LANDINGS ARE DAMAGED BY REMARKABLY HIGH SEAS

The entire east end of Kauai was visited by another Kona wind with very rough seas on Friday and Saturday, and quite a little damage was done in several places.

At Nawiliwili three of the new concrete piles, put in only a few months ago by the public works department, were swept from beneath the landing. Other piles were loosened and the foundation of the wharf generally left in a more or less dangerous condition. High rollers swept over the land in the neighborhood, against and into the warehouses and under the houses along the beach.

At Ahukini the high seas swept completely over the landing, carrying off everything of a movable nature. Back of the landing the water rose high on shore and swept aside several yards of railroad track that was at least eighty feet above the sea, at normal.

All along the coast in the neighborhood of Wailua the seas came farther inshore than had been witnessed in years, and all of the settlements were washed out.

At Kealia the breakwater recently erected, extending about 200 feet into the bay, was washed away, hoisting equipment and other material on the little wharf going with it. This breakwater was constructed, possibly, of rock too small for such purposes, accounting for the complete destruction of the improvement.

West of Nawiliwili, the landing at George N. Wilcox's beach residence was swept away and will have to be rebuilt in its entirety.

Although the wind was very high throughout the two days, no damage of consequence on shore is reported. The actual destruction of property was confined to the action of the high waves.

The storm came directly from the south, and was, apparently, a season of the kona weather which has prevailed for several weeks.

GUARD OFFICERS COMING TO KAUAI

Kauai will see three of the leading officers of the National Guard of Hawaii in the very near future—probably from Wednesday to Saturday of next week. Brigadier-General Samuel I. Johnson has written to Major Broadbent about the matter. He concludes his letter as follows:

"I am very glad to be able to announce that Col. Baldwin and Captain Penhallow, regimental quartermaster, will accompany me on the coming trip. The former will, I think, wish to inspect the six companies and to meet the officers."

Colonel Baldwin, it may be explained for the benefit of those outside of the Guard, is commander of the Third Regiment, of which the Kauai companies are a part. He is the plantation man of Maui.

General Johnson has been informed that it will be difficult to get all the companies together for battalion maneuvers, so that the companies will likely be visited on their own ground and inspected.

The evening before the visitors depart they will be given a "blow-out" by the Kauai officers at one of the hotels.

William Wolters III

Manager Wolters, of Hanamaulu plantation, left Saturday night for Honolulu to see his half brother, William Wolters, who is quite ill in a hospital in that city.

DIED

RAHE—At the Queen's Hospital, Honolulu, December 30, 1915, Mrs. Emma Blake Rahe, of 1612 Weaver Lane, off 612 South Beretania street, a native of Koloa, Kauai, forty-seven years, one month and seventeen days old.

In the matter of D. Wm. Dean against Mrs. Dean, a suit for divorce on the ground of desertion, Judge Dickey last Wednesday granted the petition and also gave the custody of the child to the petitioner. The child is with her mother in California.

NEWS OF DEATH OF MRS. M. CHRIST

News was received on Friday last of the death in Tacoma, Washington, of Mrs. Margaret Christ, formerly nurse in Lihue Hospital from 1902 to 1913, under the incumbencies of Doctors Watt, Wilkinson, and Putnam. She will be remembered by her friends for her faithfulness in the discharge of her duties in the pioneer days of the hospital when its facilities were not as adequate as at present.

Later, the strenuousness of the work told on her health, and she was forced to give up her work and leave for the coast in a vain attempt to recover her strength. Her friends feel that had she left earlier she might have been spared for many more years of service in a less difficult position; but it was very hard for her to tear herself away from Lihue, which she had come to look upon as home, and from the many friends she had made here.

She will be sincerely mourned by all who knew her intimately and who appreciated her sterling qualities.

HILO COMMENT.

It will be interesting to hear what kind of a sentence the Lihue plantation bookkeeper will get for his little seven years campaign of stealing.

Major Surgeon F. L. Putman, assisted by Lieutenant Dunn, of Makaweli, will examine the men of the National Guard on Kauai this week with a view to perfecting health certificates.

Hilonian's Big Cargo

The Matson steamship Hilonian arrived at Port Allen early yesterday morning from Honolulu and the Coast, bringing 2,000 tons of freight for dealers in that neighborhood, and about three days mail for all Kauai points. She will get away tomorrow afternoon for Kahului, taking 1,000 bags of sugar, 5,000 cases of pineapples and 200 empty drums.

