POOR ENCOURAGEMENT.
Hon. S. G. Wilder said in the House this morning that he declined the privilege of supplying Hilo with water, with the restrictions imposed by the House. We do not wonder at it. The honorable gentleman was quite willing to proceed with the undertaking, with the condition that the Government could at any time deemed proper take over the works, at the price of construction, with six per cent. per annum added during the possession of the constructor. This was apparently not satisfactory to the House, and restriction was sought to be tightened. Mr. Wilder declined to go farther. It appears to us that by the action of the House in this matter a desirable enterprise which should be encouraged is being killed.

THE REASON FOR REJECTION.
It is strange that some intelligent gentlemen who write for the public press are slow to recognise the difference between private individuals and public men, in so far as the latter are legitimate subjects of public comment and criticism while the former are not. The same slowness is evinced by the same gentlemen in distinguishing between the public acts and the private lives of public men. Their public acts are legitimate matter of public criticism; their private lives are not, only in so far as they affect their public acts.

Ministers of the Crown and Members of the Legislature are public men, but beyond their offices and the walls of the House, and within the precincts of their social and private life, a public writer should not recognise their existence. That is, it is the true policy of a public writer to be utterly unconscious of public men beyond the position to which their ambition has directed their footsteps.

Judges, lawyers, clergymen, government officials, and many others, are, permanently or on occasions, public men; but they all have a private seclusion, the sacredness of which no public writer has a right to violate, and into which no "gentleman" of the profession will ever stick his pen.

In the legislative hall, in the administrative departments, on the forum, in the halls of justice, in the associations of speculative adventure, and on the printed sheet, the names, the words, the deeds of the actors, are, by the conditions inseparably connected with the paths of glory they have selected, the property of the public, and the target for every newspaper pop-gun. But to follow these same actors from these stages of public action into their private pastimes and home circles, is not within the proper province of a public journal.

The foregoing has been written because of a communication treating of private matters, sent to us for publication, and contains the reason for rejecting the communication.

THE NEW TREATY OR WHO IS FOOLED?

In the speech that the present ministers made King Kalakaua read at the opening of the present session, it was distinctly stated—in connection with the renewal of the Treaty—that the session of Pearl River harbor was only granted as a temporary quid pro quo for this treaty, and only to last as long as the treaty would.

Now, in the official proclamation of this transaction, it is simply stated:

Article II.: His Majesty the King of the Hawaiian Islands grants to the Government of the United States the exclusive right to enter the harbor of Pearl River in the Island of Oahu, and to establish and maintain there a coaling and repair station for the use of vessels of the United States, and to that end the United States may improve the entrance to said harbor and do all other things needful to the purpose aforesaid.

As it can thus be seen, this article must, to any sensible person, read as a permanent, absolute cession of privilege, since there is no clause in it to authorize the King of these islands to cause it to be ended when the treaty ends, and nothing at all to prevent the U. S. Government claiming that this privilege was really meant as permanent.

The only authority (?) we have on the matter is a quibbling pretended explanatory letter of Secretary Bayard, in which—whilst acknowledging his incompetency "to qualify, expand or explain" anything—he expresses his own personal opinion that no other explanation or limitation is needed to this article as to its terminating with Article I. But what seems to Mr. Bayard personally so clear, will undoubtedly appear just the contrary to his successors, who will not by any means feel bound by his assertions any more than those who come after them, will feel bound by the opinion of the Green and Brown Ministry.

And furthermore a recent example connected with this same treaty, has already shown what value can be placed on the words and opinions of Mr. Bayard, who is not the infallible "Chevalier sans peur et sans reproche." But even if Mr. Bayard's letter was written in perfect good faith, what government would consider itself tied by the opinion of a subaltern officer? Verba volant, scripta manent, and I shall ask our clever leaders where in the whole of history are the smart diplomats who have ever consented to accept such an important thing as a treaty "in simple good faith" without its being properly and carefully worded?

Had it therefore been wished by our ministers to make the clause clear and indisputable, as announced in the royal message, instead of bungling the job in such an untimely rush, they ought to have refused to sign the document unless something more binding than Mr. Bayard's opinion had been added, in the shape of an additional phrase, something in this way: "such aforesaid privilege to terminate with this same treaty."

But it really seems as if the matter had been purposely left ambiguous. It seems as if it was the intention of the ministers of consenting to the grant of a perpetual cession of Pearl River, without their having the courage of acknowledging it openly.

