WAR ON BICYCLE THIEVES

CYCLE BOARD OF TRADE STARTS A CRUSADE.

A Conviction in the District Court This Morning—Standing Reward Offered. Co-operation of Individuals Asked.

George Sorrell was convicted of embezzlement in the District court this morning and sentenced to six months imprisonment. His offense was renting a bicycle and selling it.

Sorrell whose real name is Kaumai rented a wheel of E. O. B. & Son for two hours a week or ten days ago paying for it in advance. He did not return the wheel and it was finally found in the possession of Kanakakal. He at first said he got it of Kaui, but later confessed he got it of Kaumai. Judge Wilcox scored Kanakakal for trying to implicate an innocent man.

The case was worked up by the Cycle Board of Trade and is the first of a crusade that organization has begun against bicycle thieves. The larceny of bicycles has become such a serious matter within the past few months, that the organization has decided on vigorous steps to stop it. A standing reward of $25 for evidence to convict is offered and in all cases where bicycles are stolen, the board will provide a lawyer to prepare the case and assist the marshal in prosecuting if it is informed of the matter. Anyone who has a bicycle stolen is asked to notify the board and it will use its best endeavors to recover the wheel and secure the conviction of the thief.

This bicycle stealing has taken all the dealers and individuals who have been victims. In some cases a wheel is rented from a dealer and never returned, being sold or otherwise disposed of. In other cases wheels are stolen outright from individuals. It is said that a dozen or more wheels have been stolen in some of these ways in the past month. In some cases the wheels have been recovered from innocent purchasers. In other cases no trace of the wheels has been found at all.

The Cycle Board of Trade believes that by co-operation of the public in prompt notification of such losses, and by vigilance in hunting the thieves and vigor in prosecuting them when caught, this sort of thievery can be practically stopped.

COLUMBIA AT THE WHARF

REPAIRS TO THE WONDER CRAFT COMPLETED.

Will Take on Water and Coal and Make a Trial Trip Around the Islands—To Guam.

The City of Columbia pulled over to the Pacific Mail wharf this forenoon to take on water for her engines. As soon as this is done she will go over as near Sumner's Island as possible and put aboard several hundred tons of the coal that is piled up there, from the wreck of the Edward O'Brien. When this is done the steamship will go on a cruise around the Islands to thoroughly test her seaworthiness. She will be driven hard, as it is the intention to demonstrate that she is in first-class condition. It is expected that she will start on this cruise about June 24.

After this preliminary cruise the vessel will start on her voyage to Hong-kong going by way of Guam.

The repairs to the City of Columbia include a thorough rebuilding and strengthening of her stern and rudder posts; and reshaping of the afterpart below the water line, so that she does not leak at all. These repairs are said to have cost over $5000. The boilers and engines have been overhauled and the steam pipes are new throughout.

The officers and crew have not all been selected as yet. Those that have been appointed are T. H. Walker, captain; R. H. Lawton, first officer; T. McMillan, chief engineer; Thomas McLean, first assistant engineer; Dr. Reedy, purser. First officer Lawton was lately on the Martha Davis and formerly on the transport Valencia. Chief Engineer McMillan was formerly at Ewa plantation. Dr. Reedy was connected with the military hospital at Independence park.

THE PHELPS' SUGAR.

Took the Most Valuable Cargo of the Season.

The new steel American ship Erskine M. Phelps took the most valuable cargo of sugar that has left the Islands this season and one of the most valuable that ever went from here. The cargo amounted to $2,927 bags valued at $435,512.92. It goes to Delaware breakwater.

It was distributed among the various agencies as follows:
W. G. Irwin & Company 2900 bags, M. S. Grinbaum & Company 13,000 bags, F. A. Schaefer & Company 6540 bags, C. Brewer & Company, 8096 bags, Alexander & Cook 16,296 bags, H. Haeckel & Company 41,765 bags, T. H. Davies & Company 2900 bags.

DIED WITHOUT ATTENTION.

A native woman died on Lihua street this morning without medical attention. The Board of Health agent properly refused a burial certificate and referred the applicant to the coroner. Deputy Marshal Chillingworth requested the applicant to wait a few moments until he could summon Dr. Emerson. The man in quest of the certificate skipped out and has not been seen since.

There will be a thorough investigation of the matter by Deputy Marshal Chillingworth.

COFFEE ESTATE.

