I'm a Dandy but I'm no Dude.

LEWIS BONELESS BREAKFAST
Bacon is the finest in the world. Nothing equals it for mildness of cure and delicacy of flavor, and when sliced to perfection, nicely cooked and daintily served it fairly "melts in the mouth," and is so much superior to other brands that there is absolutely no comparison. A moment's time and a chafing dish will convince you.

THIS BACON
being sliced thinner and more evenly than is possible in the ordinary household, giving more slices to the pound, and there being absolutely no waste, is really AN ECONOMY, AS WELL AS A LUXURY. In key-opening tins of one-half and one pound each.
Order a pound box from us, we guarantee you will be pleased with it.

KAIULANI.

The visit of a Hawaiian Princess to Anstruther, as the East of Fifo Record reports it.

The publication "Mothers and Daughters" this month has the following particulars of the Hawaiian Princess Kaiulani, at present on a visit to Anstruther.

Victoria Kaiulani of Hawaii, the charming and accomplished young Princess, who was proclaimed heiress apparent to the throne of Hawaii under the laws of the country, when Queen Liliuokalani succeeded to that throne in 1891, by reason of her winsome and striking personality, inspires all who meet her with the hope and belief that she will eventually be called upon to guide the destiny of her romantic islands.

SUN AND RAIN COMBINE

To carpet the plains and mountains of the Sandwich Islands with perennial verdure. The towering cocoa-nut palms, the long, broad leaves of the bananas swaying in the breath of the trades; the imperial magnolia, palmettos, breadfruit trees and flowering acacias overarching and screening the wayfarer from the the sun; the hedges on fire with pomegranate and hibiscus; the tree stems wreathed and festooned, and tapestried with convolvuli, bougainvilleas, and passion-flowers, make these territories veritable gardens of the Pacific. A lake of liquid fire is to be seen in the vicinity of the volcanic mountains of the Archipelago, two of which tower to a height of nearly 14,000 feet, while one named Mauna Loa, indulged itself in a vast eruption as recently as the year 1881, and again in 1892; this last being accompanied by a violent earthquake. The wonders of coral formation are largely in evidence about these islands, which, in a word contain most of what is beautiful and extraordinary in nature; but their natural marvels in no way obscure their stirring human interest, which must always be of paramount importance in all kingdoms great and small. Captain Cook discovered the Sandwich Islands in 1778, and met his death there a year later, and in our own time a wide and pathetic interest was attached to them by reason of the life and labours of the Catholic priest.

FATHER DAMIEN

Who on the isolated island of Molokai, devoted himself with self-denying heroism to the leper colony to which it is assigned.

Cook, in 1779, found a population of three hundred thousand in the group, a population which has dwindled to something under forty-nine thousand. In the old days terrible conflicts were waged between different sections of the populace, and up to quite recently one came across vast battlefields, still whitened with human bones, though the memories of these wars and the leaders, and men who waged them have now passed into half-forgotten legends. The natives of the present day, more especially outside of the towns, are very gentle and simple in their manners, much given to the wearing of bright colors and to the adornment of themselves, and those whom they like, with flowers in modern times

A WAVE OF AMERICAN CIVILIZATION has spread over the group, and in some instances has proved a not altogether unmixed blessing.

Hawaii is the largest of the Hawaiian group, and the capital, Honolulu, is on Oahu. The town, which contains a population of over twenty thousand, is intensely modern, bespeaking American innovations only modified by the tropics. It is supplied with tramways, telephones, and electric lights, while schools abound, and accommodation for the traveller is not wanting. The king's

A GROSS INSULT

The following paragraph appeared in the last issue of the official organ, the P. C. Advertiser:

Lorrie A. Thurston's photograph makes a very good looking and appropriate central figure for the new Foreign office stamp. It might be a good scheme to send a few unused stamps to Washington so that President Cleveland might have the satisfaction of "licking" the stamp on which the face of the ex-Minister appeared—he never succeeded in licking him in any other way.

The use of Mr. Thurston's photograph as a center figure on the stamps, selected for the benefit of the "foreign office stamps," is undoubtedly another instance of the lack of tact for which the Dole Government has become famous.

