritism swindling and boodle have been the order of the day. Contracts for public supplies have not been given to the lowest bidder, but to those who belonged to the family compact and had the pull. The army has been furnished with new uniforms, accoutrements twice in eight months, the first lot being rotten and useless. The debts of the government is steadily increasing while it was necessary to make special laws to stop or at least abate the run on the Postal Savings Bank.

Speaking with eclat of the present government's finances, the Advertiser of this morning, says that the actual receipts for the month of September, were $137,932.31, and the expenditures for the same month $137,068.17. Looking over the weekly financial statements as reported in the sessions of the Councils, we find that the actual receipts for last month were $114,874.36; and the expenditures were $121,204.50, of which amount $39,678.00 are special deposits to Road and School tax account.

The Hawaiians and with them

the majority of the foreigners stand shoulder to shoulder in their fight for the preservation of Hawaii's independence and the restoration of the Hawaiian popular government—the monarchy. The news received from Washington have been of the most satisfactory nature and everything indicates the speedy solution of the present situation. The appointments of Minister Willis and Consul-General Mills have been received with high satisfaction by the Hawaiians as a sign of the final abandonment of the annexation scheme and with a corresponding dissatisfaction by the alleged Americans here who object to Willis, because he is a Southerner, and to Mills, because he is an Englishman. Trade and business are stagnating under the Provisional regime and the times are harder than ever known before in Hawaii. The unpopularity of the government is consequently being emphasized daily and its speedy collapse to make room for a popular government is hoped for and prayed for by all the well wishers of Hawaii-nei.

Ye Scribes and Pharisees, Hypocrites.

In the Gospel according to St. Luke, we are told how Christ scathingly rebuked the insolent Scribes and Pharisees, saying unto them "woe unto ye, scribes and pharisees, hypocrites." The teachings of Christ were lost upon these people who had an arrogant conceit that they were superior to the rest of their fellow men. Their character has passed down through the ages and through the nations unredeemed by the Savior's teachings, and in this nineteenth century they are the same, if not worse, than they were of old. In fair Hawaii their mantle has fallen, as it was in Judea, upon a concealed clique, who are modernly called "missionaries." But the scribes and pharisees of biblical times were holy men compared to their modern types we have in mind. Malice, deceit, treachery, vindictiveness, jealousy and black hearts are added to the conceit and hypocrisy of the ancients, and form the epitome of the modern pharisee or "missionary."

These men stalk about among us in outward seeming, gentlemen of the nineteenth century, but their hearts are veritable sinks of evil plots. The savages of "Darkest Africa" or the so called pagans of heathen lands have higher codes of honor than do our "christian" missionary. I would sooner trust my fate among the naked tribes of Zululand than to the charity or mercy of our conventionally dressed and plausible christian pharisees.

In business, politics or any of the social relations of modern life, these pharisees are veritable brigands and cut-throats, preying upon each other as well as upon all society. Religion, honor, charity and all the virtues are but stepping stones, upon which they rest to deceive or push aside their rivals in the universal scramble for wealth.

Recent events in Hawaii have brought out these missionary-pharisees in their most malignant shape. Notwithstanding, they stood on the street corners, the pulpits, as well as on the house-tops and in the American Legation and loudly asserted "I am better than those" the majority of the people trusted them not. They resorted to bribery and deception, but their plots were foiled by its own deceptive stink.

No country has been better governed, more lightly taxed, fostered and afforded more general prosperity than has Hawaii. Yet the Pharisees were discontented, because they held not the high places. The able and competent Macfarlane cabinet was unholy, because not of their tribe; the Brown-Jones affair, no better than the other, was holy because born of the Pharisee. Treason, sedition, and American dishonor were then summoned to their aid. Now the missionary pharisee revels in despotic glory, having deluded Uncle Sam, and are supported in power by a mob of armed canaille, while they play at government to the tune of Yankee doodle played upon the royal piano.

Woe unto ye scribes and pharisees, hypocrites, in that day of judgment when the rights and freedom of an intelligent people shall have been recognized by the deluded Power that has nearly been misled into committing a political crime, by your deceit and villainy.

Postal Rates to Hawaii.

By a recent notification of the Department of Communications, the postal rates to Hawaii are now the same as to the United States. The Nichi Nichi says the amount of correspondence between Japan and Hawaii is small for the number of Japanese in the islands, but thinks that the settlers there being of the poorer class, the reduction of the rates will, no doubt, prove a boon to them.

Antone Cloys who was arrested on a charge of criminal libel against Captain Ferguson and who was committed for trial to the November term of the Circuit Court has been confined in the Oahu Prison to date, being unable to furnish the requisite bail of $50. Through the request of the counsels for Captain Ferguson, Cloys has been set at liberty and allowed to go on his own recognizance. The probability is that Mr. Cloys will disappear before his case is called. The Advertiser which got him into trouble is evidently unwilling to help the man here, and seems to be satisfied by getting of its own inborn malice and unscrupulousness.

