THE A. U. P. MAY NOW ACT

CENTRAL COMMITTEE TO HOLD A MEETING.

John Phillips, Theo. F. Lansing and L. A. Thurston and Others Suggested for Senator.

In the next twenty-four hours the central committee of the American Union Party will decide what shall be done in the matter of the coming senatorial election. The question now up is whether the party will put up a candidate, or let the matter go by the board.

When the question of action is disposed of the future course will be clear. If it be decided to put up a man, the personnel of the candidacy will be discussed and perhaps acted upon at once. John Phillips has been freely spoken of in and out of the party as a desirable man. Theo. F. Lansing, L. A. Thurston, Paul Isenberr, A. S. Humphreys and A. G. M. Robertson are also mentioned.

There was a suggestion this morning to bring all these men out and let the best one win. This idea arises from certain side backing of one of the persons named.

As far as can be judged the central committee is divided on the question of acting at all. It is felt that the game is not worth the hunt. Some men feel that the expense should never have been incurred.

If the committee feel that the matter is important enough for a campaign. With the field open there would be a possibility of an undesirable independent. There is some honor to be conferred, even if there should be no work for the senate.

If the committee decides that the party ought to put a candidate in nomination the question will arise how it shall be done; whether the committee itself shall nominate or whether a convention shall be called. There is a precedent in a similar case. When Charles L. Carter's seat in the house of representatives became vacant by his death, the convention that nominated him was called together again and nominated A. G. M. Robertson. It is suggested that the convention which nominated Senator Schmidt should be called together again and nominate his successor. There is time for it. This would give the widest possible opportunity to the party to express itself. It would remove any possibility of the charge of "star chamber" or "Junta" proceeding which might be brought, however unfounded, if the committee itself took the responsibility of making a nomination.

The time for candidates to qualify will expire by limitation next Monday. By then the fees must be in and the endorsements approved. The election will take place two weeks from tomorrow.

Later—This afternoon a majority of the members of the central committee signed a petition to George W. Smith to call a meeting of the nominating convention for 7:30 Saturday evening in the Chamber of Commerce room for the purpose of electing a candidate to go before the people on election day and for the transaction of other business. It is understood that the call will be issued tomorrow at the outside. The personnel of the convention is as follows:

R. F. Dillingham, F. A. Hosmer, J. A. Kennedy, W. H. Hoops, Robert Grieve, J. H. Fisher, J. S. Martin, S. B. Rose, E. F. Bishop, G. W. Smith, W. McBride, F. S. Dodge, J. A. McCandless, E. Benner, C. B. Gray, Ed. Towse, Julius Asche, George N. Day, William Henry, R. McKeague, W. K. Rathburn, Andrew Cox, Judge Kekaha, W. J. Lowrie, E. B. Mikalemi, J. A. Low, W. R. Sims, L. D. Kellipio, G. W. Farr, J. M. Poepee, G. R. Carter, O. Bergstrom and J. C. Cluney.

TELLS ABOUT THE NOMAD

CUTLER KNEW THE VESSEL AND HER CAPTAIN.

An Old Skipper's Tribute to Captain McCallup—Native of Maine—A Popular Man.

Captain Cutler of the Klilkat was personally acquainted with Captain McCallup of the wrecked schooner Nomad, which was driven ashore at Hamakua. Of the schooner and the captain the master of the Klilkat says: "The Nomad was built by Hall Bros. at Port Blakely, and was a sister ship of the Robert Lewers and Alice Cooke. McCallup was her first and only master. She sailed from Port Blakely about eighteen months ago for Shanghai with a load of lumber.

"On the vessel at the time were the captain, two grown sons and a grown daughter. Mrs. McCallup intended making the voyage, but was taken ill during the trip and remained behind. She is now residing in Seattle. "The schooner sailed from Shanghai nearly a year ago in ballast. I remember well her departure. Nothing has ever been heard of her. She was never even definitely reported at sea. Her owners have long since given her up, although a short time ago Mrs. McCallup still lived in hopes that the Nomad was safe, and she would yet see her husband and children.

"I think the Nomad encountered a heavy gale and being light, was tipped over. The bodies of most of those aboard are probably still inside of the hull on Hawaii, or were when the wreck landed there. Undoubtedly the wreck had drifted for several months from the northeast.

"Captain McCallup was born at Lubec, Maine, about sixty years ago. He has been on the west coast a long time and was well known and well liked. He has a brother, master of the schooner Endeavor, who was in this port not very long ago and is now on his way back here.

"Captain Cutler fears that Mrs. McCallup will not survive very long this terrible loss. Every member of her family was aboard and went down in the wreck.

OREGON SOUVENIRS.
E. A. Sherman has a number of old souvenirs among the office of the Oregon, among them Ensign Clarence Kempff, who was a classmate in the Oakland High school. Mr. Sherman received from some of these friends a number of interesting souvenirs. Among them is one of the exploded shells from the Oregon in the battle of Santiago. Another is a native Brazilian water jar, or cooler, of interesting form and make. Quite as interesting as these are some copies of a comic illustrated paper published in Buenos Ayres early in the war.

