Labor Legislation Has Unanimous Support Of Legion In Convention

Honolulu's Resolution Substituted for Maui's in Convention; Hilo Votes No On First Ballot, but About Faces and Kukuas on Second Roll Call; Copies Will Be Sent to Congress Direct.

Endorsement of the emergency legislation pending in congress was given unanimously by the Hawaiian department of the American Legion in convention at Hilo on Saturday. On the second ballot the resolution presented by Honolulu Post carried. On the first ballot Hilo Post voted against the motion but switched over on the second roll call. There were two resolutions, one presented by Maui Post and the other by Honolulu. It points out that the American Legion in the national convention of 1920 passed a resolution favoring "further diversification of the alien population of Hawaii with a view to effecting its military, social and economic safety."

and mentioned specifically political intolerance, trade rivalry, class distinctions, craving for individual power and love of worldly wealth as some of the factors which contribute to national unrest. "Only the exalted spiritual purpose," said General Summerall, "that led our deathless dead to victory over foes of a yet more destructive power was able to oppose these things. The American soldiers advanced with unflinching resolution to where death awaited their bodies. We were always behind the fighting lines, but the spirit of those who fell remains with the living and will strengthen every blow."

It states that the convention "favors the passage of the Hawaiian emergency labor bill by Congress," as the bill is designed to furnish alien agricultural labor, further diversify the alien population of the territory and aid in the development of Americanization in Hawaii.

The following officers for the year were elected:

Americanism Always
The keynote of the convention was sounded Friday when Department Commander J. K. Butler reviewed the real activities and said the main issue is "Americanism." Need of Labor Great

He said heavy tax burdens will be necessary. Aim to build, not to destroy was the slogan sounded by the Governor.

Department master-at-arms—Hawkins Crowder, Honolulu.
Department historian—Mrs. Dorothy B. Harper, Hilo.

China for Open Door and Opened Within

PEKIN, Sept. 6.—On the eve of his departure for Washington, Dr. S. E. See secretary of the China delegation to the disarmament conference, says that China will insist upon the open door to Chuseng but will open it from the inside. He said that thus far the open door has been observed through the initiative of foreign governments but that this has not prevented "spheres of influence" and special privileges which have been and always will be a stumbling block to peace in the Far East.

Federal Force Brings Peace In West Virginia

General Bandholtz Announces He Is Considering Withdrawing Some Units; National Guard Goes Home.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Sept. 6.—Restoration of order in the West Virginia coal fields is near at hand, General Bandholtz says that he is considering recommending the withdrawal of some of the Federal units. This announcement followed a tour which he made through the region where the disturbances have raged which he made in a special train. He found no remnants of disorder.

Despatches from Logan said that Col. Eubanks commanding the national guard has disbanded all units and left the federal forces in control.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Sept. 5.—All was reported quiet today in the coal mine strike area patrolled by federal regular troops.

Large numbers of persons who had been causing trouble gave up their arms yesterday, leaders of the United Mine Workers of America assisting federal troops in sending the men home, but army headquarters announced that not all the arms in the hands of the strikers had been surrendered as yet.

Governor Morgan issued a statement declaring that all the forces of the state would be employed to assist the county in punishing those found guilty of causing the disturbances, which constituted an insurrection against the state and the government of the United States.

Some shooting was reported to have been heard in the Tug river region last night, but the authorities did not consider the firing serious. Major General Bandholtz announced today that he was considering ordering back to their barracks the troops which came from Camp Dix, provided the situation continues quiet throughout today.

HARRISBURG, Ill., Sept. 5.—Striking coal miners at the Rose Clare captured J. C. Swanson, superintendent of the mine, his wife and three children, Saturday and are holding them prisoners, according to information reaching here today. Mine guards have driven the strikers and their families from Rose Clare.

HARRISBURG, Ill., Sept. 6.—Unconfirmed reports reaching here say there have been fresh outbreaks of violence and clashes between mine guards and mine workers in the Illinois coal districts.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 3.—Troops entered the disturbed area in West Virginia today. Yesterday there were started for the coal fields 2100 troops equipped with machine guns, howitzers, one pounders, radio outfits, and included gas specialists. Brigadier General Bandholtz, in command of the air forces has arrived at the disturbed area. Two hundred troops, which arrived at Fairmount last evening started this morning toward Little Coal River and 200 more reached St. Albans and the same number reached Madison and started in the same direction. Other trainloads were expected to reach Logan, Fairmount and St. Albans before midnight.

Called Insurrection
Secretary of War Weeks announces that 2000 more troops are ready for entrance. Commenting on the situation he said: "When railroads are closed and armed men march to and fro, call it what you will, we call it insurrection." He added that union officials apparently favored the sending of troops. He added that General Bandholtz had reported that Philip Murray, international vice-president of the miners union had joined him in the request for troops.

Reports from Logan say there is heavy fighting in progress in the Spruce Fork Ridge line, some fighting on the center of the line and the quietest zone is at the east end near Blair mountain.

Fairmount reports that an airplane was caught in a storm and fell while attempting a landing, but no one was injured.

Speaking to President Harding, Samuel Gompers today said the people of West Virginia "cannot and must not stand in a hostile army against the authority of the United States."

Ready to Retire
In despatches from Madison, William Blizard, sub-district president of the United Mine Workers, is quoted as saying on his return from the disturbed area that shooting was continuing but that the miners were anxious

Rioting in Ireland Continues and Red Flag Raised in Cork

CORK, Ireland, Sept. 6.—Representatives of the transport workers' union today took possession of the offices of the harbor board and hoisted a red flag over the premises owing to the refusal of the board to grant a minimum wage of 70 shillings a week.

BELFAST, Ireland, Sept. 6.—Unionists employed by large concerns were given arms for defense today following the rioting of last night. The rioting came after a meeting and is declared to be the sequel to the speech of O'Duffy at Armagh.

LONDON, Sept. 5.—The Irish republican reply to Premier Lloyd George's latest communication looking toward the settlement of the Irish question was made public here last night. It rejects the British government's proposal on the ground that it is not based on dominion status for Ireland.

