THE SANDWICH ISLANDS.

BY ANNE MARIE PRESCOTT.

It is now half past five, I have made tea and toast. In the east the sky is blue and golden, there is not a cloud, the light is magnificent. The village is rousing from its prolonged slumber of ten hours. The shrill, first whistles of the plantations are now heard in the land near and far. There is the sound of the little locomotive, and the train is starting for Mahukona to see the steamer off, 20 miles from here, the entire length of this island's one railroad from the plantation of Niulii, one mile east of us, to the port. Now, I tell you, it is 6 o'clock and a more beautiful day never shone out of the sky.

THE LAND OF HAWAII.

"But, you have left the 'journey' behind you, nor told us details. You must wish to forget it. What is the fare, please, for that 20-mile ride behind that stunning little engine, and over that most wonderful piece of engineering?" "Bide a wee," Oui-i.

(A few days later). There has now been a storm. Look at that rainbow in the north-west! "Oh-h! after every storm do come such calms?"

After every storm do come such calms, Othello; and the writer is "a woman of her word." Oui-i.

One sunset this week was so peculiar that if it could have been correctly painted there is not a famous artist that would not have condemned it, and declared there was never such a combination of color and grouping of vapor in the sky. Humph! but this is Hawaii! Like all exceedingly beautiful things it soon vanished, for heavy masses of rain clouds swept down over it in their jealousy.

HONOLULU.

The sun rises behind Punchbowl an extinct volcano, a good sized hill in Honolulu, and over that hill, too, you can see the Southern Cross and all its magnificent train of planet and star, if you are looking what time they are all visible. There is a good carriage road to the top of this hill and from its summit one looks down on all the town, on church-spire and palace, on ship mast and man-of-war deck, and out to sea.

Honolulu looks fine! She is set in a frame of trees, and she looks a "perfect picture." But, "distance lends enchantment" to my view (eyes) for that city is not a beauty, is not altogether lovely by any measure you may choose to use. It has points of good looks. And they are few and far between, literally. There are many possibilities for Honolulu in the way of pleasing views — attractive corners, inviting parks, wide streets, beautiful show-windows elegant Post Office; but, as yet, these and many another are realities. The drug stores are a pretty feature, and a part of Fort street is not ugly to scan, even with the critic's eye.

The Portuguese are not a stupid short-sighted race; and when the laboring class wanted homes in that city, they selected and leased, or bought, one of the most beautiful driveways, cool and high with the finest view, nearest to the town — the business centre. As they are of small means and smaller education everything must be on a meagre scale; so that tourists on visiting that point meet sbanties and mario-gold, plaid shawls and mormonism; and the Chinese coffee shop. "Rome was not built in a day." And when the Mongolian takes a back seat, and Azores stows up higher, when all those lazes are turned into streets, and rattle-traps into the fire. What a charming town the capital now is! Oui-i!

AFTER-GLOW.

In these islands, outside of the metropolis and "greater Hilo," one is cut off to a very great extent of the doings and fashions of the day. One hears of them as in a sort of dream or as strains of far-off music. But there are compensations in the country districts wide, deep and not a few, but a great many.

The moonlight drives and rides over these roads are incomparable, and by a late moon, the earth, sky and sea hang pictures on memory's wall never to be supplanted by any pageant of man's device, however splendid or entrancing. There are sights to be seen here on hill-top and in valley in the "sma' hours" and up close to dawn, that outrival any fairy tale yet told. At such times this country is peculiar in the repose of all nature and the peace of inanimate life, if one may say so; mountains, rock, road, in harmony and at rest. All seem sleeping. Such intense, concentrated quiet. Like to a healthy, lovely infant asleep. Perfect calm, perfect rest. Then again, there is no place in the world where hospitality is more free and open-hearted, and there is a constant stream of inter-island travel and visiting; and as the people here are Christian people they enjoy and let enjoy, and they can play no fool music but all is of the best. Oh yes, this little country can paddle its own canoe on that beat and never care to rest. There's nor Patti here neither a Jenny Lind, in truth; but there's a heap of good singing all around the lot in a decent and happy way. Music abounds from end to end of these islands. It is a big music-box (Hawaii), and never runs down. When the organs stop, Sunday night, the bands and pianos and violins and harps begin, and keep straight on to Sunday morning church.