The coffee estate belonging to Henry Louisson, son of M. Louisson of Grinbaum & Company is progressing favorably. The estate contains some 200 acres and about 67 are planted. The trees are coming on well and quite a crop is expected next year. A recent visitor describes the place as being well kept and cultivated with excellent prospects in sight. The plantation is at a level of over 1000 feet in the vicinity of the Honokaa sugar plantation. Mr. Horner's coffee tract, which is contiguous, is already producing a heavy crop of berries.

MID-WEEK CHANGE.

The Orpheum program changes to-night and Post introduces his new comedy sketch, The Coming Man. It promises to be one of the best of his efforts. New songs and dances will make up a good evening's entertainment. As this is one of the large audience nights it would be wise to secure seats at the box office during the day.

COOKING SCHOOL.

The ladies cooking school project is meeting with general favor. It is expected that every housekeeper in the city will show interest in the matter, enough to attend the meeting to be held at 9 o'clock Friday morning. The conference will be held in the Y. M. C. A. hall.

ST. ANDREW'S GUILD.

ALMOST DOUBLE TRAGEDY

JAP CUTS WOMAN'S THROAT AND STABS HIMSELF.

Believed to Have Been Premeditated Assault With Intent to Murder and Suicide—Man and Wife.

There was almost a double tragedy in Paunahi street about 11 o'clock last night. In the hospital is a Japanese woman with her throat cut around and in a cell at the station house is her husband with an ugly gash across the abdomen.

The weapon used was a pocket knife. No one saw the cutting. The assumption is that the man cut the woman's throat and then stabbed to kill himself.

A sailor saw all that is now known of the affair. He was on Nuuanu street at the head of Paunahi when the woman ran out of a house, closely pursued by her assailant. A few feet from the door both of the persons fell from loss of blood. The cutting had just taken place inside of the house.

The sailor and two policemen were quickly on the scene. They grasped the hands of the man, who was endeavoring to stab his victim a last time in the neck. The woman was hurried to the hospital where she was given surgical attention at once. Though the cut is dangerous, she will survive the night. At the station house the wound of the man was dressed by Dr. Emerson.

It is rumored among Japanese that the assault was premeditated. It is said that the husband has been in wait in this city several days for the woman, whom he suspected of infidelity. It is believed that the cutting took place the minute he came up with her in the Paunahi street house.

RICHARD IVERS IN OFFICE

THE NEW COLLECTOR-GENERAL TAKES HOLD.

Goes Over the Work of the Department With the Minister of Finance—Meets His Subordinates.

The new Collector-General of Customs is formally in office. He and Minister Damon spent most of the afternoon yesterday up to the time the Australia sailed, in consultation and conference with the heads of divisions in the customs service.

This morning Mr. Ivers assumed the duties of the office. There was no formal installation. During the forenoon the principal customs officials called on him, and those who were not previously acquainted with him were introduced to him. He greeted them all cordially. He said his ambition was to conduct the office efficiently and with satisfaction to the public.

He asked the jealous co-operation of all employees of the department to this end. There would be no changes he assured them, for the present, and none at all except in the interest of better service and greater efficiency.

The daily reports were submitted to him and he carefully went through them. During the day he has been familiarizing himself with the various branches of the service.

NEW COFFEE ROASTER.

McChesney & Sons Install the Very Latest Machinery.

McChesney & Sons have installed in their warehouse a Burns coffee roaster, something entirely new here. It is a tremendous affair, run by electricity, and is capable of turning out 3600 to 4000 pounds of coffee a day, if anything like that output were necessary.

The roaster is installed in a big brick furnace. A wheel turns the dasher on the inside of the roaster. By a simple apparatus the coffee may be examined at any stage during the process of roasting. When "done" the roaster is turned over and out comes the cooked coffee. It is immediately transferred to the cooler.

From this point the coffee is sent upstairs and is there ground. In this department are both coffee and spice grinders. All are run by electricity.

The machinery is so complete in every detail that the concern will be able to grind the coffee of a competitor before he can get his fires up to even roast it on the old plan. Several firms in town have already contracted to roast in the McChesney outfit.

The roaster will be run regularly for the first time on Friday. A large number of gentlemen of the city have been invited to witness the start.

MORE OF THEM USED.

There are probably more Singer sewing machines used in the United States than of any other one make. This is a very excellent guarantee that they are one of the very best machines. The points of merit are strength, durability, easy running, and simple construction. Very little mechanism to get out of order makes repair bills small. When in need of a new sewing machine examine the Singer before purchasing any other make. B. Bergerstrom, agent, Bethel street.