CHANGE OF BASE.
David Center, manager of Waianae plantation, has been offered the post of manager of the plantation of the American Sugar Company at Kaunakakai, and will accept it. Manager Pat McLane will become assistant manager at Molokai. A successor to Mr. Center at Waianae has been conferred upon until there has been a conference between J. M. Dowsett and Senator George N. Wilcox. There is a good man in sight.

CHINESE NEW YEAR.
Will be Celebrated Officially on Friday Next.

The Chinese New Year begins officially tomorrow evening. A great many of the Chinese begin celebrating tonight, but the reason for that is curiously one of longitude. When the first Chinese went to California they did not understand that crossing the 180th meridian caused the loss of a day, and following the Hongkong calendars they celebrated one day ahead of time. This practice was followed in the Islands. A year ago the Chinese minister at Washington corrected this mistake and made the day of celebration conform to the true date. But even his influence could not make so radical a change at once. Hence two days are celebrated.

The United Chinese Society will hold their usual reception on Friday from 11 to 1 o'clock. The Chinese consul will hold a formal reception, but will be at home to friends who call.

PINEAPPLES AND DIGESTION.
Experiments have been made in America which prove that the juice of the pineapple is a valuable specific in case of indigestion. Pineapple juice is an acid fluid with a specific gravity of 1.04. It contains 10 per cent solids from 600 to 800 cubic centimetres of it. The foetid-digesting power is quite remarkable in its intensity. Three ounces of the juice will dissolve 10 gr. or 15 gr. of dried albumen in four hours. The action takes place in acid, neutral, or even alkaline media, thus resembling trypsin more than pepsin. It acts best in neutral solutions. The pineapple juice contains also a milk-curdling ferment. A well known meat powder is said to be prepared with the help of pineapple juice.

ALWAYS THE BEST.
On every steamer Camarinus receives fresh goods from the Coast. His facilities at the Coast for securing the best on the market cannot be excelled. NEW YEAR AT QUARANTINE

THE CHINESE REMEMBER THEIR COMPATRIOTS.

Fireworks, Wine, Decorative Material and Delicacies Sent Today by Merchants and the Chinese Societies.

The Chinese in quarantine are not going to court this New Year's season. The United Chinese Society has appropriated $50, and a subscription among the Chinese merchants this morning realized $60 more, to be expended in entertainment at quarantine. Permission was given by Collector General McStocker and Special Chinese Agent Brown this morning for all kinds of New Year's delicacies to be sent out to quarantine. The purchases made with the funds mentioned include ducks, chickens, roast pig, wine, confectionery, fire works and decorative material. In addition to this persons and friends of those in quarantine have been liberal and generous in their New Year's gifts.

A committee went to quarantine this afternoon with the supplies provided for the Chinese society. They took along with them an address which was read to the Chinese in quarantine by the official Chinese interpreter of the bureau. In this address, the donors first extended New Year's greetings, and good wishes for the coming year. Then it expressed regret that circumstances were such that those to whom the address was presented could not enjoy the festive occasion under conditions more in consonance with the usual celebration of the time, but urged them to bear it with patience, since it was not a punishment to bring shame but an unavoidable inconvenience. The feeling of kinship of those to whom the address was presented was expressed in the choicest Mandarin Chinese at the command of the committee.

Chinese at quarantine whose period of quarantine had expired were released today, much to their joy, at their opportunity to celebrate the season as it should be.

HARBOR CONDITION BETTER

NECESSITY LENDS A HELPING HAND.

Only One Vessel Now Waiting for a Berth to Discharge—Wharves are Less Crowded Than Usual.

The wharf and harbor problem now seems, under the pressure brought to bear by necessity, to be coming very near to solving itself. With about the usual number of vessels in the harbor there is only one in the stream waiting for a berth. There is only one other merchantman besides the idle City of Columbia in the stream. That is the St. Katherine which has a part of her cargo of sugar aboard and is waiting for more. The wharves, however, are in better shape than they have been for a long time. The Pacific Mail wharf is practically clear, ready for the arrival of the Rio. The Oceanic wharf has nothing on it but a little coal which the Dominion is discharging.

It seems as though the crisis in harbor congestion had stirred up, merchants, shippers and everybody else having anything to do with it, to a greater activity in discharging ships and in getting their freight away from the wharves. This, if it proves to be no necessity for harbor and wharf improvement, but that things can be better or worse, according as necessity urges.

CEMETERY SITE.
There will be further discussion this afternoon on the proposed cemetery for Halawa. It is expected that, at the time, final action can be taken and the project authorized. The bodies to confer are the executive council, board of health and Oahu Cemetery Association.

TAKE NOTICE.

REAL FACTS.
The prices L. B. Kerr has placed upon the balance of his bankrupt stock are not profit prices, but cost, and below. He has determined to close out this importation in the next thirty days regardless of cost. By calling at his Queen street store his customers will find this to be a real fact.

