KONA COAST TIDAL WAVE

MUCH HEAVIER THAN THE RUSH OF WATERS ON KAUALA.

Serious Damage Done—Many Houses Washed Away—Stores Flooded—Wharves Demolished—Incidents.

The W. G. Hall arrived early this morning from Hawaii and Maui. Captain Simerson brings the following account of the action of the tidal wave on Hawaii.

At Kailua the water rose to a height of twenty feet, flooding the stores of G. McDougall and Kaelemakule, to a depth of four feet and damaging considerable merchandise. The lumber in the yard of Scott & Carke was floated away, the whole of the piles being carried by the water all over the beach. The lumber will all be recovered as it was left high and dry on the water receding, though it will cost considerable money to haul and pile it again. The heavy wave carried away a lot of planking from the Kailua wharf and shook the whole structure up considerably. One native house at the same place was completely moved away.

The wave made itself felt all along the Kona coast. At Ke Au Hou nine houses were washed down, while the rest of the dwellings were all flooded, the wharf was damaged. All the orange barrels belonging to the orange groves were carried away, and general havoc was caused all around.

Napooopo fared no better. Scott's lumber stock at that place was washed all over the beach and the wharf was damaged, while three houses were completely washed away. At Hookena the wharf suffered, and all the houses at that place were inundated, the water all round was strewn with lumber, barrels, and every conceivable floating thing, and great consternation prevailed throughout the district.

The Hall was at Honououpo when the first sign of disturbance was observed, on Monday the 15th. Captain Simerson deemed it advisable to leave his moorings and at noon he hoove up anchor and put out to sea. When at a sufficient distance from land the steamer was hove to and lay outside until 5 o'clock in the evening of the same day. By that time the heaviest part of the waves had passed and the Hall returned to her regular anchorage.

The water rose some twenty feet in Kau, almost reaching the warehouse in Honoupo. Fortunately it did not do so, as there was an amount of sugar stored there. The only damage reported there is a slight one to the wharf.

After the big wave the tide rose and fell to an unusual degree along the Kona coast. At Kau from 9:30 a. m. Monday until 4:30 p. m. Tuesday a large rise and fall was noticeable, thus lasting two days. Captain Simerson computes the big wave at from 15 to 40 feet at different places along the coast.

Lieut. Needham, police, received a letter from a native friend at Kailua. The latter reports that a Chinese storehouse, with a small stock of merchandise, and two small native houses were washed out to sea. Reports from Hilo are that the disturbance in the bay was very noticeable though by no means so pronounced as on the Western side of the island.

ANOTHER ACCOUNT.

[Special Correspondence of The Star.] Truly Hawaii is a land of natural phenomena, for, following the recent activity of the Kilauea volcano, on the morning of last Monday, a series of tidal waves occurred, that for magnitude and destructive consequences have not been approached within the memory of the "oldest inhabitant"—at least fifty years.

Sunday was unaturally calm and especially sultry. At 8:15 of the next day the waters adjacent to the Kona coast receded for about a quarter of a mile beyond low water mark and for a few minutes the body of old ocean was exposed; then with gathering force they returned "like a white-capped wall" the surging element advanced and with deafening roar struck the coast, spreading a long distance inland, levelling massive stone walls and wrecking any buildings in its path.

All the beach population had left their abodes at the first indication of seismic disturbance. Few, however, had time to remove the household goods, which, with the outgoing flood soon retreated. This gave some opportunity for re-entering their houses and with feverish activity remaining chattels and goods were moved to places of comparative safety, but the returning waters drove the salvage corps from the rescue work, a few individuals having narrow escapes, some climbing the cocoanut trees—a favorite place that was in itself a dangerous one amid the angry flood.

Four successive waves formed and then for an hour the general level was that a very high tide. Monday evening one similar tidal wave came in, but as preparations had been made its damage was not great.

At Kailua the wharf is badly tangled, in fact it is a ruin. The post office, Kaelemakule's store, was invaded and for a time it looked like being swept away. The proprietor laughed when the water receded at first round, but when the wall of waters came he concluded to retreat, even leaving the doors open—time being valuable in a rear movement. McDougall & Co. report considerable damage to store goods as does M. F. Scott. Quantities of rice and flour, stored in the wharf warehouse, are damaged beyond use, and indeed most of the stores suffered considerably. Lumber and iron were washed from the yards of G. Clark and the Scott Development Co. The wood was carried over on the rocks of West Point; part being recovered at a later date.

