FOREIGN ELEMENT IN PARIS.

Three Hundred Thousand Aliens Now in the French Capital.

The cosmopolitan character of the population of Paris has frequently been commented upon. The French capital is full of luxurious loungers all the time, men and women in whom the love of their own country is entirely extinct or who find Paris a pleasanter sojourning place than any other. They are the butterflies of the world, the people who have more time and money than they know how to spend and to whom the changing life of Paris has the charm that usually accompanies variety. They are drones in the busy hive of French industry. But the working bees are also foreign to a very great extent. In 1886 the population of Paris was 2,334,550. Just what proportion of this number were foreigners is not shown by available statistics, but a recent official statement gives the present number as close upon 300,000. These people are of foreign nationality, but hold a permanent residence in Paris. It is estimated that 80,000 are men capable of bearing arms. What a scattering of them there would be in the event of a general European war? It is stated that of this great foreign contingent the 4000 Americans form the aristocracy, since all the others belong mainly to the working classes. A very large part of the labor of Paris is done by aliens. Belgium furnishes 60,000 day laborers, hatters and domestic servants. Switzerland sends 35,000 butchers, waiters, painters and glaziers. Germany supplies 40,000 liquor dealers, hotelkeepers and clerks; while Italy is credited with a like number of plumbers, glaziers, street musicians, and that characteristic Parisian class of labor, the artists' models. Russians to the number of 12,000 are largely tanners and saddlers. England contributes 14,000 servants, most of whom are coachmen and grooms. From this summary it will be seen that nearly every department of labor has a large foreign element. Even the municipal gasworks and slaughter-houses, together with the sewer department, are employing so many foreigners that the propriety of restricting the public service to French citizens is being seriously considered. In case of war the danger to France of this great body of aliens, owing no allegiance to her and many of them from nations naturally antagonistic, would certainly be great. The organization of a special police force to keep a sharp watch on the several foreign colonies would almost seem a necessity. Such action is said to be strongly contemplated. —Rochester Herald.

GENERAL BRECKINRIDGE.

A Good Story of the Old Soldier Which He Told About Himself.

A good story of General John C. Breckinridge is said to have been told by himself with evident relish not long before his death. In talking to some friends about the many kindnesses which had been shown him by his people and the pleasant things which had been said to him, he remarked that he valued as highly as any compliment he had ever received one which an old Kentucky farmer paid him during the war, which had come to his ears a short time before. It was custom in war times, as it has always been in all times, for the country people to come into the country town on Saturday afternoons to exchange news gathered during the week. At one of these gatherings in a store in Richmond, Ky., just after the battle of Chickamauga, one of the men said he had heard some grand news. Upon being pressed to tell

THURSDAY, OCT. 26, 1893.

CECIL BROWN, at to-day's session of the Council, wanted the Government to sit down on the Annexation Club. Not being out of its head the Government did not see fit to do so.

SHOULD THE TAIL WAG THE DOG?

In answer to the plain question—what proportion of Hawaiian taxes is paid by the ex-Queen, the members of the ex-cabinet, the Royalist incumbents of the late legislature and the entire native and half-caste population?

MULE OR TROLLEY?

It was apparent when the fair bid of an electric trolley company for the tramways was refused that Honolulu would have to be content with its mule cars so long as the English syndicate was content with its investment.

But to resume: If we cannot get from a Royalist source an answer to the query with which this article opens, we will undertake to answer it as nearly as possible from the latest sworn data of the census returns.

Annexation holdings, $23,000,000; Native and half-caste, $657,743; Royalist holdings, $57,743.

Maj. for Annexation, $22,342,257. We are not dealing above with the holdings of Englishmen, Germans and Americans who are opposed to annexation, nor with those of the few white men in the Royalist Government who are still monarchists.

THE Holomua's coming race—which is to crowd out the aborigine—is to have the physique of the native and the intellect of the white man. For an abstract theory this is beyond reproach. Now show us some concrete examples of the way it has worked.

In yesterday's missionary computations it was said that there were no sons of missionaries in the Board of Education. This was owing to the fact that none appear in the Official directory upon which the count was based.

