

ASHFORD TO THE RESCUE

LEAPS LIKE CURTIUS INTO MUNICIPAL CHASM

WOULD SAVE TERRITORY FROM EVILS OF AMATEUR MUNICIPAL LEGISLATION—OFFERS HIS EXPERIENCE TO VOTERS ON OAHU

Clarence W. Ashford has announced himself as a candidate for senator from the island of Oahu.

Mr. Ashford might perhaps claim to be the candidate of the "good government party," announcing, as he does, that if elected, he will endeavor "to promote honest government, by honest officials."

Mr. Ashford was made a citizen of the United States a few days ago, and he counts that he has never lost his residence in Hawaii since he first came here quite a number of years ago, notwithstanding an absence of some years which was ended a few months ago.

Mr. Ashford as the representative of the good government party, does not propose to go scouring the federal press for issues. "I do not consider that Governor Dole is an issue in this election," he said this morning.

Mr. Ashford as the representative of the good government party, does not propose to go scouring the federal press for issues. "I do not consider that Governor Dole is an issue in this election," he said this morning.

But the good government party candidate finds bigger issues to call forth his efforts than Mr. Dole.

"If the only issue in this campaign were Governor Dole, I should not bother myself very much about it," says Mr. Ashford.

But there are bigger issues. All the parties are committed to municipal government, and I suppose we cannot assume that any of them will break faith.

ed and such a bill is presented, I shall examine it, and if it is a good bill, I shall support it.

Mr. Ashford does not say that his candidacy is a case of the office seeking the man. But if offices do seek men these days, it may be just as well to announce beforehand, where the men can be found.

REPUBLICAN VICTORY PREDICTED ON KAUAI

HANALEI HOME RULE LEADERS AFTER DELIBERATION FOLLOWING KUBIO'S CAMPAIGN SPEECHES, ABJURE WILCOX.

A landslide to the Republicans is predicted on Kauai. The following letter has just been received from W. H. Rice Jr. and John D. Willard by the Republican Central Committee, dated October 14, 1902:

"We have had news today from Hanalei that as a result of the Republican campaign of Prince Kubio and his party there, and of other good work done in that District, prominent Home Rulers held a meeting at Hanalei last night, at which they disavowed further affiliation with the Home Rule party, and came out strongly for the Republican cause.

"It looks as though Kauai was going to be a landslide for our whole ticket. We have also heard that Home Rule campaigners here, hearing this news from Hanalei, cancelled all other engagements, and are hastening to Hanalei, to do what they can to save their party in that district.

WANTS A MATE.

Captain Spicer of the ship Florence is waiting for a mate. He has been unable to secure a man to replace the one who was injured last week. As soon as a mate can be secured the vessel will sail for Port Townsend.

REVENUE CUTTER NEEDED.

An additional reason it is claimed, for the presence of a revenue cutter at this port is the fact that the Japanese fishing sampans in order to discover whether the Japanese are fishing outside the three mile limit, as outside this limit duty can be collected on the fish as was recently authorized.

WILL BUILD MORE TANKS.

It is planned by the Union Oil Company to erect four more oil storage tanks. The material for the construction of such tanks is expected from the coast within a few months. According to present plans, one of the new tanks will be constructed at Pearl Harbor. The site has not been selected as yet. The idea of having a tank in that section is to enable oil to be taken to the various oil burning plantations at smaller cost than would be incurred by having to transport the material from Honolulu. It is intended to have the oil-carrying vessels enter Pearl Harbor and discharge at this tank. Three others will probably be erected in Honolulu. The new tanks will have a capacity of 35,000 barrels each. Four vessels will be engaged regularly in the business of oil carrying to these islands. The barkentine Pullerton is now en route to Kahului with a second load of oil.

TROUBLE FOR HARRIMAN.

May Lose Control of The Union Pacific Railroad.

NEW YORK, October 5.—A special to the Commercial from Omaha says: Much dissatisfaction exists here in regard to Harriman's management of the Union Pacific. High Union Pacific officials here believe George J. Gould may obtain control of the road at the annual meeting of the stockholders on October 14th in which case General Manager Dickinson would be retained and the non-union policy regarding the shop men changed.

"If General Manager Dickinson has resigned from the Union Pacific the primary reason is not to accept a better position, because he is not in accord with the Harriman policy of forcing piece work on the shop men of the system," said a prominent Union Pacific official today.

Assistant General Foreman Bonivier and Foreman Hollan yesterday resigned from the shops, saying they could not be responsible for the work done with the present non-union men, and further, they do not approve of the Harriman policy. The general foreman of the shops in Evanston, Wyo., also resigned for the same reasons.

FAVORABLE BALANCE.

Special Agent Cooper on Public Works Department.

Secretary Cooper has been going over the books and contracts of the Department of Public Works, with a view to finding out the outstanding obligations of the department. A long statement has been prepared, showing the contracts standing and the amounts to be paid out of the various appropriations.

