LICENSE MONEY IS BIG SUM

NO ACTUAL LICENSES HAVE YET BEEN ISSUED TO DEALERS IN LIQUOR.

The returns for the first installment of liquor licenses have been compiled at the territorial treasurer's office. Sixty-six licenses were issued and the total amount of money paid into the treasury was $27,230. No actual license certificates have been issued yet, to the holders of such privileges. Their money has been taken however, and special receipts have been given. The actual form of license will be issued next week. All of this money has been taken in since July 1, when the new period opened.

In addition to this sum from liquor licenses, about $20,000 has been paid

MAKING TEST OF NEW LIQUOR LAW

PROCEEDINGS NEXT WEEK TO ASCERTAIN HOW FAR COMMISSIONERS' DISCRETION EXTENDS.

Attorney A. V. Gear is busy preparing papers to file in the interest of certain saloons, to test the new liquor license law. It was proposed to file the papers this morning but later, the attorney decided that he would institute the proceedings next week. It is likely that Gear will be the first to institute proceedings to try and knock out or at least secure some definite construction on the discretionary powers that the liquor license commission insists upon exerting.

EARTHQUAKE FELT ON OTHER ISLANDS

HAWAII AND MAUI BOTH EXPERIENCED LAST NIGHT'S SHOCK WHICH WAS AS SEVERE HERE AS FELT FOR A LONG TIME. KILAUEA'S ACTIVITY HAS FURTHER INCREASED.

(Wireless to The Star.)
HILO, July 6.—There is more activity in the crater of Kilauea and a number of people are going tonight to see it.

A slight earthquake was felt here just before midnight.

The earthquake shock felt in Honolulu just before midnight at about 11:45 last night appears to have been general throughout the group, in which respect it is somewhat unusual. In Honolulu while not severe, it was felt by a large number of people, and light sleepers were awakened by it. To many there appeared to be two shocks, the second harder than the first.

The shock here was probably about as severe as one has been felt for many years, though at that it was un-

STOWAWAYS ARE FREE

An order came from Washington today, from the Department of Commerce and Labor, to release all the 72 stowaways on the Kumeric and allow them to land, excepting 6 criminals classed as "undesirable citizens."

They were all immediately allowed to land and are now free on shore, including the five-year old boy who stowed away to join his father here.

The order is a complete reversal of previous orders by the department. It was just in time to stop habeas corpus proceedings in behalf of the stowaways, in the federal court.

VICTORS RETURN FORTY-SEVEN PASS EXAMINATIONS

The Chinese baseball team and the Honolulu soccer team, which went to Hilo and "did up" the Hiloites on the Fourth of July, returned this morning on the Kinau, happy over their victories. Honolulu To San Francisco In A Little Over Two Days

It is predicted that within twenty years a speed of 40 miles an hour will be common in ocean travel. The ship to do this will be 1,200 feet long, will have 60 boilers and 12 smoke-stacks and will cost $17,000,000 to build. The engines will be of 170,000 horse-power and 6,700 passengers may be carried. Plans have been drawn and a vessel of this type is being seriously considered by several companies.

STILL AFTER PEARL HARBOR NAVAL SITES

UNITED STATES BEGINS A SUIT TO GET OVER FOUR HUNDRED ACRES MORE.

More condemnation proceedings to secure land for the navy yard and fortifications at Pearl Harbor have been instituted by the United States government. This morning U. S. Marshal Hendry was busy serving subpoenas on a number of well known people and institutions who are made defendants in the case.

The suit is to obtain possession of the Queen Emma Ahupuaa of Hala-lua, at Puuloa, Pearl Harbor. The land containing 411.6 acres and the fishery rights as well containing 685 acres, are desired. The value set on the land is $28,285 and on the fishery, $7,500. The following are made defendants: Miss Lucy Peabody, Grace Kahoalii, Protestant Episcopal Church in the Hawaiian Islands, St. Andrews Priory, Bishop Rectorick, Sister Beatrice, Sister Albertina, the Queen's Hospital and Bruce Cartwright, administrator and trustee of the estate of the late Queen Emma, and S. M. Damon and Mrs. Damon.

There was practically nothing doing in the courts this morning. Judge Robinson granted a divorce to Maliana K. Needham from William Needham, on the grounds of desertion. Carlos A. Long administrator of the estate of Flora J. Levey, filed his final accounts and petition for discharge. He charged himself with $1,705.45 and asked to be credited with $114.58. The case was set for hearing July 19.

FLEET CAN BE COALED IN HONOLULU

THE TASK TO BE MET IF THE EIGHTEEN OR TWENTY BATTLESHIPS COME HERE.

The prospect of eighteen or twenty big United States battleships visiting Honolulu during the Pacific cruise within a year does not find the local United States Naval Station unprepared.

The first thing wanted by the fleet on arrival would be coal and there are at present sixteen thousand tons of coal in the Hawaiian Naval Station reserve, most of which fuel is under the big sheds at the station.

If the drays and men and wharves and barges were available the eighteen, first-class battleships could be coaled here between breakfast and dinner time.

According to present facilities, however, about two thousand tons of coal per day would be about the limit of coaling. Each vessel would require about 800 tons of fuel. Eight hundred tons of coal were put aboard the British cruiser Monmouth on July 2 between 1 o'clock and 11 o'clock p. m.

When the American Asiatic fleet was here the Wisconsin and the Kentucky were each given 1,205 tons between 7 a. m. and 4 p. m. and the Oregon, the "Bull Dog of the Navy" was given 1,400 tons in 12 hours, fast coaling.

With eighteen battleships here, four would probably dock at the naval wharves, one across the end of No. 1, and four would take positions in the stream, ten lying off port. As soon as the four at the wharves were coaled they would move outside the harbor and the four in the stream would come to the docks while their places in the stream would be taken by an equal number from the balance of the fleet outside the harbor. In this way the entire fleet would be coaled, on an average of 800 tons per vessel, in a week, or in three and a half days, working day and night.

Eighteen vessels taking on an average of 800 tons of coal each would take 14,400 tons, nearly as much as there is now on hand.

It is probable that three cargoes of 5,000 tons each in addition to regular contracts, will arrive here before the fleet so that the coal taken by the fleet will not leave the Naval Station short. Battleships from the Atlantic would travel to the Pacific with colliers ahead

KUMERIC JAPANESE HAVE CASH

NO DIFFICULTY AS TO LANDING AT VANCOUVER ANTICIPATED—SAILING NOT SET.

The day of the departure of the S. S. Kumeric for Vancouver is still undetermined, but Charles Chillingworth believes that it will be sometime next week. About 1200 Japanese will be taken.

Chillingworth states that there will be no difficulty in regard to the admission of the Japs at Vancouver as far as their being possessed of $25 per capita is concerned. Some of them are going up with as much as $600.

It is believed that the examination by a doctor of each prospective emigrant before leaving here will be satisfactory to the Vancouver authorities.

Chillingworth says that he expects to have the Kumeric leave on Monday. "We shall begin putting them aboard at one o'clock today," he said this morning, "and hope to be ready to clear the steamer when the custom house opens on Monday."