Mr. Lorrie A. Thurston was fired out from his official position as Minister Plenipotentiary of Mr. Dole's Republic. Mr. Cleveland's Cabinet taught the young man a lesson and he had to "git" from Washington.

The placing of his picture on the stamps to be used by the Foreign office is a step which will be repudiated by all nations and especially by the United States.

Indifferent to political sentiments all Americans stand shoulder to shoulder in the defense of their beloved country. Republicans, Democrats and Populists may differ in discussing questions of money and tariff. The question of American patriotism is never in dispute and any attempt to sully the President and his advisers will be met with scorn and contempt.

We do not expect that the representative of Mr. Cleveland will understand or take notice of the insult offered to the Chief of the United States of America. As a rule the Presidents and their representatives have submitted to all kind of insults and we have good reasons to affirm the assertion.

Cleveland fired Thurston out. The picture of Thurston has been selected to adorn the stamp used officially by the Hawaiian republic. The official organ of Mr. Dole asks President Cleveland to "lick" the backside of the stamp on which Thurston's picture is to be found in front. A grosser insult has never been offered by any government in Hawaii. Minister Willis will probably "lump it" and dine with Mr. Thurston tomorrow.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

In this Peck-will-ian village how happy are we that in our laws we are so extremely moral on the surface. How efficient our laws are, is not recorded by the numerous arrests made of the poorer classes who infringe the laws and the exemption of the privileged classes who violate laws human and Divine. The smaller hamlet of California which can pack the whole population of Hawaii into an Assembly district, and scarcely feel the influence, acts differently. Let us see what Police Commissioner of San Francisco, Gunst, says:

"To show you how confident Eastern judges of the situation are," he said, "I have been commissioned by an Eastern syndicate to put $50,000 at 2 to 1 that McKinley is elected; even money that he carries New York by 50,000; at $800 to $1000 that he carries New York by 75,000, and $1000 to $5000 that he carries New York by 125,000 votes."

It should be known by our readers that the Police Commissioners of San Francisco control the Police Department.

Honolulu feels pleased to see that the Frawley theatrical show has become an established fact and that we shortly will be able to admire the well-known troupes. The actors and the actresses who shortly will arrive here under the management of Frank Hoogs are of a very superior quality. Mr. Hoogs has a high standing here in regard to his ability of managing theatrical events. His name is a safeguard among the numerous people who at all times desire to secure tickets and seats when the box plan opens and when the final chance is offered to gain seats, seats and seats. The Frawley company must be patronized and our friend, the promoter will receive all our help. The Frawley company will be a success.

We represent a most useful, though brief, lecture for the benefit of the Kindergarten for Judges. It should be highly appreciated by those who leap from obscurity into notoriety through a commission from the Republic of Hawaii; and are extremely averse to admit the truth of the adage, "Ex nihilo, nihil fit."

Justice Pratt often said that there were too many law-books. Meeting a young law-student who had just offered himself for the admission examination, Justice Pratt asked him what he had read in preparation for the ordeal. The youthful limb of the law named about all the elementary treatises from Blackstone's "Commentaries" to date. Besides these, he had studied the codes, read Woolsey's "Political Science," Lieber's "Code of Political Ethics," and, he said, "all the leading cases cited." "My heavens, boy!" exclaimed Justice Pratt, "you've read enough to ruin your chances as a lawyer for life."

While THE INDEPENDENT has good grounds to detest the past secret detective service of the P. G. and Republican Governments, having traced most of the scoundrels down to the basis of the five or twenty dollars affidavits racket for false swearing, and misleading the authorities in power, and has watched these criminals descending from one degree of crime to another until they have been immersed in unutterable moral filth, it always maintains the principles of law and order attempted to be carried out by "our best Government," while despising that Government for its reliance upon alien bayonets and rapid firing guns handled by the mercenaries of 1893, 4 and 5 instead of relying upon the people more interested in the welfare of the Hawaiian nation than mercenaries. THE INDEPENDENT supports legitimate detective business—it is a necessity in these days of anarchy, nihilism and fraud to the revenue. Why, then should every appointment to the Customs forces be announced? Is it to advertise the fact that a new man is on hand to be liable to be approached by temptation. Let the chiefs of the bureau be known; for the responsibility is on them, but let the poorly paid men be on the secret force and by their merit, unknown to all but their chiefs, be permitted to do their duty quietly and honestly and without the temptation of notoriety THE INDEPENDENT would prefer to see the Customs' force a well paid and, if necessary, a secret force placed above temptation and freed from that dangerous spirit of tittle-tattling against each other to gain promotion. If this country is to be re-organized let it be organized on an honest basis.