The result shows a favorable balance says the acting Superintendent of Public Works. The amounts to be paid out, as compared with the sum to be received by the Treasurer, indicate that the government will get along all right. "I now know exactly where we stand," said Cooper. As treasurer he has one balance and as superintendent of public works another, and the two departments are in a position to work together very harmoniously.

Short Breath

from going up stairs, walking, sweeping, slinging or talking comes from a weak heart. So does fluttering or palpitation of the heart, fainting spells, choking sensation in the throat, smothering or sinking spells and irregular or intermittent pulse. The circulation becomes sluggish, and head, throat, lungs, stomach and digestive organs are burdened with congested blood vessels.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure

Increases the heart's action, accelerates the flow of blood, clears out the clogged up passages and puts new life into the whole body.

"Three years ago typhoid fever left my heart in a very serious condition. I could not walk a block without stopping to get my breath; the least exertion about the house would cause palpitation and fluttering, and I was so nervous that I did not know what to do with myself. Seeing an advertisement of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure I made up my mind to give it a trial. The first bottle helped me wonderfully, and when I had taken two more bottles my heart trouble was all gone."

LODGE TALKS OF STRIKE AND TRUSTS

OPPOSES PROPOSITION TO STRIKE AT COMBINES THROUGH THE TARIFF WAY TO STOP STRIKES.

BOSTON, October 5.—Senator Henry Cabot Lodge took the opportunity, at the meeting of the Essex Club yesterday, held to ratify the recent State nominations, to make a notable speech dealing with the coal situation and also with tariff revision. He expressed earnest sympathy with and emphatic support for the President in his efforts to end the strike, and confidence that the party would be with him in whatever steps he might take. Continuing, he said: "With the matter in the position it now is, I do not wish to say what I think at this instant of the merits of the case as presented to the country this morning after the conference in Washington. I feel rather strongly in regard to the attitude taken by some of the conferees, but I do not think it is the part of wisdom, while the matter is still pending, to inflame feeling or aggravate the situation, which is bad enough; but there is one thing which I think we all can say, and that is that the President of the United States has acted in a manner which all Americans, without regard to party, will approve. The President will not let the matter rest where it is. "Aside from any economic question, the coal companies of Pennsylvania do not to-day stand in a position where they can ask for protection, even if they needed it. I think it is a painful illustration of the wisdom of what the President has been saying in various speeches in New England and elsewhere in regard to the necessity of some supervising regulation for what are commonly called trusts.

"There is no trust in the anthracite region. There are certain large corporations which it is the fashion to call trusts and there are certain large corporations in the anthracite coal fields and this strike shows the necessity of some kind of supervision and regulation of these great corporations which produce the necessities of life by the National government. These great corporations are useful in business. They are necessary to us in the economic contests of the present time. They are as essential to modern business as anything can possibly be. They are good servants, but they are dangerous masters.

"There must be some power that can control them in the last resort. There is a cry to take the duty off coal—the little duty there is, 67 cents a ton. I should like to see Congress pass a law authorizing the President to proclaim the removal of the duty on bituminous coal coming from Canada just as soon as Canada takes off the duty from our coal going to Canada."

"Speaking of tariff revision, he said: "The removal of the tariff on trust-made goods would be the most destructive to the competitors of the trusts and least so to the trusts themselves. We need authority to supervise these trusts. The greatest safeguard in this country is publicly. If there had been power in the hands of the President to send a commission to the coal regions and hear all that is to be said on both sides, and that nothing could be done until that was given to the public, there would be no strike or lockout. This would stop nearly all the strikes and lockouts. We should have a proper accounting from these corporations that have an air of mystery about them. To go about it by reducing the tariff is a silly proposition."

TYPICAL SOUTH AFRICAN STORE. O. R. Larson, of Bay Ville, Sundays River, Cape Colony, conducts a store typical of South Africa, at which can be purchased anything from the proverbial "needle to an anchor." This store is situated in a valley nine miles from the nearest railway station and about twenty-five miles from the nearest town. Mr. Larson says: "I am favored with the custom of farmers with a radius of thirty miles, to many of whom I have supplied Chamberlain's remedies. All testify to their value in a household where a doctor's advice is almost out of the question. Within one mile of my store the population is perhaps sixty. Of these within the past twelve months, no less than fourteen have been absolutely cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This must surely be a record." For sale by all druggists. WESTERN EXPANDED METAL & FIRE ROOFING COMPANY. San Francisco, Sept. 25th, 1902. To the Hawaiian Electric Co., Ltd., Honolulu, T. H. Gentlemen:—We have almost completed our contract for fire-proofing the Young Building in Honolulu, Hawaii, on which building we have used Westinghouse motors, furnished and erected by you for all of our hoisting purposes, also for machinery for mixing concrete and the same have given perfect satisfaction in every respect. In fact, we find that the electric power and appliances have been much cheaper for us than either steam or gasoline. This is proven to us by the fact that we have used both steam and gasoline on different buildings on the Coast and other places, with greater cost for doing the same class of work. We have used your motors for over seven months and were only delayed once for about twenty minutes, which delay was caused by lightning entering your station and shutting down all machinery. We deem it a great pleasure to recommend your electric power and apparatus to any one doing similar work and believe that it would give satisfaction in any other class of work where either steam or gasoline power could be used. Thanking you for the courteous treatment we have received from you during all our business transactions, we remain, yours very truly, WESTERN EXPANDED METAL & FIREPROOFING CO., C. W. IRISH, Supt.

