MESSAGE IS HEARD

PRESIDENT RECOMMENDS APPROPRIATION TO TAKE OVER LIGHTHOUSES IN HAWAII, BUILD NEW LIGHTHOUSES AND REIMBURSE TERRITORY—GOVERNOR TO REMOVE HIS APPOINTEES.

Associated Press Cable to the Star.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 7.—The Senate adjourned at noon today and immediately reassembled in the new session of Congress. The message from the President was then read.

The message was of considerable length and entered into various matters of public and national import. The message dealt at considerable length with matters pertaining to the Territory of Hawaii.

The message recommended that an appropriation be made for the purpose of building lighthouses in the Territory of Hawaii and also for acquiring the existing lighthouses in the Territory. It was further recommended that this appropriation should be made adequate in order to reimburse the Territory for the maintenance of the lighthouses from the annexation of the Hawaiian Islands up to the time when the United States Government shall take control of the lighthouse system of the Hawaiian Islands.

It was strongly recommended by the message that the Organic Act of the Territory be amended so that the Governor of Hawaii should be empowered to either suspend or remove for cause, any of his appointees to any Territorial office or department, without having to consult the Hawaiian legislature which is now necessary under the present ruling of the Organic Act.

Passing to matters of international import, the message justified strongly the course of the Administration in the matter of the Panama revolution and the recognition of the new republic. The action of the Administration in signing a treaty with the new republic to enable the United States to construct the Panama Canal was entered into at length. Under existing conditions the Administration was fully justified, so the President's message held, in entering into the treaty with Panama and ignoring the former negotiations with the United States of Colombia.

The Postal frauds, land frauds and naturalization frauds were all discussed in the message, and severely denounced.

The labor situation and the stand that the President had taken in the matter of non-Union men being employed in the Government printing office was touched upon. The message summarized the policy of the Administration on the issue by holding in effect that "every man must be granted his liberty and the right to do as he likes with his property, so long as he does not infringe upon the rights of others."

By the terms of this agreement Russia relinquishes practically nothing of her present holding in that part of the Chinese Empire. According to the terms of the treaty, the influence of Russia continues paramount in Manchuria.

WHAT IS A COUGH?

A spasmodic effort to expel the mucus from the bronchial tubes. A cold causes a more abundant secretion of mucus, and when the lungs and bronchial tubes are inflamed, they are extremely sensitive to the irritation. Unless care is taken, the cold may result in pneumonia, which is swift and deadly. If the cold is a lingering one, the more leisurely but equally fatal consumption may set in. Do not neglect a cold or cough. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It always cures and cures quickly. Sold by all dealers. Benson Smith & Co., general agents.

Frenzied Japanese Committed Hari-Kari

A COOK AT PAIA PLANTATION SLASHES HIMSELF IN ABDOMEN AND TWISTED KNIFE MANY TIMES IN THE WOUND—JABS HIS THROAT AND BODY—HE WAS INSANE WHEN HE INFLECTED THE FATAL WOUND.

Embayashi, a Japanese living at Paia, Maui, committed hari-kari in a shocking manner a week ago last Friday. He was evidently insane at the time he inflicted the fatal wounds.

He and his wife had been employed cooking for a work gang on the plantation. The husband had been acting rather strangely in the morning of Friday. After he had aroused the men he went into the kitchen and there attempted his life. He took an ordinary kitchen knife and inflicted a terrible wound across his abdomen. The wound was five inches in length and penetrated deep into the abdomen. A number of arteries were cut and the intestines were severed and hacked in many places as the knife had been turned round and round by the frenzied man. In addition to the large wound which caused his death, he jabbed himself elsewhere about the stomach and also cut and jabbed his throat.

Friends put him into a wagon and took him to the plantation hospital. There were no signs of life when he was placed on the operating table. The coroner's jury decided that death had been due to the knife wound, inflicted with suicidal intent while the man was demented.

T. Kalaui, an old native man was found dead in a hut at Aeoeka, Maui, December 2. Death was due to coughing caused by asthma.

THE CONTEST STARTED

ELECTION CASE ATTRACTS A LARGE CROWD TO THE SUPREME COURT THIS MORNING—HAWAIIANS AND POLITICIANS GENERALLY SHOW MUCH INTEREST IN THE EFFORTS TO HAVE VOTES COUNTED.

A great crowd, composed mostly of natives, gathered in and about the Supreme Court this morning to watch the proceedings in the election contest case. All the seats in the court room were taken and the corridor was filled with people trying to hear and see what was going on, and showing great interest in the proceedings. The case was taken enough after it began, consisting of dry legal argument and the reading of the petition, demurrer and plea to the jurisdiction of the court.

Deputy Attorney General Peters and Rawlins appeared in behalf of a number of candidates and election officers. E. M. Watson appeared as counsel for Frank Harvey, in the event of counsel being necessary and Judge Whiting was present in the same capacity in behalf of C. P. Iaukea, assessor-elect, and Henry Hogan appeared for H. C. Birbe, Jr., election officer. T. McCants Stewart represented the contestants. Among those who were in court when the proceedings were opened were C. P. Iaukea, Senator Kalaupokalani, John Lucas, J. A. Gilman, A. Hoeking, S. E. Damon, S. K. Mahoe, D. Kalaupokalani, Jr. Later other politicians joined them. A. L. C. Atkinson, John Wise, S. Meheula, Jonah Kumalae and others were added to the audience. The Birbe demurrer was argued by Hogan and then the plea to the jurisdiction was urged by Peters, his argument lasting most of the morning. Peters claimed that there was no law under which such a contest as that filed in the case could be brought. The only provision in the County Act for a contest, said the attorney, was in section 454, and if the court decided that that section was already in effect the petition was still defective, for section 451 provides for the bringing of a contest by "any candidate," and not by electors as in the petition on file. The hearing was resumed at 1:30 this afternoon.

