The Daily Bulletin.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 11, 1894.

Dynamite does not follow lightning in the proverbial example of never striking twice in one place. In the case of doubly stricken Santander, Spain, of which an account appears elsewhere, the proverb that applies is the one saying that misfortunes seldom come singly.

Why did Senator Dolph of Oregon oppose the fixing of a day for discussing the Hawaiian question? Probably because there is no majority in sight to carry the Morgan report whitewashing Stevens and his Honolulu confederates. In view of the latest indications at Washington, Hawaiians do well to continue possessing their souls in patience. American interests are to be fully secured and satisfied by the actual occupation of Pearl harbor, while the Stevens scheme of piracy is to be utterly repudiated and reversed.

Our correspondent who states his grievance against the police in this issue was asked what the police were searching his place for. He replied that he thought they were looking for some Chinamen. The public have a right to know, in view of recent episodes, how far the privilege of domiciliary visitation by the police extends under the present government without a constitution. Unless the Attorney-General take an opportunity of defining the Government's claims in the matter, there is a liability one of these days of tragical results occurring from the incursions of police into private premises.

In the news by the bark Albert, summarised in this paper yesterday, was a statement furnished by the Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune, to the effect that United States Minister Willis had reported to Secretary Gresham that the British Minister here was taking advantage of the apparent attitude of President Cleveland toward the Hawaiian Islands, by striving to "increase the prestige of Great Britain and to lessen the influence of the United States." The Bulletin has very good authority for stating that there is no foundation for any such report of Mr. Willis' correspondence. On the contrary, the most cordial understanding exists and has existed between the American and the British Ministers with regard to Hawaiian affairs. Evidently the P. G. combination at Washington is practising some of its former tactics in misleading the American press and public.

There seems to be some force to the present movement of negroes in Alabama, looking to emigration to the land of their ancestors. A convention of three thousand is pretty formidable. The shrewd conclusion of the negroes that the white man should pay their passage out, since he had brought their forefathers over without consulting them, has the ring of simple justice. Should the movement be successful in any large degree, the results will be awaited with profound interest throughout Christendom. With civilized colonies on every hand in Africa, it is almost impossible that the American negroes should relapse into their ancestral barbarism. Another interesting subject of speculation is the effect upon social and industrial conditions in the Southern States, which would be produced by the draining off of the great volume of negro blood. Indeed, the results there could be hardly less momentous than those to accrue in Ethiopia.

The Industrial Transition.

EDITOR BULLETIN:— In our search for a cause of the uncounted spectacle presented by the thousands of unemployed in the United States, we must go back to history and trace the rise of our present industrial system. In the middle ages there was a much more orderly England than the England of to-day. Agriculture was organized on an intelligible and consistent system in the feudal manor or commune; handicraft was ordered by the guilds of the town. Every man had his class and every class its duties. Payments and privileges were fixed by law and custom sanctioned by the moral sense of the community, and were revised by the light of that moral sense whenever the operation of supply and demand disturbed the arrangement. Liberty and equality were unheard of; but so was free competition. The law did not suffer a laborer's wife to wear a silver girdle; neither did it force her to work sixteen hours a day for the value of a modern quarter of a dollar. Nobody entertained the idea that the individual had any right to trade as he pleased without reference to the rest. When the townsfolk formed a market, it was quite understood that they had not taken that trouble in order to enable a speculator to make money. If they caught a man buying goods merely to sell them a few hours later at a higher price, he was deemed eligible to ornament the village stocks as a rascal. He would not venture to plead the doctrine of modern commerce that it is socially beneficent, if not a pious duty, to buy in the cheapest market and sell in the dearest. If he did they would probably burn him alive.

This social order, relics of which may still be found in all directions, did not collapse because it was unjust or absurd. It was burst by the growth of the social organism. Its administration was too personal and unbusinesslike to deal with anything more complex than a group of industrial communes. Industrial relations with other countries were beyond its comprehension. Even its grasp of inter-parochial morality was none of the surest, but of international morality it had no notion. A Frenchman or a Scotchman was a natural enemy; a Muscovite was a fore-gone devil; the relationship of a negro to the human race was more distant than that of the gorilla is now admitted to be.