MANIFEST DESTINY.

The principle which is laid down as American by the Royalist press, namely, that the majority must rule, is much modified by American practice. When the first colonists landed in Massachusetts and Virginia they were outnumbered ten to one by the neighboring aborigines. That did not hinder them, however, from becoming the ruling spirits of the country; nor has it hindered their descendants from time to time from governing the territories where the original lords of the soil remained in a majority.

Given a population which cannot meet these requirements on its own account and the sources of power reside in something beside the count of noses. Other factors are vested with the chief jurisdiction. Sometimes these factors are military, sometimes they are commercial or both, but always they are paramount with the assent of Christendom.

It is long been evident in Hawaii that the native race, left to itself, could not sustain a modern Government. The tendency of the race is altogether backward. That being true what more just and natural that the group should be ruled by men who, besides having the firmest stake in the soil as majority owners of property are imbued with modern and progressive principles of administration.

In times to come the native population of Hawaii will, undoubtedly, have representative privileges, as do their cousins in New Zealand; but it must be understood that the great functions of Government will be performed here by men whose object is to make Hawaii a completely modern State.

Supreme Court Decision.

The Supreme Court has this morning filed a decision in the ejection suit of James I. Dowsett vs. Maukeala et al. The Court declines to reverse the decision of the Circuit Court setting aside the verdict and ordering a new trial on the ground that the verdict is contrary to law and evidence.

For Breach of Contract.

The civil suit of Y. Ah Yan against Mrs. J. K. Lauka for $300 for breach of contract was partly heard by Judge Robertson in the District Court yesterday afternoon and continued till October 30th. The plaintiff rented some land from defendant and failing to cultivate the same was kicked off the premises. He now sues for the breach of his contract.

Coming Marriages.

Captain A. Gartenberg, the popular and well-known bookkeeper of M. S. Gribbaum & Co., will shortly be married to Miss Mary McGuire of this city. J. B. Alexander, principal of the Kilauea Government school on Kauai, who is here on a visit, will also take unto himself a bride before he returns to the Garden Isle.

The Bulletin's Libel Suit.

C. W. Ashford, counsel for the Bulletin in the libel suit of Charles A. Brown vs. Daniel Logan, its editor, has filed a plea in abatement claiming that the charter name of the corporation is "The Daily Bulletin Publishing Company," instead of "The Bulletin Publishing Company."

Sam Parker's Affairs.

The execution sale of Sam Parker's property, heretofore announced for today, will take place to-morrow at noon, unless a further continuance is granted, which seems more than likely from the activity of the attorneys interested.

When the Boston Came Home.

Lieutenant Lucien Young was one of the first seen when the Boston was visited yesterday. "Glad to get home? Well, I should say so," said he. "Lived on salt beef and tongue for three days, and worse than that the supply of liquid refreshments ran short."

He and Paymaster Hobbs were the first to go ashore, and they enjoyed last evening getting a good square meal of fresh viands.

Lieutenant C. Laird expects a leave of absence within a few days and will go east and visit his relatives at Canton, Ohio. He will probably be accompanied by the paymaster, whose cruise is up and who is entitled to three years on shore. Lieutenant Laird had charge of the shore troops when Commissioner Blount ordered the flag down at Honolulu. He was much disgusted at the part he was compelled to perform, and so was Lieutenant Draper, who was in command of the marines.

The officers were dressed in heavy overcoats last evening, and in spite of the covering were shivering with cold. "It's like going in the Arctic regions coming here from balmy Hawaii," said Lieutenant Laird.—Call.

Hard on Chicago.

The report that a Chicago drummer has been unmercifully beaten by a Virginia mob, is very improbable, to say the least. If a Chicago drummer should meet a victorious army he would talk to them until they would retreat in terror. Last summer it is reported that a Chicago drummer met a shark while bathing at one of our seaside resorts. They both looked at one another, while a gleam of mutual recognition came over their features. Then the shark blushed and retired.

ODDS AND ENDS.

