IN KINDERGARTEN WORK

THE BOARD MEETS AND HEARS GOOD REPORTS.

Progress of Work—Instruction—New Park Encouragement—The Palama Branch—Special Instructors.

There was a very large attendance at the meeting of the Board of Supervisors of the Free Kindergarten in Queen Emma hall this morning.

Mrs. Charles M. Hyde, the president, presided. The other ladies present were Mrs. S. B. Dole, Mrs. W. F. Allen, Mrs. T. R. Walker, all vice presidents, Mrs. D. P. Birnie, of the Chinese committee; Mrs. Andrews, of the Portuguese committee; Mrs. J. T. Waterhouse, of the Hawaiian committee; Mrs. C. Day, of the Japanese committee; Mrs. Schmidt, of the Foreign committee; Mrs. W. G. Irwin, of the Palama Kindergarten committee; Mrs. Meyers, of the Building and Grounds committee; Mrs. Henry Castle, of the Publication committee; Mrs. Swanzy, treasurer; Mrs. P. C. Jones, Mrs. O. H. Gulick, Mrs. W. W. Hall, Mrs. Day and others.

Miss Buckley, the new director of the Kindergarten at Palama chapel, will arrive in Honolulu on the next Australia. She is experienced in Kindergarten work and comes from Maryland with the highest recommendations. Everything is in readiness for the opening of the school upon the arrival of Miss Buckley. Mrs. Irwin reported that the school will open with a full number of pupils.

Some time ago the ladies interested in Kindergarten work in Honolulu sent a memorial to Minister of the Interior King, requesting that he set aside some reclaimed government lands on Nuuanu street for a city park. A reply from the Minister was read this morning in which he stated that it was the intention of the department to take the matter up for consideration as soon as possible.

Reports were received from the various committees. From these it is learned that the various kindergarten schools are accomplishing good work. The association was never in a more flourishing condition.

Miss Lawrence, the director of the training classes, made a very interesting report to the Board. She explained the program of the daily work of her classes.

THE EX-QUEEN LEAVES

LILIUOKALANI A DEPARTING PASSENGER PER CHINA.

Arranged Very Quietly—No Demonstration—Called on the President—A Foreign Office Passport.

Liliuokalani sailed by the steamer China this morning for a visit to America and perhaps Europe. She will stop in San Francisco, will go to Boston, likely Washington and will proceed, if possible, to England, where she will visit Kaulani and the family of A. S. Cleghorn.

The ex-Queen's departure was unexpected about town. Only a few members of the Hui Aloha Aina and a few friends were at the steamer to see her off. She arrived in a carriage at 10 o'clock. Joseph O. Carter offered his arm and assisted her up the gangway. On deck she was met by Samuel Parker and other friends. The steamer sailed a few minutes later. She remained on deck until the vessel turned into the channel, bowing adieus to friends as she recognized them on the wharf.

When the ex-Queen arrived at the dock she was veiled, but uncovered her face upon leaving her carriage. She was attired in a neat black dress, and carried a large bouquet of pink carnations. Standing by the gangway were a half dozen friends, to whom she nodded. Robert W. Wilcox was one of the number and came in for an extra smile.

Liliuokalani's trip was planned some months ago. She called upon President and Mrs. Dole at their Emma street home this morning and informed them of her proposed trip abroad. She stated that she would visit relatives of her late husband at Boston and would go to Europe if she was able to arrange the voyage. She was going for pleasure and for the benefit of her health. From both President and Mrs. Dole she received expressions of hope that her tour would be a most pleasant one.

A request was made through her secretary for a Foreign Office passport. This was granted. The document was made out and delivered to her by Secretary Potter on board the China this morning.

On her trip the ex-Queen is accompanied by her private secretary, Joe Heleluhe, and Mrs. Kia Nahaolelua, her chief attendant.

Will the ex-Queen go to Washington? A person close to her says that she will. There is also a report about town that she will meet Kaulani there, and that the two ladies will seek an audience with President Cleveland in their behalf. In view of past circumstances with respect to Kaulani and her own abdication the role accredited to her is not believed as probable. A report that she has a prearrangement to meet Mr. Cleveland and that Mr. Blount will be a party to the conference is discredited except perhaps by a few natives.

The Government band was ordered down to play at the wharf as a compliment to the distinguished passenger, but could not be gotten together in time.

ROAD WRECK.

A double seated surrey belonging to Hon. Cecil Brown was demolished last evening in a collision on Alakea street. Jack Gibson was driving the team and was in post haste for the opera house, the play being over. As he rounded the Y. M. C. A. corner and started down Alakea he came in contact with a hack, with a Japanese driver who was on the wrong side of the street. The horses became unmanageable and ran down the street toward the sea. They were stopped at Queen and Alakea streets. The horse driven by the Japanese hackman has a bad hole in his neck caused by the pole of the surrey. A severe reprimand was given the Japanese driver.

KAWAIAHAO CONCERT.

NEW YORK CAPITALIST RECALLS OLD HONOLULU.

No Hotel Accommodations Ashore—Conditions of the Natives—Remarkable Progress of the Place.