Therefore, I shall ask who is fooled, and who is fooling in this convention.

Did the Ministers fool the King by making him sign a deed, the true inwardness of which he was not aware?

Or did the U. S. Government fool our wise Ministers here, by conveniently refusing to insert a most important clause, mentioned in our Royal speech?

Or did King Kalakaua wish to fool his own subjects, whom he knows to be opposed to all idea of cession of territory?

This last hypothesis is not sustainable an instant, but the other two need an answer.

At any rate, I say, as a Hawaiian citizen that the restrictive clause I have mentioned above, ought to be even now inserted in the Treaty.

If not, it will appear hereafter that the present convention, through connivance of the Ministry, did contain a virtual and perpetual cession of territorial privilege, in exchange for a mere 7 years' extension of what eminent men term a "worse than useless" treaty.

And, at this stage, I say that the Ministry had no right to accept so lightly a treaty involving even a most remote chance of a future squabble over a possible cession of territory, without the approval of the Parliament and most probably even an appeal to the people, to the native Hawaiians to whom the country belongs.

Furthermore, I say that if the Ministers have imprudently committed a blunder, they had better confess it and try to attenuate it.

But if they have been trying to fool the people, or have carelessly allowed themselves to be fooled, they might before they know it, be called to account by the indignant Hawaiians.

At any rate, it is a serious matter, which ought to be taken up at once, in the present House, if not by the foreigners, at least by the Hawaiian members. A. MARQUES.

THE VETO.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—Some confusion appears to exist in the minds of Ministers, the Legislature and the public (as represented in degree by the "Gazette") about the King's veto. From the Premier's reply to a question on the subject some time ago, the conclusion is drawn that the veto can only be exercised by the King and with the consent of his Ministers. If the King should veto a bill which Ministers advised him to sign, the Premier did not know what the Cabinet might do; and the "Gazette" followed this reply with a suggestive hint that something dreadful might happen in such a case.

Now, if there be anything plainer than another in the Constitution it is, that the veto is a personal right in the Sovereign, to be exercised at his discretion.

Article 48 reads: "Every bill which shall have been passed by the Legislature shall, before it becomes law, be presented to the King. If he approves he shall sign it and it shall thereby become a law; but, if not, he shall return it, with his objections, to the Legislature, which shall enter the objections at large on their journal and proceed to reconsider it. If after such reconsideration it shall be approved by a two-thirds vote of all the elective members of the Legislature it shall become law."

How a question could possibly arise as to the personal right of the King to veto any bill he pleases, in view of this Constitutional provision, is a point which only Ministers can determine. Their duty is to present bills to the King, tendering such advice as they may deem expedient; it is then the King's prerogative to determine whether he will sign or not. Should he refrain from signing the Constitution makes his subsequent course plain. It then becomes a question between the King and the Legislature, of which he is, by the Constitution, an integral part. Ministers are excluded from participation in the vote on a vetoed bill.

It might be interesting to know what Ministers would do were they to advise an exercise of the veto, or were the King to veto a bill contrary to their advice. Would they consider it their duty to counter-sign the veto under Article 41 of the Constitution, which provides that "no act of the King shall have any effect unless it be countersigned by a member of the Cabinet, who by that signature makes himself responsible?" Judging from the confusion of ideas on the subject, on and off the Ministerial seats, this is the only inference to be drawn. If so, it is evident that Ministers do not in the least understand their duty as Constitutional advisers of the King. But while they are taking lessons in Constitutional forms the Constitution itself is being trampled in the mire.

CONSTITUTIONAL GOVERNMENT.

WHY NOT RESIGNED?

EDITOR BULLETIN:—A number of your readers would like to know why Dr. Emerson has not resigned as Physician at Lunallo Home when that was one of the conditions under which he was voted a salary as President of the Board of Health. JUSTICE.

WHY?

EDITOR BULLETIN:—As your paper is the only advocate of the people's rights, we workmen patronize it. A word upon the last election. You or we will never see such another, nor do we want to. It was a fraud from beginning to end, and the fruit of its merits is misrepresentation in the Legislature and elsewhere. It is well known we voted for a change, any kind of change, without just consideration. Now, after proof we assert, that there is no Constitution. Why? Because it is not the peoples, by the people and for the people, and it is simply a joint stock company to see who will raise the most wind. But the wind is taken out of the bags of the would-be Reformed Ministry by their retrograde movements, to the detriment of the interests of the people. In a word they are an imbecile cheap labor organization for the wealthy and parsimonious. Give us liberal men and measures for the people, and prohibit all Asiatic immigration. MANY WORKMEN.