Telescopes were first made by Jansen in 1608.
 Rochester has a company of deaf mute soldiers.
 Europe now imports every year 600,000 tons of meat.
 Ceylon has cinnamon plantations covering 90,000 acres.
 In the rock of Gibraltar there are 70 miles of tunnels.
 The Union Pacific railroad crosses nine mountain ranges.
 The Chinese live longer than people of any other nation.
 The anchors of the steamship Campania weigh 8½ tons each.
 Either I will find a way or I will make one.—Sir P. Sidney.
 Rembrandt's father is said to have been a miller and farmer.
 A teaspoonful of microbes contains over 4,000,000 individuals.
 In all countries more marriages take place in June than in any other month.
 The queen of Corea has a lady physician who gets a salary of $15,000 yearly.
 The most prolific opera composers was Piccini. He wrote over 200 operas.
 A rattlesnake in the zoo at Atlanta has not eaten anything since last August.
 Unbearable boorishness can be changed to bearable eccentricity by the acquisition of wealth.
 Marshal Bessieres was a farmer's boy, and after enlisting as a private rose from the ranks.
 Southern Pacific locomotives will soon use for fuel bricks made of coal dust and asphaltum.
 Celluloid is paper chemically treated, reduced again to pulp and then molded into its final form.
 Some characters are like the black billard ball—not black, but called so because of one black spot.
 We are haunted by an ideal life, and it is because we have within us the beginning and the possibility of it.—Phillips Brooks.
 A man going shopping with his wife is usually a most woebegone looking object. His face always bears upon it the marks of despair.
 Perhaps you have heard of "Spartacus to the Gladiators." Its author, the Rev. Elijah Kellogg, still preaches at Harpswell, Me., although over 80.
 A Beverly (Mass.) man was fined $5 for slapping his wife in the face and $15 for assaulting the policeman who arrested him. There seems to be something wrong with the Beverly police court's tariff.
 Getting Information in Congress.
 Stewart L. Woodford was a member of congress from Brooklyn not long after the war. He was one of the sensible chaps who didn't know it all at the beginning.
 For a month or so early in the session he had to spend a great deal of time in the departments, and so he looked around for somebody to keep him headed right on the rare occasions when he appeared in the house.
 There was a very shrewd looking person who frequently occupied a seat near by, and Woodford was so struck by his appearance that he got in the habit of asking his advice whenever in doubt about a question.
 One day he strolled in during a roll call just before his name was reached. He didn't know what was up, but his unknown friend, as usual, told him how to vote.
 When the result was announced, he discovered to his chagrin that he had voted against most of the other members of his party. That worried him a little, but he kept mum, and sure enough a few days later it appeared that he had voted right and that the other fellows were wrong.
 Then it occurred to him to find out the name of the far seeing member who always knew about everything and never took any part in debate. So he turned to a friend for information.
 "What is his name?" repeated his friend in response to the question. "Why, my dear fellow, he is a member at all. He is the clerk of the postoffice committee."
 Woodford tells this tale himself, so it must be true.—New York Recorder.

AFTER RAIN.

Clouds rifted, seaward drifted like white sails.
 A silver rain upon the tangled grasses.
 A sweet wind on the mountain where it passes.
 We'll follow seaward by the lichened rills.
 Within the gray, thin shadow of the beeches.
 By white pools sleeping in the yellow sun.
 On fountain slopes where sparkling shallows run.
 Beyond the meadows into piney reaches—
 Your hand, dear, so—I'll guide you where the fowers
 Are new blown, blue and golden, where the drumming
 Of some lone partridge sounds, and brown bees' humming.
 Into the silentness of dim bowers.
 —H. M. Merrill.

Utilization of Waste.