"I was in Honolulu just thirty-one years ago this fall," said Mr. J. E. Ernst, a New York capitalist at the Hawaiian hotel this morning. Mr. Ernst is just returning home per the China from an absence of two and a half years, during which time he has been around the world.

"Yes, I remember it quite distinctly," continued Mr. Ernst. "The Oracle, on which I took passage from San Francisco en route to Japan, dropped in at the then small settlement of Honolulu. Our boat anchored off shore for a couple of days and I took advantage of seeing everything that there was to see.

"The natives were quite uncivilized in those days. They took great delight in participating in a dance—I believe it was called the hula, if I remember correctly. There were no accommodations whatever on shore then—a small hut being the only excuse for a hotel. A few courageous American missionaries were struggling heroically in their work.

"You can possibly have some idea of my complete surprise when I landed in Honolulu yesterday. To find this outpost thoroughly Americanized was a source of great pleasure to me. The growth of the place has been remarkable, so much in fact that I failed to recognize the surroundings, they having been improved upon so much. The numerous new buildings and those now in the course of construction speak for the present prosperity of the country. Elsewhere things are at a standstill owing to the prevalence of hard times which seem to be universal. Hawaii's future strikes me as being very bright indeed."

CASTLE ARRIVES.

The barkentine S. N. Castle docked at the Oceanic wharf at 11:30 this forenoon, twenty-three days from San Francisco. Light wind was the cause of the long voyage. Fine weather was otherwise experienced all the way down. The Castle brought a big cargo.

Capt. Neilson, formerly master of the J. A. Cummins; L. H. Hubbard, the young son of Capt. Hubbard, and Will May, son of a Methodist preacher of Alameda, were passengers by the Castle.

TARGET DISPUTE.

The order deciding the merits of the Company B protest on Saturday's shoot will probably not be issued this afternoon. It is safe to say, however, that, from the findings of the Court of Inquiry, the points raised by the volunteers will not be sustained.

Ingenuous Peruvian Potteries.

A long, slim neck is a distinguishing feature of much of the Peruvian pottery, and nearly every vessel is ornamented with a figure of some sort, having holes to represent eyes and other openings. These afford a passage for the air forced out by the liquid when poured into the vessel. By an ingenious contrivance the air in escaping produces a sound similar to the cry of the creature represented. Thus a utensil decorated with two monkeys embracing each other, on having water poured into or from it, would give a sound like the screeching of these animals. One decorated with a bird would emit birdlike notes, while a mountain cat on one jar would mew; snakes coiled around another would hiss. The most curious that we have seen was the figure of an aged woman. When the jar was in use, her softs became audible, and tears trickled down her cheeks. The manufacturers seemed to have known all about atmospheric pressure. Dr. Le Plongeon had in his own collection a piece that demonstrated this. It represented a double-headed bird. The vessel had to be filled through a hole in the bottom, and yet in turning it over not a drop could spill, but the liquid would remain below when the jar was simply inclined.

SUPERVISORS OF SCHOOLS

AN INTERESTING COUNCIL OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Eighteen City Schools to Be Visited by Board Members—Tabu Taken Off Pringle—Land and Maps.

Acting in accordance with a suggestion of its president, W. O. Smith, the Board of Education has hit upon a new plan which is sure to prove beneficial to the educational department locally. There are eighteen public schools in Honolulu district and there are six members of the Board of Education. Each member has been assigned three of the city's schools, for his or her personal supervision, thus bringing the board in closer touch with the educational work.

President Smith stated that he found that the plan worked admirably with the Board of Health, of which he is president, and he saw no reason why it would not do so in the educational department.

Each member will endeavor to make a monthly visit to each one of the schools, assigned him, and acquaint himself with all the details of the workings of the institutions. He will be expected to make a monthly report to the Board on the condition of the schools and make recommendations for any changes or improvements which he may think necessary.

"The plan is a good one, I think," said President Smith at the Board meeting yesterday afternoon. "It will give the Board a clearer idea of the matters pertaining to the Honolulu schools, which may come up from time to time and will enable the Board to act with a full knowledge. While each member is held in a way responsible for the condition of the schools assigned to him, there is no interference with the work of the Inspector General or his deputy. I believe that the public instruction bureau will be greatly benefited by such an action on the part of the members of the Board."

The Board passed a resolution authorizing the reemployment of C. D. Pringle in the educational department. He will be given the next suitable vacancy.

The matter of closing the night school for the holidays was again brought up for discussion. Deputy Inspector General Scott stated that the school kept running through the holidays last year and that the teachers were unwilling that it should be closed down this year if their salaries were shut off for the same period.

President Smith thought that it was not fair that the Board should pay the salaries of the teachers during the holidays when they would not be engaged in teaching. He stated that they received $2 per night each for a couple hours' teaching. He did not see why they could not secure labor during the day time also.

The Deputy Inspector General remarked that it would work a hardship on them in case their salaries were cut off during the holidays. On motion of Mr. Bowen the matter was deferred for a week to enable Deputy Inspector General Scott to ascertain whether or not the pupils cared to attend school during the holidays.

