Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Cleanse your blood with Ayer's Sarsaparilla—the most thoroughly reliable alternative ever compounded. For scrofula, boils, ulcers, sores, carbuncles, pimples, blotches, and all disorders originating in vitiated blood, this medicine is a specific. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is equally beneficial as a remedy for catarrh, rheumatism, and rheumatic gout. As a Tonic, it assists the process of digestion, stimulates the sluggish liver, strengthens the nerves, and builds up the body when debilitated by excessive fatigue or wasting illness. Physicians everywhere consider Ayer's Sarsaparilla the best. It is a skillfully-prepared combination of the most powerful alteratives and tonics. No other blood-purifier gives equal satisfaction or is so universally in demand.

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

SOME ASSIGNMENTS OF TEACHERS FOR THE COMING YEAR.

Inspector-General Townsend's New Scheme—A Traveling Library.

All the members of the Board of Education were present at the meeting yesterday afternoon, except Mrs. Dillingham and H. M. von Holt.

After the reading of the minutes of last meeting, the Committee on Teachers presented the following recommendations of assignments of teachers, which were adopted:

Miss Frankie Eaton to be assistant in the Hilo Select School.
S. R. Dowdel to Makawao.
H. K. Oana to Waialua.
Miss Grace Sharpe to Lihue.
Miss Helen Kelsey to be principal at Kekaha and Miss Abbie Gurney assistant.
Miss St. Clair Nicholson to Hanalei.
J. McCloskey to Oiaa.
Miss Julia Perry to the Fort street school, vice Miss May Atkinson, resigned.
James Poai to Honokohau.
Eugene Capellas to Kealahau.
M. Soares to Koloa.
Miss Trinidad Marcos to Punaluu.
Miss L. Cameron to Kaulawela.

Inspector-General Townsend presented the application of Mr. Burnette, employed by the Washington Feed Company, to be given a position to teach bookkeeping in the Night School. The Board concluded that Mr. Lightfoot did not need any assistance at present.

Mr. Townsend then broached one of his pet schemes to the Board. It is nothing more or less than the establishment of a class of teachers who desire to take a course of higher pedagogy. The scheme was prompted by the wish of a few teachers to take up advanced studies. The course would extend over three years and be entirely voluntary. The teachers would take up certain studies and text books each year, which he had already mapped out, and at the end of the year would have to write a thesis of not less than 1000 or more than 3000 words on some one of the studies taken up. There would be no expense connected with the scheme as the teachers would purchase their own books. It was proposed to give a diploma or certificate at the end of the three years' course, which would be of no real value to the owner except to show diligence and additional qualifications in the higher methods of teaching which would be taken into account by the Board in assigning positions. It was proposed to start the first class within a week, and at the end of a year to start another, the proposition being that each succeeding class should be taught by the one before it. This would make a continuous system of one class of teaching. He thought the schools at large would receive material benefit by the adoption of this system, as well as the teachers themselves. Having explained his theory to the satisfaction of the Board Mr. Townsend said he hoped it would be endorsed by them. Such endorsement would have a good effect and act as a stimulant on the teachers. If the Board concluded not to endorse it, the plan would be carried out by him as a private one.

Minister Cooper thought favorably of it, as did the other members, and with the understanding that the department was to be put to no expense in the matter a motion to endorse it was carried. Inspector Townsend said he had been looking over the books in his office with a view to assisting Rev. Mr. Birnie's proposition to establish a traveling school library. The idea was to donate the use of a library to a school for six months and then pass it on to another. He had picked out about 35 volumes belonging to the Board and requested permission to use them for the purpose. Granted.

Various applications and recommendations for positions were referred to the Teacher's Committee.

President Cooper asked the other two members of the special committee—Professor Alexander and Inspector Townsend—to investigate certain charges of meddling, etc., against two teachers if they were ready to report, saying for himself that he was ready to speak his mind on the matter at once. It appearing that the balance of the committee was not ready yet, the matter went over to next week.

Louis Madaraz presented an application to be made superintendent of writing in the public schools, which was placed on file, there being no such position to fill.

RESTORED TO DUTY.

Result of Lawyer Macdonald's Appeal to President McKinley.

Lawyer S. J. Macdonald has scored a rather singular triumph on behalf of a client in trouble. It will be remembered that a few months ago, when the U. S. S. Philadelphia's battalion was returning to the ship from shore drill, Oscar J. Jensen, a blue-jacket, was clandestinely indulging in a drink of soda water at the boat landing, when a lieutenant with his sword struck the bottle out of his hand. Jensen made a hasty remark to the effect that it was well for the officer that he had on his uniform.

For that remark Jensen was tried by Court-martial on the charge of disrespect to an officer. He was allowed counsel in the person of Mr. Macdonald, but being convicted notwithstanding was sentenced to one year's confinement in the "brig." Admiral Beardslee exercised his prerogative by reducing the term of imprisonment to six months.

Mr. Macdonald was not satisfied with even this degree of clemency, but appealed directly to the President of the United States in a letter, enclosing a full statement of the case on behalf of his client.

President McKinley, amidst the multitude of his great duties, found time to consider the case of the poor bluejacket caged away off in Honolulu. As the result of his consideration, orders came by the steamer China to restore Bluejacket Jensen to duty.

