Yanks And Japs Grasp Loving Cup

Admiral Baron Yamamoto, the distinguished Japanese naval expert, was recently the guest of honor at a notable dinner in the Hotel Astor, New York, given by the Japan Society and attended by all the prominent army and other distinguished personages. The Japan Society was formed in New York during the recent visit to the United States of General Baron Kuroki. At the dinner which was attended by 200, toasts were drunk to the continued friendship of America and Japan and speeches made which were so far removed from bellicose as to make practically certain that war between the two countries was the last thing to be expected. Admiral Baron Yamamoto's speech decried the possibility of war and was taken to be a reflection of the thoughts of the Mikado himself.

CAPT. SAUNDERS BRINGS MANCHURIA HERE AGAIN

THE BIG PACIFIC MAIL LINER ARRIVES ON HER FIRST TRIP SINCE THE DISASTER OF A YEAR AGO—MANY CALL TO GREET THE CAPTAIN ON HIS ARRIVAL AND PRESENT FLOWERS AND CONGRATULATIONS.

With Captain J. W. Saunders, her old master, on the bridge, much to the general satisfaction of Honolulu, the P. M. S. S. Manchuria docked at the Hackfeld wharf at 9:50 o'clock this morning from San Francisco with 250 tons of freight, three days' mail and 61 cabin passengers for this port. She and her passengers and Captain Saunders were welcomed by a large crowd on the wharf and many Honolulu people sought an early opportunity to greet Captain Saunders and congratulate him on his continued command of the monster liner.

There were flowers sent to the captain's cabin and other tokens of the esteem in which he is held by people here. United States Inspectors of Hulls and Boilers Bolles and Bulger, who left for the Coast today in the U. S. S. Alameda, were among the first to find the commander and congratulate him on retaining his vessel. Colonel Samuel Parker, J. T. McCrossen and H. A. Wilder gained the captain's cabin soon after the big boat docked and gave him aloha.

"I did not know I had so many friends," said Captain Saunders to a representative of The Star. "I tell you it is good to be back in Honolulu; Honolulu is all right; she is full of good people. Some folks tell me I look thin, but I think they're joking, for I weigh 206 pounds and am feeling splendid. Yes, the Manchuria's all right and the people are after her as usual; she is as popular as ever. We have two hundred passengers altogether and that's a good sized crowd."

When last the Manchuria came to Honolulu she came by way of the Waimanalo reef, to the windward of this island, just about one year ago. She stranded early in the morning of August 19, 1906, and spent many days there fast in her coral bed, during all of which time Captain Saunders stayed aboard. He has not missed a day's pay since the accident and the repairs which have been made to the Manchuria in San Francisco have cost three-quarters of a million dollars. The re-

Made Coin For Breckons

COUNTERFEITER KIM BONG CHUEN PROVES HIMSELF AN EXPERT AT THE WORK.

For about a week past one of the cleverest and evidently most dangerous counterfeiters in the country has been engaged in making a set of dies right here in Honolulu. In fact the work has been going on literally under the very eyes of the Federal authorities, for the man who has been doing it is a prisoner, and the work he is doing is simply to know the officers that he knows his business.

Kim Bong Chuen is the name of the coiner. He is a Korean, and was recently captured on Hawaii through the efforts of United States Marshal Hendry. After being brought to Honolulu he came through with his connection with the making of the large quantity of spurious ten-dollar gold pieces which have been causing so much trouble on the Big Island, and confessed the whole game. District Attorney Breckons expressed incredulity regarding his ability to make the money he claimed to have done, and forthwith the Korean's professional pride was spurred, and he offered to demonstrate his skill if given the opportunity.

District Attorney Breckons thereupon made arrangements for him to prove himself, and right well has he done it. The result of about a week's work with a hammer and some files and other simple materials which were furnished him, is a set of as pretty dies of a ten-dollar piece as one would want to see.

Kim Bong Chuen was first allowed to use materials and space in Wichman's jewelry store, and his remarkable skill with tools was a great surprise to all who saw him. Afterwards he was fitted out with a bench in a room off the Marshal's office, where under guard he has daily prosecuted his work until the present time.

The dies which the Korean has made are of copper or bronze, which he has some secret method of hardening. They are certainly very nearly perfect, and the fact that the money he turned out before he was captured was lacking only in the matter of ring and weight, showed to what perfection he had attained. With a more perfect imitation of metal his coins would have been almost impossible to detect. He claims that with the dies he has made

CARTER'S STRONG LETTER

THE RETIRING EXECUTIVE WRITES A POWERFUL CONTRIBUTION TO THE COASTWISE SHIPPING LAW DISCUSSION—GUAM AND SAMOA EXEMPTED BECAUSE LAW IS UNSUITABLE—ATTITUDE OF STEAMSHIP COMPANIES.

One of the last acts of the retiring governor was to sign a ringing letter to the Department of Commerce and Labor on the subject of coastwise shipping restrictions. In his letter Carter brings out a lot of new facts and arguments and sets them forth in his best and most forcible style. The letter is as follows:

August 12, 1907.
E. T. Chamberlain, Esq., Commissioner of Navigation, Department of Commerce and Labor, Washington, D. C.

"Dear Sir: Permit me to acknowledge receipt of your of June 18th, with its enclosure of J. D. Spreckels & Bros. Company's letter, from San Francisco, under date of June 11th.

"I cannot hope to compete with paid experts of corporations, who, as you are aware, have heretofore played so important a part in shaping our national legislation. It is but natural that they should fail to recognize the position of the coastwise law and the demands that the public are not making, in contradistinction to corporate interests.

"An administrative officer has often to meet perplexing questions concerning his duty. No one disputes that he is expected to enforce the laws, but every law is an abridgment of a private right as to some and the granting of privileges as to others. Thus its justice and permanency depends upon its usefulness to the majority. Every rule has its exceptions, and a law in our country which is obnoxious to the people will not stand for any length of time, nor will they long tolerate its enforcement. An administrative officer often will enforce an obnoxious law in order to secure its early repeal. But we in Hawaii realize that the coastwise law has much of merit in it, and do not believe that your department should enforce it in such a manner as to make it obnoxious, with a view to securing its repeal, for the lawmaking body, as I understand it, gave to the Secretary of Commerce and Labor the exclusive power and privilege of re-mitting such fines for violation of this Act as in his judgment he might think wise.

"To show how impossible it is to strictly enforce a law of this nature, which does not take cognizance of varying conditions, I need only ask if your department believes that, in the protection of Spreckels Brothers shipping interests, it was wrong for you to consent to the British ship Restorer carrying supplies to the marines located on Midway Island to keep them from starving, after they had generously divided their stores and food supplies with the large number who were landed there from the straggler 'Mongolia'?"