THE CASE AGAINST E. M. JONES

ATTORNEY GENERAL ANDREWS TELLS WHAT HE EXPECTS TO PROVE—COUNSEL OBJECT TO HIS EXPRESSING THE OPINION THAT THE CASE IS ONE OF COLD BLOODED MURDER.

The Jones murder trial was fairly started this morning before Judge Gear and a jury. The bullet which caused the death of Mrs. Parmenter was introduced in evidence and three witnesses were examined and cross-examined, before an adjournment was taken to 1:30 this afternoon, when the hearing was resumed. Attorney General Andrews opened the case with a statement of what he expected to prove, closing his statement with a remark that in his opinion the facts showed cold blooded murder.

PRESIDENT SENDS NAME OF A. L. C. ATKINSON TO SENATE TODAY FOR CONFIRMATION AS SECRETARY OF TERRITORY OF HAWAII—EXPECTED THAT ACTION WILL BE TAKEN THIS WEEK ON NOMINATION.

Associated Press Cable to the Star.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 7.—President Roosevelt today sent the nomination of A. L. C. Atkinson of Honolulu as Secretary of the Territory of Hawaii to the Senate for confirmation. This nomination was among others, made during the latter part of the extra session of Congress, but owing to the session practically closing Saturday, the Senate did not have time in which to pass upon Mr. Atkinson's name. It is thought the nomination will be considered this week.

SAILINGS OF ISLAND VESSELS.

The schooner Ka Mo'i is expected today or tomorrow morning from Kohalaia. In case she should not arrive the schooner Mo'i Wahine will be sent out in her place tomorrow afternoon for Kohalaia.

ROUGH WEATHER ABOUT MAUI.

Rough weather has been prevailing about Maui for some time past. A series of tidal waves swept into Kahului on Tuesday. Some of the waves were twenty feet in height. They started in the morning and kept running in at intervals of two hours. The wharf at Huelo was practically washed away on Sunday by heavy weather.

SHERMAN SAILED FOR COAST.

The transport Sherman sailed a few minutes after noon today for San Francisco. About an hour before she sailed, she blew her siren. The blast was the most awful, with that has ever been heard on the Water Front. It was a weird, ghastly sort of noise that would have been more appropriate at a funeral. The vessel will take eight days in which to make the trip. She will arrive next Tuesday, the same time that the Alameda sailing Wednesday, is due.

SAILED FOR STRANGE PORT.

The German bark Solide sailed this morning in ballast for Punta Arenas, Costa Rica. She will take a cargo of hard wood to the United Kingdom for orders. She is probably the first vessel to leave Honolulu for Costa Rica.

PIXLEY TELLS HIS STORY

COULD NOT IDENTIFY THE MAN WHO DID THE SHOOTING AT THE PARMENTER HOUSE AS THE DEFENDANT JONES—SAW JONES SOME HOURS BEFORE ON A CAR AND JONES WAS DRUNK.

Conductor Pixley took the stand this afternoon in the Jones murder case. He gave a clear story of the events of the night of the alleged murder, up to just before the shooting began, at which time he was on the run and not in a position to see much. Pixley was not able to say that the defendant was the man whom he saw about to shoot.

"I couldn't see him at that time so as to identify him," he said, in answer to a question from Attorney General Andrews. Pixley said he was seated on the curbstone with Mrs. Parmenter, waiting for the police, when the attack was made.

"I saw a man coming over the gate with a pistol in his hand, and I started to run," he said. "He grappled with Mrs. Parmenter like that," and the witness raised his arms to illustrate. "I heard Mrs. Jones screaming 'O Mamma, O Mamma' and I glanced back running along. Then I heard a shot and looked back again, and seen it was not near me. After that I heard another shot. I ran and stood on the corner and heard two more shots."

Pixley encountered a back and got into it and went down to King street. Here he met a police officer and he went back to the King residence, where Mrs. Parmenter had been taken, with the patrol wagon. "I saw Mrs. Parmenter lying down with her head

THE CROWDED STREET CARS.

The presence of the transport in port yesterday was a great day for the street car companies. The Pacific Heights line augmented its service making trips up the heights every twenty minutes, instead of each half hour as usual. The traffic was so great on the Rapid Transit that cars were sixty and seventy minutes going from Diamond Head to Kalihi. Instead of forty minutes as their schedule called for, and it was late in the night before the cars got to running anywhere near on schedule time.

DISCHARGED CARGO IN QUICK TIME

PUT OUT FREIGHT AT RATE OF OVER 100 TONS AN HOUR FROM THE S. S. DORIC.

A fine record in discharging cargo was made by Wharf Superintendent Riley with the S. S. Doric during her recent stay in this port. The vessel arrived with 2,488 tons of freight for Honolulu. Some of the stuff was bulky, other portions of it were not. She went alongside the Railway wharf at 8 a. m. Saturday morning and by 9 o'clock Riley and his men were at work discharging the vessel. Cargo was worked from four hatches. There was more stuff stowed in Hatch No. 1 and Hatch No. 4, for it required longer to get those hatches cleared of freight. The freight was all out of the vessel by 9:30 o'clock Sunday morning. During this time the stevedores had been working the cargo steadily with the exception of meal hours. Three hours altogether were knocked off for meals. Making an allowance for this time, the cargo was put out of the vessel in 2 1/2 hours. This average is better than 100 tons an hour. This record is one, if not the best, made on any of the Oriental liners discharging freight in this port. The Doric sailed a day late for San Francisco, but will arrive in San Francisco December 12, the day she is scheduled to make that port.

Head winds prevented the S. S. Doric arriving on time from the Orient. She struck strong trades for two days before reaching port so could not sight Honolulu much before midnight Friday. The vessel came into the harbor in the morning and docked at the Ewa end of the Railway wharf, the first passenger vessel to go in that slip. Her cargo is even larger than was first reported. She has 2,488 tons of freight for Honolulu. This is the largest in the history of Honolulu-Oriental freight. Of this cargo about 700 tons consists of gunny sacks, 16,700 tubs of wet goods, consisting of sack and soil, 10,700 bags of rice, 1,360 bags of beans. There are 1,233 bales of gunny sacks. The new customs regulation regarding the appraisement of baggage on the wharf was enforced on her. An appraiser and a large force of customs inspectors were on the wharf and attended to the work of passing all baggage. Only three cabin passengers arrived for this port, so the work was done very promptly.