Lawyer Macdonald in consequence feels the weight of a plume in his hat.

SPECKELS BUYS PROPERTY.

Pays a Large Sum for a Market Street Business Lot.

Claus Speckels purchased the property adjoining the Montgomery Market on Market street yesterday for $70,000. The lot is 25 by 100 feet and is now covered by a two-story frame building that will probably be removed in the near future to make room for a more modern structure. The seller was Mrs. C. F. Joy.—The Call.

Visited the Fall.

Clarence M. White saw on the Hawaiian hotel register, after the China arrived, the name of an old friend whom he had not seen for 36 years. It was Webb Vincent, a banker of Fort Dodge, Iowa. Mr. White took him to see the Falls—and himself too, for he had lived here 15 years without ever seeing that noble scenery. And he is one of our leading poets, too, as well as a descriptive writer surpassed by none. Oh, Clarence! Wherefore wast thou born so tired?

CONTEST OVER REGISTRY

SAILING OF STEAMSHIP CHINA IS INDEFINITELY POSTPONED.

Government Warned It Will Be Responsible for Damages—Writ of Mandamus Issued.

It was close to 12 o'clock noon today when the papers were completed in Mr. Hartwell's office for proceedings by writ of mandamus to compel the Hawaiian Government to grant a registry under its flag to the P. M. S. S. China. No further deliberations, since the conclusion reported yesterday, had been held by the Executive Council.

At Circuit Court chambers it was learned that the writ, addressed to James B. Castle, Collector General of Customs, was signed by Judge Alfred Perry at 11:55 and at once sent to the Marshal for service. The writ is returnable at 10 o'clock Monday. A copy of the order to show cause was served on Collector General Castle at 1:30 p. m. by a mounted patrolman who went out to Waiiki for the purpose.

The writ sets forth that on July 2 the steamer China, being at sea, and having a British registry, and owned by the China Steamship Company, Limited, of London, was conveyed to petitioner, Geo. W. Macfarlane, by bill of sale of that date.

That thereupon, upon the application of petitioner to the Hawaiian Consul in London, provisional registry as a Hawaiian vessel was granted to the steamship China.

That on August 5 petitioner surrendered to the British Consul General at San Francisco the former British register of the China, and caused said steamship to be put under the Hawaiian flag. That the steamship is now at this port under the Hawaiian flag, and her ship articles are prepared accordingly.

That on the 11th of August petitioner made application to Jas. B. Castle, Collector-General of Customs, in writing and under oath for a permanent Hawaiian registry.

That he is informed and believes that the Collector General caused the said steamship to be measured and her tonnage accurately ascertained, for the purpose of the desired registry, and had notified the Minister of Foreign Affairs of the application, and that the Minister had ascertained from Thos. Rain Walker, British Vice-Consul, that no legal impediment exists to a Hawaiian register for said steamship. It is not known whether the Minister has communicated such information to the Collector General, but petitioner submits that, as it is a statutory duty for him to do so, the inference is that it has been done.

That the Ministers of Foreign Affairs and of Finance have stated that a registry would not be granted. The reasons given are that the Minister of Foreign Affairs had informed the United States Minister that no registers to foreign built vessels would be granted, and it is claimed by the Minister of Foreign Affairs that the petitioner is not the bona fide owner of the steamship China.

The writ concludes as follows: "That unless said steamship shall receive such legal register the rights of her owners, insurers, freighters, and others may be seriously imperilled and irreparable damage may be done to those concerned."

"Wherefore, the petitioner respectfully prays that an alternative writ of mandamus be issued to said James B. Castle, Collector General of Customs, commanding him to register said steamship in his office as a Hawaiian vessel and to issue to the petitioner on receipt of his bond a certificate thereof, or to show cause to the contrary within three days from the service hereof and of this writ."

Minister Cooper was leaving the Executive building at 12:35 when a hackman reined up to him and presented him with a letter. It was a notification from the attorney for Mr. Macfarlane that a petition for a writ of mandamus had been filed in the Circuit Court.

In the meantime a notice had been posted on the blackboard of the Hawaiian hotel office, saying: "The sailing of the steamship China for Yokohama and Hongkong is indefinitely postponed."

Mr. Macfarlane said yesterday afternoon that the Government was to be notified that it would be held responsible in due form for all expenses incurred by detention of the steamship China from and after that day.

It is learned that the letter notifying the Minister of Foreign Affairs of the petition for mandamus also notifies him that the Government will be held responsible for damages.

Messrs. H. Hackfeld & Co., agents of the China, have also notified the Government that they will hold it responsible for damages accruing by detention of the steamship.

Capt. Seabury has also filed a protest for detention.

Minister Cooper was asked by a reporter if the Government would have any objection to granting the China registry providing the United States Government announced that it had no objections. He answered:

"If the United States Government inform us that the registry would not be considered a violation of our assurances in the matter we should have no objection to granting it."

The law in the case, on which the Government relies, is as follows:

Chapter 60, Section 988 of the Civil Code, which reads:

"No vessel shall be entitled to register in this Republic, or to be deemed a Hawaiian vessel, and entitled to the privileges appertaining thereto, unless such vessel be wholly owned by a citizen or citizens of this Republic; provided, however, that any vessel fitted out for the prosecution of the whale or seal fishery, may be registered in the name of any part owner of such vessel, actually domiciled in this Republic, whether a citizen or not."