"I need not mention the fact that it has already been recognized that Guam and Samoa should be exempted from the application of this law, it being impractical of application there. "Now, the public of Honolulu and this Territory, prior to annexation, enjoyed the passenger service of every steamer that stopped here. Thus commerce was enabled to grow because of the personal contact between buyer and seller, so essential to credit and trade. The application of the coastwise law to these islands, two thousand miles from the mainland, has in no way built up or fostered American shipping. Within the past year the Spreckels Brothers line itself, notwithstanding the encouragement of the coastwise law, has been obliged to withdraw all of its steamers but one. This, in conjunction with other losses, has deprived the people of Hawaii within the last year of over one-third of the already restricted accommodations which they have been forced to accept since annexation.

"I have it on so high an authority as that of Mr. Schewerlin, General Manager of the Pacific Mail Steamship Co. that the trade of Hawaii was immaterial to his company. He stated in an interview lately in San Francisco that if he had to move a small coal pile from land of the Naval Reserve or pay ground rent for their coal storage (which is borne by all other steamship companies here) he would sooner cut out Honolulu from his service entirely.

"For a long time every effort has been made by the people of Hawaii to force the Pacific Mail Company to recognize the local trade and permit a small portion of each steamer to be set aside definitely for the Honolulu trade, so that those who might be here, for business or other reasons, could be sure of accommodations, and not be subject to the inconvenience, as has repeatedly been the case, of

SAN FRANCISCO August 13.—The transport Thomas, arriving from Honolulu and Manila today, had on board a man who is a supposed Japanese spy.

CLOUDBURST

Passengers arriving from Kaula this morning report a cloudburst at Waimanalo on Saturday night. Nearly fourteen inches of water fell in less than thirty minutes. The streams washed wreckage to the sea and men aboard the S. S. Mikabala believe they saw a house passing. Live stock and ducks and geese were washed to sea, unable to return.

LOS ANGELES, August 13.—The railroad boilermakers' strike is virtually settled. It was caused by refusal of the company to reinstate strikers who went out July 18 and to depose a new foreman in one of the shops.

IT JARRED THEM.

A disturbing rumor has been permeating the Capitol today and threatening the "former cordial relations" existing between the retiring governor and his staff. It is to the effect that Carter some time ago advised Frenar that the best thing for him to do on taking office was to "make a clean sweep" of all the heads of departments.

BRITAIN'S GREAT FLEET ON PARADE

TWO HUNDRED WAR SHIPS INSPECTED BY KING EDWARD—MILES OF STEEL WALLS.
PORTSMOUTH (England), August 3.—The 200 ships of war constituting Great Britain's fleet paraded before King Edward and Queen Alexandra today on the Solent, and incidentally furnished a magnificent pageant for the opening of the annual Cowes regatta week.
Spread out in seven long lines between the Isle of Wight and the Hampshire coast, this splendid array of vessels, great and small, formed a floating steel city with a population of 35,000 officers and men. Never before have so many British men of war been seen together under the control of a single Admiral. From the battleship Dreadnought down to the smallest submarine every vessel was decked from stem to stern with flags. The crews were assembled on deck, and as the King and Queen on board the royal yacht Victoria and Albert passed down the lines each ship's company gave a rousing cheer. For eleven miles up and down, the King and Queen steamed between steel walls.
This gathering of war ships forms the recently organized home guard section of the British navy, and the Government and the Admiralty are so proud of the assemblage that they departed from the usual rule about visitors, and threw the entire fleet open to the critical inspection of the public. Dotted through the lines were no less than six flagships, headed by the Dreadnought. The splendid naval panorama was completed by scores of pleasure yachts clustered off the ivy-covered walls of the royal yacht squadron castle at Cowes.

Hosts of pleasure launches and excursionists' steamers loaded with thousands of general public, each with its band of music playing, helped to enliven an unusually attractive scene. The weather, which was gloomy early in the morning, cleared up before the departure of the King for Portsmouth.

JAPS ARE LEAVING CALIFORNIA NOW

SEVERAL THOUSAND ARE REPORTED TO HAVE LEFT SINCE SAN FRANCISCO TROUBLE.
SACRAMENTO, Aug. 1.—That the local Japanese squabble which has concerned San Francisco, the state of California and the federal government of the United States and in its appearance as a guest of The Ragge conference, the whole civilized world, is now working itself out in a new and unexpected way, is the statement of N. Imajo, an educated Japanese of Sacramento, cashier of the Japanese-American bank here and a large holder of real estate and hopfields, who says that the Japanese laborers are leaving San Francisco and the state by the thousands and settling in the other states, principally Utah and Montana.
"In our bank transactions, both here and at Los Angeles," said Mr. Imajo, "we find that more than half our clientele is spreading throughout the other states as against less than five per cent last year.
Sacramento county alone has lost 4000 Japanese since the San Francisco trouble, having about 2500 now as against 6500 during the fruit picking season last year; and the exodus is being felt by the ranchers in the scarcity of labor to clean the trees. It is only in this state that the race prejudice seems to exist against our countrymen," said Imajo. "They are being well received in the other states and there is plenty of room in which those now on American soil can spread and become assimilated by the small necessity of their numbers in the seven communities.

SCIENTIST BELIEVES IN GHOSTS

REMARKABLE ADDRESS BY DR. HYSLOP AT THE UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA.

BERKELEY, August 1.—Dr. James H. Hyslop, secretary and campaigner for the American Society for Psychical Research, lectured last evening before a great audience in Hearst Hall at the University of California. His subject was "Psychic Phenomena and Life After Death." Dr. Hyslop declared again and again that he had no doubt the dead could communicate with the living, and said that he had already had scientific data tending to establish his assertion. He hopes, through the society which he represents, to obtain before his death complete scientific proof of his assertion.

Professor Hyslop was formerly professor of logic and ethics at Columbia University. He is a scholar of world-wide repute, and since he retired from the faculty of the University to take up the scientific study of psychic phenomena he has been the most famous man in that line of work in the world. Hence, when he asserted that he not only believed that communication with the spirits of the dead was possible, but that he himself, through mediums, had so communicated with his wife and others, the interest aroused among the great throng of University people gathered to hear the lecture was great indeed.

Dr. Hyslop referred to a tacit agreement he made before the death of his companion and co-worker, Dr. Richard Hodgson, that they would try to communicate with each other after one had died. Hodgson died in 1905. Dr. Hyslop went to a woman librarian, a medium. She gave him a bit of a message from his friend, Dr. Hyslop said. Three days later he went to the famous medium, Mrs. Piper. She wrote, while in one of her trances, a message from Dr. Hodgson, which said: "I tried to give you such and such a word."