Stop at the Owl Lunch Wagon and take home a hot Chicken Tamale.

HAWAII IS INDEPENDENT

STILL UNDER THE UNIVERSAL POSTAL UNION.

Schedules of Rates Adopted for New Possessions Does Not Apply to This Country.

The United States Postal Department has issued a notice relating to mail matter going to or coming from Cuba, Porto Rico, Hawaii and the Philippines. This card is posted on every post office in the country. With respect to Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippines, the people are given a regular rate, which is 5 cents for a letter of two ounces, etc.

The peculiarity of the notice is its reference to Hawaii. In speaking of rates "except Hawaii" is invariably inserted. At the end of the public is notified that Universal Postal Union rates will continue to apply on all mail matter, except that of soldiers and sailors, to and from the Hawaiian Islands.

The point brought out by the Postal Department is that Hawaii is still, so far as it is concerned, an independent country. At the local post office this morning it was stated, with respect to the notice, that "United States Postal laws are not in any sense in force here. We are working under Universal Postal Union regulations. The reduction on letters of soldiers and sailors is merely a concession by the Hawaiian Postmaster-General."

The notice sent out from Washington will be of great benefit in notifying people of the rates of postage. Since the annexation treaty passed Congress last summer, a large part of the mail brought from the mainland to this country has borne less than half sufficient postage. The result has been a considerable tax on the people of the Islands. It is believed that the general notice, reaching all parts of the country, will have the desired effect.

BROKE A RIB.

Mr. Teursely sustained a broken rib in an accident near the park Monday. While biking he was run over by a Chinese wagon. Escape was very narrow. He was assisted by friends to the city, and an examination revealed the extent of the injuries. Mr. Teursely arrived recently from Maui, where was employed on a plantation.

BABY LIONS GONE.

Terrors of a Neighborhood Leave for San Francisco.

James' baby lions have left Honolulu. They took passage by the Australia yesterday for San Francisco. The company charged $150 for their transportation.

It is a relief to Union street and the town that these brutes are out of the way. They were small when they came here six months ago, but grew to be terrors of the neighborhood. They were included in such weak cages that either of the beasts falling against the sides of it would have broken out.

When the lions came to Honolulu a bond of $500 was required that they would be taken away again. This bond was cancelled yesterday.

ONE APPLICATION RELIEVES THE PAIN.

A SMALL BOY RUN OVER

LAD THEN SPIRITED AWAY FOR AN HOUR.

Native Who Ran Over Him Waited Until Injuries Proved Not Serious Before Taking Little Fellow Home.

The police department was all excitement this afternoon over a bicycle accident on Nuuanu street near Vineyard and the strange disappearance immediately after of a small white boy, who was hurt.

Just before 2 o'clock a double seated rig drove up to a residence on School street and left the boy. He is badly bruised and shaken up but there is nothing serious the matter. The driver of the rig, P. Kuahivi, was arrested and is now held at the station house.

The boy's name is John Nicol. He is thirteen years of age and works for the Bergstrom Music Company. He went to lunch and was returning to the store when driven over by the rig. The balance of the story is peculiar.

A short time afterward the rig drove by the boys' residence on School street and threw the bicycle in two parts. The mother saw the act. A younger brother, who was up a mango tree in the yard, says his brother was in the carriage at the time. The rig drove off.

Mrs. Nicol was thoroughly alarmed and notified the police. For more than an hour the boy did not show up at the Bergstrom music store and his employees also became alarmed. The mounted patrol began to scour the town. At last a policeman sighted the carriage as it was turning up to the boys' residence in School street. The arrest followed.

Kuahivi is quite a prominent Hawaiian. When he drove over the boy he started on, but a lady on a passing street car came on the platform and demanded that he take the little fellow to his home. Kuahivi obeyed to the extent of taking the boy into his rig and leaving his bike at the house. It is supposed that he did not leave the boy at home at first for fear of being arrested for furious and reckless driving. Finding later that the little fellow was not so badly hurt he decided to take him home.

Kuahivi's case will come up tomorrow morning in the Police court.

CONQUERING SMALL POX

DR. MARY MCKEE'S BRAVE AND DRASTIC METHODS.

Vaccinates a Whole Tribe, fumigates Houses, Burns Infected Property and Saves the Moqui Indians.