PROGRESS.

Nothing has been more satisfactory during the present campaign than the steady growth of Prince Kuhio in the estimation of the voters and of the general public. His work during the campaign has thoroughly justified those who made choice of him as a leader.

When Prince Kuhio was chosen as the standard bearer of the Republican party at the outset of the campaign, there was considerable doubt in the minds of certain sections of voters as to the wisdom of the selection, and there was prejudice in others.

To this there were several answers. He was an untried man it is true, but all men are untried till they get a chance. He had not taken a prominent part in public affairs, but he had taken enough part to show that he was patriotic, that he had the true good of his people at heart, and that he was unprejudiced.

If Kuhio had not had much experience, he certainly prepared himself by travel and mingling with all classes of men to meet his destiny.

FAMINE IN KOREA.

The people of Korea seem to be in a bad way. The crops have failed and a large part of the population is in a starving condition. A report from Elmer Hardin, a Methodist missionary, gives the most harrowing and pitiful details of this famine.

"Mr. Cable attributes the cause of the famine to a complete failure of the crops, and states that the natives of some of the towns and cities are almost panic-stricken, and are fleeing, without money or food, expecting to be aided by friends, only to fall and starve by the wayside.

The distribution of even $140,000 will be satisfactory and ease up matters somewhat. There will have to be some hard work done in the auditing department to get the warrants ready so that the money can get into circulation.

Republicans can spoil the Egyptians in the way of hats. Neither Democrat nor Home Rule Senators will be in it on the Island of Oahu.

One of the first fruits of the Atlantic steamer combine is the raising of the lower class of rates. Second cabin fare has gone up from $40 to $45 on ordinary steamers and to $47.00 on quick steamers.

The Auditors' Department is being wakened up, and G. W. B. King has been detailed to expect the official books of the Island of Kauai.

Artist Wores paid a neat compliment to the Hawaiian when he said they were too civilized. He came down expecting to find Hawaiian life patterned upon the lines of the Hawaiian Village of several mid-ways.

SUPREME COURT DECISION.
Defective Appeal Ordered Stricken from the Calendar.

The Supreme Court's first decision this term is in the case of Makalo vs. Adamu and Albert Horner, a foreclosure suit, in which the appeal is thrown out of court on account of a defective notice of appeal from the lower court. The case was appealed from an order of Judge Robinson, dismissing the bill of foreclosure, but the three justices concur in the opinion that the appeal was not properly taken hence Makalo loses his chance to foreclose.

In the opinion of the court by Justice Perry, it is set forth that the decree of Judge Robinson was filed on May 9, and on May 14 a paper was filed in which the plaintiff declared that he "hereby gives notice of his intention to appeal the cause from the decree of the Honorable Judge Robinson, dated the 8th day of May, 1902." On the following day, one day after the limit for appealing, an appeal was duly filed, but the court refuses to consider it. "It is not sufficient to notify the opponents that the party will appeal or intends to appeal," says the decision. "A notice of intention to appeal is not a notice of appeal." The appeal is ordered stricken from the calendar.

JUDGE ESTEE NOT SCARED AT THREAT

TRANSITION CASE BOBS UP FOR A FEW MOMENTS IN FEDERAL COURT THIS MORNING.

The case of Ozaki Mankichi is again before the Federal Court, or was for a few minutes this morning, until Judge Estee refused to listen to argument until the matter was regularly brought up. The Mankichi case is the Hawaiian "transition" case, pending in the Supreme Court of the United States, where its settlement will dispose of a number of murder cases, and other important cases in Hawaii. News has been received from Washington that the case has gone over to December, and George A. Davis appeared in court this morning to renew the fight for bail, which has been lost so far in all the courts.

Davis threatened to put the habeas corpus bill in action again, but the threat didn't seem to scare Estee. "I have two ways to proceed," said the lawyer. "I could bring in another habeas corpus before your honor or a motion to admit to bail. Another way is going by at Washington and nothing is being done. I don't want to make any insinuations against counsel for the Territory, but no one has gone to Washington, though the court is ready to hear the case. I might bring a habeas corpus."

"The court can't dispose of it now," interrupted Estee. "There's no petition on anything before the court." "I know, but there might be some intimation," began the attorney, but the court said there could be no ruling till the matter was legally brought up. "When you bring it properly before the court I will rule on it," said the judge, and the lawyer left to decide which of his "two courses" he would take.

Ozaki, with a lot of Kahuku murderers, was over a year ago held by Judge Estee and Gear to have been convicted by nine jurors, and without a grand jury, during the transition period, but they all remain in jail, in spite of successful petitions for writs of habeas corpus. Most of them are life termers or twenty-year men.