The Doric left Hongkong and Macao November 14 and Yokohama November 25. Her time from Yokohama to port was 10 days, 4 hours and 19 minutes. Of the passengers for Honolulu, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Pantos are tourists. J. H. Julien is a business man. Among the through passengers is Mrs. J. T. Barroclough. She visited in Honolulu some months ago. Rev. Brewster and family are missionary people returning home. They have been stationed in China. R. Edwin Edlison is a wealthy New Yorker who has been making a tour of the Orient.

NEXT MAIL TO SAN FRANCISCO.

The next mail to San Francisco will depart by the S. S. Alameda Wednesday morning. The transport Sherman sailed today about noon, but the Alameda will arrive as soon as the transport, as the transport will take at least eight days and perhaps longer, in which to make the trip to the Coast from Honolulu.

To Prevent Croup, begin in time. The first symptoms is hoarseness; this is soon followed by a peculiar rough cough, which is easily recognized and will never be forgotten by one who has heard it. The time to act is when the child first becomes hoarse. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is freely given, all tendency to croup will soon disappear. Even after the croupy cough has developed, it will prevent the attack. There is no danger in giving this remedy as it contains nothing injurious. It always cures and cures quickly. ELKS REMEMBER DEAD BROTHERS

ANNUAL MEMORIAL SERVICES YESTERDAY AFTERNOON AT THE OPERA HOUSE.

The Elks' annual Memorial services were held yesterday afternoon in the Hawaiian Opera house and attracted a large audience. The stage was beautifully decorated for the occasion, a forest scene being produced, with the antlers of a large elk in the rear and in front green mounds to symbolize the well remembered graves of departed members of the order.

The officers of the lodge, Grand Exalted Ruler Frank L. Thompson presiding took seats on the stage and the services began with Beethoven's Largo by the Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of William F. Jocher. The music was very finely rendered, as were other selections by the orchestra and vocal numbers by well known singers, during the afternoon. The beautiful and impressive Elks' ritual was conducted by the exalted ruler. Prayer was offered by the Rev. Alexander Mackintosh, chaplain. The "Vocal Chair" was sung by a quartette behind the scenes, consisting of Walter Dillingham, Isaac Dillingham, Clifford Kimball and John S. Ellis, with very beautiful effect. A quintette consisting of Miss Alice Campbell, Miss Stella Love, Miss Daisy Lishman, Miss Ada Rhodes and Mrs. Annis Montague Turner gave selections, and there were solos by Mrs. Turner, Mrs. F. E. Richardson, H. F. Wichman and Hugo Herzer.

The eulogy was by E. A. Douthitt, whose address was a brief one describing the purposes of the gathering to show respect and reverence for the dead, who had gone from earth to the higher life. "Home sweet Home," by the orchestra and the closing hymn sung by all the Elks, standing, closed the exercises.

BASKET BALL GAMES.

Two basket ball games were played on the Kamehameha grounds on Saturday afternoon, as a part of the league series. There was a large crowd to watch the playing, which was fast in both games, the girls showing much activity and the results of much practice. The Punahou and High School teams played first. The Punahou team consisted of Misses Alice Roth, Florence Hall, Irene Fisher, Julie Damon, Catherine Goodale and Catherine Hanevad, while the High School players were Misses Hilda Smith, Mary Crewes, Elsie Smith, Hilda Robertson, Agnes Akau and Nina Craig. The Punahou won by 6 to 4. The Y. W. C. A. team defeated the Priory by 6 to 5. The players were: Y. W. C. THE COUNTY ACT.

Mr. Hatch has not gone to Washington upon any mission for the government, he has gone at the request of certain Republicans who want to have information upon the matter of status of the County Act. The position of the Territory if the County Act should be constantly and persistently attacked in the courts would be very unfortunate indeed. It might not produce a condition of chaos but it would certainly produce an immense amount of friction. All the light that we can get should be thrown upon it.

It is decidedly the part of wisdom to try and secure the passage of the County Act in such a way as to make it unassailable. If that can be done, means should be taken to bring it about. It seems the height of folly to sit down and wait till the act is upset, and then set to work scrambling out of the mess in any kind of haphazard fashion.

That there are many who object to any County Act is true. That there are some who have pretended to support the County Act, but who were ready to insidiously attack it is also true. Soon after the passage of the bill such parties began the knocking process. Now they think that they have a good opportunity to come out more boldly.

Governor Carter is trying his best to be honest with the people. The Republican party was elected to the legislature upon a promise of passing a County bill. This bill has been passed, and if it is now threatened with being upset it is the duty of Governor Carter and the duty of the Republican party to do everything that can be done to protect it. No stone should be left unturned. Every article of information which will assist in strengthening the act should be obtained. There is, therefore a very cogent reason why honest Republicans should have put up the money for Mr. Hatch's visit to Washington, in order to find out what could be done there, in the event of such action being required. It is but keeping the party pledges made at last election.

THE TOWN MEETING.

The discussion upon the County bill which will take place this evening will enable people on all sides of the question to air their views. There is certainly a great difference of opinion upon the point, and a clear talk will probably dissipate some of the rancor which is felt about it. It is a most vital question to us, in that if the County bill should be so attacked in the courts as to become inoperative we would find ourselves in great straits.

When the Legislature was in session, the conditions which now obtain were foreseen, and it was proposed to pass an alternative appropriation bill which would enable the government to be carried on, even if the County bill should be inoperative. But this scheme was laughed aside. It would have been of great use now, had it been passed.