WASHINGTON (D. C.), May 30.—The small pox is so bad among the Moqui Indians in Arizona and is spreading so fast that there is fear that the whole tribe may be exterminated. In order to stop the plague Miss Mary McKee, the agency physician, with the assistance of Mr. Shoemaker, the farmer employed by the Government to teach the Indians
the science of agriculture and the use of modern implements, undertook to vaccinate the entire tribe, fumigate their houses and burn the effects of those who have died or were suffering from the disease.

The Indians made a stubborn resistance. They are fatalists. Their religion teaches them a sick person is under the ban of the evil spirit, who can only be driven away by incantations and the use of the magic arts. Therefore it is not only difficult but almost impossible to convince them that small pox can be prevented by the use of simple and ordinary precautions. Miss McKee decided to take matters into her own hands, and she ordered up the entire tribe for vaccination. The agent of the Moqui Indians, a man named Hazlett, also has the Navajos under his charge and lives with the latter tribe. But he readily gave his permission for this brave little woman doctor to use her own judgment in stamping out the plague.

The Indians did not take the vaccination seriously. They are accustomed to a good deal of self-torture, and a little scraping of the skin and soreness of the arm was not a matter of much consequence to them, but when Miss McKee invaded their homes and drove them out and put in her pairs of sulphur they made a decided remonstrance.
Then when she seized the clothing,
bedding, furniture and other things that had been in the rooms of small pox victims, the relatives who expected to inherit the property objected. But neither this nor anything else stopped her until she had thoroughly cleansed and fumigated two of the seven villages and vaccinated every one of their inhabitants.

FEMALE PRESIDENT.

Miss Hazard, the newly elected president of Wellesley, is described as a tall woman, of dignified carriage and of splendid physique. She has attractive brown eyes and a pleasant voice, and a manner which is at once simple and straightforward, with the ease of a woman of the world.

A HEART PAIN.

Piercing the left side like a keen edged knife, palpitation, choking in the throat, usually accompanied by retarded circulation, are sure signs of heart disease. If neglected death is the result, and if taken in time they may be cured and the long line of diseases which follow in the wake of imperfect heart action may be avoided.
Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is the only safe and reliable medicine for diseased hearts. It never fails to benefit when taken in time.
"I had spells when I would get ice cold and my heart would stop beating;
then I would feel a piercing pain which seemed to go right through me, which would be followed by palpitation and I would clutch at my left breast in agony. From the time I began taking Dr.
Miles' New Heart Cure these spells grew less severe and finally disappeared altogether. I am well and strong now and can do all my own work with ease."

All druggists are authorized to sell

SUGAR PROSPECTS IN U. S.

SECRETARY WILSON'S OPINION OF THE FUTURE.

Makes Tour of Southern States and Foresees Great Agricultural Improvement—Sugar, Rice and Tobacco.

WASHINGTON, May 30.—Secretary
Wilson has returned from an extended tour through Louisiana and Texas, where he rubbed elbows with the farmers and exerted his influence to hasten them in the diversification of their products.

"One of the most striking facts discovered," said the secretary, "was the advanced work being done by the experiment stations of Louisiana and Texas. They are anticipating what the one crop farmer may be compelled to do in the early future. Their inquiries are being made in the interest of the cotton grower, who is receiving meager returns for his outlay. Both these stations are experimenting with alfalfa. It grows abundantly on the deep rich soils around the gulf. It can be cut once a month. This makes many things possible. The livery men of New Orleans have discovered already that a ton of alfalfa hay is much more valuable to them than a ton of timothy or wild hay.
The dairymen will discover presently that conditions in the south are peculiarly favorable for the production of butter and cheese. In the hill districts of the south, where springs are abundant, dairying can be conducted without ice or refrigerating plants, but around the gulf, where the water comes out of the ground at a temperature of about 70 degrees, it will be necessary to have cooling processes. I saw as fine dairy cows in the two States visited as I have found anywhere, and it is only a question of extending their number when dairying will be a leading industry in the South.

"The sugar growers have been much encouraged by the operations of the Dingley tariff act. This may also be said of the rice and tobacco producers.
Northern capital is being invested in all these industries and Northern men are going down there. Along the coast region considerable prairie is yet being grazed by ranch cattle. The land is well stocked with plant food, moisture is abundant, and anything can be produced. The railroads of the section are much more satisfactory than in any other part of the country in their customary in regard to encouraging industries.
The Southern Pacific is especially helpful and encouraging to the rice men.

