MORTGAGE MUST HOLD

THE HAWAIIAN LAW FOR THIRTY YEARS

S. C. ALLEN WINS KAKAOKO SUIT—CHIEF JUSTICE FREAR RECALLS AN ORDER.

Another Supreme Court decision has been filed in the matter of property at Kakaoko over which there was physical warfare. It is unanimous and written by Justice Perry. Mrs. Koaia Kalkainahaole, administratrix of her dead husband's estate, appealed from the decree of a Circuit Judge dismissing her equity suit for an injunction to restrain Samuel C. Allen from foreclosing a mortgage. The ground of her suit was that the mortgage did not present his claim within six months of the statutory notice.

The Supreme Court affirms the decree as to the main issue, but reverses the order it contained requiring the complainant to pay an attorney's fee of $50. There was no evidence to establish the amount of fee that should have been paid. The cause is remanded to the Circuit Judge for such further proceedings as may be proper in conformity with the opinion.

A decision of the Supreme Court in 1872, case of James Campbell et al. vs. Kamaloipili et al., is quoted which says that the statutory notice only refers to claims secured by mortgage and not to the mortgage itself. The opinion says:

"Counsel for the complainant recognizes the applicability of that decision, but contends that it is erroneous and asks that it be overruled. The law as laid down in that case has been a rule of property here for thirty years and is in accordance with the preponderance of authority elsewhere. It is unnecessary to set forth the various reasons which have been stated in support of the rule. No sufficient ground has been shown for overruling the decision."

The law of the present case is epitomized in the syllabus of opinion thus:

"A mortgage has his remedy against the land by foreclosure, even though he has failed to present his claim to the administrator of the deceased mortgagor within the time prescribed by section 1525 of the Civil Laws."

"A court of law will not advise an administrator upon simple questions of law about which he should have consulted an attorney."

The last paragraph refers to a series of questions put to the court below in Mrs. Kalkainahaole's bill in equity.

C. W. Ashford for complainant; Kinney, Ballou & McClanahan for respondent.

The Orpheum Co. by its attorney petitioned for a rehearing of its writ of error case against W. W. Dimond & Co. on the ground that the Supreme Court misapplied its Rule No. 2 in deciding the case. Chief Justice Frear has made an order recalling the remittitur of the court on the 13th inst, which sent the case back to the Circuit Court. This order suspends the judgment of the Circuit Court in favor of the Dimond against the Orpheum corporation until the further order of the Supreme Court. The motion for rehearing was presented by C. W. Ashford, attorney for the Orpheum Co.

HAWAIIAN WOODS

FINE COLLECTION IS BEING ASSEMBLED

WORK OF ST. LOUIS AND OSAKI FAIR COMMITTEES IS PROGRESSING WELL—LEGISLATURE.

The sub-committee of the St. Louis World's Fair Executive Committee of this city, having in charge the department of forestry and agriculture have been hard at work, and their labors are beginning to tell. W. W. Harris of that committee has been gathering together samples of Hawaiian woods for exhibition at St. Louis and Osaiki and thus far has met with good success, having got thirty-six pieces, many of which are very rare and hard to get. A home-show of these woods will be given when they are finished, at the Stangenwald building, and persons having good samples are requested to communicate with Mr. Harris regarding the probability of their loaning same.

About sixty days remain in which the Hawaiian exhibit is to be completed, and so far the following woods have been received: Na-u, Kawau, Kamani, Olapa, Neneleau, Papaohole, 'Alana, Ohia, Koa, Opiko, Koa (curly), Pua, Kopiko-kea, Kopiko-ula, Aalii, Hooel, Ahakea, Iliahi (old), Iliahi (young), Naeo, Kauiia, Kalea, Koaia, Mana, Milo, Mamane, Kou, Heae, Olapa or Mahu, Wilowili, and Lumahal.

The work of selecting a commissioner for the exposition at St. Louis and the matter of finances will be left to the Legislature, which meets in February. It is estimated that fifty thousand dollars will be necessary to carry out the plans of the committee as to building, exhibit, and the proper placing before the world of Hawaii and Hawaiian life and industry.

The whole matter will begin to receive very serious consideration soon after the holidays, so that this Territory may take its place among the other States and Territories and make a showing creditable to the wealth and standing of the islands.

