

PANAMA PLAN IN ANTI-MOSQUITO CAMPAIGN HERE

War against the mosquito is to be waged more strenuously in the future than has been the case in the past. So said C. H. Charlock of the board of health this morning.

The board will get its money from the government on July 1 and then something else will hum around town besides mosquitoes.

"We intend doing more permanent work than has been done before" said Mr. Charlock.

"Surface oiling of ponds and waste water will be stopped and the method of exterminating mosquitoes used in Panama will be adopted. When oil is put on a pond the wind blows it over to the lee side and its effect on the wrigglers is nullified.

"We intend in future to use a new preparation which sinks to the bottom when dropped in a pond and which works upward and in every direction under water. This stuff turns water milky like creolin but when a five per cent solution is used, which is the proper strength for mosquitoes, neither the fish in the pond nor the vegetation on its banks are injured.

"This stuff, which is deadly to the larvae of the mosquito, will be carried by the inspectors in knapsacks spray and will be stocked at fifty-two stations in and about Honolulu. Its use is certain to give better results than the top-dressing of oil and should soon solve the local mosquito problem.

"Another branch of the anti-mosquito work will be the draining and where possible, the filling in of ponds and sloughs."

Dr. W. C. Hobdy, of the Federal quarantine service and a member of the Board of Health, occupied the witness stand most of this morning in the trial of the Bert Light-foot sea bathing case—or in reality an interlocutory investigation of the "reasonableness" of the prohibition of bathing in Honolulu harbor and shore waters which the defendant is charged with violating. Dr. Currie was the first on, resuming from yesterday, but was soon released. By continuing the sitting a few minutes after 12 o'clock, Dr. Hobdy was got through with.

His cross-examination by J. Light-foot for the defendant was very severe, bearing most acutely upon the responsibility of the board of health and its members individually for bad conditions that had to be drastically treated when the cholera visitation occurred.

Dr. Hobdy emphatically declared that, during all the time he was a member of the Board, he had worked to the best of his ability for safeguarding the health of the community. Questioned as to various nuisances going to the pollution of streams, etc., he admitted that their existence had never been brought to his attention excepting when a matter came to the necessity of condemnation of property. Such things were reported by the sanitary inspectors to the executive officer, who gave orders for abatement of the nuisances and, in cases where orders were not carried out, the president and members investigated the cases on the ground and where necessary took condemnation proceedings.

There was also much probing of what were treated by the defense as inconsistencies both in putting on and taking off quarantine tabs on bathing and, incidentally, fishing. Dr. Hobdy gave, as reason for embargoing Nuuanu stream waters, the theory based on experience that in all epidemics there were many concealed cases.

In Bremen the cholera spirillum was found surviving in well water one year, and in the river Elbe the same persistence of infection was proved. Virulence of cases usually diminished as an epidemic worked itself out, increasing the probability of concealment from the mildness of cases. In great epidemics of cholera the mortality was more than fifty per cent. There was a much higher percentage in the two recent visitations here with their thirty-three and eight cases respectively.

Dr. Hobdy warmly denied the implication in a question that there were any wrong diagnoses in these cases. "I wish to inform you, that the

Burglary Work Like That Of Barefoot Bill

A daring burglary was brought to light this morning when Mr. George G. Guild, manager of the American-Hawaiian Paper & Supply Company, opened up the firm's premises this morning. The office showed traces of having been disturbed during the night. Fortunately, there was nothing of value left lying around when the premises were closed yesterday, and the intruder was unable to open the safe. He was able to get at a cash box containing $5, and this he took away with him, presumably under the impression that it contained more than it did.

The thief made his entry into the premises by climbing up from the lumber yard to the roof of the lower portion of the building on the Fort street-makai side, and he then apparently climbed along the water-piping to a second story window. One of the panes of glass in the vicinity of the window catch the burglar broke, and he was thus able to release the catch and lower the top portion of the window. He stepped into the upstairs warehouse and descended into the ground floor by means of the hand-power elevator, which was left at the upstairs landing the evening before.

The burglar seems to have gone straight to the office, disturbing nothing during his progress, through the building, which gives rise to the belief that he was acquainted with the arrangement of the premises. In the office he secured the cash box mentioned and before leaving the office he cut off a length of strong twine with which, apparently, he lowered the cash box from the upstairs window to the low roof below.

Chief Detective McDuffie was communicated with early this morning, and after making a search of the premises, he went to the lumber yard and found the cash box, which had been wrenched open. The burglar had made good his escape, however, leaving practically not a single clue. He was barefooted, for there are footprints on a couple of the boxes

School Inspector Thinks Principal Cox Has The Situation Well In Hand

Inspector Gibson visited Kalihiwaena school yesterday to look into the matter of the requests for transference of nine of the teachers on the grounds of irregular promotion and lack of discipline.

He made the following statement on the subject this morning:

"While there is no doubt that Principal Cox has been somewhat slack in his discipline I think that the charges against him have been somewhat exaggerated. It is probable that the matter is a personal one between one or two of the teachers and Mr. Cox and that they have worked up the discontent between them.

"What may be called irregular promotions have been made but that was due to the opening of a new room and the necessity of moving some of the children into it in order to fill it up. This occasioned changes all along the line and the shifting disarranged the work of some of the teachers which was unpleasant but necessary.

"It is difficult to prove anything when no specific charges are made. The complaints in this case are of a general nature and are therefore almost impossible to investigate. Were specific charges to be made there would be something to work on.

"It is true that there have been cases of the use of vulgar and profane language on the school premises and also of vulgar conduct, but Mr. Cox has investigated them and in some cases meted out corporal punishment.

"Every now and again a kind of dry rot sets in in a school, and it is liable to set in in any school in the Territory, and an epidemic of this sort appears to be what the Kalihiwaena school has been suffering from. If it is allowed to go on unchecked it is bound to have a bad effect on the morals of the school. In this case, however, Principal Cox appears to have the situation well in hand. Mr. Law's class is the one in which most of the trouble has occurred."

Inspector Gibson stated that he did not interview any of the teachers yesterday and that he did not look into the alleged circulation of indecent prints and the prevalence of smoking and gambling among the school children for the reason that these matters had not been at that time brought to his attention.

The matter will probably be discussed at the meeting of the department of education on Saturday.