THREW PIPE AT WIFE.
Another Tale of Domestic Woe in the Courts.

Mrs. Harriet Moon Smith this afternoon brought suit for divorce from Edward M. Smith, making a number of accusations of unusual cruelty. She avers that she was married to Smith in New Mexico, in June, 1898, but has lived in Honolulu for over two years. Smith is declared to have abused her and neglected her most of the time, and Mrs. Smith says that the sum of $19.50 is all that she has obtained from her husband for clothes during the four years of their married life.

Last February, according to the complaint, Smith became enraged because his pipe wouldn't light, and he threw the offending pipe at his wife. It broke and a piece of it struck their two-year-old boy in the eye. Then, it is declared, Smith maliciously put some tobacco in the stove, so that it made the plaintiff ill. He is also said to have used abusive language to her, and to have made many threats and false charges. The plaintiff's attorneys are Fitch and Highton.

JACKSON'S ANSWER.
Nigel Jackson has filed an answer to his wife's complaint for divorce, in which he denies most of the charges of cruelty she brought against him, and says that her conduct has been such as to cause him so much suffering that he has many times threatened to end his life. He admits that he struck her last February, but says that it was in the heat of passion when he found her in company with two United States soldiers, against whose company he had warned her. It was not a hard blow, says Jackson, and he afterwards expressed his sorrow and was forgiven by his wife. The defendant finally charges that his wife was influenced against him by one, J. B. Watson, and by her mother, who lives in the same house with them, and that the charges in the complaint are the result of a conspiracy to separate him from his wife. Lorrin Andrews is Jackson's attorney.

GOATS BOTHERED HIM.
J. H. Black believes in keeping the sheep and the goats separate according to Biblical precept. In fact he carries it to the extent of demanding that the goats be kept out of his back yard. Dr. Spinola failed to keep his goats out of Black's yard yesterday so Black swore to a warrant today charging the doctor with malicious injury. The goats were alleged to have destroyed some plants.

MIKAHALA ARRIVES TODAY.
The steamer Mikahala arrived this morning from her Kauai run. She brought down a good sized number of passengers. She has an unusually large amount of freight. She brought 1900 bags of K. S. M. sugar for H. Hackfeld and Company and 1900 bags of Diamond Sugar to Castle and Cooke. She had 150 bags of rice, besides other general stuff.

DAMAGE TO RICE.
Yesterday's wind and rain are said to have done a great deal of damage to the ripening rice in the rice fields of Pawa and Palolo Valleys. The wind blew the rice down while the rain flooding the fields washed the heads of rice into the mud.

THINK RUSSIAN IS OFF.
Merinoski a Russian who came here recently, was arrested yesterday to answer to the charge of vagrancy. He was before Judge Wilcox this morning. The authorities were of the opinion that the Russian was slightly demented so had the vagrancy proceedings continued in order that a physician could inquire into the sanity of the prisoner.

"What is this leathery stuff?" the diner asked, when the second course of the dinner was served. "That is a fillet of sole, sir," replied the waiter. TWELVE-FIFTY FOR A SAILOR'S SUIT SHOCKED KING EDWARD'S REPRESENTATIVE.

His Britannic Majesty's consul, W. R. Hoare, was a defendant this morning in the United States District court, in a suit brought against him by Rosenberg and Company, for clothing furnished to the crew of the lost bark Fannie Kerr. When the sailors landed on Hawaiian soil, they were without belongings, having lost practically all they had when they deserted the ill-fated bark just before her decks blew up, 800 miles from Kauai. The British consul, carrying out the policy of his government, decided to see that the men were supplied with clothes at the expense of King Edward's "administration," but according to some of the testimony produced before Judge Estee the men didn't get the kind of clothing John Bull is willing to pay for, for sailors.

"The order was to give the men cheap suits," said Judge Stanley attorney for the consul, "and not suits to go round sparking in." It appeared that the 26 men from the Fannie Kerr had gone to Rosenberg's with Captain Bray, carrying the consul's order for outfits, and had refused to take ordinary sailor clothing. Rosenberg showed them some suits worth $2 or so, but the shipwrecked men wanted better things. Some of them, who were officers and supposed to dress better than 'kaise hands, went as high as $12.50 for suits and Rosenberg produced in court duplicates of the shiny black suits they got. They were only good for sailors in "spark" in declared Stanley, and the British government didn't provide sparking uniforms for sailors who were shipwrecked.

There were hats costing as high as $3 each, instead of sailor's caps at two per quart, and underwear, politely described to the court as nether garments, were recklessly purchased at $2 a suit. The sailor's socks at fifty cents a pair were natural.

The bill for the 26 sailors' outfits was $370, and the cuts which it was claimed that the court should make amounted to $103. Consul Hoare took the stand and testified that he had given an order for the clothing to be supplied, but had directed that all the men be treated alike and that they be given the cheapest clothing. When he found a bill for Sunday suits and discovered that the mates and secured different outfits from the men, he refused to pay the bill. If it went to the imperial government, it might be sent back, and he preferred to settle the dispute here.