The old residence of Kalakaua (Paris Hotel) was in great danger of demolition as the water came nearly up to level of the first floor, and the proprietress and lodgers had a narrow escape, being rescued and thankful to be able to leave. Huge tanks floated in this compound and some horses had to keep afloat struggling against the undertow. Several smaller buildings were broken and carried to sea.

At Ke Au Hou the wharf is intact, but much damage was done to the adjacent structures. The Chinese store is a mass of firewood, as is the residence of Charles Kaliaiki; three houses being washed completely away and at present writing the post office is moored to the land with stout cables and at a new location. Hawaiian householders have suffered severely at this little village.

Coming to Kealahou bay we find the Kaawaloa landing to be practically done for" and some damage has come to the two storehouses and contents, but being on the sheltered side, this place was seemingly favored.

Napooopo situated in a dead line with the front of tidal disturbance, received the full force of same, the new wharf being greatly damaged. Two native houses were washed away and some injury done to household effects. The lumber of the Scott company was stamped and iron roofing buried under the avalanche of debris. An emergency brigade was formed from the older boy-pupils of the public school and under the direction of the principal they saved some hundreds of dollars worth of material, by swimming after and carrying to places of safety, the flotsam and jetsam. The owner of the property being absent the natives refused to help unless for pay, so the example set by the schoolboys and their teacher is an apt illustration of "duty towards our neighbors" as it should be.

Hookena wharf is a thing of the past and as it had clearly outlived its usefulness, the wave was really a blessing to the shippers—if it is replaced without protracted delay. A number of houses were seriously damaged, but the stores escaped; they are elevated. A Mr. Davis who was in a wagon at the time of the wave, had an escape which seems almost miraculous, the road being eight or nine feet under water. Lazarus, the police officer, made preparations for flight, but on it being pointed out that his duty was to act as Horatius, he "kept the bridge."

Measurements taken have established the fact of the height of water being twelve feet above high tide mark.

The telephones of the Kona-Kau line were in constant use during the day and reports make mention of disturbances along the Kau coast. Coffeeists hope that the expenditures for wharves will not be drawn from the road appropriations as everything points to a large crop and roads will open up land and lead to still larger area of plantation. We anxiously await news of the other islands.

BILLY BUTTON SHOWS HIMSELF A TIP TOP HORSE.

Bests Judah—Candidate for the Island Championship—The Match Race a Good Turf Event.

Several hundred people were at Kapiolani Park at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon to witness the race between Judah and Billy Button. The audience was representative. As announced the race was best three in five, mile heats. Capt. Cloney, Thomas Wright and Seely I. Shaw officiated as judges; Capt. Cloney as starter and Carl Leonard as timekeeper. W. Bagby drove Judah, and Jack Gibson held the ribbons over Billy Button.

For the first heat the horses scored up three times before the word was given. It was neck and neck to the first quarter, which was passed in 35 seconds. Button broke once but quickly recovered. The half was passed in 1:10, and the line was made in 2:23, Button a length to the good.

On second heat both horses moved up briskly for the word and got off on first attempt, neck and neck. Just before getting the half Button broke and Judah took the pole. Gibson then made a waiting drive to the stretch, steadying his horse for the final contest. On the stretch Billy Button went for place and passed under the line two lengths ahead in 2:26.

Third heat—The horses responded promptly and got off first time. They went neck and neck to the quarter, where Judah made a disastrous break, compelling Bagby to pull her down to a standstill. This made a clean walk-over for Billy Button. He cleared the wire in 2:31, having held a steady pace without a break all round.

Every detail of the race was square. Judah's friends were satisfied, and many of them congratulated the owner of Billy Button on having the speedier animal. It was not hard to see that both horses went in to win, and the result was the result of superior qualities on the part of the victor.

Billy Button comes of good stock. He is a son of Alexander Button, Jr., a trotter of 2:14. Alexander Button also sired Belle Button, 2:20; Tom Ryder, 2:14; Rose Mack, 2:20 3/4; and Henry Mack, 2:20. Billy's ancestry a long way back have been in the 2:20 class. Tom Ryder, a half brother, is now on the American turf and is often heard from.

Judah is unquestionably the best Hawaiian bred sulky horse of which there is any record. She was sired by Marin whose record was 2:22 1/2. Marin, Jr., Judah's half brother, now has a record of 2:13 in the East. At last accounts he was in Chicago.

VILLARD'S MEMOIRS.

