CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.
 Twentieth Day
 WEDNESDAY, June 27th.
 AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Convention, on assembling at 1:30, resolved into committee of the whole, Del. Horner in the chair.
 The Articles relating to the Judiciary were taken up. Articles 78 to 85 inclusive were passed without change.
 Minister Smith called attention to an omission in Article 86 of a provision passed at first reading, giving the House of Representatives authority to impeach public officers.
 Min. Hatch moved an amendment to correct the error, which carried.
 "Miscellaneous Provisions," beginning with Art. 87, came next.
 Coun. Brown moved an amendment to abrogate all laws and parts of laws inconsistent with this Constitution.
 Min. Smith considered the ground covered in the next Article, and if not, that Article was the place for the amendment.
 The amendment was lost.
 Min. Hatch (on Article 90) moved to strike out the words, "and other monetary obligations," in connection with "all existing treaties and all bonds and notes," which are recognized and confirmed. The words he desired eliminated might cause vexatious suits on account of the late monarchy. Distinguished lawyers in town had said they would like nothing better than to see such a provision in the Constitution.
 Min. Damon, while not claiming the legal knowledge of his colleague, mentioned the Postal Savings Bank deposits as among the monetary obligations to be protected.
 Min. Smith said that Art. 88 covered the Savings Bank deposits.
 Min. Damon thought the bank deposits should be mentioned specifically.
 Del. Carter said deposits not secured by bonds or notes were surely covered by Art. 88, as the pass books were "contracts."
 Del. Vivas moved an amendment to make the obligations those "authorized by law."
 Min. Hatch moved an amendment to include the Postal Savings Bank Carried.
 Coun. Brown, on Art. 92—"Majority Rule"—said the Executive and Advisory Council, which was to have legislative powers until the first Legislature, was not to know exactly what was meant by the clause, "but in respect of the Executive Council such majority shall be required to include the President."
 Pres. Dole understood it to mean that a majority of the Executive Council must include the President.
 Min. Damon said then if four Cabinet Ministers were opposed to the views of the President on any line of policy, the President may take his own course regardless of the wishes of all the Ministers. This he believed fraught with great danger to the Republic.
 Min. Smith said the matter had been very fully considered. The United States system had been compared with that of a limited monarchy, and the former, wherein the Cabinet were only secretaries to the President, had been adopted as preferable. If the Ministers could override the President's policy, the President would be simply one of five Cabinet Ministers.
 No motion having been made, the matter dropped.
 Min. Smith, on Art. 93, prohibiting aid to private or sectarian schools, moved to strike out the word "exclusive" before "control of the Government." Lost.
 Running Race, 1 Mile Dash. Free for all Hawaiian bred horses.

bound to make no attempt to restore the monarchy.
 Min. Damon seconded the motion. He did not see why the monarchy should be continually dragged in. Some members seemed to want the monarchy before their eyes all the time.
 Del. Baldwin was originally in favor of the exclusion of the clause in question, but native members told him unless it was explicitly stated the natives would not understand the purport of the Article.
 The motion lost.
 Coun. Brown moved to insert an Article as follows: "Wherever the word 'herein' is used in this Constitution it shall be deemed to mean and include anything contained in this Constitution, or any article or clause thereof, unless the context otherwise clearly intends another construction thereof."
 Pres. Dole moved to strike out "otherwise."
 Del. Carter moved to substitute "includes" for "intends."
 Coun. Brown accepted both amendments.
 Pres. Dole moved to add, "The titles and sub-headings shall not be deemed part of this Constitution."
 Carried, and the Article passed as amended.
 Article 100—"Amendment or Revision of the Constitution" passed with slight changes.
 This ended second reading excepting of parts referred to committees, and the committee rose and reported progress.
 The report was adopted.
 Del. Baldwin moved a suspension of the rules to reconsider Article 7. He considered on reflection that the provision allowing legislation of a law giving an appeal to the Government in criminal cases conveyed too much latitude. If it were an appeal only to the Supreme Court, with power to order a new trial, he would not so much object.
 Min. Smith considered that there had been enough deliberation over the question, and by large majorities it had been decided in favor of the provision as it now stood. He felt strongly on many subjects wherein he did not have his way, but he could not think of trying to have all of them reconsidered.
 Del. Vivas said the varying votes showed a wavering of the minds of members.
 The rules were suspended on a standing vote.
 Coun. Brown deprecated having the Convention shift its ground repeatedly on one question.
 Coun. Morgan believed the process of education was working. Members were coming to their senses.
 Vice-Pres. Wilder said it was never too late to correct their mistakes. He was one of the earliest converts against the amendment.
 Min. Smith argued again in favor of the amendment.
 Coun. Brown said if it was a provision putting the proposed law in the Constitution, he would be against it. But it only allowed the Legislature in the future, if deemed wise, to make such a law. As an instance of the abuse of the jury system, in a case within the past two years, a juror said in the jury room, "This is a P. G. man; let us convict him."
 "And" (striking the desk), "by God, they did find that halfwhite guilty."
 Coun. Morgan did not believe in exclusive native juries, but that was another matter. There was no reason, because native juries went wrong sometimes, why such a strong measure as the one in question should be made possible by this Constitution.
 On the eyes and nose being about to be called, Coun. Brown raised the point of order that a vote could not be again taken on the question before third reading.
 In the midst of the discussion on this point, the Convention adjourned at 3:50 for the day.