The discovery of the New World began that economic revolution which changed every English manufacturing town into a more healthful world's fair, and altered the immediate objects and views of producers. It was then that English adventurers took to the sea and, being in a frame of mind peculiarly favorable to commercial success, laid the foundations of empire and commercial supremacy from which they have never been entirely dislodged. The early naval rovers were largely of the Crusoe type, unaffectedly pious with strong convictions and force of character, and not unlike some of their modern descendants in Hawaii, regarded piracy and wholesale despoiling of the aboriginal Philistines, as a brave and patriotic pursuit. The slave trade then was a perfectly honest branch of commerce, adventurous enough to be consistent with the honor of a gentleman, and lucrative enough to make it well worth the risk. They stole the cargo of a foreign ship, or made a heavy profit on a batch of slaves and thanked Providence with the same sort of heavy unction that a modern P. G. does. The owners of accumulated wealth hastened to invest their capital with these men. From Queen Elizabeth down, the grandees and people took shares in the voyages of these adventurers, and the corner stones of the industrial greatness and the filibustering shame of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries was laid, and upon those foundations modern capitalism arose by success in enterprises for which men are now, by civilized nations, hung or shot as human vermin.

We need not go back centuries to see the unscrupulous business adventurer combine the appearance of pious rectitude with unscrupulous and revolting villainy. The average successful manufacturer is ambitious to be known as a merchant prince, and society esteems him a man of high personal honor, while his large charities and gifts mark him out as a pillar of society whose piety is most exemplary. He may be, nevertheless, grinding his wealth out of the labor of women and children with whom as wage-workers he has no more sense of social solidarity than Drake had with the Spaniards or negroes.

GREAT AND GOOD ME. Glowing Praise of Himself by a P. G. Captain. The following item reminds one of the old story about the Irish veteran of Waterloo: "Wellington says, says he, 'Is Mike Maloney on the field?' 'Yes, yer honor, he was tould. 'Well, thin, let the battle go on!' cried the general." Lieut. Colonel Fisher, Capt. Ziegler and all the rest of the crack officers of the N. G. of H. may follow Colonel Soper on his furlough with full pay, so long as the subject of the following despatch governs the garrison:

CORAN (Wash.), March 19.—John Good, Captain of the National Guards of Hawaii, writes under date Honolulu, March 7th, to his brother, James Good of this city: "We received news of Senator Morgan's committee report yesterday and are pleased, and the royalists are correspondingly depressed. The royalists may conclude to attempt something on their own account. If they do we will easily take care of them, but they may make a splurge for a few hours and declare Mrs. Dominga Queen, with the hope that Great Britain may sustain her. "The British Minister here is an intriguer, and all his family, as well as national interests, are bound up in the restoration of the monarchy, and should an uprising take place he might declare an alleged monarchy under British protection, and land men from the English man-of-war here to sustain it. If they come ashore we will stamp them into the earth, no matter what after consequences may be. Should such a collision occur we believe that the people of the United States would compel the Government to sustain us, and the people of Washington would have an opportunity to march northward over the border. "I am writing, frankly of possibilities, so that you may not be surprised at anything that may occur. We are determined to maintain our position until annexation is accomplished, and will fight any foe, either internal or external, that stands in our way. We are in fine position from a military standpoint. My company guards the palace, the vital point. They are in splendid condition, and anything can be done with them. Perhaps I ought not to say it but they are certainly in a much finer state of drill and discipline than are any of the crews of the war vessels here. It is astonishing to an outsider to see with what marvelous quickness they get to their stations when an alarm drill is given, and the beauty of it is that there is no order necessary but sound the long roll, and every man knows his place and goes on the run."

Hawaiian Hardware Co., Ltd. Saturday, April 7, 1894.

Did you ever notice how an ant combines business with pleasure when out on a promenade, how he will investigate when he runs up against a bread crumb and then go back and tell a large circle of acquaintances who soon become a nuisance. It is to obviate this that we sell the new fangled Bread and Cake Knives. You may cut warm or cold bread, or cake with icing on it and not make a crumb. The set of three—a parer, cake cutter and pie cutter—goes to you for a dollar, and when you've used them once you will say you have a three dollar value.