Two days after that, Dr. Hyslop said, he tried it again and got a whole sentence from Dr. Hodgson. Then he wrote to the son of Professor James, the great Harvard psychologist, and got a sitting with him. "Through him," said Dr. Hyslop, "I got the identical sentence which I got through Mrs. Piper. There is a corroboration of facts which can't be attributed to chance."

Dr. Hyslop referred to the fact that most of the matters in the messages he got were trivial, and that very few gave any idea of the life beyond the grave. But, he added, the trivial facts were the only ones possible of verification here on earth and were therefore the only ones that appealed to scientific men. Several times, however, he said, spirits had begun to tell him of life after leaving the earth and always ended in a tantalizing way by saying they were getting into a dreamy state.

Dr. Hyslop is a rapid and entertaining talker. He is by no means of the long-haired variety of mystic dreamers. He appears to be an energetic, vigorous man, with a keen sense of humor and plenty of good, hard, practical sense. He devoted much of his lecture last evening to explaining the enormous cost of scientific research work. He wishes to interest people with money in the society with which he is connected, so that more data can be secured along the lines on which he has been working.

The lecture has aroused more discussion in Berkeley than anything that has occurred here in many days. After the lecture last night the streets around the University grounds were full of interested folk discussing and arguing the points brought out by Dr. Hyslop. All one could have was references to psychic phenomena, ghosts, plain epooks, mediums, cases, scientific telepathy, materialism, idealism, organism, telepathy, apparitions and the like.

Dr. Hyslop is the guest during his stay in Berkeley of Charles Keeler, the poet. He will deliver a second lecture on Friday night, August 5.

AVOIDED CONTEMPT.

The meeting which by a majority vote of the members of the Board of License Commissioners was to have been held yesterday afternoon for the purpose of considering the matter of revoking the license of John Moore of the Palace Cafe, was postponed indefinitely, because the attorney general had advised them that the injunction of Judge De Bolt's in the matter was not a good thing to fool with, and it would be wise to wait until the court had established the status of the case before taking further action.

Friendship may have a true ring, but it isn't the kind of ring that is calculated to satisfy the girl who is in love.

TROUBLES OVER TWO RESERVOIRS

NUUANU DAM WORK AND MAKIKI RESERVOIR BOTH HELD UP IN AUDIT OFFICE.

As briefly noted in the Star yesterday there is a very excellent prospect that work on the Nuuanu dam will have to be entirely suspended within a very short time. Already all the money available for the project has been exhausted with the exception of about $10,000 which applies on the contract of Whitehouse who has the contract for the work, and out of this has yet to come the last month's pay roll and other expenses of the contractor.

Outside of this Auditor Fisher stated yesterday that there is no money with which to pay any outside bills in connection with the dam, and because of this decision on his part his office has been besieged for upwards of two weeks by laborers and others with warrants from the Superintendent of Public Works for work which they have done, or material they have supplied, but which he feels that he is not justified in honoring. These demands amount to between $1500 and $2000.

As a result of all this there is a bone of contention between Superintendent Holloway and Auditor Fisher. The warrants which the former has been issuing are requisitions on the appropriation for running expenses of the Honolulu Water Works. After passing perhaps $500 of these demands, Auditor Fisher called a halt and has since refused to honor any of them. In explanation he gave two reasons for his stand: First, because the appropriation for running expenses would not naturally be supposed to be used for dam construction purposes; and second, because of a clause with regard to this appropriation requiring that in expenditures from it of over $500, competitive bids must first be called for.

An opinion of F. W. Milverton, for the Attorney General's Department furnished at the request of Superintendent Holloway, holds that the running expense fund may be so used, for the reason that most of the work covered by the demands made was for the purpose of installing a pumping plant at the Nuuanu dam for sluicing purposes, and as this plant was designed to obviate the use of the water from a natural fall which up to this time has been used for the work, the water of the fall is to be diverted to augment the supply of city water, and hence, the expense necessary to secure this end might be legally allowed.

In spite of this opinion, Auditor Fisher is standing pat. Even if this should make it all right, he contends, the amount has been much in excess of $500, and by the provision governing the expenditure from this fund can only be spent when the work has been done after submitting the proposition for general bids.

Work on the Makiki reservoir is another proposition which has struck the same snag and stopped. The work on this project was carried on from the Honolulu Water Works general appropriation as long as this lasted and then an item was had inserted and passed the Legislature in Act 91 providing $5,000 "for the completion of the Makiki reservoir." This appropriation act was approved April 20th, but has been used up with the exception of 57 cents.

Labor pay rolls to the amount of several hundreds of dollars have since come in for work done on the Makiki project, to be charged to the running expense account of the Water Works, and these the Auditor is turning down, also.

Auditor Fisher stated that he wants a decision of the Supreme Court on the matter before he places himself liable for misappropriation of funds, but unfortunately the disorganized condition of this court, owing to Chief Justice Frear's stepping down to accept the Governorship, will cause some days delay. Governor Carter's illness has made it impossible for him to be consulted, and Judge Frear has not yet qualified, or had time to look into the situation. Therefore for some days at least, Auditor Fisher does not expect that any action will be taken, and that the men who have money due them for work done in July will have to wait until the matter is settled.

The amount of the appropriation for running expenses of the Water Works about $71,500, and this amount was figured would be sufficient for two years. To use it for other purposes will be to cause a certain shortage before another appropriation could be made for the same purpose.

The only outlook for securing a legitimate appropriation for carrying on the Nuuanu dam project, is in the appropriation item for the purpose inserted in the loan fund act, and even if the new Governor acts immediately in taking steps to float the loan authorized, it must necessarily require

AROUND WORLD IN FORTY DAYS

PHINEAS FOGG WOULD BE A SLOW ONE AT TRAVELING NOW—ADAYS.

Jules Verne amazed his youthful readers by describing an imaginary trip round the world in eighty days. On March 12th last, in the columns of the London Daily Mail, Mr. F. A. McKenzie told how the journey could be accomplished in forty days. His time-table is given by the Daily Mail as follows:

May 3rd (7:20 p.m.), left Liverpool.
May 10th (3 p.m.), arrived Quebec.
May 10th (5 p.m.), left Quebec.
May 14th (5 a.m.) arrived Vancouver.
May 14th (12:30 p.m.), left Vancouver.

May 26th (a.m.), arrived Yokohama.
May 27th (7 p.m.), left Yokohama.
May 28th (9:30 a.m.), arrived Tauruga.

May 28th (6 p.m.), left Tauruga.
May 30th (2:15 p.m.), arrived Vladivostok.

May 30th (7 p.m.), left Vladivostok.
May 31st, arrived Harbin.
June 4th, arrived Irkutsk.
June 10th (2:30 p.m.), arrived Moscow.

June 10th (6 p.m.), left Moscow.
June 13th (11 a.m.), left Ostend.
June 13th (2:50 p.m.), arrived Dover.

