Insurance.

WHY THE Equitable Life Assurance Society

of the United States is the Best company with which to Assure.

I.—Because of its Safety.
Its surplus is larger than that of any other assurance company.

II.—Because of its Promptness.
Of 1,043 death claims paid in 1885, nearly one-half were paid the very day they were received; while of the remainder, the majority were paid within the following three days. No other company can show such a record.

III.—Because of its Liberality and Reforms.
All policies are INCONTTESTABLE after three years. All incontestable policies are payable immediately upon receipt of proofs of death. The Society's policy contract is clear and simple, and liberal in its conditions. Its Non-forfeiting Tontine (or Semi-Tontine) policy affords all the ultimate benefits of the full Tontine, and has during its earlier years the surrender value and other material advantages of ordinary life policies.

IV.—Profit.
No other company is paying on its policies, as large profits as are shown under the Equitable's matured Tontine policies with fifteen-year periods. Persons desiring assurance may obtain estimates of the probable results of similar policies, and of policies with twenty-year terms, which are expected to show even larger profits.

V.—Prospective Advantages.
The unexampled progress of the Equitable in the past is the best guarantee of the increasing future value of assurance with the Equitable.

THE LEGISLATURE.

SEVENTY-FIRST DAY.

Monday August 9th.
The Legislative Assembly met at 10 a. m., being opened with prayer by Rev. J. Waimanu, Chaplain. Present: Ministers Gibson, Creighton, Kanoa and Dare; Nobles Walker (President), Cleghorn and Bush; Reqs. Keau, Baker, Kauli, Amara, Brown, Kaulia, Kaunamano, Wight, Nahale, Nahinu, Kekoa, Kalia, Aholo, Kaukan, Castle, Kaat, Dickey, Paehalo, Kama and Palohau. Minutes of last meeting (Monday, July 26) were read in both languages and confirmed.

PEITITIONS.
Rep. Castle presented two petitions from Honolulu, against legalizing the importation or sale of opium, which was referred to the Sanitary Committee; also, that the pay of mail carrier from Makena to Ulupalakua, Maui, be increased to $2 a week, which was referred to select committee on postal items.

Rep. Palohau, a petition that the salary of the Government physician at Lihue be increased, which was referred to the Sanitary Committee; also, from one Kaini, for $100 for land taken for a road, which was referred to Public Lands Committee.

Rep. Brown, on suspension of the rules, read the following petition:—"To the Hon. J. S. Walker, President Legislative Assembly, 1886, and to the Nobles and Representatives in the Legislature of the Kingdom assembled:

"The petition of William Flowerdew, a citizen of Great Britain, respectfully represents, that heretofore, to wit, on the 30th day of June, 1883, while residing at these Islands, he obtained from the Minister of the Interior, John E. Bush, permission under grant of that date to lay down tramways and run cars upon such streets, in the city of Honolulu and its suburbs, as he might select; that under the authority of such grant or franchise, and acting in good faith, and thinking that such grant was of force and effect in law, he proceeded to San Francisco, in the United States of America, and purchased materials and cars and engaged the services of a competent engineer to superintend the laying down of the tramway, and returned with such materials and said engineer to Honolulu, and ready to engage in and carry on the work contemplated under such grant, and notified the then Minister of the Interior, Chas T. Gulick, that he was ready and willing and was about to proceed to work on the laying of said tramways; that on the fourth day of August he received a communication from the said Gulick as such Minister of the Interior, that the grant, before being acted upon or work commenced thereunder, should be submitted to the Privy Council of State; that on the 16th day of August your petitioner replied to the said Minister of the Interior that he had no objection to the matter being laid before the Privy Council, that thereafter he caused an agreement to be drawn and submitted to the Minister of the Interior for signature, setting forth fully what work was to be done and what streets would be operated with tramways, in which agreement was also set forth the rates of fares to be charged for passengers, which agreement was not executed by said Minister of the Interior; that thereafter and in said month of August your petitioner caused work to be commenced to lay tramways; and on the 27th day of said August your petitioner was restrained by injunction issued out of the Supreme Court of the Kingdom in a suit brought by said Minister of the Interior; and that on the 10th day of September said injunction was made perpetual and your petitioner forever restrained from proceeding with the work contemplated to be done under and by virtue of said grant or franchise. That in consequence thereof your petitioner has suffered great loss and damage in the premises, caused by the purchase of materials, the loss of time and other expenses caused and borne by him under the terms of said grant or franchise, amounting in the aggregate to more than $5,000.