The latest coast news tells us that all of the treaties under the McKinley bill are repealed under the new Tariff bill. This is going to bring anguish to the breasts of some people, but Hawaii is all right. McKinley did not give us a treaty but he wrestled hard to give us "Ballyhoo." So far as treaty relations with the United States are concerned the sun seems to be shining on the sugar industry of Hawaii; and so long as the sun shines to the extent of a cent and a quarter on sugar every one will be prosperous and happy.

Haviland ware takes a step or two forward in this community when its quality is compared with other decorated china. We have sold this crockery ever since we have been in business and it is now the favorite ware here. Our method of selling it makes it popular because we do not insist upon people buying a full set. We sell, for instance, a half dozen cups and saucers as a starter. If the buyer's friends comment on their beauty and quality it is quite likely the lady of the house will want some plates to add to it. With each piece there will be a growing desire for more until it culminates in the necessary dishes for soup, fish, roasts, vegetables, salads, etc. It is quite the proper thing for people to have different decorations for each course; some people may have a complete set but would like a change for soup or fish. We can make up such a set at a price that will surprise you.

The Fischer Steel Range is by far the best range manufactured; it will heat up quicker and burn less fuel. The first invoice of these ranges that we received were made of material just one half the thickness of the present lot and they cost us more money. While those we now offer you are superior in every respect, we sell them for ten dollars less money. We've sold these ranges to people who have used iron stoves all their lives and who do not hesitate to say that the "Fischer" burns one third less fuel than any other stove the same size. This means that you will save the extra cost of a steel range in a very short time.

For people who want a cheaper article we have several makes of iron stoves which we can recommend. We make a leader of the "Pansy" at $15, because we believe it to be the best. These iron stoves burn coal or wood and are wonder fully good bakers.

The dry season is coming on and the "25th annual kick of the Water Consumers' Protective Alliance" will soon take place. It is not that there is a scarcity of water on the Islands but because the people do not search for it. We have saved the ranch man, the plantation manager and the vegetable grower large sums of money by accepting our advice and erecting Aeromotors. Our 8-foot wheel will do the same work that a 10-foot wooden wheel will perform, and an 8-foot mill is all that is required for stock or irrigation purposes unless large quantities of water are required. The Aeromotor has many advantages over wooden mills, and one of them is the fact that no matter how violent the storm the mill will close up automatically.

THE UNDERSIGNED HAVE BEEN APPOINTED SOLE AGENTS FOR these ISLANDS and are now prepared to receive orders. The great advantages to be derived from the use of the NATIONAL CANE SHREDDER are thoroughly established and acknowledged by Planters generally.

The large number of Planters using them in the United States, Cuba, Argentina, Republic, Peru, Australia and elsewhere, bear witness to the above claim.

The use of the SHREDDER very largely augments the quantity of cane the mill can grind (25 to 50) and also the extraction of juice (5 to 12%). It is a great advantage, making known at once the presence of any pieces of iron, stakes from trees, or anything which would be liable to damage the mill, and allowing ample time to remove same before damaging the mill.

The SHREDDER is very strongly made, and from the manner of its operation it cuts or tears these pieces of wood or iron without either breaking the SHREDDER, and if anything breaks, it is simply some of the knives or cutters, which can be quickly and economically replaced. The SHREDDER, as its name indicates, tears the cane into shreds of varying lengths, perfectly opening it and allowing the mill to thoroughly press out the juices without requiring the immense extra power necessary to grind or crush the whole cane. The SHREDDER spreads the shredded cane uniformly and evenly to the mill rolls, and does away with the necessity of spreading the baggage by hand between the mills, where, regarding its use, no greater amount of boiler capacity is required to operate the SHREDDER than that which was sufficient for the mill, for the above reasons. We furnish full working drawings for the installation of our SHREDDERS, enabling any competent engineer to successfully install and set it.

By enclosing stamp from any place send small sketch, showing the SHREDDER and whether the mill rolls with which SHREDDER is to be connected, also the side, whether right or left hand, and you have a heavy side of the mill upon which the mill engine is located, also the height from floor line to center of front mill shaft, and distance center shaft to front end of bed plate. These particulars are now being used by the Hilo Sugar Co. and Hilo Mill, Kilauea, who are very successful in satisfaction.