Henry Villard has abandoned the intention of publishing the memoirs he has been writing; the typewritten copy is to be bound in black morocco and locked up as a legacy for his children. He changed his mind about publishing the work as soon as he got well along into the war period of his recollection. His criticism on the veracity and the generalship of certain Union heroes would raise a storm about his ears if he were to put them in print.

TALK TABU.

WILMINGTON, Del., June 9.—The latest and strangest sensation which this little state has developed is the arrest and imprisonment of a man for exercising the right of free speech. His name is William Horan, and he is now imprisoned behind the grim walls of the Kent county jail at Dover because he attempted to tell the people of that town what "single tax" means.

PUNAHOU'S CLASS OF '96

INTERESTING GRADUATING EX-ERCISES IN PAUHAU HALL.

Address of the Evening—Friends of the College Make a Large Audience —Music—Decorations.

The commencement at Punahou Thursday evening was a brilliant event. About 500 people were assembled in Pauahu Hall and enjoyed the exercises. Many in the large audience were graduates of the institution.
President Dole, Chief Justice Judd and W. R. Castle occupied seats in front of the rostrum. The class of '96 sat with Professor Hosmer and Mr. Townsend, the latter the speaker of the evening, on the platform.

The program opened with an organ selection by Professor A. B. Ingalls of Oahu college. Dr. Hyde offered the invocation, and the College Glee Club very acceptably presented "We Meet Again Tonight." The address of the evening by Professor Henry S. Townsend came next.

He spoke for about twenty minutes on the subject of "Purpose." The address was conspicuous for its sound, practical value and the eloquence of the speaker during its delivery.

The College orchestra played "Oahu College March" and for an encore a melody of familiar airs.

Miss M. Ethelwynn Rice delivered the valedictory address. Her remarks to the class were replete with interesting and valuable suggestions and sentiments in regard to Punahou elicited applause from the audience. Just prior to her appearance the rostrum was beautifully decorated with boquets and baskets of flowers combining to make this feature of the program all the more impressive and inspiring.

Miss Jessie R. Axtell delighted the audience with Schubert's serenade and responded to an encore. The diplomas were presented by President Hosmer of the college.

The graduates are: Albert Fayer-weather Afong Thomas Huddy Bartow, William Richards Castle, Jr., Anna Isabella Forbes, Charles Edward Hapai, Mary Ethelwynn Rice and Clifton Howard Tracy, the class of '96.

THOUSANDS DIE

From Exposure to Infectious Disease and Impure Air.

Important Points About "Purifine," the Great Disinfectant.

[S. F. Post.]

In these enlightened days of the nineteenth century it is an acknowledged fact that "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure," and that ounce of prevention was never better exemplified than in the use of the great disinfectant known as "Purifine." The public has had many disinfectants brought to their attention. Some were good, some were bad, and some were simply indifferent, but none ever yet placed on the market combined all the many good qualities of "Purifine." In the first place it was left to the manufacturers of "Purifine" to compound a disinfectant and antiseptic that would be odorless, a most important matter, as users of disinfectants well know that the odor of the disinfectant, especially when in constant use, becomes sickening and disagreeable, sometimes as much so as the odor or smell to be killed.

In a word, "Purifine" is odorless, and its work, removal, not creating one odor to cover another. It comes in a highly concentrated form, and when diluted with two parts water there is not the slightest odor, rendering it suitable for places where food is kept. In the bathroom, sleeping room or about the house generally it is indispensable.

Then again it is non-poisonous, an all important feature, for if used carelessly by children or servants there are no harmful results, and it is absolutely safe to have around the house.

As a sample of its harmlessness it can even be used in refrigerators, and, if accidentally spilled no harm is done, and it is particularly adapted for this use.
The uses for which "Purifine" is used are almost limitless, and to enumerate them would fill pages of The Post. For flushing sewers, and for cleansing sinks, drains, barns, urinals, water closets, floor cloths and the bed clothes from sickness or infection it is invaluable.

Then again the price is so low that it can be used lavishly, and for hospitals, asylums, public buildings, hotels, restaurants, school rooms, laundries, dairies, markets, stables, packing houses and canneries where a disinfectant is used in large quantities, this is a point to be considered. One gallon is used to a barrel of water, and for general use one tablespoonful to a pint of water.

"Purifine" is a sure preventive against cholera, la grippe, small pox, diphtheria, all fevers and contagious diseases.