"Wherefore he prays that the sum of $5,000 be appropriated by this honorable body, and that the same be paid him as a full compensation for all loss and damages sustained by him in the premises.

"And your petitioner will ever pray, etc., etc."
Dated Honolulu, August 9, 1886.
"WM. FLOWERDEW,
"By his Attorney in fact,
"ALEX. J. CARTWRIGHT."

Referred to the committee on Public Lands and Internal Improvements, a motion by Rep. Keau, to indefinitely postpone it, being lost.
Rep. Dole presented a petition from Lihue, asking a grant of $300 for improving the road from Nawiliwili to Kalaekahi, which was laid on the table to be considered with the Appropriation Bill.

Rep. Kaui, a petition from Hana, praying that a law be enacted to provide for the shipping of taro flour to other countries, which was referred to the Committee of Commerce.

Rep. Kaunamano, a petition from A. W. Hanallo, asking for a balance of $132.38, commission as tax collector, which was referred to the Finance Committee.

Rep. Thurston presented a petition each from Kaunana and Kanoai, praying for compensation for serving writs on delinquent tax payers for Mr. Geo. H. Luce, tax collector in Honolulu. Referred to Judiciary Committee.

Rep. Brown submitted the following questions to the Minister of Foreign Affairs: "I hereby request that His Excellency the Minister of Foreign Affairs inform this house what pay the Consul-General at San Francisco receives? If he receives no pay from the Government, from what does he receive compensation for his services? If from the fees of the office, what proportion thereof? And, if any balance remains for the benefit of the Government, where does the credit appear? How much, if any sum of money is now due the Government? Has the Government received any realization as yet? If so how much?"

The same member submitted the following question to the Minister of the Interior: "I hereby request that His Excellency the Minister of the Interior inform this house how many free water privileges are granted, with the names of the parties using the water free of charge, and from what time such parties have used the Government water free of charge."

Rep. Thurston enquired respecting a question previously submitted by him to the Minister of Finance, relative to pay of tax assessors.

Minister Kanoa submitted the reply in writing, which was laid on the table.

Rep. Dole presented the following resolution: "Whereas, the Hon. J. L. Kaulukou, member for Hilo, has been commissioned by His Majesty the King as Marshal of the Kingdom, and is now acting under said commission as Marshal as aforesaid; Be it resolved, that the seat of the Hon. J. L. Kaulukou is hereby declared vacant, and a new election be ordered to fill such vacancy."

It gave him pain to introduce this resolution, for unseating a member with whom he had cordial relations during the former part of the session. But acting in his public capacity it seemed to him that the combining of the office of Marshal, which was one of the executive offices of the kingdom, with the position of a representative, was a violation of the Constitution, where it declared that the Executive and the Legislative should be separate and distinct. He moved the resolution be referred to a select committee, as the member whose position was affected belonged to the Judiciary Committee.

Rep. Kalua moved in amendment to refer it to the committee of the whole to-morrow.

Rep. Keau moved that the resolution be indefinitely postponed. He concluded his remarks in Hawaiian by moving the previous question, which was not seconded.

Rep. Thurston said the question involved was one of the gravest importance. All the members might not be able to decide so promptly as the member for Honolulu. The principal was one that demanded more dignified treatment than spontaneous killing of the resolution.

Rep. Dickey favored reference to committee of the whole. Members had sworn to support the Constitution, and should be careful in dealing with questions of its construction.