"The journey was marvelously rapid," says a Times correspondent, "but unless a circuit passes through the Antipodes can it be regarded as round the world? If so, a run round the North Pole—when it is reached—will some day establish a record of round the world in 40 sec."

The removal of Dinan and the appointment of a new Police Commission are matters which Mayor Taylor is devoting much attention to, but with the exception of his own legal ad-

Legal obstructions are expected to be put in the way of the Mayor when he comes to remove the Police Commission, but he is confident that the thing can be accomplished in a manner that will stand the test of court review.

"Undated" No More

Governor Frear has put an end to the undated resignation controversy and unpleasantness in a way that will create a good impression throughout the Territory. In all districts this proposition of a governor taking all departments completely into his own hands, was thoroughly distasteful. The Senate expressed the sentiment of the legislature by an act to prohibit the plan being further followed. The act was killed in the House, but not because there was not a majority in favor of it. It is to be feared now, that the man who saved the governor the humiliation of having it made law will not get his hoped-for reward.

The fact that a department head is an official whose appointment is confirmed by the Senate shows intention of Congress to make him independent of the executive to a certain extent. It expressly shows the intention not to give the governor the right of summary removal of these appointees. The undated resignation proposition was a subterfuge to beat the law. The argument was always made that the governor might have trouble with officials guilty of misconduct and insisting upon remaining in office. The answer to this is first that a governor ought not to appoint anyone to office whom he looks upon as even remotely likely to create such a contingency, and second that there is no reason why one man, even the governor, should have the right to decide offhand whether an official is guilty or not of misconduct warranting removal, especially when the law provides another way.

Americans Look To Japs

Elsewhere in The Star today is an account of a tentative contract made by the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway, with a Japanese company, for a fleet of nine steamers of 18,000 tons each, to carry the railroad company's freight to the Far East. The railroad is being extended to the coast, with Seattle for a terminus, and it expects to be in the oversea business by 1909. Two significant features of this proposition are the fact that the railroad company has apparently given up hope of an American ocean service being practicable, and the evidence shown of Seattle's tremendous growth in commercial importance, which should add to our efforts to get into closer touch with the Sound. Seattle is a city of hustlers, perhaps more than any other coast city at present, and the number of big liners which leave there every month and pass by Hawaii in the open sea is rapidly increasing.

If anything can make the American government act in the matter of encouraging American merchant marine, it would seem to be such plans as these. If American railroads are to deliver their business to the Japanese it is evident that the "control of the Pacific" will pass into the hands of Japan in very short order, as far as commerce is concerned. If one railroad company does it others will do likewise.

Honolulu Fifth

Although it might seem hardly possible, Honolulu ranks among the first five ports in the United States as a gate of entry to this country for immigrants, and there is every prospect that within the next few years this city will have climbed still further up the ladder and become one of the most important ports of immigration in the country.

New York is, of course, the greatest port of immigration in the country. Next comes Boston, then Philadelphia, San Francisco, Honolulu, Galveston, Texas, Key West, Florida, New Orleans, and then New Bedford.

Japan's Sincerity

There is much more peace talk than war talk now. The jingoes have worked themselves out, and though there is no telling when a new outburst may come or how small a thing might cause it, effective showings of a disposition for peace are being made. A correspondent of Harper's Weekly gives the following example of how the Tokio government showed the sincerity of its desires to stop the agitators: "Let us, for the moment, consider the squelching of the jingoes. Tokio Puck, a Japanese comic weekly, published a few days ago a cartoon entitled The Brutalization of America, which depicted the United States as a huge lion whose teeth (the portion of the map around San Francisco) were crumpling a shrieking little Jap. The shades of Washington and Lincoln were shown, regarding the spectacle with mournful forebodings. The design was cleverly executed—quite as ably as the cartoon in the same periodical before the Russo-Japanese war, in which the little Jap was displayed drawing his sword to drive back the great Russian Bear then encroaching upon Asia. The attempt to parallel the status of the United States with the ruthless aggression of Russia was well calculated to stir up hatred among the Japanese populace, perhaps to fan the war-fires into flame.

"But note the difference in the official attitude toward the two cartoons. There was no attempt in 1904 to suppose the Russian Bear cartoon. The Brutalization of America cartoon has been suppressed by the order of the Japanese government. And the manner of squelching it was diplomatic. The government officials, following the usual public method, might have closed the offices of Puck and confiscated the edition containing the offensive cartoon. To do this, however, would have called attention to the inflammatory picture, advertised it, augmented its influence. Secret agents were sent out to buy all the copies extant. So rare has the number become that its price has soared like the price of ancient coins. In several well-authenticated cases the agents paid as high as ten yen ($5 American gold) for one copy. It was by great good luck as well as diligent search that I was able after four days of effort to secure the copy I am sending to you.

"Possibly Americans may not grasp the full significance of the circumspet official action in this case; but all white men in Japan see in it an earnest of the hearty wish of the Emperor and his Elder Statesmen learning that they have booked with fifty or sixty other passengers desiring to leave and that the steamer can only take three or four additional passengers at Honolulu, thus being obliged to await another steamer of American register, lose their time and be greatly inconvenienced by the delay, during which they often see a British or Japanese passenger steamer arrive and depart. In fact, I may say the agitation of this question was started, not by the residents of Hawaii, but by visitors here, who claimed it was the first time they had found that being an American (and in an American port) was a distinct disadvantage.

GOVERNOR CARTER'S STRONG LETTER

"It cannot reasonably be argued that the application of the coastwise law was ever intended for a part which had no rail communication with other parts of America. As I have already stated to you, in the development of our country there have been few features of more potency than the free interchange and travel of our people from one part of the country to another. This has not only made us homogeneous but has brought about the immense trade between the various states and territories. It cannot be claimed that it was the intention of Congress in the passage of this Act to hamper or restrict this free interchange of our commerce. The American drummer, the wonder of the business world, finds it most irritable to stop off with his samples in Hawaii expecting to catch a steamer which he sees scheduled to leave in a few days, and then learns that he can only travel on that vessel by the payment of a fine of $200. He cables his principal that his expenses go on and his time is lost.

"If during the eight years that this law has been applied to Hawaii the passenger service from these islands to the mainland has been bettered or increased because of this protection, you would not find public spirited men in Hawaii opposing it. So far as I am aware, there has not been a murmur raised by the sugar planters against the restriction to American bottoms, though it costs them $600,000 a year—a tax practically of $4 per capita of our population.

"Our people do not ask an exemption for freight, but we do maintain common sense dictates that ordinary judgment be used in the application of our national laws.