"The press cable from Vancouver, stating that the government would enforce its law requiring each immigrant to be able to show $25 before landing, is nothing new to us. We have known about it all along, and the Japanese are prepared."

This afternoon Chillingworth received a cablegram from Vancouver to the effect that a private medical examination of the emigrating Japanese would be satisfactory to Vancouver.

The Kumeric now expects to sail Wednesday morning next.

and behind and would coal at sea. At Coronel the fleet would coal again and the colliers would fill up.

In the event of there being any need of hurry in coaling here private wharves would be used and, in any event, all the fleet would not necessarily have to dock to take on coal.

JAPANESE FIGHTS FOR CITIZENSHIP

SEATTLE, (Wash.), June 23.—H. Heyano, a Japanese, granted his first naturalization papers in Las Animas county, Colorado, April 18, 1894, has commenced a test fight to secure a judicial determination of the rights of Japanese to become citizens. He applied first to County Clerk Case in the Superior Court for his final papers and was promptly refused. Within half an hour the clerk of the United States District Court also turned down his appeal to entertain his application for citizenship. Heyano expected to be turned down and was ready to make a test case of the refusal to admit him to citizenship.

Local court officials have been advised that a similar case has been appealed from Los Angeles, but the Seattle Japanese have an idea that they must make an independent fight.

And many a man would talk less about justice if there was a remote possibility of his getting it.

BUSINESS OF THE THREE LOCAL COURTS

JUDGES DE BOLT, ROBINSON AND LINDSAY HAVE CONSIDERABLE WORK.

A petition for a writ of mandamus against Land Commissioner Jas. W. Pratt has been filed in Judge Robinson's court. The petition is in behalf of F. R. Lucweiko. It seeks to force Pratt to sign the receipt of Lucweiko for $1,500 damages awarded him by the legislature. This appropriation has been hung up by order of Governor Carter. T. M. Harrison is representing Lucweiko. This was one of the last matters that the late Judge Geo. D. Gear had to discuss with the Attorney General's department.

The first annual account of W. O. Smith, guardian of Simeon Kapona, has been filed. Simeon is worth about $500 left to him in a legacy.

W. O. Smith, as guardian of Miss Lucy K. Richardson, yesterday filed his final account in Judge Robinson's court. The young lady who attends St. Andrew's school, is very pretty and was present in court. Her estate is worth in the neighborhood of $1700.

Kaonohi Keamolihi was yesterday granted a divorce from Keamolihi on the grounds of desertion.

Judge Robinson heard additional testimony yesterday in the foreclosure case of J. W. Leonhardt vs. Amoy Silva, et al. The case was ordered reopened some days ago.

Judge De Bolt yesterday filed an order of default against defendant in the suit brought by Lewers & Cooke against Stalnaker, defendant, and J. H. Fisher, garnishee. The plaintiff seeks to recover $550.97.

Judge Lindsay yesterday gave a decision in the action brought by F. W. Hayselden, administrator with the will annexed, and trustee of the estate of the late W. M. Gibson against W. H. Pain and Mrs. Elise S. V. Neumann, executrix of the estate of the late Paul Neumann. The suit was originally brought for an accounting of the affairs of the defunct Lanai Ranch Co. A commissioner was appointed to take testimony. The master made an extensive report. Both sides filed exceptions to the master's report and the decision was on those exceptions. The court overruled the exceptions and ordered the master's report approved.

POOR FORECAST.
"What's the book, Louie?" asked George James of Louis Levy at the Olympic Club.

"Copy of 'Burns' Works"
"Has Burns got out a book already? He ought to have waited and told how he cornered the big ones here in this town."
"Cornered nothing" interposed Frank O'Kane. "Why, the first time he makes a move to corner Squires, biffo! To his own corner with Burns! Look at the dope: Squires twenty-four fights, twenty of 'em clean knockouts, all inside of five rounds except two, and one of 'em in seven and other in eleven, two decisions inside of three rounds, and two wins London prize ring rules—one in three and other in fifteen rounds; squires ought to write a book"—S. F. Chronicle.

The public is cordially invited to attend any or all of these services.

A SOLDIER'S EXPERIENCE.

Many a soldier in the late war has cause to remember Mr. J. Dutoit Boning, an officer in the Free State Artillery, who is now manager for the store of A. Isaacman & Co., of Braintree, O. R. C. His endeavor to check the ravages of dysentery which was so prevalent in the war camps brought relief to many suffering men. He says: "I cured dozens of cases of Diarrhoea and Dysentery during the war out here with Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I never knew it to fail if used according to directions. I always keep it in the house and use it in my own family with perfect satisfaction." Sold by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., agents for Hawaii.

A Plan Worth Keeping Up

A second party of Congressmen returned to Honolulu today after a tour of Maui and Hawaii, and their expressions show that they have received the same impressions of great possibilities of development of the group as did the visitors who left us a few weeks ago. They appear to be a unit in favoring immediate work on great naval and military stations which will make Honolulu a big city independently of her present increasing commercial importance and which, in the opinion of Dr. Bishop, will call for use of a lot of Oahu land now used for sugar cane, for "small farming," in order to produce fresh supplies for the city's needs. All the visitors are agreed also regarding the need of harbor improvements here and in Hilo. In their travels over the largest island they were deeply impressed with the agricultural possibilities.

Thanks to these visits the debates in Congress over Hawaiian affairs will be much more intelligent and more friendly. During the last session one of the members of the party of Congressmen here a few weeks ago referred to Hilo, during the discussion of the breakwater appropriation, as "a place on one of the smaller islands." Similar mistakes have been constant, and quite natural. Of course the members of Congress who have visited here have their own fights to make in Congress and cannot make ours for us, but they will constitute a large element ready and able to properly inform others.

Apart from the business side of the visits, the Congressmen appear to have enjoyed themselves and to feel that the sights they have seen were worth the trip. We hope to see summer visits to Hawaii from Congressmen become the popular thing, for in addition to the help they will be to Hawaii in Congress, they furnish the best possible means of spreading among the right kind of people information regarding our tourists attractions.

Earthquakes And The Mob

The "unwhipped mob" of San Francisco, largely a product of the old sand-lot agitation and of labor union tyranny, yesterday beat a man to death for riding on a street car. This atrocity was on account of "sympathy" with a lot of employees who struck in violation of the terms of an agreement reached only a year ago, by which they won a victory in arbitration. It is hoped that the news was cabled to Tokio, so that the excitable Japanese may learn that no race prejudice is needed to cause much worse outrages in San Francisco than any which have been committed against Japanese. Such a deed as the murder of this unfortunate citizen justifies General Funston's term,—"the as-yet unwhipped mob."

It is altogether likely that much of even the present trouble in San Francisco is partly an effect of the great earthquake and fire, and those shocks which have followed. From time to time cases are reported in various places of persons whose nervous systems are still broken down as a result of the strain of their earthquake experience. At the present time San Francisco is constantly having serious shocks. All this means a nervous strain which may well find expression in reckless violence on the part of the mob. In times of great excitement and danger, the mob always tends to violence and recklessness. Add the graft revelations, showing government itself an utter failure, and the conditions for unusual lawlessness are certainly present. Unless the citizens who are carrying on the fight for a new and clean government can soon provide San Francisco with an honest and competent police force, the federal government will yet have to take hold and rule under martial law. The reluctance of the government to do so is a remarkable illustration of the American devotion to the idea of local self-government,—to the last limit San Francisco is left to struggle through her own problems. But General Funston may yet have to whip the mob.