Special Auditor Here

R. Clement Walker, special auditor of the Audit Company of Hawaii, arrived last week from Honolulu to check the accounts of H. A. Reichelt, time-keeper of the Lihue Plantation Company, who is charged with misappropriating a large amount of the funds of the company.

The engagement of Mr. Walker, by the way, was announced a few days ago to Miss Margaret Waterhouse, sister of Mrs. Charles Wilcox, of Lihue, and Mrs. George Isenberg.

Captain Biehl Cleared

A board of inquiry on the wrecking of the bark Ivanhoe at Port Allen Christmas night completed its labors at Honolulu last Friday, clearing Captain Biehl of any blame for the disaster. F. L. Waldron, consul for Chile, presided at the hearings, being assisted by Pilots John R. Macaulay and John F. Haglund. The board decided that the storm came up so suddenly that the bark had no time to change her moorings, even if that had been desirable; and that the course of the captain throughout was proper.

LITERARY FOLK ENJOY PROGRAM

The January meeting of the Waimea Literary Society was held at Hoes, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eric Knudsen, Friday evening. Prof. Ideler, violinist of Oahu College, proved himself not only master of technique, but what is much more a man of rare musical soul.

He held his audience spellbound with his heart searching glorious music of the masters ancient and modern, and Miss Smith won the hearts of all by her sympathetic accompaniments.

The enthusiasm of the audience lost all bounds when their old favorites greeted them through the mastery of these two artists and the breathless silence during the music was followed by loud storms of applause.

Mr. Millikin delighted the audience by his splendid reading of a most interesting paper written by Prof. L. W. Hart, of Kekupua, entitled "Reminiscences of an Amateur Musician."

Refreshments were served after program and dancing followed.

The Professor was the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Eric Knudsen while on Kauai, his entertainers showing him the rough road to Mana as well the sights of Waimea canyon. At the end of the Mana slough, however, an elegant small dinner was given by Mrs. Danford.

Lihue Union Church

Owing to my absence in Honolulu attending the regular quarterly meeting of the Hawaiian Board committee of ways and means, the usual morning service will be omitted, and there will be an Evangelistic song service in its place, in which a number of very attractive, new songs will be rendered. Every one is cordially invited to come.

J. M. LYDGATE

Superintendent Kinney, of the Department of Education, will be expected to arrive on Kauai tomorrow. He will land at the Waimea end of the island and will visit all of the schools.

WILL ORGANIZE A Y. M. C. A. ON KAUAI

Honolulu Jan. 10.—Lloyd R. Killam secretary in charge of the Y. M. C. A. branch organizations, will leave Honolulu for Lihue today to confer with the local leaders about the possibility of organizing a Y. M. C. A. for the island of Kauai.

He goes at the invitation of Kauai people and is not being sent by the Honolulu association. In discussing the question Mr. Killam made the following statement:

"Interest on the part of Honolulu association in organizing an association for Kauai began last spring when we received a letter from some young men at Lihue saying that they were organizing an association and wanted our help. We sent them suggestions and when they heard that I was going over to the Civic Convention they wrote and asked that I talk with them about their future plans."

KOREAN SUICIDES

A Korean named Kim Seung Chil, aged 32, married, working for Chas. A. Rice, drank ant poison a few days ago and died yesterday morning in his house near Hamano's mauka store.

Excise Tax On Sugar

On December 13 Senator Gore, of Oklahoma, introduced in the upper house of Congress a request for certain information. The questions appeared innocent enough, but behind them could plainly be seen the hand of the Sugar Trust and the influences which would nullify the benefits of a protective tariff by levying a tax on sugar production. On another page of this issue will be found the request of Senator Gore and the discussion it provoked, as they appear in the Congressional Record.

We do not believe that any such proposition has a chance of real consequence in Congress, but the danger lies in the fact that the bait is of such a character as will appeal to such Congressmen as have in mind only the necessity of increasing revenues for the immediate future, and feel no personal interest in the safety of the sugar industry. On the face of it it will look to them like a plan whereby two dollars may be garnered into the national treasury where only one dollar was received before; and the effect upon the goose that lays the golden eggs may not be generally thought of.