FOREIGN JURY HEARINGS

WILL BE NO EXPOSITION

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE VOTES A BIG "NO."

At its meeting this forenoon the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce decided, by unanimous vote, that the time was not opportune for an industrial exposition and agricultural fair at Honolulu, as recommended and urged by some.

There was little discussion of the matter, the members having already made up their minds. Letters from Consul Wilder at San Francisco to a local gentleman respecting the project were submitted and read. The question came immediately to vote with the result given.

At the meeting this morning were present Joseph B. Atherton, C. M. Cooke, H. E. Wally, W. M. Giffard, W. W. Hall, F. A. Schaefer, Fred T. P. Waterhouse, John J. Egan, L. M. Vettesen, H. W. Schmidt, John Eas, F. J. Lowrey, H. A. Parmelee, Herman Foeke and Secretary James G. Spencer.

Joseph G. Cooke and Gilbert J. Walker were elected to membership.

The following report from the committee on harbor master and pilots was unanimously approved and ordered sent to the Minister of Interior:

"To the Chairman and Members of the Chamber of Commerce.

"Your special committee for the purpose of inquiring into the duties of the harbor master and pilots of this port and making recommendations respecting the duties of these officials, and respecting any other matters concerning the shipping in this harbor, which may seem proper to them, beg leave to submit the following recommendations:

"That an assistant to the harbor master be appointed, for the purpose of moving vessels in the harbor, and in case the assistant be engaged, that the masters of vessels be empowered to move their vessels to such berths or moorings as the harbor master or his assistant shall designate.

"That the pilots (under the direction of the harbor master or his assistant) be required to moor all incoming vessels and also to take charge of outgoing vessels from such berths as they may occupy when ready for sea.

"That the tug boat, whenever available, be employed in moving vessels in the harbor, instead of hauling by lines as formerly.

"That the government be requested to consider the advisability of extending the Kokuanoa wharf thirty feet in length."

The above communication was signed by W. B. Godfrey, J. F. Hackfeld, F. M. Swamy, F. A. Schaefer, C. L. Wiglit.

The death of Judge H. A. Widemann, an old timer and promoter of the Chamber, was announced. F. A. Schaefer, J. F. Hackfeld and John Eas were appointed a committee to draft a letter of condolence to the family of the deceased. It was also voted that the secretary request all business houses to close at 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon out of respect to the memory of deceased.

DRILL POSTPONED.
The damp weather knocked out the drill of the Second battalion last evening. The companies gathered in fair strength at the armory, but the ground was too muddy for movements. Major Ziegler announced a postponement of the drill until next Tuesday evening.

HERE FOR SOME TIME.
The Oregon Will Not Sail for Two Weeks.

The Oregon is likely to remain here two or three weeks. The Honolulu Iron Works is engaged on some repairs for her which will take at least ten days to complete, it is said. After that she will take on from 1,200 to 1,400 tons of coal from the collier Scindia, which has not yet arrived. Captain Barker told some of the volunteer engineers who visited the big battleship that it would be some time yet before she sailed.

THE OREGON DRAWS WELL.
A number of the United States army officers stationed here, both of the engineers battalion and of the commissary and quartermaster departments, visited the Oregon this afternoon. Among them were Captain Draper of the engineers, and Captain Lydig.

SUGAR STATISTICS OF '98

WILLETT & GRAY'S SUMMING UP OF THE YEAR.

Total Consumption of the United States 24,069 Tons Less Than It Was in 1897.

"The total consumption of sugar, foreign and domestic, in the entire country, including the Pacific Coast, in 1898 was 2,047,344 tons, against 2,071,413 tons in 1897, a decrease of 24,069 tons, or, say, 1.16 per cent decrease," says Willett & Gray's circular.

"The consumption of 1898 consisted of 317,477 tons of domestic cane sugar, 33,960 tons domestic beet sugar, 5,000 tons maple, 300 tons sorghum, 1,700 tons molasses sugar, a total of 358,407 tons domestic production, and 1,432,847 tons foreign cane sugar, 179,465 tons of foreign raw beet sugar, 26,625 tons of foreign refined, a total of 1,638,937 tons of foreign production. The amount of refined sugar which went into consumption in 1898 was 1,855,533 tons, of which the American Sugar Refining Company manufactured 1,360,348 tons, or 67.2 per cent; the independent refiners 495,185 tons, or 29.2 per cent; the beet sugar factories which make refined sugars, 27,960 tons, or 1.5 per cent; 141,511 tons were consumed in the raw or plantation condition. The undistributed stock of refined sugar we estimate 25,000 tons, against 75,000 tons last year. We estimate 59,000 tons less invisible stock in the hands of the grocers than last year.

"The difference between raw and refined averaged .73 cent per pound, against .946 cent per pound in 1897. The reduction in 1898 was after September, and owing directly to the increased competition for trade.