Judge De Bolt Presents Compliments to Jury and Bar.

After the criminal business reported below was concluded, Judge De Bolt discharged the jurors for the term. He took occasion to thank them in complimentary remarks for their services. E. A. Douthitt, the prosecuting attorney, and members of the bar generally also received high commendation from the Judge.

Eugene P. Sullivan, on behalf of the jurors, made a neat speech in reply. Mr. Douthitt and H. W. Robinson fung back a few bouquets at the court.

All of the remaining criminal cases were continued for the term. This puts the public embezzlement cases and the case of arson against Nigel Jackson over until February.

Judge De Bolt is hearing divorce cases for the rest of the day, last of the term.

Gregorio Abile and Eliza Rosallo, the Porto Rican man and woman whose trial for robbing a Japanese began yesterday, were found guilty by the jury at 11:25 this forenoon. Defendants had nothing to say why they should not be sentenced, and Judge De Bolt gave them each a year at hard labor with payment of costs remitted. They had despoiled the Japanese of $150, most of which was found in the man's boot when arrested.

Matnalu, indicted for embezzling two feather leis of the total value of $30 from Minnie Mouritz Johnson, was discharged under a nolle prosequi requested by Mr. Douthitt for the Territory.

CASES NOT REACHED - CONTINUED FOR TERM

PORTO RICAN MAN AND WOMAN THIEVES ARE CONVICTED AND SENTENCED TO ONE YEAR.

HILO FEDERAL JURY NAMES OF TALESMEN GOING TO BIG ISLAND

Cockett, Honolulu; E. C. Bond, Kohala, Hawaii.

Quite likely when trials come on talesmen will have to be summoned from the body of the people in and about Hilo.

KULIA BEAT MOTHER.

Kulia Pomaikat appeared in the police court this morning charged with assault and battery on her mother, Huleakaa. Kulia pleaded guilty to the charge yesterday but her attorney, Judge Kaulukou, had the case continued, claiming that his client had mitigating circumstances up her sleeve. These failed to make any impression on the court, however, and the old lady who had been beaten failed to show any conciliatory spirit so the unflinching daughter was assessed $10 and costs.

CABLE DAY.

The territory will be represented in the arrangements for Cable Day by H. E. Cooper, J. W. Pratt and S. C. Dwight. In conjunction with committees from the Merchants' Association, Builders and Traders' Exchange and Chamber of Commerce they will act to arrange plans for the coming celebration.

AH CHONG, BURGLAR, CONVICTED HIMSELF

The cases of Ah Wan and Ah Chong, who were found on the premises of the California saloon yesterday morning by Captain Oponui, came up in the police court this morning. The charge was being on the premises of another at night without lawful excuse. Attorney F. M. Brooks appeared for Ah Wan, while Ah Chong had no attorney. The case progressed in a very ordinary manner until Ah Chong took the stand and made things warm by a statement that he said he wished to make. He said that the night before Ah Wan had taken him to the yard mentioned. He had a key which he said fitted the doors of the places of business facing out to the yard. The key did not fit, however, so nothing was done that night. The next night Ah Wan brought another key, which fitted the kitchen door of the Emporium Restaurant. Ah Wan said that he thought they must be a lot of eggs in there and opening the door entered the kitchen. Soon after he came out and told Ah Chong that he could find no eggs but that he had found half a bag of rice. This he packed out in the yard and told Ah Chong to go for a hack. Their arrest then followed. Ah Chong denied any knowledge of an attempt to break into the California saloon by scraping the putty from the windows.

Attorney Brooks tried to stop Ah Chong from giving this damaging evidence, objecting on the ground that Ah Chong was an accomplice.

"They are not charged with larceny," answered the deputy. "They are charged with being on the premises of another at night without lawful excuse. The witness is now showing the 'lawful excuse.'"

Judge Wilcox overruled the objection and the rest of Ah Chong's statement followed.

Brooks submitted the case and the defendants were promptly given the full extent of the law, namely, six months imprisonment with hard labor each. Mr. Brooks gave notice that he would not appeal.

There will be a meeting of the Executive Council on Thursday morning.

Governor Dole requested Superintendent of Public Works Cooper to preside at council meetings in his absence.