The Board authorized the entailment of the staff of teachers of the night school from seven to five. This has been necessary on account of the number of scholars that have dropped from the roll, owing to the opening of stores in the evenings during the holidays detaining some and the lack of interest taken in the work of others.

Beretania street school is filled to overflowing again. Mr. Scott reported that a number of the children were forced to sit out on the open laui attaching to the main school room on account of lack of space. In bad weather it was necessary to crowd them inside.

The matter was discussed thoroughly. It was the general opinion of the Board that as the Beretania street school was a central point some day there should be a large school building erected there. To obviate the present difficulties the deputy inspector-general was authorized to build an addition room on the rear of the main building and to confine the cost of such within $100.

The Board refused to accede to the request of Principal Dumas, of the Normal school, for the removal of Miss Alice Smith, teacher in the Practice school. The Teacher's Committee reported her work as being satisfactory.

The Chinese Young Men's Christian Association was allowed $25 for the use of the hall for school purposes last year.

Professor W. D. Alexander reported progress on negotiations for the exchange of lots in Pearl City belonging to the Oahu Railway Company, to be used for a building site for the new Pearl City school. The Railroad company, through its attorney, J. A. Magoon, is satisfied for the exchange of other school lands and Professor Alexander was authorized to make the exchange.

Applications from B. B. Mitchell and Mrs. H. M. Davis for positions in the educational department, were read and referred to the Teachers' Committee. Both applicants are residents of the States and enclose certificates.

Professor Alexander stated that Mr. Finney had 500 sets of Hawaiian maps which he wished to dispose of for 50 cents a set. The Board purchased 250 sets paying $125 therefor. The money was appropriated out of the book fund which Professor Alexander stated was "quite flush."

Those present at yesterday's meeting were President Smith, Mrs. B. F. Dillingham, Mrs. E. W. Jordan, W. A. Bowen, H. M. von Holt, Professor W. D. Rodgers, Dr. Rodgers, secretary; and Deputy Inspector General Scott.

G. A. R. ELECTION.

GROUP OF MARSHALS.

Marshal Brown is securing the portraits of every marshal of Hawaii. There are nine of them and he has but one or two more to get. They will be grouped in a conspicuous place on the wall of the Marshal's office. Mr. Sea was the first marshal of the City. The others are Messrs. Goodale, W. C. Parke, Col. J. M. Soper, Charles Hopkins, Charles Wilson, W. G. Ashley, E. G. Hitchcock and Arthur M. Brown.

A HEALTH TRIP.

Mrs. Wilson, wife of Mr. Charles Wilson, of the Hobron Drug company, will leave for San Francisco next Thursday on the Mariposa. Mrs. Wilson is just recovering from a severe illness and she hopes to be benefited abroad. She will visit friends and relatives along the Pacific coast and will visit a brother residing in Denver before returning.

AN OLD FRIEND.

Capt. J. Metcalfe, Lloyd's agent, who has been in Honolulu for the past two weeks making an examination of the Gainsborough, left on the China today for San Francisco. Capt. Metcalfe has visited Honolulu several times before but he states that he never enjoyed a visit so thoroughly as this time. He was considerably surprised at the building and other improvements in progress in Honolulu.

AN OPIUM DAY.

It was opium day in the Police Court and the Government coffers have been enriched a few hundred dollars as a result of indiscretion on the part of a half dozen Chinamen. Ah Tuck and Che Kan were fined $50 and costs for having opium in possession, Lum Wa was compelled to pay $65 and costs and Ah Chun came up to the tune of $2 for the same thing.

Having met with the highest success in the manufacture and sale of the excellent liquid laxative remedy, Syrup of Figs, it has become important to all to have knowledge of the Company and its products. The great value of the remedy as a medicinal agent, and of the Company's efforts, is attested by the sale of millions of bottles annually and by the high approval of most eminent physicians.

The California Fig Syrup Co. was organized more than twelve years ago, for the special purpose of manufacturing and selling a laxative remedy, which would be more pleasant to the taste and more beneficial in its effects than any other known. In the process of manufacturing, figs are used, as they are pleasant to the taste, and healthful in their tendencies, but the medicinal properties of the remedy are obtained from an excellent combination of plants known to be medicinally laxative, and to act most beneficially.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, then laxative or other remedies are not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but in need of a laxative, then one should have the best and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

AYER'S ARGUMENT.

If there is any reason why you should use Ayer's, there is every reason why you should use Ayer's. When you take sarsaparilla you take it to cure disease; you want to be cured as quickly as possible and as cheaply as possible. That is why you should use Ayer's: it cures quickly and cheaply—and it cures to stay. Many people write us: "I would sooner have one bottle of Ayer's Sarsaparilla than three of any other kind." A druggist writes that "one bottle of Ayer's will give more benefit than six of any other kind." If one bottle of Ayer's will do the work of three it must have the strength of three at the cost of one. There's the point in a nutshell. It pays every way to use

THE "THREE OLD MAIDS"

LATEST ROMANCE ON HAWAII IS QUITE PLEASING.

Excellent Descriptive Matter—From England to the Paradise of the Pacific—The Future.