There is no doubt of the reality of the difficulty before us. Even if the Legislature were called together, it would take time to assemble the members, and their deliberations would also take time, meanwhile, except in those departments which remain territorial, things would be at a standstill. Governor Carter and some other Republicans have offered one solution. If what Governor Carter proposes, secures the County Act, and makes it operative, Mr. Carter will have saved the Territory from a very serious crisis.

THE THEATRE.

The theatre reflects the mental attitude of the times and of the people. With the Greeks, the first great playwrights, the semi-religious feeling pervaded, and the inexorable will of the gods, who did as they liked with man, was painted in broad lines. But later there came the love of laughter, and Comstockian established the comedy or rather the political burlesque, which has supplied ideas for many a modern comic writer. For true comedy one goes to Rome and finds one's model in Terence, who supplied Moliere with plots and Shakespeare with many an idea.

With the fall of classic civilization, fell the classic theatre, and theatrical performances only returned in the middle ages in the form of mystery plays, an adjunct of the medieval church, which told in character some of truths of Christianity, and from whose crudeness and coarseness, modern thought and taste shrinks. The Devil and Judas Iscariot were familiar comic characters, who used to tickle the ears of the groundlings. The mystery plays reflected the temper of the times.

Then came the great Elizabethan efflorescence, which gave us Marlowe, and others, and then culminated in Shakespeare, who wrote for all nations and for all time. It was a period of passionate longing for an ideal, of lofty thoughts and great deeds by sea and land, of religious struggle, of wonderful refinement in thought, and yet of great coarseness in manner and in life. And this we see reflected by the Shakespearean drama. Thoughts of the very loftiest are given forth in rank profusion, the purest of characters are drawn and mingled with this the coarsest of buffoonery, some of which can not be read aloud, much less layed.

Take the drama of the restoration, Congreve, Wycherly and that school. It reflected the brilliant wit and utter lack of morality of the times. Nothing can be brighter than many of these comedies at which Charles II and Buckingham laughed, and in which the saucy Nell Wynne played. Poor Nell, whose life was in itself an epitome of the spirit of the time, gay, butterfly existence, with much evil and yet much good in it.

One might go on and show the sham classic revival of the eighteenth century, which became duller and more lifeless until in the early years of the nineteenth century Victor Hugo broke the spell and the romantic drama came into being. The trammels of a pseudo classicism were shaken, and with the broadening ideas of liberty and freedom, the stage again reflected the temper of the times. In the quiet years after 1848, took largely to the domestic drama, partly romantic, but romance a quiet type. And then our higher education began to tell. Spencer's school had set men's mind to thinking, so had Draper, so had Key, so had Renan, so had Buckle, and the problem play appeared. Ibsen and Jones in England, Ibsen for all the world, a whole school in many, some great, some mediocre, some vicious like Oscar Wilde, and the temper of the time.

And to reach the present. There has come a reaction against the blem play, and the romantic drama is again to the fore. The Three Musketeers, If I Were King, Under the Red Robe, A Gentleman of France, and dozens of others hold the stage. They are full of action, characters are dashing. There is much clashing of sword blades, they reflect the spirit of the time? Most certainly they do. We had the Spanish war. The British have fought the Boer war. There has been fighting in the Balkans, war is threatened in Manchuria.

There may be trouble in Central America. There is hardly a family in North America or Great Britain that has not had some relation to various wars, or at least some very dear friend. One may say revival of the romantic melo-drama is the direct product of the times.

This is but a rapid sketch, hastily put together, but it proves the case, word as to criticism of such plays. Take A Gentleman of France reced on Saturday night. It has been classed as what is known as a pontine drama. It is nothing of the kind. The Three Musketeers in much more battle, murder and sudden death, including a horrible scene when Miladi is branded. Hamlet concludes with a stage lumbered up with corpses. Nothing could be more transpontine than the fight between Macbeth and Macduff, when the former roars "lay on Macduff, and damned be he who first cries hold, enough!" The clash of swords and the risk of poison and the choral house pervade Romeo and Juliet. All that is asked in such plays is that they should be well put on, life like, and acted with vigor. They are written by authors of acknowledged ability and world wide fame, and well produced they give pleasure to hundreds of thousands of people. The Nell company fulfills the claims of the romantic drama very thoroughly and deserves high praise.

Dr. Bishop's theory of a seismic disturbance to the far north, is constantly being verified. The heavy tidal disturbance at Honolulu, Maui, which was reported in Saturday's Star was only another instance of what Dr. Bishop pointed out. The disturbance, whatever it was, was outside the sphere of telegraphic influence, since other wise we should have heard of it at least on November 30, if not on November 29, for the telegraph can outstrip an earthquake, that is the latter travels. No doubt scientists will be agog all over the world to find out what these phenomena have been caused by, as soon as they have the information laid before them.

Judge Lindsay and the police department are determined to put down gambling. They can do so much, but they cannot eradicate a vice which is ingrained in some sections of the community, while many other sections look on with a very lenient eye. Vices can be curbed, but with erring human nature they cannot be completely eradicated.

The older generation is dropping off very rapidly. The death of Horace Crabbe father of Senator Crabbe, President of the Senate, removes a very old land mark or perhaps the proper word should be man-mark. The late Mr. Crabbe was associated in the building up of Honolulu, had occupied prominent positions, notably as Chamberlain to King Lunalilo, and had seen many and wonderful changes in the islands. He reached an honored and vigorous old age, and those of his old friends who used to meet him, will miss the kindly word and the pleasant smile with which he used to greet them.

Judge Little seems to be getting thrown down on all sides. Even the Home Builders won't have him at any price. There is going to be a pleasant little shake up in the judiciary.

Look out for the arrival of the cruisers next week. They will probably make a record trip across the Pacific. That is what Admiral Evans and the administration are aiming at. It has a wonderful effect upon outsiders when our ships can concentrate quickly at a given point. Such promptitude works for peace and not for war.