The motion to refer to committee of the whole carried, 15 to 13. Ministers Gibson, Creighton and Kanoa voting in the minority, and Minister Dare in the majority.

Rep. Kekoa presented a resolution, stating that the late Minister of Interior had neglected to report on the prostitutes of Honolulu, and requiring the present Minister to report within three days, giving the number, names, state of health, medical attendants, etc., of those characters.

Rep. Brown moved the indefinite postponement of the resolution, saying the hon. member could get the information desired on application to the Secretary of the Board of Health, without having the shame of those unfortunates paraded before the world.

The motion to indefinitely postpone the resolution carried.
Noble Bush gave notice of an act to provide a permanent settlement for the widow of the late John E. Barnard.

Rep. Dole submitted a question to the Minister of Finance, as to whether the Government had negotiated any loan since the Ministerial statements of indebtedness were presented, and, if so, as to the particulars.

Rep. Dickey presented a resolution, that the Supreme Court be asked to construe, for the benefit of the Assembly, Article 20 of the Constitution, and make report as soon as possible.

Rep. Kaulukou said one judge was absent and the Chief Justice was tired out and going to the country, so that a reply from the full Court could not be got. If the mover did not want the Marshal to hold a seat in the house, he should say so and not beat about the bush. He moved indefinite postponement.

Minister Dare stated that the question raised regarded the right of the Marshal to a seat in the house. As the Constitution made the Assembly judge of the qualifications of its own members, he did not see that the Supreme Court had anything to do with the question.

Rep. Dickey cited the provision of the Constitution requiring the Supreme Court to give its opinion on questions when desired by the Assembly.

Indefinite postponement carried.
Rep. Amara presented a resolution, that $2,000 be appropriated for educating the children of the late Rev. Abel Clark, Government school teacher at Waiakua, Oahu. Referred, on motion of Noble Cleghorn, to the Committee on Education.

ORDER OF THE DAY.
Rep. Kaui moved the order of the day, which carried.

Consideration of the Appropriation Bill in committee of the whole.
Rep. Dole moved, as it was 12 minutes to 12, that the house take recess till 1:30, which carried.

FOREIGN NEWS.

(Dates to August 2nd, per steamships Atlas and Zealandia.)

GREAT BRITAIN.
The new Cabinet has been announced as follows: Secretary of War, Right Hon. William Henry Smith; First Lord of the Admiralty, Lord George Hamilton. Lord Chancellor, Lord Halsbury; Secretary for India, Right Hon. Frederick Arthur Stanley; Lord President of the Council, Viscount Cranbrook; President of the Local Government Board, Right Hon. Henry Chaplin; President of the Board of Trade, Right Hon. Edward Stanhope; Postmaster-General, Lord John Manners; First Commissioner of Works, Right Hon. David Plunkett; Attorney-General, Sir R. E. Webster; Lord Chancellor of Ireland, Lord Ashbourne. The first three of the above are official announcements.

It has been decided that Lord Randolph Churchill shall have the office of Chancellor of the Exchequer and the leadership in the House of Commons.

Serious rioting took place in Belfast, on the 31st July and the following day. A band of music marched to meet a party of Protestant Sunday-school children who were returning from an excursion. The crowd accompanying the band groaned at a number of Catholics who were assembled at Carrick Hill. The latter replied with stones, and the others retaliated. Wild rumors spread throughout the city and a large mob of Orangemen soon gathered. The police tried to disperse the crowd, but their efforts were useless and the Orangemen continued to increase. The mob attacked and wrecked a large tavern owned by a Catholic named McKenna. The police frequently charged the mob, but were repulsed with stones.

