Ed. THE INDEPENDENT:—

"Grant thee according to thine own heart, and fulfil all thy counsel. We will rejoice in thy salvation, and in the name of our God we will set up our banners: the Lord fulfil all thy petitions."

We know that the President has not neglected one smallest detail intentionally that could help to remove any trace of cholera from this city; we know that not one thing has he omitted through his helpers, men and women, which could relieve distress in any form. In pardoning the prisoners again, he has shown to us the blessed hand of mercy. We cannot see through his spectacles exactly and doubtless he would fault ours; but, old as we are, we have much to learn, and can learn much if we will, be our lease of life now, longer or shorter.

We repeat, but our judgment is not infallible, that we take no stock in filibusters nor in native uprisings, whatever history may hold of the past.

But should a piratical filibuster loom up in the roadstead it would be the religious duty, if needed, for every man, and woman, too, to help to fight that foe: for it would not come to help royalist nor republican, neither to help the people individually nor collectively; but for selfish plunder and booty—loot. We'll help to put that kind of caller in a stone castle at night and set him to making stone walls through the day.

Do not talk of November thanksgivings! Any day of October that the President recollects that "mercy is greater than sacrifice, and that it is better even to err on the side of mercy. Any day will be a special thanksgiving to Almighty God for those men now imprisoned, and for their families here.

Salads.

Salade Russe: For this cut some cold boiled vegetables of all kinds into olive shapes, or thin slices, with (if at hand) some truffles; take equal parts, more or less, of these, together with some small beans and some asparagus points, or artichoke. Add to these a couple of spoonfuls of caper or nasturtium seeds, and the same of sliced pickled gherkin, some olives stoned, together with a tablespoonful of minced chervil, and chives, or young spring onions. Toss these all in an oil and vinegar dressing as before, then arrange neatly in a bowl with washed, boned and filleted anchovies, caviar, pepper, hard-boiled eggs, lobsters, shrimps, etc.—in short, anything that will add to the taste and appearance of the dish. Household News.

Vegetable Salads: In making vegetable salads, which are, especially in spring and summer, so refreshing and conducive to appetite, the prerequisite is to select the very freshest vegetables, and the next important condition is that in your dressing, no matter how many flavors are used, no one of them should dominate—a salad dressing should be an even blend of flavors. A further requisite is that the dressing should never be added to the prepared vegetables until you are ready to serve. Among the salad vegetables are lettuce, asparagus, dandelion, water cress, celery, cauliflower, cucumbers, tomatoes, string beans, and very young lima beans. The nasturtium is useful to give tone and sharpness to the more tasteless sorts of vegetables.—Farmers' Review.

THURSDAY, OCT. 17, 1895.

PAU LOA.

It is a great satisfaction to be able to say that the alleged cholera under which we have suffered for months has disappeared. The entering into port of the Mariposa this morning shows sufficiently that satisfactory explanations have been given, and that Honolulu once more has been declared a clean port.

The time for squabbling and disputing as to the "hows," and "wheres," and "whys," the recent epidemic came is now in order, and the public will probable get sick and tired before these important questions are settled which they never will be.

The Attorney-General leaves for a deserved rest, and although somebody thinks that it would have been better for him to go to California, and there explain all he knows about cholera, instead of going to New Zealand, nobody grudges him the trip. We fail to see why the "land business" is used as an excuse for sending Mr. Smith abroad in an official capacity and on public subsidy. There is no reason why he shouldn't make a journey, and there was no necessity to invest him with the sham of a public mission.—Dole's land bill, although mutilated, and in its present shape as faulty as the original, has been passed and all the knowledge to be gained in New Zealand by Mr. Smith will not assist in improving the law. The departure of Mr. Smith however proves that the authorities of Hawaii do not entertain any fear of another outbreak of the epidemic and that an official indorsement has been placed on the statement that it is stamped out.

Under these circumstances we are surprised to notice the attitude of the U. S. cruiser Olympia. This vessel so far refuses to come in port and we have received numerous complaints because officers and men are prevented coming ashore.