THE FREEZE-OUT PROVISION.
 Editor BULLETIN:
 The provision which the new Constitution makers have inserted that the President may force the fourth member to resign, secondly, fourthly, un-called for, unnecessary, and impractical. It has no doubt been inserted owing to the events which occurred in the Thurston Ashford Cabinet under the late King Kalanikula. In that case such a provision in the Constitution would doubtless have removed much friction. But the circumstances are totally unlike. Then there was a monarch, irremovable and unimpedable who was constitutionally bound to act on the advice of his cabinet, whether in agreement with his own wishes and desires or not. When he found three of them advising him one way and the fourth giving advice not only in direct opposition but, from his position as legal authority in the cabinet, directing him to disregard the counsel of the other three, what wonder that there was a deadlock? Now we are to have a President who may be removed by impeachment; whose cabinet is his own personal selection to aid him in his administration, and who is not bound to follow their advice and without whose consent not even a majority can do anything. Again, as the selection of a Cabinet is personal, with the President (subject, of course, to confirmation by the Senate), what member of it, once appointed, is going to vote with any other two for the expulsion of the fourth, when by the vote of the new man thus introduced his own seat and its emoluments may be declared vacant the following day?
 Vox CLAMANTIS.

A contempt for vested rights is shown by the Convention in revoking all letters of denization heretofore granted.

Councillor Emmeluth and Delegate Robertson show terrible concern lest the opponents of the revolution ever have a voice in affairs here. Do not they see what an open confession they are thus making to the world that the people of Hawaii are not at the back of the movement? The United States Congress doubtless meant the people when they said the people, which bodes ill for the prospect of the United States Government recognizing any substitute for the monarchy which is not the work of the people. All American precedents are against such recognition.

On Wednesday afternoon another attempt was made to have eliminated from the Constitution of the Republic the provision to admit a Government appeal in criminal cases. Although the attempt was defeated on a point of order, it will be renewed regularly on third reading and they probably succeed. The fact that the defenders of the provision had to resort to a parliamentary technicality to save it would indicate a fear that they have fallen into a minority since they carried the scheme first by a surprise. It is astonishing to see the zeal of Attorney General Smith for an innovation that on the face of it is a menace to popular liberty. When, however, it has come out, both in debate and in the Government organs, that the object of the measure is to give the Government power to harass political enemies, astonishment should change to alarm in the mind of every thoughtful person, no matter with what present party connected. As Mr. Morgan intimated the other day in effect, the day may shortly come when the boot will be on the other leg, and then those who had part in promoting this provision, if it become law, will find it a burdensome and tyrannical measure. Let this foul plot against liberty be nipped in the bud. Since the foregoing was written, the Convention by 18 to 17 has downed the obnoxious measure.