E. A. McInerney and C. Girdler were called as experts on the value of the suits of clothes introduced in evidence but the value for the money was not so much disputed as the right to sell such good stuff under the consul's order. McInerney thought the suits too good for sailor outfits.

Rosenberg claimed that Captain Bray acted as the agent of the consul, had joined in the purchases, and that the consul was therefore responsible. He had given the men what they demanded. The case was argued at length by E. S. Gill for Rosenberg and Stanley for the consul, and costs of the various articles being much discussed, and Judge Estee took the matter under advisement. The costs of the action will be more than the amount involved in a decision of the dispute.

WAS HIS OWN LAWYER.
Waiulia was before Judge Wilcox this morning to answer to a charge of assault and battery on Uluani, a woman. The pair had adjacent property and quarreled about a fence. One of them began to tear down the fence and a row ensued during the course of which Waiulia was alleged to have caught hold of the woman. Waiulia acted as his own attorney. He moved that all witnesses be excluded and cross examined the various witnesses with much legal ability. He secured his discharge.

TO PROMOTE USE OF COFFEE.
NEW YORK, October 6.—A congress of official representative of a number of South American states, with delegates from exchanges in this country, will take place at the New York coffee exchange tomorrow. The purpose is to discuss the problem of adjusting in some way the production of coffee to the consumption. C. B. Stroud, superintendent of the coffee exchange, said tonight that the production had increased within a very short time from 5,000,000 bags to 12,500,000 bags. The problem of the congress will probably take the form of finding out what is the best way to increase the consumption of coffee.

THE GEOMETRY OF THE ISLANDS

DR. WHITMAN CROSS OF THE UNITED STATES COAST AND GEODETIC SURVEY IS HERE.

Dr. Whitman Cross for many years connected with the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey left yesterday for Hawaii to study the geology of that island.

Dr. Cross has been for twenty-five years a student of the geology of Colorado and is recognized as an authority on that subject. He came here a month or so ago partly on vacation to visit his brother-in-law A. C. Lovelock, and partly to make preliminary studies of the geology of these islands for the Coast and Geodetic Survey. Prof. Alexander, the local representative of the Survey has been trying to get the Bureau to take up the geological examination and survey of these islands. The surveys made by the local government have been primarily for the determination of land boundaries, and such as have been made at sea have been primarily for aids to navigation. A survey by the Coast and Geodetic Survey would include all this, and besides surveys for topography, and the compilation of a topographical map of the islands.

The cost of such a survey has been included in the estimates of the Bureau but so far no appropriation has been secured.

The visit of Dr. Cross is hoped may arouse further interest in the matter and result in the work being done.

Dr. Cross will visit Puna and make examination of the hot springs there, the green lake, and the remarkable lava formations and other wonders of that region. He has just returned from Kauai where he made an extended study of the geology of that island as his time would permit.

ANOTHER DIVORCE SUIT.
Mrs. Ida Dean has brought suit for divorce from C. E. Dean, charging neglect and failure to provide. She avers that their marriage took place in August, 1901, and that in the following May she went to visit her father on Kauai, with her husband's consent. After that he refused to provide for her and deserted her, though able to support her. Dean is alleged to be making $64 a month as Rapid Transit conductor, and the wife asks that she be given a divorce with alimony.

A BAD FALL.
F. J. Wallace foreman for F. J. Williams on the new Isenberg house at Punahou, fell through an open space in the floor where the stairway is to be this morning and broke and dislocated his right ankle and sprained his left ankle. His injuries are quite severe. He was taken to the Queen's Hospital for treatment.

There is this peculiar thing about our Hair Vigor: it's a hair-food, not a dye.

It doesn't turn your hair suddenly black and make it look dead and lifeless. But gradually the old color comes back, all the rich color it used to have. And it also stops falling of the hair.

Even if your hair isn't coming out, isn't turning gray, isn't too short, yet you certainly want a fine dressing for it, and here it is.

Ayer's Hair Vigor

It keeps the scalp clean and healthy, removes all dandruff, makes the hair grow rapidly, prevents it from falling out, and does not allow a single gray hair to appear.

Do not be deceived by cheap imitations which will only disappoint you. Make sure that you get the genuine Ayer's Hair Vigor.

LOST HIS LIFE WHILE AT WORK

HARRY PLATT OF THIS CITY VICTIM OF FATAL ACCIDENT AT OAKLAND—BODY NOT FOUND.

Harry Platt, a son of H. J. Platt, of this city, lost his life on the 2nd inst. while at work on board of the ship Pyrenees. The young fellow was knocked overboard and the body was not recovered when the ship left San Francisco. In speaking of the accident, the San Francisco Chronicle of the 6th inst. says: It was learned yesterday, from Thomas Estelle of 413 Stevenson street, that the young longshoreman who was knocked overboard by the flying capstan bars of the ship Pyrenees on Thursday, and whose body has not been recovered, was Harry Platt, formerly of Honolulu.