Japanese As Citizens

The question of whether Japanese would make desirable American citizens is being a good deal discussed on the Mainland. As against the view held by many people in these islands, that very few of the Japanese have any wish to renounce their allegiance to the Emperor, the following statements by K. K. Kawakami, in the North American Review, are of much interest. "It has been asserted that the Mikado's subject is so irrevocably wedded to his native country that he will never become attached to his adopted country—an assertion with which Senator Perkins and Representative Kahn in particular have lately taken pains to impress Americans. To such a generalization as this, the Japanese in America have but one reply to offer: 'Only give us the rights of American citizenship, and you will see what sort of citizens we shall make.' What more, indeed, can they say, when they have never been given an opportunity to prove their fidelity to the Republic? No immigrant, unless he be from a degenerate state, enters the threshold of a foreign land without at first cherishing some sense of pride in his own country—without, indeed, the determination that he shall never permit anything to obliterate his love for his fatherland. With all his intense patriotism and his deep love for the Land of the Rising Sun, the Mikado's subject is, after all, not unlike the subject of the Kaiser, who, emigrating to the United States, becomes in a few years an enthusiastic admirer of his new country, ready to defend everything American. It is unfair and unmanly to close to him the door to Americanization, and declare that the son of Nippon is inherently incapable of becoming a faithful member of the Republic."

Indian Outlook For Trouble

The constant reports of spreading unrest in India,—repeated today—indicate the approach of serious trouble in that part of the British empire. The conditions there, under which millions of natives are ruled by a mere handful of British, do not seem to be such as can possibly last in the present age of general education. The very policy of British statesmen themselves, as outlined by Lord Curzon and others, looks to education of the masses and improvement of their moral and religious ideals. This leads to rebellion. At the present time the news of Japanese victory over Russia is declared to be slowly sinking deeper into the minds of the countless millions of India and impressing them with the idea that the invinc-

FERREIRA BARRED.
WAILUKU, July 6.—The Maui Racing Association celebrated the Fourth by holding its Twenty-first annual meet at Spreckels Park, in Kahului. The races were carried through with a snap, and the crowd was large and good natured. Good humor prevailed throughout the day.
The only unfortunate incident of the day was in the sixth race when Jockey Domingo Ferreira on Lau Lilihi fouled Euradius. Although Lau Lilihi crossed the line first, the race was awarded to Euradius. Jockey Ferreira was ruled off the track, but not his mount. The decision in this race was received with favor by all, especially the Association, who aim to have all at their races fair and above board.

bility of the white race is all a dream. There are those who think that if Japan had ever met a real united Russia, with an army and navy free from corruption and royal favorites in high places, as they would eventually have been had war gone on, the result would have been different, but the great patent fact is that Russia lost all along the line. Great Britain herself, while holding the reins of Indian government very firmly, is making every effort to educate the people she is ruling to a point where submission is unlikely.
It seems to be the modern way. The United States in the Philippines first sent an army of soldiers and then an army of teachers, and the final result is supposed to be a population of Filipinos intelligent enough to govern themselves and demanding self-government. In South Africa the British first conquered the Boers and then turned the country over to them so that they were able to elect one of their generals premier and give him a Boer majority in the lawmaking body of the colony. There seems to be a friendly union resulting, but a union of Boers and British is not like one of British and Hindus.
Admiral Evans is a tough old sea dog. Those who saw him here with the Asiatic squadron in 1903 thought he seemed to be on his last legs. The admiral certainly looked sick and feeble. But since then he has been through all sorts of service, and now it is reported that he will be here with the fleet soon to come.
The renewed outbreak of Kilauea, reported in The Star yesterday, was followed by an earthquake which was general throughout the group, except possibly on Kauai, and today wireless reports are that Kilauea shows increasing activity. This is one more, added to many indications of the connection of Mauna Loa eruptions, Kilauea eruptions and earthquakes in the islands, pointing to a common source for all and confirming the idea that the volcano is a safety valve.

STOPPED "MIKADO" FOR PRINCE FUSHIMI

HONOLULU'S VISITOR OF THE WEEK IS THE MAN ON WHOSE ACCOUNT THE FAMOUS COMIC OPERA WAS SUPPRESSED IN LONDON—TREATED THE AFFAIR AS A JOKE AND WANTED TO SEE THE OPERA.

Prince Fushimi, who left here Wednesday, is the personage whose visit to London a couple of months ago caused the Lord Chamberlain to suppress a contemplated production of "The Mikado," the famous comic opera dealing with the Japanese ruler. An Argonaut correspondent describes the incident as follows:

Never in the life of the theatrical world has there been such a situation as that created by the Lord Chamberlain when he placed his ban upon "The Mikado," and it is probable that at this moment the great dignitary in question is the only one who does not share in the ripple of indignant amusement that has added to the hilarity of nations.

Of course, the explanation is simple enough. England was preparing to extend her hospitality to Prince Fushimi of the imperial family of Japan, and the illustrious stranger might have resented a play so lacking in reverence for the royal house of his country. Prince Fushimi is the Mikado's cousin. Besides the family of Mutsuhito, the emperor, there are thirteen other great Japanese families, and that of Fushimi is the first among them. Japan is Great Britain's ally, and to offend so great an aristocrat might react upon diplomatic relations. This Lord Chamberlain, having only a phrenological cavity where there should be the bump of humor, forbade the play, and in so doing he surprised the Japanese prince quite as much as any one else. Fushimi, being a diplomat and a guest, laughed in private, and he no doubt promptly bought a "book of the words," and then laughed some more.

Of course, the ban was ineffectual. The comic opera was produced in Sheffield and in Leeds, and immense audiences were the only result of the Lord Chamberlain's thunderbolts. The great crowds that thronged the theaters seemed half disposed to believe that fire would fall from heaven to consume those who were daring enough to ignore the ban, but, as in the case of the Jackdaw of Rheims, who was cursed with bell, obol, and candle, "no one seemed a penny the worse." The Lord Chamberlain was funnier than the great Poo Bah himself, and a new zest was added to a delightful comedy.

The Home Secretary—unlucky wight—had to bear the brunt of the situation in the House of Commons. The Home Secretary is Mr. Herbert Gladstone, and he was faced with a series of questions that had to be seriously answered in the face of a legislative hilarity in which he must have been tempted to join. Mr. Gladstone kept his temper with admirable patience. He knew nothing more than the fact that the play had been banned, but the Lord Chamberlain had informed him that the prohibition might be withdrawn if suitable alterations were made in the text. Then the Secretary to the Admiralty was gently placed on the grill, and he confessed that the "Mikado" music had been forbidden to all naval and marine bands during the visit of Prince Fushimi, and he went so far as to say that the decision would not be reconsidered.

At the time of the injunction "The Mikado" was billed in three cities, Sheffield, Leeds, and Middlesbrough. Sheffield and Leeds took no notice of the Lord Chamberlain except to laugh at him, but Middlesbrough was not so daring.

