Claims of Labor.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—
With the disruption of the Empire the organized system of the ancient trade unions became disrupted. Those unions which were dependent upon the wants of a highly civilized state, and only producing things for which the rude conquerors felt no need, disappeared altogether; but the unions engaged in the more necessary callings continued to exist as local unions, independently of their former administrative centres in Rome and Constantinople. Of these latter were the bakers and the sailors. Sailors unions continued to live on in all the ports of the Mediterranean, the ocean, and the great rivers. Bravely they struggled to maintain their existence until other craft unions were restored and new unions were founded, the old and the new to be known henceforth as "guilds." Now, to restore the shattered trade unions was to restore the ruined municipalities; for the unions, when grouped, are the municipalities. One and inseparable, the unions and the municipalities are the two sides of one great fact—civilization. Yes! civilization, that is industry, that is construction; as opposed to military-ism, that is war, that is destruction. The union took up and carried on the work of social progress; new municipalities were formed, generally in swamps and places accessible to sailors, that is from the water, but inaccessible to barbarism chivalry.

In the reign of Tiberius, on a little island in the River Seine, where appeared a small cluster of straw-thatched huts, the sailors' union established a branch (nautea-parisiaci), which formed the nucleus of an important municipality. That city has ever borne upon its flags the symbol of its founders—a sailing galley. That city, second to none in devotion to the cause of working-class organization and emancipation, is called—Paris.

We have to-day a nation within every nation—hostile camps of rich and poor. On one side, a class in possession of all the implements and means of labor; on the other side, a class begging for the opportunity to labor. The former squandering luxuries they have not produced, the latter stretching out timid hands for morsels of the bread they have produced. The former passing lives of ease and security in spacious and magnificent mansions; the latter dragging out a miserable existence of drudgery and apprehension in crowded and squalid tenements. On the land, the underwriter and the shipowner plotting with impunity; on the sea, the scurvy-stricken crew, and the coffin-ship, bound to the haven where man's inhumanity to man ceases.

The "rights of man," so fashionable in the last century; the abstract proposition that all men are born free and equal, and are endowed with natural rights to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness, may be correct as an abstraction. But, in the concrete, it has resulted in giving the male citizen about a ten-millionth part of some national sovereignty, called the "ballot"; a slender possibility of sitting for a term in a chair vacated, or to be vacated, by some king, and of carrying a marshal's baton in his knapsack, when he is forced to become a human butcher. All this is doubtless very right and proper, and may be a very satisfactory social program for those who have the wherewithal to live; but for the working class, which has neither sufficient bread for the table nor clothing for the body, something more natural and practical is necessary to meet its claims. The rights of man are denied by none, and few will deny the claims of labor.

Few will deny the existence of a distinct working class; of a class that is being only reproduced to-day, but has been reproduced throughout the ages, its individual members dying, its condition changing from slavery to serfdom, and from serfdom to wagedom, but ever being renewed, and living always; of a class destined to labor while grass grows and water flows. Few will deny that this working class has, from season to season, from day to day, throughout all time, in slavery, serfdom, and wagedom, produced a constantly increasing surplus, constituting the world's wealth.

Few will deny that this surplus, the unconsumed product of past generations, the world's wealth, is rightfully the inheritance of the class that has produced it. Few will deny the necessity of the organization of labor, upon a basis both special and general; the former to decide the questions continually arising in special crafts, which only those conversant with the details of that one particular craft are competent to decide; the latter to advance the claim of the working class to its inheritance, that is to determine the maximum wages, and the general conditions under which labor shall be performed, together with the ways and means of supporting the casually and permanently unemployed. And few will deny that the Trade Unions, the historic, normal organization of the working class, having the objects and performing the above specified functions, have not only a grand social destiny, but are entitled to the sympathy of the general public and to the fullest protection and assistance that states and nations, separately and collectively, can possibly render. In short, the working class, having arrived at

THURSDAY, AUG. 3, 1893.