So "Weasel" Thurston is to be the official head sacrificed on the Foreign Office special stamps. Immortalized for founding the fraud of revolution and paid off for the benefit of Philatelists. Republics are ungrateful, the man who on his sick bed overthrew the monarchy, is thus rewarded.

Yesterday we topically referred to a communication from Charles Creighton in support of the Supreme Court in reference to the non-action of the lawyers in connection with the death of an ex Attorney-General and his law partner, Arthur P. Peterson. Unfortunately owing to circumstances which Providence and not THE INDEPENDENT controls, the letter was not published but is published to-day. Perhaps it is now in order for Mr. Creighton to attempt to initiate the honorable ceremonies due to his late partner. We have been informed that the vis inertia has been the fault of Mr. Peterson's friends. We still assert that the honors should be paid, although tardily and perhaps ungraciously and perfunctorily on the part of his former associates.

We are waiting anxiously to see the new gold certificates. Where is the gold with which to redeem the paper of friend Damon. Sammy, give us an explanation and a "financial" statement. The public hasn't seen a line during the last two years.

"New faces and new stamps." The dying new regime giving place gradually to the conduct of the old regime they repudiated. Hunt up, if not stolen, the buttons and decorations of the Monarchy, or create a new order to be called the Hy-Do-Smi-anti-Hawaiian legion of dishonor.

CORRESPONDENCE.

(We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions of correspondents. Our columns are open to every shade of opinion or party or grievance. Correspondence must not be libellous or indecent and must be accompanied by the name of the writer, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.)

ED. THE INDEPENDENT:—
In your issue last evening under the head of "Topics" you imply an unjust criticism upon the Supreme Court because of the neglect of resolutions upon the death of my late partner and friend, Mr. Peterson. Neither the Chief Justice nor either of his associates have anything whatever to do with initiating resolutions of the kind you refer to.
CHAS. CREIGHTON.

A Win for England.

Li Hang Chang has arranged to confer the various grades and subdivisions of the Double Dragon—the only Order of distinction used in China—upon some 300 persons with whom he has been brought into association during his European tour. Paris, St. Petersburg and London have competed for the honor of manufacturing these insignia, and the commission has been secured by a London firm of jewelers whose artists have entirely succeeded in faithfully reproducing the very different Chinese ornamentalions and characters employed, in the finest repousse work in gold and silver, embellished by rich varicolored enamels.

At the Royal Annex an adjunct to the Royal Saloon patrons will find the prettiest little sample room in town and the famous Corregio. At lunch time a pleasing lunch is spread, and all the liquors supplied are of the finest quality.

THE FRAWLEY COMPANY.

A Season Seat Sale to be Inaugurated

The sale of season tickets for the Frawley engagement commences next Monday morning at Hobron's drug store. The prices will be $15.00 and $10.00 respectively. Each ticket will entitle the holder to a reserved seat for the season of 12 performances. The opening play will be "The Great Unknown," followed by selections from the repertoire which includes such dramatic successes as The Senator, Captain Swift, All the Comforts of Home, Sweet Lavender, Moths, The Eusign, Young Mrs. Winthrop, Nancy & Co., Arabian Nights, The Idler, The Jilt, Esmeralda, London Assurance, Three Hats and The Wife.

It is hoped that theatre-goers will respond readily and make the season of the Frawley Company a financial success. The management are under a very great expense and ought to be rewarded liberally for providing such a treat for the Honolulu public.

John F. Thrum, the editor of Music and Drama says:

"Mr. Marx will introduce to the gentle Hawaiians the best stock organization that has ever visited the island metropolis. Not since the Fifties, when stars en route to Australia visited Honolulu and were supported by a local company, has there been anything like as complete a combination presented to the good people of Honolulu, although in the early days such stars as Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Waller played short engagements there, and later on Edwin Booth visited them on his return from Australia. There have been great changes in theatrical productions since that time, and the Hawaiians are most fortunate to have them exemplified by a first-class company like the Frawleys."