(San Francisco Examiner.)
"Three Old Maids of Hawaii," by Ellen Blackmar Maxwell, with many fine illustrations, is a very pleasing romance. Most of the scenes are laid in Hawaii, and the characters are both Americans and natives of the islands. The descriptive matter is excellent, and the main tale is embellished by many recitals of the quaint customs of the natives of these picturesque islands.

The three old maids that leave their home in New England to visit Hawaii are described by the Author as follows:

"One was tall and one was short, and one was neither tall nor short, but just such height as pleased those who loved her.
"Of the three one was plain and one was pretty, and one was neither plain nor pretty, but altogether charming.
"Of the three one was rich and one was poor, and one neither rich nor poor, but very content with what she had."

Belinda Mays, the tallest, oldest, plainest and richest of the three old maids, who was on the staff of a weekly journal, was of the party. Her visit to Hawaii was ostensibly to add to her knowledge, so that she might be able to write more clearly and understandingly of the political relations of the United States Government to those islands. Rose Tyler, her niece, was the shortest, prettiest and youngest of the three. Both she and Belinda declared their hostility toward men and matrimony. Judith Melrose, whose love story composes most of the book, was the most charming of the three. She had been disappointed in the first man she loved, which shattered her faith somewhat in men. She had an aunt residing in Honolulu, who was one of the most prominent ladies there. On their voyage to Honolulu they met a young man named John Harvey, the hero of the story, a very popular resident of the islands. He devoted a great deal of attention to Judith, much to the disgust of the other two maids. Rose Tyler's love for Harvey made her desperate. After she reached the islands she made the acquaintance of a beautiful native girl, named Laali, who loved Harvey, and was very jealous of Judith. These two conspired against her. Rose obtained a lock of Judith's hair, and, disguised herself by donning Laali's holo, they take it to the kahuna. Later this caused Rose a great deal of trouble and Laali her death, as she learned Harvey had obtained Judith's hair and instead the kahuna had her own hair and was praying her to death. The great superstition that exists among the natives is illustrated in Laali's death.

John Harvey helped Rose out of several of her dilemmas. Rose repented and became a new character. She felt that had she acted differently Laali might have married Pau, her lover. Laali also had another lover, that was put into prison for stealing the Queen's jewels. Laali's love for Harvey caused much suspicion and uneasiness in Judith's mind, but she learned all at Laali's death-bed. The book ends by Judith and Harvey marrying and Belinda and Rose returning home.

Rose's lover, Dr. Jarvis, who proposed on the islands, the author leaves waiting for his answer. Belinda has her love story, which is kept a secret, but she proved to her own satisfaction here theory, which was: "That the question of republic vs. monarchy in the islands was not a question of white vs. Kanaka, but of white vs. white and half-white. She felt she understood the islands and their possibilities; she believed in their future, and believed they could stand alone if fairly treated by foreign powers, even though she could see the desire growing and spreading among all factions and classes for their annexation to the United States. She wanted them to be a part of her own country, but sometimes she thought it would be better for the people of the islands themselves if they should continue under their own vine and fig tree."

After hearing some friends continually praising Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, Curtis Fleck, of Anaheim, California, purchased a bottle of it for his own use and is now as enthusiastic over its wonderful work as anyone can be. For sale by all druggists and dealers, Benson, Smith & Co., wholesale agents for H. I.

KINDERGARTENS.

The Monthly Gala Day With Marching and Band Playing.

The usual monthly gathering of all the Kindergarten teachers and their scholars took place yesterday on the Free Kindergarten grounds. There were fully 350 children present of all nationalities—Haoles, Hawaiians, Portuguese, Chinese and Japanese. It was a very cosmopolitan gathering and the sight was viewed by several people who are interested in missionary work in Burmah and are now returning to the States on a vacation. One of them ventured to assert that such an international gathering of children could not be duplicated anywhere on the face of the earth. The Government band was present and rendered a concert. The band also played a march while the children and their teachers marched about the grounds. Miss Lawrence was in charge of this feature of the entertainment. Mr. Frank Damon was present and took an active part in helping to make it pleasant for the little ones.

THE MODERN MOTHER

Has found that her little ones are improved more by the pleasant laxative, Syrup of Figs, when in need of the laxative effect of a gentle remedy than by any other, and that it is more acceptable to them. Children enjoy it and it benefits them. The true remedy, Syrup of Figs, is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

TONIGHT.

This is the night for the launching of the new Annexation Club. There should be a large attendance for the Drill Shed meeting. The arrangement committee appointed by the caucus has worked hard and The Star trusts to good purpose. But one bit of advice is necessary. Don't be precipitate. Let the temper of the meeting rather than the eyes and noses or showing of hands rule the deliberations. Be cautious. There is no demand for rush work. Accord the fullest consideration to the known wishes of all those in the movement, as well as to the sentiments of those who may possibly be enlisted. Of course election slates have been prepared. But let them be shattered if this concession will contribute to the desired harmony. The Star is extremely gratified to know that the organization committee will recommend stated open meetings. This is in line with what the paper has been contending for all along. But when it comes to the open sessions—and this rule can well be applied to the gathering for this evening—let those present always remember that they are recording not only their own opinions, but are likewise in a way acting by proxy for the equally interested absentees. The Star has been falsely accused of attempting to create dissension. This black libel has been and still is estimated as unworthy attention. As the proceedings assume shape it is more than apparent that the suggestions made in these columns have received careful weighing and have been adopted to the fullest extent of their merit.