There is scarcely a principle of representative and responsible government, which has been advocated by Messrs. Dole, Thurston, Smith & Co. for many years past, but is violated or undermined in the Constitution for the Republic of Hawaii which the same political firm is rail-roading through the Convention. Take, for instance, the principle of popular control of the purse strings of the nation through the representatives of the people. This is perhaps the most valuable safeguard for the rights of the people which is found in any system, monarchical or republican. By it an arrogant and a corrupt government may be brought to its knees more readily than by almost any other weapon available to the representatives of the people. Stop the supplies is the cure, when, through some constitutional or technical advantage, the heads of government are pursuing a course contrary to the will of the nation. This new Constitution deliberately subverts this great principle, by directly providing that a Government may go on indefinitely spending the people's money, without the consent of the people's representatives in either or both houses of the Legislature. Mr. Dole, if he is the author of this direct stab at popular rights, by this provision reveals a phase of character such as even his political opponents have never suspected him of possessing. No European champion of princely prerogative or aristocratic privilege, nor any South American dictator, would want a more potent weapon of their unholy schemes against the people's rights than this provision of Dole's Constitution, which has gone twice through the Convention without an opposing whisper. Mr. Dole would not dare to defend the outrageous measure if it were attacked, or else he has become more hardened in unprincipled politics than even the most bitter royalist local supposed.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

Twenty-first Day

THURSDAY, JUNE 28.

The Convention was called to order at 10 a. m., Pres. Dole in the chair.

A petition from the Portuguese Union was read and laid on the table to be considered with the Constitution.

Min. Smith reported from the Legislative Committee on the amendment providing for a call of the Legislature in special session at the request of two-thirds of the Senate, recommending its passage with an amendment.

Del. Carter moved an amendment to the amendment, which was lost.

Del. Baldwin reported from the Executive Committee on Sec. 3 of Article 35, recommending an amendment to shorten it without destroying any of its purpose. Adopted.

Del. Baldwin reported from the same committee on the petition of the Schuetzen Club, finding that some of its prayers related to subjects already considered, while others were matters for ordinary legislation, and recommending that other subjects of the petition should be considered with the Constitution in committee of the whole. Adopted.

Del. Baldwin asked for the ruling of the chair on his motion pending before adjournment yesterday afternoon.

Pres. Dole answered that the rules having been suspended his motion was in order then, but the adjournment having been carried disposed of the motion.

Del. Carter argued against the propriety of a question's being brought up repeatedly by playing on the good will of members in the absence of parties in the Convention.

Vice Pres. Wilder held that the matter could come up as unfinished business.

The motion came up after discussion and the rules were suspended.

Del. Baldwin moved to strike out the amendment added to Article 7, allowing the Legislature to make laws giving the Government an appeal in criminal cases.

Del. Kalua, in moving to have the eyes and noses called, spoke in favor of retaining the amendment. What he had seen of jury trials at Wailuku made him ashamed of his country men and convinced him of the necessity of this amendment. Cases were decided not upon the facts but the amounts of bribes offered. It was folly to think that the Republic was going to secure peace. The feelings of the natives against the movement would still rankle in their hearts. Their newspapers were keeping up the agitation until the natives had more politics than pot in their stomachs.

Del. Fernandes supported the motion to strike out the amendment. If the native jury could not be trusted, then abolish the native jury.

The eyes and noses were called on the motion, which carried on the following vote:

Ayes: Ables, Allen, Baldwin, Damon, Emmeluth, Ems, Fernandes, Hironaka, Kahaloalo, Kamaeaka, Morgan, Scott, Pogue, Robertson, D. B. Smith, Tenney, Vivas, Wilder. — 18.

Noes: Bolte, Brown, Carter, Hatch, Josepa, Kalua, Kaulana, King, Lyman, McCandless, Mendonca, Rice, W. O. Smith, Waterhouse, A. S. Wilcox, G. N. Wilcox, Young. — 17.

Del. Kahaloalo moved that the committee on promulgation of the Constitution be empowered to have a photograph taken of the Constitutional Convention, and that a copy of such photograph be presented to each member of the Convention.