After the Military Act has passed the final stage in the Councils, it is said that the Attorney-General will introduce an Act to amend the Decalogue, as thoughts on some of the commandments keep the Attorney-General awake o' nights.

C. de Varigny, whom many will remember as a Cabinet Minister under Kamehameha V., has written a book—La Femme Aux Etats-Unis—in which affairs American are discussed. A notice of the book says: " * * * while the American public school system is gravely expounded from two sources of information, the College of Punahou, near Honolulu in Hawaii, and Mr. Richard Malcolm Johnston's oddities of Southern Life * * * "

Hon. Edmund Barton, Q. C., Attorney General of New South Wales, in a short conversation with the editor of this paper, said the financial situation in the Colonies was gradually improving. Banks were getting on their feet again with the special assistance rendered them by the governments. Mr. Barton said that, while over-speculation had a good deal to do with the crash, the immediately exciting cause was the withdrawal of funds by some English depositors. Then local depositors took alarm and getting into a panic withdrew their money. Mr. Barton is a pleasant-looking, stout man, with the leonine face and expansive chin typical of an aggressive statesman. He is making a flying visit to British Columbia by the steamer Miowera.

Rev. W. B. Oleson, the retired principal of Kamehameha School, has reached the New England shores, and his footings for annexation are coming back. He has lost nothing through change of climate in extravagance of speech. Mr. Oleson draws as long a bow as ever, the unscrupulous ward politician nature being born in him. Of course he omits, while denouncing the "corruption of the monarchy," to tell of the zealous personal canvass he made in 1890 for the election of one of the most notorious gamblers in Honolulu to the Legislature. If it were known in the United States, as it is in Hawaii, that Mr. Oleson is wagging his chin for coin in his present campaign, his utterances would be duly discounted there from the importance that the clerical cloth gives them in New England communities.

Mr. Stevens' "ablest man in Hawaii"—Thurston—made up some figures to show how small a percentage of property remained in the hands of native Hawaiians, and consequently the small percentage of taxes they paid, and from these figures reached the conclusion that they had no rights which annexationists were bound to respect. A recent writer says: "At Atlanta, (Ga.), I was told at the State Treasurer's office that the negroes paid just three percent of the taxes of the State. This percentage seems small; yet it may be remembered that those of us in New York City who own less than $5000 own but four percent of the property of that city." No one in Georgia or New York City, however, considers it statesmanlike to oppress or outrage the negro or small property holder. Mr. Stevens' man is more of a bandit than a statesman.

A Little Circus.

There was a little circus at the Panteon back stand about sunset yesterday. A trainer was setting out with a young horse in a brake that bore the marks of a hundred struggles with untamed colts. The man performed a "skirt dance," as a Maui sport described it, and then turning round in the shafts bowed good evening to the driver. This performance tightened the harness uncomfortably, and after chattering right and left the horse lay down. There were at once seventeen expert horsemen on the scene, who developed their presence by each giving separate and distinct advice to the driver on how to get that horse right side up and right end foremost. He quietly took his own way about his own business—just like an editor or a hotel-keeper—and was soon flying up Fort street steering the nervous critter. The horse is probably fit for a hack to-day.

Mr. Thomas Bette, editor of the Graphic, Texarkana, Arkansas, has found what he believes to be the best remedy in existence for the flux. His experience is well worth remembering. He says: "Last summer I had a very severe attack of flux. I tried almost every known remedy, none giving relief. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended to me. I purchased a bottle and received almost immediate relief. I continued to use the medicine and was entirely cured. I take pleasure in recommending this remedy to any person suffering with such a disease, as in my opinion it is the best medicine in existence." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

CARNOT'S REPORTED DEATH.

Authority for the Unfounded Report in the Bulletin.

Premature obituaries of public men are not so uncommon that any single instance should excite much comment. When the Star guessed the other evening that the purser of the Rio de Janeiro had grieved the Bulletin with a story of President Carnot's death, it was not deemed worth while to state the facts of the publication in reply, especially as it was thought our informant would not care for publicity. However, as that gentleman has voluntarily furnished a translation of the too previous obituary that appeared in a Japanese paper, to satisfy public curiosity the document is reproduced below. It is from the Yomiuri-shimbu, published at Tokio, Japan, and its issue of July 14, 1893. The obituary is printed within a heavy black border:

"MONS. CARNOT, PRESIDENT OF FRANCE, DEAD.