LILUOKALANI.

Naturally enough the departure of Her Majesty the ex-Queen for the United States has set about countless rumors. To those whom she regards as among her best friends here the lady stated that her trip was for a visit to Boston friends and relatives of her late consort, as well as to renew contact with acquaintances of her own in that city. Liluokalani also expressed the hope that she might be able to continue her travels across the Atlantic for the purpose of again seeing Kāiulani.

The question, of course, is whether or no this voyage, so quietly arranged, has any political significance. Liluokalani said that it had not. It will not fail to have this import or purpose attached and there can scarcely be avoided some political effect—of an extraneous nature.

The political status of the ex-Queen is well known and is of official record. She has renounced all claim to rule Hawaii. She made a formal abdication. She subscribed to the oath of fealty to the Republic.

In Government circles and among substantial citizens it is not believed that Liluokalani is on a political errand.

In the same New York paper is recorded the case of a husband whose buying his wife a bicycle led to a divorce, while the refusal of another husband to buy his wife a bicycle also led to a divorce. What shall a poor man do, is the natural inquiry lodged by the puzzled.

CASES CALLED.

S. Lowden and A. L. Morris were before Judge De la Vergne of the District Court this morning. They pleaded not guilty to the charge of importing opium. Messrs. Thurston & Stanley and Attorney Davis appeared for the defendants and Attorney General Smith represented the Government. On request of the Attorney General the trial was postponed until tomorrow in order to allow the Government to prepare its case.

Lowden and Morris will be tried separately. This was granted by the court after considerable discussion.

SECRETARY.

President Dole has appointed Mr. F. A. Schaefer vice president of the Queen's hospital. This position has been vacant for some years. Mr. Schaefer will continue as secretary of the hospital until his successor is chosen at the meeting of the Board of Trustees next month.

MEDITATIONS OF AN OLD FISHERMAN.

You waves, though you dance by my feet like children at play.
Though you glow, and you glance, and you pur, and you dart,
In the June that were warmer than these are the waves were more gay.
When I was a boy, with never a crack in my heart.

The herring are not in the tides as they were of old.
My sorrow! For many a creek gave the reel in the cart
That carried the take to Silgo town to be sold,
When I was a boy, with never a crack in my heart.

And, ah, you proud maiden, you are not so fair when his out
Is heard on the water, as they were, the proud and apart,
Who paced in the eve by the nets on the pebbly shores,
When I was a boy, with never a crack in my heart.

BUSY CLIFF DWELLERS.

The Pueblo Women Are Literally Empresses of Their Homes.

"The cliff people are a busy folk," writes Hamlin Garland in The Ladies' Home Journal, in an article describing the homes, home life and customs of the cliff dwellers of the southwest—"the most mysterious people in America," as he designates them. "The women grind meal and weave blankets and baskets and make very interesting and often beautiful pottery. The old men make moccasins very deftly, while the younger men go down from the cliff to the fields to tend the growing crop, to watch the struggling corn as it battles against drifting hot sand and against sudden floods—such are the extremities of their climate. Each morning while I was in Hano I heard the men at early dawn go singing down the steep trail—down into the purple plain. Their quavering songs floated up to me with a strange beauty. Each morning, while it was still dark, the women woke me by entering the room where I lay to grind corn, and each night I went to sleep to the regular rhythm of the meal-stone timed to the mystical religious chant of the toiling women."

"Let it be said that there is no woman-slavery among these people any more than among the Navajos. The women are chief property holders. The house is generally the woman's, and descent is through her and not through the father. The men are seldom severe in manner, and in Acoma and Walpi, as well as in Laguna and Zuni, I saw the men taking care of the babies and doing it with great tenderness and smiling patience. I saw no evidence of any severity except in case of the old women. They seemed to be the drudges of the household in Walpi and in Acoma, carrying wood and bottles of water up the steep trail, bent, withered, morose and complaining. They alone of all these people seemed saturnine."

Imitation Leathers. Numerous varieties of imitation leather are produced from sheepskins. Considerable quantities are made to simulate glazed kid, black and colored, and alligator. These bear so close a resemblance to the real that the difference is not always discernible, even to men familiar with the trade. They are in use in the production of shoes that can be sold at low prices, for which the demand is greater than usual in these times.—Shoe and Leather Reporter.

MY ONE ADVENTURE.

"What place is like a railroad depot, in which to study human nature?" I remarked to Hugh, as we stood on the platform waiting for transportation.

Hereupon I commenced this interesting study by staring at everybody in general and pretty girls in particular. The pratty girls found my study of their faces rather disagreeable, I suppose, for I met a decided rebuff from a little golden haired, blue eyed fairy, who turned to her companions and called out:

"See here, girls! Here's a specimen of human nature in the raw state."