To the Soldiers.

The Boys in Blue complain that they have not been served with the "Eastern" beer which tickles their palates and makes them good-natured.

Pabst Milwaukee Beer on draft, is now served at a proper temperature in the Royal, Pacific and Cosmopolitan saloons, conducted by the elite of the employees of the Peacock Co.

The Milwaukee Beer on draft has proven a tonic which is daily helping the sensible soldiers who are patronizing the three great refreshment places, where the beer is so served that even prohibitionists from Milwaukee recommend it.

A grand clearance sale of Christmas goods, including dolls and toys, was commenced Monday at L. B. Kerr's store, Queen street, and so great are the bargains that the store has been crowded all day notwithstanding the holiday. Kerr is selling these goods at half price, they being part of a bankrupt stock bought in London. All those in search of Christmas goods would do well to call and examine his stock.

SATURDAY, DEC. 10, 1898.

The Gaelic sailed last evening after 9 o'clock. She was advertised to sail at 5 o'clock. The agents of the Pacific Mail line do not understand their business or they are determined to annoy and insult the public. A day of reckoning is coming and before long a direct agency for the steamer line will be established here. The present agent is too busy importing white coolies and writing consular letters to attend to the interests of the Pacific Mail Company.

REMEMBER THE AFFLICTED.

We hope that Christmas will be celebrated at the Molokai Settlement in proper style, this year, and we are glad to learn that preparations are now being made for the entertainment on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day of all the unfortunate residents of the Settlement. Christmas is the sacred day when men and women torn apart from their friends and their homes feel homesick and sad. More so in the case of the poor lepers who, through cruel fate and no fault of their own, have been incarcerated in the living tomb of Molokai. The kind people who would like to cheer the unfortunates at Molokai will do a good act in sparing a little of their abundance and send some trifles or some Christmas cheer to our fellow brothers and sisters at Molokai. Any package for the benefit of the lepers will be forwarded if left at the Board of Health or with Mr. W. W. Hall, and marked for the Settlement.

OFFICIAL BLUNDERS.

It is a remarkable fact that since Hawaii became the proud possessor of the "best" government the world ever knew, the blunders and mistakes of the officials of the said government have been very numerous and have given to the Dole regime a very painful notoriety. From the very indication of the Dole Government, the men at the head of the so-called republic have been wonderfully successful in getting the country into a mess. With the exception of the Minister of Finance there has not been one high official possessed of the savoir faire, so necessary in all relation of diplomacy and statesmanship.

The deliberate and unwarranted insults offered to the official representatives of the Imperial Government of China yesterday can only be the result of crass ignorance, and the officials responsible for the outrage will in due time be called severely to task for their inexcusable blunder. We refer to the details of the incident in another column and will only say here that in high official circles the blame for the idiotic conduct of the Custom guards is laid at the door of Treasury Agent Brown, who, it is rumored, shifts the responsibility to the Collector-General. During the incumbency of Mr. McStocker only the most friendly relations have existed between him and the Chinese officials, merchants and residents here. It is not plausible that he of his own volition, should issue an order offensive to the Chinese colony and very undiplomatic as far as the representatives of China are concerned. The Collector-General and the agent of the Treasury Department may have instructions from "higher" authorities and acted accordingly, but we cannot believe that any order could be issued from Washington which necessarily must be taken as an insult to China.