For more and further particulars may be had by applying to WM. G. IRWIN & CO., Ltd., Sole Agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

KUM WUN ATTEMPTS SUICIDE.

The Notorious Chinese Crook Stabs Himself Nastily.

Kum Wun, the desperate Chinese criminal, came near ending his existence between 12 and 1 o'clock this afternoon. He had been captured by Detectives Larsen and Boyle, and had several months added to his former sentence for escaping from a prison gang. For some time past he has been working at the quarry on Punchbowl, near the residence of J. F. Hackfeld. The prisoner was sent out chained to a log of lumber. He appeared to be sullen all the morning. At the lunch hour Kum Wun took out a kitchen knife about eight inches long and very rusty, and stabbed himself in the abdomen just below the navel. The two prisoners who were chained to him were shocked at the bloody deed, and grabbed the desperate man. The knife was pulled out of his body.

A telephone message was sent to Dr. Cooper, and he soon arrived on the scene. Kum Wun was met in a cart and was being taken to the hospital at Oahu Prison, when the doctor changed his mind and had him conveyed to the Queen's Hospital, where he is at present.

Dr. C. B. Wood, assistant Dr. Cooper at the Hospital, and the wound was sewed up. Dr. Wood was seen by a Bulletin reporter. He stated that the wound was about an inch and a quarter deep. The knife used was very dull. The blow had cut the covering of the bowels, letting out some of the entrails. The intestines had not been cut. The doctor was of the opinion that the wound would heal, but if peritonitis sets in the man will die.

Where the knife came from is a mystery, but it is suspected by the prison lina that it was smuggled to the prisoner by a Chinese house servant. It was an old rusty thing and curved slightly.

Those who never read the advertisements in their newspapers miss more than they presume. Jonathan Kenison, of Bolan, Worth Co., Iowa, who had been troubled with rheumatism in his back, arms and shoulders read an item in his paper about how a prominent German citizen of Ft. Madison had been cured. He procured the same medicine, and to use his own words: "I cured me right up." He also says: "A neighbor and his wife were both sick in bed with rheumatism. Their boy was over to my house and said they were so bad he had to do the cooking. I told him of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and how it had cured me, he got a bottle and it cured them up in a week. 50 cent bottles for sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., Agents for the Hawaiian Islands."

Handicraft, printed at the Kamehameha School, is out for March after skipping February. It is a tiptop number, but, for a school production, it has no excuse in spelling the word "privilege" wrong three times in one paragraph.

A great variety of table and medicinal waters is for sale by the Hallister Drug Co. Among others is the celebrated suaver bromine, which has attained great popularity here. The wonderful curative waters advertised in the leading periodicals abroad are in stock.

Up till a few minutes to 2 o'clock this afternoon the number of voters registered was 743. Several natives were registering when our reporter called. There were 2290 and odd voters on the register at last general election. Dr. Hodgson says there are 1100 others eligible for registry who have not paid their taxes.

It is expected that from 100 to 150 Chinese will take out return permits for departure by the S. S. China on Monday. Chinese are afraid that more stringent laws will be passed against them here. Besides a good opportunity now offers them at home for employment in the development of various mines. W. Horace Wright, clerk of the Chinese bureau at the Foreign Office, is wrestling with some new points that have arisen for settlement with regard to return and residence permits.

THE FOOT RACE.

Reede Wants a One-mile Race - King Doesn't.

One of the backers of Reede, of H. B. M. S. Champion, called at the Bulletin office this afternoon, and stated that their man was ready to run a one-mile race for $100 a side with King of the U. S. S. Philadelphia. He claims that King issued a challenge for a return match which was accepted. Now King wants a one-mile foot race, best three in five. The Champion man's backers have put up a forfeit, and so has the Philadelphia man. The Champion backers will give the Philadelphia until May 5 to train. As the Philadelphia man has backed out of his former proposition the Champion men think it unfair. They are willing to run the one-hundred yard races after the one-mile race.

Horse Hurt.

The fine horse of Kanama, a Oahu prison lina, was badly injured yesterday after noon. Kanama was riding on King street, when the animal shied at a vehicle and sprang to one side. The horse's rump, ending with a sharp point in a hump, cut through two deep and long gashes. Blood was flowing freely for some time. The horse was taken to Dr. Monarrat's to have the wounds dressed.