Sections 1000 and 1001, of the same chapter, provide for the method of acquiring a register for a foreign vessel. The first says: "Upon application being made for the registry of any foreign-built vessel, unless such vessel shall have been sold under a judicial decree of some court of this Republic, the Collector-General shall notify the Minister of Foreign Affairs of such application; and it shall be the duty of said Minister to inquire, officially, of the accredited representative, or Consul, if such there be in this Republic, of the nation to which said vessel belongs, whether any legal impediment exists to her registry; and upon receipt of a reply, he shall communicate the same to the Collector-General, for his guidance."

Section 1001 says:

"The Collector-General shall, upon ascertaining the tonnage of any vessel intended to be registered, and being satisfied that no legal impediment exists to her registry, proceed to register the same in his office, as a Hawaiian vessel, and shall issue to the applicant therefor a certificate of such registry in the following form, etc."

LETTER FROM MR. MACFARLANE.
The following communication explains itself:

EDITOR EVENING BULLETIN:—Having read some so-called interviews with myself concerning the steamship China, published in some of the Honolulu newspapers, I desire to say that I have rigidly refrained from making any statements, whatsoever, upon the subject, further than to mention the facts which now appear to be well known, that a provisional register had been granted to the China by the Consul General in London on the 2d of July last before he had received the direction from the Hawaiian Foreign Office to grant no more provisional registers, which direction was received July 9.

It appears that an assurance had been given at the end of June to the United States Minister on the subject, and I remarked that it was a technical point whether such assurance, until communicated to the consuls abroad, could be regarded as having any effect.

It may be proper also to say that I have not consented to any valuation of the steamer as a basis for the stamp duty required, and also that I have used no such expressions as have been published to the effect that "the vessel should not turn a wheel until a permanent register is obtained," nor have I "declared with much gusto" that "I should insist upon a permanent register before the vessel left port." All my discussions upon the subject have been with my counsel and with the Cabinet Ministers.

Capt. Seabury desires me to also deny that he has made any of the statements attributed to him.
G. W. MACFARLANE.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE.

Good Audience to Witness the Performance of "Dad's Girl."

There was a much better audience than usual at the Opera House last night and the frequent applause brought forth showed that the rendition of the comedy of "Dad's Girl" was a satisfactory one. Miss Katie Putnam in the character of Malvina Ickins shone to even better advantage than usual, the strong scenes in the play giving her more scope for the display of dramatic ability. The climax of the third act was an especially strong one and in this Miss Putnam showed more dramatic force than some of her friends credited her with. A call before the curtain at the end of this act testified the appreciation of the audience.

H. B. Emery made the most of "Dear Old Dad," a part more suited to him than some others he has essayed. The other members of company all appeared to better advantage than usual, the subordinate characters having more scope to show their ability than in most of Miss Putnam's plays.

On Saturday night a dramatization of Charles Dickens' "Old Curiosity Shop" will be produced. Miss Putnam will appear as Little Nell and the Marchioness, two distinctively different characters. As the Marchioness, she will sing and dance and play the banjo. Mr. Emery will play Dick Swiveler. At the matinee the play will be "Fanchon."

Senators F. T. Dubois of Idaho and Frank Cannon of Utah, who were expected to stop in Honolulu on their way to Japan, went by way of Vancouver, sailing on August 2. They will very likely return this way.

DECORATING CHINA.

HELPFUL HINTS IN THE ART OF CHINA PAINTING.

With the Lacquer Tube Colors Many Chances of Failure Are Obviated—Detailed Directions For Painting a Photograph Frame—Gold Work.

The great variety of undecorated china imported and manufactured renders the art of china painting as fascinating an popular as ever. "With the tube colors known as lacroix many of the chances of failure are obviated. For simple ornament it is better to paint the decorated forms over the glaze." Thus writes a contributor to The Ladies' Home Journal, who also gives a few suggestions and illustrations which may be carried out in the mineral colors.

A maple leaf design offered is intended for a panel or photograph frame. If carried out in tones of green, yellow, gray and brown, it will be found most satisfactory. The raised scrolls around the edge are touched up with gold, and the background is tinted a pale cream with ivory yellow. For the leaves various soft shades of green and yellow are employed. For the young leaves use apple green with a tinge of silver yellow and shade with chrome green and neutral gray. For the darker ones use brown and chrome greens qualified with brown 17 and ultramarine blue. Make the stems and seed pods of a light green accentuated with touches and veins of deeper color. To avoid monotony in the leaves, paint a wash of yellow brown over some of them. Take a soft shade of sage green, one in harmony with those used in the leaves, and stipple the receding ones until the color gradually merges into the creamy ground of the china.

MAPLE LEAF DESIGN.

An arrangement of meadow grass is also given. The motive of this subject is well suited to gold work, either on a mat ground in cream or some delicate color in transparent tint. This latter method, perhaps, is the less difficult of the two. The tint should first be applied over the surface, and after the design is drawn in it must be carefully erased wherever the gold is to be put on.

The outlines of the leaves, the veins and the prickly tassels are now indicated with paste for raised gold applied with a fine pointed brush. This process requires considerable experience to do it uniformly. The tassels and leaves that retire should not have any of the raised paste, but should be simply painted upon the surface of the plate in flat tones.