We fear that it is simply another instance of the blundering, which seems to be natural to the "kindergarten" officials, who have been in charge of public affairs here since 1893. We remember that Mr. Narita, the secretary of the Japanese Legation, at one time was treated in the same manner as were the Chinese officials. He went to J. B. Castle, then collector-general, who personally escorted him to the dock and passed him through the gate. The next day an explanation was called for by the Japanese Consul, who wanted to know how the Hawaiian Government dared to treat "whites" and Japanese differently and discriminate against the latter. The foreign office regretted the blunder and apologized most humbly.

Mr. Hatch, when Minister of Foreign Affairs was always busy writing explanations and apologies for the blunders of the officials. His correspondence with Mr. Fujii, the diplomatic agent of Japan, was very amusing indeed. It was a case of Greet meeting Greek, but Hatch everytime drew the short straw and lived on humble pie. When Cooper got into office matters got worse, and the payment for his blunder of $75,000 is yet fresh in the minds of the taxpayers. Still more recently the government has been "called down" by the French Government which did not propose to see the Catholic Mission swindled out of certain valuable lands and more apologies were framed and more money put up.

In 1895, the Dole gang lost their heads altogether and, through the advice of a lot of half-crazed cowards, cast a number of foreign citizens into jail, kept some there for nearly two months without giving them a trial, thereby violating the different treaties, and expelling forcibly others from the country. The expelling business cost the taxpayers about $10,000. The imprisonment scheme has so far cost about $4000 and within sixty days the taxpayers will be mulcted in a very considerable amount to satisfy the claims pressed by the governments of the foreigners illegally imprisoned here at that time.

The treatment of the Chinese Consuls yesterday will cause another humiliation to our officials. Every official representative of a foreign power here feels highly indignant over the insult offered to members of the Consular corps. We are selfish enough to be pleased over the incident, because it will mean, when the diplomatic correspondence in regard to it reaches the State Department, that an edict will be issued from McKinley saying: "For the sake of the peace fire out every one of the ——— idiots yet in office in Hawaii." And we will say, Amen.

Pure and Unadulterated.

Nowadays the Anchor Saloon is busy dispensing the famous Jesse Moore brand of whiskey, Kentucky's noted product. With Wm. Carlyle and Chas. Andrews at the helm, all good judges need not fear being well treated. This health renewing beverage can be had pure and unadulterated at the Anchor, south corner of King and Nuuanu streets.

Stone in Her Stomach.

From the Gazette, Blandinsville, Ill.

The wife of the Rev. A. R. Adams, pastor of the Bedford Christian Church at Blandinsville, Ill., was for years compelled to live a life of torture from disease. Her case baffled the physicians but to-day she is alive and well, and tells the story of her recovery as follows:

"About six years ago," said Mrs. Adams, "I weighed about 140 pounds but my health began to fail and I lost flesh. My food did not agree with me and felt like a stone in my stomach. I began to bloat all over until I thought I had dropsy.

"I had pains and soreness in my left side which extended clear across my back and also into the region of my heart. During these spells a hard ridge would appear in the left side of my stomach and around the left side.

"These attacks left me sore and exhausted. All last summer I was so nervous that the children laughing and playing nearly drove me wild. I suffered also from female troubles and doctored with ten different physicians without receiving any help.

"My husband Read"

"I began taking them last November but experienced no relief until I had taken six boxes. I am now taking the eleventh box and have been greatly benefited.

"I was also troubled with nervous prostration and numbness of my right arm and hand so that at times I could hardly endure the pain, but that has all passed away. I now have a good appetite and am able to do my own work. Have done more this summer than in the four years put together. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People cured me and I think it my duty to let other sufferers know it."

Hundreds of equally remarkable cases have been cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

For desirable goods at desirable prices you must go to Sachs.

The Chinese Cases.

There is more food for the digestion of the Supreme Court in the Chinese who arrived by the Gaelic yesterday. It is probable that an attorney will be instructed to "watch the cases" on behalf of the Chinese Government, and an interesting campaign with a view to future diplomatic discussion and possible damages will be inaugurated in the Supreme Court next week.