"I stopped off at many places and examined industries that were new to me. To give Chicago people some idea of the amount of work in connection with the irrigating systems, where water is lifted out of the bayous and deep rivers, which are common along the coast line, I might refer to one pumping station at Crowley, where 400,000 gallons of water is pumped into a reservoir in a minute, or 25 per cent more than the amount of water that will be let into the Chicago river from Lake Michigan,
and this is only one of many plants.
Tens of thousands of acres are being irrigated by this method.

"The United States produces something like 16 per cent of the sugar it consumes, and about 30 per cent of its rice. It will only be a short time before the whole of its sugar is produced at home, but the increase will not come so much from the South as from the North. The State of Michigan is now building nine sugar beet factories. The increase will be evident as the field extends from the Atlantic to the Pacific along the northern boundary. We pay something under $4,000,000 a year for rice from foreign countries. In a few years it will be produced at home.

"The enterprise of Southern railway men and Northern capitalists is rapidly discovering the tobacco lands of Texas.
Along the International & Great Northern railroad are found tobacco plantations of 1000 acres that have never been reported by any census-taker.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 14, 1899.

The story brought up from Kaula of the supposed loss of five men between Hanalei and Waimea is somewhat sensational. The telephone does not extend through Napali, along which the men intended to coast on their way to Hanalei. Communication with the three valleys that pierce this precipitous coast is very imperfect, and it is quite possible for the men to have reached one on Thursday, and not be heard of on Sunday or Monday. This, however, is certain that they left Hanalei and did not reach Waimea, for there is telephonic communication between those points through the eastern and southern parts of the island.

There never was an appointment made by the government which did not in nine cases out of ten call forth unfavorable comment. The old homely proverb of the "proof of the pudding is in the eating," is one to consider before bursting forth in adverse and carping criticism. The appointing power may know what it is about a great deal better than the outsider does. One can point to a dozen positions filled by capable men, who before they took office, had made no particular mark, but who developed powers of organization and executive ability which made them invaluable when responsibility was put upon them. It is always wise to reserve criticism till there is cause for its being called forth. The very person criticized may in course of time, prove to be one upon whom great praise may fall for ability and firmness in the office entrusted to him.

The idea of a cooking school to instruct cooks is a good one. It is not that there are not good cooks in Honolulu, but that any incompetent aspirant who has washed dishes in some well-kept house, goes off and represents himself as Mrs. So And So's cook, and thus gets an engagement at a wage that he is utterly unentitled to. There will be difficulty with cooks' certificates, just as there is difficulty with servants' "characters" in England, for certificates will be saleable articles, and on the departure of a successful cook to China, he will certainly make money out of the certificate, and an incompetent might obtain possession of it. But the cooking school is a step in the right direction, and will surely do much good. The certificate system will be a check, and the tendency will be to unite the employers of cooks and do away in a great measure with those whose claims are spurious.

A LESSON.

A short time ago a guest of Lord Russel of Killowen, lord chief justice of England, died suddenly. Of course a doctor was called in, and certified that death occurred from an epileptic fit. But sudden deaths are not put into the schedule of "unknown" in England. Though everything was plain, though the death had occurred in the house of the highest legal official in the kingdom, though there could be no suspicion of foul play, nevertheless an inquest was duly held, and a verdict given in accordance with the evidence brought forward.

There is a lesson in this to be taken to heart by our officials here. Under no circumstances is an inquest avoided in England, when a sudden death has occurred. There has been a marvelous change for the better here within the last few weeks, and the true sanctity of life is realized and investigation is held promptly, but it has taken years to reach the present satisfactory condition. Attention is called to the case above mentioned to show that The Star, in its campaign for having inquests held in all cases of sudden death, is not utopian in its desire, but that what it has advocated, has been carried out elsewhere, as it should be, with absolute impartiality and with no respect whatever for persons or positions.

PRAISE FOR PROGRESS.

Any one who makes a trip round the island of Oahu on the railroad must be struck with energy and determination which has carried that work through, and made it the great success which it is. Seeing it now, one hardly realizes through what difficulties its promoter has had to pass, before reaching the present satisfactory condition of affairs. When one looks back and thinks of the time when B. F. Dillingham was looked upon as a visionary dreamer, and when the old fossils and mossbacks of that day used to gabble about the railroad and show conclusively that it would never pay and that the investors were beguiled of their money, and to prophesy generally the most utter disaster and then compare present conditions, there is nothing but credit to be given to one man, and that is to B. F. Dillingham.