The rioters then wrecked a number of houses believed to be inhabited by Catholics. They uprooted the pavement and fired stones at the police. The latter were finally ordered to fire buckshot and the command was promptly obeyed. A boy named Knox, who was going on an errand, was shot dead. Many persons were wounded, some of them seriously. The riot had now reached such proportions that it was deemed necessary to call out the militia. The rioters were apparently awed by the appearance of soldiers, and soon dispersed to their homes. The fighting was renewed, however, next day, and the police were again compelled to fire upon the mob. Many of the rioters were wounded. Subsequently the mob wrecked several buildings, and the military were again summoned. Many policemen were badly cut by missiles thrown at them by the rioters. Forty-six arrests were made.

An exchange of views among Parnellites has led to a decision to give the Government time to prepare an Irish bill, but the Parnellites will demand a measure for the suspension of evictions, owing to the fall in prices and numerous tenants in Ireland are in arrears and are unable to pay their rents.

If the introduction of the Irish bill be postponed until Spring, landlords will in all likelihood resort to wholesale evictions unless restrained from doing so.

Mr. Kitson's position as President of the Liberal Federation is menaced by his acceptance of a baronetcy. Mr. Chamberlain and his followers are delighted at the situation. They ridicule the idea of a baronet being at the head of a Democratic caucus.

A prize-fight which resulted in the death of one of the principals took place at Rhonda, Wales. The pugilists were Evans and James. Thirty-two rounds were fought. Evans was carried to his home in a horrible condition, and died shortly after his arrival there.

The Eastern Question seems to be again opening up.

A despatch from Sophia states that the collection of war stores and arms and the drilling of troops are going on with renewed activity. Military preparations are also progressing on the Servian line of the frontier. The situation in both countries indicates uncertainty as to the duration of peace. Reports from Montenegro sources show that the Turkish forces in Albania are receiving re-enforcements, the intention apparently being to bring the garrison up to a war footing. Russia is getting bolder and now demands the cession of Erzerum, in Armenia, the possession of which would give her the key to the whole country south. The necessity of supporting Turkey against further Russian encroachments is universally assured.

A convention between England and China has been signed at Peking. By the terms of the convention China agrees to the occupation of Burma by the English and promises to encourage trade between China and Burma. A commission is being formed to delimit the Burmese frontier.

The Liberal ministers have decided not to shape their tactics until the Queen's speech has been read in Parliament.

The Exchange Telegraph Company announces that it is informed on high authority that Lord Salisbury's Irish policy will include a proposal to lend to Ireland £5,000,000 to enable her to establish local banks on the Scotch system, and lend money at nominal interest to farmers and manufacturers, in order to stimulate and develop trade.

It has been officially announced that the Marquis of Londonderry has been appointed Viceroy of Ireland and Lord Idlesleigh Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs.

PANAMA AND SOUTH AMERICA.
Small-pox has made its appearance in Colon, Panama, and there have been a few deaths. It was introduced by the steamer Atlas, from Kensington, Jamaica.

The vexatious passport system still continues in Colon, much to the disgust and annoyance of traveling travelers. Not the expense of it is so much complained of as the delay and trouble.

Mr. W. A. Chilleay and staff of engineers arrived from New York and will proceed to complete the great Oroya railroad and extend it to the renowned silver mines of Cerero d'Passo, for which project Mr. M. P. Grace has received concessions from the Peruvian Government.

Mr. Alfonso Pezet has been appointed Consul-General for Peru and Panama. He is chief editor of the Spanish section of the Star and Herald.

SOUTH AMERICA.
Another popular demonstration has been made in Callao, Peru, against the Jesuits remaining in Peru and has been followed by one in Lima. Petitions to Congress are being sent in praying for their immediate expulsion.

The law passed by Congress for the reduction of salaries and reorganization of the public departments is being strictly enforced by the Executive and all possible economy is being observed.

Important reforms are being attempted in Chili. One project provides that no Senator or deputy shall be interested in any public contract, another is that neither President nor any Minister shall give an office to a near relative unless it is proved that he is qualified in every respect to hold it.