"In 1897 the total amount of refined sugar which went into consumption was 1,358,343 tons, of which the American Sugar Refining Company manufactured 1,397,940 tons, or 71.38 per cent; the independent refiners 455,658 tons, or 23.23 per cent; the beet sugar factories which make refined sugar 28,051 tons, or 1.43 per cent, and foreign refiners 77,288 tons, or 3.95 cent; 137,920 tons were consumed in the raw or plantation condition.

"The importation of sugar from Europe in 1898 was 206,087 tons, against 637,246 tons in 1897. With 125,558 tons less sugar in stock January 1, 1899, than at the beginning of last year, but with 130,000 tons more available from Cuba, it does not appear from our estimates of the cane crops of the world that the United States will require any very large amount of sugar from the beet growing countries in 1899. Our countervailing duties prevent these sugars being sought for so long as cane sugars are available for this country without such extra duty. How much longer will beet raising countries stand in the way of their own advance in sugar production? As far as our own domestic beet and cane industry is concerned, it is to be hoped those countries will always remain blind to the situation.

"The domestic beet sugar industry of the United States shows some very noble features, which are quite surprising when considered from some points of view. The result of the campaign in tons is below last year, but the gain in factories built and proposed is quite important. The object lesson of a few well managed factories paying a dividend of 20 per cent to stockholders and dividing $200,000 among farmers near by, as in Utah, is having a wonderful effect upon both capitalists and farmers in neighboring states and localities, and the year 1899 bids fair to see much greater activity and advance in this industry, regardless of any objection or fears from without. The industry itself is expected to be strong enough in its position to take care of itself against all opposition politically or otherwise by the time that any important action may be required.

"Certainly the progress made this year is phenomenal and unexpected generally, not as to sugars produced, but as to factories built and contemplated, and as to progress made by farmers in experimental work. We shall continue to give the details of new enterprises as fast as they reach us, but, as heretofore, we shall avoid publishing mere rumors without authentic information."

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 1899.

The Star's special band of prophets has done the proper thing. Colonel Macfarlane's storm came off on time and Professor Lyons' clear weather and sunshine greeted us this morning in spite of a very gloomy outlook last night. Now everybody wants to know when the next heavy rain will be on hand, for like Oliver Twist, the cattle men eagerly ask for more.

The attitude of the Japanese in the matter of giving evidence in criminal cases is causing the police a great deal of trouble. In one case which resulted in the death of a Japanese woman a reward of $500 is being offered, and it is thought that this may obtain the required evidence. For a recent brutal murder in New South Wales the government of the colony is offering $5,000 reward. This, which if discovered, will prove one of the sensational trials of the century, consisted of the murder of one of the mounted constabulary and his two sisters.

HARBOR IMPROVEMENTS.

F. W. McChesney brought out a new line in the controversy over the wharf extension in his letter published in yesterday's Star. He takes up the question of convenience for drays, and undoubtedly this should be considered, for if you want your goods taken quickly from the wharf or from the vessel's side, the more facilities for their work the draymen have the better.

It is just an account of matters of this kind, as well as for the improvement and enlargement of the harbor, that The Star has urged that recourse should be had to men who are expert in planning harbor improvements and the approaches to them. Work of this kind needs experience, and there is not a soul on the Islands that has the proper experience.

What the city needs to hold its commercial position is harbor extension, what the government proposes to give us is wharf extension and harbor contraction, while according to Mr. McChesney the needs of the draymen who carry the goods away are to a great extent ignored.

We all know that something has to be done to meet the present emergency, but while doing this it would decidedly be better for those having the matter in charge to look well to the future, and to lay out comprehensive plans which would be advantageous for those who come after us.

Every place suffers more or less from expediency, unless some master mind comes in and says away with expediency, let us do what is right and for the advantage not only of our little selves but for the advantage of the future. Could anyone have foreseen the great future of Honolulu, we would not have miserable narrow streets like Fort street and Nuuanu as the main arteries of the city.

In the matter of a sewerage system we have not looked to expediency, but we have wisely planned for the future. And our plans have not been made by our own rule of thumb methods, but have been laid out by the most experienced engineer in this kind of work that we could find. Why then should we stick to the rule of thumb method in our improvements about the harbor? There is certainly no valid reason. We are a growing commercial center, and we should keep abreast of the times. If we do not, we may be sure that some other spot will get the whip hand of us, and we will be left with experience but without prosperity. This is an age of progress not of botching work.

BEEF SUGAR SHORT.

The sugar beet crop of Europe is going to fall short this year by 350,000 tons, according to the best estimates among the sugar experts of the world. This will naturally have its effect upon the sugar market generally, and with Cuba very short in its crop, we may look for continued good prices during the current year.

The reason that the beet crop is short is that the planting was late in the spring owing to backwardness of the season. Then followed weeks of cold rain, and afterwards a long period of hot, dry weather. The beet crop in consequence was very short and many of the factories had to shut down in November on account of difficulty of obtaining material.

The common belief in Europe about the sugar beet is that it will grow and develop under the most adverse circumstances. No drought, however persevering; no rains, however incessant, were supposed to make much difference upon the harvest. But this last season has shown the fallacy of the belief.