The reason that commercial education has received but little attention in England till now, says Consul Harris, is because the people have a highly developed instinct for trade. Then, again, the geographical position of the country, together with a combination of circumstances, has greatly assisted England to become the first commercial nation in the world. In Germany, France, Austria and other nations of Europe the unfavorable geographical position and adverse circumstances have awakened the people of those countries to a realization of the fact that it is only a superior educational training that will put the merchants and manufacturers in a position to compete with those of England.

That Manchurian question still hangs in the air. In spite of rumors to the contrary it is by no means settled.

Great Britain made a good bargain when she bought the Chinese man-of-war Libertad. She is claimed to be the fastest battleship afloat, and in these days speed in a man-of-war is the great essential.

Stanford is unfortunate. First it had an epidemic of typhoid, now it is diphtheria, and both are "dirty" diseases. There must be something wrong about Stanford.

THE DRAMA

The Neills were warmly welcomed by a splendid house at the opening of their season, their third in Honolulu, at the Hawaiian Opera House on Saturday night. Both Mr. and Mrs. Neill were enthusiastically greeted when they appeared on the stage.

The play was Harriet Ford's drama "The Solace of Stanley J. Weyman's 'A Gentleman of France.' It is a romantic drama, of rich color, vivid action, and nobility of sentiment. Of course the book and the play are not identical. In some respects the book is better than the play; from the nature of the thing there is more of explanatory detail in the book, so that whatever may be thought of the probability of the action as a whole, there is always sufficient motive for causing the particular scenes in the plot, giving the fascination of reality by the sequence of apparent truth. In the dramatization, the motive for much that is presented, is not so clearly brought out, and hence without good acting the air of probability which is such a fascinating feature of the book, would be lost.

As it was presented by the Neills it was a pleasing picture of rapid action of the sort that challenges attention and engages interest, in a setting of splendid color in costume, of intrigue that dazzled by its audacity, and of a largeness that captivated by its dramatic plenitude.

The entire plot of the story revolves about the fact that the Vicomte de Turville has locked up his niece Mile. de la Vire in his castle at Chize to prevent her from disclosing to Henry of Navarre his intrigues against that prince. Navarre determines to rescue her from her uncle's imprisonment, but in doing so finds it necessary to choose an instrument and methods which will leave no trail of suspicion leading up to him. Gaston de Marsac, a chivalier whose fortunes are at the lowest ebb, but whose courage is undaunted and his honor unshaken by choice, and told very frankly the dangers of the enterprise, and that if he fails the king cannot save him, nor reward him if he succeeds. He undertakes the mission. Edith Chapman as "Mlle. de la Vire," is the ideal of what that character should be, impetuous, impetuous, generous, willful, heedless of her ideals, and rising to the highest realms of justice.

Sheldon Lewis as "M. de Bruhl" gave a well considered impersonation of that character. Donald Bowles as "Henry of Navarre" presented that character as he is known in history, witty, cynical, cool in his judgment of himself as of others. John W. Burton as "Felix," gave a delicious presentation of the faithful but not militant serving man. Nothing could be better than Lillian Andrews' "Fanchette." It was a delightful romantic drama well played.

On Wednesday evening the Neills will present "The Christian," with James Neill as "John Storm," and Edith Chapman as "Glory Quayle."

BIG SHIPMENTS SUGAR ARRIVE

MINNEWASKA AND ACME LAND OVER 10,000 TONS OF HAWAIIAN SUGAR.

Friday was a big day for Hawaii shippers of sugar. Two big cargoes arrived at Delaware Breakwater on that date. A special cable to the Marine Exchange last week told of the arrival of the S. S. Minnewaska and the ship Acme at Delaware Breakwater on Friday December 4. The arrival of both those boats was of special interest to Hawaiian sugar factors for both vessels carried large cargoes from these islands. The Minnewaska had 4,700 tons while the Acme carried 5,618 tons. The Acme's cargo was the largest that was sent out of Honolulu in a sailing vessel. The total amount of sugar arriving was 10,318 tons.

On the day that the vessels arrived the quotation of sugar was 3.65 cents a pound or $73.00 a ton. The value of the two cargoes was therefore, $762,400. The sugar did not unfortunately, catch the higher rate of 3.30 cents which had been prevailing for over a month previous to their arrival. Had such a rate been prevailing it would have meant a difference of over $50,000 in the value of the cargoes.

Had not the Minnewaska been delayed in departing from San Francisco she would probably have made Delaware Breakwater in time to have caught the high price. The Acme left Honolulu July 14 so was 142 days making the voyage. She was longer than had been expected.

NO TRANSPORTATION FOR OUR MARINES

NAVAL GARRISON WILL NOT BE HERE FOR SEVERAL MONTHS—NO VESSEL TO BRING THEM.

It is likely to be several months before the marines are sent to this Naval Station. That such a body of men is to come here for permanent duty is certain, but the coming of the men is hanging fire on account of lack of transportation for them. A similar condition prevails regarding the men designed for duty at Tutuila.

The only means of transporting the marines is on the Naval transport Solace or else on a cruiser or battleship. The Solace leaves San Francisco tomorrow for Honolulu. She will bring stores for Admiral Evans' fleet, but she will be unable to accommodate any men for the local station. She will be full with men who are going out to relieve the members of the crews of the various warships on the Asiatic station. Those men have to be relieved, whereas the coming of the marines to Honolulu is not urgent.

The result is that the marines will have to wait until there is room for them on the Solace. There is little probability that any cruiser or battleship will be coming this way from San Francisco for months. The opinion at the Naval Station is that the marines will be sent to Honolulu on the trip of the Solace following the present one.

WARSHIPS ARE DUE THIS WEEK

CRUISER DIVISION OF ADMIRAL EVANS' FLEET EXPECTED TO ARRIVE HERE NEXT SATURDAY.

The cruiser division of Admiral Evans' fleet is expected to reach Honolulu this week. The four cruisers left Yokohama December 1. The officers at the Naval Station are inclined to think that the vessels will take twelve days to make the voyage to this port. It is possible that the cruisers may have been ordered to go ahead and try to make faster time, in order to determine what speed they can make as a fleet on such a long cruise. In such an event they may arrive several days earlier.