The officers are allowed to make calls during the day time, but have to return at sunset and no liberty is granted to the men. The commander and doctor of the cruiser know their business of course, but we do not think that they have fully realized the injury done to this country through the attitude adopted by them. The Mariposa left with a clean bill of health but it will be stated by her that the U. S. cruiser still refuses to enter port which will cause the impression that Honolulu is an infected port. We understand that the regulations of the doctor of the Olympia will be modified and we sincerely hope that no exaggerated precautions will be taken but that the officers and men will be allowed to come ashore.

The cholera in Honolulu, if it ever was here, is pau.

FALSE REPORTS.

A native paper tells its readers that several officers from U. S. S. cruiser Olympia called at Washington Place, and were in private conference with the ex Queen for nearly an hour. It is unnecessary for us to state that the report is without any foundation whatever. Mr. C. B. Wilson was seen in regard to the matter this morning, and expressed himself as very annoyed over such reports which can only tend to create false impressions among the Hawaiians and are injurious to them and distasteful to the Queen. We cannot see the object in alleged intelligent Hawaiians spreading such rumors, and even casting them broadcast over the country in print, but it is about time that such business was stopped, and that the Hawaiians and others were made to understand that the Queen resides at Washington Place, released simply on parole from her former prison. At present she does not receive callers. Her personal friends are even refused admittance to her presence, at her own request, let alone strangers. In the meantime the easily duped Hawaiians go around and think that there is "something up." What is the next foolishness they will be guilty of?

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

So far as the conviction of defendants brought before the Police Court on charges of opium in possession, it appears that the result occurs because of a conspiracy. Doesn't this show what our police force has come to? To protect the law in one instance, they must themselves break the law in another instance. The time has come to put the whole business down to what the morale of the community will stand.

"Hawaiian" seamen are those registered under the Hawaiian flag. That is in keeping with International customs the world over. If a vessel flies a flag the seaman on board belongs to that flag. Otherwise the U. S. war of 1812 would have been of no avail.

By the statement of W. C. Achi in his alimony connection it appears that his taxes and water rates are due for two years. How does this comfort the unfortunates who have had to work out their taxes in particular suits during the period mentioned?

Saki seems to cause considerable discussion here—especially among the people who don't use it. Perhaps it would be better to find out what it is, and what its effects may be, and then legislate in whatever way would be beneficial to us. So far, we hear talk. But practically we find no results. If saki is bad—from our trade view—and also from our health view—some examples should be shown. To simply talk in print seems to be cheap.

One day the Bulletin wants harbor improvements. The next day it objects because another paper has endorsed its proposal. Let it show quietly and unmistakably what it wants. Then we shall have something to argue on. In the meantime any plan which will improve without chances of deteriorating our harbor, will have our approval unless we can show something better.

Writes the Star: "A proper respect for the ordinary amenities and a studied regard for the feelings and characters of all men should mark the conduct of newspapers as well as the conversation of individuals. No publication can with hope of success admit to its columns vague or unsustained or malicious charges against reputable citizens. The course is both cowardly and unjust and cannot but invoke the displeasure and contempt of fair-minded men." Now we are satisfied. If all will carry out on this line, newspaper writing will be as worthy of dignity as we have tried to make it.

The Bulletin published the day before yesterday signed charges against Capt. Paul Smith. If they were true he should have been ignominiously dismissed from every government employment that he held. Capt. Smith resented the charges. He took the conduct of the affair into his own hand and the Bulletin says: "Captain Smith would seem to be completely exonerated from the charges preferred against him by two late employes on the dredger. Less harm is done him by letting his enemies come out in the open, which has given him an opportunity of the most public exculpation, than by having them circulate damaging reports about him in private which could never be fully overtake." So the function of a newspaper is to circulate charges in order that they may be denied.

Dr. Surmann has thrown down his glove to the medical members of the Board of Health, by writing to them that the recent epidemic was not the Asiatic cholera. If the German doctor is right the port physician and the other members of the board are severely to blame for having stigmatized Honolulu as a cholera infected port, and thereby causing great distress, hardship, and inconvenience. If Dr. Surmann is wrong, and we did have the Asiatic cholera, the Board of Health doctors ought to be publicly censured for having, through their neglect, allowed that dread disease to enter the country. In the meantime it will be interesting to sit by, and watch the fur fly, when the doctors get into the professional wool of each other.