"Complimentary, Tom, by Jove!" said Hugh, as I turned my observations in another direction, attracted by a lady who was leading a little boy and carrying a basket of refreshments.

"What a pleasant study you are having, Tom! Shall you have the problem solved when I get back this evening?" I looked up and there was Hugh's handsome face smiling upon me from one of the car windows, as the train moved off. I made a dash for the cars and succeeded in reaching the rear one and in pitching headlong into the lap of golden hair and blue aforementioned.

Imagine my feelings! What a situation for a sensitive young gentleman!

As the cars stopped at Beechwood station, all the passengers made a general rush for the door. Much to my astonishment I was taken up by the crowd and deposited on the platform.

By Jupiter! The best foot I moved I put smash down on the white muslin dress of the golden hair and blue eyes, tearing and spilling it irretrievably.

She uttered a little scream and on recognizing the author of the mischief exclaimed, "Awkward brute!" and gathering up her ruined trail disappeared in the crowd.

"By Jove, Tom, you're in for adventures, I should think," said Hugh. "Do you know who that lady is?"

"No, do you?"

"Yes. She is Miss Nettie Wilford and that little gypsy with black eyes and curls is her sister Frankie—daughters of Judge Wilford."

"Nettie Wilford!" I echoed in surprise, for Nettie Wilford was the belle of N—, and I had often expressed a wish to make her acquaintance—and I had made it! Was there ever such an unfortunate mortal? Will my lucky star ever predominate?

I walked to the grove in a state of mind better imagined than described. I had made myself supremely ridiculous in the eyes of the lady I most wished to please.

On reaching the high land overlooking the pond on which our pleasure party was to sail, a lovely landscape was unfolded to my admiring gaze. A beautiful silvery lake lay at my feet like a jewel in its emerald setting of waving grain.

"How beautiful!" I involuntarily exclaimed, but hearing no response from Hugh I turned and found that he was engaged in saluting a lady, whom I recognized as the "gypsy," Frankie.

On the shore we found the party assembled, patiently awaiting their turn to embark. After a time the ladies were stowed away, their little muslin screams and shrieks hushed and the last fold of refractory erinoline adjusted, when the snowy sails were unfurled to the soft breeze and the little gala fleet slowly left the shore.

Judge Wilford was seated on my right and Hugh and Frankie on my left.

"Father, where can Nettie be? I do not see her in any of the boats."

Just at that moment, before the judge could reply, I saw shoot out from a little cove a fairy shallop, rowed by the missing maiden. It is the nymph of the lake, thought I, as I gazed on the white robed figure.

"There, father, there!" said Frankie. As she neared the party the gentlemen shouted and the ladies waved their handkerchiefs. She waved her snowy plumed hat in return, lost her balance, trembled, swayed, fell—the blue waves closed over the bright vision, and the little boat drifted away.

I plunged in madly, but missed her, and came to the surface in time to see her sink for the second time.

It was in that moment of peril and danger that I knew I loved Nettie Wilford as I had never loved woman before. I waited breathlessly for her to reappear. The seconds seemed ages till the circles of the waves told me she was there. I reached her just as the white face rose for the last time. I clasped one arm around the loved one and with the other struck out for the shore. By an almost superhuman effort I succeeded in reaching it and placing my unconscious burden in the arms of her agonized father.

His face wore a grave look as he took Nettie's hand and searched in vain for her pulse. His directions were quickly obeyed by assistants, and at length their indefatigable exertions were rewarded, as slowly the frozen life current warmed in the blue veins and a faint flush stole up to the pale cheeks, the eyelids quivered and the blue eyes opened once more.

I stole away, thinking that such a reunion would be too sacred for stranger eyes to witness.

I was soon recalled by Hugh's well known voice, saying: "Raymond, this way."

I retraced my steps and found that Miss Wilford had entirely recovered and the judge was inquiring for me.

"My child," said he as I entered the room, "this is Mr. Raymond, the gentleman who so bravely risked his life to save yours."

Her cheeks flushed as she recognized the hero of her adventures during the day, and her voice trembled as she said:

"Pardon my rudeness this morning and accept my thanks for so nobly rescuing me from a watery grave—a debt which I can never repay."

"There is nothing to forgive," I said as I kissed her hand.

After having run aground of congratulations and thanks I retreated with Hugh to the picnic grounds, leaving the rest of the party to follow at their leisure. The remainder of the day passed pleasantly to all. I was made happy by Miss Wilford's agreeable society, but at last the delightful day came to a close, as all delightful days must.

As I parted with my new found friends I received a cordial invitation to visit them at their residence, an invitation I was not slow in accepting and improving.

Need I tell you how, after graduating, I studied law with the judge and moon while studying a far more interesting page with his lovely daughter.—New York News

Sleep

Induced by the use of coca, opiate or narcotic compounds is bad, decidedly bad. It undermines the health and shatters the constitution and the patient is steadily growing into a worse condition—often resulting in the terrible slavery and misery of the cocaine and opium habit. DELICACIES FOR CHRISTMAS.

This is just the season of the year when the enjoyment of a meal and the consequent providing for the larder is not sacrificed to Christmas foibles. A man may be perfectly willing to play Santa Claus for a half dozen families, but his wife must be considerate of his wants for the inner man.