Estelle was one of the party of twenty-five men sent on board to weigh anchor and assist in getting the Pyrenees to her dock in Oakland, and was well acquainted with young Platt, whose family he had known on the islands. He says that the anchor chain was badly kinked and that the tug Sea Queen had made fast and was surging on the chain to clear it. The anchor had not broken ground and the men were not hoisting at the capstan, but were standing at ease, confident that the "compressor" had been put on the chain, taking the strain off the capstan. Some of them were sitting down, some standing around, but he was sure none of them were leaning against the bars. He was leaning over the rail watching the chain, when suddenly he heard a groan and the thumping of bars. He turned in time to see Platt and another man flying over the ship's rail, followed by a capstan bar. The air was full of capstan bars that had been hurled from the sockets, and until this shower of timber cleared away it was not safe to get within range. He could see Platt's companion drift toward the Sea Queen, and deckhands haul him out of the water, but could see nothing of his young friend. In his opinion they had both been standing at the rail abreast the capstan, and they were knocked overboard by a flying bar.

He feels sure that the compressor had not been applied to the chain or that it was defective, for forty fathoms of chain ran out before it could be checked by this piece of mechanism.

Platt was 22 years old and came to this city from Honolulu with his mother about three months ago. His father is chief engineer on one of the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company's boats.

BRITAIN TO KEEP SHIPS.

LONDON, October 4.—The British government made an agreement with J. Pierpont Morgan whereby the British line in the ocean combine are to remain under the British flag and fast vessels in time of war would be at the command of the admiralty. At the same time the Cunard line will remain and all-British concern and will receive $750,000 a year in government subsidies, thus making it a formidable rival of the Morgan combine. The government will lend the Cunard company money at 2 1/2 per cent interest to build two of the fastest ships afloat thus keeping Britain to the front in the Atlantic trade. The London newspapers regard the outcome as a triumph for British diplomacy.

WOULDN'T COOK FOR HIM

CHICAGO, October 6.—Here are some reasons why Attorney John C. Trainor 50 years old, wants a divorce from his wife, formerly Genevieve Gannon, 30 years old.

Because he is not good at dodging poeas, coal, spiders, etc.

Because she wouldn't stay home and take care of his five small children by a former wife.

Because she "mopped" and sulked in her own room.

Because she never did any housework never wore an apron.

LAYING PACIFIC CABLE.

Progress of The Land Part of The Work.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 6.—Good progress is being made by the San Francisco Cable Company with the laying of the subways for the Honolulu branch of the ocean cable to be laid from this city to China and the Philippines by way of Hawaii, and operated by the Commercial Pacific Cable Company. The conduits have been placed from 234 Market street to the corner of Geary and Jones streets, and at the other end of the route from Scott street to the corner of Geary and Powell streets, owing to the numerous pipes and electric conduits there situated. It is expected that this portion of the work will be completed by November 1st. The cable for the land section is in New York, but is due to arrive in a few weeks, while the ocean cable is on board of a large vessel, specially arranged for the laying of submarine telegraphs, and should reach San Francisco during next month.

FIRM WANTS MORE ROOM.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 6.—Williams, Dimond & Company agents for the American-Hawaiian Steamship Co., made application at yesterday's meeting of the Harbor Commission for the widening of Steuart-street wharf fifty feet, in order to provide for the business of the firm. On account of the recent addition to the fleet of the Nevada and Nebraskan the present wharf is becoming too small. The firm suggested as an alternative that it should be given the use of the Spear-street wharf, if the Oregon Railroad and Navigation Company's steamers were to be withdrawn. No action was taken.

RAILROAD NURSES.

The Northwestern railroad is to instruct its trainmen in medicine and surgery so that in cases of accidents they will be useful. Railway surgeons estimate that at least 50 to 75 per cent of the deaths which now result from injuries received in wrecks would not occur if the injured received skillful and intelligent aid at once. The theory has appeared to the officials of the Northwestern.

POWDER PUFF.

A mechanical powder puff is an invention which should bring joy to the heart of woman. Marie L. Gumaer of New York city is the patentee. The new device consists of a perforated face plate of any soft fabric, stretched on a frame and connected with the metallic disk at the rear of a hand of chamols leather, inside of which is a coiled spring normally serving to hold the disks apart. The handle screws into the base and is removed, when it is wished to fill the puff. When in use the perforated surface is pressed against the skin. The compression of the air inside and consequent discharge through the perforations drives out the powder which adheres to the surface against which the puff is placed. The base acts as a plunger to compress the air inside the receptacle and the spring returns the force-plate to its normal position as the pressure is removed.

USED WATER.

"No," remarked the boarding-house keeper, "I do not believe in eggs to settle the coffee." "Well," remarked the timid boarder, stirring his diluted drink carefully, "you seem to be successful. This was surely settled beyond recovery!" And the newcomer at the end of the table had the temerity to snicker.—Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune.

A CLEAN BOY.

"The boy who is always as clean as his mother wants him to be," remarked the large-waisted philosopher, "may turn out all right, but precedent is against him."—Indianapolis News.

What is the Parker Pen?