BREEN GIVEN TIME

George Breen appeared in the Police Court this morning charged with vagrancy. He said that he wanted to get a job and his case was continued for a week in order to give Breen's friends a chance to get work for him.

Breen, who is thought by the police to be a little unbalanced mentally, has been in the public eye on several occasions. About eight months ago he tried to commit suicide in the Aloha House by cutting his throat with a razor. He was laid up in the hospital for several months and soon after his discharge from that institution created a mild sensation by stating to his friends that he was going to kill Mrs. Fogarty, his former landlady. He then went down to the corner of Richards and Hotel streets and fired a number of revolver shots into the air.

JUDGE ROBINSON DENIES MOTION FOR NONSUIT

Judge Gear approved the accounts and ordered the discharge of W. O. Smith as administrator of the estate of James R. Estill, deceased.

Emmet May, by his attorney, Geo. A. Davis, has filed particulars of set off to the claim of the Gear, Lansing & Co. trustees. There is $566.67 profits of insurance business and $633.29 advances by defendant to the firm.

Mr. McClanahan argued opposition to the motion for nonsuit in the Wireless Telegraph case this morning. One of the jury, which was excused during argument, wants to know through the Bulletin what is a lawyer's five minutes. This is the time the attorney for the plaintiff said he would require, but his remarks covered about an hour. Judge Robinson denied the motion without prejudice. Plaintiff was then allowed to reopen its case for evidence on some matter requiring reference to English corporation law, and recess was taken until one o'clock.

Translated it reads:

"How are you getting on with the purchase? What is the best offer you can get? Very anxious to have goods forwarded immediately. Push the matter forward and send bill to me."

"Sent as above at the rate of fifty cents a word the message would have cost $16 for the thirty-two words. Under the A. B. C. code the message would have been 'Paalmody—Offendness—Anasarca—Pulsific—Berna.'—Five words, costing $2.50. Using the condensed code in connection with the A. B. C. but two words were used, which would have cost the sender but one dollar."

Advertisement Results

To Whom It May Concern:

An advertisement in the Evening Bulletin is a paying investment. Here is my experience: On December 24 I put a four-line ad in the business directory of the Bulletin and the very same evening Y. Shido, a merchant from Kapaa, Kauai, came to my store and placed a cash order for pictures and a picture frame amounting to $97. Mr. Shido has always placed his yearly orders elsewhere heretofore, but told me that he saw my ad in the Bulletin and that it did the work. I also received a $15 order from Ewa, and my local trade has picked up wonderfully, and many of my customers mention the fact that they saw my name in the Bulletin.

I may say that my ad is a small one and costs me but $2 per month. To anyone who does not believe in advertising, this should open their eyes.

Yours truly,
J. H. KAHN.

LAST DAY OF TERM

GENERAL MILES' ROBBER SENTENCED THREE YEARS

PORTO RICAN COUPLE ON TRIAL FOR GRAND LARCENY IN ROBBERY A JAPAN- ESE.

Pedro Rodriguez, the Porto Rican who robbed Lieutenant General Miles, and Col. Maus, his chief of staff, upon the occasion of their recent visit here, was convicted by a jury yesterday afternoon and sentenced to prison for a term of three years. Besides Col. Macfarlane, the witnesses were Harry Davison, dressmaker; Frank Kruger, watchmaker; Claudine, roommate of defendant; police officers, etc.

Pedro took the stand in his own behalf and denied all the accusations of the prosecution. He testified that a Porto Rican had brought the goods to his room and asked to leave them there. Further than that he knew nothing of the theft. Pedro also said that High Sheriff Brown, Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth and Chester Doyle had got him in a cell and beaten him, trying to make him confess. He said also that Jailer Henry had put him in a dark cell and kept him there for eight days with but one cracker and a little water. Both stories are denied.

The jury was out but a few minutes before agreeing upon a verdict of guilty. The defendant said he had nothing to say why sentence should not be passed, excepting to repeat his first story. The limit for larceny in the first degree is ten years, so that Pedro faces lightly with the three years given by Judge De Bolt.