In the meantime, Prince Fushimi and his staff are keenly anxious to see an opera that has produced so much discussion. The whole country is the Japanese visitors are laughing with it.

ANOTHER TERM FOR THE BIG STICK

LAWSON SAYS THAT ROOSEVELT WILL BE RENOMINATED AND RE-ELECTED.

NEW YORK, June 23.—Thomas W. Lawson of Boston, who has been motoring through Europe, came back on the Celtic yesterday, brown and chipper though he had been in bed on shipboard since Thursday with a cold. He said he saw nothing abroad or here indicating financial trouble. "Europeans regard this country as the most prosperous in the world," he said.

Of the next candidate of the Republican party for President, Lawson said: "Roosevelt will be nominated without doubt, and he will be elected. Fourteen months ago I made a bet of $10,000 with Maurice Untermyer, H. H. Rogers' lawyer, that Mr. Roosevelt would be nominated again. Mr. Untermyer betting that he would not be renominated. I don't care how strong a man Taft is, how big a man Root is, or what Fairbanks is doing; they have not got the nerve to flourish the big stick. It is the big stick that will do the work. The big stick is in the air and it wants somebody to wield it."

"From the personal standpoint Mr. Roosevelt would be a fool to accept the nomination, but he will accept it from a sense of duty and will be elected. Roosevelt has been advised, and he knows that he has now reached the highest point of prestige that he can ever reach. Notwithstanding all this, Roosevelt will be nominated and elected."

SORENSEN AND LYLE TO BUILD YACHT

READY TO GO AHEAD WITH HAWAII'S VESSEL FOR THE TRANS-PACIFIC RACE.

The Hawaii yacht for the transpacific race will probably be built by Sorensen and Lyle of this city. The committee in charge has not yet given any definite decision in the matter, but Sorensen and Lyle are going ahead with plans, and have announced their intention to build a yacht anyhow and take chances.

The firm's proposition to the committee includes a donation of about a thousand dollars to the yacht fund. The builders say they will go ahead with the construction of the vessel, money or no money, and will take chances of a fund being raised to pay for it. Under these circumstances, it is stated, the committee is disposed to make a deal with Sorensen and Lyle.

The privilege of naming the Hawaii yacht may be auctioned off, the highest bidder to give the vessel a name. This will help to swell the fund and may also provide an interesting auction. etting is Bligh on Mookheau as a name for the vessel.

Mr. W. B. Walby

Mr. Walby, of Ontario, Canada, a Victim of Bronchial Catarrh, Reports Himself Completely Cured In Three Weeks.

MR. W. B. WALBY, The Grand Union, Ottawa, Ontario, Canada, writes: "I have been taking Peruna for catarrh of the bronchial tubes for three weeks, and was truly surprised to find that it effected a complete cure. I had heard good reports of this medicine, but had never really known of it myself."

Catarrh of the bronchial tubes often very quickly becomes catarrh of the lungs. Catarrh of the lungs makes the patient an easy victim to the germs that cause tuberculosis. Sound lungs protect themselves against disease germs. Peruna has acquired a lasting reputation in relieving catarrh of the throat, bronchial tubes and lungs. This prevents the tubercular bacilli from gaining any foothold in the lungs, and saves the patient from the inevitable result.

Ask your druggist for a copy of our booklet, "The Ills of Life," giving instruction covering the most effective use of Peruna. Peruna is for sale by all chemists and druggists. The following wholesale druggists will supply the retail trade in Honolulu, Hawaii: Benson, Smith & Co., Honolulu Drug Co., and Hobron Drug Co.

THE NAVADAN MAY BE TAKEN OFF

SAN FRANCISCO REPORT THAT SHE MAY HAVE TO RESCUE THE MEXICAN.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 27.—On her first voyage, which began under exceptionally auspicious circumstances, the American-Hawaiian steamship Company's huge steamer Mexican lies in Magdalena bay, Lower California, helpless from lack of fuel. The Mexican is an oil burner, and has a cargo of 7,000 tons of freight aboard, which was transhipped across the isthmus of Tehuantepec. The Mexican was scheduled to arrive here on July 5th, but will be several days late.

Captain Nichols of the Mexican notified the owners in this city from a Mexican port that the steamer had run short of oil, and would be unable to steam further north than Magdalena bay, which is about 1,000 miles south of San Francisco. Captain Nichols asked that a fresh supply of oil be forwarded to the steamer at that place. Upon receipt of the telegram from the Mexican's captain yesterday morning arrangements were at once made to dispatch the steamer Nevada to Magdalena with several thousand barrels of oil, with which the Mexican's tanks will be replenished. In order to make this trip the Nevada will have to be taken off the Honolulu run.

SAY HILO WAS OUT FOR PETRIE

BRUNER'S JOCKEY WAS SPOILED BY HAVING TOO MUCH FUN BEFORE THE RACE.

They say that somebody handed it to L. Petrie at Hilo this week. Petrie went to Hilo last Fourth of July and is said to have made quite a killing. He won various races and his string of racers put him on the right side of the ledger. Hiloites paid their bets and said nothing. They waited until last Thursday.

Petrie went to Hilo with two horses, Bruner and Inuigo. Bruner, who is a good, game horse, was entered in the $1,000 stake race. Racine Murphy was another locally owned horse entered.

Lazelle, a horse that was brought from the Coast, was also in, and a fourth animal that did not even finish, was entered. The local horse owner took up a very clever native jockey to ride Bruner. But—so the story that came by the Kinau today goes—somebody got hold of the jockey after his arrival at Hilo and proceeded to give him a "good time." By the time that the "good time" was over, the jockey was in such shape that he could not ride Bruner. Whether this report be entirely correct, only those closely on the "inside" can say. In any event the jockey did not ride the horse and somebody who rode as if he had been the jockey on Barnum's famous horse with its head where its tail ought to be, was up. And Bruner came second. Lazelle first. And the story that came down by the Kinau today is that certain Hiloites say they got even with Petrie for last Fourth of July.

SOCIAL EVENTS OF THE WEEK

One of the prettiest weddings of the season was that of Miss Josephine de Lartigue to Mr. Albert N. Campbell, which occurred on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at St. Andrew's Cathedral. The affair was a very quiet one, no invitations having been sent out and no reception being held afterwards.

The bride was beautiful in a princess gown of white silk mull with lace yoke, and with bridal veil and orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Adele de Lartigue, as bridesmaid, who was dressed in light blue organdie and carried pink roses.

The ceremony was performed by Canon Mackintosh, the bride being given away by Bishop Restarick. The groom was accompanied by his brother, E. M. Campbell, as best man, while Messrs. Bruce Cartwright, William Williamson, Harold B. Giffard, and R. W. Shingle acted as ushers.

The bride is one of the most popular young society women of Honolulu, and has a host of friends. Mr. Campbell is treasurer of The Henry Waterhouse Trust Company, and a prominent young business man. The young people received a beautiful collection of glass and silver ware from their many friends as a token of their esteem.

After the ceremony the newly married pair were driven at once to the Giffard home on Tantalus, where they will spend their honeymoon. On their return they will take up their residence at 1216 Piikoi street.