The discovery that the leaf of the pineapple plant can be wrought into a serviceable cloth is one of those newly found facts that are constantly proving how much there is yet to discover in nature. As the plant is extensively grown in Florida a new industry in time will spring up there, and the producers of the delicious pineapple will have a new source of profit at their command. But it does not speak well for the boasted inventive genius of America that pineapple fiber cloth has been manufactured for some time in Central America, and that it is now an article of export.
 This is, however, only one of the discoveries made in recent years by which waste material is being utilized. It would puzzle any one but an expert to go into a store to-day and tell from what material a percentage of the goods are manufactured. Grass, timber, sawdust and other products that were once rejected as useless are now saved and put to practical use. The Hollanders have even discovered how to convert the peat from bogs into the soft wools, which can be spun into cloth, rugs and blankets at half the cost these now can be made from wool grown on the sheep's back. Such a discovery ought to open before Ireland and some other countries the prospect of a great industry which will increase their prosperity and commercial importance.—Philadelphia Press.

To Keep a Boutonnieres Fresh.
 Carnations, daisies and occasionally half blown rosebuds that have been used as boutonnieres in the evening may by careful management be kept fresh enough to wear next day. A man in town who has a pardonable penchant for frequently wearing a boutonniere bouquet, yet does not wish to spend from $1.50 to $5 a day on this luxurious fancy, puts away his boutonnieres at night as carefully as a woman does her jewels. He makes a hole through a pasteboard card, clips the end of the flower and puts it through the hole in the pasteboard. He then puts the card over a glass full of water. The delicate petals of the flower are thus prevented from touching the water, and the stem is in its full length. As every body knows, water on the petals of cut flowers destroys their freshness. A bunch of carnations may be kept together and their stems put through a sizable hole in the pasteboard card. Daisies should be separated and the stems put through individual holes.—New York Herald.

The Duke of Westminster has spent over a million pounds in rebuilding Eaton hall, which is now considered to rival Chatsworth as England's finest house.

Aim at the Drake

And you are bound to hit some of the ducks. This is precisely the same with

Wampole's Tasteless Preparation OF Cod Liver Oil.

It aims to cure Consumption, Hits the Mark, too, and it most effectually breaks up Colds, Coughs, Hoarseness and all Throat and Lung troubles that cause this disease.

It is natural logic to conclude that if WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION OF COD LIVER OIL has power to prevent Consumption, it surely is able to cure these lesser emergencies.

This vigor-making, fat producing preparation is Absolutely Tasteless, in so far as Cod Liver Oil is concerned. All you notice is a delightful flavor of Wild Cherry and Anise.

But the purest Norwegian Cod Liver Oil is there all the same. It is a great blood enricher. Best of all it is a natural food that in its stomachic effects, actually assists its own assimilation.

In Pulmonary or Bronchia troubles it is unequalled. No one doubts the value of Cod Liver Oil, but not every one is able to take it.

WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION removes the nauseous objection and actually makes Cod Liver Oil palatable.

MINISTER DAMON'S FINANCIAL EXHIBIT.

Postponement of the Bill to Grant Three Years' Further Time to the Railroad.

At 1:55 P. M., both the President and Vice-President being absent, the Council was called to order by Councilman Allen, he being the oldest member present and required as such to act as chairman under the circumstances.

Minutes of last meeting were read and approved. President Dole arrived and took his seat.

FINANCE STATEMENT FOR WEEK ENDING OCTOBER 25, 1893.

EXPLANATORY.

This amount of $102,590 78 has been advanced from current account for improvement under Loan Account against which there has been repaid the amount of $158,000 from bonds sold under the Act of Jan. 11, 1892.

MEMO. CASH IN TREASURY.

Table listing various treasury items such as Certificates, Cash on hand, and Available Cash.

Attorney-General Smith read a petition from a Japanese asking for a law to be made permitting the institution of licensed bath houses for Japanese.

In connection with his financial report, Mr. Damon stated that all the current indebtedness up to October 1st had been ordered paid.

Councilman Brown, from the Judiciary Committee, reported that, in view of the near approach of the term of court of the Second Judicial District, it was not thought advisable to make any change in the place where such court should be held until after the term was ended.

From the same committee Mr. Brown reported the bill relating to ear marks on animals, with an amendment proposed by the committee.

Mr. Brown, on behalf of the committee, asked for further time to consider the matter of separating the two offices of President and Minister of Foreign Affairs, on the ground that the matter was one of great importance and required much consideration.