The note, however, leaves the way open for further negotiations by offering immediately to appoint plenipotentiaries for renewed conversations on the basis of the principle of "government by consent of the governed."

The Irish reply records little reason to fear immediate breakdown of negotiations, unless the cabinet council on Wednesday decides to impose a time limit for Ireland to accept or reject the British proposals. It shows, however, that Eamonn de Valera and the Dail Eireann have not receded from their former position.

The reply emphasizes the point that the government's proposals are not an invitation to enter into a free and willing partnership with the nations composing the British commonwealth, but the conditions proposed would divide Ireland into two artificial and mutually destructive states. It insists that the plenipotentiaries shall enter the conference untrammelled by conditions, and adds that Dail Eireann is ready to appoint its plenipotentiaries.

LONDON, Sept. 5.—The British cabinet will be called upon Wednesday to decide either that negotiations shall be continued with the Sinn Fein elements in Ireland on the basis of "government by the consent of the governed," as proposed by the Irish, or that an ultimatum shall be issued calling upon the Irish to accept or reject the British government proposals for peace in Ireland, it was announced today.

Owen O'Duffy, chief Sinn Fein liaison officer for the north of Ireland, speaking at Armagh, is reported to have threatened Ulster with an increased boycott if that district did not enter "United Ireland," adding that if that move were not successful in influencing Ulster, "we will bring lead against her."

BELFAST, Ireland, Sept. 5.—The speech of Owen O'Duffy, chief Sinn Fein liaison officer for the north of Ireland, at Armagh, is reported here to have been out of tune with recent declarations by Eamonn de Valera, "president of the Irish republic," who advocated negotiations between the north and south of Ireland in an effort to smooth away all differences and effect peace.

If these negotiations failed of their purpose, De Valera proposed that a boycott be enforced, but without physical force.

TENOR DROPS DEAD

BERLIN, Sept. 6.—Joseph Mann, first tenor in Berlin, dropped dead on the stage of the opera house last night while singing Aida. He was to have sung at the New York Metropolitan Opera House next winter.

to return to their homes just as soon as the federal troops guaranteed them protection. He said that five airplanes circling over the area of disturbances had dropped gaspills high explosive bombs. One of these bombs, he declared, had fallen between two women and had failed to explode.

Deputies Blamed
A despatch from Charleston received last night said: Philip Murray, international vice-president of the miners, issued a statement late last night in which he said he believed the federal troops will restore order in the West Virginia mining district.

Murray said the system of mine guards and private detectives was the basis of the trouble. He advocated calling of a conference by the government between mine owners and miners.

He said that on August 26 the miners agreed with General Bandholtz to return home, and did so. The next night deputies and constabulary members crept into Sharpless and killed two miners, precipitating renewal of the trouble.

Maui Polo Team Retain Laurels Of Championship

HONOLULU, Sept. 6.—By a score of 8 to 7 Maui won the championship and the most thrilling game of polo ever seen in the Islands. Oahu came up from behind in the last chukker and made a strong bid for victory. Up to that period Maui led, 8-5, but in the final chukker the blues outrode and outplayed the yellow and black, scoring twice.

Edward Baldwin was the bright and particular star of the match, showing international playing form. He led the players of both teams in the scoring, putting the ball through four times. Sam Baldwin and Harold Castle each have three goals to their credit, Fleming and Arthur Rice scored one each and Frank Baldwin and Francis Brown were pointless.

The largest crowd, an attendance of 9000, in the history of the game witnessed the magnificent exhibition furnished.

Daring Escape From McNeil Prison Made During Ball Match

TACOMA, Sept. 6.—One of the most daring prison breaks in the history of the Pacific Coast states occurred yesterday at McNeil Island prison and Roy Gardner, the California mail band it is at large.

Gardner and two life termers made the break while a baseball game was in progress in the prison yard, witnessed by 250 prisoners. They made their way to the rear of the crowd and awaited a tense moment in the game. When it came they dashed for the fence and scaled it. Gardner drew wire cutters and cut their way through the barbed wire at the top of the fence, just as the attention of the guards was attracted. The latter opened fire with buck shot and the escaping prisoners returned the fire. One of the life termers was killed and the second is believed to have been wounded but got away with Gardner. Two of the guards were riddled with buckshot and their recovery is not expected. It was Gardner's third escape from prison.

Gardner and his companion made their way into the brush and prison guards express the belief they have reached the mainland with the help of accomplices.

When Gardner escaped, H. H. Botaw, brother-in-law of President Harding, Superintendent of Federal prisons was conferring with the warden in the office of the latter.

Attorney Olson Meets Death in Auto Accident

Car Leaves Straight Road, Goes Over Wall and Is Practically Demolished; Cause as Yet Unexplained.

Clarence Olson, of Robinson, Castle & Olson, Honolulu attorneys, was killed in an automobile accident near Lahaina late yesterday afternoon, the cause of the accident being as yet undetermined. The fatality occurred on the Lahaina-Wailuku road at a point just below where rock is taken from the hills for the Paia cement plant. The car left the straight road, went over a stone wall and turned completely around. Olson was thrown out and was found a considerable distance from the practically demolished machine.

Attorney Olson had come over from Honolulu to attend to a case which was to have been heard before Judge Banks this morning. He was associated with Attorney Enos Vincent, Judge Robinson had had the case in hand, but was unable to come over because of a trip to the coast, and Olson came in his stead. He lunched with Vincent yesterday and told him he thought he would work on the case in the Grand Hotel, where he was stopping. Later he must have decided to go to Lahaina.

Dr. J. H. Raymond and Harvey Raymond came down from Ulupalakua yesterday and Dr. Raymond offered Olson the use of his Cunningham car, not thinking he would go on a long trip. Later Olson was passed going into Lahaina. He spent about half an hour with Dr. Dodge at the Lahaina Hotel, whom he wanted to return with him for the dinner dance that was to have been held at the Grand Hotel last night. The latter at first thought of going, but later declined.