"I presume those who have money invested in American ships will feel that they are acting rightly and humanely when, by insisting on its application, they subject the local naval authorities to keep one of their sailors here for three weeks in a dying condition after his physician has stated that the only way to save his life was to send him to the coast. The application of the naval authorities for an exception had been denied and no transport or other American bottom would touch here for that length of time, although there have been two or more opportunities for placing him on an English vessel and thus saving his life perhaps.

"No community regret more than this the action of Congress in failing to provide a subsidy, which would probably have maintained the Spreckels Brothers steamers in service. But in view of the fact that they have been obliged to take their steamers off, and the reputed statements of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company's officials that the passenger traffic from Honolulu is a matter of utter indifference to them and plays no part in their calculations, as well as other considerations, is not this Territory justified in demanding of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor that he use the discretion which Congress has given him, and remit all fines until such time as in his judgment the service of American steamers calling at this port warrants the application of the law in its full rigor.

"Very sincerely yours,
"G. R. CARTER,

to preserve unbroken their ancient friendship with the American people; to eliminate without leaving a single trace any influence which might ing the many weeks of trial that followed made him such all the more. It has always been a local impression that the Manchuria's accident was due to freaks of current and weather which would have caused it no matter who was on her bridge, and the reinstatement of her captain besides being a popular act here, is looked upon as an act of justice.

Honolulu was very glad to welcome Captain Saunders back with the Manchuria this morning. Before his unlucky incident of a year ago the captain had been a Honolulu favorite for some time and his manly attitude dur-

For an old man, J. J. Hill is going some. He is out in a brand-new white suit from top to toe. He also has a brand-new suit demanding that he account for the $10,000,000 he made in the Burlington deal.—Pittsburg Gazette-Times.

LUKA TO REPAIR.

BIG LEASE LONG TERM

KAPAPALA RANCH, 72,000 ACRES, OFFERED ON LONG TERM CHEAP BASIS.

There is a rumor current that the Kapapala Ranch Company which has been doing an immense business on the big 72,000 acre tract of Kapapala Kau, on the Island of Hawaii, leased from the government, is to meet with some opposition when it comes to the renewal of its lease on the tract on the 9th of September. If it does not, it will be for the reason that the men who are said to be organizing the opposition syndicate are unable to get their forces together in time.

A good deal of criticism of the administration has been made in certain quarters because of the short time which has been given before the time for renewal of the big lease. The first notice was published last Saturday, and notices are to appear weekly until the date of the sale which is now less than a month away, thus giving little time for anyone to make the preliminary arrangements for swinging a proposition of such magnitude.

According to the advertisement, the administration has decided to lease the land for 21 years, and has fixed an upset rental of $3500 per year for the 72,000 acres.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 7.—Cyrus Ryder, Charles Mayo and O. M. Vesper, appraisers of the estate of the late William Benjamin Godfrey, the shipping man and capitalist who died early last January, yesterday filed with the County Clerk their inventory of the estate, which is given a total value of $169,459.30, consisting almost wholly of personal property, largely made up of shares in a large number of vessels and stocks and bonds in this city and Hawaii. The will names Mrs. Carrie E. Godfrey, the widow and W. B. Godfrey Jr., as executor of the estate, and its principal legatees.

JUDGE KINGSBURY IS TO BE MARRIED

REPORTED ENGAGEMENT OF WELL KNOWN LAWYER AND MISS JONES CONFIRMED.

Judge S. B. Kingsbury was one of the departing passengers on the Alameda today, and before his departure confirmed reports of his engagement to Miss Katydid Jones. The Judge says his trip is purely for vacation and he will be back in a very short time. Judge Kingsbury came here quite recently and soon became prominent in local litigation. His bride-to-be is a well known young Honolulu lady.

TO CUT TIMBER.
A petition was this morning filed in the Circuit Court by A. W. T. Hopton, receiver of the property of the Puna Sugar Company, Ltd., for permission to enter into a contract with the Hawaiian Mahogany Company for the cutting and disposal of certain timber lands of the sugar company. Judge De Holt approved the application and granted an order giving the necessary permit.

The Korean is small and wiry of stature, and of rather prepossessing appearance. He has evidently had expert training in the use of tools, although he refuses to say much about his past. He has been very free in confessing all his late doings, taking the chief blame on himself, and exonerating most of the half dozen men who have lately been arrested as being connected with the coinage.

SPORTS

JOSHES FROM THE GRANSTAND

"Talking about grand stand joshes," said a baseball enthusiast who never misses a league game. "I have been taking down some of the jollies handed out at the baseball grounds here recently. You can't put any stopper on the gab of a fan, and when he wants to hand a verbal skin-glove to a player he doesn't like, why all the player should do is look pleasant and watch the ball.

"Here are some Honolulu ones heard of late." The fan handed out a paper containing the following:
To Bushnell: "Oh you mutton head, give him some dog meat."
To Gleason: "Hallow Foxy." "You a eye!" "It's got 4 eyes, he can't hit the ball." "Hit em on the head."
En sue: "Oh you chink, San-min lo."
Aylett: "Look at the Beef Trust."
Hampton: "How's that for a balk."
"Ding, ding, toot, toot." "Oh you ham, Kill it" (the ball). "Hit em on the nose, back to the woods, strike em out."
Ed Desha: "Don't look up here."
"Why don't you wear a cap."
King: "Give em a bale of hay."
Bruno: "Hellow Kakalio."
Kia: "Oh you ice wagon."

Davis: "Oh you Davis, don't get mad."
Other remarks:
"Look at that lobster."
"Hit em on the head."
"Hit em on the nose."
"You can't hit a balloon."
"In 1903," said the fan, "Barney Joy got more roasting from the fans than all the players put together at the present time.

"Wait until the San Francisco team gets here and the fans will see and hear things that will make their eyes open.
"It will do the Honolulu fans more good to have a coast team come to Honolulu and give us a few pointers in the coaching line.
"The idea of roasting is to rattle the pitcher. When there is roasting there is life in a ball game. If a player can't stand it, let him go to a drug store and buy some cotton and stuff his ears.
"The umpire stands more abuse than all the players put together. He is usually right 9 times out of 10 so says Coney Mack one of the foremost coaches in the United States."

LOOKS NOW LIKE M'KEEVER VS. ROTH

COOKE BEATEN BY M'KEEVER YESTERDAY AND LOWREY BEATS GRAY.

In the matches in the tennis tournament yesterday a number of surprises were the order of the day. McKeever by his brilliant play managed to defeat Dick Cooke in two straight sets. Cooke played a strong game in the first set, but McKeever with his back hand strokes made it very hard on Cooke and he was unable to return the ball with any sureness. Gray managed to defeat Williamson in the third set by the score of 6-2. Lowrey was able to defeat Gray in the next set by the score of 6-2 6-4. The tennis in this match was very poor and unless Lowrey takes a big brace tomorrow he will be unable to defeat McKeever.