"A cablegram intelligence was received yesterday stating that Mons. Carnot, the present President of France, has suddenly died. As the cablegram was quite brief, we are unable to ascertain the cause and facts of the case. Anyhow, the death of Mons. Carnot is a wonderfully sad event to France. As long as we are in receipt of this report we have nothing more than to express our hearty sympathy with the people of France. The brief biography of Mons. Carnot is as follows: He is son of the well-known Mons. L. H. Carnot, born at Limoges, in the month of August, 1837. When he was 34 years old he entered the National Assembly (it was changed to "Representative Assembly" afterwards) and his name was well-known then among them. In 1887, he was appointed Vice-Minister of Public Works. From 1880 to 1882, he was in the position of the Minister of Public Works. In 1882 and 1886, he was appointed Minister of Finance. On the 3rd November, 1887, when President Grevy resigned, Mons. Carnot succeeded him as President."

S. S. CITY OF NEW YORK.

She Arrives on Time—Memo. of Her Voyage.

The S. S. City of New York, F. H. Johnston, commander, arrived today from the Orient and docked at the Pacific Mail dock. With a few Chinese stowage she had only three cabin passengers for this port, and twenty-six tons of freight. There was a large crowd of people at the wharf as the steamer came in, who were allowed on board as soon as she docked. The usual variety of Oriental curiosities in the shape of canary birds, parrots, monkeys and pups were in abundance, and met with ready sale. In an improvised room in the forward part of the steamer several Chinamen attracted the attention of a number of people, it being an opium smoking room, and the Celestials were "biting the pipe." A large number of visitors made a visit of inspection to the steamer. The following is Purser Richardson's memorandum of the passage: Sailed from Hongkong July 12th at 2:32 p. m., arrived at Nagasaki July 16th at 12:15 a. m., sailed same day at 5:03 p. m. Passed through Shimousaki Straits July 17th at daylight, arrived at Kobe July 18th at 1:47 a. m., sailed same day at 5:52 p. m., arrived at Yokohama July 19th at 10 p. m., sailed July 22nd at 10:22 a. m., crossed the 180th meridian July 24th at noon, arrived at this port Aug. 3rd at 12 noon. Had continuous strong easterly winds and heavy head seas since leaving Yokohama. The City of New York will leave for San Francisco at 10:30 o'clock this evening, the mail closing at 9:30 o'clock.

CHANCE FOR ART PATRONS.

A Choice Collection of Pictures by the Late R. C. Barnfield.

The pictures and other effects belonging to the estate of the late Mr. R. C. Barnfield have been arranged in the oil Arlington dining room, located at the street. The pictures include sketches both in oil and water colors, together with several clever pen and ink drawings. Amongst the water colors, are several extremely charming sketches of Hawaiian scenery, such as Hamalei Valley, Hananautu, Nawiliwili Bay, Keatakeka Bay, Honolulu, etc. A capital picture of a man smoking a pipe is worthy of mention, and there is a variety of flower and bird studies. The late Mr. Barnfield before coming to these islands, lived for some time at the Phoenix group. There are some nice sketches of that part of the South Seas in the collection, also of the famous Hawaiian man-o-war the Explorer, now the Kaimioa. The principal oil painting is one of Esquimaut harbor; and a study from life by the well-known Prof. Legros of the South Kensington Art Schools, who is famous for his rapid manipulation of the brush, is well worthy the attention of art lovers.

The pictures have all been ticketed and priced, and will be offered for private sale to-morrow (Friday), the balance unsold will be disposed of by auction on Saturday by L. J. Levey.

Besides the pictures, there is a fine 8x10 English Camera and outfit by Lancaster, a sweet toned violin and a number of curios, artists colors, etc.