As an antiseptic and healer "Purifine" is invaluable, for it relieves and cures sore throat, catarrh, stings and bites of insects, burns and scalds, chilblains, sore eyes, pimples and for the bath it is a delightful adjunct. It will instantly stop any flow of blood, and physicians will understand its full value from its principal constituents, bromine and chlorine. It is prepared only by the Fitch Chemical Company of Bay City, Mich. The Hollister Drug Company been appointed sole agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

New Life for the Aged.

Paine's Celery Compound Gave Health and Strength to a Man of Ninety.

No other medicine is so popular with the old folks as Paine's Celery Compound. It cures their infirmities, and gives them new life and vigor. What it did for Moses Perin, it will do for all who use it faithfully.

CORONADO BEACH, CAL., Oct. 2, 1894.
Dear Sirs:—I took Paine's Celery Compound for the grip and it did its work well.
I used no medicine except this, and found it so good that I did not want any other. My general health has been good ever since I used Paine's Celery Compound which did me more good than any medicine that I have taken for a long time. I worked every day last week although I shall be ninety years old the 4th of next March, and today am feeling splendid and am speaking a good word for your medicine.

GEO. W. FREEBURGER.

The Wonders Done By Two Bottles of Paine's Celery Compound.

Mr. Freeburger Has No More Use for a Cane.

Even though you have suffered for years, be not discouraged. A medicine that cured so severe a case as that of George W. Freeburger of Shelton, must possess wonderful powers of healing. Use Paine's Celery Compound and be made well.

SHELTON, WASH., Nov. 12, 1894.
Gentlemen:—Three years ago last Christmas I was completely prostrated,—nerves all gone. I took everything that I could hear of, but got little relief. I could not walk ever so slowly even with the aid of a cane, for fifty yards without stopping to rest. About two months ago I commenced taking Paine's Celery Compound, and although I have taken not quite two bottles, I now have no use for a cane and can get around in very good shape for a man over sixty, who has been an invalid ever since the spring of 1862.

FRIDAY, JUNE 19, 1896.

Perhaps it was McKinley's tidal wave taking a trial spin.

The Star submits that more attention should be given the Hawaiian Fourth of July. It is receiving scant notice.

Oahu College (Punahou) is to be congratulated on the unqualified success and high order of the commencement program.

As soon as funds are available the Minister of Interior will likely proceed to build roads by the mile and saw them off and make delivery to order.

A sanitarium established here will add another big bit to the demand for a cable.

It was very considerate on the part of the fates to permit quotations of 96 centrifugals to remain well up until a large portion of the sugar crop of Hawaii had been marketed.

The trouble or the annoyance of friction in athletic circles seems to be that all the young men go in for about everything on the list. But the especial enthusiasm lately is unquestionably for bicycling and if the experience in other countries can be the criterion, there is little use of protesting against the tendency. In the United States for instance, Decoration Day and Labor Day have simply been captured by the riders of the silent steel.

The passing of H. A. W. Tabor of Colorado as a man of wealth told in a novel would fairly thrill. In his palmy days Tabor built an opera house that was a palace and a hotel as good and a business block better, all for Denver. He bought himself a short term in the United States Senate and wore $800 night gowns, which were frequently stained with tobacco juice. He put aside the wife of his modest days, the faithful helpmeet and married a professional beauty. He was lavish to the limit in everything and today stands a ruined man, living warning against wild excesses against being other than a fair and honest worker for the common good.

Minister Willis must have been in his very best mood when interviewed at Washington concerning Hawaii. The Envoy of the United States to the Islands is a man ordinarily reserved in speech, especially when talking for publication. Besides he has had several little spats with the Government here. But at Washington Mr. Willis was free in complimentary remarks on the country generally, the new Republic and its officials and leading citizens, as well as its commercial condition and business prospects. Hawaii must appreciate to the utmost the course of Mr. Willis. It was an incident that takes most people here by surprise, but then most people here had not the pleasure of an intimate knowledge of Mr. Willis and so perhaps misjudged him in advance. How different is he from the stamp of men of the Blount and Hilborn.

Every man of every nation; even a man without a country, feels the tremble and the tingle of the tidal wave of patriotism that goes around the world on July Fourth of each year. Even among semi-savage people the day is a marked and honored one. No man with a spark of the love of liberty in his composition can resist the universal feeling that attaches to this day in the calendar of the march and progress of freedom and independence. In Hawaii the day is doubly honored. It not alone commemorates the achievement of the Independence of the United States of America, but as well is the anniversary of the establishment of a Republican government in the Islands of the Pacific. May it be a glorious Fourth in Honolulu and throughout Hawaii, without an incident or argument to mar the celebration or ruffle the feelings.