CANDIDATES FOR THE TAX COURT

At a meeting of the Republican Executive Committee held yesterday afternoon the following were endorsed for appointment to the Tax Appeals Court of the First Circuit (Island of Oahu): B. Von Damm, T. F. Lansing and L. C. Ables; for the Third Circuit (Kona side, Island of Hawaii): E. E. Conant, George P. Tulloch and R. Wassman.

Pending the receipt of further information from Hawaii, the Committee did not make endorsements for the members of the Court for the Fourth Circuit (East side of Hawaii), but will meet Saturday afternoon to do so.

It is understood that the Governor will not make appointments for the Second Circuit (Island of Maui) and the Fifth Circuit (Island of Kauai) as there are no cases to be dealt with there.

The Kalihi express came to grief this morning on Queen street. The rear wheel skidded on the car line and the strain thrown on to the off hind wheel was so great that it collapsed. The wagon was loaded with old lumber. No one was hurt.

PROPERLY EMBELLISHED.

CITY EDITOR—Here's a cablegram from Oklahoma saying that a two-story hotel was destroyed by fire and three lives lost. Shall we leave it that way?

MANAGING EDITOR—Certainly not. Haven't we got a library? Put it this way: "The largest and finest hotel in this part of the state was burned last night amid scenes of terrible excitement. Seven lives were lost. The other guests escaped just in the nick of time, but one has gone insane. Police, firemen and hotel employes performed acts of great bravery, one of them rescuing an actress from the sixth floor. Incendiarism is suspected, and masses of excited citizens are scouring the prairie and cannot be restrained from hanging the criminal if they catch him. The Governor has been wired to send militia. There was no insurance on the hotel and the proprietor is not expected to survive the shock." There! That's the way to make a cablegram look as if it had cost something.

Sheriff Jarrett, Dr. W. L. Moore and Nurse Arnold proceeded with all dispatch to Kalahele yesterday afternoon to render assistance to a Japanese who had been run over by his own wagon. On arrival, they found the Japanese suffering from two severe scalp wounds, a fracture of the skull and various bruises. Dr. Moore treated the man and finding there was no immediate danger, returned to town with the sheriff and nurse.

A PURER WATER SUPPLY.

The Sanitary Commission has looked over the Nuuanu reservoir and talked of possible infection from that source.

The cost of it, however, would be immense. There would have to be a double system of water mains, one to carry irrigation and fire department supplies, one to deliver household water, and mains besides to carry up the artesian water pumped to some new distributing reservoir.

Is there no cheaper way to get pure drinking water from Nuuanu? What about a filtration plant, costing a hundred thousand dollars or less?

VACUUM STREET CLEANERS.

The hint given by Chief Thurston that the purchase of motor fire engines is being considered is a sign of progress which we should like to see followed by favorable action on the purchase of vacuum street-cleaners also.

In all large cities of the mainland and Europe the vacuum house-cleaner has proved its way. There is no more effective and speedy device to rid a building of its dust.

The last number of The Literary Digest, contains details which we quote, as follows:

"The broom-and-swevel method of dust removal now in general use is unsatisfactory, resulting (to a considerable degree) in stirring up the dust rather than in taking it away. It is believed that there are but two efficient methods for taking away the dust.

"The second method is by means of automobile suction-cleaners: The writer has long advocated the use of these, and is convinced that one of the type represented in the illustration would be effective. A large, strong automobile is necessary, with horse-power not only for its own propulsion, but to run revolving brushes and fans, or other suction apparatus sufficiently powerful to take up all the matter thrown up by the brushes—dust, dry horse manure, small bits of paper, or similar material that might legitimately collect in the streets.

"It is desirable that that portion of the city streets traversed by the trolleys should be cleaned by them. Suction-cleaning cars could readily be constructed which would take up the dust between the rails and beyond to a distance of eighteen or twenty inches."

Honolulu's street cleaning is now done politically and as a result the streets are dirty all the time except after a rain.

THE AUSTRALIAN PRIME MINISTER.

Honolulu, T. H., June 1, 1911. Editor Star:—In yesterday's issue of the Star, under a "sensational" headline, you stated: "Prime Minister Hughes of Australia stands for a mere faction of Irish Catholics."

The Star is a paper of standing and influence in this Territory. Its editorials are keen, crisp and virile, and consequently if such statements as those just quoted were permitted to go unchallenged it would be a grave injustice to the persons named.

The above statements are intensely human and notwithstanding the fact that they are made without malice, nevertheless they violate every sense of justice and fair play.

Cardinal Moran, honored by the English Government and respected wherever Britain's flag flies, after growing old in the service of his church and country, it ill becomes his loyalty to be questioned by an American editor of a Honolulu paper.

As to Prime Minister Hughes' standing for a mere faction of Irish Catholics, is this charge not somewhat absurd when we consider that the great majority of the people in Australia are of English blood? I doubt very much if Hughes is either Irish or Catholic. If he is, then he must be a man of indomitable courage, exceptional attainments and unquestionable loyalty to the Crown.

Respectfully yours, J. A. H.

The Star spoke of the acting Prime Minister of Australia as representing "a mere faction of Australia, Irish Catholics and Labor Socialists chiefly," in the same spirit that it would have described the faction as one of "American Protestants and Union Labor men," if that had been the case.

ratists in home politics up to the time the Pope interfered with the Land League, or, if not, did they ever rebuke the proposition?

ANOTHER FAKED CABLEGRAM.

While the Star sees no reason to go further with its examination of the library dispatches in the morning paper, it deems it a duty to say that the Bulletin's so-called "Associated Press Cable" yesterday, headed "Will Proceed Against Sugar—Department of Justice Announces Intention to Begin Action Soon," was built up in its office, no such cablegram appearing in the identical service enjoyed by the Star.

The tangible basis for the so-called cablegram is to be found in the concluding lines of the dispatch about the testimony of Attorney General Wickersham before a Congressional committee, as follows:

The Attorney General declared that, following the decisions of the Supreme Court, the trusts would be prosecuted.

The Star printed this in its proper place and in its proper form. The Attorney General in his mental processes may have included the sugar trust among the ones to be prosecuted, but he did not say so. Hence the Bulletin's attempt to deceive its readers in the following falsified "cablegram":

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 31.—It was announced today by the Department of Justice that the American Sugar Refining Company, commonly known as the "sugar trust," will be prosecuted, following the decision of the Supreme Court in the cases against the Standard Oil and tobacco trusts.