After being fired the work is ready to receive the gold. It must be fired

ARRANGEMENT OF MEADOW GRASS, again and then furnished with a glass burnisher. This process must be repeated if the gold is not so rich as desired. If colors are preferred, the scheme given for the maple leaf design shown in illustration may be used.

THE CATBIRD'S FLIGHT.

Forty Birds to the Dozen—How It Was Finally Set Free.

"Going through the woods one day," said a lover of birds, "I saw a catbird with one of its wings caught on a briar bush. There was a clump of briars here, with a narrow opening at one place between two of the bushes. The catbird had tried to fly through that opening and had made a miscalculation and got one of its wings impaled on a thorn. The other wing was free, and it was flapping that and trying to get clear of the bush.

"Around this bush there must have been at least 40 other birds, of one kind or another, catbirds and brown thrashers and wrens and grass chippers, and so on, that had been attracted by the unfortunate catbird's cries and its efforts to escape, and that appeared to have gathered there to help it. They fluttered about close to the bush, flying around at a great rate and making a lot of noise, but not really doing anything. Some of the smaller birds would fly around very close to the bush or even fly under it, and I imagine some of the bigger birds saying to some of these venturesome little fellows, 'Here, you brown thrasher, you, why don't you get under him there and push on his wing?' But the brown thrasher would only go about so close. He wasn't going to get caught. What the birds would have done finally I don't know. I think they would have helped the catbird in some way, but I undertook to help it myself.

"Of course I couldn't get right up to it, for that would have frightened it, and may be made it hurt itself even worse. I had with me a sawed off broom stick that I carried for a walking stick, and I undertook to free the catbird with that. I thrust the stick through the briar bush, all the other 40 birds looking on, and brought the end of it gently against the catbird's wing and pushed the wing off the thorn. But in starting away the catbird got the wing caught again on another thorn. That was bad, and I stood off a minute deliberating about what to do next, the whole flock of birds still fluttering round and the imprisoned catbird now pretty nearly exhausted. It was a time to drop all ceremony, and I simply walked up to the bush and took the catbird off the thorn with my hands.

"Just beyond the briar bushes there was a smooth grassy spot in the woods and I laid the catbird down there, the whole lot of birds that had been hovering about the briar bush following along, more or less near, and hanging around there. Pretty soon the catbird got up and flew to a little tree nearby. It wasn't strong, but it could fly and its wings were all right. When it flew up into the tree, all the other birds flew away. From the tree the catbird sang its thanks to me, and there I left it."—New York Sun.

The Evening Bulletin,

DANIEL LOGAN, Editor.

FRIDAY, AUG. 13, 1897.

Sir Charles Tupper, ex-premier of Canada, says "French Canadian loyalty to Great Britain is largely due to the knowledge that annexation to the United States would result in the abolition of their privileges as to laws, language and religion." Sir Charles or any other sir in the dominion cannot show where the freedom accorded by the United States in the matter of personal, political or religious privileges to every citizen is equaled in any country on the globe. In no country on earth is it so nearly a case where privilege is allowed to run into almost unlimited license as in the United States.

Sir Charles is correct, notwithstanding these remarks of the Tacoma Ledger. The French inhabitants of Quebec were by the treaty of cession granted the enjoyment of their "laws, language and religion" in perpetuity. This is why the Roman code is on an equality with the English common law in that province, and French is retained as one of the official languages in the courts and the legislature—federal as well as local for their sakes—and the Roman Catholic religion has privileges of a special nature in the province which are distinctly prohibited in the United States to all religious denominations.

Louisiana cane growers are going to share with their laborers some of the benefits of the Dingley bill. There is also news that the beet sugar millers are going to divide increased gains with the farmers in higher prices for the roots. Hawaiian planters ought to be nice now, too, since they share the same advantages.

Inspector-General Townsend's new scheme for raising the standard of teaching ability ought to be a useful one even if it costs nothing to the Government.

BIG ADVANCE IN WAGES.

Louisiana Planters Benefited by the New Tariff Bill.

New Orleans, La., July 30.—Leon Godchaux, owner of seven sugar plantations in Louisiana, and the largest sugar-producer in the United States, to-day telegraphed to the managers of his places to advance the wages of all field labor 16½ per cent. The advance is to commence August 1, in consequence of the passage of the tariff bill. It is believed this advance will now be met by all other planters.

The secretary of the New Orleans Sugar Exchange, who has been in Washington over a month watching the interests of producers there, declares the Louisiana sugar crop will more than double in the next year, as the planters find now that they can get all the capital needed to extend planting and for improved machinery. He declares the tariff bill the most favorable to sugar-producers this country ever had.

THAT DISPUTED ISLET

MATTER OF RECORD ABOUT CLAIMS TO PALMYRA.

Annexed by the United States in 1802—
Later the Property of Hawaiian Developers.

Captain Rosehill of the schooner Norma, who visited the disputed Palmyra island in that vessel about the 22nd of June, furnishes the BULLETIN with the following memoranda. He found traces of the recent encampment of the E. B. M. S. Penguin expedition on the island:

Palmyra Island was discovered by Capt. Sawle, of the American ship Palmyra, in 1802. He described it as 14 miles in extent East and West, and about half that in breadth; flat; with a lagoon in its center 7 miles long in which the tide regularly ebbed and flowed; and uninhabited. The Palmyra anchored off the N. W. side of the island, three-quarters of a mile off shore in 20 fathoms. Turtle were abundant, but no fresh water could be found.