The next known of the affair was the discovery of the wrecked car and Olson unconscious by Louis Distel, Judge Burr and C. S. Childs, who were returning from Lahaina, whence they had been on a fishing trip. They saw the wrecked car first, its engine still running. Next they found Olson, still living, but unconscious, about 20 feet from the car. He died a few minutes later in Louis Distel's arms. The body was taken to the hospital, W. H. Field notified, and he in turn notified other Shriners, who made arrangements for the shipping of the body by last night's Mauna Loa. Sheriff Crowell was notified and wireless news of the distressing accident to Mr. Olson's firm.

Olson had spoken of going to see Joseph Ambrose in Lahaina, but he did not see him while over there. He made the trip over alone and no one was with him when the car left the road, so it may never be known what occasioned the disaster.

Service of the Kilauea will be lost to the Kahului run for a time beginning at the end of this month. She will substitute for the Mauna Kea on the Hilo run while the latter steamer is being completely overhauled. In turn, the Kilauea will be replaced by the Claudine.

In connection with these changes it is announced that the Claudine will leave Honolulu at 5 p. m. commencing Monday, September 26 and she will arrive at Kahului about 4:30. Tuesday mornings she will proceed on to Hanalei and Mahukona at 6:30. She will leave Kahului for Honolulu on Wednesday evenings at 8 o'clock and on Saturday evenings at 10.

Immediately after her arrival here steps will be taken by the library commission for an early institution of service to the reading public.

After her arrival here there will be a meeting of the library board and the general conduct of affairs will be placed in her hands.

It has been the opinion of the members of the library board that all matters connected with the instituting of service should be left until the coming of the librarian. The county will make all necessary alterations in the interior of the Robinson property which it has purchased for a library building and one of the first subjects taken up will be such alterations, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Case have continued renting the property but expect to move out about the middle of this month and then such alterations can be started immediately.

The second subject to be taken up will be the question of the purchase of the books that belong to the old Maui library. Permission will be asked of Alexander House Settlement to permit the use of the room that was formerly used as a library as an office for Miss Morse, or to give her desk room until such time as an office is fitted out in the new library building.

Preliminaries settling the subject of book purchases will be taken up and the working out of plans for service to the reading public and for the functioning of the library will be taken up. Soon after the arrival of Miss Morse it should be possible to make an announcement of the probable date of the opening of the library.

MAUI ELECTRIC COMPANY, LIMITED.

COLD, HARD FACTS REGARDING HAWAIIAN-TEXAS OIL COMPANY, LTD., AS REPORTED BY ITS STOCKHOLDERS AND CITIZENS OF THE TERRITORY OF HAWAII

Honolulu, Territory of Hawaii, August 22, 1921.

We, and each of us as law-abiding and self-respecting citizens of the Territory of Hawaii, having a sincere regard for right of justice toward our fellow-men, hereby state that we have this day made a complete and rigid investigation into the affairs, manner of operation, financial standing, future possibilities, and a general analysis of the Hawaiian-Texas Oil Company, Ltd., and its relations with the International Investment Company, Ltd., as agents, and on behalf of all present and future stockholders and citizens of the Territory of Hawaii submit herewith an unbiased report as to our findings:

(1) The Hawaiian-Texas Oil Company, Ltd., was chartered December 15, 1920. The International Investment Company, Ltd., was chartered September 24, 1920, and the Hartford Oil Company obtained a permit according to law, and all of the said companies are authorized to operate under the Territorial Laws the same as any other legitimate business. Their Officers are men of unimpeachable characters and keen business judgment, as evidenced by the rapid progress the Companies have made since their inception.

(2) We find that the business affairs of The Hartford Oil Company and the Hawaiian-Texas Oil Company, Ltd., have no relation to each other whatever, being two separate and distinct companies, and their finances are entirely separate, each company standing upon its own merits. The International Investment Company, Ltd., is the agent for both of these companies and the records of each company are full and complete in every detail, showing conclusively that they are conducted upon a high plane.

(3) The Officers of the Hawaiian-Texas Oil Company, Ltd., paid in $150,000.00 of the capital stock of the Company, and are the largest shareholders. There is no promotion or free stock issued to anyone, the Officers have paid for their stock the same as any other stockholder and are on an equal basis so far as profits are concerned. The Officers will make money from their investment only in proportion to the amount invested, exactly as other stockholders.

(4) The Company owns Sixty-Eight (68) Separate Leased Properties in the States of Texas and Oklahoma, totaling 6,613 acres, which are paid for in full. The Lease Holdings have been appraised by two disinterested, experienced oil men, who testified under oath that the fair cash value of the said leases on December 4, 1920, amounted to $150,000.00, which was the exact amount paid by the Company. This method of appraisal prevents watered stock or inflated valuation for leases acquired.

A financial statement of the Hawaiian-Texas Oil Company, Ltd., as of July 30, 1921, is as follows:

ASSETS		LIABILITIES
Cash in Drilling fund.....	$ 74,000.00	Capital stock outstanding.....	$247,388.30
General Expense	1,946.30	Accounts payable	8,257.55
Commissions Paid	28,893.15
Office Furniture	806.40
Original Cost of Leases.....	150,000.00
	$255,645.85		$255,645.85

This financial statement shows only the actual original cost of the Lease Holdings, and does not take into consideration the enhanced value gained since the leases were acquired, nor the actual value of the producing oil well in the Okmulgee, Oklahoma, Field, which was successfully completed May 20, 1921.

(6) The cost of selling the present outstanding stock plus general overhead expense, as shown by the Company's books, is about 12 percent. This is an exceptionally low operating cost, and is conclusive evidence of the careful and efficient manner in which the finances of the Company are being handled.

(7) All records are kept in a highly efficient manner. The Stock Register shows that the shareholders have received full credit for every dollar invested. All disbursements are made by check, thereby showing exactly for what purpose the same were issued. The difference in amounts received and amounts paid out is on deposit in the bank.