It will be an agreeable surprise to persons subject to a tacks of indigestion to learn that prompt relief may be had by taking Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. In many instances the attack may be prevented by taking this remedy as soon as the first symptoms of the disease appear. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., Agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

THE KAMEHAMEHA TEAM.

How It Will Figure In This Season's Baseball.

Baseball cranks will be interested in the following from Handicraft: "One of the attractions which calls the boys back to Kamehameha after the Christmas vacation is baseball. Football has so far, on account of the rocky grounds, proved a failure, and Panahou has not as yet met her defeat.

"Another baseball season is almost at hand and baseball enthusiasts are already asking each other about the Silver Cup. Whether the school boys will have as easy a time this year as they did last year no one is in a position to decide. Yet, if anything, Kamehameha's batting force will be stronger this year than last year and the fielding just as good if not better. Baker is undoubtedly a first-class catcher, and we hope he will do good work for the Crescents this year. Kamehameha cannot but miss him.

"For third baseman we have a good fielder and a better batter and also one who could step behind the bat in case of necessity, and with his noted pluck surprise every one. With these two changes the Kamehameha nine will be composed of the same players as last year. It is to be deplored, however, that the games could not be begun earlier this year and end before the summer vacation. Come, let us have a square deal Crescents and Hawaii, and don't wait for the vacation when all the boys are gone and then begin the season. It is too late now to play such a trick on us."

CHINESE LABOR CONFERENCE.

Small Chance of Recruiting in China Under Existing Conditions.

The committee of the Executive and Advisory Councils held a conference with Chinese merchants on Saturday. The object of the interview was to ascertain if more coolie labor could be secured from China for plantation work. The merchants were seen by a Bulletin reporter, and all refused to reveal anything connected with the conference. Gao Kim, Chinese Commercial Agent, stated that the meeting was a private one and nothing could be divulged until the matter was brought up in the Councils. They had promised not to give out anything in the papers until the committee reported to the Councils. Gao Kim added that in the opinion of fellow merchants and himself, no Chinese labor can be induced to come from China until the so-called Chinese license bill had been entirely obliterated. The Chinese in China have been kept fully informed of recent events in Honolulu regarding their countrymen residing here, and speaking for himself personally, he thought it was next to impossible to secure plantation labor from China. The committee will report to that effect on Thursday afternoon at the regular session of the Councils.

CAUGHT IN THE ACT.

A Dispenser of Swipes Heavily Fined.

Captain Hoekano and Officer Kale arrested a native woman named Ka-hakui on the evening of March 29, in a house at Apua, for selling the collection known as swipes without a license. Another native woman had called at Ka-hakui's place at 5 o'clock in the afternoon and bought fifty cents' worth of swipes. She had no other the stuff was not to her taste, and she got angry and gave vent to a revengeful spirit. The woman went to the Police Station and reported to Captain Hoekano. The officer gave the informer a marked half dollar and accompanied her to the place between 9 and 10 o'clock in the evening. Both officers stationed themselves at the door and watched the woman buying the liquor. As soon as the marked money was passed over the officers appeared on the scene and Ka-hakui was arrested. The bottles containing the swipes were sent to Prof. Lyons for analysis. The stuff was found to contain different percentages of alcohol, the strongest being 5 percent.

Ka-hakui was tried in the District Court this morning and found guilty. She was sentenced to pay a fine of $100. Her attorney noted an appeal.

JUDICIARY JOTTINGS.

Withdrawal of Decision in Suit Against the Government.

J. W. Kusimoku by his attorney, W. R. Castle, files the following answer to the suit of John R. Silva: "The answer of J. W. Kusimoku, the above-named defendant, denies each and every allegation in the plaintiff's complaint contained, whereof he puts himself upon the country."

Paul Neumann, attorney for the Portuguese Mutual Benefit Society, files a bill of exceptions to the judgment of Judge Whiting against his client at the suit of Ignacio de Fraga for benefits claimed, $70, interest and costs.