Formal possession was taken of the island by the American Guano Company in 1859, and by the Hawaiian Government in 1862. Capt. Bent, in his letter to the Hawaiian Minister of the Interior, reports that "the island is 10 miles in length and 6 miles in breadth; the eastern end rises about 20 feet above the level of the sea; the landing place is on the west end, and vessels can lie in perfect safety in 3 fathoms water. The trees on the island are cocoanut, puhala and a species of koa.

"All kinds of vegetables will grow on the island and I planted some beans, corn and watermelons. I erected a dwelling house and also a cusing house for becher-deemer, leaving one white man and four Hawaiians on the island."

Position.—Capt. Sawle made Palmyra Island in Lat. 5° 50' North; Long. 162° 23' West. Capt. Bent placed it in Lat. 5° 50' North; Long. 161° 52' West.

Later the island was the property of the P. N. Co., of which A. F. Cooke was manager. Capt. H. Nissen of the schooner Malolo in 1855 landed a gang of natives and one white man on the island to plant and cultivate.

In the latter part of 1886, Capt. G. B. Holland in the schooner Malolo took the men off the island and returned them to their homes, their time of service having expired.

Judge Wilcox, who is one of the Hawaiian owners, says their property in the island has never been conveyed. He does not care under what national protection the island rests, but his company will not yield the point of actual ownership of the ground.

Captain Rosehill adds that he would have brought the British annexation signboard up with him, but his cook broke it up for firewood. The board was about two by three feet in surface, and much of the inscription, including the date, had been effaced by the elements.

The Captain "Bent," as his name is given in the Pacific Directory, was the father of the Bindt family, of whom a lame boy is well-known in connection with the Salvation Army here.

On top of the foregoing, the following memorandum has been handed to the BULLETIN:

In the Naval Chart of the Pacific and Western Atlantic issued by U. S. Navy Hydrographic office several years ago, Palmyra island is colored "red," being the color of territories claimed by Great Britain.

Look Out for Squalls.

The Pilot Chart of the North Pacific for August predicts: "Squally weather may be expected in the vicinity of the Hawaiian Islands, and thunder storms on the coasts of Mexico and Central America."

We don't expect you to give us the preference if what we have to sell is inferior or our prices higher than our rivals, but when we offer a superior article for less money, you do yourself a wrong by not looking into the matter. Call and see our samples of portrait work. King Bros., 110 Hotel street.

Timely Topics

August 6, 1897.

The Kewalo Bicycle Track, to be known as Cyclomere Park, is at last a reality and "not a dream," thanks to the energy and enterprise of Mr. Desky, and will be opened with a grand meet next month, and all the young men—and perhaps also the lovely girls—will want to try their luck on it. In anticipation of increased sales on bicycles we have quietly laid in a good stock of Tribune Bicycles than which there is none better in the market. The Tribune is now recognized in the United States as the best; it is the favorite with all the society people and business men all over the Union, and our own American Minister rides one. Recent advices announce a cut in prices of low grade, but the strictly high grade wheels still sell readily at the former list price. We have made better arrangements with the manufacturers, whereby we are enabled to sell the Tribune bicycles at list price—$100, and invite all intending purchasers of wheels to come and inspect our stock before going elsewhere. We have ladies' and gentlemen's road wheels, racers and all models manufactured by the celebrated Black Manufacturing Co. We also carry the Columbus, Columbus Juvenile for Boys and Girls, B & H Special, Zimmy and Stormer, which are sold exceedingly cheap.

PROFITABLE ART WORK.

Decorations of Novelty Goods—Designing Calendars and Booklets.

The student anxious to utilize her knowledge of painting will find a good field in the decoration of what are technically called "novelty goods." This term includes dinner and menu cards, "favors" for the German, the satin boxes and bags used by confectioners, wall pockets and thousands of similar articles of a dainty and fanciful character. Skill in this direction is sure to find a good market, according to The Art Amateur, authority for the following:

One taking up this kind of work as a regular employment can select one of two systems, either designing at home and selling to the shops or dealers or by applying for a position in one of the workrooms of a "novelty" establishment. Whether the artist in novelty goods is working by the piece or by the hour, the pay is small enough. The best designers—those who originate the patterns that are to be copied by the others—sometimes are paid as much as 50 cents an hour. The under workers are paid from 25 to 30 cents. Working by the piece, they may be paid a dollar for an elaborately painted box that has perhaps taken them many hours to paint.

For the higher grade of workers—those who can furnish original ideas—there are two departments of designing. One is the designing of new shapes and articles, the other of the paintings that are to decorate them. When finished, these patterns are handed to the under workers to be copied. There is a certain lightness of touch that is required for success in painting these novelty goods. The color should be used transparently and the effect obtained at once. Where opaque colors are necessary they should be used very crisply.

The most constantly salable designs are flowers with sentiment, "pansies for thought," roses or violets. Landscapes are now rarely used unless exquisitely done. Figures are popular for dinner cards and menus and are most liked when cut out.