Another project is being agitated, which is of a startling character, and that is, that the President of the Republic shall in future be elected by a majority of Congress instead of by public agitation. This matter is due to the terrible bloodshed in the last elections, when upwards of forty persons were killed and a large number wounded.

The electric light has been introduced into Chili, and has been placed in the new theatre and in the Capitol.

Smallpox is making sad ravages in the Republic, particularly in Santiago, the capital, and it is expected that vaccination will be made compulsory.

UNITED STATES.
The Chicago Farmer's Review says: A prolonged and serious drought, which has materially shortened the Spring wheat crop and caused a serious menace to the corn crop, was partially broken during the last week of July, copious rains having fallen in Kansas and portions of Missouri.

The outlook is reported especially gloomy in the entire corn belt for all late-planted corn. One half of Iowa counties report that a serious injury has already befallen the corn fields, and that the yield for the State will fall short of an average by from 25 to 40 per cent.

The corn outlook in Minnesota is more favorable, with prospects of an average yield with continued rains. In Wisconsin the tenor of the reports does not indicate to exceed two-thirds of an ordinary yield. In portions of the State there has been no rain for six weeks, and all the crops are a bad failure. In Ohio, Indiana and Michigan the outlook is still favorable for an average yield of corn. In Faribault, Mower and Meeker counties, in Minnesota, reports indicate a better wheat yield than was predicted in previous reports, but the remaining counties indicate that the total yield for the State will exhibit a material short age.

Harvesting is progressing rapidly in Minnesota and Dakota. In Minnesota and Bonhomme counties, Dakota, wheat is threshing out twelve to fifteen bushels to the acre. In Faulk county one half the crop was cut for fodder. In Nebraska and Iowa the wheat yield will be considerably short of the average. Reports indicate a very short flax yield, and in the entire Western and Northwestern belt the outlook for the potato crop is very poor.

MISCELLANEOUS.
M. De Lesseps has hitherto tried foreign capital in aid of his projects, but this loan has not been offered outside of France. Inspired articles have been published in the French newspapers for the purpose of arousing the people. These articles contain statements to the effect that American, English and German wreckers are aiming to control of the canal and complete the work themselves. The new loan closed 60 cents higher. Suez canal shares closed 11 francs lower.

The American bark W. B. Flint, the first tea ship from Yokohama, arrived at Victoria, B. C., on the 26th, making the passage in thirty-five days. She had a cargo of tea for transportation over the Canadian Pacific Railway for Canadian and English consignees. The vessel was towed to Port Moody, where the cargo was to be put on the cars for the East and sent through by express train.

Wasfi Bey, who arrived at Cairo from Soudan, reported that Khartoum had been razed by the rebels. He believed a force marching to re-establish the Khedive's authority would meet with welcome rather than resistance.

A Berlin despatch says: Herr Schwarz had been compelled to terminate his explorations in the Cameroon country owing to the hostility of the natives. He has, however, concluded treaties with several powerful chiefs giving Germany authority to establish a protectorate over that part of the country governed by them.

Fischer, the African explorer, reports that he has reached Wanga, north of Pangani, with a remnant of his expedition, after a journey of extreme hardship lasting thirty-two days. The members of the expedition suffered severely from hunger. Of the 230 natives who accompanied the party, fifty-seven died from disease or from wounds received in battle. Fischer has secured valuable botanical and ornithological collections. He will proceed to Zanzibar from Wanga.

Great Excitement in Wales about a Marvellous Cure.

Living Six Years Without Going to Bed.

MR. EDITOR.—While spending a few days at the pleasant seaside town of Aberystwith, Cardiganhire, I heard a story which seemed to me either a fabulous story or a marvellous cure. The story was that a poor sufferer who had not been able to lie down in bed for six long years, given up to die by all the Doctors, had been speedily cured by some Patent Medicine. It was related with the more implicit confidence from the circumstance, as was said, that the Vicar of Llanystryd was familiar with the facts, and could vouch for the truth of the report.