It is inconceivable, however, that any of the large number of Congressmen who toured the beet fields of the west and the sugar plantations of Hawaii last Spring will be caught napping on this thing. They will undoubtedly see at a glance that, insofar as the sugar growers are concerned, it will be a case of swapping a good dollar for a speculative dollar, and that the industry which needs assistance would be worse off than ever.

America has had an expensive lesson in the past year and a half in regard to sugar, and one would think that by this time the eyes of the people of the country would be thoroughly opened to the vital importance of fostering and building up the sugar industry to the point that the United States may not be at the mercy of other countries. The only way to accomplish that important end is to place a straight duty on sugar and keep it there until such time as America grows enough sugar for her own use. Then, and not until then, can the United States afford to talk about excise taxes on production, for any such scheme means plainly and simply the gradual destruction of the home industry and the imposition of continued high prices upon future consumers.

Japanese Mission Work

The effort about to be put forward to supply a new and larger Japanese mission church in Lihue, together with additional educational advantages, is to be commended and we have every reason to believe that it will be heartily supported. All work along this line is good; and, owing to certain peculiar conditions in the country districts, is of special importance.

The work of the mission organizations among the Japanese of Hawaii in the past has been incalculably beneficial, and the layman who has taken the time and trouble to figure it out has probably reached the conclusion that it should be carried on on a much larger scale. While the work has been vigorously prosecuted and results have been tangible at every hand, it has really been carried on in a small way when the extent and density of the field are taken into account. We would like to see the effort doubled—yea, trebled—and extended fully and energetically into all the highways and byways of the Islands.

We have the Japanese with us, and practically all of them will stay with us. Their children will certainly remain, and will grow up to be American men and women.

It is vital to the interests of the Islands that these men and women of the future be equipped with sterling Christian characters, with Christian ideals, and patriotism like unto our own. This should be done in the towns where they live and the time is—right now. The enlightened people of the Islands today are and will be responsible in a large measure for the characters developed by the children of oriental parentage growing up around us. That responsibility cannot be wisely shirked. For these reasons we feel strongly favorable to the missionary effort in the direction of improved and larger facilities for carrying on this work.

The Dance Craze On Kauai

"Oh, I am so tired of dances that I wish they would never have another! But what else is there to do?"

Thus mused a young lady of one of our Kauai towns a few evenings ago. Even the extraordinary features of the Christmas and New Year seasons had not checked in the slightest the dance music which had held a leading place in our community life for a year, and the young lady in question looked out upon another year to see only a repetition of the same—ad infinitum (and, apparently, ad nauseum).

We are not going to preach a sermon against dancing. That pastime has its uses—like horseback riding, swimming, croquet, the measles and so on. But anything can be overdone, and this dance proposition on Kauai, without variation, has about run its course for all practical purposes.

But (as the young lady aptly inquires) "What else is there to do?" It is quite true that the opportunities for diversification in amusements are limited. At the same time there are other things, although effort and ingenuity will be necessary to develop them. We have the ingenuity in plenty in our social clubs, and if it could be gotten together, through joint committees, perhaps, a diversified program to thoroughly meet the situation might easily be shaped out for months ahead.

Let the next dance be something else, and the dance after that entirely different.

The Case Of Garbe.

We hear little of it in these Islands, but the case of the removal of Purser Wilhelm Garbe by the French from the American steamer Borinquen is exciting a great deal of interest in the eastern part of the United States, and even some of the big conservative papers are demanding that France be called sharply to account in the matter. Garbe was born in Germany, but had taken out his first papers in the United States.

The papers dwell a good deal on the partial American status of the man's citizenship, but add, in effect, that, no matter what his citizenship or nativity, a passenger or a sailor on an American ship, who is not employed in the military service of a belligerent, enjoys the protection of the American flag and cannot legally be removed from an American ship by the armed forces of another belligerent. They characterize the act of the French as high-handed and illegal, and demand that the United States government call France severely to account.

It is difficult to see how, in the light of representations made to Germany and other belligerents on similar accounts, the United States government can refrain from demanding and securing complete satisfaction from France and a guarantee that the outrage will not be repeated. It would be a departure from established policy if that is not done—something which is not to be thought of at this time when the importance of treating all belligerents alike is so manifest.