For table delicacies there is no store in Honolulu carrying the same elegant stock as we have. Nor do we believe the average dealer is as careful in the selection of his goods as ourselves.

If you wish for the ordinary meal or one in which a dozen different courses are to be served the necessary articles may be obtained from us.

If you have any doubt about it we can dispel it if you will call and look over the stock.

ANNEXATION CORPS WILL HAVE THE ARMOY TONIGHT.

C and D Relinquish Rights—Drill of A—Court of Inquiry—Last Witness Heard at 12:30 A. M.

The Drill Shed this evening will be occupied by the big mass meeting of the Annexation Club. In consequence all matters military will be side-tracked. Companies C and D will hold no meetings.

Company A had a turnout of thirty-two men last night for drill. Capt. Smith being engaged on the Court of Inquiry, Lieuts. Fetter and Klemme had charge.

Company D will hold an important business meeting and drill on Monday evening.

The Court of Inquiry appointed on the protest of Company B against Saturday's shoot for the Marlin trophy, met at headquarters last night. Col. Fisher, Capt. Smith, Capt. Schaefer and Lieut. Kenake were present. The first acted as chairman and the latter officiated as secretary.

The proceedings were carried out after the manner of a military court. Ten members of B, four of D, the captain of G, members of E and F and Capt. Zeigler, range officer during the shoot, were present and examined one by one. The hearing was private.

Sergt. Tracy, captain of the B team, was the first witness called. He was subjected to a rigid examination, lasting over an hour. After him the rest of the B men were called, and then the members of the D team. The testimony of all agreed in the main. Capt. Zeigler and his witnesses put up a strong defense.

The last witness was discharged at 12:30 and a half hour later an opinion was drafted and adopted by the court. This was turned over to Capt. Schaefer and reached Col. McLean this morning.

LEILANI

A committee consisting of Messrs. James Holt, Hagens and Kawannauka, was chosen at a meeting of the Leilani Boat Club Wednesday to confer with Minister of the Interior King, relative to securing a site for a boat house. The committee will make its report at the next meeting, when definite action will be taken on the matter. The meeting Wednesday was held in the basement of the Hawaiian hotel.

MISSIONARIES.

Visit Honolulu Going to or Coming from the Orient.

Nearly every steamer from China or Japan is bringing back missionaries to the States, while those from the States have among their passenger lists young men and women, who are bound for the Orient to devote their lives to missionary work.

Whenever these missionaries, either going or coming, come via Honolulu it is always a great delight for the residents interested in this work to show them about the city and to acquaint them, for their own information, with the work that is being done here. The steamer China brought a number of missionaries who are returning to the States, here yesterday morning. Among these were Mrs. Henson and Miss Smith, who have been laboring in Burmah for a number of years. They were shown about the city by Mr. Frank Damon.

THINK IT OVER.

Have you ever heard of a medicine with such a record of cures as Hood's Sarsaparilla? Don't you know that Hood's Sarsaparilla, the one True Blood Purifier, has proved, over and over again, that it has power to cure, even after all other remedies fail? If you have impure blood you may take Hood's Sarsaparilla with the utmost confidence that it will do you good.

AT THE PLAY.

"The Great Unknown" is not by long odds so good a comedy as "His Wife's Father," for instance. There are not above two or three really good situations in the three acts, but the Frawleys last evening made the most of all there was from beginning to end. Mr. Arbuckle was missed from the cast. Mr. Frawley did neat and finished acting as a pleasant young Irish gentleman. Mr. Clarke was breezy and comical as ever when there was an opportunity. As a crushed husband with several cargoes of pillika on hand he gave the impression of a very woe-begone individual. Miss Madge Carr Cooke was excellent indeed as the woman whose desires to soar in the realm of literature caused all the trouble. Miss McAllister was one of the favorites of the evening. She had a better part in "The Great Unknown" than in most of the other plays and her ability is of a high order. Mr. Worthing was not quite so lively as the rest, but the part did not seem to require it. Miss Rowan seemed better than usual in this play and Mr. Leslie was up to his standard in what he had to do. The honors of the evening easily fell to Miss Bates and Miss Ross, the neglected daughters of "The Great Unknown." When it came to the fun making in the third act they made the pace and fast and furious. It was surprising, but was delightful to see the stately Miss Bates as a forward miss and Miss Ross as the reckless young sister. The audience liked it thoroughly. It was jolly and clever.

The matinee play tomorrow will be "All the Comforts of a Home" and in the evening will be given "Nancy & Co."

The honored guest who makes a call should welcome him sincere, and likewise if he drinks at all—a glass of "Rainier" Beer. On tap or in bottles at the Criterion Saloon.

No, we are not. You would not believe us if we told you we were. We endeavor to make a profit on everything we sell. The profit is small, of course, but still a profit. Hawaiian Electric Company.