If you want Children's Hats, be sure and see the assortment at N. S. Sachs.

Ole Olson to-night.
 Don't fail to attend the Millinery Opening at N. S. Sachs. *
 The Kinau will leave at 10 a. m. to-morrow.
 Prints in Persian designs, the very latest 20 yards for $1.00 at Kerr's. *
 Sachs has something to say to you to-day. See what it is.
 Kerr has changed some reading matter. It is of interest to all.
 Opium is the question of the day in the Police Court. The pay of the "detectives" is evidently running short.
 The Band may play at Thomas Square this afternoon at 4:30. Weather permitting. The program is well selected, but the seats are damp.
 The S. S. Monmouthshire consigned to Theo. H. Davies & Co. was telephoned at 1 o'clock p. m. to day. She is of 4,500 tons burthen and will take passengers for the Orient.
 A lot for a little at Kerr's. *
 In spite of the changes that are being made around town the Anchor saloon retains its Long Life, its lunches, and Billy Cunningham and Simpson. A quiet chat in the evening is not objected to.
 Figured Duck, 8 yards for $1.00 at Kerr's. *
 Ladies day at the Pacific Tennis Club yesterday afternoon was a success, and gathered around the meshes of society were some of the most prominent people.
 The finest stock of Millinery Goods ever brought to this market can be seen at N. S. Sachs. *
 Will the Stars or the Maui's win! Probably J. O. Carter Jr. and "Duke" McNichol will see that courteous hospitality will not interfere with the pennant.
 Among the kamaainas expected home by the Australia due here on the 25th inst. are Mosdaunes Noonan, Geo. Beckley, Irene Brown and Rosie Tennie, Miss Helen Wilder will also be a passenger.
 Those who forget the efforts of Co. B, to afford entertainment to us all, when amusement times were dull, will be ungrateful if they do not attend the performance at the drill shed to-night.
 Horace Walpole, it is understood, once said that every man had his price. Price, the all round man, it is alleged, has skipped on the Doric balloon, and accepted as his reward the effort to please, and the anger of those who failed to receive a doubtfully earned remuneration.
 Fibre Chamois, 15 cents per yard at Kerr's. *
 In spite of the unpleasant weather and our muddy streets, the attractions of Miss A. Cahill's beautiful productions of exquisite adornments for our better halves won the praise of many who wish to capture. Ahead of the times is the motto of the Arlington Block.
 The Bedsprads for $1.00 and $1.25 at Kerr's. Cannot be bought elsewhere under $2.00. *
 From our window, on a showery day, such as this, we see some comical scenes of feminine drapery, or lack of it, as the most winsome half of creation dodge the rivers of slush and mud. The Japanese, male and female, have adopted special costumes on rainy days in our locality which almost rival bathing suits in the art of deception.
 Telephonic information was received this morning of the death from lockjaw of Abraham at Waiatae. He was one of the "boys" who fought for Hawaii's independence in 1895, and suffered the penalty imposed by the victors. He will be buried at Moiliili to-morrow at 2 o'clock by Rev. H. H. Parker.
 Dimities at 8 and 10 yards for $1.00 fast colors at Kerr's. *
 Cupid Captured.
 His Highness Prince Jonah Cupid Kalaniana'ole was married this morning at 8 o'clock to Miss Elizabeth Kaauwai, at the Anglican Cathedral. The wedding was strictly private, and His Lordship the Bishop of Honolulu officiated. The contracting parties are prominent alii, the bride being a direct descendant of the old kings of Maui, and the groom being a nephew of Queen Dowager Kapiolani, the great alii of Kauai.