A CONSUL INSULTED.

Strange Conduct on the Part of American and Hawaiian Officials.

Anti-coolie passion and prejudice appear to have boiled out all sense of propriety and decorum from the men who are now having temporary control of the laws regulating the admission of Chinese into this country, and even the sacred obligations of treaties and international obligations bend before their supreme and dictatorial will.

On the arrival of the S. S. Gaelic yesterday morning the Chinese Consul, his English-speaking clerk, and Vice Consuls Goo Kim Fui and Wong Kwai, presented themselves as in duty bound at the gates of the Pacific Mail dock, with a view of going on board the steamer to attend to their Consular duties.

After considerable detention and a vast amount of delay caused by red tape, the details of which are too cumbersome to narrate, the Consul and Vice-Consul Wong Kwai were permitted to go on board but not to confer with the Chinese passengers under examination.

Vice-Consul Goo Kim Fui and the English-speaking Secretary were refused admission.

Later in the day the Consul and Vice-Consuls Goo Kim Fui and Wong Kwai desiring to again go on board to bid farewell to a prominent Chinese guest, were absolutely forbidden even to go on to the wharf by the Customs guard who, personally polite enough, declined to recognize the Consul as being exempt from the imperative orders of U. S. Treasury Agent Brown and Collector-General McStocker.

It is understood that this morning the Consul has requested from the Special Agent of the United States and from the Minister of Foreign Affairs an explanation of this discourtesy to the representative of a Foreign Power, with which both the United States and the quasi-quondam Government of Hawaii are supposed to be on terms of amity and to have, so far as the United States is concerned, friendly treaty relations.

The opinion of the high American and Chinese authorities on this high-handed proceeding will be watched with interest here.

In the evening at 6:30 o'clock the surpliced choir of Hawaiians will sing processional and recessional hymns and a full choral service.

Okolehao

Hookiekie, a Hawaiian, was charged this morning with violating the laws by distilling okolehao. Pinkerton Kaapa raided the man's premises in Palolo Valley, seized the distilling plant and the liquor, which the great detective, who is a connoisseur, declares is of a very indifferent quality. The defeddant plead guilty and was sentenced to imprisonment for three months and to pay a fine of $100. While making the raid Kaapa caught a leper in hiding and handed him to the Board of Health authorities.

Girl Committed.

Annie Kino, a young Hawaiian woman, charged with forging the name of the Hon. D. H. Kahaulelio, appeared in the District Court this morning. Mr. W. C. Achi, who appeared for the woman, waived examination, and the defendant was committed for trial to the Circuit Court, and released on $500 bail.

ALONE AT CHRISTMAS.

Need of an Organization Which Would Bring the Lonely Together.

If in this age of organizations innumerable there is room for one more, it is for an organization which would bring together, especially on Christmas, those who are alone in the world, particularly women who are alone. I do not think that many of us who have our kin closest to us on Christmas Day stop to realize what our feelings would be if they were not with us. It is so hard to imagine ourselves in a position other than the one we are in. And yet that position might easily be other than it is. With many that position is other than God has made our own: a fact we are all apt to forget. We remember some poor family at Christmas, but at least it is a family. It is together. The one is company for the other, even in poverty. We remember the sick, and God blesses those who do. But I wish some of us might cast a look around and give a thought to those who are not sick, who are not perhaps poor, as the world judges, yet who are alone. Some girl, perhaps, alone: some woman alone: some young man: some old man: alone! Alone at Christmas—EDWARD BOK in the December Ladies' Home Journal.

A Former Chinese Fleet.

It consisted chiefly of old junks which had not been in the water for more than 30 years. During this lengthened period the sea had receded, and the land had formed to the extent of a more than a mile, the consequence being that these ancient vessels were high and dry, their masts, sails and gear had rotted away from the long exposure to the sun and rain, the paint had peeled from their sides, and, in some cases, the very planking had been stolen for firewood.—Pioneering in Formosa.