The cleanest, brightest and really in the long run, the cheapest and best light for use in the family residence, is the incandescent electric light. Safe; nothing could be safer. A few days ago a prominent gentleman of Honolulu came rushing down to the office of the Electric Company and said: "Give me figures for wiring my house, and I want it done at once; no more lamps for me. Last night a lamp tipped over and it came so near setting fire to the house and burning my children and I take no more risks." This is the sentiment of quite a number in the past few weeks, who have ordered their houses fitted with the perfect light. Just think it over and make up your mind that you want the best and safest light; send for the Hawaiian Electric Company and tell them what you want. We have a complete stock of everything in this line and have just received a lot of the very latest designs in chandeliers.

SAILORS' HOME BOOM

THE SOCIAL WORK IS TO BE TAKEN UP ONCE MORE.

Arrangements for a Literary and Musical Entertainment—Best Talent—First Affair in the New Home.

Efforts are being made by those who are interested in having the Sailors' Home flourish to induce as many seamen in port as possible, to attend the musical and literary entertainment at the Home tomorrow evening. An excellent musical program, consisting of both vocal and instrumental selections, has been prepared. There will also be a number of recitations. The best talent in the city has been enlisted for the occasion and the success of the affair is assured.

Since the old Sailors' Home burned down in the big conflagration in the latter '80s, it has been difficult work for the management. The handsome new brick structure near the foot of Alakea street, was erected under adverse circumstances and has been occupied for nearly three years.

During this period the philanthropic work among the seamen who visit Honolulu on their voyages over the seas, has not been so extended as during the life of the original Sailors' Home building. There has been a break in the social line of the work and a general lack of interest in the objects and purposes of the home has been the case with a great many people who were once active in giving the seamen a helping hand.

It is now the purpose of the present management to revive this interest and the campaign will have an auspicious beginning at tomorrow night's entertainment. This will be the initial social in the new home.

The Sailors' Home was founded in 1854 by a number of missionaries, of which Rev. Samuel C. Damon, father of Minister of Finance Damon and Mr. Frank Damon, was at the head. During the earlier days of the home there were periods when there were hundreds of sailors in Honolulu at a time. It has already accomplished a great work and will continue to do so. The present aim is to make the home the chief center of interest for all seamen who may come to Honolulu.

WHEN FRAWLEYS FAREWELL.

Arrangements to Bid Big Aloha to the Popular Players.

The members of the Frawley company are to be given a farewell reception next week before they leave for San Francisco. Manager Lucas of the Hawaiian hotel will serve a special dinner in their honor on Wednesday evening, to be followed by a dance in the parlors and on the open lanai. The Sextette club will provide music for the supper and dance. The hotel will be beautifully decorated and illuminated for the occasion.

The Government band will give the members a farewell serenade when they go aboard the Mariposa. That the Frawleys will have a warm spot in their hearts for Honolulu friends is certain.

HOW TO PREVENT PNEUMONIA.

At this time of the year a cold is very easily contracted, and if left to run its course without the aid of some reliable cough medicine is liable to result in that dread disease, pneumonia. We know of no better remedy to cure a cough or cold than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. We have used it quite extensively and it has always given satisfaction.—Olajah, Ind. Ter. Chief. This is the only remedy that is known to be a certain preventive of pneumonia. Among the many thousands who have used it for cold and la grippe, we have never yet learned of a single case having resulted in pneumonia. Persons who have weak lungs or who have reason to fear an attack of pneumonia, should keep the remedy at hand. For sale by all druggists and dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., wholesale agents for H. I.

MESSRS. W. G. IRWIN & Co., LTD.

GENTLEMEN:—In reply to your inquiry as to how the Ideal Roof Paint you sold me lasted; I would say that I painted the roof of my house 12 months ago with your Red Ideal Roof Paint, and I find it is as fresh and bright in appearance today as when first applied; looking as well as others lately painted with other paints. I am more than satisfied.

J. G. ROTHWELL.

Have you a leaky gutter? If you have, make it perfectly clean and dry, apply a good coat of No. 3 P. and B. Paint over the leaky spots; then take a piece of stout Manila paper, or a piece of common cotton cloth, paint it well on both sides; lay it over the first coat, giving the whole a final coat, and there will be no more leak there. Or if the whole gutter is bad, make it clean and dry, and apply a paste of P. & B. Paint and Portland Cement.

Santa Claus is extremely fond of receiving letters from the little ones. He generally offers a valuable prize of some kind to well behaved children and this year he has notified Wall, Nichols Co., who are to act as his agents here, to offer in his name a beautiful French doll to the Honolulu girl or boy who writes him the most original letter. Any little one under ten years of age may compete for the doll, which is sure to be highly prized by the lucky recipient. Now, girls, this is your opportunity. Brush the cobwebs and dust of puzzling questions out of your minds and write the old gentleman a nice letter; something different from anything you have ever written before. You may ask your papas and manmas how to spell the words but the thoughts and good wishes should be all your own. On honor, now.

Letters may be mailed in the letter box at Wall, Nichols Co's. store between 9 O'CLOCK NEXT SATURDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 28TH, AND 12 O'CLOCK NOON OF DECEMBER 24TH, the day before Christmas.

The doll will be on exhibition in one of their large show windows during the above period. The judges of the merits of the letters received will be decided upon by representatives of the press of Honolulu.