Having a little curiosity to know how such stories grow in travelling, I took the liberty while at the village of Llanystryd to call upon the Vicar, the Rev. T. Evans, and to enquire about this wonderful cure. Through a total stranger to him, both he and his wife most graciously entertained me in a half hour's conversation, principally touching the case of Mr. Pugh, in which they seemed to take a deep and sympathetic interest, having been familiar with his sufferings, and now rejoiced in what seemed to them a most remarkable cure. The Vicar remarked that he presumed his name had been connected with the report from his having mentioned the case to Mr. John Thomas, a chemist of Llanon. He said Mr. Pugh was formerly a resident of their parish, but was now living in the parish of Llanddeiniol. He strongly vouched Mr. Wm. Pugh's character as a respectable farmer and worthy of credit. I left the venerable Vicar with a livelier sense of the happy relation of a pastor and people, feeling that he was one who truly sympathized with all who are afflicted in mind, body, or estate.

On my return to Aberystwith, I was impressed with a desire to see Mr. Pugh, whose reputation stood so high. His farm is called Pancom-Mawr, signifying "above the dingle," situated near the summit of a smooth round hill, overlooking a beautiful valley in which is situated the lovely ivy-mantled Church of Llanddeiniol. I found Mr. Pugh, apparently about 40 years old, of medium height, rather slight, with a pleasant and intelligent face. I told him I had heard of his great affliction and of his remarkable and almost miraculous relief, and that I had come to learn from his own lips, what there was of truth in the reports.

Mr. Pugh remarked that his neighbors had taken a kindly and sympathetic interest in his case for many years, but of late their interest had been greatly awakened by a happy change in his condition. What you report as having heard abroad, said he, is substantially true, with one exception. I never understood that my case was ever given up as hopeless by any Physician. I have been treated by several Doctors hereabouts, as good as any in Wales; but unfortunately no prescription of theirs ever brought the desired relief.

Fifteen years ago, he said, I first became conscious of a sour and deranged stomach and loss of appetite, which the Doctors told me was Dyspepsia. What food I could hold in my stomach seemed to do me no good and was often thrown up with painful retchings. This was followed after a time with a hoarseness and a raw soreness of the throat which the Doctors called bronchitis, and I was treated for that, but with little success. Then came shortness of breath and a sense of suffocation, especially at night, with clammy sweat, and I would have to get out of bed and sometimes open a door or window in winter weather to fill my lungs with the cold air.

About six years ago I became so bad that I could not sleep in bed, but had to take my uneasy rest and dreamy sleep sitting in an armchair. My affliction seemed to be working downward into my bowels as well as upwards into my lungs and throat. In the violent coughing spasms which grew more frequent, my abdomen would expand and collapse and at times it would seem that I should suffocate. All this time I was reduced in strength so that I could perform no hard labor and my spirits were consequently much depressed.

ANCIENT TUNNELS.

If you leave with me Naples by carriage (although we might go by steam train narrow gauge railroad), we immediately go through a tunnel three-quarters of a mile long, cut through a mountain 800 feet high. This tunnel is driven through a volcanic rock called tufa, which is about as hard as the Indiana "freestone" found in the vicinity of the bluffs of White River near Waverley. When was this tunnel (which forms the highway for the whole country west of Naples) cut through the mountain of Posilippo? The answer to this inquiry will be interesting to all engineers, and is worthy a place in your railroad "column," which keeps us posted up in the railway traffic and in the diamond-paned, nickle-plated "Union Depot." This tunnel of Posilippo, as it now exists, was cut through only twenty-seven years before Christ, and therefore, has the juvenile age of 1,913 years, or is 1,519 years older than the discovery of America by Christopher Columbus. Augustus Caesar's great Minister of Public Works, Marcus Agrippa, made the present tunnel—or he may have enlarged it from a smaller one that answered the commercial communication and necessities of the days before the empire. This tunnel is to-day, as I said, the great highway to the heart of Naples, as it has been for more than 1,900 years. The great Appian way ran to the Capua, within thirty miles of Puteoli, thence this magnificent Roman highroad, under the name of the Consular way, was continued to Puteoli, and then the Consular way pushed on through Neapolis (Naples), Herculaneum, Pompeii, Stabia, Nucera, Sarnum, Paestum down to Rhegium. This tunnel of Posilippo was formerly called the grotto or tunnel of Puteoli. The ancients worked in this manner, viz.: they began their perforations at each end, and also from above in two places equidistant from the terminus of the tunnel. The guide books, both Murray and Baedeker, will tell you the perforations or shafts from above were made by Alfonso I. in the fifteenth century, which is altogether wrong. No less than four tunnels of Roman construction existed in the vicinity of Naples, and they, all of them, even the latest, rediscovered and opened in 1842, have shafts from above.