The Parker "Lucky Curve" is synonymous the world over for the best in Fountain Pen making.

The "LUCKY CURVE" not only feeds the ink perfectly to the point of the pen and in the exact quantity desired, but it drains the ink from the feed-channel back into the reservoir when the pen is carried in the pocket, so that the owner will not be annoyed by wiping off the end of the fountain when he next uses the pen; or, falling to do so, having inky fingers. The "Lucky Curve" feature is patented and is used exclusively in the Parker.

We guarantee every pen to give satisfaction and have a great variety in stock at prices from $1.00 upward.

MUSIC

The Wilceck concert at the Hawaiian Opera House last evening was well attended and thoroughly enjoyed. Franz Wilceck, in the four numbers in which he appeared, gave the greatest delight to his audience. The young Austrian is a handsome man, and possesses what so many violinists do not, a pleasing presence on the stage, a very graceful carriage and poise, and the ability to wear clothes as though they were his and not merely a part of his professional make-up—all of which may seem to have very little bearing on the quality or effect of his musical work, but "Sartor Resartus" could prove, that it has a great deal to do with it.

Wilceck's four numbers were a "Suite for Piano and Violin," two movements, by Goldmark; "Fantaisie Caprice," Viennese; "Paraphrase, prize song from 'Meistersinger,'" Wagner; and Spanish Dance "Zapatado," Sarasate. Mrs. L. Tenney Peck accompanied him on the piano, showing skill and judgment. In the Wagner Paraphrase Miss Carrie Castle showed her thoroughness of musical conception, in the organ accompaniment.

Sarasate's "Zapatado" was the selection chosen by Wilceck to exhibit the violin gymnastics, which all professional violinists, probably taught by experience, feel it necessary to include on their programs.

Mrs. George W. Macfarlane sang Meyerbeer's "Roberto, o tu che adoro," and later consented to sing "Comin' Thro' the Rye," in lieu of responding to the recall which the audience insistently gave her. Miss von Holt accompanied Mrs. Macfarlane. Hugo Herzer sang two selections that were admirably suited to the very melodious timbre of his voice. The audience showed their satisfaction by recalling him.

TELEPHONE DIRECTORY.

The Mutual Telephone Company has just issued a new telephone directory, dated October, 1902, the last one having been issued in March of this year. The general style of the directory is the same as previous issues. No more use seems to have been made of the street numbering system than in the previous issues, though it is clear that if full use were made of street numbering it would add greatly to the convenience and value of the publication.

POST SCHOOLS.

Post schools for lieutenants and captains who have served less than ten years as commissioned officers, will be established at all army posts, by direction of the Secretary of War. These post schools will take the place of the old lyciums. In the circular setting forth the purposes of the school Secretary Root says:

"It is not intended that officers shall be forever attending recitations. Under the old system of lyceum instruction there was no such thing as graduation, but under the new scheme, prepared under the direct supervision of the Secretary of War, officers will be able generally within two years to secure certificates in all the departments which they are required to pursue. It is assumed that all officers have an average education before entering the Army, and the idea which runs through the new system is that every officer holding a technical position should possess a thorough technical knowledge indispensable to military men. Every lieutenant will be required to establish his fitness not only in the theories of his ordinary duties, but also learn practically the duties of Adjutant, Quartermaster, Commissary and those of other staff bureaus. He will be required to show his mastery of all the details of company administration, which knowledge is of such great importance, since it involves the preparation of all the muster rolls, returns and other company papers, requisitions for rations, clothing and other supplies, supervision of the preparation and cooking of food for the men."

WANTS A DIVORCE.

Mrs. K. Beck wife of John D. Beck a mechanic, desires an absolute divorce from her husband. She also wishes such alimony as the court will bestow. She has filed a libel for divorce in which she alleges that Beck has been very cruel to her. He drove her from the house on several occasions, the complaint alleges and also threatened to shoot her with a pistol.

LABOR SITUATION IN SOUTH AFRICA

SCARCITY OF MEN RETARDS PROGRESS—SOLVING LABOR PROBLEM IN MINING REGION.

The fact that native labor is now harder to get than ever in South Africa is retarding the work of reopening the mining enterprises around Johannesburg. The scheme which the mine owners have on foot for surmounting the difficulty is interesting, for if it succeeds it will go far to solve the problem of unskilled labor in South Africa, which has long been a most perplexing question. The mining companies are building a large number of three-room cottages, and they hope to attract many thousands of unskilled workmen from England. They believe that workmen should be induced to emigrate by the prospect of $1.25 a day and free board and lodging from the time they arrive at the mines. They are suggesting that the government should provide free transportation to South Africa for those who would like to go and stay; they can give employment to 100,000 white men in the mines of the Rand.