The engagement of Miss Margaret Theresa McCarriston, of Molokai, and Mr. William E. Kerr, of Honolulu, has been learned with pleasure by the many friends of both of these popular young people. The bride to be is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McCarriston, and a niece of Judge McCarriston, of Molokai. Mr. Kerr is a member of the firm of L. B. Kerr & Co.

Society is looking forward with a good deal of interest to the visit of Hon. and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, of Ohio, to Honolulu. Mrs. Longworth was formerly Miss Alice Roosevelt, and was here during the very brief visit of the Taft party a year or two ago. Mr. Longworth being also one of the party. Recent advices from the Ohio Congressman states that he and his wife expect to sail the latter part of this month or early in August. It is understood that they will spend several weeks in Yellowstone Park before starting for the Islands. They will probably be here for a month or more.

LIVINGSTON (MON.), June 27.—Congressman Nicholas Longworth and his wife arrived early this morning for a two weeks' tour of the Yellowstone National Park. After the tour is made the couple will travel further west and will sail for Honolulu, where they will spend a month or two in a bungalow on Waikiki beach.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Phillips, of Winnipeg, Canada, who have been spending several weeks at the Hawaiian Hotel, are so much pleased with Honolulu that they propose to extend their visit to two months.

Owing to the numerous Fourth of July attractions in the city on the evening of the Fourth, the dance at the Seaside Hotel which had been arranged for was postponed until this evening. A feature of this affair which promises to be very pretty as well as novel, will be the fire canoes which will come in on the breakers midst a display of fireworks. A large crowd will doubtless be present.

Col. and Mrs. Johnson will take a cottage at the Seaside next week.

Several dances are projected for next week at the Seaside Hotel, subject to the arrival of the transport Logan from the Orient with troops of the Seventh Cavalry, and the Sherman from the Coast with the Thirtieth Infantry.

Mrs. Jack Spreckels and her two small babies are thoroughly enjoying life in San Rafael. The John D. Spreckels and the Walter Gibsons are at Coronado.—Chronicle.

The announcement that Mrs. Alice Roosevelt Longworth is to visit San Francisco in the near future has created something of a ripple across society's summer calm, which by the time of her arrival will probably have developed into a wave of events that will reach from San Francisco to Burlington. Whether or not she will be put through the same degree of social excitement that was planned for her on the occasion of her first appearance in San Francisco, and which would have sent into a rapid decline any one not of the Rooseveltian temperament, cannot be learned at the present time. That her reappearance will, however, be given due social recognition, seems assured from the amount of interest created by the news of her contemplated Western tour.

Mrs. Eleanor Martin, the hospitality of whose beautiful home was so magnificently extended to the President's daughter during her first sojourn in San Francisco, will in all probability again be one of her most lavish hostesses, and the visit of Mrs. Longworth promises to be the social event of the summer.—Chronicle.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Martin entertained with a little dinner at the Young Hotel on the evening of the Fourth in honor of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Heasand and Mr. and Mrs. C. Hammond, who are spending some time in the Territory, having extended their trip to attend the Shriners meeting in Los Angeles to include Honolulu. At the dinner were also Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Heilbron of this city.

The dinner was served in the private dining room and was a very pretty and well appointed one.

Polo enthusiasts were out in full force at the game on the Fourth. Many autos went down to witness the game which proved a very interesting one.

Counter attractions took a large number to the Country Club and crowds went to the sports and baseball games.

The beach was crowded all day and many surfing parties were out.

Mrs. S. G. Wilder entertained at a bridge luncheon last Monday for Mrs. Christian Conrad. Those invited to meet her were Mrs. Kiebahn, Miss Margaret Walker, Mrs. C. T. Wilder, Mrs. C. L. Wight, Mrs. R. C. L. Perkins and Mrs. A. M. Brown. Mrs. Conrad has been a guest of the Walkers up the valley.

One of the largest crowds that ever attended a dance at the Young Hotel, gathered on the roof garden of that popular hostelry on the night of the Fourth, and after watching the splendid fireworks display in the Capitol grounds, spent several hours in dancing in the pavilions. The music was unusually good, and the evening was much enjoyed.

Queen Liliuokalani, accompanied by Mrs. J. Aea, returned in the Claudine Wednesday morning from Lahaina, where she has been a guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Seong.

There will probably be a number of affairs in a social way given next week, in honor of the four United States congressional representatives who are visiting the Islands, and the several ladies in the party. The visitors returned to Honolulu today on the Kina after ten days spent on Maui and Hawaii, and will remain here until the latter part of next week when they will leave on the transport Sherman for a tour of the Orient. Besides a trip by automobiles around the island stopping at Haleiwa and Waihalae on Monday and Tuesday, it is expected that the party will attend a practice polo game on Wednesday afternoon.

On Thursday evening it is planned to give a public reception at the Moana Hotel in honor of the visitors, and on Friday evening an elaborate reception has been arranged for by Delegate and Princess Kalaiananole, at their Waikiki home. It is possible that a number of other private entertainments will be worked in also, and if the Sherman, which is scheduled to arrive on the 13th is delayed in sailing there may be others of informal character.

The party is made up of the following members: Hon. James McKinney, of Illinois; Hon. John M. Reynolds, of Pennsylvania; Hon. William W. Cocks, of Rhode Island district, New York; Hon. Edwin W. Higgins, of Connecticut. Mr. McKinney is accompanied by his wife, and Mr. Reynolds' daughter, Miss Judith Reynolds, and Miss Nellis, niece of Mr. Cocks, are also in the party.

C. Shiozawa, editor of the Hawaii Shippo, who went with his family to Japan some weeks ago to visit his aged mother, will sail from Yokohama for Honolulu on his return July 20, and will be here about the last of the month.

Among the returning passengers in the Hongkong Maru are Robert W. Irwin, Jr., and Richard Irwin, sons of the former Hawaiian Minister to Japan, and nephews of the late Admiral Irwin.

At the Davies' surfing party were the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Wilder Night will soon arrive from the East where he has been attending Harvard Law school.

HOW JAPANESE ARE COMING

NO LET UP IN THE IMMIGRATION FROM NIPPON TO THE UNITED STATES.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—Some of the Government officials are wondering whether, after all, Japan did not "wink the other eye" when she so cordially agreed to the insertion of that clause limiting immigration in the general bill relating to that subject. These officials are tempted to suspect that Japan was not entirely disingenuous when she agreed that the President would be empowered to turn away laborers, and that she is unblushingly conniving at the wholesale violation of the law.

Whether or not Japan is a party to the subtleties and evasions by means of which her subjects are coming to this country, it is a fact rather sadly admitted by the immigration officials that there is no suspicion of a let-up in the immigration. Indeed, it is a question whether this year will not mark the flood tide of Japanese immigration; for the Japanese are pouring into the country at almost every point of access, unless, perhaps, it may be by the gulf and Atlantic ports. They continue to come in at San Francisco, although many have been turned back. They simply swarm over the border between this country and Mexico, and they are beginning to find their way across the Canadian border in considerable numbers.