The Star now has abandoned its enthusiasm for the deepening of the harbor as proposed. It now says, as all kamaainas have said, extend the harbor seaward. And the one obstacle is Thurston's legacy of a lease to the O. R. & L. Co.

Where is the dredger? The Star says go ahead with it or else consign it to the scrap heap. What about Capt. Paul Smith, and its other occupants.

As the Building Society has to advertise its privileges it is safe to say that its inside members don't rely on its profits as much as the Advertiser expects the outside public to do. If the thing pays those who are in it will undoubtedly use their advantages as far as they can. The outside public doesn't care.

Sans Souci.

The most lovely spot on Oahu is Sans Souci. This favorite seaside resort, which has been immortalized by the pen of Robert L. Stevenson, who resided there for months, is only four miles from Honolulu and within easy reach of the tramcars. The surroundings and bathing at this famous resort are superior to anything found in the Hawaiian Islands. Cottages and board can be obtained on easy terms. The table set by the manager is better than any offered here at other hotels. For picnics, bathing parties and outings the best accommodation can be secured by giving notice to the manager.

To close them out Shirt Waists, formerly selling at $1.50 each, have been reduced to $1; and Pith Hats, which were selling at $2, from this on will be sold at $1 each. Call early before the supply is exhausted. A. Barnes, New Republic Building, King street.

A GOOD MAN DIED.

Brother John Goes to Rest.

After a short illness Brother John, a faithful and valuable servant of the Roman Catholic Mission in this city, expired at 10 o'clock this morning. The deceased was a lay brother of the church, and his worldly name was John Francis Pillet. He was born in Belgium on the 2d of September, 1814, and was consequently 81 years of age.

He arrived in Honolulu April 28, 1848, and had, since the day of his landing, been esteemed and loved by all who came in contact with him. Every man, woman and child, rich or poor, knew his genial features, and were pleased to receive a few kind words from the Brother who always was around and busy, and who, within two weeks of his death, remained in harness and daily performed his duties as messenger and general factotum of the Sisters of the Sacred Heart Convent and the Mission. When old age compelled him to retire a few weeks ago, great regret was expressed, not alone by his superiors in the Mission and Convent, but by the many outsiders to whom he was always ready to offer his services.

Good Brother John has left us but his memory will ever remain fresh under the sacred portals of the church and among the Catholics of Hawaii nei. His funeral will take place to-morrow morning.

Board of Health Notes.

The Board of Health held an important meeting yesterday afternoon, at which the quarantine on steamers was entirely lifted, and the regulations relating to the making of poi in certain districts were rescinded.

It was recommended that Nuuanu reservoirs be emptied and cleaned, and that the city water be furnished solely from the artesian wells.

Dr. Surmann has written a letter to the Board, which was read, in which the doctor expresses his opinion that the recent epidemic was not the Asiatic cholera.

President W. O. Smith gave notice that he intended to leave on a vacation for New Zealand on the 24th inst., and would return on Dec. 12th.

The following letter from local sportsmen was read:

HON. W. O. SMITH, President Board of Health,

DEAR SIR—A party of gentlemen desire to make a fishing and hunting trip in the S. S. "Lehua," leaving here Friday evening, 18th inst., proceeding to the coast of Lanai and reaching that point Saturday morning, 19th inst.

They respectfully ask permission to proceed as above. On arrival off Lanai, Saturday morning, five of the party wish permission to land for the purpose of shooting game. The hunting party consists of Messrs. H. M. Whitney, Jr., W. Austin Whiting, Sam Wilder, W. Lauz, and Geo. W. Robertson. If permission to land is granted, Mr. F. H. Hayselden will accompany the party and take charge of same.

Saturday evening the "Lehua" will proceed to Lahaina, and permission is requested for any of the party to land who may so desire. The party will consist of some twenty to twenty five gentlemen.

It is proposed to return so as to arrive back in Honolulu Sunday evening, and permission is requested to land fish caught by the excursionists off Lanai.

I am, respectfully yours,
W. AUSTIN WHITING.

Will She?