The most vital question affecting South Africa will be solved to the complete satisfaction of all if the employment of white labor proves successful. The distinctive feature of South African life thus far is that all unskilled labor is done by the blacks. Along the coast where the climate is hot and humid it is not easy for white men to accustom themselves to hard manual labor under the blazing sun; but this is not the main reason why all the common outdoor work has been left to the natives. Slavery was not abolished till 1834, and in 200 years of its existence in South Africa all white men lost the habit of doing the ordinary work of the town, farm and ranch, and came to despise manual labor. The abolition of slavery was one of the great grievances of the Boers and one of the leading motives that led to the treks into the wilderness and the founding of the independent Boer republics. Up to this day no Boer or other white man in South Africa will perform any unskilled labor if he can get a black to do it for him. Indigo coolies have been brought into the country to do some of the common work, but there are only about 13,000 of them, and their numbers are too few to help solve the question, which is becoming more serious with the increase of work to be done and the growing unwillingness of the Kafirs to do it.

The great trouble is that the blacks of South Africa do not care to work after they have earned money enough to buy a wife or two to till their garden patch and support them at home. The Kafir prefers to be his own master, to acquire a little patch of land that he can call his own or to have a few cattle and turn them loose to graze on the free veldt. Only a great number can give up a real wage, and how serious this labor problem has become. Fancy a white population of about 800,000 depending entirely upon the blacks, who are seven times as numerous, to do the whole of the rough work, and the blacks, who have never given service that we should call really efficient, exhibiting a constantly growing tendency to refuse to work for the whites on any terms. The effect of this state of affairs becomes more and more paralyzing as the conditions are intensified.—London Times.

UNIQUE JAIL.

Graham county jail at Clifton Ariz., is unique. It comprises four large apartments hewn from the solid quartz rock of a hillside. The entrance is through a box like vestibule built of heavy masonry and equipped with three sets of steel gates. The floor of the rockbound jail is of cement and the prisoners are confined exclusively in the larger rooms. Some of the most desperate criminals on the Southwest border have been confined in the Clifton jail, and so solid and heavy are the barriers to escape that no one there has ever attempted a break for freedom. The notorious Black Jack was there for months. The walls of quartz about the jail is 15 feet thick. Clifton is one of the great copper mining camps in Arizona and has the reputation of being as depraved a community as yet exists on the frontier of civilization. In summer the mercury there frequently rises to 120 in the shade, and in the winter it never goes below 40 degrees.

LAIN OF OIL AS A FUEL FOR LOCOMOTIVES AND STEAMSHIPS—NO SOOT AND CINDERS.

For two or three years oil-burning steamers have been in operation along the Pacific coast, oil-burning locomotives have been used on roads not controlled by the coal owners, and in many factories in all parts of the land oil has been used instead of coal for heating. Now it is said that the Kensington of the Red Star line, operating between Antwerp and New York, is to be a coal steamer no longer, but will use oil as a fuel. This may be the beginning of a reform that will last so long as the oil supply continues, and, as new wells are opened from time to time in the south and west, and as the great fields of Asia have been but little exploited, that may be for many years.

Oil has advantages over coal. It is cheaper, as prices now average; there is almost no waste, the oil burning out entirely, and there being no loss in starting and putting out a fire, since a mere turn of a faucet and touch of a match starts the flames roaring under the boiler, while another turn of the cock puts them out in an instant; the passengers on trains and boats are not troubled with soot and cinders, and such trains and boats can be kept clean and in good condition; there is no accumulation of ashes and cinders to dump into rivers and harbors, to the gradual occlusion of channels; it is easier to use oil than coal, and cheaper, because oil requires no force of firemen working half naked and half baked in the darkness of a hold; oil guarantees economy of space on the ship that uses it, for coal is a bulky fuel; and, lastly, oil is produced without the employment of so many men who could interfere with the production, as they are interfering with the anthracite production by the strike.

In our cities something must be done to end the smoke nuisance. Not only is it a disfigurement and unpleasant to the smell, not only does it create expense by its soiling of clothes and house furnishings, but it causes bronchial irritation and eye disease. Thousands of people have soot thrown into their eyes by the elevated trains of this borough every day, and it is poured over the just and the unjust from the chimneys of power houses, factories and shops. The authorities have given up trying to enforce the law, and it is said that a number of the lawbreakers have found it so easy to evade the ordinance that they have openly told of their intention to keep on doing as they do now after the strike is over. In Washington coke is used to advantage, even a mixture of it with soft coal reducing the smoke materially, but no attempt has been made to buy coke in New York, so far as is known, though it is made by the million tons in Pennsylvania. The way out of our difficulties that best commends itself is not to burn coal in any form, but to use the cheap and crude rock oil of Texas and California as a fuel.—Brooklyn Eagle.

The steamer Hawaii returned last night from the run to winward Molokai ports. The weather was quite rough along the coast but not too rough to prevent the landing of freight. She will sail this afternoon at 5 o'clock on the Molokai, Maui and Lanai run of the Lohua which is laying up.

NEXT MAIL FROM COAST.

The next mail from San Francisco is expected via the freight steamship Nevada which is due here next Saturday. She may arrive on Friday however, as she has a good wind with her, and left San Francisco October 9. She will have two days' later news than that received by the Nippon Maru last Monday.

This is a cogent reason why The Star's advertising columns are so generally used and so widely read.