Min. Hatch moved to proceed with the consideration of Article 18.

Del. Kahaloalo's motion being seconded was put and lost.

Count McCandless moved to consider Sec. 5 of Art. 77.

Count Tenney moved that Art. 7 pass as amended.

After a talk on a point of order the rules were suspended and the motion carried.

Count McCandless renewed his motion, claiming the right under suspension of the rules.

On a point of order he was overruled, and Min. Hatch's motion to consider Art. 18, deferred, was carried. The Article relates to "Naturalization."

Sec. 1 gives the Justices of the Supreme Court exclusive jurisdiction in the naturalization of aliens.

Sec. 2 makes the qualifications for naturalization as follows: Residence for not less than two years; intention to become a permanent citizen; ability to read, write and speak English; ability to explain, in his own words in English, the general meaning of any part of the Constitution; be a citizen or subject of a country having a naturalization treaty with Hawaii; be of good moral character and not a refugee from justice; be engaged in some lawful business or employment or have other lawful means of support; own property in the Republic worth not less than $200; have taken the oath of allegiance and payable to the stockholders of WILDER'S STEAMSHIP COMPANY.

ever, that the conditions of intention to become a permanent citizen, of an oath abjuring allegiance to the Government of his native land, of an oath of allegiance to the republic and of application to the Supreme Court shall not be required; and provided further that the condition of being a citizen or subject of a country having treaty relations with this republic concerning naturalization shall not apply to persons who have resided in the Hawaiian Islands for a period of seven years or more prior to the date of the promulgation of this constitution, and who may apply for letters of denization within five years.

Section 2. Every person having letters of denization shall take the oath prescribed in Art. 99 of this constitution and shall thereupon be subject to all of the duties and obligations of a citizen.

Section 3. All letters of denization heretofore granted are hereby revoked.

Del. Robertson moved an amendment to require denizens to take the oath of allegiance prescribed in Art. 99. Without this denizens might join in a royalist movement.

Min. Hatch declined to accept the amendment, as the taking of the oath might be construed to be a forfeiture of the person's allegiance to his own country.

Del. Vivas considered that this Article had received more tinkering than any other in the Constitution. It was now in a condition where it opened the door to Asiatics voting. He solemnly protested against the change, and would record his vote against it.

Count Emmeluth moved an amendment to overcome Del. Vivas' objection. On the infirmation from the chair that there was no seconder, the mover said then he would vote solidly against any proposition to admit as denizens persons who had lived here seven years. He would have the limit fixed to come within the first presidential term. While he could trust the present Executive, he did not propose to take any risks with a future administration.

The President said he would have been glad to put Mr. Emmeluth's motion, but could not under the rules.

Count Tenney seconded the amendment.

Del. Robertson supported the amendment.

Min. Hatch, after a desultory discussion, accepted the amendment. The Article as amended passed.

Min. Smith, in view of the action taken on Article 7, would move an addition to the oath of office in Article 99, so as to include jurors.

Count Brown said that would be worse than the amendment. The object to that was it was political, but this made every juror take a political oath.

Min. Hatch—And why shouldn't a juror take such an oath? We want to establish a republic, and not a republic merely on the surface and a monarchy underneath.

The amendment carried. At 12:05 the Convention adjourned till 2 o'clock.

The Fourth of July approaches and with it the prospects of the usual celebration, and there seems to be a disposition on the part of the government to combine with the stereotyped ceremonies of an American holiday whatever goes with the promulgation of a constitution and the proclaiming of a republic. As the participants in the overthrow of the monarchical form of government were people of sundry and various nationalities, some of whom religiously abstain from celebrating any purely Yankee event the combination may not be entirely satisfactory. To the American contingent there's a good deal of patriotism and sentiment connected with the Fourth but we fail to observe any among the Britons. Nor is there a vast amount of harmony in a duet where one singer pipes, "Yankee Doodle" and the other "Der wach am Rhein." There are numerous nationalities to conciliate in little Hawaii, and, in our opinion the interests of all parties could best be served by the selection of some other day than the Fourth of July.