WITH GENERAL JOHNSON, Colonel Baldwin, Captain Penhallow and perhaps other prominent officers of the National Guard here in a bunch next week, Kauai will be given a taste of real military activity. We hope that all of our newly organized companies will bestir themselves and make a good showing.

THE NEW KING of China has changed his name from Yuan Shih Kai to Hung Hin. If the revolutionists get hold of him there will probably be "more truth than poetry" in the word "Hung."

THAT NEW Waimea wharf is a long time coming. Hadn't Mr. Superintendent Forbes better send someone up here to "investigate" it again?

KAUAI Y. M. C. A.

ing with them and found that they had eighteen young men and boys as members and that all they lacked was some one to help them.

"During my trip to the States last summer I made a definite study of the methods of Rural Y. M. C. A. work. I had a conference with A. E. Roberts of New York the National Secretary in charge of this department. He gave encouragement to the plan of extending the work to the islands. With these things in mind I went to the Civic Convention at Lihue in September. I had thought that possibly I would mention something about the work in my talk before the convention but T. Brandt of Waimea appeared on the program just before I did and he made the statement that one of the great needs of Kauai was that Y. M. C. A. work be done. I talked with Mr. Brandt and told him that we would be glad to help in every possible way the carrying out of his plan. Since that time I have had some correspondence with Mr. Brandt and Mr. Lydgate and recently went over the situation with the latter while he was in Honolulu.

"The present trip is the result of that talk. He asked me to go over for a few days and with him investigate the situation. In case an organization is formed on Kauai it will have no official connection with the Honolulu organization. We are merely offering our services and whatever information we may have to help the people of Kauai get the work started. The work there will be directed by a board of directors of business men just as the Honolulu association is.

"We will however keep in close touch with them in an advisory way and help make the work a success. The plans in brief are these: If after investigation it is evident that Y. M. C. A. work is adapted to the needs of Kauai the local men will go over the situation with the business men and secure sufficient money to pay the salary of an American secretary for the island. This man's work would be entirely without equipment by using such place as are already built such as churches, schools, and plantation club houses. He would carry on the regular Y. M. C. A. activities adapting them to meet the conditions of each place.

"The great feature of the rural Y. M. C. A. work is that trained personality is more important than equipment. A man who knows how can make any sort of a place be an aid in character building while equipment with out proper leadership often does more harm than good. He would work in closest cooperation with all of the Kauai organizations. The recent organization of the National Guard and the proposed organization of the Boy Scouts will be a great help in his work. He will work through those organizations rather than form new ones to compete with them."

CLOVEN HOOF OF THE EXCISE TAX

The threatened proposal of a tax on sugar production made its appearance in the United States Senate on December 16, when Senator Gore, under a resolution calling for certain information, uncovered the designs of a certain element in Congress. The Congressional Record gives the following account of the proceedings at that juncture:

Sources of Revenue

The vice president. The Chair lays before the Senate a resolution coming over from a preceding day which will be read.

The Secretary read Senate resolution 21, submitted by Mr. Gore on the 13th instant, as follows:

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby directed to submit to the Senate an estimate of the probable revenue to be derived from the following duties and excise taxes, to wit:

First. A duty of 10 cents per pound on tea.

Second. A duty of 1.5 cents per pound on sugar.

Third. An excise tax of 1.2 cents per pound on sugar produced in the United States and its island possessions, to be paid at the factory or refinery, a portion of the latter tax equal to seven-tenths of 1 cent per pound to be suspended by presidential proclamation upon the signing of a protocol looking to the establishment of peace among the nations of Europe now at war.

Fourth. An excise tax of 25 cents per horsepower on the production of automobiles, to be paid by the manufacturer, such tax to be suspended by presidential proclamation at the end of six months after the signing of a protocol looking to the establishment of peace among the nations of Europe now at war.

Mr. Gore. Mr. President, the resolution contains several clauses that are not essential to securing the information. They were simply included in order to indicate a policy. I therefore ask leave to perfect the resolution by offering the following substitute.

The Vice President. The proposed substitute will be read.

The Secretary read as follows:

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Treasury is directed to submit to the Senate an estimate of the probable revenue to be derived from the following duties and excise taxes, to wit:

First. A duty of 10 cents per pound on tea.