The sugar trust is now the subject of an investigation to be based on a resolution introduced by Representative Hardwick of Georgia.

The Bulletin cannot produce any such dispatch other than the few lines quoted, which simply say: "The Attorney General declared that, following the decisions of the Supreme Court, the trusts would be prosecuted." It had nothing else, and it cannot show anything attested by the cable office, to prove the contrary.

How do cablegram readers like to have the Associated Press news doctored? If they don't like it, the Star is at hand to relieve them with the news as it comes to both afternoon papers, and with the subscription list wide open.

As the Prime Minister of Australia began life by tinkering umbrellas, he can easily get ready to shelter himself from the storm he has raised.

It must be remembered in accounting for Queen Alexandra's absence from the coronation that she is not only a dowager but a mother-in-law.

If Russians are willing to work, by all means get more of them, especially if the professional politicians object.

The plea for bathing in the harbor ought to be sustained by a petition from the undertakers.

Quite a number of fruit shippers have in the past been bitten by the alligator pear.

Dau Logan, the Nestor of the local press, commenting on an allusion to the escaped loan, which was made in this column last Saturday, declared that there is an animal called the loan, and that it is a species of wild-cat which is found in the highlands of Scotland. Later he cleverly qualified this statement by saying that he was thinking of a loach, a diminutive fresh-water fish. Be that as it may, we can trace a distinct connection between a loan and a wild-cat (scheme).

STUCK THE RAZOR IN HIS BOOT

A Porto Rican named Frank attracted the attention of Chief Detective McDuffie by endeavoring to secrete a razor in his boot, and later investigations satisfied McDuffie that Frank was the culprit for whom he was searching. The chief was making enquiries into a cutting affray which took place at Camp 3 School street, on Monday evening and had rounded up several Porto Ricans, among them Frank. Before he could be questioned Frank tried to hide his razor, and this directed suspicion towards him. It was latter learned that a native man and a Russian had been fighting when Frank, to assist the Hawaiian, attacked the Russian with the razor inflicting a couple of nasty wounds on his right shoulder. He will be charged tomorrow.

HAWAII IN U. S. ANNUAL REPORT

sugar plantations where irrigation water was deficient. Sea Island and Carayonica varieties are the chief ones used, and their cultivation as perennials is intended. By pruning at the proper season the time for picking can be made to articulate very well with the cane-grinding season, when there is the greatest demand for labor on the plantations. The adaptability of this crop to the owner of a small tract of land is being demonstrated. Breeding experiments with cotton are being continued, and by vegetative propagation some desirable strains are being rapidly developed, without the possibility of undesirable crosses through pollination. The investigations on rice have resulted in some new varieties produced by breeding experiments that exceed any in common use. They have also shown the value of ammonium sulphate as a fertilizer for the rice crop. The visit of the agronomist to Japan last season resulted in the introduction of a number of newly-developed varieties of rice, some of which appear very promising. The pineapple soil studies have been continued, and it has been found that where the manganese content is not too high the use of suitable fertilizers will correct the injury due to manganese. A more serious pineapple trouble in Hawaii has been found, due to a lack of aeration of the soil, and studies to correct this condition are in progress. A study of the pineapple fruit has shown the influence of ripeness on the sugar content. There appears to be no increase in the amount of sugar in a fruit after it is cut, although the fruit will become yellow and soft, hence the importance of the stage of maturity on the quality of the fruit. The rubber-tapping experiments have been continued, and the profitability of growing Ceara rubber has been shown. In connection with the rubber investigations it has been found possible to keep down all weed growth by spraying between the trees with arsenite of soda. A demonstration on 400 acres showed the success of the treatment at the low cost of $1.25 an acre.

SEVEN YEARS OF MISERY

All Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Sikeston, Mo.—"For seven years I suffered everything. I was in bed for four or five days at a time every month, and so weak I could hardly walk. I cramped and had backache and headache, and was so nervous and weak that I dreaded to see anyone or have anyone move in the room. The doctors gave me medicine to ease me at those times, and said that I ought to have an operation. I would not listen to that, and when a friend of my husband told him about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what it had done for his wife, I was willing to take it. Now I look the picture of health and feel like it, too. I can do my own housework, hoe my garden, and milk a cow. I can entertain company and enjoy them. I can visit when I choose, and walk as far as any ordinary woman, any day in the month. I wish I could talk to every suffering woman and girl."

—Mrs. DEMA BETHUNE, Sikeston, Mo.

The most successful remedy in this country for the cure of all forms of female complaints is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It is more widely and successfully used than any other remedy. It has cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing down feeling, indigestion, and nervous prostration, after all other means had failed. Why don't you try it?

Hawaiian Boy Suspected.
By a remarkable coincidence, an Hawaiian lad, whose grandmother asked the police to arrest him and send him to the reform school, was in the police court this morning, and he is under investigation at the moment. His feet correspond with the footprints left by last night's burglar, and as he worked at the Hawaiian Paper Company some two months back, it is surmised that he may know something about the affair. The lad claims that he was at home last night at eight o'clock, but that statement has not yet been substantiated. If he was home then and stayed at home, he could hardly have committed the burglary, seeing that Mr. Guild was working up to nine-thirty o'clock last night, and at the time he left the premises everything was all right.

In considering the removal of restriction from the Manoa stream and its sea outlet near the Moana Hotel—witness having stated that Manoa valley was still regarded as infected—the Board of Health he said took into account the extensiveness of the territory over which the water reached the ocean, the subdivision of its discharge into various outlets and the shrewdness of its current. In other words the danger was attenuated and, as the witness put it, the board thought the relaxation of restrictions was a comparatively safe chance to take.

WICKERSHAM STARTS NEW LEGAL WAR AGAINST TRUSTS, UNDER THE STANDARD OIL DECISION

NEW YORK, May 19.—In the first Federal anti-trust proceedings brought under the Sherman law, as interpreted in the Standard Oil decision, the department of justice filed in the United States Court here today a suit against constituent organizations of what is popularly known as the "lumber trust," alleging the existence of a widespread conspiracy "unreasonably" to restrain the lumber trade in this country.