(8) The Leases and Assignments covering the vast Lease Estate are on file in the Honolulu Office, and show that the same have been properly recorded in the several counties in which the properties are located and that the Company has a valid and lawful title to same.

(9) The Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws provide for the removal of any or all of the Officers of the Company at any time by the stockholders if they so desire, without giving any reason therefor, and the Board of Directors shall be elected annually by the shareholders, thus placing the affairs of the Company in the hands of local men who live right here in the Territory of Hawaii.

(10) Practically each and every one of the Hawaiian-Texas Oil Company's Sixty-Eight (68) Oil Leases have been greatly enhanced in value by an extensive drilling campaign that is being conducted by other companies owning leases located near those of the Hawaiian-Texas Oil Company, Ltd. Particularly is this true with the 40-acre lease in Stephens County, Texas, where several BIG OIL Wells which almost surround the Lease have recently been brought in. The Company's 40-acre lease in Zapata County, Texas, has also received considerable direct benefit as a result of Five new wells successfully completed and fourteen others now drilling. We conservatively estimate the Company's Lease and Producing Well in the Ogmulgee, Oklahoma, Field and its Stephens County, Texas, Lease to be worth more than the present outstanding stock, exclusive of the remaining Sixty-Six (66) Leases favorably located in proven and semi-proven territory in Texas and Oklahoma.

(11) Our report and conclusions are made from the private records and papers of every nature which were opened for full and complete examination to us, proving beyond question of a doubt that the Officers welcomed the strictest investigation and had nothing to conceal.

(12) We are more than convinced that this Company is organized and being conducted upon a fair, square, clean basis, with men of ability directing it toward success, and we firmly believe that an investment in its securities offers an unusual opportunity for large profits and that the Company and those in charge of its affairs are entitled to the fullest confidence and utmost respect of the people of Hawaii.

Respectfully submitted,

Coast Hotel Men Are Urged to Help Hawaii and Benefit Selves

Not all of California nor all Californians, no matter how much they object to more aliens coming into their own state, are opposed to the labor relief measures that are being sought for Hawaii. The need, and the importance of the success of Hawaii's industries to themselves, is recognized by California hotel men as appears from the following editorial which appeared in the Western Hotel Reporter of August 20:

"Hotel Men, Help Hawaii!
"Hotel people of America and especially of California are vitally concerned in the welfare of the Hawaiian Islands. San Francisco is the clearing port for most Hawaiian business, and it is estimated that this city alone is in grave danger of losing a business of some $60,000,000 a year if something is not done at once to relieve the labor situation in the Islands.

"The one remedy that can be applied at once to replenish the labor shortage in our Island possession is the granting by Congress of the petition of Hawaii to admit 25,000 Chinese laborers who are imperatively needed on the sugar and pineapple plantations. If this is not done it is said that the normal crops of 600,000 tons of sugar and 200,000 tons of canned pineapples will be reduced to one half. It is further asserted on good authority that if the 25,000 Chinese are not admitted to Hawaii it will mean that an equal number of white laborers will be thrown out of employment in the States.

ATHLETICS IN SCHOOLS

Thoroughly comprehensive plans for the introduction into the schools of Maui of athletic and health instruction extending from the lowest to the highest grades are those that were presented last Wednesday afternoon to the School Commissioner and Superintendent of Schools and that evening to the Athletic Committee of the Maui County Fair and Racing Association. In the near future this paper will summarize the plans and print such summary in detail so that parents may post themselves on just what is proposed.

With such a program in operation Maui will take a long step in advance of the other counties of the Territory and also will be way ahead of the mainland. In some states athletics have been introduced into the schools and in other schools there is given health instruction, but a combining of the two is a novelty, a highly progressive move which would not be possible in most communities, not even here were it not for the splendid organization of Alexander House Settlement, three of whose workers will take a prominent part in the supervision of the work.

Starting at the very beginning, in the first grade, a course of physical training will be undertaken. Naturally the games and sports in which the children of the lower grades will participate are simple and not strenuous. As they gain strength and vigor and become a little older and a little larger, the games and sports, as they should, become more intensive. At the same time the children are shown that the better care of their health they take, the better will be their showing in competitive sports, and in that way health building becomes a sort of game, a recreation and a pleasure.

By securing the support of the department of public instruction it would devolve upon the teachers to see that the program is carried out just as they have to carry out a program of instructions in their classrooms. When a principal and his or her teachers know that the progress each grade and the whole school makes in the program adds to or detracts from the credit and the standing of the school, then will they of necessity enter into the work.

Before being allowed to compete in sports the child will have to measure up to specified standards, but such standards have not been made too high, and as the child excels such standards, so the credits it earns are increased. So also the standard set in each sport is not so high as to exclude even a child of mediocre physical abilities from securing credits. It is a method of helping the children themselves to build up a strong manhood and womanhood in the community, strong in mind as well as in body.

It is unfortunate that there is no fund raised from school taxes that is available for the conduct of the plan, but Maui has the most progressive county government and the broadest minded board of supervisors of any of the counties, and its members may, this paper believes, be counted upon to render any and every assistance that the county finances will warrant.

CLEAN UP FOR VISITORS

In less than six weeks Maui will have for its guests the most prominent publishers, editors, news and magazine writers of the world. It will show them the resources of the Island at the Fair and some of the scenic beauties of the Valley Isle on sightseeing expeditions. Scenically and commercially a good impression is sure to be made, but what will be the impression it will make as a home and residential community? Is Maui going to receive company with a dirty face, or will it prink up and strive to make a good appearance? The fair grounds will be at their best, but what sort of a showing will the houses and lots they pass on their visit present? Will they see lots overgrown with weeds with piles of debris here and there, or shall such unsightliness be removed? There should be a paint-up and clean-up week in advance of the reception of such prominent visitors.

It is unfortunate that the first meeting of the year of Maui Woman's Club will not be held until the week of the Fair, for if that live wire organization were in a position to take the initiative, then something would surely be accomplished. Its members are real "go getters" and have shown that they "do things."