However the holders of beet sugar sold out their previous stock at low prices before they discovered that there was going to be a shortage, being all blinded by their belief that nothing could interfere with the beet crop. The result is luck for ourselves, for our prospects are that the Hawaiian Island crop now coming on will be the largest we ever had, and with a firm market this means money galore.

HALAWA CEMETERY.

The officials and others who are arranging for a cemetery site at Halawa this afternoon, should give very careful attention to the matter in all its bearings. A large number of people in town have a strong objection to the site, and there seem to be very good arguments against it. The plantation will be all around the site. The Japanese and Chinese camps are alongside, and the plantation railway crosses a portion of it. Then there is the further difficulty of water, and the fact that at certain seasons it will be impossible to reach the place by carriage. The site was also strongly opposed in the Legislature. The fact is the position of the cemetery would be inconvenient, and even if that could be overcome by railroad facilities, it is evidently not a quiet, retired spot, such as one would wish one's dead to lie in. Another thing should be found out, and that is would this site be available? It is a question that should be looked into carefully.

THE SENATORSHIP.

The candidates for the senatorship have failed, as yet, to materialize, and no meetings have been held for the purpose of nominating any one to the vacant seat, though there is every probability that there will be an effort made to discuss the matter either this evening or tomorrow. If our organic law before Congress at Washington is not passed at this session, it is highly probable that the Hawaiian senate may be called together by the executive to decide upon several important questions, and if that should be the case, the seat would be of value. It has been the doubt whether it would be worth while running for an empty honor which has kept the politicians from pushing the matter forward. But if it is going to be a position which will call for work upon the part of the incumbent, there is very little doubt but that a candidate can be found, and in all probability two candidates may crop up in the field.

At the present time the names of six gentlemen are talked of on the streets. Four of these have had legislative experience, and two would make their maiden effort in the house, though he has been closely connected with local politics for several years. The probability is that by tomorrow the political pot will begin to just gently simmer, and we may have a good boiling time by the day election arrives.

Timely Topics.

January 19, 1899.

The Saddles made by the old natives of the Hawaiian Islands were considered the best and most comfortable ever made. They have been eagerly sought after and there are very few now in existence. It is claimed that there are only two old natives now living who have the ability to make a perfectly comfortable saddle tree. One of these is on the island of Hawaii and the other on Kauai. Unfortunately they are too far advanced in years to do much work.

For a long time we have been making efforts to find a saddle that would nearly compare with the old Hawaiian Saddle, and we have struck it in an importation of

Mexican Saddles

They are almost an exact reproduction of the Hawaiian Saddle and are very handsomely stamped. The prices vary from $25 to $40 each and they are made to last a lifetime with proper care.

Every saddle has Box Stirrups and are complete in every particular.

Attention is also called to a line of

in Cotton and Manila. They have very handy snaps on the ends and are reasonable in price.

BIGELOW ON FILIPINOS

BELIEVES IN EXPANSION UNDER PROPER CONDITIONS.

Is Urgent That Good Government Be Administered by Intelligent Officials—Need Local Liberty.

In an interview with the London correspondent of the New York Herald, Poutney Bigelow, the well known writer and traveler, had this to say of the Philippines:

"We Americans have succeeded as colonists because we started as Englishmen about two hundred and fifty years ago, and if after that lapse of time we confess to the world that we cannot do a little more colonizing it is time we held an inquiry into the cause of our degeneracy."

"You ask me about our future management of the Philippines, and in answering I will have to incur the odium of being a jingo, although by education and taste I am a free trade Democrat. I believe in holding the Philippines, while conscious that we are repeating blunder upon blunder and will probably have a disastrous experience with the natives before we learn to live in peace with the subject races."

"Colonial government is a business, and the best business men are none too good for the job. England has learned to send her best business talent to the administration of her colonies and she succeeds."

"We have sent to conquer and administer the Philippines men with no business capacity, men who do not command the respect of average Americans at home, men who would make a failure of any commercial enterprise and who cannot, without miraculous intervention, succeed in making the American name respected in the Far East."

"The volunteers who are attempting to pacify that colony are splendid individual men, but the staff officers are not competent soldiers and in most cases owe their positions exclusively to political influence."

"If military success is to follow such leadership, then we had better abolish West Point and recruit our officers from Tammany Hall and kindred political schools."

"The Filipino is neither negro nor savage, but a man of acute Oriental perceptions, quick to recognize justice and power. He would welcome the British flag because propinquity to Hongkong has taught him that British administration means local self-government and liberty. He is suspicious of American rule because so far he has seen no evidence that the Stars and Stripes represent either good administration or the local independence he has a right to expect."

"He sees in our volunteers little more than stalwart day laborers, who have come with rather indefinite military political aims, and what he has seen of our officers and officials has not inspired him with any desire to surrender what little military advantages he possesses."

"This is a humiliating confession for an American to make, but we can expect no improvement until this is taken to heart."