The Romans were great road, tunnel and bridge builders, and we have never yet given their engineers half the credit which we should for their great science and skill. Nowhere, not even in the City of Rome, or on the Roman Campagna, are there so many evidences of their engineering skill as are to be found in the vicinity of Naples. A young architect from London, with whom I have recently gone over these classic scenes, has been perfectly astonished at the engineering abilities displayed by the Romans in their public and private works near Naples. I have been glad to see that at the recent meeting of the British Association of Science, held at Aberdeen, Scotland, B. Baker, an eminent British civil engineer, read a paper recalling certain engineering feats of the ancients. As there are many engineers and others who are readers of the "Journal," I think it will interest them for me to quote one portion of Mr. Baker's paper. Mr. Baker says: "I have no doubt that as able and enterprising engineers existed prior to the age of steam and steel as now exist, and their work was as beneficial to mankind, though different in direction. In the important matter of water supply to towns, indeed, I doubt whether, having reference to facility of execution, even greater works were not done 2,000 years ago than now. Herodotus speaks of a tunnel eight feet square and nearly a mile long driven through a mountain in order to supply the city of Samos with water, and his statement, though long doubted, was verified in 1882, through the abbot of a neighboring cloister accidentally unearthing some stone slabs. The German Archaeological Society sent out Ernst Fabricius to make a complete survey of the work, and the record reads like that of a modern engineering undertaking. Thus from a covered reservoir in the hills proceeded an arched conduit about 1,000 yards long, partly driven as a tunnel and partly executed on the 'cut and cover' system adopted on the London underground railway. The tunnel proper, more than 1,100 yards in length, was hewn by hammer and chisel through the solid limestone rock. It was driven from the two ends like the great Alpine tunnels, without intermediate shafts, and the engineers of 2,400 years ago might well be congratulated for getting only some dozen feet out of level and little more out of line. From the lower end of the branches tunnels were constructed to supply the city mains and fountains, and the explorers found ventilating shafts and side entrances, earthenware socket pipes, with cement joints, and other interesting details connected with the water supply of towns."

The tunnel of Posilippo is also a fine specimen of ancient engineering. Millions of human beings have each year, for nearly twenty centuries, passed through it. Roman chariots and other ancient vehicles have left their autographs scraped and scratched into the lining stone, and modern waggons and carriages still rub their hubs against it, leaving their traces for generations to come. Strabo wrote about this tunnel; Seneca described his passage through it; Petronius satirized it; and Petrarch, Boccaccio, Cappaccio, and more modern writers have told us their thoughts about it; and it seems good for a thousand years to come. Virgil's tomb is just above its eastern entrance, and the poet's farms (where he wrote a part of both the "Georgics" and the "Aeneid") are over it.—[Auckland Evening Star.

A Woman's Sufferings and Gratitude.

A Voice from Austria.