Those who are fond of really good works of art should certainly call in at the Arlington and secure some of the beautiful paintings now offered for sale.

For a lame back or for a pain in the side or chest, try saturating a piece of flannel with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and binding it onto the affected part. This treatment will cure any ordinary case in one or two days. Pain Balm also cures rheumatism. 50 cent bottles for sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

PASSED THE GUARDS.

A Member of the Army Walks Out Without Knowing It.

Charles Evans, a member of the P. G. army, was found wandering around the streets last night by the police and arrested for drunkenness. When sobered up at the Station, Evans stated that he had gone to his quarters in the Executive building at 9 o'clock with "a pretty good jag on," and he couldn't tell how he got out of bed and passed the guards at the gate. He didn't remember anything until he woke up and found himself in the Police Station. Evans had two left shoes on his feet, one belonging to a comrade in the army. He pleaded guilty in the District Court this morning to a charge of drunkenness and was fined $2 and $1 costs.

To Get at the Facts

Regarding Hood's Sarsaparilla, ask the people who take this medicine, or read the testimonials often published in this paper. They will certainly convince you that Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses unequalled merit, and that Hood's Cures.

Hood's Pills cure constipation by restoring the peristaltic action of the alimentary canal. They are the best family cathartic.

'German Syrup'

J. C. Davis, Rector of St. James' Episcopal Church, Eufaula, Ala.: "My son has been badly afflicted with a fearful and threatening cough for several months, and after trying several prescriptions from physicians which failed to relieve him, he has been perfectly restored by the use of two bottles of Bo-

An Episcopal scribe's German Syrup. I can recommend it without hesitation." Chronic severe, deep-seated coughs like this are as severe tests as a remedy can be subjected to. It is for these long-standing cases that Boschee's German Syrup is made a specialty. Many others afflicted as this lad was, will do well to make a note of this.

J. F. Arnold, Montevideo, Minn., writes: "I always use German Syrup for a Cold on the Lungs. I have never found an equal to it—far less a superior."

The yarn about the Chinaman dying the tail feathers of canaries and passing them off as a new species of feathery songsters is equal to the one about the man from Jaytown who paid a ventriloquist $500 for a white owl believing it to be a new species of parrot. There's tricks in all trades but ours. You may wash our Cages or scrape them with a knife, you can't get the brass off—they're solid metal all the way through.

The amount of building going on in Honolulu is suggestive of a boom—a building boom rather than a peace destroying land boom; and these improvements suggest others, bath tubs for instance, not the flimsy zinc affairs but the handsome Enamelled Tubs which you see advertised by the Standard M'g Co. in all the magazines. There's no need for you to send off to the States for them, we can show you an assortment large enough for anyone.

Our California agents sent us some new fangled Key Rings by the "Castle" that ought to take well. They're decidedly easy of manipulation and very cheap. We have also a lot of Key Rings of the conventional patterns such as you have been using for the past twenty years. The styles are varied and the stock large.

The Red and White Glassware proved such a go that we have replenished our stock. The tall Water or Lemonade Tankards beautifully cut will grace any table. We have also the Salad Bowls, Dishes and Glass Tumblers to match the tankard. The price will win your admiration as quickly as the ware.

If you wish to know how rapidly and well brass work may be cleaned with Liquid Putz, watch the artist at McInerney's corner any morning as you come down to business. It is decidedly the best polish for Brass, Copper, Zinc, Steel, Tin, Bronze, Gold or Silver, a half dozen rubs and the article is handsomely burnished.

A month hence and the nimrods will be preparing for an active campaign against native ducks. Sportsmen are as fastidious about their ammunition as the average woman is about her Easter bonnet, the dealer must cater to the wants of the man who swears by Wood powder as well as those who believe Schultz and S. S. to be the only powder fit to use in a gun. When the season opens we will have a supply of the best "loaded to order" Cartridges obtainable. Our orders for the fall supply have gone forward and the stock will be here in ample time for the Sept. 1st sports. We have in stock some of the best Cleaning Rods that ever entered a gun, and we have also handsome Sole Leather Shell Cases. Last year we imported a few on special orders, this year we will keep them in stock if the public will allow us; we would rather sell them.