"No relation with the Philippines can be successful until it means good American administration. We must guarantee the building of roads, railways and telegraph lines, the dredging of the rivers and harbors and in every other way develop the material resources of that country, as England does those of India. The Filipinos cannot do this. They have neither money nor organizing capacity, and as fast as we do this we shall command their respect and allegiance, for there is no missionary in the Far East comparable to the locomotive or the steam dredger."

"The Philippines are enormously rich and practically a wilderness. The so-called rebel leaders represent but a very small fringe of artificial civilization on the edges of a vast wilderness of natives, to whom the Spaniards, Americans and Aguinaldo's followers are matters of equal indifference."

"The strength of the rebels is considerable, but it is as nothing compared to the millions of natives who are to be the future wage earners of that rich country."

"The traveler in the Philippines is in a savage country within half a day's canoe paddling from Manila. The word 'savage,' however, has no reference to the inveterate hatred of work, characteristic of our red Indian or the helpless barbarism of the Kaffir."

"The native Filipino suggests strongly Japanese ancestry, and though 300 years of Spanish rule have not opened up more than one-tenth of the Philippines, there is no good reason why in the next generation those whom we now call 'savages' should not be worthy of a very liberal local franchise."

"There are two measures I consider of vital and immediate importance. First, that Manila be declared a free port in the fullest sense of the term, as, for instance, Hongkong and Singapore. Second, the Chinese should be encouraged to settle, for they are most excellent elements in the development of every eastern colony. To neglect them is to accept a heavy handicap."

THEY DON'T SMOKE.

One cigar manufacturer in Detroit, Mich., who employs girls, has estimated a saving in cigar consumption by employes in ten years, on the basis that male workers use three cigars daily.

A Tumor Formed

Finally It Broke Inwardly and Discharged

Trouble Began With Dyspepsia and Impure Blood

Thorough Course of Hood's Sarsaparilla Completely Cures.

There is danger in impure blood. Disease and suffering are surely coming to those who neglect this threatening symptom. Read this:

"Gilliam, Missouri.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:

"Gentlemen:—My troubles began with nervous headaches, which would last me for two or three days. The doctors pronounced my trouble dyspepsia, but they could not do anything for me, and advised a change of location. At the age of 55 a tumor formed on my spine, which but did not rise or discharge. The doctor thought best to cut it out, but I objected. It finally broke and discharged a great deal. The doctors said they could do nothing for it. Then the tumor began to rise inwardly and discharge. I read much about cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla and thought I would try it. Before I had finished taking one bottle I was much relieved. I continued the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and after taking 12 bottles I was entirely cured. I am now well, have a good appetite and feel that I owe my life to Hood's Sarsaparilla." W. D. FORD.

Hawaiian Electric Company.

The cleanest, brightest and really the longest run, the cheapest and best light for use in the family residence, is the incandescent electric light. Safe; nothing could be safer. A few days ago a prominent gentleman of Honolulu came rushing down to the office of the Electric Company and said: "Give me figures for wiring my house, and I want it done at once; no more lamps for me. Last night a lamp tipped over and it came near setting fire to the house and burning my children and I take no more risks." This is the sentiment of quite a number in the past few weeks, who have ordered their houses fitted with the perfect light. Don't think it over and make up your mind that you want the best and safest light; send for the Hawaiian Electric Company and tell them what you want.

WORLD'S STOCK OF GOLD

HAS INCREASED 40 PER CENT IN SEVEN YEARS.

Forecast of the Report of Director Leach of the United States Mint—World Wide Statistics.

An increase of nearly 40 per cent in the world's stock of gold money during the last seven years will be indicated in the forthcoming report of the director of the mint. A table was prepared by Director Leach in 1893 showing the ascertained and estimated stock of money in all the countries of the world. This table has been rectified from year to year by information obtained from United States ministers and consuls, and from economic journals, until now it is believed to be as near as possible to the exact facts. Whatever errors may have been made in the original calculations, there is no doubt in the increase of the supply of gold money within the five years, because the figures are based chiefly upon the recorded production of gold and the coinage of the mints.

The world's production of gold since the discovery of America has been about $9,000,000,000. Only about half of this is in use as money in the form of gold coin or gold bars. The stock of gold money in the world at the beginning of the year 1893 was computed by the mint bureau at $2,419,500,000. The production since that time has been about $1,400,000,000. This would have increased the gold money at the close of the present year to $3,819,500,000. All the gold produced had been employed as money. There is reason to believe however that the figures of the gold supply made by the mint bureau in 1893 were below the mark. More complete returns were received from several leading countries in the following years, and the estimate of the gold money of the world was advanced on January 1, 1895, to $4,956,800,000. The increase in four years since that time has been about $560,000,000, and will raise the gold money of the world to $5,516,800,000 at the beginning of the new year, upon the basis of the estimate of 1895. This result is obtained by allowing a consumption of $60,000,000 each year in the arts from the new stock of the year or from the existing stock of money. The whole production of gold for the four years has been about $900,000,000, leaving $560,000,000 to be added to the monetary stock.