A Suicide.
The body of a dead Japanese suspended from a two by three piece of rafting between two piles of lumber, was discovered by a boy at about seven o'clock this morning, in one of the lumber yards near the Kinau wharf. Gambling is supposed to have been the cause of the act. The body was taken to the Police Station.

The Stranding of the C. A. S. S. Miowera.
The C. A. S. S. Miowera from Sydney was reported early last evening as being off the port. Those interested in her arrival and others who were on the dock watching the steamer entering the channel, noticed the lengthy stoppage of the vessel at the mouth of the entrance, wondered what the cause of it could be. No one for a moment thought that the Miowera had stranded on the reef. A native was overheard to say, "that he thought the steamer was ashore." It was not until nearly nine o'clock that the fact was known; at which time Harbor Master Fuller and Mr. E. W. Holdsworth returned from the steamer to procure the aid of the tug Eleu. At about 9:45 the tug steamed out to the scene of the disaster, and is still there. At three o'clock this morning, Messrs. Hackfeld & Co.'s steam scow towing another one with thirty-five men in charge of Capt. Jere Simonson went out to the steamer for the purpose of discharging some of the coal, so as to lighten the vessel. This morning the steamer James Makee went out to lend a helping hand. At about half past ten o'clock this forenoon, the Claudine went out to render assistance. Latest — 1:30 o'clock, the steamer Claudine and the tug Eleu are both trying to pull the Miowera off.

The James Makee has returned from the scene of the disaster. The steam scow is at the P. M. S. S. dock, discharging about 35 tons of coal. Another scow is alongside of the steamer receiving pig iron. About 150 tons of coal have been jettisoned. The steamer lies in a very dangerous location.

We hear that one of the alleged dynamite conspirator whom the P. G. failed to convict exchanged compliments with the Minister of Interior this morning on the O. S. S. Co's dock. The "conspirator" we understand asked the minister how much salvage the minister (not as minister, but as a subordinate of ex-vice-president Wilder) would demand if the Claudine should succeed in pulling the Miowera off the reef. The Minister (not as minister, but as etc.) answered that "his company" (not the P. G. but the Wilders) would not be satisfied with less than two-thirds of the stranded steamer. The "conspirator" evidently got excited over the modest proposition and the result was an altercation which at one time, we are told looked likely to be ended in a fist-cuff. It is fortunate that the government has got one "slugger" among its members—and it is fortunate for the owners of the Miowera that the Claudine didn't take her off and claimed the salvage.

Is it Herr Glade Again.
The Irrepressible Consul and P. G. Gans.
A flutter in the annexationists' camp, because the present government has received an acknowledgment from Russia of a letter eight months old.
Was the true status of the Provisional Government represented to the Emperor of Russia? If so, how came he to know of the existence of a "Hawaiian Republic?"
The clock of Hawaiian destiny has been going backward ever since the 17th of January, and will keep on going so, until a reign of despotism ceases to exist.
Certainly, it will be a great compliment. By all means hoist the Russian standard for one hour. The saluting "detail" will manage to worry the salute through in that time. Oh! its etiquette. Is Hawaii going to join the Franco-Russian alliance? Trot out the Kaimiloa!
France, Russia and Hawaii!!! Where is the German-Austrian Consul? Oh! Glade, get your gun, get your gun!

NO LIKELIHOOD OF ANNEXATION.

Persons interested in this question no longer have much hope that the Hawaiian islands will be annexed to the United States. They say that if such was the purpose of the President it would have been executed long before this and there would have been no occasion for the appointment of a new minister to Hawaii with the alleged intimation to him that he will have a full term of service. This latter impression receives strength from the fact that Mr. Willis, who has been nominated as minister to Hawaii, has been informed that there is no special occasion for his immediate presence in Honolulu and that he can take his time in arranging for his absence from the United States. He is now at his Kentucky home closing up his personal affairs. It is expected that he will return to Washington in about a week and receive his commission and his final instructions from the States Department. The probabilities are that it will be fully a month before he gets fairly started on his voyage to Honolulu.

ALL THAT CAN BE HOPED FOR.

The Hawaiian minister and the special commission charged with the negotiation of a treaty of annexation have been conspicuous by their absence from Washington within the past few months and this gives a strong air of probability to the impression that they have practically abandoned the idea of annexation. It is now freely asserted that the best they can hope for from this administration is that it will undertake to protect the present provisional government from foreign interference, but will otherwise assume no responsibility for the conduct of its affairs.—Washington Star Sept. 15.