A few Soup Ladles of exceptionally neat designs came to us the other day and are ready to go to you. Nearly every one uses them and when you want a new one why not get something new in pattern. We have them to show you or sell you.

Ever since the Hendry Breaker was introduced here and proven a success we have been working on a plan for an improved Double Furrow Plow. We received a few by the "Castle," two of them were shipped away Friday. It's the best Double Furrow Plow ever made.

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

Diamond Head, 3 p. m.—Weather, cloudy; wind, light northeast. A list of officers of the Hawaiian Hardware Co. appears elsewhere.

Ewa is dry like the city, but there have been showers in the foothills. Cane from the uplands is being milled at Ewa. Grinding will be finished this month.

A wag remarked on the street this morning that "astounding lies" should be called "Tisers." Parser Richardson of the S. S. City of New York has the thanks of the BULLETIN for news favors.

Mrs. Leoiki, mother-in-law of S. Kau, Deputy Sheriff of Kawahau, Kaula, died on Wednesday night at that place. James F. Morgan will hold an underwriters' sale of corrugated iron at H. Hackfeld & Co.'s store at 12 noon to-morrow.

Col. R. H. Hallet, of the British army, arrived on the S. S. City of New York this morning, and will make a short stay here. The new merry-go-round on Bethel and Hotel streets was started this afternoon and worked well. It will be opened to the public on Saturday.

On Saturday, 5 inst., Jas. F. Morgan will sell two carriage horses, one passenger express and harness belonging to the estate of Chun Wa Sing. Ex-Judge Kauai, one of the Kalaupapa lepers, died on Tuesday night at the Kalihi Receiving Station. His body will be taken to Waimea for interment.

The Pacific Wheelmen at a meeting held yesterday appointed a committee of three to negotiate for the construction of a suitable track at Pearl City. It is reported that the new jailor will give the native guards at Oahu Prison the g. b. It is also reported that white men, all single, will succeed them.

The P. G. band will give a concert at the Hotel this evening for the benefit of passengers on the S. S. City of New York, commencing at 7:30 o'clock. Detective Toma and the mounted police surprised a Japanese couple in the act of making out che fa tickets on Maunakea street last night and pulled them.

Alakea street, near the Pacific Mail wharf, is being repaired. This when finished will be a much needed improvement, since steamers dock at that wharf nearly every week. Mr. M. Davis, clothier, etc., Nuuanu street, intends to retire from business, and has instructed L. J. Levey to dispose of his stock-in-trade by auction on Tuesday, August 8th.

The U. S. flag ship band under the leadership of Bandmaster Grosskurth, gave a very enjoyable concert at the Hotel yesterday evening. There was a large number of people present. The passengers booked by the S. S. City of New York leaving this evening for the Coast are as follows:—Henry E. Brooks, C. H. Bragg, 4 European and 10 Asiatics in the steerage.

The California Feed Co., is determined to keep to the front in the feed line. It keeps the largest and best assortment of feed stuffs in the city, and its prices are away down to bed rock. A mangy dog was shot at the Police Station this afternoon by Captain Juen. There are any number of mangy curs in the vicinity of the Fishmarket that would never be missed if treated the same way.

C. A. Herring, convicted of manslaughter, and J. Quinn, imprisoned for mayhem, are at present employed touching up the Deputy Marshal's office. They are artists respectively in painting and plastering. The thirtieth annual report of the Hawaiian Evangelical Association has been received. It makes 78 pages and contains reports of all branches of home and foreign mission work under the charge of the Association.

The entertainment and social of the St. Andrew's Church Association will take place this evening in the schoolroom adjoining the Cathedral, commencing at 7:30 o'clock. A program of music and readings will be presented, after which refreshments will be passed around. You are cordially invited to attend. Tuesday night a native was ordered off the sidewalk along the Palace yard fence on Richards street, by one of the guards inside the yard. To test whether this was according to a fixed rule against the public use of the sidewalk at night, another Hawaiian and a foreigner took a stroll along the same sidewalk later, but although it was in the same watch, nobody interfered with them.