For colors to be painted upon, pink is the most salable. Dark blues and reds are much used for the western trade.

For this sort of work there is room for great skill in taking advantage of the popular fads of the day. Of course at the times of the intercollegiate football games everything in college colors is especially taking.

Designing calendars and booklets is another line of work which, while entirely distinct from the painting of novelty goods, is often undertaken by the same students. Original designs for calendars are in constant demand, while the call for booklets fluctuates.

FOR THE SUMMIT.

Good Chance to Ascend Mauna Loa by the Easiest Route.

Mr. Gaspar, who took Dr. Guppy up to the summit of Mauna Loa on August 6, is going up to him with supplies after the arrival of the steamship Mauna Loa at Napoopoo on August 28. Mr. Gaspar will take with him any tourists who may wish to accompany him. The cost per head will be thirty dollars, which will include everything connected with the ascent and descent, such as, horses, blankets, food, etc., but each person will have to provide himself with plenty of warm clothing for the two nights on the mountain. The trip will occupy about three days, and those so desirous will be able to catch the return steamer to Honolulu on September 2.

JUDICIARY NOTINGS.

Progress of Molokai Murder Trial—Appeal of Cuelho.

In the Molokai murder trial the prosecution rested its case just before recess at noon.

W. J. Cuelho by his attorney, Charles Creighton, has filed exceptions to Judge Carter's decision overruling motion for a new trial.

Emma Mabelona, guardian of the minor children of Samuel Mabelona, deceased, petitions for confirmation of sale of real estate. It was a quarter interest in two apanas aggregating nearly an acre, and was sold at auction by Jas. F. Morgan to J. A. Magoon for $100.

Chas. S. Desky let the contract for his new building this morning to Patric & Mutch, who were the lowest bidders. The stone for the building will be taken from a new quarry just opened up back of the Kamehameha schools.

In the District Court this morning the case of the four mounted patrolmen, charged with beating a couple of natives a few nights since, was disposed of. Judge Wilcox found Conley and Hewett guilty and sentenced them to three months each at hard labor. Gillis and Cornwell were discharged.

Celebrated for its great leavening strength and healthfulness. Assures the food against alum and all forms of adulteration common to the cheap brands. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

Sponges.

We have just received a large consignment of Chamois of all sizes, such an assortment has never before been offered to consumers in this country. Special care being given to the selection of Chamois that are suitable for carriage use.

Prices

We have at all times enjoyed the reputation of carrying in stock the very best quality of Sponges that are grown, and we aim to continue to bear the reputation in the future. Our last consignment of Mediterranean Sponges are on exhibition in our window and we court comparison with those carried by the firms dealing in that line.

Greatly

There is as much difference in Sponges as there is in cloth and when you purchase a Sponge from us you can rest assured that you are getting full value for your money and no deception; catch prices in Sponges are dangerous, because good Sponges are like gold coin the world over.

Reduced

Before investing in goods in this line come and inspect our stocks, we feel confident that we can interest and save you money by so doing.

ORIENTAL EYES.

Their Much Landed Beauty Due to False Modes of Living.

An esteemed correspondent of The Woman's Arena writes, "May not the much lauded largeness and luster of the oriental eye be due to false modes of living and to a low grade of civilization?"

In the first place these charms are never found among the working classes or among the tillers of the soil. They belong to the harem and to the harem civilization.

I have examined the women's quarters in Constantinople and Cairo, in Aden and Bombay, in Calcutta and Java, and even in Hongkong and Canton, and in nearly every instance the women's rooms were small and dark. Where there were windows these were mere slits in the wall, which did not allow any direct light to enter.

The doorway was small and the door was solid and nearly always closed. The lamp was usually a taper and sometimes a candle. The room or rooms looked out upon a long hall or corridor, which was also dark and gloomy, and this in turn upon an arched and roofed veranda.

In nearly all of these places a woman's daily life was conducted in shadow and shade, and after sundown she had less light than fell to the lot of the pilgrim fathers 250 years ago.

Under these conditions the human eye develops like that of the cat and dog. It becomes larger and seemingly more lustrous in order to allow the owner to move about in safety and comfort. Transfer this unfortunate woman to the open street, the field or the deck of a steamer, and her eyes are in a torture from the sunlight. Her forehead is contracted by a terrible frown, her eyelids are screwed together and her eyes seem to be just the opposite of what they are described in poetry and romance.

It may be I am all wrong, but of all poetic humbugs, I think that the gazzelike orb of the orient is the biggest.

As It Looked to Him.

People who have seen cottonwood lumber warp when it came from the saw can appreciate a story Gene Ware tells about the first sawmill erected at Fort Scott. After the first day's sawing the owner of the mill came down from town, where he had been celebrating the "opening" with the boys. He looked over the crooked boards scattered about the yard for a moment and then inquired with drunken gravity: "Boys (hic), has that lumber been measured yet?"

"It has not," replied the foreman of the mill. "Well, when it gets still, take a (hic) corkscrew and measure it."—Kansas City Journal.

The word "fie" or its equivalent in sound exists in all languages, and in every one is expressive of disgust. In the Icelandic the word "pfal" means putridity.

The entire trade of this country with Samoa in 1894 was less than $750,000. Crater lake, in Oregon, is the deepest body of fresh water in America.