However, there is another organization which does not usually meddle with beautification plans, but which may take the initiative, if it will. The Chamber of Commerce meets Thursday and might start a clean-up campaign. If undertaken there is no doubt that the health board representative here would gladly cooperate, and so also would the county officials.

It is a good thing for any community to clean up from time to time, and now there comes to Maui an incentive to paint up, remove unsightliness and to put itself in shape for the winter while it is preparing to receive distinguished guests.

Perhaps while the year's work of the Woman's Club is not to be started until in October, its civic department may be in shape to take a prominent part in the initiative of such a clean-up week, which should be not later than the last week of the month.

Fifteen thousand auto plates will be required in Hawaii under the territorial-wide registration law in operation next year, it is said. This would show one motor-driven vehicle for each 18 of population in the Islands. That still leaves a large field of possibilities for the auto salesmen.

Chief Justice J. L. Coke, now being mentioned as a probable contender for delegate to congress, is reported to have considerable opposition in his own party, but is admittedly a strong aspirant because of his great personal popularity, if he secures the nomination.

THE OPTIMISTIC PESSIMIST

In life's journey one needs all one's breath and strength to carry one's burden and has none to waste in calling to others to see how wonderfully one is performing.

It's refreshing to see a man like Wood who places the call of his country and of humanity above personal inclination. In the scheme of the universe it develops that the right man appears at the proper time, and often, as in the Wood instance, he appears to have been held back from advancement so as to be ready for the emergency.

Belgium and the United States have the best fossils, says the Toledo Globe, and adds no names are mentioned. However, that's no reason for any resident of Maui to enter into competition and become fossilized.

Judge Landis is accused of "dragging the ermin in the dust." Must have been sliding to base if he did.

Arthur Brisbane is reported to have said that 999 out of every 1000 are without ever having had a thought. Not so. Nearly all of them have thought they thought whether or no they were mistaken.

It was a mean man who said that the money that the head of the family used to spend for hard drinks is now spent by the wife and kiddies for soft drinks.

Most merchants think that prosperity is a buy-product which leads the consumer to remark that it is usually a sell.

It is a difficult thing to climb the political ladder and at the same time to keep one's ear to the ground.

Most of those who hate the successful man are merely sore because he has beaten them to the goal.

Too often the balance in the social scale is turned by money.

Japan appears to be afraid that if the door be left open she will take cold in her feet. In fact, she already feels a chillness about her pedal extremities.

There should be a sign put up on the road along the beach between Wailuku and Kahului, "Autos please keep out of the ocean."

Some drivers speed up in the hope of going so fast that when they hit one bump they will jump over the next two or three.

According to a mainland newspaper article written by a Honolulu, delegates to the Press Congress will walk through giant lanes of Royal palms, crowned with green coconuts. It is hoped the committee will not drop the wreaths too hard.

Honolulu's anti-booze campaign is going forward merrily, two police officers are in the toils for illicit selling, and the bootleggers are reported on the run. But which run is it? Are they still running?

Semi-Weekly Maui News thanks its friends for the many kindly expressions of approbation upon its changed news policy and appearance.

WE CAN'T GO BACK

One of the most overworked phrases in the English language at present is this "back to normalcy" line. It is another one of many phrases which sound nice to the ear and find no response in a man's brain.

If normal is going to mean the return of the lax, drifting days of 1914, none of us want to see it return. A normal man is an average man and a normal day an average day—and none of the truly great things of the world have been done by average men on average days.

We CAN'T go back to normal, for if we do we aren't going ahead.

What we need is some abnormal and super-normal talk.

The Waterhouse Trust Co. has taken some of its greatest strides during the past two years and we aren't planning on getting "back to normal".

Silver which has become dull and tarnished can be restored to its original beauty by silver plating. Hardware about the house will profit by plating. Nickel plating of automobile parts—hubcaps, reflectors, bumper, instruments—will make the car look far better.

Our plating plant is equipped to turn out any kind of plating finish desired, in a short time and at moderate cost.

The camp site at Lalakea was a beautiful place and one long to be remembered by all concerned. After the long and arduous ride up and down the steep gulches and rocky trails from Kaupo it was indeed a great treat to find such a secluded restful place to spend the night.

The trail led across a great grassy slope at the head of the beach. On the right was the great ocean and to the left the rocky cliffs. We found a large cave where the Hawaiian fisherman had stored some fishing nets and the boys and men arranged their blankets for a good night's sleep. Plenty of drift wood was at hand for cooking and campfire purposes, and the aroma of coffee, bacon etc., was soon tickling the palates of the hungry bunch.

After supper some of the troop decided to camp out on the green grass just above the edge of the waves. A long lean-to was made of ponchos, rain coats and blankets, large enough to accommodate about seven scouts. After this drift wood was gathered and a large camp fire built on the rocks at the edge of the sea. Stories were told until bed time and then all retired for the night. At least that is what they all thought. But such was not to be the case. Just after midnight the heavens opened up and the rain simply poured down. The scouts in the lean-to were soon wet to the skin, and Pop who had picked a fine airy place near the outside of the cave was forced to hunt a dry spot further back.

Wednesday morning fires were built up close to the edge of the cave out of the rain and breakfast prepared. After waiting an hour for the rain to let up and finding that it would not do so, horses and mules were saddled and packed and a start made for Kipahulu.

Kipahulu was reached about 10 a. m. and the scouts received a rousing reception by the Fassoths and some of the scouts who happened to be in the town at the time. Most of the Kipahulu scouts were at work on the plantation and so did not participate in the arrival of the Bronco Busters. Animals were unsaddled and unloaded and put in the plantation stables, lunch was served to the troop in the restaurant, and the afternoon was spent in sight seeing around the district.

After supper the whole plantation gathered in the movie house and the Bronco Busters put on their program of songs, demonstrations, pyramids and a few yells. I say a few yells because the Kipahulu scouts excelled in this particular pastime, as they had been taught all the latest in up-to-date yells by Paul Fassoth, who was home on a vacation from Hitchcock's Military Academy of San Rafael at California. They made the rafters ring with their snappy peppy yells. It certainly was good to hear them.