Second. A duty of 1 1/2 cents per pound on sugar.

Third. An excise tax of 1 cent per pound on sugar produced in the United States and its island possessions.

Fourth. An excise tax of 25 cents per horsepower on the production of automobiles, to be paid by the manufacturer.

Mr. Martine of New Jersey. Do I understand that this is simply a matter of inquiry?

Mr. Gore. Yes, sir.

Mr. Martine of New Jersey. It is not an effort to enact it into law?

Mr. Gore. It is not.

Mr. Martine of New Jersey. I will say to the Senator that I would be utterly opposed to increasing the duty on tea. I am opposed to doing that, and I think I can say further that I shall be opposed to burdening sugar longer.

Mr. Gore. I simply offer the resolution for information.

The Vice President. The question is on agreeing to the substitute submitted by the Senator from Oklahoma.

Mr. Penrose. Would it delay this matter unduly if it was referred to the Committee on Finance?

Mr. Gore. It would require it to go over until after the holidays. I will say to the Senator that, as he knows, it is not customary to refer resolutions which simply call for information. This resolution is limited to that purpose alone.

Mr. Penrose. I think, Mr. Presi-

NEEDS OF LIHUE JAPANESE CHURCH

Rev. Frank Scudder, who was recently here on that business, has reduced to writing his views in regard to the need of improvements to the Japanese church in Lihue. He says:

The Hawaiian Board is carrying on missionary work among Japanese in 21 of our Islands communities, from which the work radiates out in various directions. At each of these strategic centers it is important to have good equipment. During the past eight years, for such equipment, the Japanese have raised by special subscription and by the kind assistance of many friends no less than $67,281.00, so that now all but two of these 21 centers are fairly well provided for. But for Lihue's equipment during these years no appeal has been made, and in no other place is the work so seriously handicapped in every part of its activity.

This is not through any negligence on the part of the Lihue people, for they have always generously responded to help the work in other places, and have won the gratitude of all. The reason Lihue is behind in equipment is because, previous to three years ago, the time of need had not arrived, and when at that time we made a move towards securing a building, we desisted in deference to the advice of those who were anxious over the financial situation. During these three years of waiting the need has grown more and more insistent.

What is clearly required may be outlined as follows:

(1) The present building should be made more churchly in appearance and be used only for services of a religious character.

(2) Another building is needed to house the kindergarten of 50 children and to be used also for Sunday School, for a night school, and for occasional large meetings.

(3) A dormitory in two parts is required, where school boys and girls who have no proper home care can come to live under the supervision of the minister and his wife, paying of course a reasonable price for room and board, the profit, if any, being devoted towards the support of the church. The minister will live in this building. This kind of work is proving valuable in all the islands, and has already been begun, under great disadvantages, but with marked success, in Lihue. Its need has been demonstrated.

These changes I regard as of the greatest importance. Mr. W. H. Rice, Sr. has kindly promised to deed free to the church a suitable lot for the purpose. For the buildings as above outlined $4000 is needed, and for furnishings and road construction another thousand should be provided, making a total of $5000. Of this I believe the Japanese can contribute $1000. They have pledged themselves to raise that amount and will endeavor to do more. I heartily commend this work to the Lihue community, and will sincerely appreciate any assistance cheerfully given.

dent, it is usual. It certainly is an excellent custom to be followed anyhow, to refer a resolution of inquiry to a committee so as to prevent the introduction of idle, impertinent, and useless resolutions of inquiry. I do not mean for a moment to say that this resolution comes within that description, but being firmly convinced that it is innocuous I shall not make any objection to it.

The Vice President. The question is on agreeing to the substitute. It will be agreed to without objection. The question is on agreeing to the resolution as amended.

The resolution as amended was agreed.

The Vice President. The morning is closed.

People who wait until they can save without effort rarely begin at all!

NEW PENSION LAW FOR EDUCATORS

Superintendent Kinney, of the Department of Education, has prepared the following brief outline of the new pension system for school teachers, which will shortly go into effect:

"Any teacher now in the service of the department can become an applicant by paying one per cent a year of her salary, payable in two semi-annual installments of one-half per cent each, provided however, that she must become an applicant before July 1, 1916. If she desires to enter later than that date she cannot be given credit for service rendered in the department previous to the date of entrance.