When the Coming Woman gets here
Will she offer up her seat?
Will she offer her umbrella,
When there's rain or snow or sleet?
Will she help us in the wagon,
Will she bait our fishing hook?
Will she step into the water
That we dry may cross the brook?
Will she seize a rail and rescue
When the bully chases us?
Will she push the weedy mower
Every eve and make no fuss?
Will she run the locomotive,
Shovel coal, and handle brakes?
Will she level mount and forest,
Carry bitters for the snakes?
Will she march to bloody battle,
Snap her fingers at the hurts?
Well, I guess not; she will merely Hide behind her husband's skirts.

Timely Topics.

Honolulu, Sept. 20, 1895.

All over the world at present questions of hygiene are the main issues of the day. While the learned scientists of Europe are devoting their time and skill to find remedies which can destroy the disease breeding germs, the diseases go on and cholera, diphtheria and typhoid ravage cities and countries.

Whenever a disease becomes epidemic it is because the germ found conditions which suited it and in which it felt at home and ready for business. The sanitary conditions of the town and of the home becomes of vital importance. Honolulu is having a taste of a cholera epidemic and it behooves everybody to do his best in placing every home in the best sanitary condition possible.

When the general house-cleaning which will take place next Monday is over, many housekeepers will find some household furniture which needs renewal and others missing both as to utility and convenience.

We call attention to-day to our Oil Stoves. The "Dietz" Stove which we carry in stock has gained a great reputation everywhere. The one we especially recommend is the most complete oil stove ever offered in the market. It is perfectly safe for the user of it, and it will answer all purposes in a well regulated household. Five quarts of oil is sufficient to burn ten to twelve hours. In ten minutes a half gallon water can be boiled. It will fry and boil, bake or broil at the same time. You can boil potatoes and bake biscuit at the same time. In ten minutes you can broil a steak to perfection, and in an hour and a half you can roast an eight-pound turkey. Once tried the "Dietz" Oil Stove will be found the very thing for the housekeeper, and the price brings it within the reach of everybody.

The Water Coolers which we have on hand are the very things for restaurants, saloons, schools and stores. After the water is boiled fill the cooler with it, and even without ice, it will keep a pleasant temperature. Large families will find these highly ornamental coolers of great advantage and a great saving in regard to ice.

What, however, is more useful than a Monarch Bicycle. In San Francisco and other places mail and paper carriers, business men and professional men use the Monarch, and have within the diamond arranged a leather bag, very easily fixed, which will contain paper, document, lunches and clothing and do service as the saddle bags do to the horseman. The Monarch is the most solid and best appointed wheel introduced here, and can be purchased on the installment plan.

The hunting and fishing expedition which has been arranged by a number of sportsmen to take place on Saturday by the Lehua, and the destination of which is Lanai, promises to be a great success to the gay wielders of gun and net and lines.

Mr. W. O. Smith, expects to leave Honolulu on a much needed vacation for a trip to New Zealand on the 24th, inst. The Attorney-General will take the opportunity of his visit there to look into the land laws of the Colony. He will return in December.

The new Chinese theater was opened last night and patronized by a large and admiring audience. The air in the vicinity of Aala was full of the beautiful melodious sounds that charm Captain Cluney—and the oaths—more or less—of the other neighbors.

The Mariposa arrived this morning from Australia. She entered port and left again at noon, with mail and passengers. She will bring the news that the cholera epidemic is over, and the quarantine of Honolulu lifted. She brought two passengers for this port.

Our thrifty housewives cheerfully acknowledge that L. B. Kerr gives better value in Housekeeping Goods than any store in town. Sheeting, Mosquito Netting, Bedspread, Table Cloths, Napkins, Glass Cloths, Towels, etc., sold on the principle of small profits and quick returns.

The ex-Queen with several retainers is enjoying a fishing excursion to-day at Kahala. Mr. C. B. Wilson went out this morning to take a hand in the fishing. He was armed with a spy glass and a big bag. The former for the benefit of the Boston filibusters, the latter for the expected fish. The party will return this evening.

Its mighty strange to see how some people can walk around in the hot tropical sun, clothed in heavy black clothes and a tall plug hat. However, most folks are more sensible, and wear suits made of Light Serge or Tweeds bought at L. B. Kerr's on Queen street. He sells a single yard at wholesale prices.