On Thursday morning, Paul Fassoth piloted the bunch up through the cane fields to Pipiwei Valley to see the waterfalls. Some waterfalls believe me. In the one small valley eight distinct falls from 50 to 100 feet high were dashing down over the great cliffs. It was an eye full to the Makawao bunch who came from the dry side of the mountain. Riding down to the main road we bid good-bye to Paul and started on our trip to Hana. Along the splendid highway we rode, through the heavy growth of trees and ferns and at every turn of the road great streams of water were pouring down through the gulches. On our right was the great Pacific Ocean and on the left the wonderful verdure clad mountains. Rain, rain, rain, yes plenty of it, until we reached Hana, and then some fore rain. At Hana we were met by Scoutmaster Nevin, gold Assistant Scoutmaster Hawkins, and encouraged to the community hall where we left our packs. The horses and mules were stabled at the plantation stables and the scouts escorted to the restaurant to attend to the wants that usually plague a full blooded scout.

Deputy Commissioner Litchenfeld took hold of Mr. Puck, and Commissioner Hutton was taken in charge by Assistant Scoutmaster Hawkins, who was formerly a member of Troop No. 4, Honolulu, Pop's old troop.

That night the community building was crowded by the people of Hana to see the performance of the Makawao boys, the Hana troop was out in full force and enjoyed the program.

That night the troop slept in the community house.

Friday morning, Pop took in a supply of grub to take care of our wants until we reached home on Saturday. The Bronco Busters put on their swimming trunks and made for the sea at Hana harbor. Such a swim as they enjoyed. It certainly was hard work to get the mout of the water.

After lunch animals were saddled and packed and the start made for the Ditch Trail and home. Over a splendid hard paved road we made our way through the usual growth and verdure, and plentifully showered by rain, rain, rain. Would it never stop. Again the never ending supply of mountain apples, mangoes, guavas, thimble berries, coconuts and bananas. The scouts surely had their fill, and the poor animals must have groaned under the extra load they were forced to carry.

You May Die Tonight. Are You Ready? Can Your Family Spare You? What Will Happen to Your Wife and Children? What Would Become of You and of Them If You Became Permanently Incapacitated for Work?

These Failed to Provide

Jasper Mitchell, a pioneer farmer of Baker County, Oregon, one time well to do, met business reverses and died in the poor farm, aged 73. His daughters learned of his death, too late, but buried him. He had been ashamed to answer their letters.

F. W. Woolworth, founder of the 5 and 10 cent stores and owner of the highest building in the world, died. His executors had to mortgage the Woolworth building, 792 feet high and covering nearly an acre of ground, to pay the inheritance taxes on his estate. If he had carried life insurance it would not have been necessary.

Henry Miller of California died leaving an estate of $40,000,000, but the Federal Government seized his estate until taxes were paid from it.

More than 8,000,000 women have to work for a living because they were left unprovided for when death took the bread winner.

A WONDERFUL NEW POLICY

ISSUED BY

WESTERN STATES LIFE INSURANCE CO.

The following figures are for a policy of $10,000; figures for other amounts of Insurance are in proportion.

SPECIAL FEATURES

If Killed by Ordinary Accident

$20,000 (double the regular insurance) will be paid in a lump sum, or else $10,000 will be paid in a lump sum and an additional $13,600 in installments running 20 years.

$30,000 (three times the regular insurance) will be paid in a lump sum, or else $15,000 will be paid in a lump sum and an additional $20,400 in installments running 20 years.

If Permanently and Totally Disabled by Accident or Disease Before Reaching the Age of 60

Premiums on this policy will cease and the Company will pay you $200 per month, which will continue for twelve months, after which you will receive $100 per month as long as you live and at your death the full $10,000 of Insurance will be paid to your beneficiary.

If Your Beneficiary Is Killed in a Travel Accident

$10,000 will be paid you in a lump sum and the policy will continue in force thereafter as per its terms.

This policy contains Cash Loan, Paid-Up and Extended Insurance values, also allows 31 days grace in the payment of premiums, during which time it remains in full force and effect.

When Old Age Caught Them

N. B. Wiley, the second governor of the State of Idaho, recently was found critically ill and destitute in a hospital in California. A nephew came to his aid and relieved his immediate wants. He had made no provision for sickness and old age when he was able to do so.

Nineteen out of every twenty men who attain old age end their lives as dependents. Those who make no provision for tomorrow become public charges.

United States Government records show that of 100 healthy young men of 25, at the age of 65 years 36 will have died, 54 will be dependent on relatives, friends or charities, 1 will be rich, 4 will be comfortably off and 5 will be working to eke out a living.

Total disability, dependent old age, loss of savings and unemployment are four gaunt wolves that haunt the door of every man through his life and "get" 95 out of every hundred men. They hunt in a pack and are always watching and waiting to come and attack at the unguarded moment.

ROLPH-LINDSAY

Never did Maulites assemble in larger numbers in Makawao church than on Saturday evening when Miss Dorothy Lindsay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Lindsay became the bride of Mr. and Mrs. Rolph of San Francisco. The church had been beautifully and effectively decorated for the occasion, the decorations at the chancel being especially artistic and beautiful. Baskets of pink tulle filled with pink roses stood upon pillars of greenery.

The attendants of the bride were Mrs. A. B. Brauwe, sister of the bride, matron of honor, Misses Ruth and Betty Lindsay, sisters of the bride, bridesmaids, and Mrs. Philip S. Fennel, sister of the groom. All were gowned in pink tulle and all carried French bouquets of pink roses. At the reception later Miss Millie Shepherd served the wedding cake. Her gown was a creation of black satin and green.

The bride was charmingly sweet in her satin gown, with long veil and orange blossom wreath and carried a bouquet of bridal roses and orchids. The groom was accompanied by Douglas Brewster as best man and the ushers were Frank Lufkin, Edward Baldwin and Franklin Richardson. Rev. Augustine Jones spoke the marriage services and the bride was bestowed upon the groom by her father.