On behalf of the Executive Council the Attorney-General read two communications from the Pacific Mail and Occidental and Oriental steamship companies, relating to Chinese passengers who have or may be refused a landing here on account of fraudulent passports or otherwise.

The matter virtually asks permission to land passengers here in quarantine whenever it was not deemed desirable to take them on to San Francisco. Mr. Smith stated that in view of the discriminating policy at this port by these companies the application had been denied.

Councilman Emmeluth called attention to the fact that in the battalion drill last night the Government was only represented by two men.

He offered a resolution to the effect that all employees of the Government under the age of forty-five should be required to enroll themselves in some one of the volunteer companies, and all over that age in the Citizens' Reserve.

Mr. Brown moved to refer the matter to the Executive, and followed it up with a speech denouncing it.

In his speech, during the delivery of which the Councilman became quite heated, Mr. Brown scored the Annexation Club, claiming that it was attempting to dictate to the Government what it should and should not do.

The second reading of the appropriation bill was then called up and the bill passed.

The bill in relation to the extension of time of the franchise of the Oahu Railroad Company was laid over for one week.

The bill in relation to the marking of animals, as amended by the Judiciary Committee, passed its first reading.

At 2:50 the Councils adjourned.

THE KALALAU LEPEERS.

The Murderer Koolau—Other Matters of Kindred Interest.

The following letter is from K. Wili Kinney of Kauai, who was instrumental in securing the fourteen natives, who were the first secured in Kalalau for transportation to Molokai. He is a progressive young half-caste and a son of William Kinney, of Honoumou plantation, on Hawaii.

The present Government will receive a loud cheer from the most sensible natives if it should go to work and make laws encouraging the balance of the lepers to go to Molokai. It is a real shame that some of those foolish lepers are rotting away in the woods; and again, it isn't the rotting away of those that are already lepers that I am after the most—it's the catching by the healthy ones of the leprosy while tending their diseased relatives.

There are plenty of them to-day that try to play kahuna work with the disease. Why? Because kahunaism is not tried to be stopped at all. There ought to be a law passed forbidding the Kalalau natives from receiving lepers again in their little valley.

Now, of course, they swear that they wish that they hadn't helped Koolau at all by giving him poi and aiding him in lots of other little things. All the days before Mr. Stoltz's arrival, the more stuck up ones used to brag about ruling Kalalau. But when Stoltz came most of them fled, although with the intention that they would do some shooting if it became necessary; and there was one good old fellow, and that was Kapahae, the famous swimmer. He gave up and also forced his relatives to give up.

Koolau is not in Kalalau at present. He is supposed to be on the Makaweli border. It's a shame that Koolau skipped out of his stronghold the night before the P. G. forces fired at the place. Koolau went down to Wahinealoha that night and demanded food. When he got through he went towards the sea. Old Wahinealoha and others that were in the house were shaking out of their breeches during Koolau's feast. Wahinealoha was too scared to run up and tell the Marshal even the next day. He was afraid that the forces would not find Koolau if he told them the direction Koolau went, then Koolau would make it hot for him.

This is a fact told by some strangers that were in the house that night, and Wahinealoha had to come out with the truth after all. Koolau told them that he had 490 cartridges to use and one of them was for Kaumehehiwa's brains. Kaumehehiwa is the most civilized native in Kalalau. Stoltz stopped with him. All of the lepers that went to Molokai write to their relatives that it's the best thing happened to them that they were taken.

K. W. KINNEY. KALALAU, Kauai, Oct. 10, 1893.

A Diplomatic Rumor.

A report went about early in the day that British Minister Wodehouse, at the instance of Mr. Paine, the tramway manager, had complained to the Government of the interference of the troops with the running of the cars. Up to the time the Councils went into executive session this afternoon, nothing had been heard from the Minister by the Foreign Office.

A Sinking Fund.

Those who are interested in the financial affairs of the Government will notice in the weekly statement, published in this issue, an item of $1447 placed to the credit of the sinking fund. This is done under an act of the legislature of 1864, which requires that all proceeds of land sales shall be set apart in a sinking fund, to be used for the redemption of bonds and other evidences of Government indebtedness. The act has never been enforced until the present time.