NATURALIZATION.

A fairly well considered communication on the live subject of naturalization of aliens permanently located in Hawaii and assisting in her government, appears in the Advertiser. It is signed "A Native American," and as intimated above, he is presumably "a good Indian." The Star has given reasons and will undertake to present further basis for the proposition that a very large number of the foreigners here are bounden in justice to themselves, to their mother country and to their adopted land to secure full Hawaiian citizenship. As to the Annexation aspect, it has long been the policy of the Government and individuals in both public and private life to spare no effort to upbuild Hawaii in every way in anticipation of finally having her attached to the United States to the end that the latter may acquire a province creditable and valuable. One of the strong arguments used against the Annexation Party at Washington has been that it was composed almost exclusively of "Utlanders. This point could be dulled to the disappearing point. Now consider the naturalization sentiment in the United States—the model of Hawaii. So soon as a foreigner settles in one of the political divisions of that country he is at once confronted with arguments to the effect that if the country is good enough to furnish him residence and livelihood, he can do nothing less than become a part of its citizenship. Until he does that he is debarred from the privileges of the ballot and from the benefits of free acquisition of public land. Where is the difference if Hawaii is substituted for the United States? Now, as to the ordinary exercise of citizenship. Is it right for a man to enjoy all the prerogatives of citizenship here and at the same time retain citizenship in a foreign country? Is that common fairness? Nearly every man who comes within the scope of the naturalization scheme has subscribed to some sort of an oath of fealty to this government. He cannot serve two masters. Certainly to some degree, giving no consideration whatever to ruling or interpretations, he impairs his original citizenship. What man who has acquaintance with equity will deny this? Finally, it must be conceded that a good sized body of foreigners imbued with national sentiment would be a power indeed for the good of Hawaii.

BASE BALL.

How the Teams Will Line Up for Action Tomorrow Afternoon.

Contrary to all expectations George Woods will not be able to pitch for the First Regiment team in the ball game tomorrow afternoon. His arm is still in a bad way. Simerson will again appear in the box with Baker behind the bat. No other changes of importance will be made in the team. The Honolulu will line up much as before, with Clark in the box and Dayton catch. Thompson will take second and Lucas will go to shortstop. Wodehouse jammed a finger Thursday afternoon, but a treatment of Star liniment by Capt. Chris Conradt brought him around all right. The teams will play in the following order:

Honolulu. First Regiment
D. Dayton ..... J. Baker
George Clarke ..... W. Simerson
J. H. Wodehouse..... M. J. Scanlan
J. H. Thompson..... W. Woods
James Lemon..... Joe Luahiwa W. Lucas ..... A. W. Neely J. Waterhouse..... W. W. Carlisle
J. Kalanionole..... "Ginger" Mayne Chris Holt ..... Al Buchanan George Woods is substitute for the First Regiment team.

THE JAPANESE.

[St. Paul Pioneer Press.]
The Hawaiian republic, it seems, has an outlander question of its own which seems likely to prove extremely troublesome and embarrassing. There are more adult male Japanese in the islands than there are men of any other nationality, and they are beginning to take an active interest in public affairs. The Japanese were imported at first as contract laborers, but they were followed by those of a superior class, and the result has been to give the race a large voice in the management of affairs. This puts the future of Hawaii and its relations to the United States in an entirely different light from that which it has occupied in the popular mind hitherto.

BRITISH CROWN JEWELS.
The British crown jewels include a peacock of precious stones valued at £35,000 which came from India; a tiger's head with a solid ingot of gold for a tongue and crystal teeth, and a magnificent gold shield valued at £10,000, which was made from snuff-boxes by order of George IV.

Save Your Money.
It's as easy as falling off a log. By purchasing all your Dry Goods at Kerr's store on Queen street, you not only save money, but you have the choice of New and Fashionable goods in endless variety. Before buying elsewhere call and examine the latest importations, viz: Laces, Ribbons, Flowers, Feathers, Swiss Muslins, Lawns and a nice assortment of Figure Dimities at 15c per yard (sold elsewhere at 25c) and a complete stock of bed and table linen.

HENRY WARD BEECHER'S OPINION
The advertisements in a newspaper are more full of knowledge in respect to what is going on in a state or country.—Printer's Ink.

Timely Topics.

We have just received a great hit in the East. It is an electric scarf pin or shirt stud. This little article is so compact that it can be carried in the vest pocket with the lamp in the necktie and to all outward appearances you have a diamond that surpasses in brilliancy the famous "Kohinoor." You can have "all kinds of fun" at the expense of your friends.