Following the nuptial ceremony there was a reception held in Pala community house, refreshments were served and dancing followed.

Owing to the recent illness of the groom the young couple have gone upon no bridal trip but are sojourning at the beach.

RECEIVES FOR DAUGHTERS

Hoffschlaeger Is Sued by Alien Property Custodian

Suit by the United States custodian of alien enemy property was filed in federal court this morning seeking payment of $20,000 from Hoffschlaeger & Co., alleged to be due the custodian on four promissory notes of $5000 each, made out to Herman Focke, as attorney for Ed Suhr, who is classified in the complaint as an alien enemy. The notes, made out in August, 1917, were confiscated by the United States on the entry of America into the war.

The complaint filed by Prosser, Frear, Anderson & Marx as legal representatives of Thomas W. Miller, present custodian of alien property, cites that Hoffschlaeger & Co., were granted an extension of the payment of the notes by the then custodian until August 28, 1921. It is alleged that when demand was made on this date for payment, the company refused to meet the notes.

The notes, according to the complaint, bear the signature of Robert F. Lange as president and Hans M. Gittel as secretary and treasurer.

Maui Ball Tossers Return From Hilo After Even Break

Maui's ball team returned this morning in the Mauna Kea from its trip to Hilo with a 50-50 record winning from the J. A. C. Sunday, 3 to 1 and going down before the Manas, champions of Hawaii, 3 to 0 on Labor Day. About 2000 fans saw the first game. Maui having a contingent of forty. Bill Dal swirling for the home boys was in fine fettle and allowed but two hits. Had not Wells Cummings thrown wild to first in the last inning he would have scored a shutout. This mishap was the only error chalked up against Maui. Our boys netted a total of six hits and J. A. C. sinned five times. Batteries: Maui, Dal and Cockett; Hilo, Dol and Enomoto.

Paster Robinson's throw past Souza and Silva's wild heave to catch for the Manas in the fifth inning yesterday. Costly errors on Maui gave them their three runs. The locals had a chance to score about the middle of the game but not Wells Cummings fell in rounding third on Souza's hit to centerfield. The batters were: Maui, Robinson and Cockett; Hilo, Low and Austin.

Hilo Bowlers Prove Too Fast for Maui

The bowling tournament between Maui and Hilo on Sunday evening at the Hilo Yacht club as told by the Daily Post-Herald, a Hilo paper reads:

Hilo defeated Maui in all three sets at the Bowling Tournament held at the Hilo Yacht Club last night. The Hilo bowlers consisted of Cyril Tinker, E. C. Meeker, George Lawson, Sam Spencer and J. W. Canario. The Maui bowlers were Bill Dal, W. Cummings, G. Cummings, E. Dal, Paschoal and Moura. E. Dal substituted for W. Cummings in the second and third sets.

In the first set Maui piled up a score of 694 against Hilo's 761. In the second set Maui built it up to 747, but Hilo piled up a score of 835. While in the third round the Maui boys showed a score of 714 against Hilo's 751.

Pins Are Missing and Later Missed

Burning the wires, chasing down the Claudine wharf, holding up a truck were but a few of the experiences that befell members of the bowling fraternity a week ago Saturday afternoon.

This state of affairs followed the ordering a new set of pins for use on the Gym alleys, which arrived from Honolulu on the Kilaua that morning. "The quest of the missing pins" came to a happy ending in front of the Maui Bank when George Cummings and a force of deputies ordered Sam Sniffen to halt, turn about and deposit the much-wanted box at the Gym.

The movie drama thus enacted, the tournament between Manuel Moura & Co., and Cummings' Amalgamation took place, the former beating last week's victors by a nice margin in three games.

Manuel Moura & Co., M. Moura, Ledward, L. Distell, Kaumehewa and W. Cockett, George Cummings' Amalgamation: G. Cummings, J. Wilmington, J. T. Correa, F. Palmatier and W. Afonso.

Never was there a prettier race in the major baseball leagues. The two New York teams, the Giants in the National and the Yankees in the American have forged to the front and it is not unlikely may be contenders for the World's Championship.

The Maui league schedule has been put back one week because of the trip of a Maui team to Hilo. Play in the championship series will be resumed next Sunday.

Alexander Hume Ford has now taken up the subject of holding Olympic games in Honolulu in 1923 and Ford has a habit of getting what he goes after.

Maui Athletic Club Organizes to Enter Amateur Athletics

Maui Athletic Club was organized Sunday morning by members of the Swimming Committee of the Athletic Committee and members of the Athletic Committee for the purpose of affiliating with the A. A. U. and securing sanction for the Aquatic Carnival which is to be held immediately after the Fair next month. Robert E. Hughes was made president and R. O. Humphrey secretary and an executive committee of three named to draft constitution and by-laws and make the necessary application for membership in the A. A. U. and secure the sanction for the meet.

Action taken Sunday morning was somewhat different from what had been contemplated. Bill Harris, the Olympic swimming star, was over from Honolulu and brought a letter from Mrs. Fullard Leo, secretary of the Hawaiian department A. A. U., which held that under regulations of the Union a "committee" could not join that body. This caused a re-verting to former plans for the formation of a club which will interlock with the Athletic Committee and so serve the same purpose. The members of the club will be members of the Athletic Committee and its subsidiary swimming committee. Later there may be an amendment to the constitution of the athletic committee so as to change its name from "committee" to "club" and it may join the A. A. U. "swallow up" the Athletic Club if the members of the Athletic Committee, and perhaps the parent body, the Fair Association shall so determine.

To secure speedy sanction of the coming swimming carnival was the all important matter considered. To amend the constitution of the Athletic Committee would require more than two weeks and that plan was abandoned for the time being, the subject to be brought up at the next meeting. Previously it was planned to organize an Aquatic Club but the "Athletic" club was considered preferable. Athletes may become associate members of the organization under the tentative plans proposed.

Those present at the meeting were R. E. Hughes, R. O. Humphreys, Frank Lufkin, C. S. Childs, Claire Tate, C. A. Puck, Leland C. Lewis and Joseph H. Gray.