"The department may retire a teacher who has served in the schools of the Territory twenty-five years, of which twenty must have been spent in the public schools.

"Any teacher may retire voluntarily who has served thirty years in the schools of the Territory or in the United States, provided twenty years have been spent in the public schools of the Territory.

Funds To Be Secured

"The funds from which the pensions are to be paid will be secured as follows:

"Two and one-half per cent of the school tax will be set aside for this purpose. The total school tax in 1914 was about $120,000.

"Assuming that the tax will be about the same this year, the amount available for the pension fund will be $3000.

"Approximately 250 teachers are taking advantage of the pension act, while the average pay of teachers in this Territory is $903 a year. It is safe to assume that the salaries of the applicants, who are most of them teachers who have been in the service for a considerable length of time, run higher than this amount, say $1000 a year. This will make the annual contribution from the teachers amount to $2500.

Contribution By Teachers

"The act also provides that a teacher who becomes a pensioner must have contributed an account equal to twenty per cent of her salary per annum at the time of her retirement.

"If we take the ten oldest teachers in the service and their salaries as an example, we find that, if these teachers should all retire on July 1, 1916, the twenty per cent contributed by them would be $2500.

"This would give a total to start with of $8000.

"The objection has been raised in some quarters that the maximum pension of $400 is an amount which the recipient cannot live on. As a matter of fact, the legislature did not intend it to answer that purpose, but it did intend to provide an amount which would be of material assistance when taken together with such other savings as the teacher might have accumulated.

Teachers Not Improvident

"Teachers are, of course, not regarded as being more improvident than other people. It is presumed that they make as wise provision for old age as do others. As a matter of fact, $400 a year is equal to the annual interest on $10,000 at savings bank rates; and a prominent banker informed me the other day that ordinarily the premium on an endowment policy, paying $400 a year after twenty-five years, would cost about $125 a year, or a total, after twenty-five years, of $1975 and in this case the amount paid in is lost if the policy holder dies or gives up the proposition, whereas in the case of the teacher who dies or changes her mind, one-half of the sum is refunded to her heirs. However, I am not here to defend or criticize the act but to explain it and to answer questions which you may make concerning it to the best of my ability.

Must Apply Before May

"In the meantime, it is my intention to ask the commissioners to consider several features in connection with the Act. I shall probably propose that those who wish to retire and to have their pension begin in July, must make an application to this effect in time to allow its submission to the May meeting of the commissioners, and it probably will be found advantageous, in order to avoid complications, to have the May meeting of each year set aside as the meeting at which such matters are decided upon. It will also be necessary to make arrangements for blanks to be furnished the applicants, on which they can furnish the necessary data relative to when and where they taught, etc."

JUDGE DOLE SUSTAINED

Washington, D. C., Dec. 20;—The United States Supreme Court today affirmed a decision of the Supreme Court of Hawaii in the case of the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company, Limited, plaintiff in error, versus J. J. Byrne and Daniel Kaleiki. Byrne brought suit in the local court against Kaleiki and served the Navigation Company with granishee summons in accordance with local statutes. Answering, the Company set up that Kaleiki was hired directly by it (not through a shipping commissioner) as a mate on the "Claudine" plying only in inter-island coast trade, and asked discharge because of the exemption from the attachment of the seaman's wages by Sec. 4536, United States Revised Statutes. The trial court held that subsequent federal legislation excluded seamen engaged in such coastwise trade from the exemption and rendered judgment against both Kaleiki and the Inter-Island Company. This action was affirmed by the Supreme Court of the Territory, which, in turn was affirmed by today's decision of the United States Supreme Court.

CRISCO

For Frying—For Shortening

—For Cake Making

Frying

There is no smoke nor odor. Fried foods are free from the taste of grease. They now are tasty and crisp. They are made more digestible, for Crisco is all vegetable. The same Crisco can be used to fry fish, onions, doughnuts, etc., merely by straining out the food particles after each frying.

Shortening

Crisco gives pastry a new flakiness and digestibility. Crisco always is of the same freshness and consistency. It's uniform quality makes for uniform results.

Cake Making

Crisco gives richness at smaller cost. It brings cake-making back to popularity. Butter bills are reduced and cakes stay fresh and moist longer.