"Nothing succeeds like success" and nothing will clean paints or glass or polish, silver, brass, tin or nickel like "D & D." Sapolio is a good article so far as it goes; liberal advertising has made it appear better than it really is, but the draw back to Sapolio for household use is the fact that it will not clean silver. In "D & D" you can have a cake of soap that floats like the famous "Ivory" you read so much about and besides doing everything that Sapolio does it polishes metal. We believe that this will take the place of Sapolio and all other polishes on account of its adaptability to so many different things about the house. As it is purely a vegetable deposit from the State of Washington it contains no chemicals or anything that will injure the hands or article on which it is used. Everyone knows Pearlina and its effect upon the hands when used in too great a proportion, "D & D" will leave the hands in better shape than before you used it. Having nothing "gritty" in it there is no danger of damage to the finest silver plate or cut glass. It removes the tarnish from silver and brightens brass work with the use of very little muscular force. We have the Sole Agency for this polish, and we secured it because we saw the advantages it contained over all other articles of a similar character. The price is a shade higher than Sapolio, but then it lasts longer.

Its rather strange that boys in Hawaii do not go in for soldier companies, drilling and all that sort of thing as they do in the states. The spirit of '76 seems not to exist in the kid of the American colony as it does at home. We have a dozen or so miniature rifles which shoot blank or regular cartridges and have bayonets on them the same as a regular gun. For boys they are just the thing, and if the old gentleman wants to borrow it to shoot a stray cat or a mynah bird it will do the business. They're as good as a parlor rifle for short range.

The "Andrew Welch" now on the way from San Francisco has a lot of the Standard Manufacturing Co.'s goods on board for us! Enamel bath tubs, sinks, washstands and water closets. We're having calls for these goods every day and we confidently believe that the new lot will not last long. If you should want a tub, and your good wife objects to the expense tell her its the sort that may be kept clean as easily as her china wash bowl.

LUCOL IS THE BEST PAINT OIL!

The following testimonial has been received from a prominent plantation owner and manager:

HONOLULU, H. I., May 29, 1894. PACIFIC HARDWARE CO. L'd, Honolulu. Gentlemen:—

You ask my opinion of Lucol as a Paint Oil. I have experimented with Lucol for outside and inside work, also on iron work, painting my vacuum pan, machinery and centrifugals, with it and the result has been most satisfactory. It dries harder, makes a better finish, goes farther and is more satisfactory in every way than linseed oil.

Certain paint work which was always sticky with linseed oil, dried hard when Lucol Oil was used. Yours truly, A. O. DAKES.

Direction for Use. Use Lucol in every respect in the same manner as you would linseed oil, with the single exception that you may add fully one-quarter more Lucol to the same quantity of pigment than you would of linseed.

In using metallic, Venetian red, the ochres, and other dry pigments, it is advisable to mix up the paint at least one day before it is to be used, then add a third more Lucol and the paint will be found to cover well and have a good gloss.

NEVER USE JAPANS Where hard surfaces such as floors, steps, etc., are required use litharge only, never use Japans.

LUCOL MIXES WITH VARNISHES and assists their working and improves their appearance BUT THEY SHOULD BE USED SAME DAY THEY ARE MIXED, otherwise the gum of the varnish may be precipitated or the mixture curdled.

The addition of from 1/4 to 1/2 of Lucol to varnishes does not reduce their life nor retard their hardening and drying and it prevents their cracking.

Mr. Brown presented a report of progress from the Judiciary Committee on three matters in its hands.

A petition was read from J. A. Kennedy, C. P. Iaukea and J. A. Magoon, Prison Inspectors, praying for clemency to be extended on July 4 to three prisoners as follows: Full pardon to J. R. Mills; pardon of Lui, a South Sea Islander; pardon of Tawalo Magoho, a Japanese, on condition that he leave the country.

Referred to Judiciary Committee.

Min. Damon stated that the subsidy to the Oceanic Steamship Company would expire on June 30, and that there was application for assistance from the Canadian-Australian Line. He therefore introduced a bill authorizing the Executive to make contracts with different companies, giving free wharfage and port charges, also coal storage not exceeding 3000 tons.