The chances are that McKeever will meet Roth on Friday for the championship but it is very doubtful if he will take the honors back to Ewa with him, as Roth is in the very best form and will give him a very hard fight. The court has not been decided on as yet, but it is almost certain that it will be at the Pacific Club.

More entries than have ever been made before here in a tennis tournament have been made for the opening double tournament next week. Sixteen teams have entered and by the time the single championships close there ought to be a number of other entries. The entries for the coming ladies singles and mixed doubles tournament are not up to the usual standard and if there are no more entries they will not be held this year. The entries up to date in the mens' doubles are as follows:

F. E. Greenfield and A. M. McKeever, B. Kennedy and L. Scott, A. L. Castle and R. H. Cooke, R. M. Blanchard and F. E. Steere, Lieut. Shipp and Lieut. McCleary, J. P. Cooke and R. D. Mead, W. F. Dillingham and H. G. Dillingham, A. T. Brock and W. Williamson, W. Savage and P. F. Baldwin, C. G. S. Wainhouse and M. Kekahio, C. G. Bockus and H. S. Grey, Capt. Humphrey and S. H. Derby, S. A. Baldwin and C. C. Krambhaar, H. W. Rice and J. Waterhouse, D. W. Anderson and E. Horner.

SPORT NOTES.

This afternoon the regular weekly shoot will take place at the Kakaako traps and some good scores can be expected, as the members have been making improvements.

The White Rock golf tournament at Haleiwa next Sunday will not take place unless more entries are received before then. Only three men have entered and it would not be at all interesting for only three men to play. The entries close Friday at E. O. Hall & Sons and all golfers are asked to please enter at once so that the drawing can be made.

PANIC AT SEA ON THE SANTA CLARA

PASSENGERS FOUGHT FOR LIFE PRESERVERS OWING TO REPORT VESSEL WAS SINKING.

SEATTLE, July 31.—Word has been brought from Alaska that a panic occurred on the steamer Santa Clara on her trip north last week, and but for the fact that the crew beat the second-class passengers away from the oba, they would have lowered them and put away from the ship off Cape Flattery. The Santa Clara ran into a gale off the cape and shipped a heavy sea. A second-class passenger started the report that the boat was sinking, and the passengers swarmed on deck and fought for places in the lifeboats. The entire crew had to be called to force the second-class passengers below. The incident preyed upon the mind of one passenger and he went insane.

SEND-OFF FOR THE RIFLEMEN

COLONEL SAM JOHNSON SAYS IT IS RIGHT THAT HE SHOULD STAY HOME.

The members of the rifle team which left on the Alameda today for Fort Perry, Ohio, to represent the National Guard of Hawaii in the great rifle contest of militia and regular troops, were the guests of honor at a farewell gathering of officers and soldiers of the Regiment, held last evening in the drill shed on Hotel street. There were about 300 present and the affair was a most enthusiastic one.

Capt. Gorman, as master of ceremonies, kept things moving by calling on various members for short addresses. Among these were speeches from Adjutant General Jones, Col. Sam Johnson, and Major Riley. Col. Jones reminded the men of the team that they are charged with the keeping of the honor and reputation of the Territory of Hawaii, while they are away; that the trip is not one for pleasure but for serious work, and that they must expect to be subject to close discipline all of the time. He urged them individually not to forget that their actions and work would not concern themselves personally, but would reflect an impression of the whole regiment, and of Hawaii to the minds of the nation.

Col. Johnson in his address stated that he had been impressed with the justice of the view taken by the Supervisors regarding his going with the team, and had all along been of the opinion that he should not leave, in view of the work which he would have to leave in other hands, and for the reason that so many other members of the Road Department were also of the team, and had been granted leave of absence. Besides his trip with the Shriners was one which had kept him away for several weeks only a short time ago.

Major Riley, who goes with the team as team captain, spoke his appreciation of the interest which is manifested by the men in the organization, only regretting that the best marksman in the Regiment, Col. Johnson, was unable to go with the others.

Major Rose, Major Pratt, and Lt. Col. Coyne were among other members of the guard who made short talks.

During the evening music was furnished by a quartet orchestra, and Lt. Dougherty sang a number of songs.

HONOLULU TEAM WON AT BOWLING

THE CONTEST WITH KAUI THIS MORNING DEVELOPED SOME FINE PLAYING.

In the bowling match yesterday between the Kaula and the local girls the local team was able to show that the art of the game is down to a science here. The first game the Honolulu team won by the score of 496 to 459. In the second game 482 to 429 the third 499 to 455 total 1438 winning by 124 pins. The bowling on both teams was very good.

Miss Paty and Miss Werthmuller bowled very well for the local team while the Misses Wilcox and Mrs. Arthur Rice bowled a good game for

THE DOCTOR AWAY FROM HOME WHEN MOST NEEDED.

People are often very much disappointed to find that their family physician is away from home when they most need his services. Diseases like cramp colic and diarrhoea require prompt treatment, and in many instances prove fatal before medicine can be produced or a physician summoned. The right way is to keep at hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. No physician can prescribe a better medicine for these diseases. a more potent remedy in the roots and herbs of the field than was ever produced from drugs. In the good old-fashioned days of our grandmothers few drugs were used in medicines and Lydia E. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., in her study of roots and herbs and their power over disease discovered and gave to the women of the world a remedy for their peculiar ills more potent and efficacious than any combination of drugs.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

HAWAII'S SUGAR YIELD DOUBLED

COLONEL G. W. MACFARLANE TELLS OF GIGANTIC IRRIGATING PROJECT.

The Chronicle says: Irrigating ditches from the formerly inaccessible mountain fastnesses of the island of Hawaii, the development of thousands and thousands of acres of virgin soil for sugar plantations and the doubling of Hawaii's annual sugar crop are elements in a big business undertaking, the financial conclusion of which has brought to San Francisco Colonel Macfarlane of Honolulu, who arrived yesterday in the Mongolia and registered at the St. Francis.

As a good deal of the $700,000 necessary for the development of one of the projects was raised by California capitalists, and as two later-constructed ditches on the opposite side of the island are expected to increase by 100 per cent the output of the Paauhau and Honokaa plantations, which are regularly listed on this market, the whole project has a close interest for San Francisco.

On the Kohala (west) side of the great island immense estates heretofore only partly productive during years of favorable rainfall are now being opened up to sugar, pineapple and fruit crops, because the gently sloping great stretches of land are being supplied with running water that comes through twenty-two miles of ditch. The great landed interests of Sam Parker and his wife, the widow of Milonaire James Campbell, who was once kidnapped and held for ransom here in San Francisco, are among the properties benefited.