The battleship division is expected about Friday week, December 18. They left five days after the cruisers and as they are not supposed to be as fast as the smaller vessels, there does not seem any likelihood that they will come over in any less time. Admiral Evans may decide, however, to let them out. The purpose of the present cruise is to ascertain how the vessels can cruise as a fleet. Each division will be kept intact and will arrive at Honolulu with all the vessels within hailing distance of each other. Admiral Evans is evidently coming on the battleship division as his flagship is the Kentucky.

The belief is that both divisions will come into the harbor. All of the cruisers can easily be accommodated. There is little doubt but all of the cruisers are to come into the naval slips and the Pacific Mail wharf. Coaling will be facilitated by the boats being inside the harbor. After coaling, the cruisers will, as they probably, move over to the stream so as to make room for the battleships. The harbor is deep enough for the battleships. One of them, the Wisconsin, has been in Honolulu harbor before and she did not touch the bottom at any time. The experience of her commander, Captain Sebree, on that occasion will in all probability result in Admiral Evans allowing all three battleships to enter the harbor.

The length of the stay of the fleet in port is not known. Nor is it known whether they are likely to sail in two divisions on the return to Yokohama. There is little likelihood that any target practice will be given the crews, as the annual practice will occur next March.

THE JAPS' CONSPIRACY

Adachi, and for the purpose of securing a speedy trial admits that the said Adachi, if produced and compelled to testify in said cases, would testify as the District Attorney in his affidavit herein states that he would, and consents that said affidavit of the District Attorney may be read to the jury as the testimony of said Adachi, not however admitting that said statements are true, but, on the contrary, claiming that they are based upon lies which the said Adachi told to the District Attorney.

"The said defendant, Francis M. Brooks, upon the foregoing waiver, admission and consent, and upon his affidavit hereto annexed, and by reference made a part hereof, demands his constitutional right to a speedy trial, and moves this Honorable Court for a trial forthwith, upon this, the 7th day of December, 1903, the same being the day set for said trial.

By his Attorneys,
George E. Davis, E. P. Dole and A. R. Cunha.

"Dated this 7th day of Dec., 1903."

The defendant's affidavit sets forth that he is wholly innocent of the charges against him and that he is willing to admit that Adachi will testify to all that the district attorney claims, also to waive his right to have Adachi present in said cases. It was generally agreed that this right of waiver exists and that point was disposed of without argument. Brooks swears that Adachi is to be brought back on a warrant for perjury and is therefore not a witness who should be waited for, that if brought back to be tried for perjury Adachi cannot be used or detained for any other purpose, under the extradition treaty with Japan, and that the uncorroborated testimony of Adachi, an alleged accomplice, could not sustain a conviction. Brooks denies that he was in any way instrumental in causing Adachi to leave the islands and says that if the United States had wanted Adachi he could have been secured before he left. Another statement in the affidavit is that in the belief of the affiant, the perjury charge is so "loosely and defectively made" and the extradition papers are so defectively drawn, that the Government of the United States will not issue papers for Adachi's extradition. The affidavit and motion were read to Judge Dole by E. P. Dole and the motion was argued by Dole and George Davis for the defendant and Brooks for the United States. Brooks' affidavit on the motion for a postponement contained the following:

"Affiant further deposes and says that he has reliable information that at the present time the said Saburo Adachi is in the Empire of Japan; that he further has reliable information that the said Saburo Adachi will return to the district of Hawaii from the Empire of Japan sometime during the latter part of January or the first week in February, A. D. 1904, and that the evidence of the said Saburo Adachi can be secured for the April, A. D. 1904 term of this Court.

"And said affiant further deposes and says that the said Saburo Adachi is a material witness on behalf of the United States of America in said cause; that if called as a witness in said cause against said Francis M. Brooks, said Saburo Adachi will testify that in the month of June, A. D. 1903, the defendants named in said indictment with the exception of said Francis M. Brooks did enter into an agreement with the said Francis M. Brooks and by virtue of the terms of which the said defendant did agree to and with the remainder of said defendants, that they, the remainder of said defendants, might carry on and conduct, within Honolulu, Island of Oahu, in said District, houses of prostitution, without molestation from any persons whomsoever, that said Saburo Adachi, if called as a witness, will further testify that the said Francis M. Brooks, at the time aforesaid, did further agree to and with the remainder of said defendants that he, the said Francis M. Brooks, would pay all fines which might be inflicted by any of the courts of the Territory of Hawaii on any persons arrested for the commission of crimes in said houses of prostitution.

"The affidavit further says that Adachi was the only person besides the defendant speaking English at the conference when the alleged agreement was made, and is therefore the only witness who can testify, and adds the following:

"And affiant further deposes and says upon information and belief, that the said Saburo Adachi left the District of Hawaii at the instance and instigation of the said defendant Francis M. Brooks and further states, on information and belief, that the said defendant, Francis M. Brooks, is now doing everything in his power to prevent the return of the said Saburo Adachi to this District."

Judge Dole at the conclusion of the argument said that the affidavit of the district attorney, which must be taken as the truth, was sufficient for a continuance under ordinary circumstances. "The court is clear as to the propriety of continuing the case to wait for the arrival of the witness," said the judge "but it is not clear as to the status of the witness when he arrives. The court will look into this feature of the case and give a decision tomorrow morning.

"During the course of a personal plea for an immediate trial Brooks made the remark that to continue the case to April and leave him without a chance to be heard would be an 'outrage,' and at the conclusion of his argument Judge Dole asked him to withdraw the expression. 'It is a matter wholly within the discretion of the court,' said the judge.