A SON OF ADAM.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—A Noble for the Island of Hawaii, who voted with the minority on the question of censure of the Ministry for violation of the spirit and intent of Article 20 of the Constitution, has made a painful effort to explain his vote. He should be well versed in English words and their meaning, and if he can read Article 20 and the preamble to the resolution which prevailed and say that there has been no violation of the spirit and intent of the Constitution, then I can only say: That there are none so blind as those who will not see. The hard thing for the Noble to do was to take the responsibility belonging to his position; lacking the moral courage it was easier to put the responsibility upon the Justices of the Supreme Court. The amendment to the resolution, made by Mr. Castle, gave the Noble the loop hole through which to shuffle and be shuffled. Only this and nothing more. VOX POPULI.

yesterday.

COMPANY A of the Honolulu Rifles will not drill this evening, so says Capt. Pratt.

The sale of awa licenses, last Tuesday, for the island of Oahu, amounted to $4,150.

A PLAIN silver bracelet has been lost. The finder will be rewarded by leaving it at this office.

MESSRS. T. H. Davies & Co. advertise a polariscope and one new Lawn Tennis set for sale cheap.

MR. J. F. Morgan will sell to-morrow at 10 a. m., at the store of Geo Kim, toys, dolls and other Christmas goods.

THE first Christmas sale of holiday goods will take place at auction rooms of Mr. J. F. Morgan, this evening at 7 o'clock.

THE U. S. S. Junata returned to port last evening, after spending several hours in shooting mosquitos off Pearl River.

THE publication of the laws enacted by the present session of the Legislature commenced in this morn-ing's "Gazette." The issue contains three Acts.

MR. W. W. Hall is very proud of the sidewalk in front of Messrs. E. O.
Hall & Son's place of business, and well he might be, for it is a fine piece of work.

H. BELL, J. D. Paris, W. H. Daniels,
J. Richardson and son, and F. J.
Tellicke are booked to leave by the steamer W. G. Hall to-morrow morning. The last named person goes to the Volcano.

THE sale of real estate at auction by Mr. Lewis J. Levey yesterday, amounted to $2,375. Mr. E. S.
Cunha bought the Maunakea street lot for $1,500, and Justice Bickerton the Hotel street lot for $875.

AN excellent picture of Miss Bertha von Holt, a large pastel of Mr.
Robert More's mother, a fine painting of mountain apples by M. Gillin and a cluster of Autumn leaves by Mrs.
S. B. Dole, can be seen at King Bros'.

THE assortment of Christmas goods at King Bros' art store, Hotel street, is one of the best ever brought to this city, and speaks well for Mr. W.
King, who selected the goods while in the States. The store is hand-somerly arranged, and in viewing the place novelties are seen at every turn.

A GERMAN, who has been carrying on a house of ill fame, behind the blind of a soda water stand on King street, was sent onto the reef, for one month, by Judge Dayton, this morning. One of the female inmates of the den was fined $20 and another let go.

TRIAL TRIP OF THE KAALA.

The new steamer Kaala, with a number of ladies and gentlemen on board, made her initiatory trip in Hawaiian waters yesterday afternoon. She was at the spar buoy at 1:48 o'clock, and proceeded thence until the wind mill at Puuloa was abeam, a distance of about 5 1/2 miles, in 32 minutes. From there she turned till Mr. G. W. Macfarlane's former residence was abeam, a distance of about 1 1/2 miles, in 57 minutes. From there she got back to the spar buoy again, a distance of about 4 1/2 miles, in 27 minutes.
Thus the little steamer made a distance of about 21 1/2 miles in 1 hour and 56 minutes. The trial was highly satisfactory, both as regards speed and the steamer's behavior among the waves.

EXTREMELY GRATEFUL.
Mr. Edward Olsen, one of the survivors of the Gen. Seigle, who came by the bark Lillian, is extremely grateful to Chas. N. Spencer, Esq., for the generous and kindhearted way in which that gentleman gave the destitute sailor a suit of clothes, some food and money. This sailor has a wife and two children.
He had three children, but one died while he was away. He will gladly take any kind of honest work.