A Good Loser.

When the father of seven charming daughters is asked for one of them.—Truth.

Don't be persuaded to accept what is not really good in enlarged portraits, just because you have given an order for one. King Bros. will give you something infinitely better and cheaper than you can get anywhere else in town.

The Oliver Typewriter is pronounced by experts, the best machine in the world. It has many valuable features, which have to be seen in order to be appreciated. The Oliver can be seen at the office of A. V. Gear, No. 210 King street.

Our work is better and our prices are lower for enlarged portrait work than anyone else's. We are not making much at it, but don't let that worry you. If you have anything in this line to be done see our samples first, and you won't regret it. King Bros., 110 Hotel street.

We don't expect you to give us the preference if what we have to sell is inferior or our prices higher than our rivals, but when we offer a superior article for less money, you do yourself a wrong by not looking into the matter. Call and see our samples of portrait work. King Bros., 110 Hotel street.

The The The Best. Rest. Test.

There are two kinds of sarsaparilla: The best—and the rest. The trouble is they look alike. And when the rest dress like the best who's to tell them apart? Well, "the tree is known by its fruit." That's an old test and a safe one. And the taller the tree the deeper the root. That's another test. What's the root,—the record of these sarsaparillas? The one with the deepest root is Ayer's. The one with the richest fruit; that, too, is Ayer's. Ayer's Sarsaparilla has a record of half a century of cures; a record of many medals and awards—culminating in the medal of the Chicago World's Fair, which, admitting Ayer's Sarsaparilla as the best—shut its doors against the rest. That was greater honor than the medal, to be the only Sarsaparilla admitted as an exhibit at the World's Fair. If you want to get the best sarsaparilla of your druggist, here's an infallible rule: Ask for the best and you'll get Ayer's. Ask for Ayer's and you'll get the best.

THE HORSE AND THE BIKE.

I saw 'em goin' up the road like flies in a straited light. As I did 'em blame my good ole boy for shyn at the sight. And in the distance minglin' Bells an' laughter 'ere a jinglin' Till, ter tell the truth, I felt a heap more envious than polit. The boy, he tried 'em ketch 'em, but a wraith o' dusty clouds Was all that in the distance told the presence o' the crowd. An I says ter him: 'Ole feller, 'tain't no use o' arguing. The horse is a back number, an the bicycle's the thing.' 'Twas jes' a bit 'fore twilight when them people come along. They was goin' home on foot. 'Twas plain that suthin' had gone wrong. The broken bottles scattered By some tramps their hopes had shattered. I never see a more dejected, weary lookin' throng. They all sung 'Home, Sweet Home.' I harnessed up an' took 'em there, An when they gladly paid two dollars each by way o' fare The ole boy winked one ear at me an' tried his best ter say, 'The bicycle ain't in it, an the horse is here ter stay.' -Washington Star.

A Hustler. 'During the prevalence of the present hard times,' said a tourist from the east, who had scraped an acquaintance with Dr. Slade, a prominent Oklahoma physician, 'I should not think that your practice would prove very remunerative.' 'Well, no,' replied the doctor, 'taken as a specialty, it don't, but followed as a side line it does middling well. You see, I've got myself elected coroner and am also the only undertaker in the settlement, and in addition I deal in tombstones, patent medicines, guns and ammunition, and, taking them altogether and working them in combination with each other together with my regular practice, they yield me a reasonably good income. A hustler can get along almost anywhere during any kind of times.' -New York Sunday Journal.

KAUAI STRAMER MAUNA LOA IN PORT.

S. S. China Stay—Ship Brehilda To Astoria—News of the Whalers—Schooner Wahlburg Hobs Up.

Light showers of rain on Kauai. S S China's departure indefinitely postponed. The ship Commodore is loading sugar at Oceanic wharf. The ship Brehilda cleared for Astoria in ballast this morning. The Hawaiian S S China has HONOLULU painted on her stern. A little too previous. H B M S Penguin got under way at half past seven o'clock this morning for Fanning's Island. The schooner Kauikaouli arrived with sugar from Hamakua for the ship Commodore this morning.

Tomorrow, high tide large 4:48 p m; high tide small 5:05 a m; low tide large 11:35 p m; low tide small 10:20 a m.

The S S China, while coming to off Meigg's wharf, San Francisco, on July 24, lost starboard anchor and 15 fathoms of chain.

The brig Percy Edwards is a wreck and the few members of the Brotherhood of the South Seas that passed through Honolulu long since on their way to Fiji from San Francisco are stranded in the islands.

The ship E B Sutton from Honolulu for Philadelphia, at Delaware Breakwater July 7, encountered a severe hurricane on May 9, while rounding Cape Horn, and had cabin flooded and a quantity of stores destroyed; one seaman was washed overboard and drowned.

The schooner Wahlburg which gained notoriety by bringing the arms to the revolutionists of 1895 arrived at San Diego July 27 having rescued four men who had been on Natividad Island near the Gulf of California several months and were nearly perishing.

The steamer Mauna Loa arrived at half past twelve o'clock today from Kona and Kau with a big lot of passengers and 11,253 bags sugar from Hutchinson and Pahala plantations, 46 bags coffee from Kona, 200 bags of seed cane from Naalehu destined for Hilo, 30 head cattle, 94 bags avo and a lot of general freight. Purser Matthews reports an uneventful voyage, some rain in Hamakua but dry weather in Kona and Kau.