This twenty-two mile ditch has been built across precipitous ravines and tunneled through native lava mountains. A great many natives were lost in the tunneling and from the slippery and terrifying cliffs, and once a Japanese and a pack of mule loaded with 400 pounds of dynamite slipped off the trail and went hundreds of feet down to the bottom of the precipice. Four hundred Japanese coolies were employed on this one ditch project. This ditch is to carry 70,000,000 gallons of water.

On the Hamakua (east) side of Hawaii, where there are already some fine sugar plantations, an upper and a lower ditch have been completed, and one of them has already developed a flow of 15,000,000 gallons of water. It cost $200,000.

All three ditches are being further developed at their sources to tap supplementary water supplies. The region penetrated had never before been seen by man. Expeditions went overland and lowered men down hundreds of feet over cliffs into ravines to explore. And for a big cash bonus reckless Hawaiian swimmers shot the crashing surfs and made a landing on slippery rocks under sheer bluffs over which plunged waterfalls 1000 feet high. Colonel Macfarlane will be here several days.

FOURTH TRIAL OF FAMOUS CASE

CALEB POWERS AGAIN UP ON A CHARGE OF MURDERING GOVERNOR GOEBEL.

GEORGETOWN, Ky., July 29.—Charged with complicity in the murder of Senator William Goebel, Caleb Powers, former secretary of state, was placed on trial today for the fourth time. He has twice received a life sentence and once the death penalty. When court convened this morning attorneys for the defense made a motion to have Special Judge Robbins sworn off the bench and filed an affidavit containing a sensational allegation. They claim that Robbins was unfair in the former trial and that he is unfit to sit in the case. An affidavit was submitted to Robbins, who read it, and adjourned court until afternoon when it will be passed on.

It is reported that should he refuse to leave the bench the defense will carry it to the court of appeals. The consensus of opinion is that he will stay on the bench and proceed with the trial, and take the chances that he will be upheld. Powers said this morning that he was sanguine of success in the trial and that he thought the state had the weakest case it had yet presented. His appearance shows plainly that his confinement of seven years has considerably broken his health.

Wharton Golden and Frank Cecil, two of the state's more important witnesses in former trials, are here to testify.

STILL ANOTHER LINE FROM SEATTLE TO ORIENT

CHICAGO, MILWAUKEE AND ST. PAUL RAILWAY CONTRACTING FOR NINE TWELVE-THOUSAND TON STEAMSHIPS TO CARRY ITS OVERSEA BUSINESS—AMERICAN RAILROAD COMPANY TURNS TO JAPAN FOR ITS STEAMSHIP CONTRACT.

SEATTLE, August 2.—When the Pacific coast extension of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad is finished in 1909, a new line of steamships will be in operation between Seattle and the Orient, according to the statement of President A. J. Earling. Negotiations have been made with the Osaka Shosen Kaisha, of Japan, for the construction of nine large steamships to carry the oversea business of the Milwaukee. The latest ship of the new fleet is to be delivered not later than February, 1909.

"The Milwaukee has entered into a tentative agreement with the Osaka Shosen Kaisha," said President Earling last night, "to handle the oversea traffic of the railroad. The final arrangements have not been concluded, but it is certain that by the time the Pacific coast extension has been completed there will be a fleet of new steamships to ply between Seattle and the Orient.

"When the project of extending the line of the Milwaukee road to the Pacific coast was begun, it was the purpose of the company to build its own steamships. After considering the matter, I concluded that running steamships was somewhat out of the line of endeavor of a railroad. I have no doubt that the steamship business is profitable for those familiar with it, but there is some question if the enterprise could be made to pay by men unacquainted with the work.

"Mr. Takanuchi, representing the Osaka Shosen Kaisha, who was in Seattle several months ago, began negotiations with the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul to operate a line of steamships in connection with the railroad. The Osaka Shosen Kaisha does a large coastwise business in Japan. It has a large fleet of ships plying between ports in the Orient, and when it was proposed to build a number of steamships for the American trade, I thought well of the idea.

"There are many important details to be settled yet. It has been proposed to organize a new company to operate the new line which will be financed by the Osaka Shosen Kaisha and the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, although that part has not been definitely decided upon. It has been proposed to name the new company the Japanese Mercantile Steamship Company. Whether the Milwaukee owns the line outright or not, it will be heavily interested in the company which operates it.

"According to the tentative agreement which has been reached the nine steamships will have a capacity of about 12,000 tons each. The type of ship will be similar to that of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha. I believe that steamships of that type can be operated more profitably than those of a much larger capacity. One of our ships will not be able to carry as much freight as the Minnesota, but it will run oftener and there will be more of them. The agreement with the Osaka Shosen Kaisha calls for the completion of the latest ship in February, 1909, which will insure the entire fleet being in operation by the time the road is finished.

Mr. Earling was asked concerning the report that three ships are under construction at the Alfred Holt shipyards in England for the Milwaukee. Mr. Holt is one of the large ship owners of the world.

"There is no truth in the report," replied Mr. Earling. "I have never heard of Mr. Holt, and it is entirely possible that he has never heard of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad. At least he is building no ships for the Milwaukee, and three vessels would not be enough to take care of the business."

President Earling, who has been indisposed for several days on account of a lame foot, purposes leaving for Chicago Saturday. He is still confined to his room, and while his illness is not serious, his physician has prescribed entire rest from physical exertion. Mrs. Earling is with him.

ALAMEDA IS DELAYED FOR FUEL

WATER FOUND IN HER OIL TANKS AND PUMPING REQUIRES SEVERAL HOURS.

Instead of sliding out at 10 o'clock this morning for San Francisco the U. S. S. Alameda, Captain Dowdell, postponed sailing until 2:15 o'clock this afternoon and many of the sarge crew which went to the Oceanic wharf to see friends away remained until the last moment to talk with their friends aboard, from the wharf, a protected farewell that was not particularly relieving to the emotions.

At first the departure of the vessel was postponed until noon to accommodate business men who wished to answer correspondence received in the mainland mail brought by the Manchuria this morning, and then it was discovered that about 300 barrels of water had to be pumped out of the oil tanks of the Alameda and good oil substituted. This took time and the departure of the boat was further delayed.

The Hawaiian band played faithfully until noon at which time the appeals of empty stomachs were stronger than the habit of making melody and the band boys dispersed to get lunch.

From the deck of the vessel they heartily cheered him. Major Gustave Rose was particularly noticeable as being covered with beautiful leis and the other were not forgotten.

The Alameda takes a big passenger list and is full of freight. The receipts of her present trip will be $50,000.

Deputy U. S. Revenue Collector H. S. Johnson left yesterday for Kona where he went to look after the opening of the new Okolehao distillery. PROSSER DEPUTY?

PRESENT DEPUTY ATTORNEY GENERAL HAS BEEN ASKED TO REMAIN IN OFFICE.