Following the close of the Rodriguez case, Gregory Ahile and Eliza Rosalie were put on trial for the crime of larceny, a man and a woman, both Porto Ricans, are alleged to have stolen $159 from a Japanese. According to the story of the witnesses for the prosecution the Jap while drunk was passing the woman's house when she called him in. He spent the night there and when he was awakened the next morning was minus $159 in coin. A Porto Rican boy who was in the house claimed that he had seen Gregory hide some money in a boot. Detective Kuapa arrested him the same day and when he was searched over $150 was found in his boots. The prosecution had not been closed at the time of court adjournment.

Today is the last day of the November term of court and all cases on trial must be closed up before midnight. Judge De Bolt has cleared up the entire calendar of old criminal cases and many of the new indictments returned by this term's grand jury. Judge Robinson has also disposed of a large number of jury civil cases.

STILLS DECREASING.

In his annual report the U. S. Commissioner of Internal Revenue says: "Violations of the internal revenue laws in the Hawaiian Islands have been looked after closely. The courts there have shown a disposition to see that the Federal laws relating to internal revenue are properly enforced and to punish infractions. Reports show that illicit distilling is rapidly decreasing in the islands."

TO WORK IN KULA.

With new farm machinery and methods the experiment will soon be begun in the Kula District of Maui of raising beans. Director Jared G. Smith of the U. S. Experiment Station, has been in communication with the Kula farmers for some time and in February will go there to work. In former years corn and potatoes were successfully raised but of late the crops have not been successful. In Mr. Smith's opinion this is because on account of planting the same crop year after year for almost half a century the land is worn out and needs fertilizing.

TO NONSUIT MARGONI

JUDGE ROBINSON HEARS ARGUMENT FOR DEFENDANT

CLAIMED THAT MARGONI DID NOT OBSERVE CONTRACT. JUDGE GEAR ON FEES.

The plaintiff's case was closed yesterday in the suit of Marconi's Wireless Telegraph Company vs. F. J. Cross, following which the defendant moved for a nonsuit. The motion was argued by F. W. Milverton for the defendant and the reply of E. B. McClanahan deferred till this morning. The plaintiff's case consisted entirely of the reading of depositions taken in Honolulu and London, together with the correspondence leading up to the present suit. It was shown during this presentation of evidence that at one time Marconi intended to take possession of the Hawaiian system and operate it through the London company. This was shown by the following cablegram introduced in evidence: "Andrew Gray: Our contract is not with the Inter-Island Telegraph Company, but with Cross. If Cross, after due notice of completion, is unable to meet his engagements, they stay on; consult lawyer as to our working commerciality." This cablegram was from London and was directed to Gray, the expert sent here to install the system.

The motion for nonsuit was based upon the alleged non-performance of contract. It was claimed that the contract made by Cross was with the Wireless Telegraph and Signal Company, and not with Marconi's Wireless Telegraph Company, the plaintiff in the present action, and that no transfer of the rights had been shown. It was also argued that the contract with Cross had afterward been assigned to the Inter-Island Telegraph Company, which assignment had been accepted by the London corporation.

As to the failure to perform the contract, it was contended by defendant that the system had not been placed in good working order, and that Marconi had not furnished duplicate instruments of installation as specified under the original contract. A further omission cited was the cutting out of the island of Kauai, which should have been connected with the wireless system. Only the islands of Molokai, Hawaii, Oahu and Lanai were connected by wireless, and this, it is alleged, constituted a breach of contract. It was contended, also, that Cross had never agreed or consented to any change of the original plans, or executed a waiver of the contract.

The suit is for $5,500 alleged to be due as the remaining half of the price agreed upon for the installation of the system, and the further sum of $2,500 as the first year's royalty, which was to have been paid in advance. The suit dates from 1899, but there has been no claim thus far for additional royalties, the defendant claiming to be operating under his own system.

There is no deposition from Marconi in the trial, though numerous references are made to the inventor and his opinion regarding the failure of the local system. In several letters he is quoted as expressing the utmost confidence in his invention, and saying that the system "must" be made to work. One of the experts who was sent here is impressed with this in a letter marked "confidential," and is given a promise of better things with the company if he succeeds. The letter shows he was to receive 25 sterling per week for his work in Hawaii, together with his expenses.