In consideration of the work of Rev. Hiram Bingham, in translating the whole Bible into the Gilbert Islands language, Yale University has conferred on him the degree of Doctor of Divinity. The Friend says he is the first of Hawaiian missionary sons to receive the honor. Dr. Bingham, assisted by Mrs. Bingham, completed the correction of the Old Testament proofs August 11 last, exactly twenty years after his completion of the translation of the New Testament.

PROVISIONAL LEGISLATURE.

Regular General Session of the Executive and Advisory Councils. Sharp on the hour, 1:30 this afternoon, the weekly session of the Executive and Advisory Councils was opened with the prescribed prayer by President Dole, with whom were present Ministers King, Damon and Smith; Councilors Hatch, Allen, Waterhouse, Ena, Brown, Tenney, Young, Morgan, Bolte, Emmeluth and Nott.

Minister Damon read the weekly financial statement, as follows: FINANCIAL STATEMENT FOR THE WEEK ENDING AUGUST 2, 1893. Current account balance July 26, 1893 $ 90,246 14

Table with columns for RECEIPTS and EXPENDITURES, listing various financial items and their amounts.

Outstanding Bonds $2,588,500 00 Due P. S. Bank 525,239 47 Treasury and P. M. G. notes 230,000 00 Net indebtedness $3,343,739 47

This amount of $152,492.95 was paid from general revenue in the treasury to carry on public improvements under Sec. 2 to date and all receipts from sale of bonds under loan of 1893 pass into general cash as offsets until this debt is cancelled. Less bonds, Act of 1893, sold to date 97,000 00

Amount due from P. S. B. for advances from general revenue to cover excess of withdrawals over receipts 13,054 42

Amount due general Treasury this date from Loan Act 68,547 37 P. S. BANK MEMO. Due depositors $ 525,239 47

PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT MEMO. Expenses Provisional Government to date $ 108,553 73

This amount covers all expenses including military and others not appropriated by the last Legislature. MEMO CASH IN TREASURY. Outstanding certificates $ 268,000 00

Cash on hand to redeem certificates 268,000 00 Road Board fund in Treasury 2,746 59 Available cash as above 88,785 29 Total cash in Treasury $ 354,191 74

In submitting the report the Minister of Finance stated, in reference to the sale of $37,000 bonds, he had allowed them to go at the rate of 98 as the law authorized. Besides being legal there was a reason for making the concession. It had been discovered that there were two shoal places in the harbor— one 19 feet and the other 15 1/2 feet—and the sale of bonds enabled the Government to proceed at once with dredging operations. They would possibly save in immunity of damage to the harbor the $748 of the loan. Minister Damon also mentioned a scheme for improving Honolulu's water supply. Mr. W. G. Ashley had been sent to Ewa Plantation to inspect a pumping plant, with a capacity of four million gallons in 24 hours. The government had a boiler, and the cost of engine, pump and well would be $27,000. Such an addition to the Water Works would give the city all the water it required.

Mr. Morgan presented the report of the special committee on libraries and curios. They recommend that books of value to the executive departments for reference be retained, that books of historical value be donated to the Bernice Pauahi Bishop Museum—Curator Brigham to make out a list—and the remainder of the books to be donated to the Honolulu Library and Reading Room Association.

Minister Smith started a desultory discussion by the remark that it would be burying the books of historical value to place them in the museum. Would it not be better to place them in the library, where everybody could have access to them? Mr. Morgan said the committee feared the books would be liable to be battered in the public library.

It was explained on further discussion that what was meant by "historical value" meant the value of the books as curios. President Dole gave as an instance a bible presented by the American Bible Society to Kanehaha IV. The report was adopted. Mr. Hatch presented a report of the Judiciary Committee on the bill to transfer the powers of the former Privy Council to the Advisory Council. They recommend its passage with a slight amendment.