Ten trade organizations and more than 150 individuals are named as defendants. It alleges violations of the Sherman anti-trust law and seeks a permanent injunction restraining the defendants from continuing the conspiracy charged.

It is said the suit may be the first of a series planned by Attorney-General Wickersham, looking to the breaking up of alleged agreements between the retailers of commodities to maintain high prices; to force all ultimate consumers to buy from retailers and to blacklist wholesalers who sell to others than members of the retail organizations.

The elaborate system of blacklisting attributed to the alleged lumber conspirators, copies of circulars sent out by the organization, classifying consumers as "proper" and "improper" extracts from reports threatening "short shrift" to dealers daring to violate the rules of the organization, and branding such officers as "poachers," "scalpers," "mavericks" and "illegitimate," are fully set forth in the government's petition.

It is alleged that not only private consumers have been blacklisted, but that many great industrial concerns have been put under the ban by the lumber dealers. The government bill, aggregating 20,000 words, is replete with sensational allegations and interesting exhibits.

Trial National in Extent.

The suit is directed specifically against retail organizations in the Eastern States, but the trial will embrace methods adopted by retailers and wholesalers throughout the United States.

Although the lawyers in charge of the case believe the Standard Oil decision involving "reasonable" or "unreasonable" restraint will not affect the lumber case, as it is represented to be one of simple conspiracy, nevertheless, the accusatory parts of the bill conform to that decision and charge "undue" and "unreasonable" restraint of the lumber trade.

Lesser stress is laid on the alleged conspiracy between the defendants themselves. In general the case is regarded as Attorney-General Wickersham's long-planned test suit to have the courts determine how far combinations of retailers may go to prevent the ultimate consumer from dealing directly with the wholesaler or producer.

The government takes the position that any agreements or acts which prevent a consumer from buying where he chooses or to his best advantage are in "unreasonable" restraint of trade and violate the Sherman law. No attack on the middle man, as such, is intended, the department of justice holding that there is legitimate opportunity for him.

It is known that while the department has been making a Nation-wide investigation, its agents have reported that the case is nearly paralleled in the marketing of many other commodities. If the government's contentions are sustained, there is promise of a sweeping attack upon some alleged conspiracies.

Attorney-General Wickersham personally directed the gathering of the evidence, which has occupied more than a year. His special assistant, Clark McKecher, who has been in active charge of the preparation of the case, filed the bill today, which also was signed by Henry Wise, United States District Attorney at New York; James A. Fowler, assistant to the attorney-general, and Felix Frankfurter, assistant United States attorney.

In its bill the government alleges: That the retailers have conspired among themselves to prevent manufacturers and wholesalers from selling lumber direct to the consumer.

That hundreds of consumers, including the largest industrial corporations in the country, have been compelled by unlawful agreements to buy lumber from retailers at much higher prices than they would have paid to wholesalers.

The United States government, however, the bill says, has never been blacklisted in that class.

That wholesalers and retailers in joint convention and by agreements have classified consumers as "proper" and "improper," and have prepared and exchanged blacklists.

Blacklists in Lumber Trade.

That, although the National Wholesale Lumber Dealers' Association is not named as a defendant, by agreements with it the Eastern States Association has organized and circulated blacklists, which have affected the lumber trade in New York, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Kentucky, Maryland, Michigan, West Virginia, Massachusetts, Tennessee, South Carolina, Virginia, New Jersey, Illinois, Ohio, Wisconsin, Louisiana, Connecticut, Indiana, Florida, Georgia, Missouri, Alabama, Rhode Island, California, Mississippi, the District of Columbia, the Canadian provinces of Quebec, Ontario, Nova Scotia and British Columbia.

That as a result of the alleged blacklists wholesalers have been directed not to sell lumber to retail dealers who have dealt with consumers in wholesale quantities, and that in the case of the wholesalers who have dealt with consumers in retail quantities, the organized retailers were directed not to buy lumber from them.

That retailers who sold wholesale lots or competed outside their allotted territory have been posted to the traders as "poachers" or "scalpers" and in some instances heavily fined or expelled.

"The result of this illegal operation," says the government's bill, "has been to close the door of the wholesale dealers and manufacturers to the consumer in all parts of the United States and to deprive the wholesaler of the trade of a consumer in a territory covered by a retailer except through the medium of the retail yards."

The Eastern States Association was organized in 1902, when retail organizations then existing in the states mentioned became constituent members.

The government charges that retailers before that time, however, had arranged with the National Wholesale Lumber Dealers' Association to classify the trade and the so-called "Boston agreement" was made, resulting in the by-laws of the National Wholesale Lumber Dealers' Association being changed to contain the following provision:

Agreement to Restrain Trade.

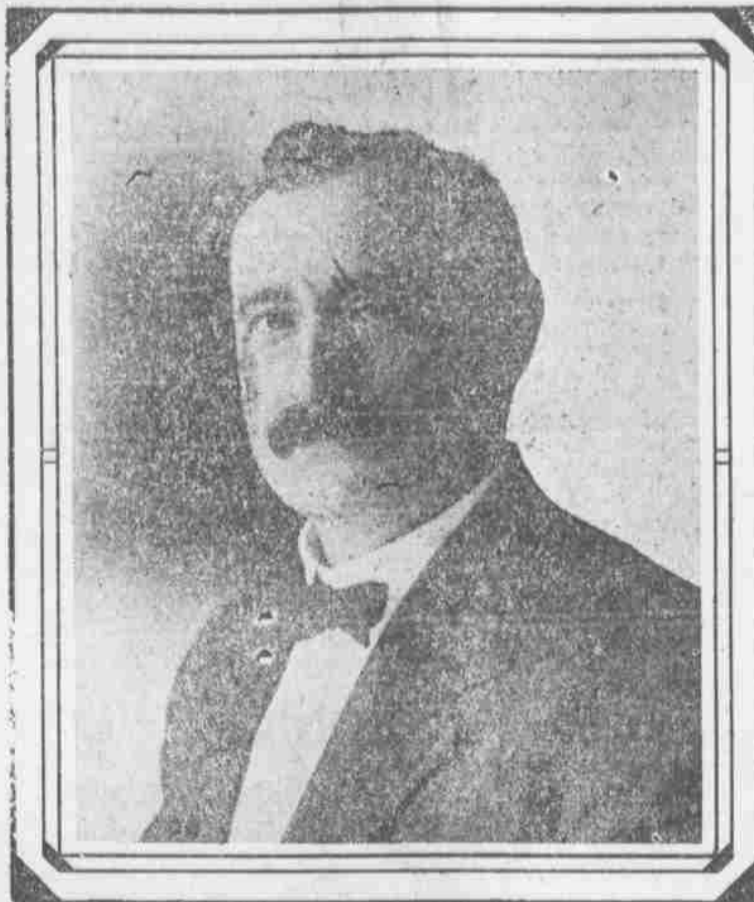

"Whenever it shall be determined that any person or firm or corporation is not a legitimate consumer for the wholesale trade, according to the principles recognized by this association as best conserving the lumber business, the members shall not thereafter sell to such person, firm or corporation."