A matter worthy of note and emulation is that of the way German shipowners treat their seamen, all of whom they insure against accident, says the Marine Journal. Recently the cost of this generous action on the part of German shipowners averaged about $1 per man per annum. Men permanently incapacitated and over 70 years of age also receive a sum proportionate to the above named.

The news of the whaling fleet in Behring sea was received by the schooner Sailor Boy, which arrived a few days ago at Port Townsend. The Sailor Boy left Port Clarence on July 11 and reports that the whalers in port there and their catches were as follows: Orco, 3; Jeannette, 2; Thrasher, 2; Norwhal, one-half; Alexander, 3; Karluk, 1; Belvedere, 1; Navaroh, 6; Balling, Beluga and William Bayles, none. The only accident reported was to the Alexander, which, while cutting in a whale, carried away her foretopmast. In falling to the deck it fatally injured a sailor and broke the vessel's hoisting gear. The Sailor Boy brought down a cargo of whalebone valued at $30,000.

NEW BRITISH CRUISERS.

The House of Commons Votes the Necessary Amount for Their Construction.

London July 27. —In committee of supply, in the House of Commons to-day, Mr. George J. Goschen, First Lord of the Admiralty, announced a supplementary naval estimate of five hundred thousand pounds, which, he said, was necessitated by the rapid additions to foreign navies. It is proposed to utilize the amount mentioned in the immediate commencement of the construction of four additional very fast armored cruisers, of 11,850 tons each, capable of the double duty of taking part in action with battleships and protecting the lines of communication. In addition to these, sixty thousand pounds will be spent for new torpedo boat destroyers. The completion of the ships now in course of construction will be accelerated so as to leave the coming year free for new designs.

A Continuous Performance.

Mandy—Come on, Silas. It costs too much to eat in that place. Silas—Yes, 50 cents is a lot to pay for a dinner, but look how long we kin eat—from 1:30 to 8 o'clock. Let's go in.—Twinkles.

UNCLE SAM'S ISLANDS.

Individually and in groups there are many of them.

Distributed over the mid-Pacific, in the neighborhood of the equator, says the Washington Post, are quite a lot of small islands that belong to the United States. Most of them are from 1000 to 2000 miles to the south and southwest of Hawaii. Some of them are near the Gilbert archipelago, and there is a considerable cluster just about the lesser distance mentioned and directly south of the Hawaiian group, including America, Christmas, Palmyros, and other islands of large size. Christmas Island is about thirty-five miles long. It got its name originally from the fact that the famous Captain Cook stopped there on Christmas day for the purpose of observing an eclipse. It is an atoll or ring of coral formation, enclosing a lagoon of water that has become so salty through evaporation as to be a veritable brine. Fishes thrown over the reef by storms are pickled in it, and remain perfectly preserved and good to eat for months.

These isles of the Pacific belonging to Uncle Sam number sixty in all. They have all been annexed to the United States under an Act of Congress, which became a law August 18, 1856. This law, which remains in force today, declares that whenever any citizen of the United States shall discover a deposit of guano on any island, rock or key, not within the lawful jurisdiction of any other government, he shall be at liberty to take peaceable possession thereof, and such island, rock or key may, at the discretion of the President, be considered as pertaining to the United States. The discoverer is required to give due notice to the Department of State, with affidavits, describing the island and showing that possession of the same has been taken in the name of this country. He is obliged at the same time to give a bond, which is filed in the Treasury.

The discoverer, at the pleasure of Congress, enjoys the exclusive right to occupy his island for the purpose of obtaining guano, and for this product he is allowed to charge only a certain fixed price—namely, $8 a ton for guano delivered at the ship's side, or $4 a ton for the privilege of digging it where it lies. Furthermore, he gives a guarantee by his bond to deliver the guano only to citizens of the United States, and to be used in the United States. The law provides, curiously enough, that all offenses and crimes on such islands by persons who may land thereon, or in waters adjacent, shall be deemed as committed on the high seas, on board a merchant ship of the United States, and shall be punished accordingly. The President is authorized to use the land and naval forces of the United States to protect the rights of the discoverer or his heirs.

But Uncle Sam's ocean empire includes a great many islands of far greater importance than the guano isles referred to. In Bering Sea there are several very large islands, besides the little Pribylov group to which the far seals resort. This country owns the entire chain of Aleutian islands, which separate the Bering Sea from the North Pacific. The inhabitants of these islands, called Aleuts, are particularly intelligent, much more civilized than the Eskimo, and bear a close resemblance physically to the Japanese. Off the coast of southern Alaska is a group of islands of great size, on some of which live the Thlinket Indians. These are the most artistic savages in the world, being skilled wood carvers. Off the coast of southern California is the Santa Barbara group, comprising a number of large islands.

He Took Bromide.

Kenneth Duncan, formerly a Presbyterian minister, who is detained in the City Prison pending examination on a charge of grand larceny, was taken to the Receiving Hospital yesterday afternoon for treatment. The prisoner had been observed by a cellmate taking a light dose of bromide. The friends of Duncan propose taking him for examination before the Lunacy Commission.—The Call.