It is designed to perpetuate the control of athletics by the Athletic Committee and not that it should be supplanted by the club that has been formed.

Track Events Will Be Feature of Last Day of County Fair

Track athletic events at the Fair will be confined to one day according to present plans which were outlined at a meeting held last Saturday afternoon. The athletic program will dovetail in with the rest of the entertainment program which includes horse racing, baseball, a program by the Boy Scouts, probably military drills and perhaps cowboy sports and many other numbers to hold interest and furnish thrills, fun and excitement.

Five track events are to be run off on Saturday afternoon, the last day of the fair and the one on which the Press Congress will be in attendance. The events will be:

- 50 yard dash, free-for-all. 100 yard dash, free-for-all. 220 yard dash, free-for-all. 380 yard run, free-for-all. 880 yard relay, four men teams, 220 yard each.

Plans are being worked out for an excellent athletic program on the Fair Grounds, October 13-15 during the Fourth Maui County Fair.

Ruth Stacker, a former Honolulu girl, now Mrs. Ruth Pointer of Portland, Oregon, recently accomplished the feat of swimming across the Columbia River and back, the first woman to succeed in such an effort.

Al Castle of Honolulu may be a contender for the tennis championship of the Islands.

Though defeated in their meet with the Yale-Harvard track team the Oxford Cambridge athletes won a tie against the Cornell-Princeton team.

Oahu Victory Over Army Clean Cut and Blues Deserve Win

Oahu's polo victory over the army team last Wednesday by a score of 10 to 6 was described in the Advertiser by "Doc" Adams as follows:

The game, while fast and furious from start to finish, and featuring brilliant and daring play, was spoiled in spots by constant claiming of fouls and by some riding that was not of the best polo variety. For instance, it is not exactly the best of polo form to ride across the field shouting "foul-foul," but that was done yesterday. It would have been better for all parties concerned to have left such things to the referee.

In the matter of profit by foul penalties Army did better than Oahu for the Schofieldians were given a goal at the end of the first half. Oahu, when awarded fouls, was given shots at goal from sixty yards. Only one goal was scored on a foul that being to Army when they claimed a foul of Colonel Browne by Castle, in the fourth period.

Oahu won by outplaying the Schofield team, also having the better mounts. Schofield used the same mounts as did the 17th Cavalry the other day but they got better results from the ponies. Toward the latter part of the game the players on both sides were none too careful about their observance of the ethics of riding off, or in cutting across the line of the ball.

Harold Castle, at number two for Oahu, was the star of the day in the matter of goals with five to his credit. Arthur Rice was a close second with four. Jimmy Spalding scored one.

For the Army Major Chandler led in scoring. He shot three across the line between the posts. Lt-Col. Browne made one goal and Major Swing one. Army's other goal was on a foul.

Francis Browne at number three for Oahu was much in evidence. His play was distinctly of his own type. He was one of the outstanding players of the day. Major Swing for Army played a fine game at number four and seemed to have the edge on Jimmy Spalding who had trouble in keeping the play in his favor. Captain Wilder replaced Browne for the Army in the seventh chukker and played a splendid game, seeming to be better able to hold his own in riding against Francis Brown.

Castle's riding and hitting were as fine exhibitions of the game as have been seen here, although his later chukkers were marred somewhat by misses.

Game in Detail

Castle scored the first goal of the day in 5:37 and repeated two minutes and thirty-six seconds later. Francis Brown made the first spectacular play of the day when, near the pavilion, he lifted a long one out from the rail that rolled close to the posts. Army stopped the score and then in turn lost control of the ball. Castle took the play and had a good chance to score, but his pony kicked the ball as he tried to shoot. Army was on the defensive all through the chukker.

Oahu took the offensive in the second period when Brown hit out of the scrimmage at the start. They kept the game well down in Army's territory for a few minutes when Army rallied and worked the action down to the other end of the field in spite of hard riding and hitting by the Oahuans. Chandler hit toward the goal just after the bell rang. Castle's pony kicked the pellet between the posts and Army made its first score. Schofield started off savagely in the third period. After forcing the play down the field Chandler scored and tied the score. One minute and ten seconds later Arthur Rice took the ball and rode on top of it through the goal. Army staged a comeback when Colonel Browne scored and evened the battle. In spite of reckless play by the Army men Spalding, following on the heels of Castle who was riding swing off in a mad dash down the field, shot a pretty one between the posts.

Army took the ball out of the scrimmage in the fourth chukker and feeding to Major Chandler, put across a score one minute and fifty seconds after the period commenced. Castle made smart work of the next goal in fifty-seven seconds. Oahu after this took the offensive and kept the ball down into Army's territory. Time was taken out when Colonel Browne claimed that the had been fouled by Castle riding across him. Army was awarded a goal by the referees. Castle then scored another goal. The half ended with a score of 6 to 5 in favor of Oahu.

Second Half

Arthur Rice scintillated in the fifth chukker. He scored the first goal in one minute and five seconds. Harold Castle made the most spectacular scoring shot of the day when, barely ahead of a packed field, he shot for a goal at a most difficult angle. Rice afterward put another across for a point.

Major Chandler fouled Castle in the sixth chukker and Oahu was given a free shot from sixty yards out. Nothing came of it. No scoring was done by either team. The play was intense.

In the seventh a fierce battle was staged. The ball was up and down the field, riders hot after it with disregard for everything but scores. Both teams missed narrowly from scoring several times. Oahu was given another free shot on a foul and failed to score on it. Major Swing made a great run down the field with the ball, racing ahead of all his opposition to within a few yards of the Oahu goal. There he missed a difficult shot and left this chukker scoreless.

SIX DIE IN FIRE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)
NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—Six persons perished yesterday in a fire which destroyed a tenement house in Harlem.

The eighth was hard fought. Major Swing, with good support from his teammates, dashed down the field for a goal in thirty-three seconds. Arthur Rice then dropped one just short of the goal. He was right upon it, however, and lifted it across the line for the last score of the game. Final score 10 to 6 in favor of Oahu.