For That Tired Feeling.

That steals over you as the days work is over, there's nothing else so good as a refreshing glass of RAINIER BEER. It is the tonic you need, beats all the medicine you can take, brings on a sound refreshing and healthy sleep and makes one feel like a new person. On tap or in bottles at the Criterion Saloon. THE SANDWICH ISLANDS.

BY ANNE MARIE PRESCOTT.

It is now half past five, I have made tea and toast. In the east the sky is blue and golden, there is not a cloud, the light is magnificent. The village is rousing from its prolonged slumber of ten hours. The shrill, first whistles of the plantations are now heard in the land near and far. There is the sound of the little locomotive, and the train is starting for Mahukona to see the steamer off, 20 miles from here, the entire length of this island's one railroad from the plantation of Niulii, one mile east of us, to the port. Now, I tell you, it is 6 o'clock and a more beautiful day never shone out of the sky.

THE LAND OF HAWAII.

"But, you have left the 'journey' behind you, nor told us details. You must wish to forget it. What is the fare, please, for that 20-mile ride behind that stunning little engine, and over that most wonderful piece of engineering?" "Bide a wee." Oui-i.

(A few days later). There has now been a storm. Look at that rainbow in the north-west! "Oh-h! after every storm do come such calms?"

After every storm do come such calms, Othello; and the writer is "a woman of her word." Oui-i.

One sunset this week was so peculiar that if it could have been correctly painted there is not a famous artist that would not have condemned it, and declared there was never such a combination of color and grouping of vapor in the sky. Humph! but this is Hawaii! Like all exceedingly beautiful things it soon vanished, for heavy masses of rain clouds swept down over it in their jealousy.

HONOLULU.

The sun rises behind Punchbowl an extinct volcano, a good-sized hill in Honolulu, and over that hill, too, you can see the Southern Cross and all its magnificent train of planet and star, if you are looking what time they are all visible. There is a good carriage road to the top of this hill and from its summit one looks down on all the town, on church-spire and palace, on ship mast and man-of-war deck, and out to sea.

Honolulu looks fine! She is set in a frame of trees, and she looks a "perfect picture." But, "distance lends enchantment" to my view (eyes) for that city is not a beauty, is not altogether lovely by any measure you may choose to use. It has points of good looks. And they are few and far between, literally. There are many possibilities for Honolulu in the way of pleasing views—attractive corners, inviting parks, wide streets, beautiful show-windows elegant Post Office; but, as yet, these and many another are realities. The drug stores are a pretty feature, and a part of Fort street is not ugly to scan, even with the critic's eye.

The Portuguese are not a stupid short-sighted race; and when the laboring class wanted homes in that city, they selected and leased, or bought, one of the most beautiful driveways, cool and high with the finest view, nearest to the town—the business centre. As they are of small means and smaller education everything must be on a meagre scale; so that tourists on visiting that point meet shanties and marigold, plaid shawls and mormonium; and the Chinese coffee shop. "Rome was not built in a day." And when the Mongolian takes a back seat, and Azores stows up higher, when all those lanes are turned into streets, and rattle-traps into the fire.

What a charming town the capital now is! Oui-i!

AFTER-GLOW.

In these islands, outside of the metropolis and "greater Hilo," one is cut off to a very great extent of the doings and fashions of the day. One hears of them as in a sort of dream or as strains of far-off music. But there are compensations in the country districts wide, deep and not a few, but a great many.