Probably the most popular method is to cross the Mexican border at points where the inspectors are not watching. The line is long and it is not feasible to plant guards along the entire boundary. When the little brown men are stopped at the regular points of entry and turned back, they go away, but later they either return with tickets to Canada or else they strike off for the border, and are lost to the sight of the immigration officials. The Canadian route is a popular one with the Japanese at present. The business of advancing money for getting these immigrants into the country should be a profitable one, for the postal and express officials say that the amount of money transmitted to border points has increased amazingly of late.

Since the President's proclamation made it more difficult to get into this country of high wages and golden opportunities, there have been twenty-one Japanese arrested on the Mexican border, and of these twenty-nine were deported to Japan and one to Mexico. This sort of reception made the Japanese take thought on the situation, and the result was that they began to present themselves with passports, which, however, were found defective, and they were turned back.

It was then that word went back to the oncoming hosts, who, on landing on Mexican soil, took tickets to points within 75 or 100 miles of the line and then struck off across the country. They have now a well-established "underground railroad" system, with regular routes punctuated with stopping places at ranches, where they can get food and shelter. Finally they fade across the border and are lost to sight, probably forever. Sometimes it may be that they are kept sight of, but most of them are doubtless safe from detection.

When the turned-back Japanese decides to try the railroad plan, he gets a through ticket to Canada and is allowed to proceed, but first the immigration officials take the number of his passport, his name and destination and the number of his train. Then word is sent to the Canadian authorities in the town he is supposed to be headed for, and word is also sent to Washington. At the latter place Commissioner General of Immigration Sargent will have the fact recorded if any of these immigrants in transit ever get to their destination. None of them is yet reported to have done so.

What the solution of this question will be no one is yet prepared to say, but the Department of Commerce and Labor is giving the matter deep thought, and it is intimated that pretty soon a plan will be put in force which will check the yellow hordes at the border.

SMALLER YACHTS TO RACE TOMORROW

FIRST CLASS BOATS WILL ALSO COVER SAME COURSE—BIG DAY AT PEARL HARBOR.

Much interest is being taken in yachting circles in the race which is to be sailed tomorrow by the second class boats of the Hawaii Yacht Club, over the 28-mile course at Pearl Harbor. The race will start promptly at 10 o'clock from off the Club's house on the Peninsula, and it is desired that all the members be on hand to make the affair an imposing one. The race is the annual event for the Commodore's cup.

Nine fast little yachts have been entered for the race. They are: Maloie, Gustav Schaefer; Skip, James Jaeger; Myrtle, Rey Rietow; Maggie, Walter Macfarlane; Olo, E. A. Mott-Smith; Princess, D. K. Kalaiananole; Vicky, Sam Parker; Scamp, Albert Waterhouse; Unknown, Kenneth Brown.

It was decided this week to have a race of the first class boats over the same course, to start immediately after the smaller boats have gotten away. This will be interesting, inasmuch as the course is such as to test a boat in every kind of sailing.

After the races are over, a chowder will be served in the Club House, at which time the presentation of the Governor's cup to Captain Scott of the Kamehameha, winner in the recent around the island race, will be made, as will also the Commodore's cup to the winner of tomorrow's race.

POLO NEXT WEEK.

There will be a practice game of polo played at the Moanalua grounds on next Wednesday, at which time it is expected that the visiting congressmen will be guests of the club and witness the play.

CRICKET TODAY.

A practice game of cricket is being played this afternoon on the Makiki grounds. The Honolulu Cricket Club is working to get into shape for a game to be played with the team of the Cable ship Restorer on next Saturday.

SAILORS WATCH A THRASHER AND A WHALE FIGHT NEAR SAN FRANCISCO.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—A fierce fight between a thrasher and a whale was witnessed at the entrance of the harbor at noon yesterday by Captain Warland and crew of the bark Amy Turner, inward bound from Honolulu. Captain Warland is an old and seasoned mariner and has seen many strange sights in the deep. The battle, he says, was one of the worst of its kind while it lasted, only lacking the presence of a swordfish to make it gory. Thrashers and swordfish usually combine against their enemy, the whale, and invariably finish the leviathan in short order.

The Amy Turner had just passed in through the Heads when a great disturbance of the water was observed a short distance astern. Suddenly a huge thrasher shot clear of the water and made a lithe turn that brought its tail down with a resounding thud upon the body of a whale that rose to the surface. Disappearing under the blow, the whale left a wide area of setting water.

While the crew of the Amy Turner watched, awe-stricken by the ferocity and magnitude of the sea battle the whale and its relentless enemy again appeared off to one side of the vessel, both having covered an incredible distance in the few moments intervening since the previous attack. The combat continued to wage fiercely for a half hour and could be plainly seen by all on deck. It was a source of some surprise to the mariners to witness the ferocity with which the huge fish fought. But it was apparent that the thrasher was fast subduing its big antagonist, soon to leave its dead body adrift off the Heads.

MAIL FOR HILO.

The S. S. Likelike sails at 4 p. m. today with mail and passengers for Hilo.

TEST OF THE HONOLULU GOLF CLUB.

Most of the matches have already been played off, and the remainder will be finished by tomorrow night. With the opening of the fourth round, next week, the play will have narrowed down to a point where the interest will have reached a high stage, and some fine records are to be expected in the future of the tournament.

REMARKABLE PLEA FOR CIVIC VIRTUE

Men and brethren of San Francisco, there is no light in which we may look at recent developments, no matter where or what our interests, our affiliations, our private sympathies, in which there does not appear a grievous and an oppressive fact. It is this awful fact, namely, that in the doing of things in San Francisco there has long prevailed a system as revolting in its moral aspects, as demoralizing in its social aspects, as criminal in its political aspects, that system which two thousand years ago took the moral fibre out of the people of China and has since held them to a life cramped and limited in its every phase. We have allowed the cancer of political and social corruption to strike wide and deep. Its branches extend into almost every department of our affairs. So universal has the thing become as to confound wholesome and natural conceptions of right and wrong. Graft has become a by-word and a joke. Men who love their families and say their prayers find for themselves justification either in the doing of forbidden things or in sharing the profits of such doing. How many of us who, in recent years have held shares in certain great companies, have not known in our hearts that somewhere within the line of their operations there was corruption and dishonesty? Who among what we may style our property class can hold his head so high as to say that he has been no sharer in these infamies? If these reflections should give us chafing, they should as well give us pause. We can not go forward on the basis of recent years and maintain here the worthy civilization which our fathers brought here and passed on to us. If integrity of life is to remain with us, if our children are to live in a city and a country fit to live in we must find a way to cast forth the monster of corruption which, as we plainly see, has become a pervading force in the municipal and even in the business life of San Francisco. We are not bound to accept the whimsical or empassioned theories of the particular group of prosecutors who have taken an immediate place of authority with us. But—we have got to find a way to better things.—The Argonaut.

THE cheering cup of tea is a beverage probably partaken of by more people than any other drink in the world. It has come from China and other distant countries of the east, found a home in Russia, formed a hold on Great Britain that no English man or woman can shake off.

The pretty custom of afternoon tea, borrowed by Americans from their English cousins, is always an agent for sociability. The hostess has her cups spread over a convenient table, the kettle is boiling over an alcohol lamp and in a teaball she has the tea.