And it is not only what has been done, but what will be done in the future, which all can feel satisfied with. The schemes a foot are for still further improvements. Of course, it is true that through the railroad, and through the proportion of the large plantations, which are adding to the permanent wealth of the Islands, Mr. Dillingham has pushed his own fortunes, but he has at the same time pushed the fortunes of others.

Property along the line of railroad, which, two years ago was worth little or nothing, has either been sold at great advance, or is bringing in a rental which was undreamed of in days gone by. Of course it is true that but for annexation this great progress would not have occurred, but it is equally true that if the railroad had not been as advanced as it was, the island of Oahu could never have taken advantage of annexation as easily or as quickly as it has done.

It is the nature of mankind to be jealous of the successful, and to impute motives to them which are entirely at variance with their real nature. So Mr. Dillingham is sometimes represented as a grasping monopolist now, instead of a visionary dreamer as he was dubbed a decade or two ago. That he should be forward in all enterprises by no means argues that he is grasping after power or wealth. It only means that he is an energetic man, who sees the goal of prosperity ahead, and is foremost in pushing towards it. What ever prosperity comes does not go solely into Mr. Dillingham's pocket, but is divided among many who are helped, even against themselves.

A COMING MISSION.

The proposal to establish mission stations in Mindanao argues energy upon the part of those who have brought the question forward, and steered it towards practical fruition.

People view missionary enterprises from such different standpoints that any effort of this kind is met with extravagant praise in one direction, and by sneers and the basest of innuendos to ultimate motives from another. A mere duty in enhanced by one section as something transcendent, while the other section can see no call of duty, and suggests that everything is done for gain, and to fill pockets. But the even-minded man need not indulge in extravagant praises, nor need he seek for sinister motives in action which is actually laudable.

To establish a mission in Mindanao will be no light task. Many parts of the island are very wild, and the southern part of the island is open to attacks from the piratical inhabitants of the Solu group, who are fanatical Mohammedans. The men who are sent out to break ground, as it were, will have no mean mission before them. They will have to face real physical danger and some of them are very likely to fall victims to their cause. To their honor be it said that there are plenty ready to brave death in what they consider a sacred cause.

That the religious people of the United States will assist such a movement may be regarded as certain. The Philippine Islands have been a close preserve for the Spanish phase of Roman Catholicism, and this is characterized by its exclusiveness and its bigotry. Now that the United States is suzerain, that the exclusiveness is no longer possible, and it will be eminently to the advantage of the people that it should be broken.

It speaks well for the energy of the religious section of Hawaii that an effort of this kind should have its inception and should meet with liberal assistance in this territory. But naturally the people of these Islands are better acquainted with the needs of the inhabitants of the Philippine archipelago, than are people on the mainland. And no doubt earnest workers will come from among the ranks of those whom we all know and who have lived and worked among us.

We Know
By Experience

Wise men use the experience of others
and make it their own.

Those who have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla are the ones who are competent to speak of its merits.

Thousands of these people say Hood's Sarsaparilla has cured them.

The testimonials of cures by Hood's constitute a vast mass of testimony which proves the power of this medicine to cure
a great variety of diseases.

These cures often seem marvelous, yet they are perfectly natural and are easily explained. They are the necessary result of purifying and enriching the blood.

Pure blood is the foundation of health.
Hood's Sarsaparilla is the One True Blood Purifier and cures disease by purifying and enriching the blood.

It possesses peculiar curative power,
that is, it cures when other medicines cannot cure, because it is peculiar in combination, proportion and process.

That is all there is to be explained about the cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

If you have faithfully tried Hood's Sarsaparilla you know how it is yourself; if you have not tried it, why not do so today?

"I have been troubled with scrofula all my life, and it affected my eyes so that I was obliged to remain in a dark room. I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. Now my eyes are so strong that the light never troubles me, and my health is good."

Electric Company.

The cleanest, brightest safest and really the long run, the cheapest and best light for use in the family residence, is the incandescent electric light. Safe; nothing could be safer. A few days ago a prominent gentleman of Honolulu came rushing down to the office of the Electric Company and said: "Give me figures for wiring my house, and I want it done at once; no more lamps for me. Last night a lamp tipped over and it came so near setting fire to the house and burning my children and I take no more risks."

This is the sentiment of quite a number in the past few weeks, who have ordered their houses fitted with the perfect light.

Just think it over and make up your mind that you want the best and safest light; send for the Hawaiian Electric Company and tell them what you want.