The moonlight drives and rides over these roads are incomparable, and by a late moon, the earth, sky and sea hang pictures on memory's wall never to be supplanted by any pageant of man's device, however splendid or entrancing. There are sights to be seen here on hill-top and in valley in the "sma' hours" and up close to dawn, that outrival any fairy tale yet told. At such times this country is peculiar in the repose of all nature and the peace of inanimate life, if one may say so; mountains, rock, road, in harmony and at rest. All seem sleeping. Such intense, concentrated quiet. Like to a healthy, lovely infant asleep. Perfect calm, perfect rest. Then again, there is no place in the world where hospitality is more free and open-hearted, and there is a constant stream of inter-island travel and visiting; and as the people here are Christian people they enjoy and let enjoy, and they can play no fool music but all is of the best. Oh yes, this little country can paddle its own canoe on that beat and never care to rest. There's nor Patti here neither a Jenny Lind, in truth; but there's a heap of good singing all around the lot in a decent and happy way. Music abounds from end to end of these islands. It is a big music-box (Hawaii), and never runs down. When the organs stop, Sunday night, the bands and pianos and violins and harps begin, and keep straight on to Sunday morning church.

To the Soldiers.

The Boys in Blue complain that they have not been served with the "Eastern" beer which tickles their palates and makes them good-natured.

Pabst Milwaukee Beer on draft, is now served at a proper temperature in the Royal, Pacific and Cosmopolitan saloons, conducted by the elite of the employees of the Peacock Co.

The Milwaukee Beer on draft has proven a tonic which is daily helping the sensible soldiers who are patronizing the three great refreshment places, where the beer is so served that even prohibitionists from Milwaukee recommend it.

The Gaelic sailed last evening after 9 o'clock. She was advertised to sail at 5 o'clock. The agents of the Pacific Mail line do not understand their business or they are determined to annoy and insult the public. A day of reckoning is coming and before long a direct agency for the steamer line will be established here. The present agent is too busy importing white coolies and writing consular letters to attend to the interests of the Pacific Mail Company.

REMEMBER THE AFFLICTED.

We hope that Christmas will be celebrated at the Molokai Settlement in proper style, this year, and we are glad to learn that preparations are now being made for the entertainment on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day of all the unfortunate residents of the Settlement. Christmas is the sacred day when men and women torn apart from their friends and their homes feel homesick and sad. More so in the case of the poor lepers who, through cruel fate and no fault of their own, have been incarcerated in the living tomb of Molokai. The kind people who would like to cheer the unfortunates at Molokai will do a good act in sparing a little of their abundance and send some trifles or some Christmas cheer to our fellow brothers and sisters at Molokai. Any package for the benefit of the lepers will be forwarded if left at the Board of Health or with Mr. W. W. Hall, and marked for the Settlement.

OFFICIAL BLUNDERS.

It is a remarkable fact that since Hawaii became the proud possessor of the "best" government the world ever knew, the blunders and mistakes of the officials of the said government have been very numerous and have given to the Dole regime a very painful notoriety. From the very indication of the Dole Government, the men at the head of the so-called republic have been wonderfully successful in getting the country into a mess. With the exception of the Minister of Finance there has not been one high official possessed of the savoir faire, so necessary in all relation of diplomacy and statesmanship.

The deliberate and unwarranted insults offered to the official representatives of the Imperial Government of China yesterday can only be the result of crass ignorance, and the officials responsible for the outrage will in due time be called severely to task for their inexcusable blunder. We refer to the details of the incident in another column and will only say here that in high official circles the blame for the idiotic conduct of the Custom guards is laid at the door of Treasury Agent Brown, who, it is rumored, shifts the responsibility to the Collector-General. During the incumbency of Mr. McStocker only the most friendly relations have existed between him and the Chinese officials, merchants and residents here. It is not plausible that he, of his own volition, should issue an order offensive to the Chinese colony and very undiplomatic as far as the representatives of China are concerned. The Collector-General and the agent of the Treasury Department may have instructions from "higher" authorities and acted accordingly, but we cannot believe that any order could be issued from Washington which necessarily must be taken as an insult to China.

We fear that it is simply another instance of the blundering, which seems to be natural to the "kindergarten" officials, who have been in charge of public affairs here since 1893. We remember that Mr. Narita, the secretary of the Japanese Legation, at one time was treated in the same manner as were the Chinese officials. He went to J. B. Castle, then collector-general, who personally escorted him to the dock and passed him through the gate. The next day an explanation was called for by the Japanese Consul, who wanted to know how the Hawaiian Government dared to treat "whites" and Japanese differently and discriminate against the latter. The foreign office regretted the blunder and apologized most humbly.