CIRCUIT TERM CASES.

Batch of Business Disposed of During a Day's Session.

The circuit court continuing its session with Judge Stanley on the bench disposed of the following cases today: John Kaulukou, larceny second degree, trial, found not guilty and discharged.

Pika and Kaulikou, nol. prosequi entered. Charge, assault and battery. Gen. Kalama, assault and battery, pleaded guilty and sentenced to three months imprisonment at hard labor. Henry Hickey, opium, moved on calendar and set for hearing on the 9th. Ah Pook, truancy, dismissed. Ah Tin, opium, bail forfeited. Chin Kit, opium, set for Thursday. Tasaka, deadly weapon. Ah Guim, opium, and Misima Kurakichi, assault with dangerous weapon, placed on the calendar.

Of chamber matters the following were disposed of: M. S. Sanders applied for letters of administration of the estate of the late Marie J. Sanders. The property consists of $600 in the Postal Savings bank. The only heir is Elsie M. Sanders, a daughter.

In the matter of K. Lazarus vs. Alexander Lazarus, bill to assert a dower, plaintiff has filed a general denial to the defendant noted two days ago. The case of H. Pillipi vs. Lolekua, et al., has been discontinued by the plaintiff.

UPS AND DOWNS IN JAPAN.

The vicissitudes of fortune are now and then clearly illustrated in Japan, says Ernest W. Clement of Tokyo. For more than 250 years the Tokugawa family furnished the shoguns (tycoons) or generalissimos, who were the real rulers of the empire. In the name, of course, of a puppet emperor. It was the shogun who had the daring to receive from Commodore Perry the letter of President Fillmore to the emperor, and afterward, without even asking imperial permission or sanction to sign treaties with foreign nations. All power and fortune were in the very hands of the Tokugawa family. But only the other day appeared a notice in a vernacular paper that Count Atsumori Tokugawa had been compelled to sell all his property by auction to satisfy his creditors. It is also a very common occurrence these days to find an old samurai—one of that favored class who toiled not, neither did they spin, but devoted themselves only to learning and warfare—in the person of cook in a foreign family.

SENATORIAL ELECTION.

Four Days More in Which Candidates May Qualify.

Next Monday, the 13th, will be the last day for candidates for the chair of Ex-Senator Schmidt to declare themselves and qualify. Senator Holstein of Hawaii has also sent in his resignation. The president has refused to accept it, however, for the reason that the government does not wish to go to the expense of still another special election.

DEPARTMENT REPORTS.

The contract for printing the Interior Department and Land Office reports has been let to the Hawaiian Gazette Company. The figures were: Plain matter and figures, 80 cents a page; figures and rules, $1.20 per page.

THE WILLCOTT REGISTRY

CHARTERERS AND OWNERS ARE ON THEIR GUARD.

Colonel George W. Macfarlane Rec'd. Several Interesting Letters on the Subject from His Attorney.

While personally the most amicable relations exist between the charterers and the owner and the master of the bark Willcott, the interests hinging on the question of registry are so large and important that each side is taking the utmost care to keep its record straight," as the lawyers say. To the notification of the charterers that they would not load while the question of registry was unsettled, Captain Peabody has made formal reply alleging that there is no change in the status of the registry of the vessel since she was chartered; that she had temporary Hawaiian registry at the time she was chartered and that she has it yet, and that he will hold them to the terms of the charter party.

Colonel Macfarlane, the owner of the Willcott, has received several letters on the subject from his San Francisco attorney, in one of which he says: "On the passage of the Newlands resolution our congress provided that shipping laws should remain unaltered and they are today unaltered, and will be until a new law is applied by the bill now pending in the senate."

In another letter the attorney says: "There is some talk that the senate bill will be amended so as to allow all vessels to come in up to January 1st, but I am not so much concerned about this as I am that no complications should arise through your court's decision being adverse. If the Hawaiian flag can only be got, I believe then, if the American navigation law is not favorably passed, you can sue in the courts here for your constitutional rights and you would have a good case. For if a Hawaiian subject becomes an American citizen, I cannot understand the right to deny his property to come in with him."

THE COLD TUB.

Many people who have, as they say, been "always accustomed" to take a cold tub every morning, continue the habit long after it had better have been given up. They do this partly because it is a habit, and partly because they dislike the confession that they are getting old, which seems to be involved in giving up the custom of their more youthful days. But we are quite clear that unless good reaction very quickly follows a cold bath, and follows it without much "toweling," such tubbing is very often injurious. Whenever a man has to "rub himself warm," or when he finds that he is not right again until after breakfast, he may feel sure that his tub is doing him harm, and that he would do better to take a warm bath, finishing off with a rapid sponge over with cold water. "For the young, vigorous and newly arrived youth in the tropics the cold bath may be indulged in with impunity, and it may be with benefit, but as years lapse the tropical resident calls for bath water warmer and still warmer, until he finds that he has best health only when the water of his bath is not below the temperature of his body." And it is the same in temperate climates. On the one hand, the anemia of the tropic renders a man more susceptible to cold; but, on the other hand, the arterial rigidity which in temperate climates is so common an associate of advancing years, renders men peculiarly unable to bear that sudden displacement of blood, and that sudden rearrangement of the circulation, which is involved in getting into cold water.—Hospital.