Brooks withdrew the expression, saying that he had only meant to strongly urge his right to trial at once.

whereupon J. J. Dunne for the defense made an objection and the court told the jury to disregard the expression. "We shall show," said Attorney General Andrews, after reading the indictment, "that the defendant was the former husband of Mrs. Parmenter's daughter and that his wife secured a divorce from him on account of his cruelty, also that he had been arrested and convicted of assault and battery on both his former wife and mother-in-law, and that he had a number of times attempted to kill them.

"We shall show that on the night of August 23 the defendant was riding upon the same car with his former wife as far as Thomas Square and that at Thomas Square he got off the car and went to his own home to get a pistol with which to carry out the threats to kill which he had made. He got a pistol and at the same time a bottle of wine to give him courage to do the deed he had determined upon. He took the car again near his house and got off close to the home of Mrs. Parmenter on Kinohiwa street.

"At the Parmenter residence he took off his shoes and hat and crawled up on the stoop to look in the window. He saw his former wife sleeping. He sat in the hammock and went to sleep, possibly slightly overcome by the wine he had taken. While he was sleeping Mrs. Parmenter heard him and went out alarmed. She saw Jones and was much frightened and sent Mrs. Jones to ask the police for help.

"While Mrs. Jones was away Mr. Pizley, who lived next door and did not know any of the parties, was returning from his work as a conductor. Mrs. Parmenter called to him and asked him to stay until the police came, and he came in. Officer Kane came and seeing Jones apparently asleep and harmless went away to get the patrol wagon.

"He had hardly gone when Jones, whether he had been asleep or merely feigning, jumped up pistol in hand. He was seen by Pizley and Mrs. Parmenter and the former ran, Jones chasing him for a short distance. Mrs. Parmenter stood in the middle of the street crying out. Jones ran at her and she cried out 'Pau, Eddie, Pau.' He said 'I'll show you what's pau,' and shot at her, missing. Mrs. Jones ran out, asking her mother what was the matter, whereupon Jones put the pistol to the side of her head and shot her dead. Then he ran back to where Mrs. Parmenter was and she shouted 'haul in.' 'We will show the defendant's own statement,' I said haul in, and wanted to quiet her and shot her.' The shot missed and Jones fired again, the bullet causing the wound which resulted in her death.

Andrews told of Jones' disappearance and final surrender and closed by saying that he would ask for a verdict of murder in the first degree, believing the case to be one of deliberate and cold-blooded murder. On objections from Dunne, Gear said that the last remark was improper and instructed the jurors to disregard it.

Dr. F. L. Miner was called as the first witness. Dr. S. G. Walters was next. They testified about the bullet wound and the death of Mrs. Parmenter. Police Captain Parker followed, giving some details of the discovery of the killing and the hunt for Jones.

Ex-Mayor Grace of New York has for some time been in poor health. He is seventy-one years old. He was mayor of New York from 1881 to 1882 and was again elected mayor in 1885. Grace had an adventurous career. At fourteen he ran away from his home in Ireland and worked his way on a sailing vessel to New York. He remained in New York for two years and then returned to Ireland but the year 1859 found him at Callao, Peru, where he secured employment as a clerk and ultimately worked himself up to be head of the firm which originally employed him. He returned to New York with a fortune and organized the firm of W. R. Grace & Co., which became a leading firm in the South and Central American trade. In 1891 he established the New York and Pacific Steamship Co.

$100.00 IN GOLD COIN

For School Children

Campaign NOW OPEN And Closes On Saturday December 19

Prizes Will Be Awarded On December 22

Details of Plan

The Star's idea is to gain the services of every bright school boy and girl in Honolulu and is willing to pay liberally for their aid. The work will not interfere with their school duties; it can be accomplished after hours by devoting one or more hours each day to a thorough canvass of their neighborhood to gain subscribers for the Star. For this service we will pay school children ONE HALF of all new subscriptions they may receive. If 75 cents is collected for one month the boy or girl will receive 37 1/2 cents; if $2.00 is collected for one quarter, we will hand over one dollar; if $8.00 is collected for one year, we will give the little business man or little business woman $4.00.

In addition to the generous commission the Star will award the sum of One Hundred Dollars in gold coin, divided into four prizes. The boy or girl who secures the largest number of new subscribers will be paid $50.00; prize for second highest number $25.00; third prize, $15.00; fourth prize, $10.00.

With energy, perseverance and tact, any bright school girl or boy may easily make some Christmas money and win a cash prize and the reward in each case will be worth the effort. At this season of the year it is an easy matter to gain subscribers for The Star.

Subscription envelopes of the following form, which may be had at THE STAR office, must be filled out in ink by the subscriber to constitute a bona fide new subscription. Subscription made in any other form will not be considered in the contest.

DO NOT WANT JUDGE LITTLE

A PETITION DECLARING THAT HE IS PREJUDICED AGAINST HAWAIIAN JURORS.

A Home Rule petition is being circulated on Hawaii and Maui asking President Roosevelt not to reappoint Circuit Judge Little of the Fourth Circuit, Hilo. It is as follows:

To Theodore Roosevelt, President of the United States.

"Mr. President: The undersigned, citizens of the Territory of Hawaii, respectfully petition that upon the expiration of his term of office, the Honorable Gilbert F. Little, Judge of the Fourth Circuit of the Territory of Hawaii, be not reappointed, among other reasons for the reason that said Judge has openly and unqualifiedly announced his opposition to the placing of any citizen of Hawaiian extraction upon the jury empaneled in his Court and has and is now carrying out this policy in the empanelling of juries in his Circuit thereby creating race juries which the Congressional Act organizing the Territory of Hawaii abolished and is opposed to.

"We submit an investigation of this charge by the Department of Justice, will show that Judge Little is opposed to Hawaiian jurors because of their nationality and practically without regard to the personal qualifications of such jurors or their fitness to serve, his opposition, amounting to this, that the Hawaiians have had their day and are not considered by him fit jurors anyhow, whoever they are, and in this connection we state that under existing laws the Judge has had practically supreme control of the selection of jurors, so that Judge Little is in a position to enforce and carry out his prejudices, and we submit that investigation will show that he is carrying out his prejudices and that the jury list of his Court shows such a small percentage of Hawaiians as to prove that the charges are true, on race lines with only just enough Hawaiians on the jury to technically escape the accusation that juries are drawn on race lines in his court, all of which is very respectfully submitted.