Death of a Kamaaina

Antone Rosa, Sr., died yesterday afternoon at his residence at the Kalihii valley. The deceased who was about 70 years of age at the time of his demise was one of the most respected Portuguese residents of Honolulu.
 He arrived here more than 40 years ago on a whaling ship and located on Molokai where he married a Hawaiian wife, who eventually became a mother of five sons, among whom is our well-known fellow citizen, Antone Rosa, one of the most prominent citizens of this country, now holding the office of Circuit Judge for the Island of Hawaii.
 The deceased commanded the respect and friendship of all who came into contact with him in business and social circles. He was an honest man and his record ought never to be forgotten among his countrymen.
 He was a hardworking man. The little ranch at Kalihii which was left to his management had his most careful attention and constant care.
 The kamaainas will remember that the late A. Rosa for 26 years was an active member of the Honolulu Fire Department. He was unassuming in his ways and devotedly attached to his adopted country. Although illiterate, his wonderful memory often made him chaff his sons and other young relatives who needed pencil and paper in the keeping of accounts.
 The funeral took place this afternoon from the Kalihii church, Father Clement officiating.

WATERFRONT WHISPERINGS.

The ship Troop will take about 40,000 bags of Irwin sugar for New York. The agents will despatch the big ship on or about to-morrow. Capt. Fritz is in a happy frame of mind; and compliments his agents and other officials in happy terms.
 The steamer Kaala left yesterday for Oahu ports with freight and passengers. Capt. Thompson will return to-morrow or Saturday with 800 bags of Waiatae sugar for the bark Martha Davis.
 The German bark Spica is docked at the Irmgard wharf and has commenced to discharge her European goods. A. M. Hewett is the clerk in charge of the ship's delivery, and will rush her discharge and make another record in the annals of tallyism.
 The Superintendent of the Inter Island Company will rejoice when he has the newest addition to the fleet at his disposal. She is due here in November next.
 The bark Gainsborough is discharging coal at the Esplanade wharf. Capt. Harrison's donkey engine whoops the black rocks out in fine style.
 The bark Mohican is on her way from San Francisco to this port having left the Golden Gate on Sept. 27. She has a varied and valuable cargo consigned to Castle & Cooke.
 The barkentine Irmgard is reported by Frisco papers to have been attacked by a sword-fish, his honor having rammed a decent hole in the ship's side causing her to leak slightly. Capt. Schmidt will arrive in his yacht in about a month hence with official intelligence of his experiences.

BUSINESS LOCALS.

Capt. McCarthy has his special brew of oyster cocktails on hand. Charley A. and Pete O'S. will rival each other in fixtures.
 At the Pacific, Royal and Cosmopolitan saloons you obtain interchangeable checks for the famous Pabst Milwaukee beer on draft. This is a great convenience to patrons. *
 Brown Cotton 36 inches wide 16 yards for $1 at Kerr's. *
 Ladies' Shirt Waists, Recherche designs at $1.25 each at L. B. Kerr's. *
 An elegant assortment of Swell Hats are now exhibited at N. S. Sachs. *

These Buffalos.

We must again remind the public that if the Buffalos of the American Continent are now principally to be found on reservations alone, there is still a Buffalo or two left on exhibition in Honolulu. Of course, we refer to the Buffalo beer just introduced at the Royal Annex, the Royal, Pacific and Cosmopolitan Saloons. It will be found extremely palatable and up to the most refined taste. The system of interchangeable checks still continues, and those issued for the celebrated Pabst are equally valid. Taste and see how good it is.

ST. LOUIS BEER

Will be served ON DRAUGHT at the Hawaiian Hotel.

To meet the times and competition, it will be furnished at

12 1-2 cts. Per Glass

We quote from letter of the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Association, dated August 8th:

"Your honorable firm having represented us for so many years we believe it useless to call your attention to the merits of our article, but we should like to repeat again and call your attention to the fact that ours is THE ONLY PURE BARLEY MALT BEER MANUFACTURED, and corn cerealine and other adulterants as well as acids, for the preservation of beer, are unknown in our establishment. With the above you may go before the public in our name."

No concoction of ours can add to the high reputation of Anheuser Beer. Its introduction in any and every market makes it an immediate favorite. It stands without a peer, without a rival, without even a competitor. It received the highest awards at the Columbian Exposition. The reduction of the draught Beer to the prevailing price of palace is a fine building, but it is no longer the palace of the king. The recent change in the form of government must be fresh in the mind of the reader, when Queen Liliuokalani was deposed and a republic proclaimed.