AN INCIDENT.
An incident that occurred to one of the Seigle's crew, while on one of the Marshal Islands, is told by the sailor Olsen as follows: The King's brother, having surveyed the sailor from head to foot, ordered him to divest himself of his garments, (plain but substantial) and exchange them for those he (the King's brother) had on, (a miserable threadbare pair of trousers.) "Did you not protest?" Olsen was asked by the scribe, to whom he was relating the incident. Oh, no, I had no right to, replied the sailor, they were not my clothes, they belonged to a dead man.

ST. LOUIS CONCERT.
The ladies of the Catholic Altar Society and all concerned have cause for gratification at the success of the concert last Saturday night, at St. Louis College hall.
The public liberally patronized the occasion, and were richly compensated for their attendance, by the musical feast provided. The pupils of the school and the ladies and gentlemen who gave their assistance acquitted themselves admirably. A pleasing feature of the concert was the very short time lost between the pieces. The proceeds amounted to $380. Those who were present would like more similar concerts, in the same place, and with the same participants.

THE PROPOSED BARGE RACE.
The Vandala people are trying to back out of the 14-oared barge race.
Three letters sent out to the ship by the shore party have not been answered. First the Vandala wanted the same crews to row. That was agreed to. Then they wanted to pick men from the three ships.
Agreed. Then to declare the race off, if one of the ships should leave.
Not agreed to. Mr. Hay Wodehouse, on behalf of the shore crew, went out to the U. S. S. Vandala this noon to bring the matter to a close, if possible, and to set a date for the race. Mr. Wodehouse did not succeed in making any definite arrangement, but was given to understand that the proposed race has not been knocked on the head.

MISS LEVEQUE'S ART GALLERY.
Miss Leveque, a member of the San Francisco Art School, is a recent arrival here. She is located at No. 2 Adam's Lane, where she receives pupils and gives lessons in painting and sketching. Miss Leveque's parlor is a perfect little art gallery. The walls are covered with crayon pictures, water-color pictures, pastel work, and oil paintings. The objects represented embrace a great variety. These works of art are the production of Miss Leveque's skill, and are all for sale.
From them may be selected very appropriate Christmas and New Year's presents. There are also some very pretty specimens of satin work. The little art gallery will be open for inspection, and its contents on sale every day from now till Christmas.

THE P. N. CO.'S DIFFICULTY.
The meeting of the creditors of the Pacific Navigation Co. at the Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon, lasted about an hour.
The liabilities of the P. N. Co. are estimated at about $101,000, the assets $142,000. The creditors appointed Mr. F. Turrill receiver, and Messrs. J. T. Waterhouse, Jr., F.
J. Lowry and S. M. Damon a committee of investigation. Valuations by experts are being made of the vessels, viz.: Bk Lillian, (partly owned by the Co.), brig Hazard, steamer Surprise, schooners Ke Au Hou, Waioli, Waiete, Waietu, Ehu-kai (at South Sea Islands,) and launch Montague, also on the Jaluit station, Kuaa landing, debts owing to the company and the business.
When complete a clean exhibit will be made.

The Hawaiian Legislature.

28TH DAY.—WEDNESDAY, Dec. 7th.
AFTERNOON SESSION.—CONTINUED.
The House reassembled at 1 p. m.
Mr. Paehole offered a resolution that the Minister of Interior furnish each member of the Assembly with a free copy of the session laws of 1887, after they are printed and bound. Carried.
The House went into Committee of the Whole, Mr. Waterhouse in the chair, to further consider the Chinese Immigration bill.
The report of the committee on the subdivisions of section 5 was read.

EGAN & CO.
Gents' Furnishing Goods
Finest Custom Made Clothing, Ladies' & Gent's Fine Shoes.

The subdivisions recommended by the committee with slight amendments were adopted.
The committee rose and the chairman reported, recommending that the House pass the bill as amended.
The report of the committee was adopted, and the bill passed to en-grossment, to be read a third time on Friday.
Third reading of the bill to provide a pension for John O. Dominis.
The ayes and noes were called on the motion to pass the bill, with the following result: ayes 25, noes 19.
Third reading of a bill granting S. G. Wilder and his associates the right to establish and maintain a system of water works in the town of Hilo, Hawaii.
Minister Thurston offered an amendment to section 7.
Mr. Baldwin also offered an amendment to the same section which carried.
Mr. Townsend moved that the bill be referred back to the committee, as the amendment was somewhat vague.
The House then adjourned until 10 a. m. Thursday.