Mr. McCandless asked the Minister of Foreign Affairs for information as to the reported refusal of permission to the British warship Champion to land troops for drill.

Min. Hatch in reply produced correspondence between himself and British Minister Woodhouse. This correspondence originated in a conversation between them at the British Legation.

1. The Minister of Foreign Affairs writes to the British Minister asking him, in view of their conversation, and of his complaint regarding a certain newspaper article, to state particularly his attitude toward the Provisional Government, he having given verbal information that he occupied a neutral position and that he had held no diplomatic relations with Queen Liliuokalani.

2. The British Minister replies, saying he could not see any reason for any further or public declaration of his position toward the Provisional Government, nor could he discover any ground of complaint regarding the "attitude of reserve" which he had maintained toward the Provisional Government, and which had been approved by Her Majesty's Government.

3. The British Minister, referring to the landing of troops for drill by Admiral Walker, U. S. N., asked for an extension of the same favor to Captain Rooke of H. B. M. S. Champion.

4. The Minister of Foreign Affairs writes to the British Minister, saying that as he had heard nothing further from him, in reply to the writer's request for a specific definition of his extraordinary attitude of reserve, the request on behalf of Captain Rooke was respectfully declined.

Min. Hatch, in reply to a further question by Mr. McCandless, stated that permission had been granted to the commander of the Japanese warship Kongo to land troops for drill next Monday and succeeding Mondays.

Min. Damon asked for leave of absence of four weeks to go to San Francisco on important business. Granted.

The Council adjourned.

National Cane Shredder

PATENTED UNDER THE LAWS OF THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS

THE UNDERSIGNED HAVE BEEN APPOINTED SOLE AGENTS FOR THESE SHREDDERS and are now prepared to receive orders. The great advantages to be derived from the use of the NATIONAL CANE SHREDDER are thoroughly established and acknowledged by Planters generally.

The large number of Planters using them in the United States, Cuba, Argentine Republic, Peru, Australia and elsewhere, bear witness to the above claim.

The use of the SHREDDER very largely augments the quantity of cane the mill can grind (25 to 50%), also the extraction of juice (8 to 12%).

It is a great safeguard, making known at once the presence of any pieces of iron, stakes from cars, or anything which would be liable to damage the mill, and allowing ample time to remove same before damaging the mill.

The SHREDDER is very strongly made, and from the manner of its operation it cuts or tears these pieces of wood or iron without often breaking the SHREDDER, and if anything breaks, it is simply some of the knives or cutters, which can be quickly and economically replaced. The SHREDDER, as its name indicates, tears the cane into shreds of varying lengths, perfectly opening it and allowing the mill to thoroughly press out the juices without requiring the immense extra power necessary to grind or crush the whole cane. The SHREDDER spreads the shredded cane uniformly and evenly to the mill rolls, and does away with the necessity of spreading the bagasse by hand between the mills, where regrinding is in use. No greater amount of boiler capacity is required to operate the SHREDDER than that which was sufficient for the mill, for the above reasons. We furnish full working drawings for the installation of our SHREDDERS, enabling any competent engineer to successfully install and start them.

In ordering SHREDDERS from us, please send small sketch, showing the diameter and width of the mill rolls with which SHREDDERS is to be connected, also the side (either right or left hand as you face it) delivery side of the mill, upon which the mill engine is located, also the height from floor line to center of front mill roll shaft, and distance center this shaft to front end of bed plate. These SHREDDERS are now being used by the Hilo Sugar Co. and Hilo Mill, Kohala, where they are giving great satisfaction.

HOMES

THE OAHU RAILWAY & LAND CO.

OFFERS THE PUBLIC Another Great Opportunity

To Secure Homes in One of the Most Delightful Localities to be Found in the Paradise of the Pacific.

As a healthy resort—Pearl City has already established an enviable reputation. Many good citizens in this community have experienced the wonderful effect produced by a few days sojourn in that dry, cool atmosphere, and give grateful testimony to the relief they have almost instantly gained from severe and long continued attacks of asthma. Physicians acquainted with the climate of Pearl City recommend it as a natural sanitarium.