12 1/2 CENTS PER GLASS, places it within the reach of all, and he is a wise man who gets the best quality for the least money.

PRINCESS KAIULANI OF HAWAII

is the only child of the late Princess Likelike, and niece of the late King Kalakaua and of the Queen Liliuokalani, and has only just completed her twentieth year. She left her home in 1889, and has since spent most of her time in the British Isles. Her education was chiefly carried on under the direction of Miss Sharp, at Great Harrowden Hall, Northamptonshire. She is a clever and accomplished young lady, paints well, and possesses strong musical tastes, and thoroughly enjoys all outdoors amusements, besides evincing a great fondness for horses and dogs. She is in the meantime keeping herself entirely aloof from politics.

In the spring of 1893, the Princess visited the United States, and was most favorably impressed with all she saw there. She stayed some time in Washington, Boston, and New York, being very well and cordially received by the American people.

She lived last winter in the south of France with her father, Mr. Cleg-horn, and after a month's visit to Paris, she went to reside in Jersey. Visits are now being made to friends in Scotland, and she is at present the guest of our townsman, Bailie Darsie and his wife, Arie Titaua Marama of Tahiti.

LATE FOREIGN NEWS.

[Per S. S. Dovic]

Accident to the Wild Swan.

VICTORIA, B. C., Sept. 29.—It is reported here to-night that H. M. S. Wild Swan struck a submerged rock at Callao harbor while under full speed. Those who know the place say that the vessel's chances for escape from total destruction are few. The Wild Swan is the smallest cruiser in the Pacific Coast squadron and a rather inferior type of vessel. H. M. S. Comus leaves to-morrow for the south, word having reached Admiral Palliser to-day that the Wild Swan was in a dangerous position.

The Anglo-Egyptian Forces Dominate the Soudan.

DONGOLA, Sept. 23.—The Anglo-Egyptian forces are in full possession of Dongola, and the Soudan expedition proper has been brought to a successful close. The ease with which the result has been achieved is astonishing, though unquestionably it is due to the thoroughness of the preparations for a protracted campaign, which was one of the liveliest of possibilities.

The advance upon Dongola was begun at 5 a. m. The gunboats covered the left flank of the cavalry and the camel corps was on the right flank. Scouting parties of cavalry found that the Dervishes had not only abandoned their outposts, but that their main camp had been deserted, the enemy being in full flight and carrying with them their women and children. Whenever parties of Dervishes were sighted they were pursued by cavalry, many of the fugitive being killed. The gunboats shelled every detachment of hostiles that came within their range and did much execution.

All the principal Dervish chiefs have surrendered, and the opposition to the Egyptian power in this section has completely collapsed. Only five British soldiers were wounded in the days operations. There were captured six field guns, a large quantity of ammunition, great stores of grain and many flocks and herds. According to the intelligence department, defections at Omdurman and Khartoum threaten the overthrow of the Khalifa within a short time.

Jim Corbett Arrested.

Jim Corbett was arrested in New Jersey for discussing prizefight with Fitzsimmons. The warrant was issued from New York. It is held that the arrest was illegal, since no requisition papers were produced by the officers, but Jim did not stand on technicalities, but went with the officer. The champion will contend in Court that he was not negotiating for a finished battle, but a limited affair, such as is allowed under the Horton law. Corbett, it is alleged, has never yet engaged in any contest in which he has not been under the protection of the law, including his big fights with Mitchell, Sullivan and Jackson.

Great Britain's Postal Business.

In the 42d report of the Postmaster-General on the Post Office it is stated that for the year ending March 31 the estimated number of letters delivered in the United Kingdom was 1,834,200,000, being an average for each person of 47 and an increase of 3.6 on the preceding year. There were 314,500,000 post cards delivered, 149,000,000 newspapers, 78,839,610 telegrams, and 60,527,438 parcels. There were 78,839,610 telegrams forwarded from telegraph offices in the United Kingdom during the year, an increase of 7,250,546 on last year's number. In the Savings' Bank Department the total amount received from depositors, including interest, to December 31, 1895, was £445,005,805 4s. 8d., and the total amount repaid to depositors £347,136,830 9s. 3d.