In case you are in need of a good wearing harness we have an excellent line of the imported article ranging in price from $16 to $40.

While you are buying your harness you will most likely want a new lap robe. We have some beauties in new colors and designs. Perhaps that saddle pad has become soiled and moth eaten. If so we can replace it with a new one that makes you feel ashamed that you didn't have one sooner.

If your horse is a gentle animal who trots along regardless of papers, boards, cars or trains that may be passing and does not shy there is no necessity of putting a curbed bit on him. We have bits that are suitable for all horses.

W.W. DIMOND'S

Interest never flags when the goods and prices are right. In May we passed all records in merchandising! Helping more people to goods at less expense than ever—that's the secret! Great movements in merchandise reduce expenses in all directions, freights on carload lots are less than by the piece, buying at the factory means a big saving to us. And you are the gainers.

The Success Filter, as sold by us means good health to you and money in your purse. The money comes in this way: We bought at the factory a carload of the goods; everything was cheaper and we can sell you a six-gallon filter for $5.50.

The filter stone in a Success Filter is made of tripoli stone, mined in Georgia, U. S. A. It is fitted in the upper chamber of the filter and water passes through it, all impurities in the water remaining on the outside. It may be cleaned in a moment and will last for years as it is six inches in thickness, instead of one as in ordinary stone filters.

The quality is the best and $5.50 for a six gallon filter is lower than you ever paid before.

Snakes That Should Not Be Killed—How the Black Snake Hunts and Captures Its Food—Rescuing a Ship From a Python Who Had Calmly Taken Possession.

"Sit down and sharpen your pencil, while I overhaul my mental shelves," remarked Mr. Thompson, curator of the zoological collection in the park, in answer to a request for some snake stories.
"Before giving you some of my experiences I want to enter a protest against the indiscriminate slaughter of our common harmless snakes, such as the black snake, garter snake and the like. Every farmer should protect them, for they are beneficial, instead of being harmful, as is generally supposed by a large majority of humanity. Any naturalist will tell you that the food of the black snake consists largely of rats, mice, etc., while that of the garter snake is principally insects, such as grasshoppers, caterpil-lars, etc.

"Now for some of my experiences. In my younger days I was crossing Ashby's gap, over the Blue Ridge, Virginia, in company with an uncle of the famous Black Horse Cavalry Ashby. We were making a portion of the ascent through quite a deep cut, when our attention was attracted by a toad, which rolled instead of hopped down the side slope.
Ashby pulled up the horse and said, 'There's a black snake after that fellow.' An instant after the snake thrust his head through the fence, and on observing us drew back. In the meanwhile the toad had gathered himself together, and was hopping at a lively gait up the road.
Ashby remarked, 'Now I will show you something,' and sprang out of the buggy and caught the toad, which he carried a short distance and released. Returning, he turned the buggy and drove back down the road some 50 steps, when we alighted and tied the horse. Climbing over the fence on the opposite side of the road to that on which the snake had made his appearance we stealthily worked our way up until we came in sight of the point where he was first seen. Lying down in the long grass and peering through the rails, we did not have to wait long before the snake reappeared.

"He looked about for a few seconds, and then descended the slope down which the toad had rolled, and followed his trail up the road. On coming to the spot where it had been picked up, he began to circle, precisely as a dog would act on losing the scent. He gradually increased the size of his circles until he struck the spot where the toad had been put down, when he made a bee line after it. We leaped into the road and hurried after his snakeship, who as soon as he discovered that he was being followed turned up the slope and squirmed out of sight through the fence. Ashby said, 'I am sure you are satisfied now that a black snake hunts by scent.'

"Now I shall have to take you out to South Africa. I lived in Durban, Natal, which is about 1,000 miles around the Cape of Good Hope, up toward Madagascar. One morning I received a note from the port captain, asking me to come down to the harbor with all possible dispatch, as a python had taken possession of a German brig and I was wanted to capture it. Taking one of my keepers with me, I hurried down, and found quite a crowd on the jetty, among which was the crew of the brig. On inquiry I learned that there had been a shower during the night, and in the morning the mate had ordered one of the men to go aloft and shake out the sails, in order to dry them. He started up, and on reaching the maintop turned and came down on the clean run. The tar was instantly ordered to hudes and numerous other places, while the valiant mate started aloft to attend to matters on his own hook. Nagsoner did his head get on a level with the top than he came down at a gait which far exceeded that of the disobedient sailor. He instantly raised the alarm, and the entire crew lost no time in getting on shore and spreading the report that the rigging was full of the biggest kind of snakes.