Mr. Hatch, when Minister of Foreign Affairs was always busy writing explanations and apologies for the blunders of the officials. His correspondence with Mr. Fujii, the diplomatic agent of Japan, was very amusing indeed. It was a case of Great meeting Greek, but Hatch everytime drew the short straw and lived on humble pie. When Cooper got into office matters got worse, and the payment for his blunder of $75,000 is yet fresh in the minds of the taxpayers. Still more recently the government has been "called down" by the French Government which did not propose to see the Catholic Mission swindled out of certain valuable lands and more apologies were framed and more money put up.

In 1895, the Dole gang lost their heads altogether and, through the advice of a lot of half-crazed cowards, cast a number of foreign citizens into jail, kept some there for nearly two months without giving them a trial, thereby violating the different treaties, and expelling forcibly others from the country. The expelling business cost the taxpayers about $10,000. The imprisonment scheme has so far cost about $4000 and within sixty days the taxpayers will be mulcted in a very considerable amount to satisfy the claims pressed by the governments of the foreigners illegally imprisoned here at that time.

The treatment of the Chinese Consuls yesterday will cause another humiliation to our officials. Every official representative of a foreign power here feels highly indignant over the insult offered to members of the Consular corps. We are selfish enough to be pleased over the incident, because it will mean, when the diplomatic correspondence in regard to it reaches the State Department, that an edict will be issued from McKinley saying: "For the sake of the peace fire out every one of the ——— idiots yet in office in Hawaii." And we will say, Amen.

Pure and Unadulterated.

Nowadays the Anchor Saloon is busy dispensing the famous Jesse Moore brand of whiskey, Kentucky's noted product. With Wm. Carlyle and Chas. Andrews at the helm, all good judges need not fear being well treated. This health renewing beverage can be had pure and unadulterated at the Anchor, south corner of King and Nuuanu streets.

Stone in Her Stomach.

From the Gazette, Blandinsville, Ill.

The wife of the Rev. A. R. Adams, pastor of the Bedford Christian Church at Blandinsville, Ill., was for years compelled to live a life of torture from disease. Her case baffled the physicians but to-day she is alive and well, and tells the story of her recovery as follows:

"About six years ago," said Mrs. Adams, "I weighed about 140 pounds but my health began to fail and I lost flesh. My food did not agree with me and felt like a stone in my stomach. I began to bloat all over until I thought I had dropsy.

"I had pains and soreness in my left side which extended clear across my back and also into the region of my heart. During these spells a hard ridge would appear in the left side of my stomach and around the left side.

"These attacks left me sore and exhausted. All last summer I was so nervous that the children laughing and playing nearly drove me wild. I suffered also from female troubles and doctored with ten different physicians without receiving any help.

"My husband Read"

began taking them last November but experienced no relief until I had taken six boxes. I am now taking the eleventh box and have been greatly benefited.

"I was also troubled with nervous prostration and numbness of my right arm and hand so that at times I could hardly endure the pain, but that has all passed away. I now have a good appetite and am able to do my own work. Have done more this summer than in the four years put together. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People cured me and I think it my duty to let other sufferers know it."

Hundreds of equally remarkable cases have been cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

The Chinese Cases.

There is more food for the digestion of the Supreme Court in the Chinese who arrived by the Gaelic yesterday. It is probable that an attorney will be instructed to "watch the cases" on behalf of the Chinese Government, and an interesting campaign with a view to future diplomatic discussion and possible damages will be inaugurated in the Supreme Court next week.

A CONSUL INSULTED.

Strange Conduct on the Part of American and Hawaiian Officials.