Judge Gear, in approving several masters' reports submitted to him yesterday, took occasion to express his opinion as to what fees should be allowed generally. The matter came up in the report made by F. H. Loucks as master to examine the accounts of the Bishop Museum trustees. W. L. Stanley appeared on behalf of the trustees and suggested that a fee of between $50 and $100 would be ample in the matter. He stated that there was no legal question involved, and that the work performed was merely clerical. Judge Gear stated that the accounts were intricate and voluminous, and had required considerable work on the part of the master. He said he had examined previous accounts of the Bishop Museum and found that George Lucas had been allowed $200 and F. E. Thompson $275 for reporting on the same matter. Mr. Stanley replied that the fees were excessive in those instances. Judge Gear fixed the amount of the fee at $100, saying that in the future he would be guided by allowances made in the past. A. L. C. Atkinson, for reporting upon the H. A. P. Carter estate, was allowed a fee of $75, legal questions also being covered in his report.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 16, 1902.

Positive affirmation and denial of what the Senatorial Commission will recommend for Hawaii makes it possible for all elements to have ground for hope—until the Commission renders its report.

A question of hats should never break up a Honolulu Floradora sextette when hatless Honolulu girls are prettier than any hatless sextettes that can be found from New York to San Francisco.

The petty spiteful tomfoolery with which factional journals attempt to discredit Judge Little of Hilo has a boomerang action that leaves the Judge unscathed in the mind of self-respecting citizens.

European monarchs are a unit on the conclusion that unless socialistic tendencies can be checked the monarchical governments will go to the wall. Consequently the socialists think they see success ahead.

Hawaii will join with the New York Chamber of Commerce in its recommendation to Congress that the Secretary of the Treasury be permitted to deposit customs receipts as well as internal revenue receipts in national banks.

Mr. Carteloux, chief engineer of the Northern Railway of France, says that in ten years, between petroleum and alcohol, coal mining will not pay. Possibly this is the basis on which the Pennsylvania coal operators justify making human hell-holes of the mining districts.

Senator Dewey says the appointment by the President of a Commission to settle the troubles of labor and capital is an indication that the country is drifting toward paternalism. This may be true but the American people can be depended upon to take a vigorous turn at the wheel if there appears to be real danger of drifting on the reef.

MUST GET TOGETHER.

The tendency of business men toward a second choice for the Federal building site gives a more favorable aspect to the effort to sift public opinion preparatory to definite action on the arrival of Commissioner Eustis. It furnishes good grounds for belief that Honolulu in this instance will be able to overcome its reputation for retarding its own progress by agreements to disagree. This sentiment should be fostered by all elements, also an agreement by all factions or individuals that the final decision of the local committee shall not be opposed in Washington.

Whatever our committee on sites may report, it is possible for a disgruntled or opinionated faction to hold up the whole matter in the Congressional committee. Experience of other cities has shown the power of what seems an insignificant opposition. Hawaii is going before a Congressional committee which has to consider the claims of Mainland cities whose Federal buildings have been held up for years by just such opposition as we must use every effort to avoid. These cities, some of them in important states and Congressional districts, exercise greater influence than Hawaii can hope to swing. Under any circumstances they will urge the priority of their claim and should this Territory go before Congress with a factional fight there is nothing more certain than its request being shelved.

The Federal building our citizens must remember will serve a double purpose. Honolulu not only requires better accommodation for Federal officers. It also wants the expenditure in these islands of a share at least of the money now being paid into the United States Treasury through the custom house and internal revenue department. The Territory can never get this money back by any direct methods. Commissioner Eustis says very truly, "There are two things the United States never gives up, its flag and its tariff revenues." We must seek the return of our money through the indirect but not less satisfactory means of public buildings, fire claims, and the improvement of all Federal projects within this Territory. In their endeavors to accomplish these results our citizens must not forget the number and power of our competitors before Congress. To gain any headway this city and this Territory must present a united front. If we send contesting delegations to Washington to argue points on a Federal building they will be quickly taken up and urged to more strenuous effort, not because new-made friends may assist Hawaii but that they, through our mistakes, may profit and Hawaii be sidetracked for the benefit of some Mainland State or Territory.

Our citizens should not only have a second choice on which an agreement is possible. Let them determine on a third or fourth choice. They should get together at all hazards. Any one of the proposed sites is within an area that will accommodate the general public and the business community.