THE BIGGEST SKY ROCKET.

At the reception of the French ambassador by the king of Siam the fireworks displayed at night were of the grandest description. The sky rockets were as large as hogsheds, and a proportionate length. These mounted to the airy regions and cast an eerie light as to illuminate the country for six leagues round, as if the sun had been shining at noonday. Perhaps the most extraordinary feat was when the inventor of the fireworks seated himself on the end of one of these rockets and then ordered it to be fired. He was immediately whisked up into the air, higher than any four church steeples in the world placed one upon the other. The rocket, having at last exhausted its strength, now began to descend, and as it fell it was luminous with the many stars that broke from it at every moment. The engineer now coolly opened out a sort of umbrella he had carried along with him, which, when extended, was little less than 30 feet in diameter. This instrument was made of feathers and so light that the air assisted in supporting it without any trouble. The engineer was thus partly supported by this great umbrella, and came to the ground surrounded with stars as gently as if he had wings, and could have flown with them.

AFTER THE SURRENDER.

A story concerning the American troops in Manila is told by an English naval officer, says the London Pall Mall Gazette, who was an eye witness to the occurrence. "The city was quite crowded," he says, "with both American and Spanish soldiers, and they all seemed to be on the friendliest terms. As I was crossing one of the numerous bridges across the Pasig river, I saw a native Filipino spit in the face of a Spanish officer, and then run to the American sentinel who was guarding the bridge, demanding his protection. It was some time before the Filipino could make himself understood, and the sentry took some time to grasp what had been done, but you can imagine my surprise when he handed his gun to the Spanish officer and caught the native by the nape of his neck and the seat of his trousers and pitched him off the bridge into the river. Then he calmly took his gun from the Spanish officer and began pacing his beat as if nothing had happened. The American soldier may not be so military as his brother of Europe, but he is made of the right stuff.

"ALLS WELL."

The old custom of watchmen calling the hour at night is still retained in two localities of London, namely, at New Inn and Ely Place.

The case of Joe Kalama, the man whose back ran over the soldier Saturday, has gone over in the police court to next Tuesday.

De Shaw's condition is improving every day. It is expected that he will be about, with the aid of crutches, in about three weeks' time.

The Chamber of Commerce requests business houses to close at 1 p. m. tomorrow, during the funeral of the late Judge H. A. Widemann.

Dan Houghtaling was acquitted by a native jury yesterday afternoon of the charge of selling liquor without a license, three dissenting.

The Honolulu Drug Company will save free soda tomorrow at their King street store in the 'Yon Holt' block. Everyone invited to call.

The Nuuanu stream rose about two feet yesterday, but there was no freshet. Today there is only a small current running under the second bridge.

The new Catholic church at Marquessville, Punahou, which has been built through the efforts of Father Clement, will be dedicated next Sunday.

Three members of the Kansas regiment left in hospitals here will leave by the Valencia for the Presidio at San Francisco, where they will await orders.

The bar, as a body, has arranged to send a special floral tribute to the funeral of the late Judge Widemann. It will probably be in the form of a handsome cross.

The housewives are doing their own cooking this evening and will have to stick to it till Saturday evening. Those who have Japanese cooks get the best of it just now.

The police court session this morning lasted only a few minutes. Judge Wilcox was subpoenaed to appear as a witness in the Roche-Dickey damage suit in the circuit court.

On account of the inability of the police to find one of the jurymen, the coroner's investigation in the killing of Private Harrington by a hawk last Saturday has gone over to Friday.

The pall bearers for the funeral of the late Judge Widemann have not yet been selected, because it was desired to communicate with some old friends of the deceased on Kauai. The steamer tomorrow morning will bring word from them.

GLASS HOUSES. We have all heard of glass houses, but no one has as yet seen dwellings made entirely of the material. Now, however, an important evolution in architecture is at hand, for architects are beginning to realize the enormous possibilities of glass as a building material.

Its decorative qualities have long been recognized, and it has been used instead of wood and iron in many purposes of house decoration. New inventions have made the glass house a possibility. The latest is a material called "ceramocrystal" or glass stone.

Its resisting power is said to be far greater than that of granite and it is not so brittle as ordinary glass. At the Paris exposition is to be exhibited a building called "The Luminous Palace," which will be raised in honor of the electric light and the architect is building it entirely of glass. The decorations will be exceedingly elaborate, and the rule of using nothing but the glass in its formation will be strictly adhered to.

EMPERESS OF AUSTRIA. A life of the late Empress of Austria is to be published. The writer is A. de Burgh, who has collected a great deal of material for such a volume.

After the death of the empress he set to work on the book, which gossips of her as the sportswoman, the traveler, the student, the philanthropist and the recluse.