A recent New York cablegram quoted President Roosevelt as saying: "I dare not discuss women's hats."

IT is safe to say," declared a physician, "that one-half of the women are simply starving for fresh air and if they would throw away their pill bottles and headache powders and exercise freely in the open air for at least two hours daily they would feel like new women at the end of the year.

pleasure for a time in order to obtain the outdoor exercise, but under the circumstances it will be excusable, and in the long run she will make up for it because of increased bodily vigor.

I count only happy hours" is the Latin inscription on the antique sun dial now being set up at the Kaiser's desire in the imperial park of Charlottenhof.

QUEEN Elizabeth of Roumania, "Carmen Sylva," sent the Duchess of Somerset a number of handsome volumes for sale at the Queen's fête in aid of the Lord Mayor's cripple fund, which Queen Alexandra opened at the Mansion House on June 13.

"Care is an old stone you lean your arms upon; love is the living water that breaks through the rock of trouble."

"A warm hearth, a bright home, a lovely work—that is woman's realm. Therein she is ruler and nobody can oust her."

"Woman's work ought to be holy work—delicate, tender, beautiful, sweet, like a continued caress."

"The sad, mad longing for power and grasping it has brought more misery to the world than the phantom in worth."

"Love once more; perhaps this time you may succeed in being loved back again."

"Let not the dark hours be the only ones you count; try always to be like the sun dial, that only counts the bright ones."

"Enemies are only useful so long as you are rising; once at the top you must do always with them by making them your friends."

In addition to the books, "Carmen Sylva" sent a large number of beautiful picture post cards, on each of which were her photograph and autograph.

SCIENTIFIC inquiry is sometimes curiously balked," says a prominent physician, and this experience is the basis of the remark:

The physician was spending his vacation at a well known resort. One day he met a stranger, who, among other things, spoke of the illness of his wife.

The doctor was interested at once, and sympathetically asked the cause of the illness.

This husband did not seem prepared to give, but at length admitted that some called it one thing and some another. By judicious questioning, however, the physician was able to learn enough to satisfy himself the woman was suffering from epilepsy.

Not for years has neckwear played so important a part in summer wardrobes. For many seasons the low-necked, elbow-sleeved blouse has been in vogue, but now tailored shirt waists are in again, and high collars, with all the washable accessories that go to dress the neck in the approved tailored or semi-tailored fashion.

Scraps of fine, sheer materials, bits of lace and embroidery will work into the prettiest of lingerie bows, and those made from delicately tinted fabrics, set off by self-tone or white embroidery, are worn with both white and matching colored waists. Bows made of marine and lace, net and lace or all lace, are worn with tailored silk waists, and some of them are absurdly small. Bits of batiste, nainsook or Swiss embroidery are inset or edged with lace and worked into these small bows also. In fact, the bows and ties

TOWN TALK

By THE MAN ABOUT TOWN.

While the Japanese were engaged in their beautiful and spectacular lantern parade, during the all-too-brief stay of my friend Prince Fushimi, I noticed a striking transparency the painted words of which were English. In big, bold letters a foot-high was the sentiment: THREE CHEERS FOR GREAT BRITAIN! Underneath in small letters were the words: United States of America, Hurray! I wonder if there could be any significance in the different lettering.

One of Wednesday's news items had it that thieves broke into a cottage of the Hawaiian hotel and stole a poem from a guest. It is supposed that there was more than one thief for the reason that a poem was stolen. One thief, single-handed, alone unaccompanied and by himself would not dare to run away with a poem. If it had been one of Ella Wheeler Wilcox's poems or a poem by Annie Marie Prescott, or even by Poet Laureate Austin of England, it is to be supposed that the thieves would not have gone far with the verses,—said verses would have burned them. Incidentally, the police don't know whether to charge the miscreants with burglary or plagiarism. Perhaps, however, the missing poem was not stolen. Since it is presumed to have had feet of its own it may have run away. The thieves should be easily captured for they would naturally seek some secluded place to recite the verses and could be waylaid and caught in the elocutionary act. He who robs me of my purse steals trash, but he who filches from me my good poem sweeps that which does him no good and makes me full of blank verse.

"I got lost in Hilo one night," said a returned Honolulu drummer, "and I had an exciting experience. It was late and dark,—perhaps Hilo has one of the 'moonlight' light contracts, which most cities make. They require electric light companies to maintain lights, except when there is a moon. The companies, in every place I have seen, go by calendar and if there is a moon, no matter if she is up above all kinds of clouds, they don't run the lights."

In the dark I was walking along Front street, and turned up what appeared to me to be a roadway leading in the direction in which I lived,—I know now it was an alley. I walked along, making for some lights ahead, and suddenly found myself at the foot of some steps, evidently the entrance to a private home and not mine. As I was about to start back a large citizen appeared in the doorway. "What in blank are you doing here?" he demanded. "I'll be blanked if I know," I answered. "Well get blanked quick out of here," he politely replied. "I will if you'll show me the way," I meekly responded. "Just start back the way you came and be blanked quick about it," he retorted, in a very inhospitable mood and with a start forward.

"I went, and went quickly, and I suppose he was telling his friends how he fired a burglar off his place."

Travelers from Hawaii are not usually regarded as rubes when they hit the bigger island known as the continent of America, but there is one man in town who if his story be true was nicely worked in San Francisco by a "queer" game. "Did man who spends much of his time parading about the fine San Francisco hotels?" said this Honolulu rube. "He saw me coming one day and cautiously approached. He had a secret. He observed I was smoking. Well, as a very secret tip he wanted to inform me that a steamer had just come up from Mexico and some friends of his had smuggled in a couple of thousand or so of splendid cigars. They would sell for two bits a piece if the duty had to be paid, but as it was,—well, he was quietly disposing of them to people who looked all right, and I could have a box for two dollars. He hoped I wouldn't say anything about it to anyone."

"I took a box and felt that I was lucky to get such a snip. At the first smoke the scheme dawned on me. The cigars were bad enough to break up a Democratic caucus. They were imported from Chinatown, not Mexico. I believe that if that man had been arrested for selling tobacco without a license he could have got off by proving there was no tobacco in the cigars."

"I wish I could invent a scheme like that. It is invincible. No one can come back at that genius, for anyone who made a complaint would first have to admit that he went into a scheme to defraud the government by buying smuggled goods. There's no beating the game. I suppose he's there yet, smiling and urbane and selling producers of horrible smells for $2 per hundred."

Apropos of the charge against a local backdrifter of robbing two female tourists, I recall a story of another backdrifter who was not perhaps so deservingly pleased effects are pushing the stocks and collar and cuff sets for place. A box of bows, say half a dozen, with a pretty pleated set for the front of a shirt waist, all sewed upon dainty cardboard and packed in a lace-edged box, makes the most acceptable of intimate wedding gifts for the June bride.

edly notorious as the recent fellow, that has the redeeming feature of humor about it. Two French lady tourists were stopping over night at one of the local hotels. It was during the monarchy, when dances and state balls were frequent occurrences at the Palace. The visitors donned their latest Parisian gowns and after dressing for the fray called a hack. "Take us to ze Palace" commanded the pair. "Alright mums" said Jehu and off he drove. But not toward the Palace. He drove in an entirely different direction. On and on, they drove. The ladies heard not the sound of revelry by night; they heard only the dismal howls of dogs as they drove along the deserted streets of the town. "Wee, wee, wee, wee you are a robber. Ze police we will call" and then ensued a wild chorus of howls for the police. "Murder, robbers, thieves assassins!" were heard on the evening air. But no officer of the peace appeared. Yet on and on went the hack. At last the pair found themselves on the edge of a towering cliff, looking into space. "Here is the Fall," said the Jehu "but I don't see what you want to raise such a fuss over it for."