29TH DAY.—THURSDAY, Dec. 8th.

MORNING SESSION.

The House opened at 10 a. m.
President S. G. Wilder in the chair.
The House resumed the consideration of the Hilo Water Works bill.
On motion section 7 of the bill was reconsidered.
Mr. Kinney moved an amendment to section 7, defining the first cost of the plant, construction, &c. &c., and requiring the company to file with the Minister of Interior yearly, a statement of what they claim as the first cost.
Minister Ashford moved an amendment as a substitute for section 7, providing for a board of arbitrators to determine the value of the works, should the Government want to purchase.
Mr. Kinney's amendment was carried.

Mr. Wilder stated that he brought his bill before the House with honest intentions, and without a doubt that he would be granted a franchise.
The bill was given to a committee, of which the Minister of Interior was chairman. The bill came back to the House with unjust restrictions. I said nothing about that.
It was then amended and amended until I don't know my own bill. The restrictions are such that I cannot accept the franchise, and I hope some of my friends will move for an indefinite postponement of this bill.
My intentions were honest, and I thought if I lost money on it I might gain in making any way, but as the House have put such restrictions on the bill, I shall have to abandon the enterprise.
On motion, further consideration of this bill was postponed until to-morrow.

Minister Brown answered the questions propounded by Mr. W. H.
Daniels, in regard to the privilege of the United States at Pearl River, to the effect that it is co-terminous with the treaty.
Recess until 1 p. m.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The House resumed at 1:10 p. m.
The House went into Committee of the Whole to discuss the military bills, Mr. Smith in the chair.
The bills introduced by the majority and minority of the committee were first taken up for consideration.
Both reports were considered together section by section. The first section was then read.
Mr. Kinney thought that under the existing circumstances, the control of the military should be taken from the Minister of Foreign Affairs, and placed in the hands of the Minister of Interior.
Discussion on these sections is still going on as we go to press.

NOTICE.

ALL persons are forbidden to trespass on my land or to remove anything therefrom. The land is situated in Hialewa, North Kohala, and was purchased by me from Kemahua, and no one has any authority to sell said land without my consent. Any one found trespassing on my premises or about them after that hour, who have no business there, will be dealt with according to law.

A. AKANA,
Kalihiwai, Kauai.

NOTICE.

I HAVE been in business at Kalihiwai for many years, and I have had no trouble until now. Too many persons come to my place, and I do not know which of them are bad and which are good. Some come to my house to sleep and steal. Now after 8 o'clock at night I will let no person come in my yard. If some one wants business with me, let him call from without my premises. If he is all right I will let him come in, but if I do not know him I will have him arrested.

LAI SANG
November 21, 1887. 87

IN THE SUPREME COURT

of the Hawaiian Islands. In the matter of CHUN HOY, against whom a Petition for adjudication was filed on the 18th day of November, 1887, in said court. In Bankruptcy, before Mr. Justice Bickerton.

The 23rd day of November, 1887. Upon reading the said petition, and upon proof before me taken, I do find that the said CHUN HOY has become a bankrupt within the true intent and meaning of the Act approved on the 23rd day of August, 1884, entitled "An Act to regulate proceedings in Bankruptcy in the Hawaiian Islands."

And I do hereby declare and adjudge him bankrupt accordingly.

And I do further order that the creditors of the said bankrupt come in and prove their debts before such Justice of the Supreme Court as shall be sitting in Chambers at Aliiolani Hale, Honolulu, on MONDAY, the 5th day of December, 1887, between the hours of ten o'clock in the forenoon and noon of the said day, and elect one or more assignee or assignees of the said bankrupt's estate.

And that notice thereof be published in the "DAILY BULLETIN" & HAWAIIAN CHINESE NEWS" newspaper, published in Honolulu, in the English and Chinese languages.

And that the said bankrupt shall immediately file with the Clerk of this Honorable Court a schedule of his creditors and assets, as required by the said Act.

R. F. BICKERTON,
Justice of the Supreme Court.

Attest: J. H. HENST,
Second Deputy Clerk. 1800 7t

The above hearing is postponed until Thursday, Dec. 8th. 06