THE WATER SUPPLY IS AMPLE!

And can be increased to meet the needs of a population equal to the largest city in the world.

Special Inducements to Early Settlers:

For ninety days from date we will sell LOTS ON SPECIAL TERMS favorable to bona-fide settlers. For a term of three months from date, lumber and all building materials will be supplied, and delivered at Pearl City at much lower price than ever before obtained.

For further particulars, call at this office or on any of the lumber dealers in this city. Those who now own lots as well as those who propose to become residents of that growing city, will do well to embrace this opportunity. Those who avail themselves of this offer, within the time named, will be entitled to, and will receive the following benefits:

For a term of ten years, this Company will carry such residents and their families from Pearl City to Honolulu in the morning (arriving a little before seven o'clock), and from Honolulu to Pearl City in the evening (leaving Honolulu station a little after five o'clock), for ten cents each way, a rate less than one cent per mile. The rates on all other passenger trains running during the day or night, will be 15 cents per mile first class, and 1 cent per mile second class.

A good school is about to be opened in the Peninsula, in the fine, large, new school-house erected by Mr. J. T. Waterhouse. Residents living at Pearl City heights, (above Pearl City station) and those having homes on the Peninsula, will be allowed to ride free on regular trains between Pearl City stations to and from the Peninsula.

Those who want to continue to send their children to schools in Honolulu, can have transportation on all regular trains to and from Pearl City, for the purpose of attending school, at five cents each way for each pupil. This is equal to 24 to 26 miles ride for ten cents.

Equal inducements for those desiring to secure homes in this country have never before been offered to the public.

This Company has been requested from abroad to name the price of all their iron and steel land in that locality.

Should a clearance sale be made to a syndicate, no opportunity like the present would again occur for the purchase of homes at Pearl City.

W. J. SADRIS, General Manager.

HARDEN AS A PROTECTOR.

He is Shielding an Alleged Deserter from H. B. M.'s Navy.

A young man known as George Jones is hiding in this city, and it is all on account of "ELIZA." The other day Mrs. Gardiner informed Senior Captain Andrews that George Jones, who until recently was employed on the steamer W. G. Hall, was a deserter from H. B. M. S. Garnet. The information was imparted to Commander Rooke, of H. B. M. S. Champion, and Jones was posted up as a deserter and a reward was offered for his capture. Somehow or other Jones got wind of the affair and sought the assistance of Francis Leo Harden. Harden took him under his wing and although the police have scoured the city Jones can't be found. Harden, acting as counsel for Jones, has made a proposition that if Commander Rooke will insure immediate trial he will produce the missing man. Otherwise he will not hand him over. Harden, when seen this morning, said: "Justice is all we want, and if we can get that, all well and good. If I hand the man over he will be imprisoned for about six months before he can get a trial, as the Garnet is in England."

ANOTHER BASE LIE

The Star Gets Off More Malice Against the Queen.

The Star of Monday last again indulged in its base and malicious attacks on the Queen's character in an alleged act of kahuna terrorizing. The published report states that the Queen despatched a kahuna to the parents of a young man named Koki, recently appointed police officer at Waianai for the purpose of causing them to retire their son from the ranks of the P. G. It further states that the kahuna was ousted, but among members of other families in the vicinity of Palama and Waikiki the kahuna had been more successful. The father of the young man mentioned was found yesterday by a Bulletin reporter and interrogated about the matter. He was very indignant and his reply in English was: "Don't you believe that. That paper is d— lie! No kahuna come my place." Others connected with the family were seen with the same result. The kahuna story was only another product of the Star's volunteer corps of liars.

While in Topoka last March, E. T. Barber, a prominent newspaper man of La Crosse, Kan., was taken with cholera morbus very severely. The night clerk at the hotel where he was stopping happened to have a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and gave him three doses which relieved him and he thinks saved his life. Every family should keep this remedy in their home at all times. No one can tell how soon it may be needed. It costs but a trifle and may be the means of saving much suffering and perhaps the life of some member of the family. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by all dealers.