Near the village of Zillingdorf, in Lower Austria, lives Maria Haas, an intelligent and industrious woman, whose story of physical suffering and final relief, as related by herself, is of interest to English women. "I was employed," she says, "in the work of a large farm-house. Over-work brought on sick headache, followed by a cough and shortness of breath, until finally I was unable to retain either food or drink. I was compelled to take to my bed for several weeks. Getting a little better from rest and quiet, I sought to do some work, but was soon taken with a pain in my side, which in a little while seemed to spread over my whole body, and throbbled in my every limb. This was followed by a cough and shortness of breath, until finally I could not sew, and I took to my bed for the second, and, as I thought, for the last time. My friends told me that my time had nearly come, and that I could not live longer, when the doctor put on their green face more. Then I happened to get one of the Seigel pamphlets. I read it, and my dear mother bought me a bottle of Seigel's Syrup, which I took exactly according to directions, and I had not taken the whole of it before I felt a great change for the better. My last illness began June 1, 1882, and continued to August 9th, when I began to take the Syrup. Very soon I could do a little light work. The cough left me, and I was no more troubled in bathing. Now I am perfectly cured. And oh, how happy I am! I cannot express gratitude enough for Seigel's Syrup. Now I must tell you that the doctor in our district distributed handbills cautioning people against the medicine, telling them it would do them no good, and many were thereby influenced to destroy the Seigel pamphlets; but now, wherever one is to be found, it is kept like a relic. The few preserved are borrowed to read, and I have lent mine for six miles around our district. People have come eighteen miles to get me to buy the medicine for them, knowing that it cured me, and to be sure to get the right kind. I know a woman who was looking like death, and who told them there was no help for her, but she had consulted several doctors, but none could help her. I told her of Seigel's Syrup, and wrote the name down for her that she might make no mistake. She took my advice and the Syrup, and now she is in perfect health, and all the people around us are amazed. The medicine has made such progress in our neighborhood that people say they don't want the doctor any more, but they take the Syrup. Sufferers from gout who were confined to their bed, and could hardly move a finger, have been cured by it. There is a girl in our district who caught a cold by going through some water, and was in bed five years with costiveness and rheumatic pain, and she has now been cured and watch by her. There was not a doctor in the surrounding districts to whom her mother had not applied to relieve her child, but every one crossed themselves and said they could not help her. Whenever the little bell rang which is rung in our place when somebody is dead, we thought surely it was for her, but Seigel's Syrup and Pills saved her life, and now she is as healthy as anybody goes to church and can work even in the fields. Everybody was astonished when they saw her out, knowing how many years she had been in bed. To-day she adds her gratitude to mine for God's mercies and Seigel's Syrup. MARIA HAAS.

After Many Years.

"Whittier Woods, near Chorley, December 28, 1883.

"Dear Sir,—Mother Seigel's medicine sells exceeding well with us, all that try it speak highly in its favor. We had a case of a young lady that had been troubled many years with pain in her chest. She tells us that the pains were entirely taken away after a few doses of your medicine.—Yours truly, E. PEEL."

After Several Years.

"Stoke Ferry, January 9th, 1884.

"Gentlemen,—I have used Seigel's Syrup for several years, and have found it a most efficacious remedy for Liver complaints and general debility, and I always keep some by me, and cannot speak too highly in its praise.—I remain, yours truly, Harriet King."

After Sixteen Years.

"95, Newgate Street, Worksop, Notts, December 26th, 1883.

"Gentlemen,—It is with the greatest of pleasure I accord my testimony as to the efficacy of Mother Seigel's Syrup. My wife, who has suffered from acute Dyspepsia for over sixteen years, is now perfectly better through the sole help of your Syrup. I have sent pounds in medicines from doctors—in fact, I began to think she was incurable, until your marvellous medicine was tried. I remain, yours, thankfully, ALFRED FORD."

The Effects have been Wonderful.

"Hilford Road Dispensary, Dukinfield, May 3, 1884.

"Dear Sir,—I am happy to inform you that the sale of your Syrup and Pills increases here continually. Several of my customers speak of having derived most benefit from the use of these than from any other medicine. In some instances the effects have been wonderful. Yours very respectfully, IT WYLL PNO. EDWIN EASTWOOD, J.B."