CABLE CODES FOR MERCHANTS

Under the old code system words are used for sentences and the length of a word is limited to ten letters by the cable companies. With the new system syllables of two letters are used for words and in this way five sentences can be sent where only one could be sent before.

If a cablegram of five sentences is to be sent under the new system, you first find the sentences required in the code book and turning to the condensed code take the corresponding number and make your message in syllables, five to a word. The condensed system applies to private codes of not over 1,000 sentences, and to codes of 5,000 words in this manner. In the first four code words can be coded for the price of one and in the second three code words for the price of one. In the example given above five sentences were sent for the price of two words.

FOUND. A LESSON

Today a little girl, Mary Aylett by name, is probably wondering what became of her lesson which she did at home yesterday and took so much pains to write nicely. It is a composition on tapa written in a fair round hand on a nice clean piece of paper. It was picked up in front of the Bulletin office this morning and a true copy of it follows:

Mary Aylett. Dec. 16, '02. The pau-pau is a quilt. When you first make a quilt you must cut the bark of a certain tree then take it and pound it very hard. Pound it every day for a week, then dry it out for two or three days. After it is dried pound it again for three days and then dried again. Three times you must do this. After it is done you take this down to the sea and spread it over a stone then pound it and putting some sea water on it they lay this quilt between some stones so the sea will not wash it away. For three weeks they take it out and then dried it out. When this is done they take it and use it. A tapa heater are made of wood and some are made of stone. Some tapa heater has many designs on them. This is also used for pounding the papau. The round tapa heater are used for pounding the bark and the tapa heater which has many designs on them are used when the quilt is done to make designs on them.

The hammer or hatchets which the old Hawaiian used were made of stone. The handle is wood and the rest of it is made of black plain stone and a rigged stone.

LANDLORD FINED.

J. Costa, a Portuguese, was fined $25 and costs in the Police Court this morning for violating the Board of Health regulations by not having proper outlets for the waste water running from four houses belonging to him. The case came up about a week ago, when it was continued to give Costa time to abate the nuisance. Nothing whatever had been done, however, Costa pleading that he had no money. Judge Wilcox opined that a man who owned four houses could afford to keep them in repair, and fined the defendant as stated above.

PREPARING TO SMASH.

Topeka, Kas., Dec. 5.—Mrs. Carrie Nation, the saloon smasher, returned to the city yesterday, and this morning made a tour of the saloons of the city, preparatory to beginning another smashing tour, as she expressed it. The crowd following her grew so large that the police arrested Mrs. Nation on a charge of disorderly conduct. She was given a small fine in the Police Court this afternoon. Mrs. Nation announces that she will repeat her old-time exploits in this city before long.

REFORM OF CURRENCY

HANNA SAYS STRENGTHEN THE GOLD STANDARD LAW

GREATER ELASTICITY FOR NATIONAL BANK CURRENCY. EXPANSION IN KEEPING WITH TRADE.

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 6.—"What further steps should be taken at this time for the betterment of our monetary system?" Mr. Hugh H. Hanna was asked today.

"First," he replied, "our gold standard law of 1900 should be strengthened by machinery for maintaining parity between gold and silver. The public mind is prepared for as perfect a gold standard as can be established. A law providing for the payment of gold for silver at the treasury on demand is the one remaining step necessary to secure absolute parity of all our moneys. Both the Overstreet bill and the Hill bill, introduced in the last session, make full and wise provision.

"Second, an element of elasticity in our National bank currency should be provided. A small step, equal in amount to say 10 per cent. of the capital of the bank, is sufficient for demonstration of efficiency and safety. "If its desirability is proved, gradual increase within a term of years to say 50 per cent. of the amount of the capital with full and unquestioned provision for the redemption of notes of insolvent banks as afforded in the Lovering and other bills is the other step immediately necessary.

"The general subject appears complex and our people are, therefore, disinclined to study it. The principles are simple. The humblest citizen is interested in the perfection of money laws. "Only the absolute assurance of parity will make a New York bill of exchange as acceptable in the commerce of the world as a bill of exchange on London.

"Assured parity of the metallic currencies and scientific provision for elastic bank currency without risk of redemption will not only strengthen the fibre of our domestic commercial interests, but will do more to make possible the sale of products of American labor than any other one act of legislation.