In the case of T. R. Mossman v. The Hawaiian Government, the following withdrawal of decision has been made in the clerk's minutes: "On the 30th of March, the time the decision was filed, there was no replication of record, and same was not considered in the decision. The replication was filed on the 14th of April, 1894, whereupon the Court withdraws the decision and vacates same, and the cause is to be further considered, and no exceptions or appeal is required by either party." The decision thus withdrawn was in favor of the Government.

The Lewis-Dudoit Wedding.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles V. Dudoit in Moanui, Molokai, was the scene of a lovely wedding last Thursday afternoon, April 5th, the contracting parties being Miss Blanche Dudoit and Charles Kim Lewis. The residence was most beautifully and profusely decorated with flowers and evergreens by Mrs. Lily Auld and a few others. The bridesmaid was Miss Mary Sullivan of Honolulu, and the best man, Mr. Horace Lewis, a brother of the groom. The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Jules Dudoit. She looked lovely, being attired in a pretty costume of mail trimmed with lace and wreaths of carnation flowers made of pumpkin stalks. The ceremony which was very impressive was performed by the Rev. Manasse of Kalaupapa at 2 o'clock p. m., the happy couple standing underneath a large Hawaiian flag festooned with wreaths of ferns. Sincere congratulations of all present followed the ceremony. The remainder of the day was devoted to dancing and the enjoyment of an elaborate supper prepared in Hawaiian style. Dancing was kept up until midnight, when all retired. The whole affair was exceedingly well carried out. Among those present were: Mrs. James Auld, Mr. and Mrs. John Spencer, Capt. A. McGregor, Messrs. Chas. Croighton, E. Bal, Clarence Crick, N. Fernandez, Wm. McGregor, Sam Green, Misses Hat Lewis, Lucy Dudoit, Julia Hauku, Nancy Kapuna, Louisa Harper, Mrs. Lily Auld and several other invited guests.

Hood's Cures

Numerous Boils

And Catarrh in the Head

"I feel that it is impossible for me to say too much in favor of Hood's Sarsaparilla. I was a great sufferer from impure blood and Catarrh in my head. Hood's Sarsaparilla cured me, and I suffered from numerous boils."

Agony Beyond Description. When I began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla I had six of them, only four of which came to a head, and since then, thanks to this good medicine, I have been free from this great affliction. I gained 11 pounds in two weeks. The Catarrh in my head which has troubled me for years has also been cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla and I feel that it is impossible for me to say too much in favor of Hood's Sarsaparilla. I was a great sufferer from impure blood and Catarrh in my head. Hood's Sarsaparilla cured me, and I suffered from numerous boils."

DISASTER IN SPAIN.

Divers Killed While Seeking for the Sunken Dynamite.

SANTANDER, March 21.—Another fatal accident occurred here to-day, caused by an explosion of dynamite. Ever since the awful disaster that occurred in this city on the night of November 3d last, when the Spanish steamer Cabo Machicao was blown up by the explosion of a part of the large consignment of dynamite on board of her, the wrecked hull of the vessel has been lying at the bottom of the bay.

It was discovered by divers who went down in search of the bodies of some of those who were killed at the time that a considerable quantity of dynamite was still in the wreck. This was considered a menace to shipping and the authorities determined to have it removed. To-day, while a number of workmen were engaged in the work of taking the dynamite from the hull, an explosion occurred and several of the men were killed.

The loss of life occasioned by the disaster last November has never been accurately ascertained. It is known, however, that the list of dead, missing and wounded numbered fully a thousand. The Machicao was lying alongside a wharf discharging part of her cargo, which consisted of general merchandise, including iron ore, flour and petroleum in cases. While this work was going on the steamer took fire, and the blaze attracted large crowds to the water front.

Officers and men went to the assistance of the firemen, who had been hastily summoned. Suddenly there was a deafening roar and the steamer disappeared. The slaughter among the spectators was frightful. Houses along the water front were either completely destroyed by the shock of the explosion or else so badly damaged as to be unfit for occupation.