"With the assistance of the port captain's binoculars I had no difficulty in making a critical examination of the entire upper works of the vessel, which was anchored about 100 yards from the shore. The result was one large python, coiled around the laps of the main and topmast. Borrowing a sack, I managed, after much persuasion, to get two of the crew to pull myself and keeper off to the brig, where they left us and turned back to the jetty. I unrove the flag halyards, made a noose in one end of them and hunted around until I found a stout piece of reed some six or eight feet in length. Climbing up the shrouds, I made my attack through the lubber's hole by punching his snakeship with the reed, to the end of which I had tied the noose. He put his head down through the hole for the purpose of fighting me, when he was instantly noosed around the neck and the halyards made fast to the ratlines. In his violent efforts to effect a release he drew back with such force as rapidly to choke himself into insensibility. Calling to the keeper to hold the mouth of the sack open, I watched until I thought he was nearly at his last gasp, when I squirmed up on the top, loosened his coils around the masts, lowered him into the sack, when the keeper immediately cut the noose.
By the time that I reached the deck he had nearly recovered from his severe wound stoppage. I gently opened the mouth of the sack to have a good look at him and discovered from his bloated appearance that he had recently partaken of a hearty meal. On the arrival of the crew on board it was discovered that the captain's fox terrier was missing. I therefore concluded that the python, in swimming across the harbor, had struck the vessel's hawser, up which he had crawled on to the deck, swallowed the dog and gone aloft to digest his meal."—Buffalo Commercial.

One Way of Catching Fiddler Crabs.

There are various ways of catching fiddler crabs. One way of catching the black or mud fiddler, the one that bores into meadow banks along salt creeks, is with two boards so placed as to form a deep sided letter V. The fisherman seeks a spot where there is a little strip of sand at low water, between the base of the mud bank and the water's edge.
The crabs come out of their holes and go down to the edge of the water, often in great numbers. The fisherman comes over the meadow with his boards, which he sets up on edge as quietly as he can on the sand, with the opening of the V toward the water. Then he alarms the crabs, and they come scurrying up the little beach in multitudes, bound for their holes. As they come they carry their big claw aloft, somewhat as the soldier carries his gun. It is from this habit that the fiddler crab gets the name of soldier crab, by which it is also known. Those crabs that are opposite the opening in the V hustle with the rest of the line, but when they strike the board sides they are thrown more and more together, until they converge in a mass at the point. The fisherman, sitting outside, takes them out by the handful.—New York Sun.

Leonardo da Vinci.

Leonardo da Vinci, being a great architect and engineer, as well as painter and sculptor, left notebooks proving that he had studied the flight of birds and had planned flying machines to be driven by wings or by screw propellers.
But as Leonardo was good at figures he seems to have abandoned his plans after finding out how much force would be needed.—Tudor Jenks in St. Nicholas.

The Weak Point.

The owner of a menagerie in Berlin, which included a "happy family," consisting of a lion, a tiger, a wolf and a sheep, was asked one day in confidence how long these animals had lived together. "About nine months," he replied, "excepting the sheep, which has to be renewed occasionally."—London

Mrs. E. Wyatt, of Port Road, West Hindmarsh, So. Australia, writes of the sad condition of her little daughter, whose portrait she also sends:

"My daughter was afflicted with Eczema of the most aggravated type. The disease first appeared in eruptions on her head, then her hair began to fall out, and in spite of the best medical advice and treatment she grew steadily worse. The sores were full of matter and were extremely offensive. Her eyes became affected, and she was, in truth, in a terrible state. My neighbors were very sympathetic and took great interest in the case. They persuaded me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and I am most thankful to be able to say that this wonderful medicine completely restored my daughter's health. She has now as good a head of hair as anyone could wish, her eyes are perfectly well, and she is a fine girl of eight years with every prospect of growing up to be a strong and healthy woman."

WESTMINSTER, Cal., March 21, 1894.—Some time ago, on awakening one morning, I found that I had rheumatism in my knee so badly that, as I remarked to my wife, it would be impossible for me to attend to business that day. Remembering that I had some of Chamberlain's Pain Balm in my store I sent for a bottle, and rubbed the afflicted parts thoroughly with it, according to directions, and within an hour I was completely relieved. One application had done the business. It is the best liniment on the market, and I sell it under a positive guarantee. R. T. HARRIS. For sale by all druggists and dealers. He turned the money over to Robert M. Welch, the Coast representative of the racing board, and that gentleman will now allow Terrill to ride in the professional events at Central Park.