At subsequent joint meetings at Baltimore and Pittsburg it is charged this was modified to admit arbitration of disputes of classification, but in tenor and effect this by-law always remained the same.

The Pittsburg conference, it is charged, was between the trades relation committee of the wholesalers and representatives of the retailers from thirteen states and adopted a resolution providing that "members of the National Wholesale Lumber Dealers' Association shall refrain from selling or in any way furnishing lumber to wholesalers or individuals not members of their association, or who are known to transact their business contrary to the joint agreements between the National Wholesale Lumber Dealers' Association and the various retail associations."

In March, 1906, the government recites, there was a convention of wholesalers in Washington, at which it is alleged a report was presented.

JAPAN'S SILK INDUSTRY GROWING

By J. A. BRECKONS.

(Special Correspondence of the Star.)

WASHINGTON, May 17.—According to a report made by the American ambassador at Tokio, the silk industry of Japan is growing. He says:

"When feudalism was abolished in Japan, the weaving of artistic silk fabrics seemed in danger of a serious setback. The industry was saved, however, by the appearance of a new and larger class of patrons in Europe and America, and the demand grew for costly and heavy stuffs in the shape of tapestry, table and bed spreads, etc. The weaves of Nishijin lost no time in importing jacquard looms to turn out pieces suitable to foreign customers. Considerable modification of Japanese decorative weaving has since taken place, due either to the study of foreign products or the improvement of native products to meet foreign demands.

"Japanese silks have vastly improved in color, reeling, and general characteristics in the last ten years. They are good in winding, fairly even, firm in the thread, and capable of being dyed and weighted, especially in colors, to double their original weight when boiled off. The sizes are such that they can be utilized for fine organdy and tram silks. One special characteristic of the Japan silks is the minimum percentage of gum, the loss in boiling not exceeding 18 to 20 per cent, as against 25 per cent for European silks and those of India and Canton.

"One of the largest spinning companies in Japan is the Kenshi Spinning Company, of Kyoto, whose chief product is raw silk and silk yarn. Many of the original factories were built with government aid, but they all proved unprofitable, and in 1892 they were amalgamated as the Silk Thread Spinning Joint Stock Company, with a capital of $1,700,000. In 1905 a joint enterprise was started with the Chinese and a factory was built at Shanghai for the development of the China and India trade, and the capital of the company was increased to $2,000,000. Another increase in capital took place in 1906, owing to the growing demand for the company's products, when the figure reached $2,500,000. In 1907 the Cotton Yarn Company at Okayama was bought and the capital increased to $3,437,500. The number of spindles at present in operation in the five factories of the company is 35,500. On March 1, 1911, the announcement was made of the consolidation of the Kenshi Spinning Co. with the Kanegafuchi Spinning Co., of Tokio."

ARMY AND NAVY

New Colonel Coming.

On the departure of Captain Albert U. Faulkner, First Field Artillery, from Schofield Barracks the last of this week the fortunes of Battery F. of this regiment will be in the hands of Lieutenant Harry Pfeil, First Field Artillery. In July two additional Batteries and a Colonel are expected here from the United States to swell the Artillery garrison at the Lilehua reservation. The First Field Artillery are to be congratulated on their new regimental commander. Colonel David J. Rumbough, who has been the Lieutenant Colonel of the First Field Artillery, has just come into his full colonelcy and been assigned to command of the regiment.

Colonel Rumbough's present station is Fort Sill, Okla. He is under orders to come to this military district next month. There is not a more efficient officer, or a more popular gentleman in the service than Colonel Rumbough. The military record of the colonel, shows he joined the Third Field Artillery then stationed at Fort Sam Houston, Texas, just after graduating from West Point, and from that date, hard and continuous service in the army at western frontier posts and Philippines Division duty has claimed his entire time and energy.

Muster and Inspection.

Muster and inspection was the order of the day yesterday at all of the army posts and at the naval yard station and Marine battalion garrison in this military district. Major William P. Burnham, Twentieth Infantry, held muster and general inspection of the Second battalion of his regiment on the parade grounds of Fort Shafter at nine o'clock. After the troops were inspected and the commanding officer of the Kahauliki reservation, held a lookover of all men in his care and a general inspection of the barracks buildings and grounds.

At the Lilehua reservation each garrison of the large brigade post was mustered separately by its regimental commander.

The Fifth Cavalry regiment at Schofield Barracks was mustered and inspected on the parade ground of the cavalry post by Colonel Wilber E. Wilder, Fifth Cavalry commanding the regiment.

Battery F, First Field Artillery was commanded by and mustered for the first time by Captain Albert U. Faulkner, who has been in charge of this Battery since its arrival at Schofield Barracks. Captain Faulkner is to leave for the coast on Saturday, so his muster of yesterday was also in the nature of an official good-bye to Battery F.

Colonel Francis W. Mansfield, Second Infantry, commanding officer of the Lilehua reservation, mustered the two battalions of the Second Infantry

NEW FIGURES AS TO JAPANESE IMMIGRATION GIVEN TO CONGRESS IN ANSWER TO AN INQUIRY

The following is from the Congressional Record:

Mr. KNOWLAND, Mr. Chairman, in view of the interest manifested by the people of California and the entire Pacific coast in the subject of Japanese immigration, which was widely discussed when the new Japanese treaty was before the Senate for ratification during the last session of Congress, I desire to insert herewith in the Record some very significant figures furnished by the Department of Commerce and Labor. These figures show the arrival and departure of Japanese for both the United States proper and the Territory of Hawaii from July 1, 1908, to March 1, 1911. Within this period there arrived at United States ports 7,501 Japanese, while 14,195 sailed for Japan. This does not look like invasion. In Hawaii, concerning which Territory much concern has been expressed, there were 4,348 arrivals and 6,266 departures. In other words, 6,604 more Japanese left continental United States than arrived, and 1,918 more left Hawaii than came into that Territory.