DEATH OF A WELL KNOWN KAMAAINA

HORACE GATES CRABBE WHO CAME HERE IN 1847 PASSED AWAY SATURDAY NIGHT.

Horace Gates Crabbe one of the white kamaihuas longest in these islands died at 10:30 o'clock Saturday evening at his residence on Nuanuu avenue following a stroke of paralysis suffered about a week before. He was born in Philadelphia in 1830. His father was Captain Crabbe of the United States Marine Corps. Captain Crabbe was ordered to California in 1846 and Horace came with him as clerk. From California, Captain Crabbe was ordered to Honolulu, where he resigned his commission and entered into business. This has been Horace G. Crabbe's home since 1847. He was in business for himself at various times up to a few years ago when he resigned. He was connected with the customs service of Hawaii for a number of years, and also with the police department under Marshal Parks. He was King's chamberlain during the reign of King Lunalilo. During Kalaikoua's reign he was elected a member of the House of Nobles on the National Reform ticket. In 1857 he married Elizabeth Meek, daughter of Captain John Meek. Five children survive him. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

MANY MILITARY VISITORS SUNDAY

TRANSPORT SHERMAN ARRIVED YESTERDAY MORNING FROM MANILA.

Fully two days late, the transport Sherman arrived yesterday morning from Manila via Nagasaki, en route to San Francisco. The vessel left Manila November 14 and Nagasaki November 21. She encountered rough weather on the trip from the latter port but no damage was done to the vessel. The health aboard was good and no deaths occurred.

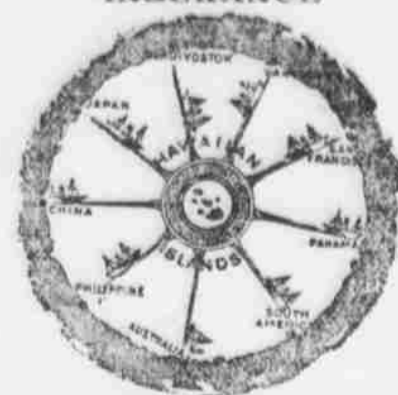

Particular interest was given to the arrival of the vessel by the fact that part of the Thirtieth Regiment was aboard. This is the regiment that was organized in the Philippine Islands and as an organization, is going for the first time to the Mainland. From San Francisco the headquarters, band, and eight companies will be sent to Fort Crook, Nebraska while two companies will go to Little Rock, Arkansas and two companies to Fort Reno, Indian Territory. The regiment was organized in the Philippines February 2, 1891. One battalion from the Twenty-eighth Infantry was transferred to the new organization and the remainder of the men were recruited from soldiers in the Islands. The regiment has seen very hard service and served in the Islands of Mindoro under General Bell. Colonel J. J. O'Connell is the commander of the regiment. He is aboard the Sherman.

WORK FOR TORRENS COURT

A GREAT VOLUME OF BUSINESS EXPECTED FROM NEW CORPORATIONS.

The first case to come before the Torrens Land Court has been set for hearing December 23. Though the court has had very little to do so far, having only one case on file, there is a prospect of a lot of business in the near future. A second case will be filed next week it is said, and the large new plantation consolidations on Maui will result in numerous cases, as their land titles will have to be secured from the court.

The first case, in which the issue has now been joined by the filing by Mrs. Ida B. Castle, the petitioner, of an election to proceed, after Examiner E. A. Mott-Smith had reported on the title, will not result in any contest. All Judge Weaver will have to do will be to hear the testimony and award a title, unless some unexpected developments occur. The petitioner is for a title to property at the corner of Luualilo and Victoria streets. As witnesses owning or being interested in adjoining property, the following have been summoned to appear in court on December 23 to show cause if they have any why Mrs. Castle should not be awarded the title she asks for: W. C. Clench, of Treesebach, Manitoba, Thomas L. Clench, James E. Fullerton, administrator of the estate of W. C. Clench, James Lyett, Mary E. M. McKeague, John Earnsworth, the S. N. Castle estate, by E. T. Peck.

The new corporations on Maui, growing out of the Kihel water deal, are all required to register their numerous holdings with the land court. It is claimed they have hundreds of different holdings and their business is likely to make a large amount of work for the court. The Torrens law has the following on the subject:

'Fifth. All Hawaiian corporations organized after this Act goes into effect, and all foreign corporations which may be desirous of carrying on business in this Territory, and to take, hold and convey real property therein, shall comply with Section 1 of Act 45 of the Laws of 1895; and all foreign corporations filing their certified copy of the charter or act of incorporation in compliance with said Section 1 after this Act goes into effect, shall register their titles to real property under this Act.

'No such corporation, domestic or foreign, shall acquire or hold real estate within the Territory of Hawaii unless by register title, and in default of proceedings taken and diligently pursued to a final determination all real estate acquired or held by such corporations or association contrary hereto, shall be forfeited and escheat to the Territory of Hawaii.'

THE SANFORDS

Walter Sanford will bring the engagement of his company to a close, with a presentation of 'Northern Lights.' This play presents a phase of our own American life, being laid in Montana, and shows pictures of army and fort life. The plot is laid during the Indian wars in the Northwest, and the leading characters are officers in the U. S. Army. The comedy is enjoyable, and will be in the hands of Griffith Wray and Adelaide Smith. No doubt the admirers of this company will turn out in force to see this company for the last time. Mr. Sanford promises a return trip in the spring; this will be welcome news to all our theatregoers. 'Northern Lights' will be the bill Monday and Tuesday evenings.

The company will sail by the Ventura December 16 for Auckland. They will play the principal cities of New Zealand for a period of thirteen weeks.