Anti-coolie passion and prejudice appear to have boiled out all sense of propriety and decorum from the men who are now having temporary control of the laws regulating the admission of Chinese into this country, and even the sacred obligations of treaties and international obligations bend before their supreme and dictatorial will.

On the arrival of the S. S. Gaelic yesterday morning the Chinese Consul, his English-speaking clerk, and Vice Consuls Goo Kim Fui and Wong Kwai, presented themselves as in duty bound at the gates of the Pacific Mail dock, with a view of going on board the steamer to attend to their Consular duties.

After considerable detention and a vast amount of delay caused by red tape, the details of which are too cumbersome to narrate, the Consul and Vice-Consul Wong Kwai were permitted to go on board but not to confer with the Chinese passengers under examination.

Vice-Consul Goo Kim Fui and the English-speaking Secretary were refused admission.

Later in the day the Consul and Vice-Consuls Goo Kim Fui and Wong Kwai desiring to again go on board to bid farewell to a prominent Chinese guest, were absolutely forbidden even to go on to the wharf by the Customs guard who, personally polite enough, declined to recognize the Consul as being exempt from the imperative orders of U. S. Treasury Agent Brown and Collector-General McStocker.

It is understood that this morning the Consul has requested from the Special Agent of the United States and from the Minister of Foreign Affairs an explanation of this discourtesy to the representative of a Foreign Power, with which both the United States and the quasi-quondam Government of Hawaii are supposed to be on terms of amity and to have, so far as the United States is concerned, friendly treaty relations.

The opinion of the high American and Chinese authorities on this high-headed proceeding will be watched with interest here.

In the evening at 6:30 o'clock the surpliced choir of Hawaiians will sing processional and recessional hymns and a full choral service.

Okolehao

Hookiekie, a Hawaiian, was charged this morning with violating the laws by distilling okolehao. Pinkerton Kaapa raided the man's premises in Palolo Valley, seized the distilling plant and the liquor, which the great detective, who is a connoisseur, declares is of a very indifferent quality. The defeddant plead guilty and was sentenced to imprisonment for three months and to pay a fine of $100. While making the raid Kaapa caught a leper in hiding and handed him to the Board of Health authorities.

Girl Committed.

Annie Kino, a young Hawaiian woman, charged with forging the name of the Hon. D. H. Kahaulelio, appeared in the District Court this morning. Mr. W. C. Aebi, who appeared for the woman, waived examination, and the defendant was committed for trial to the Circuit Court, and released on $500 bail.

ALONE AT CHRISTMAS.

Need of an Organization Which Would Bring the Lonely Together.

If in this age of organizations innumerable there is room for one more, it is for an organization which would bring together, especially on Christmas, those who are alone in the world, particularly women who are alone. I do not think that many of us who have our kin closest to us on Christmas Day stop to realize what our feelings would be if they were not with us. It is so hard to imagine ourselves in a position other than the one we are in. And yet that position might easily be other than it is. With many that position is other than God has made our own: a fact we are all apt to forget. We remember some poor family at Christmas, but at least it is a family. It is together. The one is company for the other, even in poverty. We remember the sick, and God blesses those who do. But I wish some of us might cast a look around and give a thought to those who are not sick, who are not perhaps poor, as the world judges, yet who are alone. Some girl, perhaps, alone: some woman alone: some young man: some old man: alone! Alone at Christmas—EDWARD BOK in the December Ladies' Home Journal.

A Former Chinese Fleet.

It consisted chiefly of old junks which had not been in the water for more than 30 years. During this lengthened period the sea had receded, and the land had formed to the extent of a more than a mile, the consequence being that these ancient vessels were high and dry, their masts, sails and gear had rotted away from the long exposure to the sun and rain, the paint had peeled from their sides, and, in some cases, the very planking had been stolen for firewood.—Pioneering in Formosa.

For That Tired Feeling.

That steals over you as the days work is over, there's nothing else so good as a refreshing glass of RAINIER BEER.