IN THE POLICE COURT.

JUDGE ROBERTSON HAS A BIG DAY.

Numerous Cases Disposed Of in Various Ways—Issac Cockett on Trial for Opium Smuggling.

A large number of cases were disposed of by Judge Robertson in the District Court to-day, among them being the following:

Mee Tong, for violating the license laws, was the first victim to face the stern majesty of the law, and he was agreeably surprised to find that the prosecution had determined to nolle prosequi his case, and went on his way rejoicing.

H. Kiwai, charged with keeping a victualing house without first procuring the necessary license, pleaded not guilty and his case was set for trial on the 31st. J. A. Magoon for the defendant.

Yuen Kee & Co., charged with selling goods of a foreign manufacture during one month last past, pleaded not guilty and will have their trial on the 31st. Chang Yook Tong, for the same offense, will be heard in his own behalf on the same day.

Hung Yuen & Co., California Feed Company, J. F. Colburn and R. Antone, all charged with violating the license laws, were remanded until the 31st; and Kanai, for robbery, to the 30th.

Ioane, a young truant, was reprimanded and discharged.

Bertha Lubloff, a young damsel who refused to obey the lawful and moral commands of her parents during one month last past, was discharged upon promising to return to her father.

The case of E. Devauschelle, who is now charged with the additional offense of selling opium, was remanded to October 31st. J. L. Kaulukou for the defendant.

Ah Chong and Chong Cook were placed on trial to see if they could satisfactorily account for the possession of a quantity of opium. Chong Cook did so and was discharged, but in spite of the strenuous efforts of attorneys Neumann and Davidson, Ah Chong failed and received the usual fine of $50 and costs.

Si Tu Sing and Wo Sing, who are accused of aiding and abetting certain prisoners to escape from the custody of the police at Ewa on October 14th, both pleaded not guilty, under the advice of their numerous attorneys. V. V. Ashford for the former and Messrs. Hoookoo, Kaulukou and Kaulia for the latter.

Isaac Cockett, who has not yet been discharged from custody, in spite of the Bulletin's assertion to the contrary, was the last victim at the morning session. He is charged with smuggling opium in conjunction with Devauschelle, and his trial is still in progress this afternoon.

Cockett was found guilty and sentenced to six months imprisonment and $500 fine.

BOARD OF HEALTH.

It Passes a Resolution About Quarantine and Pilot Regulations.

At the meeting of the Board of Health yesterday the following resolution was passed:

Resolved that section 20 of quarantine regulations of 1891, be amended so as to read: 20. Vessels arriving from an Asiatic port, or from any port reported to be infested with cholera, yellow fever, smallpox, scarlet fever, plague or any other disease deemed by the Board of Health to be dangerous to the public health, or vessels carrying passengers, whether steamers or sailing vessels, if under fourteen days from the last foreign port of call, shall not enter any port of the Hawaiian Islands until permission is granted by the port physician, or a duly accredited officer of the Board of Health.

Such vessels if refused entry shall be anchored in quarantine at such places as may be chosen by the pilot, under direction of the port physician, and remain at such anchorage until changed or admitted into port by the Board of Health.

Provided, however, that in the case of a sailing vessel arriving under fourteen days from the last port of call, and not having any such dangerous disease on board, the pilot may bring her into port and anchor her; but no person shall be allowed to land from such vessel until permission is granted by the port physician.

THE HAMAKUA FOREST.

Prompt Measures to Be Taken for its Preservation.

The Government is taking steps, in conjunction with a number of planters who are interested, to build a fence through the Hamakua forest, with the object of preventing the further inroads of cattle. The destruction of the undergrowth and young trees in the lower part of the forest from the ravages of cattle ranging on the Parker estate has been so great of late years as to seriously affect the rainfall and water supply of the Puukapu plains.

The proposed fence will start from a point in the road called Mud Lane and traverse the Hamakua forest between its lower and upper limit, cutting off the Parker estate from the rest of the forest, and will be about nine miles long.