Mr. Tenney wanted to know what need there was for this bill, in view of the Proclamation of Jan. 17. He was not a lawyer but he regarded the proposed law as superfluous.

President Dole had feared that the bill was not only superfluous but liable to do injury by unduly limiting the powers of the Advisory Council. One of the Privy Council's powers, for example, was the voting of money between sessions of the Legislature on the unanimous recommendation of the Cabinet. They should recognize the entire abrogation of the monarchy. The Privy Council were the advisors of the monarch, the Advisory Council those of the Executive Council.

Mr. Emmeluth was desirous of knowing what particular conditions had arisen that made the passage of this bill necessary. Minister Smith replied that the cause for the measure arose in connection with the pardoning of Matsuda, a Japanese convict. On a division the report was adopted by a narrow majority.

Mr. Brown was granted further time for the committee on the Crown Lands and the Peddling bills. Mr. Tenney asked how was it that all the Justices of the Supreme Court were absent from Honolulu at once. It seemed strange that there should be no representative of the Supreme Court in the city, particularly at this time.

President Dole explained that under the old law, it was the rule of the Court in vacation season to have one Justice always remain in town. Under the new Judiciary Act many of the duties previously performed by the Supreme Court Justices devolved on the Judges of the Circuit Court. There was therefore not the same necessity for the presence of the Supreme Court Justices.

Secretary Rodgers read a petition from Messrs. J. J. Williams and Frank Godfrey, publishers of the Paradise of the Pacific, protesting against the stoppage of the subsidy voted in aid of that periodical by the Legislature of 1892. They stated that the action was a hardship, inasmuch as they had incurred liabilities for improving the paper, on the strength of the legally granted subsidy. Referred to Finance Committee.

Second reading of bills was next in order. The bill to appropriate $650 for Custom House boat, passed. The bill to appropriate $5000 for incidentals, civil and criminal expenses, Attorney-General's Department, passed. The Military bill was read section by section.

The number of companies of the National Guard was changed from ten to twelve. On the matter of exemption from taxes and jury service there was a long discussion. Mr. Brown moved to strike out the exemption clause altogether. He could never see why a soldier getting pay and rations should not pay taxes.

Mr. Morgan agreed with the previous speaker as to taxes, but thought the soldiers should be exempt from jury duty. Minister Smith said the provision was simply a continuation of the old law. The exemption was the only privilege the volunteers do get. Mr. Young would make a distinction between paid and unpaid soldiers. He moved that all unpaid soldiers be exempt.

President Dole was in favor of passing the whole section as it stood. It was intended to be something in the way of a privilege of enlisted men, who were ready to turn out at a moment's notice and do arduous public service. The proposed exemption was only a small pecuniary recognition which the Government allowed them for the position in which they placed themselves for the safety of the Government.

There was a good jury list now and he did not think the administration of justice would suffer from the exemption of volunteers. Another consideration was that it was a condition existing at the time the present volunteers enlisted. Mr. Hatch considered that the amount of taxes to be gained was comparatively small, and he was in favor of passing the exemption clause.

Mr. Tenney moved that the section pass with the addition of the school tax to the exemption. Carried, and the section passed as amended. The bill was still before the meeting when our reporter left at 3:20.

The success of Mrs. Annie M. Beam, of McKeesport, Pennsylvania, in the treatment of diarrhoea in her children will undoubtedly be of interest to many mothers. She says: "I spent several weeks in Joustown, Pa., after the great flood, on account of my husband being employed there. We had several children with us, two of whom took the diarrhoea very badly. I got some of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy from Rev. Mr. Chapman. It cured both of them. I know of several other cases where it was equally successful. I think it cannot be excelled, and cheerfully recommend it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

A Word about Our Baseball Supply—

It is Full and Complete The Prices Can't be Beat.

As before remarked our Optical Department with the assistance of the infallible EYEMETER goes steadily along, but we have a word of warning for those who THINK they will be made to look more stylish by wearing glasses—take Punch's advice and DON'T, unless you wear only the frames.