Mr. KNOWLAND, During the period I had just stated, from the 1st of July, 1908, to the 1st of March 1911. Taking the combined figures of both the continent of the United States and the Territory of Hawaii there were 8,612 more Japanese who took their departure for the Empire of Japan than entered the continent of the United States and the Territory of Hawaii. The letter is as follows: Department of Commerce and Labor, Office of the Secretary, Washington, May 8, 1911.

HON. JOSEPH R. KNOWLAND, M. C., House of Representatives, Washington, D. C.

My Dear Sir: In reply to your inquiry of the 28th ultimo you are advised that the records of the bureau show that more Japanese have left the United States during the past three years than have arrived. The arrivals and departures for continental United States and Hawaii since July 1, 1908, were as follows:

Period.	Continental United States	Hawaii
Arrived	7,501	4,348
Departed	14,195	6,266
Fiscal year ended June 30, 1909	2,432	1,483
Fiscal year ended June 30, 1910	5,064	2,475
Fiscal year ended June 30, 1911	2,565	1,227
Eight months ended Feb. 28, 1911	2,471	1,228

Very truly yours,
CHARLES EARL,
Acting Secretary.

Mr. HUMPHREYS of Mississippi. Mr. Chairman, may I ask the gentleman a question? I was interested in his statement. The Japanese who leave the United States or leave Hawaii, have they the right under the law to return?

Mr. KNOWLAND. Of course, there is no exclusion law to keep them out, but a sort of gentlemen's agreement, which was discussed at the time the Japanese treaty was before the Senate for ratification.

have the right to come back to Hawaii and the United States, or will they, under the terms of that agreement, be kept out?

Mr. KNOWLAND. Well, I should judge, if they are laborers, that under the terms of that agreement they would not return.

JAPANESE WEDS WHITE WOMAN

VANCOUVER, Wash., May 23.—John Inagaki, a Japanese, well dressed and apparently with an abundance of money, was married here today to Mrs. Emelle Leome, a white woman. Inagaki gave his age as twenty-eight and that of his bride as thirty-one. Before coming to Vancouver they made a futile attempt to get a marriage license in Portland.

To Judge G. L. Davis, who married the couple, Inagaki confided that he was a native son of Japan, but had graduated from the Mission "High" School in San Francisco. Relatives of his, he said, are merchants in the Japanese colony of the bay city.

Inagaki and his bride, with several friends, whose identity was not learned, enjoyed an elaborate wedding dinner in a local hotel, after which the couple boarded a train for Seattle, where they will make their home.

KAMEHAMEHA DAY ON KAUAI AND MAUI

If there are strangers in Honolulu who wish to see some of the other islands and are skeptical about transportation they should go to the Inter-Island wharf on Saturday or Monday and inspect the steamer Mauna Kea which will carry the excursion party on the circuit of Kauai and Maui leaving here June 10 and returning June 12.

This will be a pleasant trip for those who are in need of a sea voyage with short stops on the way. The wonderful canyons on Kauai are in full view of the passengers from the deck of the steamer. The spot from which the fires are seen when there is something to celebrate is pointed out to the passengers and the story of how the burning shafts are thrown from the tall peaks into the sea is graphically told by those who are familiar with it. And there is sure to be someone who can give the description. At Waikuku there is always something doing on Kamehameha Day and this one will not be an exception. To those who wish there is the opportunity for tramping through Iao valley, one of the most beautiful in the islands, and those who love the sea may stay aboard the steamer while others investigate or go on voyages of discovery. It is to be a fine outing, the best the Inter-Island Company has ever given.

DR. JORDAN INDORSES THE BOY SCOUT MOVEMENT
STANFORD UNIVERSITY, May 23.—Announcing that he is heartily in favor of the Boy Scout movement and that instead of there being a danger in it as regards militarism, it will prove to be a great aid to the incubation of peaceful ideals, Dr. David Starr Jordan, president of Stanford University, has put the stamp of his approval upon the movement as it is now being carried out. Dr. Jordan has been studying the movement in the United States as well as in England and believes that it will work a vast influence for good.

on the parade ground of the Infantry post, at Schofield Barracks, Captain Archie J. Harris, Second Infantry is the brigade post's adjutant.

This regular monthly muster of all troops in the government posts and reservations occurs on the last day of each month. Then every man on the pay roll of Uncle Sam must answer "here" or be accounted for. The ceremony is a very pretty military one, aside from its great value in discipline.

Col. Wheeler to Retire.

Colonel Homer W. Wheeler, recently of the Fifth Cavalry, with station at Schofield Barracks, has a surprise in store for his many friends. With many of the other officers of the army who have lately passed to a higher rank Colonel Wheeler on reaching his full colonelcy was put on the unassigned list, until each could be assigned to a regiment.

And now Colonel Wheeler announces his intention of asking for retirement under the forty-year service act, voluntarily asking to be placed on the retired list, before age could claim him, by a few years. All will regret to lose this genial accomplished officer and gentleman.

Colonel Wheeler has spent his forty years and over of service in the file of Uncle Sam's army in doing active duty in two regiments. Shortly after leaving the West Point Military Academy, where he was graduated, he was assigned for duty with the Fifth Cavalry, the first and last regiment to claim his efforts. Entering the Fifth Horse as a second lieutenant over forty years ago, by a happy coincidence he was enabled to round out a most creditable and brilliant military career in the same regiment in which his first experience as an army officer was had. As years passed and promotions overtook the young officer, the rank and file of the army was increased by addition of five new cavalry regiments. A promotion in rank carried Colonel Wheeler to the first of the new organizations, the Eleventh Cavalry where years of military duty was spent.