It is also proposed to take similar steps in regard to the Kohala mountains, whose towering peaks, 5500 feet above the sea level, furnish the water supply for Waimea and the plains below it. Each year the cattle are getting higher up the mountain sides, and unless something is done, and that very soon, this main source of the water supply of the district will be completely destroyed.

It is proposed to make a combined effort and place a fence all around the mountain.

NEWS IN A NUTSHELL.

Councilman Wilder is expected back on the next Australia.

It is proposed to have a moonlight battalion drill once a month.

Captain Ziegler has his company out for drill on palace square this afternoon at 1:30.

The contract with Dr. Goto for the treatment of lepers at Molokai expires on March 1st.

The Pacific Hardware Company early this evening in order to get a good rest before the grand effort. On this attempt, in a great measure, depends either the success or failure of the whole scheme, and unless Mr. McDowell is fully as confident of success as he is reputed to be, he will hardly sleep very sound to-night.

A morning paper states that there is scarcely any difference between the cruiser Adams and the full-rigged ship Beaconsfield. Those on the waterfront to-day who know the difference between a bark-rigged steamer and a full-rigged ship are earnest in their search for the resemblance between the vessels mentioned.

The recent blowing up of the rock at Brewers' wharf has piled up considerable loose coral on the bottom, which will have to be removed before deep water vessels can make use of the new berth, and the dredger is to begin operations there to-morrow morning. Captain Smith was busy during the forenoon hunting up his crew.

The Mariposa, due to-day, not having been telephoned up to the time the STAR goes to press, it is the general belief that she will not get in before to-morrow morning. This is not surprising as at this time of the year the English mails are often late in reaching San Francisco.

Among the modern conveniences aboard the Andrew Welch is a table by which the captain is able at any time, by first taking the draught of his ship, to determine the exact amount of cargo aboard.

The Japanese steamer Miike Maru finished discharging her cargo of merchandise yesterday and went over to the railroad wharf where she is discharging her coal.

The German bark J. C. Pfluger, now undergoing repairs, hauled up to the foundry this morning to have some new stanchions put in and other iron work attended to.

The schooner Aloha finished discharging her cargo last evening and shifted from the Mail dock to the Kinau wharf to wait for cargo.

The steam launch Star has been chartered to take a party of ladies and gentlemen around the harbor this evening for a moonlight excursion.

The schooner Robert Lewers will finish discharging her cargo this evening and be ready to go on the marine railway to-morrow morning.

The steamer J. A. Cummins came in this morning with a light cargo of sundries.

The steamer C. R. Bishop sailed for the usual ports this morning.

The steamer W. G. Hall will be due to-morrow.

A GRAND EFFORT TO FLOAT THE MIOWERA.

The Mariposa Late—The Cummins Arrives—The Beaconsfield and Adams.

An attempt to float the Miowera will be made at high tide to-morrow morning, which occurs, according to the table, at 5:20 A. M. At present there are seven samson poles in position along the ship's sides, and when the attempt is made there will be eight. McDowell's men will all quit work early this evening in order to get a good rest before the grand effort. On this attempt, in a great measure, depends either the success or failure of the whole scheme, and unless Mr. McDowell is fully as confident of success as he is reputed to be, he will hardly sleep very sound to-night.

Wampole's Tasteless Preparation OF Cod Liver Oil.

It aims to cure Consumption, Hits the Mark, too, and it most effectually breaks up Colds, Coughs, Hoarseness and all Throat and Lung troubles that cause this disease.

It is natural logic to conclude that if WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION OF COD LIVER OIL has power to prevent Consumption, it surely is able to cure these lesser emergencies.

This vigor-making, fat producing preparation is Absolutely Tasteless, in so far as Cod Liver Oil is concerned. All you notice is a delightful flavor of Wild Cherry and Anise.

But the purest Norwegian Cod Liver Oil is there all the same. It is a great blood enricher. Best of all it is a natural food that in its stomachic effects, actually assists its own assimilation.

In Pulmonary or Bronchia troubles it is unequalled. No one doubts the value of Cod Liver Oil, but not every one is able to take it.

WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION removes the nauseous objection and actually makes Cod Liver Oil palatable.