We have a complete stock of everything in his line and have just received a lot of the very latest designs in chandeliers melt these flakes of dandruff in the scalp. It goes further than this: it prevents their formation.

It has still other properties: it will restore color to gray hair in just ten out of every ten cases.

And it does even more: it feeds and nourishes the roots of the hair. Thin hair becomes thick hair; and short hair becomes long hair.

A PROMINENT CHURCHMAN

CARDINAL RAMPOLLA'S PLACE IN PAPAL HIERARCHY.

A Possible Pope. But for His Broad Views and Strong Support of the American Roman Catholic Churchmen.

Cardinal Rampolla, says W. E. Curtis, the papal secretary of state, is likely to be a very prominent figure in the affairs of the Catholic church during the next few years. He is now the right hand man of the pope in action, and his chief adviser in council. Except for his holy father he is the most powerful and influential force in the Catholic hierarchy. Cardinal Rampolla is still a young man, a Sicilian by birth, but a descendant of the kings of Saxony through his mother, who was the Duchess of Polignac, Sicily, on August 17, 1843, educated at the Vatican seminary, the Capranican college and the academy of noble Ecclesiastics at Rome. In 1875 he was sent to Madrid as auditor of the papal legation. Two years later he was called to Rome and made secretary of the propaganda for oriental affairs in the Vatican. His next promotion made him secretary of the congregation for extraordinary ecclesiastical affairs, which is a bureau of great importance in the Vatican.

In 1882 he was consecrated archbishop of Heraclea and sent as papal nuncio—that is, the diplomatic representative of the Vatican—to Madrid, where he remained for five years, until he was created a cardinal and appointed secretary of state, of prime minister in the cabinet of the pope. By virtue of his office he is president of the executive and administrative councils of the holy see. He is arch priest of the Vatican basilica and grand prior of the military order of the knights of Jerusalem. He is also prefect of the congregation of Loreto, and prefect of the congregation known as the Fabrica of St. Peter's cathedral.

It will thus be seen that Cardinal Rampolla's career has not only been brilliant, but rapid. So young a man never held such important positions and wielded so much influence in the church. He was only 39 years old when he was made archbishop and nuncio to Spain, and was the executive head of the church and cardinal at 44. Rampolla's life has been marked by piety and simplicity. At the same time his presence is impressive. His dignity befits his eminent position. His disposition is genial; he is full of wit and humor, and he has great social popularity without as well as within the circles of the church.

Cardinal Rampolla is quite as famous for his learning as for his ability. He has written the best works extant upon the traditions of the Greek church and upon the infallibility of the pope, and has just published a notable volume on the historical accuracy of the story of the Macabees. His views are quite as liberal as those of any of the hierarchy. In fact, he might be the successor of Leo XIII. in the pontificate but for his extreme liberality, which is offensive to the narrow and conservative members of the college of cardinals from southern Europe.

He is a great admirer and warm supporter of Cardinal Gibbons, Archbishop of Ireland, Mgr. Keane and other members of the liberal party of the Catholic church in America.

MAKING PEARLS.

How the Pure Gems Are Now Imitated.

At various times attempts have been made to manufacture genuine diamonds and other precious stones, but the cost of manufacture has in each case proved so great that up to the present time no such diamonds have been placed on the market. This statement, of course, does not apply to the manufacture of artificial precious stones, which seems to be thriving at present, judging from a recent cabinet dispatch to the New York Herald, which told how artificial diamonds and rubies are being manufactured in Europe.

The point of interest just now is the fact that a method of manufacturing genuine pearls at a trifling cost has just been discovered. Manufacture, however, is hardly the right word, for it is nature herself which does almost the whole business. A natural pearl, we know, is formed through the intrusion of a foreign body into the shell of a mussel.

The sea mussel is popularly supposed to have a monopoly of this business, but this is an error. A certain species of river mussels, technically known as Margaritana margaritifera, also produces beautiful pearls.

The attention of a French naturalist, M. Boutan, a professor at the Sorbonne, was recently drawn to this fact, and he at once conceived the idea of producing pearls by means of these river mussels. His first step was to prepare a sort of oyster bed for the propagation of the mussels, after which he began to aid nature in her work of making pearls. In each shell he bored a very small hole and through it he introduced a tiny bit of mother of pearl into the body of the fish.