Everything about the Capitol this morning is rosy, and the change of atmosphere about the place over night is very marked. The uncertainty which in some cases amounted to anxiety among the heads of the Departments has given place to beaming countenances, like unto the "smile that won't come off."

With Chief Justice Frear's statement yesterday evening that he will make no changes in departments where vacancies do not at present exist, has come an unmistakable air of relief on the part of almost everybody directly or indirectly subject to the will of the Chief Executive.

In the office of Attorney General which becomes vacant by the resignation of Mr. Peters, which vacancy will be filled by the appointment of C. R. Hemenway, as announced, the matter of deputies is still uncertain. Mr. Hemenway stated this morning that he had expressed to M. F. Prosser, the present first deputy, the hope that he would retain the place, but as yet Mr. Prosser has not made up his mind. Until this is done, the matter of the other deputies in the office is a matter of doubt also.

Instead of sliding out at 10 o'clock this morning for San Francisco the U. S. S. Alameda, Captain Dowdell, postponed sailing until 2:15 o'clock this afternoon and many of the sarge crew which went to the Oceanic wharf to see friends away remained until the last moment to talk with their friends aboard, from the wharf, a protected farewell that was not particularly relieving to the emotions.

At first the departure of the vessel was postponed until noon to accommodate business men who wished to answer correspondence received in the mainland mail brought by the Manchuria this morning, and then it was discovered that about 300 barrels of water had to be pumped out of the oil tanks of the Alameda and good oil substituted. This took time and the departure of the boat was further delayed.

The Hawaiian band played faithfully until noon at which time the appeals of empty stomachs were stronger than the habit of making melody and the band boys dispersed to get lunch.

The Hawaiian rifle team goes to the coast in the Alameda and Colonel Sam Johnson who did not go, was on the wharf to see his comrades-in-arms away. From the deck of the vessel they heartily cheered him. Major Gustave Rose was particularly noticeable as being covered with beautiful leis and the other were not forgotten.

The Alameda takes a big passenger list and is full of freight. The receipts of her present trip will be $50,000.

Deputy U. S. Revenue Collector H. S. Johnson left yesterday for Kona where he went to look after the opening of the new Okolehao distillery. The plant is about ready for operation, and an expert distiller from San Francisco who arrived last week is preparing to make some preliminary experiments in the manufacture of the fiery liquor.

Charles G. Smith the Federal prisoner who was arrested on the arrival of the transport Thomas a week or more ago, on cabled instructions from Washington to the effect that he was wanted in Manila for obtaining money under false pretenses, was turned over to the troop commander on the transport Logan this morning for return to the Philippines.

David Kawananakoa and John F. Colburn two of the bondsmen of E. Vivian Richardson the defaulting water works department clerk, against whom judgment to the amount of the defaultation about $2700 was granted by the circuit court a few days ago, filed a motion this morning for arrest of judgment through their attorney C. W. Ashford. The other bondsmen in the case have previously taken the same step.

CHANGE RULING

PLAN FOR A HYDROGRAPHIC SURVEY OF THE ISLANDS MEETS WITH SET BACK.

Governor Carter has received the following letter, regarding a Territorial survey of which he was practically assured while in Washington: "To His Excellency, the Governor, Honolulu, Hawaii.

"My dear Governor Carter:—I wrote you a note the day before you sailed from San Francisco, stating that I would be unable to make the journey with you to Honolulu and I wish to supplement that with the following explanation:

"All plans for my visit were made and I proceeded west in good faith. I was halted by an opinion of the Controller of the Treasury that the expenditure of Geological Survey funds in the Hawaiian Islands would constitute an improper use of public moneys. Therefore, you will readily understand that there was nothing for me to do except forego the journey and make the best of a bad situation. Needless to say, I was greatly disappointed.

"You may be interested to learn that in the year 1901 some of the money appropriated for the gauging of streams was expended in the Hawaiian Islands by Mr. Newell and the accounts were paid by express authority of the Controller who ruled at the time that it was a proper expenditure.

"Although there has been no change in the statute except in the amount of the appropriation since the period above named, the Controller has recently handed down an opinion diametrically opposite from that published by him in 1901. Efforts were made by the Director and the Acting Secretary of the Interior to secure a reversal of the Controller's last opinion, but it is evident from telegrams that I received just before the time of sailing that the Controller is not inclined to recede from his position. I have explained the situation somewhat fully because I believe that you will be interested to know the facts concerning a situation that should be adjusted and that may at some time in the future be troublesome for Hawaiian interests.

"The Director of the Survey is going to suggest to the Secretary of the Interior that he include in his estimates for the next fiscal year, the sum of $12,500 for the prosecution of water investigations in the Hawaiian Islands. During your recent visit to the Survey office in Washington, you stated that it would be possible to secure a similar appropriation from the Territorial legislature. I am informed, much to my regret, that you expect to go out of office about the middle of August. Therefore, it will be to advantage to learn whether or not your successor is in sympathy with this work and will be inclined to carry out the matter as above suggested. If he does not wish to carry the work forward, the Secretary will probably avoid the possibility of causing him any embarrassment by making a request for a Congressional appropriation. If, on the other hand, your successor wishes to have the work prosecuted on the lines agreed upon, or according to some modifications thereof, the best efforts of those in Washington will be used to secure the necessary funds.

"I wish to acknowledge with thanks your very cordial invitation to Hawaii and your generous offer of entertainment, and to again express my personal regret that the aforesaid opinion of the Controller should have been rendered at such an inopportune time.

"Very respectfully, "CHIEF HYDROGRAPHER."

HARTWELL WILL NOT MAKE CHANGES

NEW CHIEF JUSTICE NOT CONSIDERING NEW APPOINTMENTS IN JUDICIARY DEPARTMENT.

Associate Justice Hartwell of the Supreme Court, who will with the resignation of Chief Justice Frear assume the first place on the bench tomorrow, stated this morning that there had been no changes contemplated in the clerical force of the Judiciary department. From the statement it is to be surmised that there will be none for the time being at least.

Justice Hartwell further stated that owing to the fact that Mr. Ballou, the new appointee to the position as assistant clerk, had been notified of the retiring Chief Executive. The presentation was made at the Governor's residence at 11:30 o'clock with a few brief addresses. It had been planned to give the Governor a dinner today, but owing to his ill health this had to be omitted.

He Left His Fortune To Lawyers

He planned it all out; his wife was to have all his property until his children became of age; then it was to be divided equitably among them all, but instead of putting his last will on paper, he put it off, got killed, and the lawyers got the estate.

If he had gone to the Henry Waterhouse Trust Company, Ltd., he could have had his will drawn without cost, his affairs would have been taken over by them, and his wife and little ones would have been protected in their rights.