Large quantities of burning oil were thrown into the city, and at one time it appeared as though the whole place would be destroyed. Fortunately, however, a change in the wind prevented this, but terrible damage had been done. A hundred small vessels sank in the harbor and a number of others, including the merchant steamer Alfonso XII, caught fire from the rain of flaming oil and burned. Forty of the crew of the Alfonso lost their lives. Mangled and blackened corpses were scattered along the quay, and the scene was one that defied description. Among the dead was Don Manuel de Lapena, the provincial Governor, and a number of other officials. Just as the ship blew up a railway train arrived at the station a considerable distance from the scene of the explosion. The train was completely wrecked, set on fire and most of its passengers burned to death.

An Alleged Outrage.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—I wish to add my grievance to the long roll of complaints against the so-called police with whom this town is cursed. Early Tuesday morning my premises were raided without warrant, or even the shadow of a pretext, by a thing who draws a good healthy salary for loafing round the Marshal's office, blaspheming and expostulating all day long. I protested and asked him to show cause for his intrusion. This wretched scoundrel, who has fed from the public crib until he has outgrown his halter, then committed a brutal assault on my person. Being surrounded by a half dozen other spies, all of whom he could rely upon when under oath before a court, and also having by him the protecting influence of Captain Langlay, I suppose he grew bold. What could I do? Nothing! I had to take water because in a moment of my licking him (which I could easily do) I would be arrested and punished for "obstructing justice," or breaking some ancient rusty law which could be resurrected to conveniently fit the case. I saw the Deputy Marshal and asked him to investigate the matter. My taxes help to pay that gentleman's wages, but he coolly and positively refused to inquire into the affair.

Now, Mr. Editor, is it not about time that this kind of thing should cease? The Attorney-General's department is a crying disgrace to the community, a standing menace to our lives and liberty. Let us sweep away these things who prostitute the service for their own ends. Let the Marshal's bureau be clean enough to stand the test of the taxpayers' opinions. ALFRED LANGLAY.

I, a witness, certify that the above account of the assault committed is correct.

Negro Emigration to Africa.

BIRMINGHAM, (Ala.), March 21.—Three thousand representative negroes from every part of Alabama were in attendance here to-day upon the State Convention of Negroes recently called to consider the question of emigration to Africa. It was the sense of the meeting that Africa being the natural home of the negro those in this country should return to that continent as soon as possible and establish there a great nation such as the whites had established in America. It was agreed, however, as the white man had brought the negro to America he ought to pay his fare back to their native land. Resolutions to that effect were passed.

Our better halves say they could not keep house without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is used in more than half the homes in Leeds, Sims Bros., Leeds, Iowa. This shows the esteem in which that remedy is held where it has been sold for years and is well known. Mothers have learned that there is nothing so good for colds, croup and whooping cough, that it cures these ailments quickly and permanently, and that it is pleasant and safe for children to take. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by all dealers. Awarded!

Anheuser-Busch Brewing Co. Wins the Prize at the World's Fair with their "EAGLE" Brand Beer.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 25, 1893.

MESSRS. MACFARLANE & CO., Ld., HONOLULU, H. I.

Dear Sirs:—We have mailed you a copy of the Globe-Democrat announcing the great victory won by the ANHEUSER-BUSCH ASSOCIATION with their "EAGLE" Brand of Beer.

(Signed) ANHEUSER-BUSCH BREWING ASSOCIATION.

(Special Despatch to Globe-Democrat.)

WORLD'S FAIR, CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 25.—No award has ever been made so gratifying to St. Louis people and so justly merited as the one given to-day by the Columbian Jury of the World's Fair, consisting of connoisseurs and chemists of the highest rank, to the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Association. By methods of unrivaled business enterprise, and by using the best material produced in America and Europe, including corn and other adulterants or surrogates, the different kinds of the Anheuser-Busch beer have become the favorites with the American people, and have now conquered the highest award in every particular, which had to be considered by the Columbian Jury. The high character of the award given to-day by the jurors will be better understood when it is known that the different beers exhibited by the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Association had to compete with hundreds of the most excellent displays of other brewers. The fact that no other concern has received so many prizes for the various essential qualities of good beer confirms anew the firm's reputation as the leader of all American beers, and Mr. Adolphus Busch can feel proud over this result so justly merited.

The above is a Fac-simile of the Label of the "EAGLE" Brand which took the Prize.

In ordering this Beer be sure to ask for the "EAGLE" Brand.