Died.

PILLET—In Honolulu, on October 17, 1895, Brother John Francis Pilet, aged 81 years. The funeral will take place from the Catholic Church, to-morrow morning, at 7 o'clock.

LATE FOREIGN NEWS.

(Per S. S. Mariposa.)

Armenians Getting Desperate.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 3.—The Armenians in the Turkish capital attempted to march to the Grand Vizier's office, to present a petition. The patriarch tried to dissuade them without avail, and the Armenians shouting "Liberty or Death," persisted in their march. A stubborn fight followed. Major Shervet Bay, aide-de-camp to the Minister of Police, and several guards who tried to bar their way were shot. More than 150 people were killed or wounded, principally Armenians. Five hundred were arrested. The Sultan is reported to be in a state of panic. It is alleged that the Turkish troops slaughtered a number of the wounded; also that the Armenians killed two judges in the law courts.

Bluebeard.

He is not dead, for I am he—Nay, little maid, you need not start,
That awful closet is my heart;
I pray you not to turn the key.

You hold the matter in suspense;
You hesitate—ah! all is lost;
The key is turned, the threshold crossed.

Now you must take the consequence!

Seven dead loves you bring to view!
No wonder that you stand aghast.
You should not dive into the past,
If you would trust that men are true.

Seven dead loves! A heavy load!
You see the first, a little girl,
With violet eyes and teeth of pearl;

That was a schoolboy episode.

When college days gave life a glow,
And tender hearts wrought rapid laughter,

I courted the professor's daughter;
That's she, the second in the row.

I scarcely know how it occurred;
I passed vacation with a friend,
And, ere the weeks were at an end,
I loved his sister; she's the third.

A grim old lawyer taught me Kent,
I made his mansion my abode
And spoke some words not in the Code;

His youngest girl knew what they meant.

When fashion's flame was all alive,
Where pleasure cast her golden haze

Athwart the pathway of the days,
I met and worshipped number five.

But yonder, where the maple tree
Casts shadows on the old stone wall,

And slumbrous peace broods over all,

A country maid enraptured me.

You see one other figure stand,
Whose memory shall forever last;
I hold it sacred since she passed
The portals of the Silent Land.

So Bluebeard lives, and I am he,
But, Fatima, come close the door;
You cannot love me any more,
The blood of knowledge stains the key!

THEO. P. COOK.

Keep A-Go'in'!

If you strike a thorn or rose,

Keep a-go'in'!

If it hails or if it snows,

Keep a-go'in'!

"Taint" no use to sit and whine
When the fish ain't on your line,
Bait your hook and keep on tryin'—
Keep a-go'in'!

When the weather kills your crop,

Keep a-go'in'!

When you tumble from the top—

Keep a-go'in'!

'Spose you're out of every dime,
Gettin' broke ain't any crime—
Tell the world you're feelin' prime!
Keep a-go'in'!

When it looks like all is up,

Keep a-go'in'!

Drain the sweetness from the cup;

Keep a-go'in'!

See the wild birds on the wing—
Hear the bells that sweetly ring.
When you feel like sighin', sing.
Keep a-go'in'!

The Way and the Guide.

The way I knew not Thou hast led,
and oft

It seemed a darksome way and hard to tread,

And leading downward rather than aloft

Appeared the way by which the Father led.

But yet I followed, knowing not the way,

Though still assured, because the Guide I knew,

And waiting till the radiance of the day

Should break, illumed with heaven-painted hue.

And, lo! the glowing morn has burst
at least,

More brilliant e'en than hope could paint its life.

That light is clearest which leaves
darkness past,

That peace most peaceful which is born of strife.

Sans Souci.

The most lovely spot on Oahu is Sans Souci. This favorite seaside resort, which has been immortalized by the pen of Robert L. Stevenson, who resided there for months, is only four miles from Honolulu and within easy reach of the tramcars.
The surroundings and bathing at this famous resort are superior to anything found in the Hawaiian Islands. Cottages and board can be obtained on easy terms. The table set by the manager is better than any offered here at other hotels. For picnics, bathing parties and outings the best accommodation can be secured by giving notice to the manager.