The Eleventh cavalry was practically composed, for the most part of officers taken from the Fifth Cavalry, a child of the regiment, almost was the Eleventh Horse regarded by the older men of the Fifth Horse. After years of service in the Eleventh, a lieutenant colonelcy placed Colonel Wheeler back in the regiment of his first love, the old Fifth Cavalry. And now the closing days of active duty in the United States army have been given and Colonel Homer W. Wheeler will seek the seclusion of a retired officer remembered and esteemed and loved by all in both regiments in which his military life has been spent.

The New Quartermaster.

Captain Clyffard Game, who has recently been assigned to the Quartermaster's Department from the First Infantry, will be an incoming passenger from the Coast on the Buford. Captain Game comes to be transport and depot quartermaster of this military district on the official staff of General Montgomery M. Macomb.

Captain Moor N. Falls will not leave here until the July transport, as he will fully introduce Captain Game to the duties of his office before going to join his regiment, the Twenty-eighth Infantry at San Antonio, Texas.

Coming on the Sherman.

Lieutenant Philip G. Wrightson of the first battalion, Twentieth Infantry, who has been serving with his regiment at the Quartel de Espana, Walled City, Manila, Philippine Islands, during the tour of the First and Third battalions service in the Philippines Division, has been granted a month's leave of absence and with Mrs. Wrightson is expected on the Sherman, from Manila, on Saturday. Lieutenant Wrightson can be regarded as an advance guard, as it were, of the rest of his regiments who will follow shortly, en route to the United States. Lieutenant and Mrs. Wrightson will visit with friends in Honolulu, leaving the transport here until joined by the two battalions of the Twentieth Infantry homeward bound.

The Buford Coming.

U. S. A. transport Buford has been designated to make the run to the Philippine Islands, leaving San Francisco on Monday next, June the fifth, for the army and service. On account of the overhauling of the transport Thomas in California bay now the running number of the larger transports is reduced to the Sherman, Sheridan and Logan. The latter which has recently reached the Coast, needed a little overlooking, so the Buford has been commissioned to make the journey for this month. Although of a smaller class of ship the Buford is a steady, comfortable ship and much more desirable in the carrying gait than the transport Crook, which rolls uncomfortably when there is a swell on.

ders: The President has accepted the resignation of Captain Archie Debury, Philippine Scouts, to take effect September 11.

Second Lieutenant Harold H. Taintor, Philippine Scouts, recently appointed, will report to commanding officer at Fort Myer for temporary duty; thence to San Francisco, sailing about July 5 for Manila for duty.

Second Lieutenant Halsted P. Councilman, coast artillery corps, will sail from San Francisco about June 5 for the Philippines for duty.

Navy orders: Paymaster R. Nicholson to duty at the navy yard at Puget Sound.

WHY SUFFER FROM ECZEMA.

Why suffer another day from that awful, awful itch, when you can be relieved in your own home? The very first drops of the wonderful D. D. D. Prescription give you relief—yes, the instant D. D. D. touches the skin there is relief—you know that you have found a cure for any kind of skin trouble.

D. D. D. is th-proven Eczema cure—the great household remedy that kills the disease germs, soothes and heals the skin, making it as smooth and healthy as that of a child. Nothing like D. D. D. for clearing the complexion, too; washes away pimples over night.

D. D. D. is just a mild wash, but does its work in a way that seems miraculous. Relief comes the instant the first drops are applied, and the cure begins, permanent cure, too, for D. D. D. has begun at the very seat of the skin trouble, whatever it may be. Only $1.00 for a large size bottle. That will be enough to show you what this wonderful D. D. D. will do in your own case. It is worth ten times the cost to have a bottle of D. D. D. in the house. Benson, Smith & Co.

CAUGHT UNAWARES.

Not so many moons ago the Masons of Manhattan, Kas., gave a banquet. The toastmaster called upon one brother whose name was not on the program. It rather confused him.

"Look here, Mr. Toastmaster," said he "this isn't exactly fair. You have called upon me to make an ass of myself without any preparation whatever."—Kansas City Journal.

BAR ASSOCIATION

D. L. Withington, president, and the rest of the officers of the Bar Association of the Hawaiian Islands were re-elected at the annual meeting yesterday. Arthur G. Smith was admitted to membership. A motion and an amendment, respectively to change the name to Hawaii Bar Association and Hawaiian Bar Association, were defeated, the former by ten to nine and the latter receiving only four votes.

Portraits of former Chief Justices Frear and Hartwell, painted by Wores and costing $1000 without frames, were exhibited and will be presented to the Supreme Court on an early occasion. A balance of $573.74 in the treasury was reported, with considerable delinquent dues to be collected.

The annual dinner will be held Saturday evening at the University Club. Papers will be read by U. S. Judge Clemons on "Uniform Laws," Chief Justice Robertson on "Changes in Judicial Procedure" and Attorney General Lindsay on "The Code of Legal Ethics."

NEARING THE END.

The work-a-day period is nearing the end and vacation time will soon begin. The selection of a suitable place is a serious one and the suggestion is made "Try Halewa." Certain it is that there is no more pleasant place for a rest and vacation. The attractions are many for aside from good fishing and boating, not counting the bathing without board of heat restrictions, there is a good tennis court and unexcelled golf links. The trains go to the lawn and there is a telegraph and telephone service in the house.

most the largest ever reported, caused at the close an easier feeling on the part of buyers, while holders, including operators, intimate that their sugars will be stored unless 2 1/2 c. c. & f. can be obtained.

Until these unsold parcels in port and for early arrival are definitely placed, the market has a slight irregular appearance temporarily. As to futures for June and beyond, the market is steady and firmer at full up prices, as quoted.

Europe remained comparatively steady within fluctuations of 1/4 d. from 10s. 6 1/2 d., 10s. 6d., 11s. 6 1/2 d., 10s. 6d., 10s. 6 1/2 d., 10s. 6d., closing at 10s. 6 1/2 d. for May and June and 10s. 8 1/2 d. for August. Cane Javans steady throughout the week at 11s. 6d.

The Tuesday Cuba cable gave week's receipts for Island 37,000 tons against 57,000 tons last year and 38,000 tons in 1909; 37 Centrals grinding, against 64 last week, 40 last year and 38 in 1909.

Final results are still uncertain and we can only say the total production will range between 1,500,000 tons and a possible 1,600,000 tons.

Favorable weather is reported from nearly all cane growing crops, especially from Louisiana, Porto Rico and Hawaii.