"That the president, secretary of the treasury and the comptroller of the currency should all so courageously at this time advocate such legislation indicates the growth of public opinion favorable to laws in the interest of all of our people, without preference, the importance of which should arouse the business men of the country to the determined, timely support of the effort being made to secure congressional action.

Mr. Hanna was chairman of the executive committee of fifteen created by the National Monetary Conference held at Indianapolis in 1897, and ever since he has been active in pressing the demands of financial reformers.

Minister Buck Dies On a Hunting Trip

Yokohama, Dec. 5.—Paralysis of the heart caused the death of United States Minister Albert E. Buck, which occurred yesterday. The end was tragically sudden. Mr. Buck was the guest of the Emperor in a duck hunt on the Shinhama preserves. A bird had been netted and the Minister, with a jocular remark, started to reset the net. Suddenly he fell and without a word or groan expired instantaneously. He had suffered from a weak heart for some time. Mrs. Buck was not with the party.

Minister Buck was held in high esteem in Japan and the flags on Government buildings have been placed at half mast. The funeral has been set for Monday next. Secretary J. M. Ferguson is in charge of the Legation. Washington, Dec. 5.—A few details of the untimely death of Minister Buck are furnished in the following cablegram, received at the State Department today from Mr. Ferguson, the United States Charge:

"Tokio, Dec. 5.—Minister Buck's death was caused by paralysis of the heart. It occurred on an imperial hunting preserve, near Tokio. The funeral takes place here on the 8th, and full official honors will be extended by the Japanese Government, as in the case of Minister Swift. The widow probably will leave Yokohama on the 24th with the body for burial at Arlington. I respectfully recommend that the military attaché be granted authority by telegraph to accompany the remains to Washington and to return as soon as possible to his post." No action has been taken on the last request.

MUTINEERS SET ADRIFT

HARROWING TALE FROM SHIP LEICESTER CASTLE

THREE AMERICAN SAILORS SHOT CAPTAIN, KILLED MATE AND PUT TO SEA ON A RAFT.

Queenstown, Dec. 5. — Three American sailors are alleged to have killed the mate and shot the captain of the British ship Leicester Castle, after which they fled from the vessel by taking a trail raft in the middle of the South Pacific. Such is the report of Captain Peattie of the Leicester Castle, which left San Francisco July 26th and arrived here today. The alleged mutineers were W. A. Hobbs of Illinois, James Turner of Portland, Or., and Ernest Sears of Idaho. Nothing has been heard of them since and it is presumed they perished, either from hunger and thirst or by storm. The murdered mate was named Nixon.

The mutiny occurred September 24, when the vessel was about 300 miles north of Pitcairn Island. The Americans joined the ship at San Francisco in place of English sailors who had left for reasons not yet explained.

The Captain's Story. "It was going to sleep on the night of the trouble," says Captain Peattie in his report to the authorities, "when Ernest Sears, an able seaman of San Francisco, called me and said a man had broken his leg. I went out into the cabin. When I entered it Hobbs, another seaman, stepped up to me and said: 'Now then, Captain,' at the same time he fired point blank at my heart. The bullet entered my breast a little over the heart. I closed with him, and we had a rough and tumble fight of it in the cabin, during which I was wounded in the arm, and battered about the head with a club. The Mate is Killed.

"The mate came to my assistance. Hobbs killed him with a shot through the heart. Then help arrived and Hobbs made off. He left me terribly wounded with five bullet holes and otherwise injured by clubs.

"The first mate took charge of the vessel. He called the crew aft and made an endeavor to secure the captain's assailants, but they kept forward and nobody dared to face their revolvers. When morning broke, however, they were discovered floating past on a raft which they had constructed during the darkness. We let them go. The first mate thought it made good riddance of bad rubbish. He did not have the facilities on board to take care of three idle murderers. Mutineers' Flimsy Raft.

"The mutineers made their frail raft out of loose planks and coops during the night. They put some provisions aboard and are supposed to have had enough food to last them a week.

The captain is unable to account for the mutiny. He supposes it was the intention of the mutineers to murder the officers and the men who refused to join them and take the ship to Pitcairn Island. Pitcairn Island is a solitary island in the Pacific ocean, situated in about latitude 25 south and about 130 west. It is two and a quarter miles in length and has but one landing place, at Bounty Bay. The island is famous as the scene of the foundation in 1790 of a remarkable colony composed of mutineers from the British ship Bounty.