His work was now complete, and all he had to do was to wait until nature had completed the process. That he will in time reap a rich harvest seems to be the general opinion among naturalists. By the way, this method of manufacturing pearls is not new, as the Chinese are said to have practiced it for centuries.

IT CURED HER COUGH.

I was seriously afflicted with a cough for several years, and last fall had a more severe cough than ever before. I have used many remedies without receiving much relief, and being recommended to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, by a friend, who, knowing me to be a poor widow, gave it to me. I tried it, and with the most gratifying results. The first bottle relieved me very much and the second bottle has absolutely cured me. I have not had as good health for twenty years. I give this certificate without solicitation, simply in appreciation of the gratitude felt for the cure effected.—Respectfully, MRS. MARY A. BEARD, Claremore, Ark. PHOENIX PEPPER RISES

REPENTANT POPULIST AGAIN A REPUBLICAN.

Rejected by the Kansas Populists, and Finding the Prohibition Party Too Weak, He Has Returned to the Fold.

WASHINGTON, May 30.—The return of ex-Senator Pepper to the republican party is not remarkable, for, as he says in his interview, he has always agreed with the members of that party and accepted its national platform on every subject except finance. While Mr. Pepper was in the senate he sat on the republican side of the chamber, the committee places to which he was assigned were charged against the republicans and he invariably voted with the republicans on the tariff and all other subjects except money questions. It was understood that Mr. Pepper's vote could be depended upon, and it was usually counted by the republican whip when he was taking a poll on any important issue. It was also customary to pair Mr. Pepper on the republican side of political issues, and now that the silver question is practically extinct in Kansas, and the return of prosperity has demonstrated that the free coinage is not absolutely necessary to the welfare of that state, Mr. Pepper returns to the fold.

It should be stated, however, that he stopped at the prohibition station en route, and that his separation from the populist organization was not entirely voluntary. In fact, the populists got through with him before he got through with them. They repudiated him two years ago as a false prophet and a teacher of fallacies, and he found an asylum in the ranks of the prohibitionists, who nominated him as their candidate for governor. The returns of the last election were sufficient notification to Mr. Pepper that there was no political future for him as a prohibitionist, so that it is a matter of policy, as well as wisdom, for him to return to the republican ranks.

ANOTHER CURE.

Dr. Gray, of Chicago, Proposes to Check Consumption.

Dr. J. Lucius Gray, a Chicago physician, is the last to advance a new theory for the cure of consumption, and has consented to give a brief account of it. Like Dr. Koch, Dr. Murphy and other experimenters, Dr. Gray does not put forward his method as an absolute specific. He says: "My investigations were directed to the devising of some method of applying very hot air to the lung tissues. The result is an apparatus consisting of air chambers filled with sterilized air that contains an excess of oxygen over ordinary air as we breathe it. The air in these reservoirs is deprived of all moisture and heated to a temperature of from 300 degrees to 400 degrees Fahrenheit, so that when taken into the lungs it is an absolutely dry mixture of sterilized air supercharged with oxygen. Air so treated can be breathed at even as high a temperature as 450 degrees Fahrenheit, with perfect safety and comfort. There is absolutely no danger and the immediate effects upon the system are pleasant and agreeable. In cases of pulmonary tuberculosis it is destined to effect remarkable cures. It is not applicable to tuberculosis in other parts of the body."

DICE IN SALOONS.

The proprietor of a Nuuanu street saloon has been summoned for allowing dice shaking in his place of business. Deputy Marshal Chillingworth is complainant. The case will come up in the Police court Thursday morning.

NEW PLANTATION.

Another new sugar plantation is in sight. It will embody the lands of Molooa, Papan, Keapuni, Alomamu and neighboring estates on the Island of Kauai. Local promoters are at the head of the project.

ARBOR DAY.

The Kamehameha schools had a great time on Saturday. Their luau and sports took place on the mountains. The tree planting was a feature. Seventy trees were set out, with appropriate ceremonies. Each class planted ten.

It Must Be remembered that our stock represents the finest ready-to-wear clothing made in the United States—stylish, serviceable, becoming clothes that have nothing in common with ordinary "ready made" garments, nor with the kind of goods turned out by the average custom tailor.

We have recently added to our stock the lines made by Hart, Schaffner & Marx of Chicago, in addition to our Stein-Bloch goods. Do not pay out money for awkward, old fashioned ready made clothing when you can have the H. S. & M. goods for the same cost. Do not pay the tailor's price when you can get as good, and probably better, satisfaction, for less than half the money.