F. O. Licht cabled favorably for beet crops, except weather is too dry in middle Germany, and rain also wanted in some parts of Europe.

From London by cable we learn that the "Budget" brought into Parliament on the 16th made no change in sugar duties for the United Kingdom.

Java cabled figures given herewith. No business as yet reported for our refineries, the quotations of 10s. 7 1/2 d. to 10s. 9d. c. & f. equal to 4.04c to 4.07c per lb. landed, being above buyers' views.

A certain amount of these or other full-duty sugars will eventually be required to complete the consumption of the United States, but it is yet too early for an approximate estimate.

The parity difference between Centrifugal and Beets is now 36c per lb., which should gradually close towards the end of the season.

After the easier effect of the large receipts passes by, the market should resume its strength and gradually improving tendency.

WHERE THEY BUILD FENCES ACROSS ROADS.

The roads of Arizona disclose one most peculiar habit. They change their location so frequently that they may well be called nomadic. One day the track may be straight; the next it runs into a new wire fence. The traveler must turn at right angles and skirt the fence for a mile or two until the newly enclosed pasture is circumvented. In so dry and sparsely settled a country the counties cannot afford to maintain many roads. Accordingly roads just grow. If the man whose land they cross happens to want to fence in two or three hundred acres, he does so, and says nothing. The first that the public knows about it may be when an automobile, dashing along at night, suddenly runs into the wire and it is smashed to pieces. After talking with a man who was on the back seat when a reckless driver was actually beheaded in this way, and who on another occasion was saved from a similar fate only by the catching of the barbed wire on the rods of the wind-shield, I was glad that it was not our habit to take chances by riding fast at night. It seems strange to an Easterner that there should be no redress under such circumstances, but in Arizona a man has a right to fence his land, and that ends the matter. The fences always irritated me. Not that I mind a fresh tear in my coat every time I went through a fence to look at the potherds of an ancient village, but I always wanted to cut the wire and take my horse through when I was on horseback. That will not do, however, even though one carries wire and pretends to mend the break. The fence in this country is a sacred institution, and to cut it is a grave offense. Why should it not be sacred? In many cases it is actually worth more than the land which it surrounds. Land is cheap, only one or two dollars an acre in many places, while fences cost work and cash.—Ellsworth Huntington, in Harper's Magazine for June.

JANSEN'S ACTS ARE MYSTIFYING

The "Great Jansen" company at the Orpheum last night gave a performance that startled an audience as large as the theater had room for, and if the theater had been larger the audience would also have been larger, for many were turned away after the standing room only sign was ended. The tricks and illusions of other performers who have been here within recent years were surpassed by Jansen, and it is safe to say that he will play to crowded houses for the rest of the engagement. He was generally declared the cleverest conjurer that has come here, and his acts were watched with absorbing interest.

The performance is full of good things, and has some features which are thrilling. How the magician does the things which the audience sees is a puzzle which many people in Honolulu are pondering over today.

Aside from the star performer, the program of the Jansen company contains features of much merit. Miss Daisy Thorne, soprano, had three well deserved recalls and De Hollis and Vallora, comedy novelty jugglers, did some splendid stunts.

The Jansen company is certain to have great success during all its engagement. Jansen promises new mysteries every evening.

WICKERSHAM

"We are all in favor of high prices and fixed high prices. We should fix the status of a poacher (a retailer who competes for business in the territory of another) and keep it fixed. His place should be with the scalper (a retailer who sells at wholesale prices), but illegitimate dealer wherever he may be found.

"The narrowness of such a view will be pointed out, and the most mean and acrimonious cry against it will come from the operator who is selling wherever he can and to whoever he pleases, seemingly without reason and always without care as to custom or channel for distribution.

He is a maverick, roaming at will over our land, drinking of the clearest streams and feeding in the best pastures. He must be caught and branded.

"No association should permit his membership, and no individual should at any time, or under any conditions, permit trading with him, neither buying nor selling, and, simple as the process may seem, you may depend upon it. If applied, his will be a short shrift."

ITCHING ECZEMA CURED.

You don't need to suffer another day with that awful itch. A few drops of that wonderful compound known as the D. D. D. Prescription will take away the itch instantly, yes, the moment the first drops are applied to the inflamed skin, the itching is stopped.

Many Eczema sufferers have failed so utterly with salves and other "discoveries" that even the assurance of the best physician or druggist cannot induce them to invest another cent in any remedy.

It is to just these discouraged sufferers that we now offer at 25c a trial bottle of the genuine D. D. D. Prescription, a simple wash of Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol and a few other ingredients, so compounded that they reach the very worst cases of Eczema and all other skin diseases.

Besides, there is nothing so good as D. D. D. for a household skin remedy, for it washes away pimples over night, and cleanses the skin of all forms of skin impurities.

ENGLISH AS SHE IS PRONOUNCED.

The recent wedding of Mrs. John A. Stirling, formerly Clara Elizabeth Taylor, the American chorus girl, to Lord George Hugo Cholmondeley, second son of the Marquis of Cholmondeley, serves as a reminder that the ways of English pronunciation are past finding out.

Cholmondeley is not pronounced the way it is spelled. So, in case you ever happen to meet Lord and Lady Cholmondeley or have occasion to mention their name, you must pronounce it Chumley, Ch-u-m, chum, le-y, ley, and that's Cholmondeley.

And that isn't all. There are other high-sounding names associated with the British aristocracy that call for gymnastics in pronunciation. Lord Worcester pronounces himself Wooster, so if you want to be considered somewhat superior don't ask for the Worcester-shire sauce at table. Pronounce it Woostersher sauce and say it quickly and you've got it.

The first suburban station beyond East New York on the Long Island railroad is Warwick, and the guards call "War-wick street" when the train stops. This is perfectly dreadful to the English way of pronouncing Warwick. Over there they call it War-rick. Lady Warwick is Lady War-rick.

In England too, the name M-i-c-h-i-l-i-n-a-c-i-l-n-a-c resolves itself when pronounced into Mackinaw, M-a-c-j-o-r-b-a-n-k-s is pronounced Marchbank, L-e-i-c-e-s-t-e-r Lester, N-o-r-w-i-c-h Norri], like porridge, and there are many others, but sufficient examples have been given to show what unexplainable liberties the English take in the pronunciation of their own language.