The authorities will make a careful investigation of the captain's story, or it is believed in some quarters that the alleged mutineers were set adrift. The captain is still suffering from his wounds. He will recover. The American Consul here will watch the investigation very closely.

ADMIRAL GEORGE DEWEY.

The fleet now assembled in the Caribbean sea under command of Admiral George Dewey is the greatest naval force ever commanded by an American admiral. It numbers sixty-one vessels, comprising more than one-half of Uncle Sam's sea fighting craft. The object of the maneuvers off Culebra Island is not to provide our naval officers with a holiday jaunt in pleasant waters, but to give to commanders and jacksies a lot of strenuous exercise which will do them good. Much coal and little powder will be burned, but a lot of work with head and hand will be accomplished.

Port of Spain, Dec. 4.—The United States Consul has been authoritatively informed through agents of the departure this morning of the "enemy's" squadron under Admiral Sumner. Its destination is uncertain, but it is believed to be Porto Rico or Cuba. The ships passed through Boca Grande, going slowly. There is no satisfactory indication as to the course the squadron will pursue. All the war ships had a low freeboard, which is evidence that they are filled with coal and ammunition. A collier carrying 2500 tons of coal discharged its entire cargo into the various vessels, which also received provisions and ammunition from a supply ship. The "enemy" is prepared to make a dash to seize a base and hold it, and confidence as to the final success of the movement prevails on board the ships. Though his squadron is stronger than the one commanded by Admiral Cervera, Admiral Sumner declares that the problem before him is more difficult than that of the Spaniards, as the latter were able to choose ports in Cuba as well as in Porto Rico and Culebra. Moreover, the Spaniards moved from the Cape Verde Islands, while Admiral Sumner's command is close and is limited in regard to time.

MORE BURGLARS CAUGHT AT WORK

At about 3:15 yesterday morning Captain Opunui started on his round to the different city beats. He had just turned the corner of Merchant street and Nuuanu when he heard a low whistle. Looking in the direction of the sound he saw a man standing by the gate which leads to the little yard which lies makai of the California saloon. On looking closer he saw another man standing just inside the gate. When the men saw that the captain was watching them they started up Nuuanu street at a brisk walk. At the corner of Nuuanu and King they separated, one man, who was later found to be Ah Cheng, going up Nuuanu street, while the other turned down King street in the Palama direction. Their actions convinced the captain that there was something wrong and as Officer Kellaan was just coming up King street the captain called to him to arrest the man. This man gave his name as Ah Wan. As he was not able to give a satisfactory account of what he had been doing in the California saloon yard Captain Opunui, convinced that the men had been up to some mischief, dispatched bicycle officer Robert Parker after the other man. Parker caught his man at Aala lane and brought him down to the police station.

An investigation of the premises where the men were seen showed plainly that the two Chinese had been in the act of burglarizing the places of business, the backs of which turn out to the yard mentioned. This yard has an entrance from Nuuanu street, closed by a gate which, however, is never locked. The yard runs in an angle with the other entrance out to King street by the L. X. L. hack stand. At the California saloon's window, which turns out to the yard, the police found three boxes piled up so as to form a platform by which the men, who are both small, could reach the window. From the window, which consists of six panes held together by a light frame work, most of the putty had been removed, so that, had the men not been disturbed, they would soon have effected a noiseless and easy entrance. It was also found that the men had victimized the Emporium restaurant, on King street, the kitchen of which has a door cut to the same yard. They had opened this door by the means of a key, which was found on the person of one of the men in the police station. They had taken half a bag of rice, some meat and about a hundred cigars. The police found all these things in a gunny sack which had been stowed away in a corner of the yard. The men, who are both small queueless Chinamen, dressing in European clothes, appeared in the police court yesterday morning charged with vagrancy as the police wish to investigate matters further. Their cases were continued.

SALTING WHARVES.

Captain McAllister and the Elen are engaged during spare time in wetting down the wharve with salt water pumped from the bay. Heretofore fresh water has been used but the salt water acts as a preservative and so is being used instead.