COFFEE ESTATE AND LANDS FOR SALE.

I am directed to sell at Public Auction on Friday, June 26, 1896.

at 12 o'clock noon of said day at my sales-rooms on Queen street, in Honolulu (unless sooner disposed of at private sale) the following described property, namely:

A tract of land about 2,300 acres in fee simple situate at Kolo and Oleloanoana in South Kona, Island of Hawaii, about eight miles by a good road from Hookea, one of the largest villages in Kona. There is an excellent landing on the land itself from where the coffee and other produce could be shipped and a good site for a mill near the landing. Fifty acres of land are in coffee. Roughly estimated there is about seven hundred acres of splendid coffee land lying all in one block on both sides of the Government Road. Eight hundred acres lying above and to the East of the seven hundred acres above mentioned is also excellent land and although at a higher altitude is no doubt also well adapted for coffee culture. The lower land below the coffee belt is suitable for pineapples and sisal. There is a drying house, store and work rooms, a Gordon's Pulper, laborers quarters and water tanks at the plantation and the land is partly walled. There has never been any blight on this land, although coffee was planted there a great many years ago. Old residents of Kona like the late D. H. Nabinnu, J. W. Kuaimoku and others have testified to this fact. There is a sea fishery appurtenant to Oleloanoana I. Terms cash or part of the purchase price can remain on mortgage at eight per cent. per annum. Deeds and stamps at the expense of purchaser. A map of the property can be seen and further particulars obtained at my sales room

Hawaiian Electric Company.

The cleanest, brightest safest and really, in the long run, the cheapest and best light for use in the family residence, is the incandescent electric light. Safe; nothing could be safer. A few days ago a prominent gentleman of Honolulu came rushing down to the office of the Electric Company and said: "Give me figures for wiring my house, and I want it done at once; no more lamps for me. Last night a lamp tipped over and it came so near setting fire to the house and burning my children and I take no more risks."

This is the sentiment of quite a number in the past few weeks, who have ordered their houses fitted with the perfect light. Just think it over and make up your mind that you want the best and safest light; send for the Hawaiian Electric Company and tell them what you want.

We have a complete stock of everything in this line and have just received a lot of the very latest designs in chandeliers.

SANITARIUM.

Something Further of a Project that Merits Encouragement.

To what The Star of yesterday had on the Sanitarium project there can be but little added beyond some notes on a delightful day in the mountains and perhaps some further details of the enterprise. As to the institution itself, Dr. Kellogg and his associates are decided upon the establishment of the same on Oahu. They are now looking for a location. Beach quarters are naturally desirable, but such a site lacks the dry air and the coolness found in the foothills. The plateau shown the visitors by Messrs. Dillingham and von Holt is admirably situated and has almost all the features desired. Mr. Dillingham volunteers to furnish the land, build the wagon roads and otherwise materially assist Dr. Kellogg's mind is not yet made up, but he is more than favorably impressed with the Waianae mountains site. The building spot that would be chosen affords a view of the sea, Diamond Head and Honolulu, besides a wide sweep of the great hills. There is much grand scenery in the immediate vicinity, such as Nanakuli valley and the camping ground of the goat hunters.

No matter where on Oahu the Sanitarium is placed, it will be very extensively advertised throughout the world and if it has the success of the Battle Creek institution of which it is to be a branch, will attract thousands to the Islands.

The party had a fine outing with lunch at Walter Dillingham's camp, the sight of many wild goats and cattle, views of several springs and a few incidents. Excellent mounts were furnished by Mr. von Holt. C. B. Ripley's pony fell twice, but the rider was unhurt.

THE KASH.

The Kash is a new gent's furnishing goods store that has just opened for public patronage in the Waverly block on Hotel street. Mr. I. Livingston, the manager is well known to the Honolulu public, formerly connected with M. Goldberg.

Mr. Livingston is to be complimented on his taste in selecting his goods and the arrangement of stock on the shelves.

The interior decorations of the store, counters, show cases and shelving harmonize completely.

The store has an abundance of light for the displaying of goods, and is well fitted with electric lights for evening.

The policy to be pursued will be the latest styles in every department for cash at popular prices.

The stock consists of furnishing goods, clothing, hats, caps, and special attention will be paid to the fitting out of the children.

The store will be open this evening for the inspection of goods.