And would you believe it, the women kicked against paying him $20 because he had not understood their pronunciation of the Palace and took them to the Fall instead.

I have not seen Johnny Martin yet, but I feel authorized almost, to invite you to a luau that he will give shortly, to commemorate the destruction of those five barrels of fine Kentucky whiskey that were bound for Honolulu. Really that Jehu is such an intense fanatic. If he had the choice of being drowned in a tub of beer or a hoghead of dish water, I think he would choose soap suds. Poor old John.

"It is Said" has become tamed except where the editor writes about himself and absentmindedness.

Paul Muhlendorf of Allen & Robinson is reputed to be a hard game, where a business transaction is concerned. This firm is a money lending one, and, in the usual course of business, more or less land, through foreclosure, is taken over. Land fits in well with the lumber business sometimes, as I will attempt to show. Albert Hocking, of Primo fame, purchased a piece of property on Makiki Heights and decided to build a handsome home. After reflection, he decided the lot was not quite large enough, and, in looking around discovered that Allen & Robinson had a small piece of land adjoining. Hocking saw Muhlendorf and a price was agreed upon, but the sale did not take place until Hocking agreed to buy all lumber and material from Allen & Robinson. Hocking had to submit.

But here is a case where Paul got left. Some time ago, the Planters' Experiment Station wished to secure additional land for planting purposes. The men in charge looked over the Allen tract in Makiki and decided to purchase a big piece of the land at a pretty stiff figure. When the final negotiations were reached, Muhlendorf sprung his little joker about buying all lumber and material from Allen & Robinson. The Planters balked, told Muhlendorf to go to a warmer latitude, and then purchased land elsewhere.

The British cruiser Monmouth, with Prince Fushimi on board, was expected to remain over the Fourth in port—that is, my Japanese friends figured that way. In this instance they are not wise. But I will explain: I have a friend in the United States Navy; he tells me that British warships never remain in American ports on the Fourth of July—that is if they can possibly get out to sea. He declares that an English commander does not want to salute the American flag on its natal day. Where is that boasted "Anglo-Saxon brotherhood" we read about. Sounds good on paper, doesn't it? Barring the salute, our English sailor friends could have attended the literary portion of the exercises, which were held on the Fourth, without batting an eye. The usual roast handed old King George was cut out this year, so the commander of the Monmouth might have tarried with us, if we had given him a tip.

During the week, the Land Office sold some lots on one of the Tantalus ridges; the opportunity to secure a mountain place was eagerly welcomed by local people. The lots were cut into small holdings and sold at reasonable figures. I believe in mountain air, but at the rate private parties hold land on Tantalus, the air is a bit expensive for those not rich men. Upon inquiry, I find that the Government owns but little land in the neighborhood of Tantalus; we, the people, possess the high ridges and the deep gullies. The choice land has been acquired by private parties in exchange deals. In the past, this Government has been robbed of thousands of dollars in "infamous exchanges." I hope Governor Frear will stop the "land graft." I hope he will take the stand that when the Government wants property, let it go in the open market and buy it; and by the same token, when private parties want Government land, force them to pay the full cash value.

THE NEEDS OF HAWAII

CONGRESSMAN SAYS MAINLANDERS WILL NOT COME HERE TO FARM.

The Congressional party which arrived here on the transport Crooks two weeks ago, returned to Honolulu this morning from a ten day's trip to Maui and Hawaii, and are now quartered at the Moana Hotel where they will remain until the arrival of the transport Sherman due here next Saturday, when they will sail for the Orient to spend a month or six weeks.

The party is made up of Hon. and Mrs. McKinney of Illinois; Hon. John M. Reynolds of Pennsylvania, and daughter, Miss Judith Reynolds; Hon. William W. Cocks, of New York, and niece, Miss Nellis; and Hon. Edwin W. Higgins, of Connecticut.

The visitors went immediately to their hotel on the arrival of the Kinnau this morning, and are spending the day in resting up. One and all declare that they had a most enjoyable trip. Mr. McKinney in speaking of the matter said: "We couldn't have imagined a more thoroughly pleasant trip. It was a little bit hard at times, but that was because we all were determined to see everything to be seen and I think we did. We did not have an accident of any kind to mar the pleasure of the experience, and one and all come back well and happy. The ladies of the party stood it remarkably well." Mr. McKinney and other members of the party were severely sunburned.

Regarding their impressions of the needs of the Territory none of the members was willing to talk very much for publication. "We can expect but to get a general impression of the conditions on the islands in so brief a trip," said Mr. McKinney. "But we feel that we shall be in position to work much more intelligently when legislation affecting the Territory arises in Congress. It looks to me, tho, as if the islands' future demanded that some system of industries should be established which shall make the welfare of the Territory not entirely dependent on the sugar production. It may be that this can be accomplished by encouraging European immigration."

"I cannot believe that it would be possible to get farmers from the mainland, at least from Illinois, to settle here. They have been used to large acreage, and are leaving Illinois in large numbers, because the high price of farm lands has made it expedient for them to sell and go to the Indian Territory, Texas, or Canada, where they can get large tracts of good land for their families. They would scarcely be content to settle on the small tracts which they would have here."

Mr. McKinney was especially impressed with the strategic value of the Territory, and expressed much interest in the plans making towards the fortification of Honolulu, and for the establishment of naval bases here.

Mr. Higgins expressed himself as well pleased with his experiences. He stated, however, that while he had been strongly impressed with a good many things, and had formed some opinions since he arrived in the Territory, he was not ready to discuss them for publication.

The program as arranged for next week was as follows: Sunday, July 7.—Church and rest. Monday, July 8.—Leave Honolulu in autos at 9:30 a. m. Luncheon at Wahiawa. Dinner and spend the night at Haleiwa.

Tuesday, July 9.—Start from Haleiwa in autos through Koolauloa. Luncheon at Swanzy place at Kualoa. Return to Honolulu across the Pali. Wednesday, July 10.—In the afternoon inspect the Honolulu Iron Works. In the afternoon see polo practice game at Moanalua.

Thursday, July 11.—Trip to Pearl Harbor in the Iroquois. At 8 p. m. public reception at the Moana Hotel. Friday, July 12.—In the forenoon visit to the Bishop Museum. In the afternoon surf-riding, canoeing and bathing at Walkiki. In the evening Princess Kalaniana'ole will entertain the ladies of the party at cards.

 000, received further confirmation of the disaster this morning, in a personal cable. The message was comforting to the Doctor, however, in that it assured him that property which he owns was not in the path of the flames, and he is therefore not a personal loser.
